Series Facts: Campbellsville vs. John Brown

- Campbellsville and John Brown have met once in program history with the Lady Tigers pulling out a 76-51 win in the first round of the 2011 national tournament.
- The only time both programs have met has been inside Oman Arena.
- In that matchup, CU took a 41-22 lead into halftime and never looked back. NAIA Player of the Year Whitney Ballinger dropped 17 points, while Courtney Clifton scored 14 and Courtney Danis had 12. Clifton also had a game-high eight rebounds.
- CU finished hitting 93 percent from the free throw line (14-of-15). John Brown hit 91 percent (10-of-11).
- The two head coaches, Ginger Colvin and Jeff Soderquist are in the Top 14 of active winningest coaches in the NAIA. Soderquist, who has been at JBU for 20 years, has an overall record of 290-315. Colvin, who is in her 10th season, has an overall coaching record of 250-66.

Tiger Clawz

- Three of the Lady Tigers' five wins have come on neutral courts. CU defeated Harris-Stowe and Hiwassee in the Bethel University Chamber Classic to open the season and also beat Bluefield State College on Nov. 12 at University of Pikeville.
- The Lady Tigers rank No. 3 in the NAIA by making 9.6 3-pointers a game and No. 2 by allowing opponents to hit only 18 percent from deep.
- After coming back from an ACL injury last season, LeeAnn Grider ranks No. 3 with 6.8 assists per game and No. 7 with an assist/turnover ratio of 4.8.
- Madison Clements has scored in double figures every game this year and leads CU by averaging 17.8 points per game. She scored 23 points vs. Talladega on Monday - with 20 of those coming in the first half.
- Last season, Campbellsville finished with a 27-9 record and 10-4 inside the MSC.
- The Lady Tigers battled their way into the NAIA Quarterfinals for the 10th time in program history before falling to Benedictine, 45-36.

Lady Tigers roll past No. 21 Talladega in home opener

- CU is coming off a 100-57 win over No. 21 Talladega College on Monday - the eighth straight home-opening win for the Lady Tigers.
- Before Talladega knew what hit them, LeeAnn Grider hit the game's first triple and was followed with a pair of 3s by Madison Clements and Emily Fox to put CU ahead 10-0 in the first 1:30.
- The Lady Tigers never stopped in the first quarter by hitting six 3s and leading, 36-11.
- Clements finished the first frame with 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting and a perfect 3-of-3 from deep - the last one with time expiring in the quarter.
- Campbellsville fired a season-high 71 percent (12-of-17) from the 3-point line and finished hitting 52 percent (34-of-65) from the floor, while forcing 20 Talladega turnovers and scoring 28 points off those mistakes.
- Fox led CU with 25 points and hit 5-of-7 from deep. Clements registered 23 points - 20 of those coming in the first half - and hit 4-of-6 from 3-point land. Jordan Doram finished in double figures by matching her career-high with 15 points. She led CU with nine boards.
- The Lady Tigers out-rebounded Talladega in a big way, 53-32.
- Out of the 34 baskets for CU, 32 of them were assisted, as Abby Miller and LeeAnn Grider both dished out a game-high seven dimes.
- The Lady Tiger reserves pitched in 30 points, led by Queral Coll Pradas' eight points, Madison Faulkner's seven and Caitlin Hall's seven. Hall, a freshman from Stanford, Ky., wowed the crowd a few times in the final quarter with a few nifty no-look passes and drained a pair of triples to put the icing on the cake for CU.

2016-17 SEASON NOTES

NAIA Basketball returns to historic Oman Arena

- High profile NAIA women's basketball is returning to the Oman Arena in Jackson, Tenn. as No. 4 CU is one of 14 teams that are competing in what is better known as the "Champions Classic".
- Fourteen of the top NAIA Women's Basketball Teams from across the country will be playing seven games on Friday, Nov. the 25th and seven games on Saturday the 26th starting at 9:30 a.m. ET each morning. Thirteen of the squads are ranked in the Top 25, while one team received votes in the poll. Seven teams are ranked in the Top 10.
- The following teams are participating in the Classic - No 1 MidAmerica Nazarene, No. 2 Westmont, No. 3 Our Lady of the Lake, No. 4 Campbellsville, No. 6 Vanguard, No. 8 Freed-Hardeman, No. 10 Bethel, No. 16 Montana State Northern, No. 18 Great Falls, No. 20 Columbia, No. 21 Talladega, No. 23 Cumberland, No. 25 Carroll and John Brown (RV).

Fox has proved to be one of the best shooters in history

- Emily Fox transferred to CU from Austin Peay and once her Lady Tiger career started in January 2015, she worked herself into one of the best shooters in the MSC.
- Fox has hit five 3-pointers in two games this season and made four in another. She is hitting 43% from downtown and ranks No. 4 in the NAIA by making 3.6 per game.
- Last season, Fox also led the NAIA by hitting 110 total 3s.
- Fox earned First-Team All-Conference honors and was named Player of the Week on Dec. 7. In addition, WBCA All-American Honorable Mention along with being named an NAIA All-American Honorable Mention.

Clements hasn't missed a beat after redshirt season

- After getting injured in the first game of the season last year, it took a lot of convincing for Madison Clements to redshirt. But the move paid off because she is better than ever after getting 100 percent healthy.
- Clements plays the third-most minutes on the team and is averaging almost 18 points per game.
- Clements is shooting the lights out by hitting 44 percent from 3-point land (14-of-32) and ranking No. 22 in the NAIA by making 2.8 triples per game.
- In five games this season, Clements has hit four 3s in a game once and three triples twice. She has hit multiple 3s in every game.
- In addition, she is also averaging four rebounds per game.

Grider is overcoming mental aspects of ACL injury

- After a grueling summer of rehabbing an ACL injury, Grider hasn't missed a beat. She is averaging the second-most minutes per game (25.0) and is one of the pest point guards in the NAIA.
- Currently ranks No. 9 in the country with 34 assists and No. 3 by averaging 6.8 dimes per game. The turnover rate has dropped as well, ranking No. 7 in assist-to-turnover ratio (4.8).
- She currently is tied with head coach Ginger High Colvin with the most assists in a single game (15 vs. Lindsey Wilson in 2015).
- Coming into the season she ranked No. 5 in program history with 501 career assists - just 91 shy of second place. She has a ways to go to top Colvin's mark of 865.
- The biggest stat for Grider the past three seasons - she finished her freshman year shooting 47 percent from the free throw line then upped it to 66 percent as a sophomore and 71 percent as a junior. She is current shooting 70 percent.
- Grider, who wasn't a threat from the 3-point line her first two seasons, also made opponents respect her outside shooting last season, hitting 37 percent from the 3-point line compared to just 22.5 percent in 2014-15. She is shooting 40 percent this year.

CU's non-conference schedule is loaded

- Campbellsville plays one of the premier non-conference schedules in the country on an annual basis, but the Lady Tigers' 2016-17 slate appears to have taken a typically difficult schedule of games and cranked it up another notch.
- CU's 16-game non-conference schedule features six teams that are ranked in the Preseason NAIA Coaches' Poll and all six made a postseason appearance in the NAIA Tournament last season.
- The Lady Tigers played a home-and-home slate with No. 21 Talladega (Nov. 7 and Nov. 21) - winning both.
- Campbellsville now travels to Oman Arena in Jackson, Tenn. for the Jackson Rotary Champions Classic to face John Brown and No. 2 Westmont (Nov. 26-27).
- CU will then host the inaugural Mid-South Conference - Southern States Athletic Conference Challenge, as Mobile (Dec. 17), Martin Methodist (Dec. 18) and Bethel (Dec. 19) compete for the SSAC at Powell Athletic Center.
- Over Christmas break (Dec. 28-30), the Lady Tigers will travel to Miami Gardens, Fla. for three games at St. Thomas University's Classic.
- CU ends its non-conference slate with home games against Spalding (Jan. 21) and Wilberforce (Jan. 28).
- Last season, the Lady Tigers finished with a 17-4 non-conference record including NAIA Tournament games.

MSC is yet again one of the top in the NAIA

- Out of 14 Mid-South Conference games on the 2016-17 schedule, Lady Tiger basketball will play half of them against teams ranked in the Preseason Coaches' Top 25 Poll.
- CU ranks No. 4, Lindsey Wilson ranks No. 5, Shawnee State ranks No. 11, Pikeville is No. 17 and Cumberland ranks No. 23.

Ginger Colvin starts her 10th season at CU

- Ginger Colvin enters her 10th season as head coach of the Lady Tigers.
- In 2014-15, Colvin led the Lady Tigers to their most successful season in their storied history. CU competed in the schools first-ever NAIA National Championship game. Although, the Lady Tigers fell to Oklahoma City in the championship game, CU finished the season ranked No. 2 (tying its highest ranking in history), tied the most wins in a season (33) and also won its 18th overall conference regular season title (13 MSC, 5 KIAC). CU was also a perfect, 13-0 at home throughout the regular season for the first time in Colvin's era.
- This past season, the Lady Tigers made another MSC Tournament title run before falling in the championship game. Colvin's Lady Tigers reached the NAIA Quarterfinals before falling to Benedictine.
- In her tenure as head coach, Colvin has accumulated a 245-66 record. She has achieved three 30-win seasons and has been to the NAIA National Tournament in all but her first season.
- In her playing career, Colvin was a star performer. In 1990, she was named a Third-Team All-American and the KIAC Player of the Year. She is one of four Lady Tigers to be named as an All-Conference selection for four consecutive seasons. She is also a member of the 1,000 point club at Campbellsville University and a member of the CU Athletics Hall of Fame.
- Impressively, Colvin still holds the NAIA national record for highest assist average in a career. She also ranks first in CU Lady Tiger basketball history for assists in a game, season and career.

2016-17 SEASON NOTES

Hall twins are first in program history

- Shawnee State University was the final team to earn a first-place vote, while being tabbed as third in the poll with 36 points. The Bears swept the conference regular season and tournament titles last season.
- For a team with three Madisons (Clements, Stewart and Kaiser), having a set of identical twins should be no problem.
- The Hall's helped Lincoln County to an 82-32 record during their three-plus years of high school, including two 45th District titles and one 12th Region crown.
- Caitlin Hall, a point guard, averaged six points and six rebounds a game and hit 34 percent from the field and 81 percent from the free throw line her senior year of HS.
- Cristin Hall, a dangerous 3-point shooter, averaged 10 points and three rebounds, shoots 43 percent from the field and 40 percent from the 3-point line.

Stewart dealt with preseason injury

- Campbellsville was dealt a big blow to start the season, as sophomore Madison Stewart went down in preseason practice with a fractured foot. She is expected to miss the first semester and will be reevaluated in December.
- Last season, Stewart played in 30 games and started two as a true freshman. She averaged just above five points and two rebounds per game, while hitting 54 percent from the floor (60-of-112) and 75 percent from the free throw line (36-of-48).

Burd, NAIA Player of the Year, graduates and now coaching

- Lindsey Burd, the 2015 NAIA Women's Player of the Year joined Lady Tiger basketball this season as a full-time assistant.
- Burd, from Hardyville, Ky., holds down the 20th spot in women's career points (1,381) and is No. 10 in rebounds (902) during her four-year career.
- During her four-year Lady Tiger career, Burd was named to the NAIA All-Tournament Team twice and NAIA All-Tournament Honorable Mention Team once. She was an All-MSC First Team selection twice, an All-MSC Second Team once, and she was also a three-time All-MSC Academic Team selection.
- Only three times in Lady Tiger Basketball history has a player been named the NAIA National Player of the Year. Burd became the second Lady Tiger, joining Whitney Ballinger who received the same honor twice (2009-10, 2010-11).

NAIA Coaches' Poll Ranks Lady Tigers No. 4 in Preseason

- The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) announced the Division I Women's Basketball Coaches' Preseason Poll and Lady Tigers basketball will start the season at No. 4.
- The Lady Tigers are one of two Mid-South Conference teams in the Top 5 after receiving 194 voting points from the national raters. Lindsey Wilson College will start the season at No. 5 with 177 points.
- Campbellsville finished last season with a 27-8 record and reached its 10th NAIA Quarterfinal Round before losing to Benedictine, 45-36. The Lady Tigers lost NAIA Player of the Year Lindsey Burd but have added her to the coaching staff this season. CU returns NAIA Honorable Mention Emily Fox as a senior in 2016-17.
- The No. 4 ranking for Campbellsville is the 30th-consecutive poll the Lady Tigers have been in the Top 5 – dating back to 2013-14. Campbellsville has been ranked in every poll since Oct. 27, 2008 when the Lady Tigers were not tabbed in the Preseason Edition.

MSC Preseason Coaches' Poll

- Lindsey Wilson College picked up 47 total points and six of the eight first-place votes to be the preseason favorite. Last season LWC finished tied with Campbellsville in the MSC standings at 10-4 but bowed out of the conference tournament in the semifinals.
- Campbellsville earned 38 voting points and one first-place vote from the MSC coaches. The Lady Tigers finished tied for second in the regular season standings last season but had another run in the NAIA Tournament going into the quarterfinals.
- Shawnee State University was the final team to earn a first-place vote, while being tabbed as third in the poll with 36 points. The Bears swept the conference regular season and tournament titles last season.
- University of Pikeville is fourth in the poll with 33 points, following by Cumberland University in fifth with 30 points.
- Rounding out the poll is University of the Cumberlands with 17 points, followed by Georgetown with 16. Life was the final team in the poll after grabbing seven voting points as they enter their first season of competition.
- The 2017 Mid-South Conference Men's Basketball Championship is slated for March 2-5 at the Frankfort Convention Center in Frankfort, Ky.
