2013 CIT Quarterfinal Round

CANISIUS ALL-TIME vs. MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

- ▶ The Griffs are 5-11 all-time against current Missouri Valley Conference members with the team's last game against an MVC school coming March 20, 1995, when the Griffs beat Bradley 55-53 in the second round of the postseason NIT.
- ▶ Canisius has played more games (eight) against Creighton than any other Missouri Valley Conference school.

A COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

- ▶ Canisius earned a berth into the 2013 CIT quarterfinal round by coming back from a 22-point second half deficit to defeat Youngstown State 84-82 in overtime on the road March 23.
- ▶ Canisius trailed 53-31 with 18:17 left in regulation time, but used a 20-0 run over the span of 6:32 to get back into the game and then force overtime, where the Blue and Gold secured the win.
- ▶ The 22-point come-from-behind win was not only the biggest comeback win in Canisius program history (records dating back to 1970), but it also stands as the second-largest second-half comeback in MAAC history. Fairfield came back from a 27-point hole against George Mason in the 2010 CIT to earn a 101-96 overtime win on March 16, 2010.
- ▶ The Griffs' come-from-behind win after trailing by 22 points in the second half is the largest comeback victory in NCAA Division I men's basketball since Feb. 12, 2011, when Harvard came back from 24 down to defeat Brown 85-78.

GRIFFS GET TO 20

- ▶ Prior to the game against Elon, Canisius' last postseason game was against Utah in the first round of the 1996 NCAA Tournament in Dallas. The Utes won that game by a score of 72-43.
- ▶ Canisius assistant coach Fred Dupree was a sophomore on the 1996 NCAA Tournament team and he scored three points against Utah.
- ▶ All-time, Canisius has played in a total of 23 postseason men's basketball games, with the team holding a 13-10 all-time record in those contests (NCAA, NIT and CIT games).
- ▶ The win over Elon also marked the Griffs' first home postseason victory since March 23, 1995, when the Blue and Gold defeated Washington State 89-83 in the quarterfinal round of the 1995 NIT. That game was played in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium and it allowed Canisius to advance to the NIT Final Four in Madison Square Garden.
- ▶ The 69-53 win over Elon also stands as the largest margin of victory for the Griffs in a postseason game. The previous program record for largest margin of victory in a postseason game belonged to the 1963 NIT team, which defeated Villanova 61-46 in the second round of the NIT in Madison Square Garden.

JIM BARON IN THE POSTSEASON

RECORD SETTING TURN-AROUND

- ▶ Canisius starts tonight's game with a 15-win improvement over last year's record. The 2011-12 Griffs won just five games, while this year's squad currently has 20 victories.
- ▶ The team's 15-win improvement this season not only ranks third in the nation at the Division I level, but it also stands as the program's best win differential.
- ▶ Prior to this season, the Griffs' best turn-around season was 1993-94, when former head coach John Beilein guided his second team to a 12-win improvement. The 1992-93 Canisius squad won 10 games, and then the 1993-94 squad won 22 games before losing in the NIT at Villanova.

BARON AND WASHINGTON EARN ALL-MAAC HONORS

- ▶ Canisius junior Billy Baron and senior Harold Washington were honored as All-MAAC selections March 4 when the conference unveiled its 2012-13 all-star teams via a conference call.
- ▶ Baron was named to the All-MAAC First Team, making him the first Canisius player to earn first-team all-league accolades since former Griff Darren Fenn was honored to the league's top all-star unit in 1999-00.
- ▶ Washington was a third-team choice this year. He was named All-MAAC Second Team in 2011-12, and is the eighth player in program history to be named to an all-MAAC team multiple times in his career.
- ▶ This marks the first time since 2006-07 where Canisius has had multiple players honored by the league on its postseason all-star teams.

JIM BARON REACHES THE 400 CAREER WIN MILESTONE

- ▶ First-year Canisius head coach Jim Baron reached the 400 career victory milestone Jan. 17 when the Golden Griffins defeated Manhattan in the Koessler Athletic Center.
- ▶ Entering this game, Baron has compiled his 409 career wins at four different Division I schools - St. Francis (Pa.), St. Bonaventure, Rhode Island and now Canisius. In terms of years as a Division I head coach, no one in the MAAC has spent more time as a head coach than Baron.
- ▶ By reaching the 400-win plateau, Baron is just the second Canisius head coach to reach that career-win mark, joining former Griff head coach and current Michigan head coach John Beilein.
- ▶ Baron' 20 wins so far this season are the most for a first-year Canisius head coach in program history. Former head coach Earl Brown held that record previously after he won 18 games during the 1946-47 season.

HIGH SCORING GRIFFS

- ▶ Canisius comes into this game averaging 73.2 points per game, which ranks third in the MAAC and 47th nationally.
- ▶ The Griffins have scored a total of 2,416 points this season, the second most in school history behind the 1994-95 Canisius squad that scored a program record 2,441 in 35 contests.
- ▶ Canisius' 94 points in the team's 94-82 victory at Marist Dec. 9 are the most points for the program since Canisius scored 103 points in a 113-103 overtime loss at Niagara Feb. 16, 2005.
- ▶ To find the last time Canisius scored 94 or more points in a regulation game, you have to go back to Jan. 10, 2001, when the Blue and Gold posted 95 points on the scoreboard in a 95-77 victory at home over conference rival Siena.
- ▶ The Blue and Gold scored 84 points in the team's overtime win at Youngstown State March 23 in the CIT, marking the ninth time this season the team has posted 80 or more points on the scoreboard in a game. The last time Canisius scored 80-plus in nine or more games was the 2000-01 campaign.

- ▶ Canisius shot just 57.1 percent (12-for-21) from the free-throw line in the team's 89-85 loss to Iona in the MAAC Tournament March 9. That game was just the fourth time this season Canisius shot below 60 percent from the charity stripe.

CHARGE IT

- ▶ Canisius sophomore forward Josiah Heath, junior center Jordan Heath and junior forward Chris Manhertz have combined to take 32 of the team's 50 offensive charges through 33 games this season.
- ▶ Josiah Heath leads the team with 16 offensive charges taken this year, highlighted by the three charges he drew in the Griffs' wins over Manhattan Jan. 17 and Buffalo Nov. 20. Josiah's older brother, junior center Jordan Heath is the only other Canisius player on this year's roster to draw two charges in the same game this year when he took two charges at Siena Jan. 11.
- ▶ This season, eight Griffs have drawn an offensive charge and all four of the team's normal front court rotation (both Heaths, Manhertz and senior center Freddy Asprilla) have three or more charges taken to their credit.
- ▶ Last season through 30 contests, the Griffs collected a total of 18 offensive charges, with Heath leading the way with his team-high six.

BILLY BARON IS ON POINT

- ▶ Junior Billy Baron was named All-MAAC First Team this season and he comes into tonight's game averaging 17.1 points and a MAAC-best 5.1 assists per game in his first year as a Golden Griff.
- ▶ Baron posted his third career double-double Jan. 13 at Iona when he scored 20 points while matching a career-high with 11 assists. He also had 11 assists at Marist Dec. 9. All three of his career double-doubles have come this season against MAAC opponents.
- ▶ Baron was named the MAAC Player of the Week two times this season (Dec. 10 and Dec. 31). He is the first Canisius player to earn multiple MAAC Player of the Week honors in the same season since former Griff Darren Fenn was honored twice during the 2000-01 campaign.
- ▶ The junior co-captain scored a game-high 30 points in the team's overtime win at Youngstown State March 23, in the second round of the CIT. That game marks the third time he's scored 30-or more points in a game this season, making him the first Canisius player to do that since Ray Hall scored 30-plus in three different games during the 1984-85 campaign.

THE BARON OF SHARING

- ▶ Canisius junior Billy Baron enters this game as the MAAC's leader in assists per game, as he's dishing out 5.1 per contest through 33 games this season, which ranks 58th in the nation.

- ▶ He starts tonight's game with 233 career assists, and his 168 assists this year ranks fifth on the school's single-season assist chart.
- ▶ Baron's ability to find the open shooter this year has proved to be beneficial for the team's 3-point shooting success. Of Baron's 168 assists this season, 102 of those assists have resulted in 3-point field goals, with senior Isaac Sosa connecting on 49 of those trifectas.

- ▶ Baron's 21 points stand as the best scoring performance for a Canisius player in his first career game as a Griff since Larry Fogle poured in 35 points in the team's 89-74 season-opening win over Gannon Dec. 1, 1973.
- ▶ The East Greenwich, R.I., native at Rhode Island last season, but was given clearance for a free transfer by the NCAA after his father Jim Baron left Rhode Island and became Canisius' head coach.

SELLING OUT THE KOESSLER

- ▶ The Niagara game Jan. 27 was officially a sellout, marking the fourth sellout this year (including the women's Kid's Day event) and for the 15th capacity crowd in the Koessler Athletic Center since the building was renovated prior to the 2002-03 season.
- ▶ The Koessler Athletic Center was also sold out Nov. 17 when the Blue and Gold hosted St. Bonaventure and Nov. 20, when the team played host to Buffalo. That marks the first back-to-back sellouts in the KAC in more than 15 years.
- ▶ The first sellout of 2,176 in the renovated building came Dec. 19, 2003 when the Bonnies and Griffs battled in St. Bonaventure's second visit to Canisius' on-campus facility. Since that time, Canisius has added 20 courtside seats, pushing the seat capacity to 2,196.

A NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER

- ▶ For the first time in the program's 109-year history, the Canisius men's basketball team won four games in the month of November, capped by the team's road win at UMBC Nov. 29.
- ▶ The Griffs played their first game in the month of November on Nov. 30, 1973 when the team started the season with a 99-72 win over Niagara.
- ▶ Prior to this year, the most wins for the team in November came during the 2000-01 campaign when the team went 3-0.

A RECORD-BREAKING DECEMBER

- ▶ Canisius closed out the month of December with a 9-4 overall record. Those nine wins stand as the most for the program prior to the start of January in school history.
- ▶ Canisius had won eight games before Jan. 1 three different times in school history, most recently in 1995-96 season. The team also won eight games before the start of the new year in 1956-57 and in 1950-51.

GRIFFS GET A ROAD WIN AT TEMPLE

- ▶ Canisius' 72-62 win over Temple on the road Dec. 19, marked the first time in school history the team defeated the Owls in five all-time meetings.
- ▶ The Griffs moved to 1-4 all-time against Temple, and the win over one of the Atlantic 10's premier programs gives the Blue and Gold two victories over A-10 squads this year, as the program also beat St. Bonaventure at home Nov. 17 by a score of 72-69.
- ▶ The win was Canisius' first win over an Atlantic 10 school other than St. Bonaventure since the team defeated Duquesne 88-71 during the 1998-99 campaign.

GRIFFS EARN A TELEVISED BRACKETBUSTER GAME

- ▶ Canisius earned one of 12 televised games this year in the Ramada Worldwide BracketBusters, a made-for-TV basketball event that features 122 teams from a number of mid-major conferences.
- ▶ The Griffs went on the road to Vermont and lost to the Catamounts by the final score of 87-79.
- ▶ The 2013 BracketBusters is the last year of this event, which was developed by ESPN. Canisius went 5-3 in BracketBuster games, with four of those eight games being played against member schools of the America East Conference.

A STRONG SCHEDULE FOR 2012-13

Griffs Return to the BracketBuster

The Canisius College men's basketball team traveled to play at Vermont Feb. 23 in the Patrick Gymnasium in the 11th annual Ramada Worldwide BracketBusters. The Golden Griffins and the Catamounts have earned one of 12 televised games, as this year's matchup was broadcast live on ESPN3.

This marks the eighth time Canisius has taken part in the BracketBusters series, where the team is 5-3 all-time after losing to Vermont. This year marks the first time the Blue and Gold played a TV game as part of the BracketBuster event.

The 11th annual Ramada Worldwide BracketBusters, a two-day men's college basketball event pitting potential NCAA Championship hopefuls against each other, feature 13 nationally televised games - across ESPN2, ESPNU and ESPN3. The NCAA hopefuls will be selected from a pool of 122 teams from 15 conferences, including Ohio University, which made a run into the Sweet Sixteen. This is the final year ESPN will sponsor the BracketBusters event.

Canisius Co-Hosts 2014 NCAA Tournament in Buffalo

On Nov. 12, the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee announced that the second and third rounds of the 2014 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament would return to First Niagara Center in downtown Buffalo. Canisius, along with the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and Niagara University will co-host the event, which will run March 20 & 22, 2014.

The 2014 tournament will mark the fifth time Canisius, the MAAC and Niagara have co-hosted the event in Buffalo. All four previous occasions have been sold out. A total of 53 cities put in bids to host rounds of the 2014 and 2015 tournaments, with 25 towns being selected by the NCAA.

Ticket information through Canisius will be online at GoGriffs.com when it becomes available.

Jim Baron

Head Coach • First Season at Canisius • St. Bonaventure '77

Jim Baron, a winner of 409 career games that includes eight 20-win seasons, two NCAA Tournament berths and 11 postseason appearances, was named the 23rd head coach in Canisius College men's basketball history, Canisius College Director of Athletics Bill Maher announced on April 2.

"I am extremely pleased to introduce Jim Baron as our men's basketball coach," Maher said at the time of Baron's hiring. "In naming Jim to this position, we have hired a man who has a proven track record of building successful basketball programs and developing young men. He is excited to return to Western New York to lead the Canisius College basketball program.

"Jim comes to us as a highly respected coach, having led three different institutions to postseason success. Our goal is to win the MAAC Championship, and I look forward to working with Jim to accomplish this goal at Canisius College."

A head coach at the Division I level for the past 25 seasons and a four-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year (1995 at St. Bonaventure, 2003, 2007 and 2009 at Rhode Island), Baron returns to Western New York after spending the previous 11 years at the University of Rhode Island where he won 184 games, made six postseason appearances (all 20-win seasons) and enjoyed a four-week appearance in the national rankings during the 2007-08 season. He improved the Rams' win total in six-straight seasons, from six wins in 2004-05 to 26 victories in 2009-10, and he helped guide the Rhode Island program to the 2010 NIT Final Four in Madison Square Garden, the team's first appearance in the NIT semifinal round since 1946.

"This is a great day for Canisius College basketball," Canisius College president John J. Hurley said when Baron was hired. "Jim Baron has demonstrated throughout his career that it is possible to match success on the court with success in the classroom. He has been a positive influence in the lives of hundreds of young men, and I'm tremendously excited about the prospect of working with Jim to restore Golden Griffin basketball to glory."

A 1977 graduate of St. Bonaventure University and 2009 inductee into the St. Bonaventure Athletics Hall of Fame, Baron spent nine seasons as head coach at his alma mater (1992-2001). Prior to his return to Olean, N.Y., the Bonnies had won 22 combined games during the previous three seasons. In his third year at the helm, he guided the team to an 18-13 record and a trip to the 1995 NIT. In his final two seasons, Baron led the Bonnies to a 39-22 mark, including the program's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 22 years, where St. Bonaventure fell to heavily favored Kentucky by a score of 85-80 in double overtime in the first round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament.

Baron's first head coaching experience came at St. Francis University (Pa.) in Loretto, Pa., where he led the Red Flash to the 1991 NCAA Tournament. That year, the team posted a 24-8 overall record and a 13-3 mark in the Northeast Conference, which resulted in the program's only NEC Tournament title and appearance in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming a head coach, Baron, 58, was an assistant coach at four institutions - the University of Notre Dame (1981-87), St. Bonaventure (1980-81), Loyola University (Md.) (1979-80) and the University of Rochester (1978-79). He got his start in coaching at Aquinas High School in Rochester, N.Y. During his four years as a student-athlete at St. Bonaventure, the Bonnies were 72-38 and as a senior, Baron served as a co-captain when the Bonnies went 24-6 and won the 1977 NIT Championship.

Baron and his wife Cindy have two sons, Jimmy - a former standout guard for Rhode Island who graduated from the school in 2009 - and Billy, who is currently enrolled at Canisius and is a junior guard on the men's basketball team.
