BRUCE DAL CANTON PITCHING AWARD

Bruce Dal Canton was a charter member of the Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995 and spent over 30 seasons in professional baseball as both a player and coach. A native of Pittsburgh, he made his major league debut in 1967 with the Pittsburgh Pirates before retiring in 1977. He appeared in more than 300 games during his career while playing with four organizations: Pittsburgh Pirates, Kansas City Royals, Atlanta Braves and Chicago White Sox.

Following his playing career, Dal Canton worked with the Atlanta Braves as both a minor league and major league pitching coach. While with the Braves, he coached more than 30 future major leaguers, including National Baseball Hall of Fame inductees John Smoltz and Tom Glavine. Dal Canton spent the last 10 seasons of his career as a pitching coach with the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, the former Advanced A-affiliate of the Braves.

Dal Canton passed away in 2008 from esophageal cancer. To honor his memory, the Vulcans annually recognize a pitcher who truly exemplifies greatness of character.
