NUMBERS TO KNOW

5

Last season the Cardinals broke the D1 program record for sweeps in a season with five.

23

Last season catcher JD Gregson broke the single-season record for most runners caught stealing.

127

LHP Josh Salinas was ranked as the #127 SP by D1 Baseball prior to the 2025 season starting.

21

The Cardinals are welcoming twenty one new players to the 2025 roster.

Like Father, like Sons

Rey and Edward Mendoza are the sons of the former Cardinal, Reynol Mendoza (1990-92). Reynol was named to the NAIA Academic All-District, District All-Tournament, and Heard of Texas All-Conference Teams. He led the team in strikeouts, complete games, and innings pitched. He's fourth in the career book in shutouts with three and in complete games with 15, while sitting in ninth for strikeouts with 173.

Reynol Mendoza was the 208th pick in the seventh round to the Florida Marlins. He compiled a career record of 48 wins and 48 losses, with 11 saves, and a 4.47 ERA in his 175-game pitching career with the Erie Sailors, Kane County Cougars, Marlins, Brevard County Manatees, Portland Sea Dogs and Charlotte Knights. He began playing during the 1992 season and last took the field during the 1998 campaign.

Two Preseason Picks

Rey Mendoza (DH) and Josh Salinas (SP) earned preseason honors after being named to the Southland Conference Preseason All-Conference First Team.

Mendoza, the 2023 Newcomer of the Year battled an injury for most of the season but still put-up numbers for the Cardinals with 31 runs, 37 hits, seven doubles, four home runs, and 24 RBIs through 38 games. Defensively, he held a perfect fielding percentage at left field with 80 catches, 78 POs, and two assists. In his first season as a Cardinal in 2023, Mendoza made an immediate impact, earning the title of Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year. As the go-to player for UIW all season, he came in clutch with three walk-off homers to help the team to crucial victories and the highest SLC seed in program history at No. 2. Mendoza led the team in runs with 48 and in RBIs with 61 which put him first in the conference and the UIW season record book.

In his first season at UIW Salinas led the Cardinal pitching staff with a 5-3 record through 14 starts on the mound, with one shutout and two complete games. He pitched 77 innings, striking out 76 batters for a 4.89 ERA while limiting opponents to a .234 batting average.

RYAN SHOTZBERGER

Head Coach

The Shotzberger File

Name: Ryan Shotzberger	COACHING CAREER
Hometown: Wilmington, Delaware	UIW, 2020 - Present
Education: McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland)	Record (105-123)

Ryan Shotzberger was tabbed the head coach of the University of the Incarnate Word baseball program on June 24, 2019.

The start of the 2024 season was the best start in DI program history as the Cardinals cruised to 7-1 record. During this time, UIW was ranked nationally, coming in first in triples, third in runs scored, seventh in hits, eighth in batting average, and fifteenth in home runs. Shotzberger tallied his 300th career win during the 2024 season with a victory over Northwestern State University. The Cardinals ended the season at the Southland Conference Tournament against No. 1 Lamar. Two student-athletes received postseason honors as designated hitter Dalton Beck was named the Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year and to the All-Conference First Team, while outfielder Cameron Caley earned second-team status.

The 2023 season has been his most successful season yet with the Cardinals, sending the team to the Southland Conference Tournament as the No. 2 seed, the highest seed the team has received since joining the Southland. UIW closed out the regular season 28-24, losing only two SLC series. Shotzberger coached five student-athletes to postseason honors including the SLC Relief Pitcher of the Year, Steve Hayward and Newcomer of the Year Rey Mendoza.

The Cardinals ended the 2022 season with their highest-ever Southland Conference Tournament finish, falling to No. 1 McNeese in the Semifinals after finishing out the regular season with a 21-31 overall record.

Shotzberger has been part of successful programs on staff at both Houston and TCU. In total, he has helped those programs to seven 40+ win seasons. Shotzberger has 13 conference championships under his belt with eight regular-season championships and five conference tournament championships. He has helped his teams to 10 postseason appearances, including nine trips to NCAA Regionals, three appearances at NCAA Super Regionals, and one trip to the College World Series.

Additionally, Shotzberger has worked with 60 players who have been drafted, with eight of those appearing on active Major League Baseball rosters. Five former players are currently on active MLB rosters.

Shotzberger came to UIW after an eight-year stint at the University of Houston, where he was most recently an assistant coach who oversaw the Cougar offense.

Head Coach

AT HOUSTON (2012-19)

In 2019, Shotzberger helped guide the Cougars to a 32-24 overall mark (with a 12-12 record in the American Athletic Conference). Houston had notable wins over No. 24 Arizona, No. 11 East Carolina (ECU) and No. 7 Texas A&M.

Under Shotzberger's guidance, Jared Triolo was selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates as the 72nd pick in the Competitive Balance Round B. As a junior in 2019, Triolo posted a .512 slugging percentage, and a .420 on-base percentage. He led the Cougars in batting average (.332), hits (72), doubles (18) and runs scored (46) en route to Second Team All-AAC honors at third base.

Shotzberger helped Houston's 2018 team to a 38-25 overall record (with a 16-8 mark in the AAC), an AAC regular-season title, and an NCAA Chapel Hill Regional berth.

Houston slugger Joe Davis broke the Cougar all-time home run record by hitting 13 home runs in 2018 to tally 35 total in his career. Davis was a second team all-conference honoree and hit .318 while driving in a league-leading 62 RBI.

Third baseman Jared Triolo started all 63 games at third base, finishing with a .344 average and 85 hits. Triolo reached base in all but three games during the 2018 season.

Four Cougars earned all-conference honors (Trey Cumbie, Aaron Fletcher, Lael Lockhart Jr., Joe Davis) and three were selected in the MLB First Year Player Draft (Cumbie, Fletcher, Joey Pulido).

Over his first six years with the Cougars, Shotzberger helped Houston to four American Athletic Conference Championship titles, three 40-win seasons, a Super Regional appearance and two NCAA Regional host bids.

AT TCU (2007-11)

Prior to Houston, Shotzberger spent five years on staff at TCU with Todd Whitting. While with the Horned Frogs, he coached the catchers, assisted with the hitters, threw batting practice, manned the bullpen during games and filled in as the first base coach. Shotzberger also tutored three All-Conference catchers in Andrew Walker, Josh Elander and Bryan Holaday, the 2010 Johnny Bench Award recipient.

AT DUKE (2006)

Shotzberger spent the 2006 season on the Duke staff. While in Durham, North Carolina, he was responsible for coaching the infielders, hitters, base runner and catchers.

PERSONAL

A native of Wilmington, Delaware, Shotzberger attended McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland) in Westminster, Maryland. A four-year letterwinner at shortstop, he earned First Team All-Centennial Conference honors in 2003 and 2004. He was also named the team MVP. Shotzberger graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2004. He is married to Angie and has one son, Thomas.
