NOTABLE NOTES

NEW YORK STATE OF MIND

Canisius begins the final road game of the regular season at MAAC-leaders Iona. Tip-off from New Rochelle, N.Y., is scheduled for 1 p.m., with the game airing on ESPN3.

FOUR FOR 14

Freshman forward Sisi Eleko was tabbed the Hercules Tires MAAC Rookie of the Week, the league office announced on Feb. 20. This is Eleko's fourth weekly honor this season and her first since Jan. 2. The Montreal, Quebec, native had an impressive week, averaging 10.0 points and 2.5 rebounds while shooting 10-of-13 (.769) from the floor across two games. Against Battle of the Bridge rival Niagara on Feb. 15, Eleko tallied eight points and grabbed three rebounds. Her best game of the week came against Fairfield on Feb. 17, as she finished with 12 points, two rebounds and one block in the Griff's 73-60 victory. She is one of three players this season to earn Rookie of the Week honors as they only other two players are Siena's Teresa Seppala and Elisa Meivius.

YOUNG HEARTS

The Golden Griffins have one of the youngest rosters in the nation with 11 underclassmen and just four upperclassmen. Of the 11 underclassmen, five have started in at least one game this year (Rhay Porter, Chloe Chard Peloquin, Athina Lexa, Sisi Eleko and Brooklyn Thrash). The youngest roster in the nation belongs to East Tennessee State, which boasts 12 underclassmen on a 14 player roster.

THE TRILOGY

For the third time this season, freshman forward Sisi Eleko will face the MAAC Player of the Week while holding Rookie of the Week honors when her and Ketsia Athias of Iona take the court on Feb. 25. On Dec. 29, Eleko faced Manhattan's Dee Dee Davis while the very next week, the Montreal, Quebec, native played Mikala Morris of Quinnipiac on Jan. 7.

BETTER THAN THE REST

As a team, Canisius is first in the MAAC and 45th in the nation for free-throw percentage at 75.8%. The Blue and Gold are above ranked teams such as No. 4 UCONN (53rd, Big East), No. 7 Iowa (56th, B10) and No. 9 Virginia Tech (64th, ACC). The next closest MAAC team to Canisius for free-throw percentage is Rider, who sits at 90th with a free-throw percentage of 73.6%

WHAT IS A GRIFFIN?

The Griffin is a mythical creature of supposed gigantic size that has the head, forelegs and wings of an eagle and the hindquarters, tail and ears of a lion. They are well known for their speed, ability to fly and having eyes like an eagle as well as the strength and courage of a lion.

Griffins have been known for centuries as symbols of strength and vigilance, have been called "The Hounds of Zeus" in Greek mythology and are said to have mastery of both the land and sky.

They are thought to be from India, where the natives of the land made their talons and claws into drinking cups because the talon of a Griffin was said to detect poison in a liquid. Griffins would find gold in the mountains and line their nests with it and as a result, were forced to become great guardians of the nests to keep the hunters away.

WELCOME HOME JANE!

Senior guard Jane McCauley comes from New Rochelle, N.Y. and went to high school at the Ursuline School. While there, she was a two-time Basketball All-League and All-Section I honoree in 2017-18 and 2018-19 and won two Basketball League Championships (2016-17 and 2017-18). McCauley also was a four-year letterwinner on the softball diamond as well.

NEW NAMES IN THE BOOK

Canisius head coach Sahar Nusseibeh has used five different combinations this year. The lineup of Vannessa Garrelts, Dani Haskell, Athina Lexa, Cheyenne Stubbs and Sisi Eleko has been used for the past five games, making it the second most used lineup this season. The first time this year that the lineup was used was on Jan. 25 at Niagara, with the starting five accounting for 49 of the Griffs 70 points.

FINALLY AT THE FREE-THROW LINE

Senior guard Jane McCauley attempted her first two free-throws of the season against Niagara on Jan. 25, going 1-of-2 from the line. Previously, the New Rochelle, N.Y., led the nation in minutes played without attempting one shot from the charity stripe at 315.

FIRST YEAR PRODUCTION

Three freshmen, Adrien LaMora, Chloe Chard Peloquin and Sisi Eleko, have all averaged over 10 minutes of court time during the last four contests. Since Feb. 9 at Quinnipiac, LaMora has been the court for an average of 12.1 minutes, Chard Peloquin has averaged 16.1 minutes, Thrash sits at 15.0 minutes and Eleko leads the pack, averaging 22.0 minutes of action over the last three contests.

LOOK OUT BELOW

Canisius graduate student guard Vannessa Garrelts only stands at 5'4, but on Jan. 5 against Saint Peter's, recorded her first block of the season and fifth of her career. Across the rest of Division I this season, four shorter players have been credited with a block. Regina Walton (5'3) of Elon, Cara McCormack (5'3) of Holy Cross, Annika Shah (5'3) of Cal Poly and Nevaeh Tot of Oklahoma (5'2) are the only players shorter than Garrelts who have registered a block.

THIS OR THAT

Ahead of the 2022-23 season, the Canisius women's basketball team was surveyed about major issues of today such as are you a dog or a cat person, which 100% of the team said they are dog people with no one picking cats.

When it came to what sport they would play if it wasn't basketball, 1/3 of the team said they would pursue volleyball, another third said softball, three players said soccer, and only one, sophomore guard Athina Lexa, said she would hit the clay and play tennis.

Pancakes and waffles was about evenly divided the Golden Griffins with 40% of the team picking pancakes and 60% picking waffles for their breakfast food options. More divisive was the issue on what season is the best with 1/3 players picking fall, 1/3 picking summer, but only one player picked winter, and again it was guard Athina Lexa as the odd one out. Freshman forward Adrien LaMora could not pick just one season and said her favorite time of year is the transition from summer to fall.

On social media, the team is almost evenly split with 40% of the team choosing Instagram and another 40% picking Tik Tok. Only two members of the team picked Snapchat as their preferred social media with Sisi Eleko and Giana Hernandez Boulden selecting the app. When asked if they prefer to sing or dance, 45% of the team picked singing while another 45% said dancing. Graduate student Vanessa Garrelts said she can't sing or dance while freshman forward Chloe Chard Peloquin said she loves both equally.

On gameday, almost the entire team says that shoes make a gameday outfit with only Rhay Porter and Xanthippi Karatasiou saying that a shirt makes or breaks a gameday outfit.

The most divisive issue was the question of what is the best postgame meal with nearly everyone on the team answering something different. Local pizza place Francos had the support of Dani Haskell and Cheyenne Stubbs. Chicken and potatoes had support from Sisi Eleko and Xanthippi Karatasiou which was tied with sandwiches (Brooklyn Thrash and Giana Hernandez Boulden) and Sushi (Elia Paez and Rhay Porter). After the four way tie for first, it was a variety of answers with smoothies (Jane McCauley), Jrecks (Adrien LaMora), ice cream (Chloe Peloquin), and salads (Athina Lexa) each receiving one vote. Lydia Gattozzi appealed to the Buffalo faithful by selecting wings as her favorite postgame meal. Vanessa Garrelts doesn't care what the food is, as any food is good for a postgame meal, especially after a win!

Basketball players travel a lot and the team loves their trips to NYC (Manhattan/Iona) as 47% of the team supports seeing the Big Apple. Only one player, Giana Hernandez Boulden, said she liked the trip to Rider. Three players, Dani Haskell, Sisi Eleko and Cheyenne Stubbs, say it doesn't matter where the team travels, they're going to win anyways wherever they go.

Finally, almost all of the team loves their blue jerseys, but it says almost not all. Cheyenne Stubbs and Sisi Eleko actually prefer their gold jerseys, the same jerseys the team wore during media day.

HEAD COACH - SAHAR NUSSEIBEH

Sahar Nusseibeh (pronounced new-SAY-bay) enters her second season as the head coach of the Canisius women's basketball program.

Nusseibeh was officially named the 10th head coach in program history on July 23, 2021. A long-time assistant coach with 12 years of Division I coaching experience, Nusseibeh took over the Canisius program after spending the previous two seasons at Miami University where she also held the title of defensive coordinator.

In her first season on Main Street, Nusseibeh led the squad to a MAAC Women's Basketball Championship opening round win, becoming the first No. 11 seed to win a game in the tournament's history. Two Golden Griffins also received all-conference accolades as sophomore Dani Haskell was named an All-MAAC Third Team honoree and freshman Athina Lexa was a unanimous selection to the All-MAAC Rookie Team.

The 2021-22 campaign saw the Griffs set a program record for 3-pointers made in a contest with 15 in an 81-78 win versus Siena on Jan. 29, 2022. The team was also one 3-pointer shy of tying the program record for 3-pointers made, set during the 2008-09 season (252). Canisius also led the MAAC and ranked 28th in the nation with its 251 three-point field goals made.

As the defensive coordinator at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, Nusseibeh was responsible for developing and implementing all aspects of team and individual defensive concepts. She also worked on game planning the team's defensive strategies and was in charge of all defensive play calls and in-game adjustments during timeouts and in-game action. Prior to joining the Redhawks' staff, she spent three seasons (2016-19) as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive coordinator at Manhattan College in Riverdale, N.Y.

During her time at Manhattan, Nusseibeh played a key role in recruiting and coaching five All-MAAC selections, two MAAC All-Rookie Team honorees and the 2019 MAAC Women's Defensive Player of the Year. One of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) "Thirty Under 30" honorees in 2016, Nusseibeh led the Jaspers' defensive efforts which saw Manhattan rank among the top-five in the MAAC in scoring defense, blocked shots and turnovers forced in three straight seasons. In her final year at Manhattan, the Jaspers ranked 17th nationally in scoring defense (56.3 points per game allowed), while also placing in the top-100 nationally in field goal percentage defense (75th), steals per game (76th), blocked shots per game (63rd) and turnovers forced (79th).

Nusseibeh was a part of the Bowling Green coaching staff for three seasons (2013-16) and helped lead the Falcons to a 2013-14 Mid-American Conference regular-season crown after the team went 30-5 overall and 17-1 in league play. She recruited and coached five All-MAC honorees, including an All-America selection, and she played a key role in helping Bowling Green earn three-straight WBCA Top-25 Team Academic Awards.

Nusseibeh began her collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati, where she was the video coordinator, academic liaison and assisted in coaching the post players. She then spent two seasons at Holy Cross as an assistant coach where she also handled video operations and worked with the posts.

Prior to beginning her collegiate coaching career, Nusseibeh completed internships with the WNBA's Atlanta Dream (2007) and Washington Mystics (2009), and worked with USA Basketball on preparing the U19 World University Games teams for competitions in Thailand and Serbia.

A member of the 2006 Patriot League All-Rookie Team, Nusseibeh played 116 career games at American, where she won a pair of league regular-season titles as a member of the Eagles' program. She was a member of the program when it made a pair of WNIT appearances, the first two postseason berths in program history.

Nusseibeh earned her undergraduate degree in international relations/international business from American in 2009 and then went on to earn her MBA from Cincinnati in 2011.

While serving as the program's head of recruiting, she worked with and developed five All-America honorees, a national Player of the Year award winner and multiple all-conference, all-district and all-tournament team selections.

"We are thrilled to welcome coach Shareese Ulis-McBrayer to our Griff family," Canisius head coach Sahar Nusseibeh said at the time of her hire. "Coach U brings a wealth of knowledge, and will not only develop our perimeters and help take them to the next level on the court, but she will use her experience to connect with our team off the court as well. Coach U is a winner - her national championship with Owens speaks for itself.
