A SHORT HISTORY OF UIW MEN'S BASKETBALL

Founded as a Catholic college for women in 1881, the University of the Incarnate Word admitted its first male undergraduate students during the 1970-71 school year. A decade later, UIW fielded a men's basketball team. Few records survive from the first few seasons.

A reliable statistical history became available with the beginning of UIW's play in the NAIA Division I Heart of Texas Conference in 1987-88. During the next 12 seasons, UIW won a total of 11 conference regular-season and tournament championships. The Crusaders, as they were called then, played in the NAIA D1 postseason tournament nine times and reached the final eight in 1997-98. At one point during the 1998-99 season, they were ranked #1 in the national polls.

In 1999-2000, UIW move up to NCAA Division II, that year as an independent and then for the next ten seasons as members of two different D2 conferences--the Heartland and Lone Star. UIW, which changed its nickname to the Cardinals in 2004, won a regular-season Lone Star championship in 2001-02. It won both regular-season and tournament championships in 2008-09 and 2009-10. The Cardinals appeared in the postseason three times as a D2 competitor.

UIW moved to Division I for the 2013-14 season, joining the Southland Conference. At the end of the 2014-15 season, the Cardinals saw action in the College Insider Tournament. Some of the more notable D1 wins for UIW have occurred against the Princeton and Nebraska.

Since the 1987-88 season, UIW has compiled a 634-526 record in men's basketball.

Cardinals win

NCAA Division I free throw percentage award

The University of the Incarnate Word men's basketball team won the Division I 2018-19 men's basketball statistical championship for Free Throw Percentage.

The Cardinals made 81 percent of their shots from the charity stripe, finishing eight-tenths of a percent ahead of national runner-up Hofstra.

Five UIW players contributed to the team record by posting free throw percentages above 80 percent: Charles Brown III (88.3), Christian Peevy and Jordan Kyte (87.5), Augustine Ene (86.2), Dwight Murray Jr. (85.7) and Antoine Smith Jr. (80.6).

The Cardinals could thank a coaching staff that, over the years, has demonstrated a talent for recruiting and coaching shooters.

Head coach Dr. Carson Cunningham once coached his Carroll College team to the NAIA D1 team leadership in both field goal and free throw for three consecutive years.

Assistant coach Darnell Archey holds the NCAA D1 record for consecutive free throws made, 95, set while he played for Butler University.
