Marc Mitchell (Kean '00)

Head Coach

4th season

Marc Mitchell enters his 4th season at the helm of the Saint Peter's University Women's Basketball Team.

Marc Mitchell was appointed as the eighth Saint Peter's University women's basketball head coach in March 2018.

Mitchell enters his fourth year of leading the Peacocks, following the team's most successful campaign since 2002. He was named the 2021 "The Rock" MAAC Co-Coach of the Year, the first Peacock coach to claim the awards since 1999, after leading the Peacocks to the three-seed in the 2021 MAAC Tournament, and reaching the championship game for the first time since 2002.

Under coach Mitchell's leadership, current graduate student Kendrea Williams earned a selection to the 2020-21 All-MAAC Third Team and a 2021-22 Preseason All-MAAC Second Team Selection. During her the 2020-21 campaign, Williams finished the season as one of the MAAC's elite three-point shooters, finishing with 52 deep shots made during the season, while also shooting 36% from downtown.

Prior to joining the Peacocks, Mitchell enjoyed a highly successful career at Farleigh Dickinson University-Florham, where he led the Devils for nine seasons.

While there, he became the Division III program's all-time winningest coach, compiling a career record of 187-67 (.736). Under his guidance, the Devil's claimed an unprecedented six straight Middle Atlantic Conference Freedom Championships, making six straight NCAA Division III tournament appearances. During the six-year run, Mitchell's teams won 20 or more games in every season and he won 86.5 percent of his contests posting a 154-24 overall record over the half dozen year span. Mitchell's best campaign came during the 2013-14 season, when the Devil's posted a perfect 33-0 record and capped off the season as the NCAA Division III national champions.

The national title was the first in FDU-Florham history, and the Devils became the first team to win the NCAA Division III women's basketball championships from the state of New Jersey.

In addition to the national title run, Mitchell's squads have made trips to the Elite Eight twice and won at least one NCAA tournament game in five out of the six appearances.

Mitchell has garnered coaching honors for Freedom Conference Coach of the Year four times, D3 News Coach of the Year, WBCA Coach of the Year, and the All-MET Coach of the Year. Prior to joining FDU-Florham, Mitchell was the top assistant at Caldwell College in 2008-09. He spent 2007-08 as an assistant coach at New Jersey City University and three previous seasons as the Head Girls Basketball at Elizabeth High School. While at Elizabeth, he led the squad to the County Semifinals in 2005 and to the State Tournament all three years.

He graduated from Kean University in 2000 with a degree in History and he earned his Master's Degree in Education from American Intercontinental in 2008.

MAKING HISTORY

Saint Peter's went to its first MAAC Championship game since the program's 2002 season, when the Peacocks won their ninth conference title, defeating Siena 83-71. Head coach Marc Mitchell is also the first Peacocks' women's basketball head coach to reach the MAAC Championship Final since Saint Peter's hall of fame coach Mike Granelli. Additionally, the Peacocks won 13 games last season; the most by the program since 2008-09, when the Peacocks finished 13-15 overall. The team also made its first appearance in the MAAC Championship as a three-seed in 30 years, with all intermediate appearances coming as a two-seed or higher.

POWER IN THE POST

Junior center Kassondra Brown has had a major impact through her first season as a Peacock. Second on the Peacocks with 29.3 minutes per game, Brown has been a force on the glass, leading the team with 9.4 rebounds per game. She has also put up some numbers in the scoring column, as she is second on the team in scoring, averaging 14.6 points per game. Brown scored a team high 21 points in the game against Niagara. She also leads the Peacocks in blocks, steals, and assists. Brown has three double-doubles on the season.

COACH OF THE YEAR

In just his third season at the helm for the Peacocks, head coach Marc Mitchell won 2021 "The Rock" MAAC Co-Coach of the Year. The award comes following the team's best finish to the regular season in over a decade and a No. 3 seed in last year's championship, marking the program's best postseason finish in 19 years. Additionally, Mitchell is only the second coach in Saint Peter's women's basketball history to earn the distinction, and the first to do so since 1999 when Saint Peter's hall of fame coach Mike Granelli won his final Coach of the Year award. Mitchell stands as the second Black man to receive MAAC Women's Basketball Coach of the Year recognition, joining Iona head coach Billi Chambers as the only other Black head coach to earn the award in conference history.

RUN BABY RUN

Saint Peter's unveils a new home court this season after playing their home games at New Jersey City University last season. The "Run Baby Run" Arena is named after the famed men's basketball team of 1967-68, who won the NIT tournament in that season, as well as taking down powerhouse Duke en route to the title. The Arena, located in the Victor R. Yanitelli Life Center, features a new court to showcase the new Peacocks logo, two video boards, new bleachers, and upgrades to the surrounding areas of the arena. The Peacocks are 1-3 at home this season.

MILESTONES ON MILESTONES

Graduate guard Kendrea Williams is hit the 2,000 point mark of her career after making a basket with 3:47 left in the second quarter in the game against Canisius on Dec. 18. Williams ranks fourth amongst the active career scoring leaders in the country. She is also close to totalling 1,000 at Saint Peter's, as she only needs 144 more to achieve that number. She would become the 24th Peacock of all-time to achieve that mark.

SLOW "START"

Prior to the Christmas break and COVID pause, the Peacocks had won three straight games, taking down Canisius, Niagara, and Fairleigh Dickinson. Coming out of the break, Saint Peter's has dropped two straight, both to Quinnipiac who was the Preseason favorite to win the MAAC. The Peacocks hadn't lost two straight games by double digits since the beginning of the year, dropping matchups to Rutgers and Lehigh on the road.
