PRESEASON Q&A WITH COACH MINTER

Question: Coach, what do you like best about this year's team?

Minter: The desire. This team has desire to want to be great. It's not okay just to show up and say I'm on the football team. Now they want to be great every day, and they love the process. Ninety-eight percent of what we do in life and especially sports is boring, it's not fun, nobody's watching. SportsCenter isn't here, it isn't going to be here, so you've got to learn to love that part. The desire they have to want to be good.

Question: For the last two seasons, Campbell has ranked among the nation's best defenses? How does this year's unit stack up against those?

Minter: Two years ago, having a top-five defense in the country, we had two guys on that unit that went to an NFL camp, so we had a lot of great talent. Up front, our defensive line was really good, and everybody else was just solid football players. This year, we are really good from the back end to the front end. When you look at a dominant defense, you have a defensive line that can really, really play, and you have a middle linebacker (Jack Ryan) that's really good that lines everybody up. He's the quarterback of the defense and can make a lot of plays. From a secondary standpoint, we have two corners that can lock up on anybody in Dante Simmons and Darion Slade. That gives you the ability as a defensive coordinator to do a lot of things because you don't have to worry about using a safety to help. Then you have a safety like Carlos Merritt in the middle of the defense that changes the game by knocking people out, making big plays on the football and being that leader who controls everything on the back end. I really believe this defense is better than the one I had two years ago from top to bottom.

Question: You are working with a new offensive coordinator in David Marsh. What has he brought to your staff and program? Without giving away any trade secrets, what may Campbell fans look forward to seeing when the Camels have the ball this year?

Minter: What I love most is Coach Marsh's ability to attack the whole football field – vertically, horizontally and with the run game – and do it really, really fast.

Question: In De'Shawn Jones and Jared Joyner, you not only lost two all-conference running backs to graduation, but 68% of the yardage gained over the last two seasons. Tell us about the candidates to fill that role.

Minter: Running back is one place we are hurting a little bit. We're not going to have one player replace a De'Shawn Jones or Jared Joyner, but are going to have to do it by committee with Darius Barnes, Montel Goods and others.

Question: You have what many believe to be the top wideout in the league in junior Aaron Blockmon. What does he mean to your offensive attack?

Minter: Aaron Blockmon is a dynamic football player and hands-down the best receiver in the league. He gives defensive coordinators fits. First of all, his physical attributes. This man (runs) a 4.3 (40-yard dash). Not too many people in the world can run a 4.3. Not only that, he's big and strong at 205 pounds. You just can't get up and press him because he's able to run through your arm check and catch the ball in traffic. When you add those elements together, it makes it very, very difficult for a defender to defend him, not knowing where he's going. He has the ability to go inside, to run short, and to go by them. All these things open up a lot of lanes for him. When I can run fast, most DBs are going to back up, and now I can do all my underneath stuff. He's got great hands. You've got a lot of people who can run fast, but can't catch. You've got a lot of people who can catch, but can't run fast. That combination when you put both together, you've got All-American greatness.

Question: You have two quarterbacks who divided starts last year in Anthony Robbins and Elijah Burress. How are these two different and what are some of their strengths?

Minter: Anthony is going to be our starting quarterback. He came on strong last year and is particularly good in this offense. Elijah is a guy who can run and we'll use him in some of our packages, but he can throw the ball as well, so a team won't be able to play just run against him in a wildcat formation.

Question: Three of your starters along last year's offensive line graduated. What are the keys to that unit continuing to be one of the best in the PFL?

Minter: The key is these guys do it as a unit, that's the thing I like about them. Everybody on the team respects them. They are unified. When we voted for captains and our unity council, all five of our starting offensive linemen received votes. That shows how much their teammates think of them.

Question: How are your special teams shaping up?

Minter: I'm the special teams coordinator, so we'd better be good (laughs)! We are going to put our best people on the football field in special teams situations. Jaquan Brooks is a dynamic player on punt returns and kick-off returns, and Trey Sanders came along last year and is a threat on kick returns.

Question: Preview the 2017 schedule for us. There's a new team in Georgetown in the mix, plus a return trip to future Big South rival Presbyterian.

Minter: Our schedule challenges us in a great way. We open with a Division III team in Methodist, which will be exciting to get in front of our fans and a big crowd for the first time. Then we play a scholarship team in Georgetown, which will prepare us for the PFL schedule. Georgetown is like San Diego and Dayton and if they were in the PFL, they'd be right up there at the top of the league.

We know what Presbyterian is about. We've played them the last two years and they are a preview of what the Big South schedule is going to be like when we move there next year.

After last year's game against San Diego, I told our guys that San Diego is the team you want to look like. They are disciplined and execute at a high level. Dayton is right there behind San Diego. They've had very close games. Then you can almost take the rest of the league, throw their names in a bag, shake it up, and pull out a name on a weekly basis, because we're so close, that it's going to come down to execution and who makes the plays and limits mistakes.

Question: Last year, Campbell fans set a new Barker-Lane attendance record and the Camels averaged better than a sellout at home. What does this kind of support mean to you and your program?

Minter: It means so much to our team. When you go out and see those stands full it shows the excitement that people have for our program, regardless of the team's record. It's the best atmosphere in the PFL by far, and even gets our opponents excited when they come in here because none of them have what we have here at Barker-Lane Stadium.

Question: This is the final season of Pioneer Football League for Campbell University. Tell us about your goals for this year and the track of the program as it moves into the Big South Conference one year from now.

Minter: Every year since I've been here, the winning percentage has gone up. Last year we finished 5-and-5, so the go this year – and every year – our goal is to be better than the year before.

Question: What are the keys to finishing higher in the PFL standings?

Minter: The last five minutes of the game. The league is so balanced that it's going to come down to how you execute in the last five minutes – getting that stop, making that play on special teams, not committing turnovers or penalties. Finishing the game.

2017 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Campbell heads into its 10th season on the gridiron in 2017 (modern era), bringing football back to the Creek in 2008 after a 58 year hiatus.

2017 will also mark the program's final season as a member of the Pioneer Football League before heading to the Big South in 2018.

The Camels return 44 letterwinners, including 11 starters (six offense, five defense), from their 2016 squad that went 5-5 overall and 3-4 in PFL play, notching the program's second season at .500 or better in the modern era.

Campbell kicks off its 2017 schedule on August 31, hosting Methodist at Barker-Lane Stadium.

CAMPBELL TO JOIN BIG SOUTH IN 2018

Campbell University will join the Big South Conference as a football member effective the 2018 season. Campbell President J. Bradley Creed made the announcement Monday, Nov. 14, at Gore Arena upon the recommendation of the Board of Trustees.

The University's Board of Trustees unanimously approved the motion for Campbell, already a Big South affiliate in 18 other sports. The Camels will be immediately eligible to compete for the Big South Championship beginning in the fall of 2018.

Current Big South Conference football membership includes core members Charleston Southern University (Charleston, S.C.), Gardner-Webb University (Boiling Springs, N.C.), Liberty University (Lynchburg, Va.) and Presbyterian College (Clinton, S.C.), plus associate football-only institutions Kennesaw State University (Kennesaw, Ga.) and Monmouth University (West Long Branch, N.J.). North Alabama (Florence, Ala.) will join the league as an associate member in 2019.

The Camels have made their home in the PFL since rebooting their football program in 2008 after a 58 year hiatus from the sport.

CAMELS PICKED FIFTH IN PFL PRESEASON POLL

Campbell has been voted fifth in the 2017 Pioneer Football League Preseason Coaches' Poll, announced Monday by the conference.

The Camels, who were also picked fifth in the 2016 poll, tied with Jacksonville in a narrow vote. Campbell and JU (62 points), along with Marist (3rd, 69 points) and Drake (4th, 67 points) were separated by just seven points in the polling.

San Diego was predicted to win the league for the seventh consecutive year, picking up nine of the 11 available first place votes. The Toreros won the 2016 regular season title and advanced to the second round of the FCS Championship.

Dayton notched the two remaining first place votes. Butler (49), Morehead State (42), Stetson (29), Valparaiso (24) and Davidson (10) rounded out the poll.

BLOCKMON NAMED PRESEASON ALL-PFL

A year after leading the conference in receiving yards, Campbell's Aaron Blockmon has been named to the 2017 Preseason All-Pioneer Football League team.

The redshirt junior was named First Team All-PFL in 2016, becoming the Camels' first 1,000 yard receiver with a league leading 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns, both Campbell records. Blockmon surpassed the 100 receiving yards mark six times on the season, hauling in a touchdown in each of his final five games.

The Sanford, N.C. native is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15) after just two seasons on the field.

See the full 2017 Preseason All-PFL team at Pioneer-Football.org.

CU SETS ATTENDANCE RECORDS IN 2016

It was a record breaking season at Barker-Lane Stadium, with Campbell setting multiple attendance records. The Camels averaged 5,523 fans per game, more than Barker-Lane Stadium's 5,500 seat capacity, far surpassing its previous record high of 4,928, set in 2014. CU also set a total attendance mark with 33,138 fans through the gates, breaking the 2014 mark of 29,567.

Barker-Lane Stadium's top two attendances in its nine year history came in 2016, including a record 6,673 on Oct. 22 against Stetson. 6,610 witnessed Campbell's overtime win over Butler on Sept. 24.

Campbell was one of four FCS programs to average a sellout in 2016, averaging 100.42 capacity percentage, joined by Mercer (110.17), Montana State (100.73) and Montana (100.63).

Kurt Odom became Campbell's first and only All-American to date in 2013, collecting Third Team honors from the Sports Network at full-back.

The Campbell defense has finished in the top-20 in total defense in each of the last two seasons. After ranking fifth in total defense in 2015, the Camels stood 17th in 2016, allowing only 322.1 yards per game.

Two Campbell Football alumni have signed with NFL teams since the program was brought back in 2008. Both signed in 2015 when defensive tackle Greg Milhouse joined the New York Giants and long snapper Danny Dillon signed with the Arizona Cardinals.

The Camels have posted five wins in each of the last three seasons, tied for the second most victories in a single season in the program's nine years (record 6 in 2011). CU went 5-5 in 2016, notching the program's second season at .500 or better.

- 10 -

Campbell heads into its 10th season of football in 2017 (modern era). The Camels brought football back to the Creek in 2008 after a 58 year hiatus.

- 18 -

Since 2013, Camels have been named All-PFL 18 times, including four last season. From 2008-12, Camels were named all-conference 14 times. Additionally, CU owns 43 honorable mention All-PFL nods since 2013.

- 68 -

Former All-PFL running backs De'Shawn Jones and Jared Joyner combined for 68 percent of the Camels' running game over the last two seasons. The duo ran for 2,739 yards and 30 touchdowns in 2015 and 2016 (4,042 team rush yards). CU will have to look elsewhere for that production in 2017.

- 1,038 -

Aaron Blockmon hauled in 1,038 yards receiving in 2016, becoming Campbell's first 1,000 yard receiver. The then redshirt sophomore doubled CU's previous single season marks for yards (previous 497, Jabri Ridenhour, 2014) and touchdowns (previous 5, 3 times) with 10 scores. Heading into his third season, Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15).

BLOCKMON RETURNS AS CU'S ALL-TIME LEADING RECEIVER

After just two seasons on the field for the Camels, redshirt junior Aaron Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leading receiver. The Sanford, N.C. native became the Camels' first 1,000 yard receiver in 2016 with a PFL leading 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns, taking home First Team All-PFL honors.

Last season, the then redshirt sophomore doubled CU's previous single season marks for yards (previous 497, Jabri Ridenhour, 2014) and touchdowns (previous 5, 3 times) with 10 scores. Heading into his third season, Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15).

RECENT DEFENSIVE SUCCESS

Campbell's defense has ranked in the top-20 in the nation in each of the last two seasons.

The Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

In 2016, Campbell stood 17th in the country in total defense, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. CU ranked 27th in rush defense (129.0) and 35th in passing yards allowed (193.1). For the fourth time in three years, a member of the CU defensive line was named First Team All-PFL (Syd Holt). Camels look to replenish backfield

Former Campbell standouts De'Shawn Jones and Jared Joyner completed their collegiate careers in 2016. The pair combined for 68 percent of the Camels' running game over the last two seasons, running for 2,739 yards and 30 touchdowns in 2015 and 2016 (4,042 team rush yards) combined.

Jones led the conference in rushing, becoming Campbell's first 1,000 back, and was named First Team All-PFL in 2015, adding 641 yards on the ground in 2016 before being sidelined due to injury. Joyner was named Second Team All-PFL in 2016, logging 741 yards and eight touchdowns.

CU will have to look elsewhere for that production in 2017, likely turning to a newcomer to shoulder the load in Rocky Reid, a Wake Forest transfer. Campbell's top returning rushing threat is sophomore Darius Barnes, who ran for 90 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries in three games before an injury cut his freshman season short. Redshirt sophomores Joshua Jones and Kahlil Dixon, as well as redshirt freshmen Sammie Cunningham and Montel Goods will also enter the mix.

DAVID MARSH NAMED OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

David Marsh, a key member of the offensive coaching staffs at Texas A&M and UCLA for the past four seasons, has been named offensive coordinator. Marsh comes to Campbell after spending the 2016 season as an assistant at Texas A&M under head coach Kevin Sumlin and offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

The Aggies ranked second in the SEC in total yards (6,071) and third in points per game (34.9), while wide receiver Josh Reynolds led the SEC in receiving yards (1,039). Texas A&M went 8-5 overall, falling to Kansas State 33-28 in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to his time in College Station, Marsh was a member of Mazzone's offensive staff at UCLA, coaching inside receivers with the Bruins from 2013-16, also coaching the offensive line in the spring of 2015. With Marsh's help, UCLA ranked 23rd nationally in total offense in 2014 (467.8), also standing 34th in rushing yards (209.5), paced by the PAC-12's leading rusher, Paul Perkins.

From 2008-12, Marsh coached at the prep ranks, helping guide Saguaro High School in Scottsdale, Ariz. to the 2011 Arizona State Championship. Marsh was a member of the United States Marine Corps from 2003-08.

PREVIEWING THE CAMELS' 2017 SCHEDULE

Six games at Barker-Lane Stadium, including a Thursday night home season opener for the fourth straight season, highlight Campbell's 2017 football schedule.

The Camels' Thursday night season opener will be their fifth in six seasons, hosting Methodist on August 31. The Camels and Monarchs will be meeting for the first time since 2009.

Campbell will host Georgetown nine days later (September 9) before heading to future Big South rival Presbyterian in its only road nonconference game on September 16. The Hoyas will make the trip from Washington, D.C., meeting the Camels on the gridiron for the first time. Campbell will be taking on PC for the third straight season.

Campbell heads into its 10th and final Pioneer Football League schedule on September 23, traveling to Stetson. Campbell moves to the Big South Conference in 2018.

RISEING

The Camels will host Morehead State in their PFL home opener on September 30, then welcome Valparaiso on October 7.

Three of the team's next four games will come on the road, starting with a trip to Dayton on October 14. From there, CU heads to Butler on October 21.

Campbell will host Jacksonville on October 28, then close out its road slate at in-state foe Davidson on November 4. CU will close out its 10th season at Barker-Lane Stadium, hosting Drake on November 11.

FORMER CAMEL MILHOUSE SIGNS WITH SEAHAWKS

Former Campbell standout Greg Milhouse, Jr. has signed with the Seattle Seahawks.

Seattle is the second NFL stop for the former Campbell defensive tackle (2014-15), initially signing with the New York Giants in 2016 as an undrafted free agent. Milhouse played with the Giants through the NFL preseason, eventually signing with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League to close the year. Milhouse also opened the 2017 season with the Roughriders.

Milhouse, along with long snapper Danny Dillon, became the first Camels to sign contracts with a NFL franchise in 2016.

The Garner, N.C. native was a two-time All-PFL defensive lineman, including a First Team selection in 2015. He recorded 49 total tackles with 12.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks this season, posting at least one tackle for loss in 10 of 11 games.

Milhouse was a participant in the 2016 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl in Carson, Calif. and ranks among Campbell's career top-10 in sacks and tackles for loss after just two seasons, transferring from Appalachian State.

The defensive tackle helped the Camels rank fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

CAMELS ANNOUNCE FIRST SCHOLARSHIP RECRUITING CLASS

Campbell announced its 2017 football signing class on Feb. 1, 2017, its first scholarship signing class since announcing the program's move to the Big South in 2018.

The 32-man group (20 scholarship) comes from five different states, including North Carolina (20), Florida (3), Virginia (3), Georgia (2), South Carolina (2), Alabama (1) and New Jersey (1).

The class is made up of 10 offensive linemen, eight defensive linemen, six defensive backs, three linebackers, two wide receivers, a quarterback, a long snapper and one athlete. View the entire signing class at GoCamels.com.

MIKE MINTER

HEAD COACH • 5TH YEAR
NEBRASKA '97

Former Carolina Panthers standout and Nebraska Football Hall of Famer Mike Minter heads into his fifth season as head football coach at Campbell University in 2017.

In Minter's fourth season at the helm, Campbell went 5-5 on the year, notching the program's second season at .500 or better in its nine year history, and ranked third in the PFL in rushing offense, standing 19th nationally at 209 yards per game, as well as 17th in the country in total defense (322.1 yards per game). Sophomore wide receiver Aaron Blockmon also led the PFL in receiving yards (1,038) and touchdowns (10), headlining a group of 11 Camels that earned all-conference accolades.

The Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

16 Camels were honored on the conference's All-PFL teams following the 2015 season, with junior running back De'Shawn Jones, redshirt senior defensive lineman Ugonna Awuruonye and senior defensive lineman Greg Milhouse Jr. all receiving First Team All-PFL accolades.

The PFL 2015 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year went to Campbell's Jack Ryan. Four Camels were also named to the 2015 Academic All-PFL teams.

The offseason saw another Campbell first, with defensive tackle Greg Milhouse Jr. (New York Giants) and long snapper Danny Dillon (Arizona Cardinals) both signing NFL contracts.

2014 saw the Camels notch their second-most total and conference wins at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in PFL play. A school record seven Camels, plus eight honorable mentions, were named to the 2014 All-Pioneer Football League teams, including four first teamers. Eight CU student-athletes, with six first team members, were tabbed PFL All-Academic.

In Minter's first season as head coach at CU, the Camels set 21 offensive team records, including rushing yards (2,800), passing yards (2,436), and total offense (5,236). The Camels also established four defensive marks, including sacks (27), and posted three team records on special teams.

Senior Kurt Odom became Campbell's first football All-America selection, earning Third Team honors from the Sports Network. Odom was also named First Team All-PFL while seven Camels took home honorable mention nods.

In May 2014, CU quarterback Brian Hudson signed a contract with the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders.

The quarterback from Stafford, Va. played his lone season at Campbell in 2013 after transferring from Liberty. Hudson set Campbell single-season records for rushing yards, rushing attempts, pass completions, passing yards, passing touchdowns, passing yards per game, total offense and all-purpose yards, earning Honorable Mention All-PFL accolades.

Minter picked up his first win as a collegiate head coach in his home debut as the Camels cruised to a 56-21 triumph over UVA-Wise.

2013	Campbell	3-9	2-6
2014	Campbell	5-7	4-4
2015	Campbell	5-6	3-5
2016	Campbell	5-5	3-4
Career Total		18-27	12-19

Minter, a member of two national championship teams at Nebraska and the Panthers' 2003 Super Bowl squad, joined the Fighting Camel program after serving as assistant coach at Liberty University in 2012 and Johnson C. Smith University in 2011. He also brought head coaching experience from First Assembly Christian School in Concord, where he guided his teams to 33 victories and two state titles in three seasons.

During his 10-year NFL career, Minter earned a starting safety role six games into his rookie year in 1997, and held that position until he retired after the 2006 season. A second-round draft choice, he helped lead the Panthers to three playoff trips, the 2003 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

In the Super Bowl against the New England Patriots, Minter suffered a broken left foot in the third quarter, but remained in the game and collected a career-high 18 tackles. At the time of his retirement, he held Panthers franchise records for starts (141), consecutive starts (94), fumble recoveries (11) and interceptions returned for touchdowns (4).

At Liberty, Minter worked as special teams coordinator/assistant defensive coach under head coach Turner Gill. He mentored three 2012 Big South all-conference performers in long snapper Richard Wright, place kicker John Lunsford and punter Grant Bowden.

Liberty finished the regular season ranked No. 4 in the country in kickoff return yardage defense, allowing only 14.04 yards per return. The Flames also finished 38th nationally in kickoff returns (21.3 yards).

In addition to his on-field coaching responsibilities at Liberty, Minter was involved in many aspects of the Flames operation. He helped run the scout team in practice, served as liaison with the athletic training and weight room staffs, and reviewed team members' academic achievement weekly with the Associate A.D. for Academic Affairs.

His primary recruiting territories focused on North Carolina, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado.

During his time at Johnson C. Smith, Minter helped the Golden Bulls dramatically improve in many phases of the game. Under his guidance as assistant head coach, defensive passing game coordinator and special teams coordinator, JCSU ranked fifth in the nation in punt return yardage in 2011.

The Golden Bulls also finished the season with 24 turnovers caused (which tripled the previous year's total) and won Pioneer Bowl XIII 35-33 over Miles College for the program's first-ever bowl victory.

Minter was a two-time national champion at Nebraska (1994 and 1995) where he played linebacker, free safety and strong safety for the Cornhuskers. He was a three-time all-conference performer and was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2006. He graduated in 1997 with a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering.

Born Jan. 15, 1974, in Cleveland, Ohio, Minter led the State of Oklahoma in rushing yards (1,589) as a senior at Lawton High School in 1991. He was an all-state performer, National Honor Society member and also averaged 21 points per game on the Lawton basketball team.

In addition to playing and coaching football, Minter is CEO of Minter Enterprises, a multi-faceted business impacting real estate development, general contracting and construction, business consultation, publishing, public speaking engagements and a non-profit organization focused on youth development.

Minter and his wife Kim have four children – Michael Jr., Isaiah, McKenna and Brianna.

CRAIG
COX

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • 5TH YEAR
LIVINGSTONE '12

Craig Cox begins his fifth season at Campbell as the Fighting Camels' defensive coordinator, and second as assistant head coach.

Cox was named assistant head coach following the 2015 season that saw his defense ranked fifth in the nation, yielding just 279.3 yards per game. Among FCS programs, Campbell also stood third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

Seven members of Cox's defense were named All-PFL in 2015, including linemen Greg Milhouse and Ugonna Awuruonye, who garnered First Team honors.

Linebacker Jake Barr was named second team all-conference, while Chris Beaty (DB), Rogers Clark (DL), Brandon Mobley (DB) and Jack Ryan (LB) all picked up honorable mentions. Ryan was also named the PFL Defensive Freshman of the Year.

Following the season, Milhouse, along with long snapper Danny Dillon, became the first Camels to sign with NFL franchises. Milhouse inked a contract with the New York Giants, while Dillon signed with the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2016, Campbell picked up its second straight top-20 defensive ranking, standing 17th in the country in total defense, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. CU ranked 27th in rush defense (129.0) and 35th in passing yards allowed (193.1). For the fourth time in three years, a member of the CU defensive line was named First Team All-PFL (Syd Holt).

Cox, creator of the 3-Digit Defense, brings two decades of coaching experience to the CU program, including nine seasons as a defensive coordinator and two as a head coach.

In 2014, the Campbell defense set program records for interception return touchdowns, interception return yards, pass breakups and quarterback hurries, while improving the Camels' production in total interceptions and tackles.

Defensive end Ugonna Awuruonye was named First Team All-PFL, while Greg Milhouse (defensive line) and Andrew Yost (linebacker) were both named to the league's second team.

Four more Camels on the defensive side received honorable mention nods, including senior linebacker Luke Hill, senior cornerback Isaiah Howard, junior defensive back Brandon Mobley and redshirt senior defensive lineman Isaac Scott.

Awuruonye tied the CU single season sacks record at 7.5 and recorded double digit tackles for loss for the second year in a row, while Yost came just three tackles from the single season stops mark.

Yost was also named Second Team Academic All-PFL, while Lucas Smith earned first team honors, in addition to CoSIDA Academic All-District and FCS Athletic Directors Association Academic All-Star Team accolades.

In his first season as defensive coordinator at Campbell, Cox guided the Camel defense to improvements in total offense, points per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game. Those strides included improvements of 62.3 yards of total offense and 54.7 yards rushing fewer per game.

Prior to Campbell, he spent four seasons on staff at Johnson C. Smith

University, where he served as the Golden Bulls' defensive coordinator and associate head coach from 2011-12.

After taking over as coordinator, Cox helped Johnson C. Smith collect back to back winning season for the first time in forty years, while securing the school's first postseason victory in the 2011 Pioneer Bowl.

Under Cox, the Golden Bulls improved an average of 63 spots in the NCAA Division II rankings, marking the second biggest improvement in all of Division II.

Prior to his role as defensive coordinator, Cox served as Johnson C. Smith's defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 2009-10.

From December 2005 until 2008, Cox worked as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Division II Virginia Union in Richmond, Va. for two seasons, piloting a defense that ranked in the nation's top-five in total defense, passing defense and passing efficiency defense. The Panthers also ranked second in the country in red zone defense.

Cox also served as VUU's recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach from 2005-07.

As recruiting coordinator, he increased the VUU Panthers' roster from 60 student-athletes to over 100 student-athletes without additional athletic scholarship funds. In 2005, Cox joined the Golden Bulls coaching staff as the defensive line coach and assistant recruiting coordinator. He was responsible for generating a defensive playbook, game plans, and scouting reports.

Cox served as the defensive line coach (2001-02) and running backs coach (2003-04), as well as recruiting coordinator at Livingstone College from 2001-05.

He was a head coach and defensive coordinator for the King George Kodiaks, a semi-professional football team in King George, Va., from 1998-2000. Cox took over an organization that had only won two games in two years and produced back-to-back 6-4 records and two playoff berths. During his time as defensive coordinator, the Kodiaks only allowed an average of 170 total yards per game over two years.

In 1990 and 1994, Cox was an assistant coach at Culpeper County High School in Culpeper, Va. Cox has attended training at the Washington Redskins and Carolina Panthers camps (Sports International). He has also been a member of the North Carolina Football Coaches Association.

Cox earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Livingstone College and has three children Jessica, Craig Jr. and Jada, with his wife, Sandy.

DAVID
MARSH*OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
1ST YEAR • GRAND CANYON '10

David Marsh, a key member of the offensive coaching staffs at Texas A&M and UCLA for the past four seasons, was named Campbell's offensive coordinator in January 2017.

Marsh comes to Campbell after spending the 2016 season as an assistant at Texas A&M under head coach Kevin Sumlin and offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

"There were three things I was looking for with this position," said Minter. "I wanted someone who could lead a group, so leadership was very important. I also was looking for someone who was detailed and disciplined. Lastly, I wanted someone who understood a system, inside and out, with an up-tempo offense that gets multiple players involved in the game and creates matchups. Dave had all of those qualities. He has been successful at every level of his coaching career. He is a leader and a teacher who has been at big time programs and has been in big moments, and we're looking forward to getting started."

"I'm very blessed to be here with Coach Minter and this staff," said Marsh. "The staff, as well as the Campbell community, has opened their arms to me, and I'm very excited to get started and hit the ground running. There is a lot of young talent here, not only on the team, but also this coaching staff, and I'm looking forward to working with these guys and putting the best possible product on the field."

The Aggies ranked second in the SEC in total yards (6,071) and third in points per game (34.9), while wide receiver Josh Reynolds led the SEC in receiving yards (1,039). Texas A&M went 8-5 overall, falling to Kansas State 33-28 in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to his time in College Station, Marsh was a member of Mazzone's offensive staff at UCLA, coaching inside receivers with the Bruins from 2013-16, also coaching the offensive line in the spring of 2015. With Marsh's help, UCLA ranked 23rd nationally in total offense in 2014 (467.8), also standing 34th in rushing yards (209.5), paced by the PAC-12's leading rusher, Paul Perkins.

With UCLA, Marsh coached NFL Draft picks Thomas Duarte (Miami Dolphins) and Shaq Evans (New York Jets), as well as free agent signee Devin Fuller (Atlanta Falcons), guiding Bruins to all-conference honors five times.

Marsh spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons at Saguaro High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., serving as passing game coordinator while coaching quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2011, then taking offensive coordinator duties in 2012. The Sabercats won the 2011 Arizona State Championship, and ranked No. 1 in the state in total offense in 2012 (521.3). He coached 2015 Texas A&M Freshman All-American Christian Kirk to two MaxPreps All-American seasons, as well as 2011 Arizona Player of the Year D.J. Foster, who went on to play collegiately at Arizona State, signing with the New England Patriots as a priority free agent in 2016.

Marsh began his coaching career at Mesquite High School in Gilbert, Ariz. under head coach Mike Reardon in 2008, where he spent three seasons. With the help of Marsh, Mesquite hosted the school's first playoff game in 2009, again hosting in 2010. He coached the state's leading rusher in 2010, future University of Arizona running back Anthony Lopez, as well as future Northern Arizona University tight end R.J. Rickert, who was an all-state selection and region player of the year in 2010.

Marsh was a member of the United States Marine Corps from 2003-08, serving as a member of the Cherry Point Base Ruby Team in 2006-07, and deploying to Iraq in 2008 as a squad leader.

FREDDIE AUGHTRY-LINDSAY

DEF. RUN GAME COORD. / LINEBACKERS
3RD YEAR • NORTH CAROLINA STATE '06

Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay begins his third season on the Campbell staff, coordinating the Camels' run game defense and coaching linebackers.

Aughtry-Lindsay was named defensive run game coordinator following the 2015 season, where CU ranked fifth in the country in total defense, allowing just 279.3 yards per game. Among FCS programs, Campbell also stood third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

Jack Ryan was named PFL Defensive Freshman of the Year, also picking up honorable mention all-conference accolades along with senior Jake Barr. Senior Andrew Yost was also one of a record five Campbell student-athletes to be named to the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society, as well as Second Team Academic All-PFL.

Aughtry-Lindsay is also the Camels' pro liaison. He organized Campbell's first ever pro day in March 2015, welcoming more than 20 professional scouts to Barker-Lane Stadium.

The Camel defense again ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2016. Campbell stood 17th in the country in total defense, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. CU ranked 27th in rush defense (129.0) and 35th in passing yards allowed (193.1).

Aughtry-Lindsay, who starred at linebacker for one of the nation's top defenses at NC State, came to Campbell from NCAA Division II St. Augustine's, where he was the Falcons' defensive coordinator and special teams coach in 2014.

The Falcons finished third in the CIAA Southern Division, while freshman return specialist Claytin Lewis was placed on the All-CIAA Second Team. Lewis, also the CIAA's Rookie of the Year, was among seven Falcons to be named all-rookie by the conference, including four on the defensive side.

Aughtry-Lindsay was the linebackers coach at Elon during the 2012 and 2013 seasons. In his first season with the Phoenix, Aughtry-Lindsay coached Jonathan Spain to second-team All-Southern Conference honors, and guided John Silas to SoCon all-freshman team accolades in 2013.

Prior to Elon, Aughtry-Lindsay coached linebackers at Slippery Rock (Pa.) in 2011. He spent 2008-10 at his alma mater, NCSU, first as an assistant in the recruiting office in 2008, and as a defensive graduate assistant coach from 2009-10. He also served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Andrews High School in High Point, N.C. in 2007.

Aughtry-Lindsay was a two-year starter at NC State where he was selected as a team captain in 2003 and 2004. In a win against UConn in 2003, Aughtry-Lindsay scored two defensive touchdowns - a 48-yard fumble recovery and a game-winning 56-yard interception return. That performance helped him earn both ACC and national player of the week honors. He amassed a career-best 105 tackles in 2003. In 2004, the Wolfpack boasted the nation's top-ranked defense. Aughtry-Lindsay was honored with the Al Michaels Award during his time with NC State. In his career, he recorded 266 tackles, 22.5 tackles for a loss and 6.5 sacks.

Following his collegiate career, Aughtry-Lindsay played two seasons in the Arena Football League 2 as a linebacker and fullback with the Arkansas Twisters and Laredo Lobos.

Aughtry-Lindsay earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from NC State in 2006.

Originally from High Point, N.C., Aughtry-Lindsay and his wife, Amber, have three sons - Colton, Colin and Colter.

BRYAN BUTTERWORTH

DEF. PASS GAME COORD. / DEFENSIVE BACKS
3RD YEAR • SACRED HEART '06

Bryan Butterworth was named defensive backs coach at Campbell University in the spring of 2015, and added defensive pass game coordinator to his duties prior to the 2016 season.

Butterworth, in his second stint on the Campbell coaching staff, returned to Sacred Heart, his alma mater, during the 2013 and 2014 seasons, helping guide the Pioneers to back to back Northeast Conference championships before coming back to Buies Creek in 2015.

Upon his return to CU, the Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, allowing only 279.3 yards per game. Among FCS programs, Campbell also stood third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

Defensive backs Chris Beaty and Brandon Mobley were also named honorable mention All-PFL.

The Camels again ranked among the nation's best defenses in 2016, standing 17th in the country in total defense, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. CU ranked 27th in rush defense (129.0) and 35th in passing yards allowed (193.1).

Sacred Heart also ranked among the top defenses in FCS during Butterworth's tenure, leading the country in interceptions in 2013 and red zone defense in 2014. Sacred Heart reached the FCS Playoffs in both seasons, earning a No. 25 national ranking.

Butterworth coached AP All-American and All-NEC pick J.D. Roussel during both seasons, also tutoring All-NEC selection Gordon Hill. Roussel and Steven Thomas both received national defensive player of the week honors under Butterworth.

Butterworth previously coached the Campbell defensive backs during the 2012 season, also coordinating the Camels' punt rush, kickoff units, punt return and kick return specialists.

He came to Campbell in the spring of 2012 after spending five seasons at the University of Massachusetts.

He worked with the Minutemen's corners in 2011 in one of the toughest Football Championship Subdivision conferences in the country in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). Butterworth coached the UMass cornerbacks in 2011 in a base 3-4 scheme. He also acted as the defensive sideline caller during the season.

Freshman cornerback Kirkland Nelms was selected to both the CAA and the Sports Network FCS National Rookie of the Week list (9/19/11). The Minutemen ranked sixth in the CAA in total defense (365.5), total defense (208.9) and sixth in interceptions (13) in 2011. The program also placed fifth in pass defense efficiency (124.6).

From 2008-11, Butterworth coached the safeties at UMass and aided the secondary to a 39th national finish in 2010. Two of the safeties he coached during his three years at the position were First Team All-CAA honorees. Butterworth came to UMass in 2007 as a Defensive Graduate Assistant. He worked directly with the program's head coach, Don Brown, to coach a secondary that finished 34th nationally. He also assisted with the four special team units (kickoff, punt, punt return and field goal defense).

As a player, Butterworth played two years at Canisius in Buffalo, N.Y. and two years at Sacred Heart in Fairfield, Conn. At SHU, he was a two-time NEC All-Academic selection and a member of the NCAA Student-Athlete Academic Council. As a receiver he led the Pioneers with 36 catches for 403 yards as a senior in 2005.

Butterworth, a Scituate, Mass. native, graduated Cum Laude from Sacred Heart in 2005 with a degree in business.

RECRUITING COORDINATOR / WIDE RECEIVERS
5TH YEAR • ITHACA '07

Adam Morris enters his fifth year at Campbell, guiding the Camels' wide receivers and serving as recruiting coordinator.

Over his four seasons at Campbell, Morris has guided Campbell receivers to the school's top team single-season totals in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. The team set records for completions (205), receiving yards (2,436) and receiving touchdowns (18).

After just two seasons under Morris, Aaron Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leading receiver. The Sanford, N.C. native became the Camels' first 1,000 yard receiver in 2016 with a PFL leading 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns, taking home First Team All-PFL honors.

In 2016, the then redshirt sophomore doubled CU's previous single season marks for yards (previous 497, Jabri Ridenhour, 2014) and touchdowns (previous 5, 3 times) with 10 scores. Heading into his third season, Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15).

Blockmon was named honorable mention All-PFL in 2015, setting Campbell freshman records for receiving yards (453) and receiving touchdowns (5). Blockmon's 453 receiving yards is the fourth-most by a Camel overall in a single-season, while his five TD catches tied the then CU record.

Following the 2015 season, he was also accepted in the NCAA and NFL Coaches Academy, which provides current, full-time intercollegiate football coaches at NCAA member institutions, some who are former NFL athletes, to expand their knowledge and insight into the world of intercollegiate football coaching.

In 2014, Morris coached All-PFL honorable mention Jabri Ridenhour, who set a Campbell single season record with 497 yards, also becoming the second Camel to reach the 40 reception mark in a year.

Morris' 2014 group racked up the second most receiving yards, receptions, reception touchdowns and receptions per game in Campbell's modern history.

In addition to his second 400-plus yard receiving season, Ben Bolling was named Second Team Academic All-PFL.

In his first season with the Camels, Morris' wide outs helped Campbell set 21 offensive records total, including passing yards (2,436) and total offense (5,236). Bolling set a Campbell single-season receiving yards record with 495 in 2013, also tying the single-season receiving touchdowns mark with five.

For the first time in program history, four Camels hauled in 300 or more yards on the season with Jabri Ridenhour (385), Kurt Odom (370) and Jordan Hildreth (343) joining Bolling.

Morris came to Campbell after spending the 2012 season as an offensive quality control coach at Big South member Liberty along with now CU head coach Mike Minter.

Alongside Minter, Morris helped the Flames win six of its last seven games, finishing the season in a three-way tie for first place with Stony Brook and Coastal Carolina in the conference standings, with each program posting a 5-1 record in Big South play.

Liberty capped off its 2012 home slate with a 28-14 victory over No. 6/8 Stony Brook on Nov. 10, marking the highest ranked opponent the Flames have defeated in program history. 13 Flames went on to earn All-Big South honors.

Morris was one of six former Kansas football staff members to follow Turner Gill to Liberty from Lawrence, Kan.

During his two seasons with the Jayhawks, Morris served the program as quality control coordinator for Kansas' special teams in 2010 and defensive quality control in 2011.

Morris first worked under Gill on staff at Buffalo as special teams and offensive intern for the Bulls in 2009. Additionally, he worked with Buffalo's special teams and assisted with wide receivers on offense.

Prior to his collegiate working experiences, Morris spent one year working as an intern for the NFL's Buffalo Bills. His areas of focus while with the AFC team were training camp operations, pro personnel and coaching/football operations.

Morris got his start in the collegiate ranks at his alma mater, Ithaca, where he served as assistant director of football operations and offensive quality control staff member.

He resides in Fuquay-Varina with his wife, Carson.

DAMIEN ADAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE
5TH YEAR • FAYETTEVILLE STATE '03

Damien Adams enters his fifth season at Campbell, instructing the defensive line.

Adams has coached the CU defensive line into the most vaunted in the Pioneer Football League, helping the Camels pile up 84 sacks and 203 total tackles for loss in just three seasons.

In 2015, Adams' front line helped the CU defense rank fifth in the nation in total defense, holding opponents to just 279.3 yards per game. Among FCS programs, Campbell also stood third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7).

The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

Greg Milhouse and Ugonna Awuruonye both garnered First Team All-PFL accolades, while Rogers Clark was named to the honorable mention list.

Following the season, Milhouse, along with long snapper Danny Dillon, became the first Camels to sign with NFL franchises. Milhouse inked a contract with the New York Giants, while Dillon signed with the Arizona Cardinals.

The Camels again ranked among the nation's top-20 defenses in 2016, standing 17th, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. For the fourth time in three years, a member of the CU defensive line was named First Team All-PFL (Syd Holt).

Both Ugonna Awuruonye and Greg Milhouse were named All-PFL in 2014, with Awuruonye taking first and Milhouse earning second team honors. Isaac Scott was also named an All-PFL honorable mention.

Additionally, Lucas Smith earned First Team Academic All-PFL honors, in addition to CoSIDA Academic All-District and FCS Athletic Directors Association Academic All-Star Team accolades.

Awuruonye tied the CU single season sacks record at 7.5 and recorded double digit tackles for loss for the second year in a row, while Yost came just three tackles from the single season stops mark.

In 2013, his first season at CU, Adams helped the Camel defense to improvements in total offense, points per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game. Those strides included improvements of 62.3 yards of total offense and 54.7 yards rushing fewer per game. The team also set a new record for sacks with 27 on the year.

Awuruonye was also named honorable mention All-PFL.

Awuruonye tallied a school record for most yards from tackles for loss (83) and picked up the second most tackles for loss (14.0) and sacks (7.0) in a single season despite only playing in eight games. The redshirt sophomore led the PFL in tackle for loss and stops by a defensive lineman, while ranking eighth in sacks in conference games.

Adams came to CU after serving in the same capacity at nearby Fayetteville State University, his alma mater, for five seasons.

Under his direction, the FSU defensive line has routinely become one of the top units in the CIAA. During his first season with the Broncos, FSU defensive linemen accounted for 11.5 sacks and the Broncos' defense allowed only 885 yards rushing in 10 games.

In 2011, Adams coached Darius Powell, a second team All-CIAA selection and Jamaal Dixon, an All-Rookie team pick. Adams' unit amassed 21.5 sacks, 43.5 tackles for loss and was a part of a FSU defense that held opponents to 12 points or less five times.

In fact, the Broncos were first in the NCAA's Division II in total sacks in 2009 and ranked fourth in tackles for loss.

A 2003 graduate of FSU, Adams was a captain on FSU's 2002 and 2003 CIAA Championship squads and was named to the All-CIAA team in his final three seasons, 2001-03, at FSU.

Adams received his Bachelor's Degree in Geography and, soon after graduation, became head football coach at Benson Middle School in Benson, N.C. In his three years at the helm, he led Benson to a 14-7 record.

After his stint at Benson, Adams became an assistant coach in charge of the defensive line at South Johnston High School. Adams helped lead South Johnston to a 10-2 record and a Cape Fear Valley Conference Championship.

Adams is married to Teneisha Parker of Tarboro, N.C. and they have two sons, Bryce and Chase.

NICK GRIMES

TIGHT ENDS

1ST YEAR • SAM HOUSTON STATE '09

Nick Grimes joined the Campbell staff in the spring of 2017 as the Camels' tight ends coach.

Grimes moved to Campbell after three seasons at Cincinnati under head coach Tommy Tuberville, guiding the Bearcats' tight end and fullbacks in 2015 and 2016. In 2014, Grimes' first season at Cincinnati, he was a graduate assistant for tight ends and special teams.

During his time at Cincinnati, the Bearcats participated in the 2015 Hawaii Bowl, as well as the 2014 Military Bowl, claiming a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title.

Grimes has a wealth of experience at the prep level in Texas, coaching three seasons at Navasota High School from 2010-12, and at Howe High School in 2013 where he was the offensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator.

After lettering one season as a defensive lineman at Tulsa, Grimes transferred to Sam Houston State, where he lettered three seasons, earning honorable mention All-Southland Conference accolades, also taking a SHSU offensive lineman of the year nod. He was also a team captain.

Grimes graduated from Sam Houston State in 2009 with a degree in kinesiology and a minor in history.

Originally from College Station, Texas, Grimes finished his high school career at J.H. Rose High School in Greenville, N.C. where he was an all-district performer, state championship defensive player of the game and a Shrine Bowl participant.

D.J. SUMMERS

RUNNING BACKS
5TH YEAR • CATAWBA '97

D.J. Summers begins his fifth year at Campbell as the Camels' running backs coach.

Campbell led the PFL in rushing in 2015 with 1,956 yards, led by First Team All-PFL running back De'Shawn Jones. Jones topped the PFL in rushing with 1,072 yards, adding eight touchdowns. He ran for 100-plus yards four times.

Jones finished his career as Campbell's all-time rushing leader (2,632), adding 641 yards and nine touchdowns, despite an injury shortened season. Jared Joyner was a Second Team All-PFL performer in his absence, rushing for 741 yards and eight scores.

In addition to Jones' All-PFL accolades, senior fullback Dalton Dillon was named all-conference for the third time in 2015, earning second team honors. Dillon posted 137 yards rushing with a touchdown, as well as 21 yards receiving on the year. Dillon became the second Camel to be named First or Second Team All-PFL three times, joining former offensive lineman Sam Issermoyer (2009-11).

In 2014, Dalton Dillon was named First Team All-PFL at fullback, also earning First Team Academic All-PFL status.

Summers guided the Camels to their second consecutive 2,000-plus yard rushing season, paced by De'Shawn Jones and Keith Goss' combined 771 yards on the ground.

In his first season in Buies Creek, Summers guided senior Kurt Odom to an All-America selection, Campbell's first in program history, earning Third Team honors from the Sports Network. Odom was also named First Team All-PFL.

The Camels set 21 offensive team records in 2013, including rushing yards (2,800) and total offense (5,236).

The then freshman duo of Keith Goss and De'Shawn Jones, meanwhile, combined for 980 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground.

Summers coached at his alma mater, Catawba College, for 11 seasons before making the move to Campbell, guiding the Indians' wide receivers. Summers duties also included coordinating the passing game and recruiting, as well as being the pro liaison.

In 2008, Summers tutored single-season rushing record breaker Jamelle Cuthberston. In 2007, he coached two All-SAC running backs in Kory Fisher and George Bell. His group of backs broke the school record for rushing yards in a single season with 2,616 yards and 41 TD's.

Prior to his return to Catawba, Summers coached wide outs at West Iredell High School. He began his coaching career at Polk County High School in 1997. He coached the receivers and defensive backs at Polk County from 1997-01 and also served as basketball coach.

Summers was a four-year performer at Catawba, earning All-SAC honors in 1995 and 1996. During his four years, Summers totaled 68 receptions for 1,284 yards and caught 15 touchdown passes. He stands 17th among Catawba's all-time receiving leaders and is second in career yards per catch at 18.9 per reception. He graduated in 1997 with a degree in physical education.

In high school, at West Iredell, Summers started all four seasons and earned a spot in the East-West All-Star Game. As a wide receiver, quarterback and defensive back, he was a two-time all-conference performer and was team MVP as a senior.

KEVIN THOMPSON

OFFENSIVE LINE
5TH YEAR • SAVANNAH STATE '96

Kevin Thompson enters his fifth season as Campbell's offensive line coach.

Over the last four seasons, Thompson has built Campbell's offensive line to the top of the PFL. Campbell led the PFL in rushing in 2015 with 1,956 yards, with Thompson's offensive line paving the way for the league's leading rusher, First Team All-PFL running back De'Shawn Jones.

Three members of the offensive line were named all-conference, with red-shirt sophomore Brian Stryffeler leading the way with second team honors. Josh Hutto and Laurin O'Briant also earned honorable mention nods for the Camels.

CU ranked third in the PFL in rushing offense in 2016, with Stryffeler and O'Briant earning honorable mention all-conference nods.

In addition to the team's success on the ground, Campbell's last four seasons have been the best in the program's passing history, throwing for more than 2,000 yards in each.

In 2014, Thompson coached three Campbell offensive linemen to All-PFL selections, including First Team member Will Sawyer at left guard. Senior center Dalton Brown and freshman right tackle Josh Hutto were also honorable mentions.

In his first season as the Camels' offensive line coach, the program set 21 offensive team records, including rushing yards (2,800), passing yards (2,436), and total offense (5,236).

Center Dalton Brown and left guard Will Sawyer also picked up honorable mention nods on the offensive line for the Camels, helping Campbell rank second in the PFL in rushing offense at 233.2 yards per game. The Camels ran for more than 200 yards five times in 2013, including a school record 513 in a win over UVA.-Wise. CU also passed for more than 275 yards four times.

Thompson, a 20 year coaching veteran throughout the Southeast, came to Buies Creek after spending four seasons at Johnson C. Smith University, where he served as associate head coach and offensive line coach, while also handling the Golden Bulls' equipment duties.

Over his final two seasons at Johnson C. Smith, Thompson helped guide the Bulls to back to back winning records for the first time in 40 years. The team also concluded the season on a four-game winning streak, its longest since 1996.

Behind Thompson's line, quarterback Keahn Wallace set the mark for most passing yards in a single-season at JCSU with 2,280, and Dedrick Anderson became the Golden Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher since 1991.

During the Golden Bulls' Pioneer Bowl championship run in 2011, Thompson constructed an offensive line that allowed JCSU to total 3,881 yards of offense. His o-line also protected quarterback Keahn Wallace, who produced 2,005 yards through the air and a record 473 yards on the ground.

Thompson began coaching at his alma mater, Savannah State University. As a player, Thompson's offensive unit paved the way for both of SSU's all-time leading rushers. In 1992, his team made the NCAA Division II playoffs and was ranked eighth in the country. That same year saw Thompson gain honorable mention accolades from the SIAC. Thompson earned second team honors on the 1994 All-SIAC list.

Thompson began coaching at SSU in 1995 as a student assistant and took over the Tigers offensive line in 1996. From SSU, Thompson followed his old coach Bill Davis to JCSU. Under Thompson's tutelage, the offensive line at JCSU led the way for the CIAA Offensive Player of the Year and leading rusher in 2000.

Thompson moved on to Livingstone College in 2003. While at Livingstone, his offensive line opened holes for the conference all-purpose yard getter in 2004, giving up only 10 sacks the entire season. Thompson would also send one of his linemen to the All-CIAA ranks both years at Livingstone.

In 2005, Thompson joined the coaching staff at Florida A&M University. While at FAMU, his o-line led the way for the 2005 leading rusher in the MEAC. In 2007, his line would make way for the Offensive Rookie of the Year who was second in the MEAC in rushing.

After leaving FAMU, Thompson became the offensive line coach at Lane College before returning to JCSU.

A native of Decatur, Ga., he attended McNair Sr. High School in Atlanta, and graduated from Savannah State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice. Thompson and his wife, Tennile Simms, have two children Kevin, Jr. and Kaylen.

JACOB DOPSOVIC

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
3RD YEAR • EAST STROUDSBURG '14

Jacob Dopsovic joined the Campbell football staff in March 2015.

Beginning his third season overall with the Camels in 2017, Dopsovic enters his second year as an offensive quality control coach.

An Allentown, Pa. native, Dopsovic handles video management, including film exchange, as well as assisting with constructing practice schedules, the offensive line and special teams units. He is also the team's national defensive recruiter.

He interned on the coaching staff at Lafayette College in 2014, assisting on the defensive side of the ball with scouting, practice film and on-campus recruiting.

Prior to Lafayette, Dopsovic interned with his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, in 2013 and 2014. He graduated from ESU in 2014 with a degree in sports management. Dopsovic transferred to ESU from Delaware Valley College, where he was a member of the football team as an offensive tackle in 2010.

Dopsovic has also served internships with Emmaus High School and William Allen High School in Pennsylvania, assisting both schools with summer activities and conditioning.

ANTONIO WALLACE

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
2ND YEAR • ALABAMA A&M '03

Antonio Wallace begins his second season with the Campbell football staff as a defensive quality control assistant. Wallace assists with the CU defensive line and special teams units, working with the Camels as a volunteer assistant in his first season with the staff in 2016.

Prior to Campbell, Wallace spent time on the coaching staff at Fayetteville State, serving as co-defensive coordinator in 2015. He also worked as a defensive line, special teams and strength and conditioning coach with the Broncos from 2013-16.

Wallace was the director of football strength and conditioning at Florida A&M from 2007-10, where the Rattlers were 2010 MEAC Co-Champions. Prior to FAMU, Wallace served on the Alcorn State staff, working with the defensive line and special teams, while being the Braves' head speed-strength coach from 2004-07.

Wallace worked at his alma mater, Alabama A&M from 2002-05 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. As a player, Wallace served as a team captain in 2002. Wallace has also held summer positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2010, staff development intern) and Texas (2007, strength and conditioning assistant).

He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association. Wallace is also a certified strength and conditioning coach, a specialist in speed and explosion and a specialist in sports conditioning.

Wallace is a graduate of Alabama A&M, earning a degree in industrial safety management. He went on to earn his master's in health, physical education and recreation from Alcorn State, and is working towards his Ph.D. at the U.S. Sports Academy.

HUNTER SOMERVILLE

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
3RD YEAR • EAST STROUDSBURG '14

A former four year letterwinner with the Camels, Hunter Somerville begins his second year on the Campbell football coaching staff.

Somerville is a defensive quality control coach, working with the CU line-backers, also working with the special teams units.

Somerville headed the team's video coordination operation in 2016.

Somerville lettered as a tight end and defensive end for the Camels from 2011-15, earning First Team Academic All-PFL and CoSIDA Academic All-District 3 honors in 2013 and 2014. He played in all 12 team games in 2014, making five starts at tight end.

Somerville converted to the defensive line in 2015, playing in two games with a pair of tackles before being sidelined for the remainder of the season due to injury. Following his season ending injury, Somerville served as an offensive and special teams assistant for Campbell.

A three-time PFL Academic Honor Roll member, Somerville was named one of 135 national semifinalists for the 2015 William V. Campbell Trophy, presented by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame. He was also a member of the NFF's Hampshire Honor Society.

At Mount Tabor High School, Somerville was a teammate of current Campbell quarterbacks coach Donny McElveen and former CU assistant Payton McCollum.

The Winston-Salem, N.C. native is currently pursuing his MBA at CU after graduating from Campbell with a degree in criminal justice in 2015.

MASON SLEDGE

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
1ST YEAR • UNC CHARLOTTE '16

Former Campbell lineman Mason Sledge is in his first year as an offensive quality control assistant with the Fighting Camels.

His daily responsibilities include breaking down film and working with the offensive line.

As a graduate transfer in 2016, Sledge started all 10 games at center and helped Campbell rank second in the PFL in rushing offense, standing 19th nationally at 209 yards per game. He was named to the 2016 Pioneer Football League Academic Honor Roll as well as to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society.

Sledge graduated in 2016 with a degree in criminal justice and sociology from UNC Charlotte, where he appeared in 28 games with 10 starts on the line during the 2013-15 seasons.

A native of Monroe, N.C., Sledge is pursuing his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies with a focus on exercise science.

JARRETT OZIMEK

VIDEO & GRAPHICS COORDINATOR
1ST YEAR • CAMPBELL '16

Following an outstanding career with the Fighting Camels, Jarrett Ozimek is in his first year as Video & Graphics Coordinator for the Campbell football program.

Ozimek's daily responsibilities include managing the film staff, gathering practice and game film for coaches and players, creating recruiting mailers and graphics, and producing weekly videos.

During his playing career, Ozimek was a four-time member of the Pioneer Football League Academic Honor Roll. Following the 2016 season, he was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. He was also tabbed honorable mention All-PFL as a punter in 2015 after averaging 39.5 yards per attempt.

Over his career, Ozimek punted 105 times for a 37.9 average with a career long boot of 64 yards. He also finished with 72 career points on 51 PATs and seven field goals.

A native of Greenville, N.C., Ozimek graduated in 2016 with a degree in sport management. He is pursuing his master's degree in business administration.

In addition to his football-related activities, Ozimek also was a marketing intern in the Campbell Athletics Department, where his duties included graphic design and other promotional responsibilities. He also worked during the summer as an intern for the Buies Creek Astros Carolina League baseball club, contributing to the team's design, social media and game day efforts.

JIM MALONE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT/STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST YEAR • ROCHESTER '89

Jim Malone, who brings three decades of experience on the professional and collegiate level, has been named Assistant Athletic Director for Physical Development/Strength and Conditioning at Campbell University, Director of Athletics Bob Roller.

Malone, while working for the San Diego Padres, was named the Major League Baseball Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2012 by Nolan Ryan/Hammer Strength program. Along with being the coach for the Padres, Malone also worked for the New York Mets and Cleveland Browns of the National Football League. His most recent position prior to joining Campbell was athletic development coordinator for the MLB St. Louis Cardinals minor league affiliates and Latin American program.

"We were extremely fortunate to find someone with Jim Malone's resume to lead our strength and conditioning program," said Campbell University Director of Athletics Bob Roller. "He has decades of professional experience that perfectly matches our need to grow this vital area of our athletics department."

Malone, who also is a competitive weightlifter, winning gold in his age division at the 2016 USAW Masters National Championships, replaces Andrew Carter, who is moving into a new position on the Campbell staff as the Assistant Athletic Director for Health and Nutrition. Carter has overseen the Camels' strength and conditioning program for the last nine seasons.

An All-American defensive tackle at the University of Rochester, Malone will oversee the strength and conditioning program for Campbell's 21 NCAA Division I varsity sports with specific responsibilities with the football, baseball and lacrosse teams.

"I've had the opportunity to have been around some tremendous athletes in baseball, and especially blessed for my 10 years in the Major Leagues," said Malone. "There's just something special about being able to work with 18 to 22 year olds, and having the opportunity to grow young men and women. It goes beyond the game. It's about how you invest yourself in the commitment and invest yourself in the process. You can't be outcome driven, you have to be process driven because you have to take one play and one day at a time. That's just like the weight room, where you have to take one rep at a time and progress to that end game. If you're too focused on the end, you're not going to be focused on the task at hand. That holds true with academics and it holds true when you get in the real world."

Malone also has served on the football staffs at Columbia and Princeton in addition to his alma mater. He was also head wrestling coach, assistant football coach and head strength & conditioning coach at Albright College.

Malone is a member of the National Strength & Conditioning Association and Professional Baseball Strength & Conditioning Coaches Society. Malone left Columbia in 1997 to accept a minor league strength & conditioning coaching position with the Cleveland Indians. After serving in a similar role for the Kansas City Royals, Malone was named Major League strength & conditioning coach for the first of two stints with the New York Mets in 2001.

BEN
BOLLING*STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT
2ND YEAR • CAMPBELL '15

After wrapping up a record setting career, former Campbell wide receiver Ben Bolling is a member of the Camel staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

After serving as a defensive quality control coach in 2016, Bolling returns, assisting with the Camels' strength and conditioning program while serving the football team in a primary capacity.

Bolling, Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,329) and receptions (100), also tying for the program lead in receiving touchdowns (8), serves as CU's defensive quality control and safeties coach.

The Knightdale, N.C. native interned with the Campbell coaching staff in the spring of 2016 before coming on in an official capacity. He was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District 3 honoree, collecting accolades in 2013 and 2015, and made his third appearance on the Academic All-PFL team in 2015.

He caught passes in 10 games during his final season, hauling in 216 yards, also throwing for a TD pass in a win over Drake.

Bolling graduated from Campbell in 2015 with a degree in exercise and sports science. Bolling is Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist from the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

KADY
KNIGHT*DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
2ND YEAR • CAMPBELL '16

Kady Knight begins her second season as the director of football operations at Campbell in 2017.

She assists in day to day operations for the Camels, handling team travel, as well as the program's budget. Knight also prepares and runs the team's annual golf tournament, and organizes summer team camps at Barker-Lane Stadium.

Prior to officially joining the CU football staff, the Wilmington, N.C. native assisted the program in day to day operations, including travel, team meals and practice organization.

Knight is 2016 Campbell graduate with a degree in business administration and a concentration in marketing.

JOSH
TATE*EQUIPMENT MANAGER
6TH YEAR • CAMPBELL '12

Josh Tate was named Campbell's head football equipment manager in June 2012 and enters his 10th overall year with the program.

In 2014 and 2015, Tate headed the overhaul of Campbell's new helmet and uniform designs. Tate transitioned the Camels to a modern, white helmet in 2014, as well as new-look Under Armour uniforms.

In his current role, Tate manages all CU football equipment, including maintenance and dispersal, and assists the program in day to day activities.

The Kernersville, N.C. native served as the team's head student manager for four seasons before moving to his new post.

Tate graduated from Campbell in May of 2012 with a B.S. in sport management and a minor in business.

He was named Campbell's Student Manager of the Year for the 2010-11 season.

He is married to the former Sarah Gentle.

JACKIE
KNIGHT*DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINING
12TH YEAR • OLIVET COLLEGE '01

Director of Athletic Training Jackie Knight is in her 12th year at Campbell.

Knight was named the Camels' Director of Athletic Training in 2015, serving as the head of CU's athletic training department for the past six years. She heads all athletic training needs for Campbell's football team while handling the entire department's daily operations.

Knight was the athletic trainer for the women's basketball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's golf teams prior to being promoted in the summer of 2011. Since taking over as director of Campbell's athletic training program, Knight has helped greatly expand her staff, providing greater medical care for Fighting Camel student-athletes.

Prior to Campbell, Knight worked as the head athletic trainer and assistant professor in the Health and Physical Education Department at Hillsdale College in Hillsdale, Mich. for three years.

While receiving her master's degree in athletic training from Indiana State University, Knight was a graduate assistant in the Sycamores' athletic training department. During her stint at Indiana State, Knight also served as an athletic trainer at Terre Haute North Vigo High School.

Knight got her bachelor's degree in athletic training from Olivet College in Olivet, Mich. As an undergrad at Olivet, Knight served as the football equipment manager and student athletic trainer while participating as a student-athlete on the softball and basketball teams. She also had the opportunity to be one of the athletic trainers for the Michigan Cadet National Wrestling Camp during the summer.

Knight is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association, Michigan Athletic Trainer's Society, Mid-Atlantic Athletic Trainers Association, and is an American Red Cross First Aid/CPR/AED instructor.

HISTORY & RECORDS

CAMPBELL FOOTBALL HISTORY

Campbell has a football history that dates back to 1925 when the school fielded its first varsity team. That team led by coaches Edge and Baker went 3-1-1 including the historic first 7-0 victory over Carthage. The details of some of early teams remains sketchy but it is known that the 1929 team, under the direction of Coach Bob Hays, posted Campbell's first-ever state championship with a 5-2-1 record.

Campbell continued to be a program to account for and posted a state junior college championship in 1932 under the guidance of Coach S.O. Brandon. The third state title came in 1939 when Campbell tied both Belmont Abbey and Brevard.

With World War II in full swing Campbell made the decision to suspend football play from 1940-45 until the war came to an end. When CU resumed play the Camels continued to win. The team won the 1946 and 1948 North Carolina Junior College State Championships and finished as the runner-up in 1947 all under the direction of Coach Earl Smith.

The 1947 team lost to South Georgia 46-7 to finish as the runner-up for the Eastern United States Junior College Championship. One year later in 1948, Campbell won the North Carolina title, but fell to familiar foe South Georgia 26-19 in the Eastern U.S. Championship.

With the on-set of the Korean Conflict and the movement of many North Carolina schools to senior college status in the 1950's, Campbell dropped its varsity football program after the 1950 season until the present day.

In August 2004, Campbell first began to explore, by way of a feasibility study, the possibility of adding non-athletic scholarship football as a varsity sport. When results came back as something that should be pursued CU made the official announcement on April 7, 2006 that football was coming back to the Creek as varsity sport in time for the 2008 season. It was decided that the program would compete at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (non-scholarship) level.

In 2006, the Camels formally submitted a bid to join the Pioneer Football League.

On June 15, 2006 Dale Steele was named head coach and began to assemble his staff and his first signing class in 2007.

Steele and his staff continued their preparation for the 2008 season by conducting the team's first official football practice in more than 50 years on August 28, 2007 with more than 100 players participating.

The Pioneer Football League formally accepted Campbell's application for the 2008 season on December 5, 2007. That day also served as the official unveiling of the 2008 game schedule.

After years of planning and waiting, the Camels were finally able to take the field on August 30, 2008 with a contest against Birmingham-Southern College. In front of overflowing crowd of 5,845 CU lost a hard-fought 12-6 game.

The 2009 football schedule saw Campbell win a pair of firsts at home. The Camels won the team's first-ever home game in a thrilling 48-28 season opening come-from-behind victory over Methodist on Sept. 5.

Campbell's football produced another historic first with the team's first win in Pioneer Football League play with a 31-22 victory over Morehead State on Oct. 31. The team also won its first on the road in league play with a 17-3 decision at Valparaiso on Nov. 14.

2011 marked a banner year for the CU football program, with the team producing its first winning season since its re-launch. The Camels finished 6-5 overall and 5-3 in PFL play, leading the conference in rushing for the third straight year and placing 11 on all-conference teams.

On November 27, 2012, former Carolina Panthers standout Mike Minter was named head coach of the Fighting Camel program.

Under the direction of Minter, the Camels went 3-9 overall in 2013, finishing the year with a 47-14 win at rival Davidson. Four of CU's six PFL losses came by 10, or fewer, points. Campbell set 28 team records. Senior Kurt Odom became the program's first football All-America selection, earning third team honors at full-back from The Sports Network.

The 2014 Camels recorded the program's second-highest overall (5-7) and league (4-4) win totals in its Division I era (since 2008). A school record seven Camels, plus eight honorable mentions, were named to the 2014 All-PFL teams, including four first teamers.

The 2015 Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

Sixteen Camels were honored on the All-PFL teams, with junior running back De'Shawn Jones, redshirt senior defensive lineman Ugonna Awuruonye and senior defensive lineman Greg Milhouse Jr. all receiving First Team All-PFL accolades. The PFL 2015 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year went to Campbell's Jack Ryan.

The offseason saw another Campbell first, with defensive tackle Greg Milhouse Jr. (New York Giants) and long snapper Danny Dillon (Arizona Cardinals) both signing NFL contracts.

In 2016 Campbell led the Pioneer League in attendance with a school-record average of 5,523 fans packing Barker-Lane Stadium over six home dates. Campbell was one of four schools nationally in the NCAA FCS to average a sellout. Led by first-team honorees Aaron Blockmon, who led the league in receiving yards (1,038) and TDs (10), and Syd Holt, 11 Camels were named to the All-PFL team as the Camels finished 5-5 overall, 3-4 in the league.

Campbell ranked third in the PFL and 19th nationally in rushing offense (209 yards per game), as well as 17th in the country in total defense (322.1 yards allowed).

Campbell announced in November 2016 that it would move toward adding the full NCAA Football Championship Subdivision scholarship allotment (63) after a decade in the non-athletic scholarship PFL and join the Big South Conference in the fall of 2018.

CAMPBELL UNIVERSITY

CAMPBELL UNIVERSITY

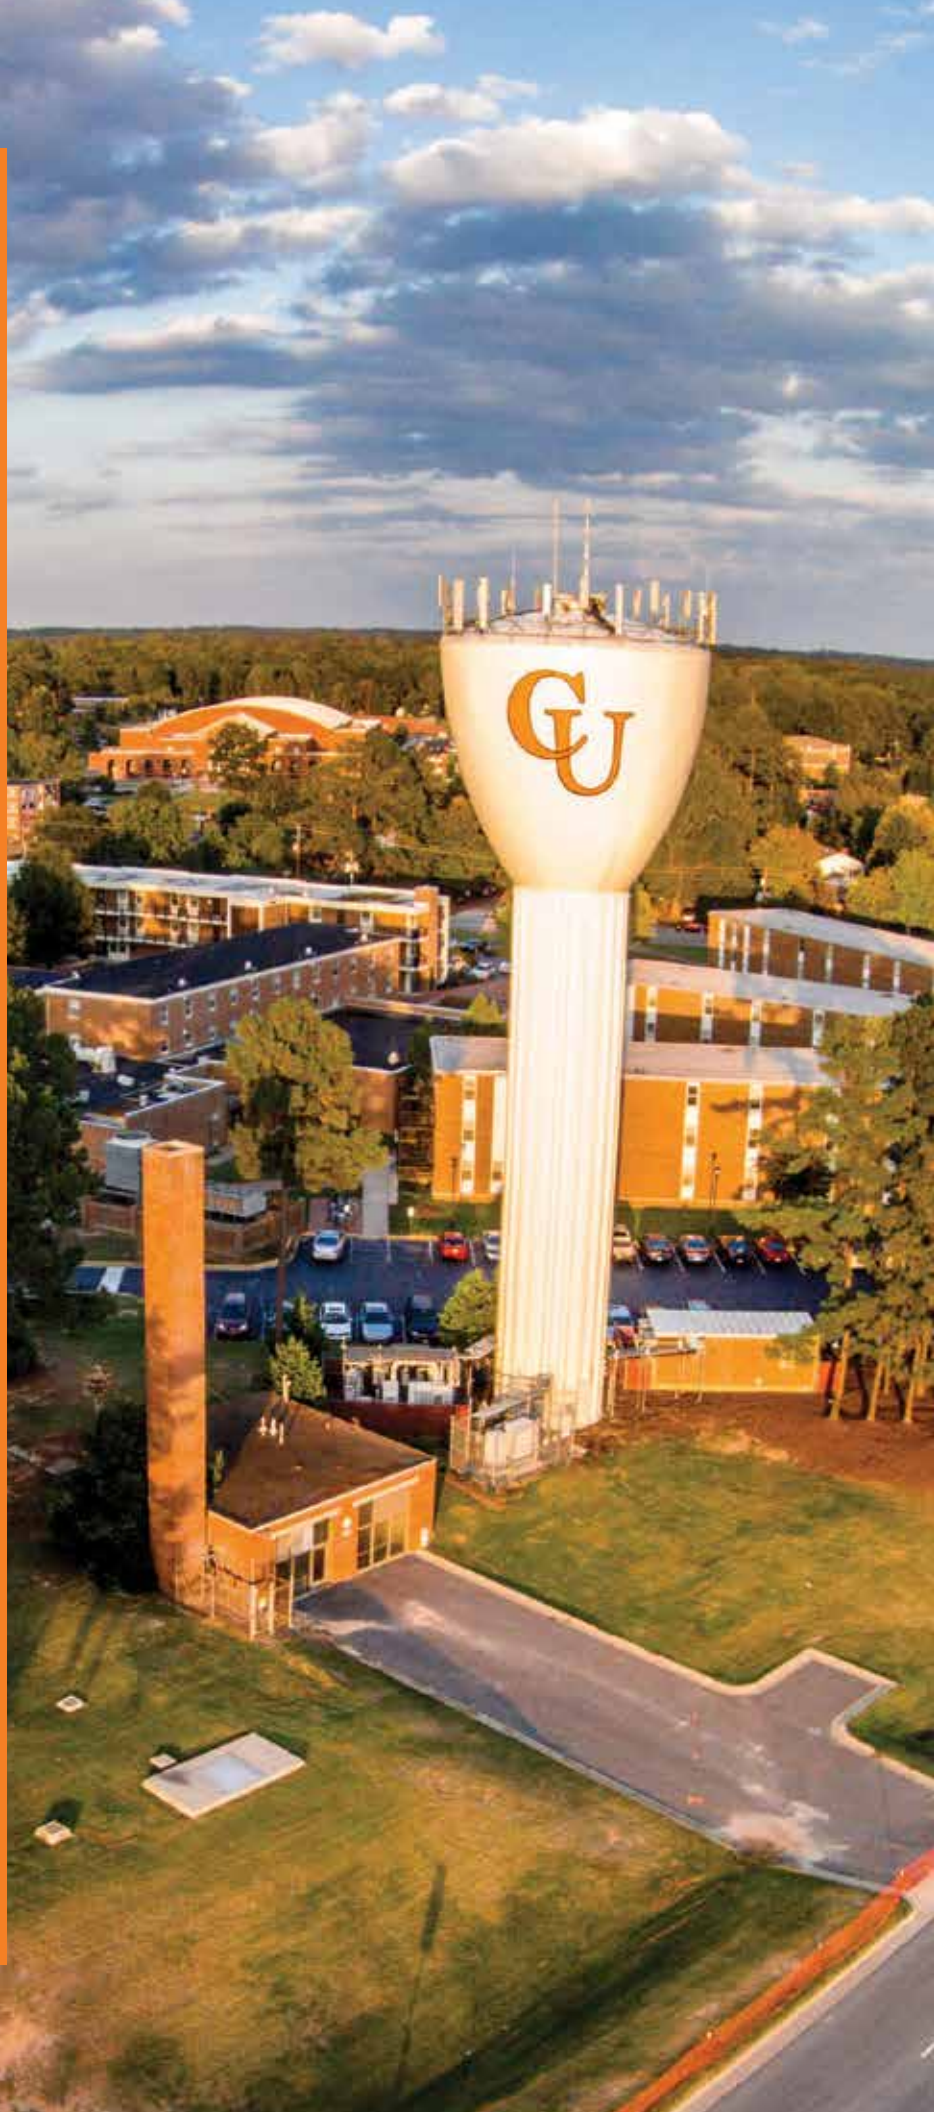

On Jan. 5, 1887, James Archibald Campbell, a 26-year-old Baptist minister, welcomed 16 students to a small church in Buies Creek, North Carolina, for the first day of classes for the school he founded: Buies Creek Academy. By the end of the first term, there were 92 students.

Since then, Buies Creek Academy has evolved to become Campbell Junior College (1926), Campbell College (1961), and Campbell University (1979). Throughout these transformations, the university has remained true to its founding principles to address the most pressing needs of North Carolina and to educate men and women for Christian service around the world.

A testament to how these founding principles still guide Campbell University today is the establishment of three new schools in the last few years. Campbell launched the School of Osteopathic Medicine — North Carolina's first new medical school in over 35 years — in 2013. In 2016, it opened the doors to programs in nursing and engineering.

They join Campbell's other established schools — College of Arts & Sciences, the Norman Adrian Wiggins School of Law (1976), the Lundy-Fetterman School of Business (1983), the School of Education (1985), the College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences (1985) and the Divinity School (1996). In addition to its main campus in Buies Creek, Campbell University has extended campuses at Camp Lejeune Fort Bragg/Pope Air Force Base, Online and Raleigh, where the law school relocated in 2009.

Today, Campbell University enrolls nearly 6,500 students, including more than 4,500 undergraduate and graduate students on its main campus. They're studying across nearly 150 disciplines in the liberal arts, health sciences and professions — and continuing the university's tradition of excellence in faith, learning, and service.

DR. J. BRADLEY CREED

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

An accomplished leader of mission-driven institutions and a scholar and historian of religion, Dr. J. Bradley Creed began his duties as Campbell University's fifth president July 1, 2015.

"The Campbell education is not just a transaction; it is a transformational learning experience that changes lives," Dr. Creed said during his inaugural address in April 2016. "Our work is not operating an institution of higher education, but our work is transforming lives."

Since his tenure began, Campbell opened only the second engineering school at a private university in North Carolina, opened the state-of-the-art First Citizens Wealth Management Center in the Campbell Business School, received one of its largest gifts in university history to establish The G. Eugene Boyce Center of Advocacy at Campbell Law, received its largest humanities-related grant in university history to start a youth theology institute, and hosted the 2016 Big South Men's Basketball Championship.

Previously, Dr. Creed was the provost, executive vice president, and professor of religion at Samford University.

During his 12 years as Samford's provost, he led multiple initiatives, including the launch of the College of Health Sciences in 2013 and the addition of over two-dozen new or enhanced academic programs. He also played a key role in strategic enrollment efforts that improved the size, retention, and academic quality of the undergraduate student body. Samford achieved the highest graduation rate of any college or university in Alabama during his tenure as provost.

Before joining Samford, Dr. Creed was dean, associate dean, and professor of Christian history at Baylor University's George W. Truett Theological Seminary. Earlier in his career, he served as pastor of churches in Texas and Louisiana.

A Jacksonville, Texas, native, Dr. Creed received his Ph.D. and Master of Divinity from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, and Bachelor of Arts in Religion from Baylor University.

He and his wife, Kathy, have three children: Caitlin (1987-2007), Charles Vernon, and Carrie Grace.

BOB ROLLER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Since taking over as Director of Athletics at Campbell University in July 2011, Bob Roller has led a department that has reached new heights in academics, facility construction, fund raising and competition.

Roller's tenure has seen Campbell Athletics achieve its highest academic marks in school history. Campbell student-athletes have maintained an overall grade point average of 3.0 over the 21 NCAA intercollegiate sports (which includes more than 630 student-athletes).

On the field, the women's golf team has won four Big South Conference championships (2012, 2014, 2016, 2017) and competed in six NCAA Regionals and three NCAA Championships; the men's golf team competed in the 2016 and 2017 NCAA Regionals; the men's cross country team won the 2015 and 2016 Big South title; the wrestling team won its first Southern Conference Championship in 2017; and the baseball team won the Big South regular season title in 2013 and the tournament championship in 2014, when it also earned a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Overall, Campbell Athletics' 21 Division I programs have seen steady improvement in competition. That culminated with Campbell's highest ranking in the Big South Conference overall sports trophy standings in 2017 since re-joining the league five years ago. Campbell finished second in the conference as the most successful overall athletics program, trailing only Liberty University. Both the men's and women's basketball teams earned post-season berths in the 2016-17 campaign as well.

Roller has led a transformation of Campbell Athletics through major facility improvements and record fund-raising. Major facility additions and expansions he has overseen include:

- Installing a four-sided center hung LED display scoreboard and court-side LED scorer's table at the John W. Pope, Jr. Convocation Center, where the basketball and volleyball teams play
- Opening the Burt Family Sports Performance Center, adding lights and a LED display scoreboard and video board, and completing the West grandstand and press box at Barker-Lane Stadium, where the football and women's lacrosse teams play
- Renovating and dedicating Jim Perry Stadium, where the baseball team plays; then adding the Jim and Daphne Perry Pavilion, which includes locker rooms and offices for the baseball program and additional seating and VIP viewing desks for fans.
- Adding a LED display scoreboard and video board at Jim Perry Stadium in addition to the installation of a ProGrass Turf synthetic playing surface that replicates a natural baseball field's look and playability
- Dedicating the Irwin Belk Track and Clarence Roberts Field
- Renovating Eakes Athletics Complex, home to the men's and women's soccer teams
- Opening Amanda Littlejohn Stadium, where the softball team plays

Under Roller's guidance, Campbell announced in the fall of 2016 that the football team will join the Big South Conference in 2018 and move toward the full NCAA Football Championship Subdivision scholarship allotment (63) after a decade in the non-athletic scholarship PFL.

Roller also helped bring the Buies Creek Astros – the Class-A Advanced Carolina League affiliate of the Houston Astros – to Jim Perry Stadium for the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

In addition, Roller led the creation of The CAMMYs, Campbell's multi-media awards show for student-athletes widely recognized as one of the finest events of its kind.

He also was instrumental in Campbell winning the bid to host the 2016 Big South Men's Basketball Championship. The 2016 event held in Buies Creek drew the tournament's highest attendance in the last five years.

During Roller's tenure, Campbell has also co-hosted the 2013 and 2015 NCAA Women's Soccer College Cup and the 2014 NCAA Men's Soccer College Cup, and hosted the 2015 Big South Softball Championship and the 2014 Southern Conference Wrestling Championship.

Campbell athletes have also donated more than 23,000 hours in community service around the Buies Creek area over the past six academic years.

Introduced on July 20, 2011 as the fourth A.D. of Campbell's Division I era (since 1977-78), Roller joined the Fighting Camel staff after spending more than 11 years as Director of Athletics at Samford University. While at the Birmingham, Ala., school, he oversaw one of the most exciting periods of growth in the history of Samford athletics.

During his tenure at Samford, the entire facilities landscape of the campus was transformed. New athletics venues were built for men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, soccer, track and field and a football field house and strength and conditioning center were funded and constructed.

Roller arrived at Samford in 1997 to direct the Samford Athletic Foundation. During his first two years, the foundation saw record growth in individual and corporate donations to the university's athletics programs. Roller held that position until May 1999, when then-President Thomas E. Corts named him to the top position within the athletics department.

In the summer of 2003, Roller was elected to the prestigious executive committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics [NACDA] to serve a four-year term. He joined athletics directors from Kansas State, Stanford, Army and Clemson on the governing committee that oversees the activities of the 6,000-plus member organization.

In 2006, Roller was named national chairman of the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Committee for NACDA. The Directors' Cup is awarded to the top universities in NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA for overall athletics success throughout the inter-collegiate season.

Prior to his tenure at Samford, Roller was vice president of AdCraft Sports Marketing in Louisville, Ky., for seven years. During that time, he helped create the Sears Collegiate Champions program, which honors all champions of men's and women's sports throughout the nation at every level of college athletics.

While with AdCraft, a division of Host Communications, Inc., Roller created and managed a publishing division and helped launch NCAA Football USA, which involved promotion, licensing and merchandising for college football programs at all levels of intercollegiate athletics.

Roller was director of communications for the Orange Bowl Committee in Miami, Fla., from 1988 to 1991. He was with the Orange Bowl when Federal Express became its first title sponsor in 1989.

The Pearisburg, Va., native began his career in sports information. He earned his degree from Virginia Tech in 1983 and worked as a student assistant in the sports information office for four years. He was the sports information director at UNC Wilmington and East Carolina University from 1983 to 1988. While at UNC Wilmington, Roller was also executive director of the university's athletics fund-raising program.

Roller, 56, who holds a master's degree in education administration from Samford, is married to the former Carolyn Keller. He has one son, Brad, and three stepchildren – Kerstin, Kyle and Karrah.

CAMPBELL ATHLETICS

ATHLETIC TRAINING

CU's Athletic Training staff offers all Fighting Camel student-athletes the best available medical care for athletic injuries. They design and implement programs to prevent, manage and treat athletic injuries. They also supervise injury rehabilitation programs that are designed to return the athlete to athletic activity as quickly and safely as possible.

The athletic training services program is directed by head athletic trainer Jackie Knight, four assistant athletic trainers and five interns/graduate assistant athletic trainers.

In addition, the staff also provides hands on experience to a number of students majoring in athletic training. These students are enrolled in a challenging academic major that not only requires that they make the grade in the classroom but also must excel in real-life situations.

The education program is directed by Catherine Simonson. The Athletic Training staff also works closely team physicians, Dr. Bill Hage and Dr. Richard Slusher of Triangle Orthopedics in Raleigh and Dr. Michael Hart and Dr. Kristin Clarey of Cary Family Practice and Sports Medicine to provide quality physician services to student-athletes. They also have a team chiropractor in Dr. David Bradham of Bradham Chiropractic in Erwin. Other allied health care needs available within the athletic training services program include optometry, dentistry, and sports massage.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Campbell University strength and conditioning facilities are located at the John W. Pope Jr. Convocation Center in the Burns Strength and Conditioning Center.

Although specific strength and conditioning programs are designed for each sport, the basic goal is the same – to help athletes increase their full potential in: strength, speed, flexibility, endurance and ultimately sports performance, while decreasing the likelihood of injury.

Workouts are designed and implemented by Andrew Carter, who is in his third year as head strength and conditioning coach. The Campbell University Baseball Strength and Conditioning Program, in particular, is designed to utilize a combination of speed and strength development set out to prepare the Campbell baseball players to take the field in the best possible shape both mentally and physically.

The program uses several different methods of training focusing primarily on Olympic Weight Lifting aimed at developing strength, speed, and explosion. The program also incorporates a speed program aimed at increasing acceleration and multi-directional speed.

Carter also spends time with each basketball student-athlete to ensure they are meeting nutritional needs on a daily basis. Campbell's strength and conditioning program has an ultimate goal of helping the student-athlete to reach their maximum physical potential, in order to better prepare student-athletes in competition.

CAMPBELL ATHLETICS

STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT

The Campbell Athletics Department is committed to academic excellence and to promoting student-athlete welfare through the broad-based Student-Athlete Support Program. Under the guidance of Malinda Ashcraft, Associate A.D. for Academic Services, programs are available that provide opportunities for student-athletes to grow academically, socially, spiritually, emotionally and physically.

The Student-Athlete Support Program was created to assist student-athletes with a number of issues ranging from the development of personal responsibility and educational goals to addressing personal and social problems that are unique to the Division I student-athlete.

Some of the services offered through the Student-Athlete Support Program are the Individual Study Plan program, tutorial sessions, study halls, one-on-one academic advising, Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, NCAA Life Skills and other academic support services.

The Academic Support Center is the focal point of the program. The center is open seven days a week with flexible hours designed to accommodate the busy schedule of a student-athlete. The center has been designed to serve as an optimal learning environment, while providing the student-athlete with all the tools necessary to achieve academic success.

The center is equipped with several computer work stations, individual study carrels, and areas for monitored group study and tutorial work. Tutorial sessions of different subject areas are provided several times a week.

THE FIGHTING CAMEL

Many stories exist as to the origin of the nickname "Fighting Camels" and the adoption of a camel as the mascot of Campbell University athletic teams. To date, there is still uncertainty as to why the unique mascot (only one other school in the United States -- and none in Division I -- has the nickname "Camels") was chosen.

According to historian J. Winston Pearce, author of "Campbell College, Big Miracle in Little Buies Creek," the nickname's origin perhaps stretches back to the turn of the century when all but one of the school's original buildings were destroyed by fire. In the aftermath, Z.T. Kivett visited the school's founder and president, Dr. James Archibald Campbell, at his residence.

As Dr. Campbell bemoaned the fate of the institution he had worked 13 years to build, Mr. Kivett encouraged him, "Your name's Campbell; then get a hump on you! We've got work to do." Dr. Campbell thought that Mr. Kivett said, "You're a camel, get a hump on you." Hence the nomadic nickname.

Campbell's athletic teams were originally named the "Hornets." Copies of Creek Pebbles, the school newspaper, in the 1920s and 1930s described the teams as "Hornets." Other references to the athletic teams were "The Campbells" or the "Campbellites." Although an official date is unknown, the changing of the mascot to a camel came in late 1933 or early 1934.

There is no explanation why the nickname was changed to Camels, only this one sentence was printed in the Jan. 13, 1934 issue of Creek Pebbles: "Eight new men were recently initiated into Campbell's monogram club, which has changed its name from 'Hornets' to 'Camels.'" From that point on, all Campbell athletic teams have proudly worn the Camel mascot.

BARKER-LANE STADIUM / ED GORE FIELD

Opened in 2008, Barker-Lane Stadium and Ed Gore Field is home to the Campbell football and women's lacrosse teams. With the completion of the West stand in 2013, seating capacity now stands at 5500. Campbell hosted Birmingham-Southern on Aug. 30, 2008 in the inaugural game at the facility, attended by a standing-room crowd of 5,845 fans.

Barker-Lane Stadium was named for Bob Barker and Don Lane. Bob Barker, class of 1965, is chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Bob Barker Company, the industry's largest supplier of institutional products and supplies for correctional and rehabilitation facilities worldwide. The corporate office for the company is located in Fuquay-Varina, N.C. Dr. Don Lane is owner of Lane Family Dentistry, a full-service practice with over 20 locations across the state.

Ed Gore Field was named in honor of Edward M. Gore, a member of the class of 1952, during the spring of 2009. Dr. Gore was a highly successful real estate developer; his name is virtually synonymous with the prized coastal properties of Sunset Beach & Twin Lakes, Sea Trail Resort, and Ocean Ridge Plantation. He passed away in July 2014.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the stadium were held Mar. 27, 2007 and construction was started by general contractor T.A. Loving. McMillan Smith & Partners served as architect.

Lights were added to the facility prior to the 2012 season, allowing the Camels more options for practice times, as well as greater flexibility for broadcasts and other sporting events. The four 110-foot poles, two on each side of the stadium, feature 42 each and 168 total fixtures, providing 100 foot candle on all portions of the playing field.

The West stand was completed in 2013 and includes 3,000 seats; with 867 chair back seats, plus bleacher back seating as well as new restroom and concession facilities.

Attendance has topped the 6,000 mark five times in the stadium's history, including a record 6,580 for the Camels' 2015 Homecoming matchup against Morehead State.

The W. Irvin Warren Athletic Center is named in honor of William Irvin Warren the Founder and President of Warren Oil Company, Inc. Warren Oil Company, with corporate offices located in Dunn, N.C., is the largest independent lubricants manufacturer in North America with production locations in six states.

Inside the Warren Athletic Center is a multi-purpose room for gatherings and team meetings that may be sectioned into multiple rooms. Coaching staff offices and the coaches locker room, plus a conference room, video room and equipment room are also located within the building.

The Warren Center also houses an on-site athletic training room that includes whirlpool, ice machine and training tables. The home locker room features lockers for 120 football players, while the visitor locker room includes 80 lockers and can be sectioned into two separate rooms

The Carlie C's IGA Hometown Proud Press Tower was completed in 2013 and is named in honor of Carlie C. and Joyce McLamb. Mr. and Mrs. McLamb opened their first grocery store in 1961. Over the years they expanded their business and today have 16 stores located in Harnett, Johnston, Cumberland, Wake, Durham and Wayne counties.

The press box is 80 feet high with elevator access to all floors. The building includes an executive level on the second floor just above the top row of bleachers and houses a central President's Suite with seating for 40. There are also two exterior patios on the north and south. The third floor houses a 3,800 square foot central press area with seating for 50, including home and visitor radio locations, an official box, and booths for both the visiting and home coaching staff.

In January 2015, the Burt Family Sports Performance Center opened. The nearly 6,000 square foot facility, located in the southeast corner of Barker-Lane Stadium, features 900 square feet of sport turf, 12 state-of-the-art custom Hammer Strength combo racks with inlaid Olympic lifting platforms, six glute hamstring developers and four Hammer Strength plate loaded machines. The training facility also includes two Pit Shark belt squat machines, custom iron grip dumbbells, custom plyometric jumping boxes and a comprehensive nutrition and hydration station.

The 2016 season saw the installation of a state-of-the-art high-definition Daktronics video board just beyond the north endzone. The screen boasts a 24'-7 1/4" height and 42'-4" width.

Campbell was one of only four schools nationally in FCS to average a sellout with a PFL-leading and school-record average of 5,523 fans packing 5,500-seat Barker-Lane Stadium. Twice, single-game attendance records were set in 2016, including a Homecoming crowd of 6,673.
