Quite The Comeback

- Trailing 67-45 with 6:16 left in regulation, Western Carolina rallied to defeat Jacksonville 98-96 in double overtime on Thursday.
- The Catamounts are the 10th team in D1 history to erase a 22-point second half deficit and win.
- Prior to Thursday, WCU had not won a double-overtime game since defeating Wofford 85-83 in the SoCon Tournament on March 5, 2016.
- WCU is the ONLY team in D1 history to win a game it was trailing by more than 20 points in the second half with less than nine minutes remaining in regulation.

On the Marc(us)

- Marcus Thomas scored a season-high 21 points off the bench for the Catamounts on Thursday before fouling out. Thomas was held scoreless in his first time games this season.

Weekly Honor

- Redshirt junior Mason Faulkner was named the Southern Conference Player of the Week on Tuesday after he averaged 17.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 8.5 assists per game last week.
- Faulkner and WCU women's basketball standout Jewel Smalls both won the Player of the Week award. It is the first time that the Catamounts have swept the weekly awards in both men's and women's basketball in the same week since WCU Hall of Fame member Kevin Martin and Tiffany Hamm both won the weekly award on Dec. 3, 2003.

Couldn't Hang On

- Western Carolina held a 17-point lead with 4:30 remaining in the first half, but Florida State rallied for a 79-74 win in Tallahassee. The Seminoles took the lead for good with 45 seconds remaining. Mason Faulkner had a game-high 21 points to lead the Catamounts.

Trip. Trip. Triple!!!

- Redshirt junior Mason Faulkner recorded a triple-double on Nov. 12 against North Carolina A&T with 13 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists. It is the first triple-double for WCU during the NCAA Division I era which began in 1976-77 - and quite possibly the first in school history according to research and available records.
- Faulkner's triple-double was the first in the SoCon since Dec. 3, 2011 when Chattanooga's Keegan Bell had 12 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists against College of Charleston.

A Lot of 3's

- Western Carolina went 15-for-28 from behind the 3-point line on Tuesday. WCU accomplished the feat for the fifth time in program history and it is tied for fifth-most in a single game.

Not A Bad November

- With Tuesday's win over North Carolina A&T the Catamounts have won multiple games over Division I foes in November for the first time since 2014-15. During that season, WCU defeated Oakland 88-79 in double overtime and followed that with a 66-61 triumph against Chicago State.

Home Sweet 'Whee

- The Catamounts won their home opener 71-59 over

FAULKNER LEADS SECOND HALF CHARGE IN WIN OVER CHATTANOOGA

Cullowhee, N.C. — Redshirt junior Mason Faulkner scored a career-high 31 points, 29 of which came in the second half, as Western Carolina rallied past Chattanooga 87-77 in the Southern Conference opener for both teams Tuesday at the Ramsey Center.

Faulkner went 8-for-19 from the field, 3-for-8 behind the 3-point line and 12-for-16 at the free throw line while also dishing out a team-best six assists to lead WCU. Senior Carlos Dotson posted his second straight double-double with a season-high 21 points and 12 rebounds coming on 10-of-11 shooting.

WCU's comeback victory was spurred by 58 points in the second half, the most by the Catamounts in a half this season and most since tallying 60 points in the second half in a 103-82 win over The Citadel on Feb. 16, 2019.

Matt Ryan led Chattanooga (5-4, 0-1) with 18 points - 16 in the first half - and seven rebounds. David Jean-Baptiste had 14 points followed by Maurice Commander with 11.

Western Carolina (6-2, 1-0 SoCon) opened the game with 10-2 run capped by a Faulkner bucket at the 15:41 mark. Chattanooga then responded with a 15-3 run, claiming its first lead of the game on a Grant Ledford 3-pointer at the 12-minute mark. An A.J. Caldwell trey gave the visitors a game-high 12-point lead, 28-16, with 5:53 to play in the opening stanza. Ryan's 3-pointer with 37 seconds remaining sent the Mocs into halftime with a 39-29 advantage.

After a pair of Commander free throws handed Chattanooga a 45-34 edge with just under 17 minutes remaining, WCU mounted a 12-to-1 run to close within two, 48-46, after a Marcus Thomas layup with 12:13 to play. Chattanooga pushed its lead back out to seven, 59-52, after a Caldwell layup at the 9:17 mark.

From there, the Catamounts embarked on a 13-0 run capped by a Dotson layup with 6:16 to go for a 65-59 lead. WCU led by 11 points on two occasions over the next four minutes before the Mocs cut the lead to six, 80-74, thanks to two Stefan Kenic free throws with 59 seconds remaining. Chattanooga would get no closer as the Catamounts sank free throws in the final 40 seconds to secure the win.

Chattanooga slightly outshot Western Carolina from the field by a 48.5 percent to 45.8 percent margin for the game. The Mocs made 7-of-15 3-point attempts in the first half but only converted two of 14 3-pointers in the second half. By comparison, WCU went 3-for-9 behind the arc in the first half and 5-for-10 in the second. WCU outrebounded Chattanooga 39-25 and outscored the Mocs in the paint 42-34.

2019-20 Western Carolina Men's Basketball

GAME 9 • DEC. 7, 2019 • LISTON B. RAMSEY REGIONAL ACTIVITY CENTER • CULLOWHEE, N.C.

WESTERN CAROLINA HEAD COACH MARK PROSSER

A former associate head coach at Winthrop University and 15-year NCAA coaching veteran, Mark Prosser was introduced as Western Carolina University's 18th head men's basketball coach by Director of Athletics Randy Eaton on March 27, 2018 in a press conference held on campus in the Ramsey Center Hospitality Room.

Prosser, who just completed his sixth year on the men's basketball staff at Winthrop, has ties to the Southern Conference including two stints alongside head coach Mike Young at Wofford College where he helped guide the Terriers to consecutive regular season championships in 2009-10 and 2010-11. WCU is the second head coaching position for Prosser. He is the son of the late Skip Prosser, who guided three programs to a total of eight NCAA tournament appearances during his career.

Between four different NCAA-member institutions, Prosser has been an integral part of recruiting, developing and coaching a total of 28 all-conference players including two conference players of the year, two conference defensive players of the year and a combined eight all-freshman team selections. Teams he has helped coach have appeared in nine conference championship title games and have made five NCAA Tournament post-season appearances, twice pulling off first-round upsets.

"Just over three weeks since Coach Larry Hunter resigned, our search ends today. We didn't find a guy; we found 'THE' guy," said Eaton. "Mark Prosser has everything we were looking for in our next head men's basketball coach: a plethora of experience assisting in building successful mid-major programs, both on-and-off the court; recruiting ties not only to the southeastern United States, but also a strong history of recruiting nationally and internationally; a proven leader of young men, leading them in life as much as the game; a family man, who along with his wife Emily, daughter Ava Grayce, and son Declan, has already become one of us; and a fit in our department, our campus, our community -- in short, the entirety of the Catamount Nation."

Eaton added, "Speaking with those in the college basketball industry who know the business better than I, or those who simply watch televised games, Mark's name continued to come up. Essentially, this is a slam dunk for WCU men's basketball."

Prosser comes to Cullowhee after six highly successful years on the bench at Winthrop. Alongside head coach Pat Kelsey -- a former player for and assistant coach with Prosser's father, Skip, at Xavier and Wake Forest -- the Eagles compiled an impressive record of 102-59 over the past five seasons, highlighted by four-consecutive Big South Tournament title game appearances and a 2017 NCAA Tournament berth. Prosser helped orchestrate the offense of the 2015-16 Winthrop squad that ranked 13th nationally with an average of 82.2 points per game including the 23rd-best free throw percentage (74.9-percent) and an average of 8.9 made 3-pointers made per game to rank 32nd overall in the NCAA.

During his tenure in Rock Hill, S.C., Prosser led the development of Big South Player of the Year and All-American honorable mention, Keon Johnson, and first team All-Big South selection, Xavier Cooks. He also was the primary recruiter of Keon Moore, who set the school's NCAA Division seasonal scoring record and was Winthrop's first All-Big South selection since 2006-07.

Prosser began his first of two coaching stretches at Wofford College in the summer of 2002 where he served as an assistant coach for the Terriers in Mike Young's first season as head coach. During that season, Wofford posted a 14-15 overall record, including a 79-77 win at Virginia Tech. In the SoCon, the Terriers were 8-8 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the conference tournament.

After one season, he parlayed the experience into an assistant coaching position on Pat Flannery's staff at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pa. As an assistant coach, Prosser helped the Bison to a 99-57 record in five years including three Patriot League regular season titles and a pair of tournament crowns. Those squads averaged 20 wins a season while Prosser was on the coaching staff.

It was at Bucknell that Prosser experienced the most post-season success as the Bison scored two NCAA Tournament upset victories during his tenure. In 2005, the 14th-seeded Bison upset No. 3 Kansas in the first round, earning the award for "Best Upset" at the 2005 ESPY Awards, and finished the year ranked 25th overall nationally with a 23-10 record. The following season, No. 9 seed Bucknell defeated No. 8 Arkansas in March Madness.

In 2005-06, the Bison went undefeated in Patriot League play, the first team to do so in conference history. The team was ranked in the top 25 for the first time in school history and featured Patriot League Player of the Year Charles Lee. For the NCAA Tournament, the Bison were seeded 9th and defeated Arkansas in the first round. In the second round they were defeated by Memphis to end the season at 27-5, the best record in school history.

While at Bucknell, Prosser signed 2008 Patriot League All-Freshman team selection Todd O'Brien and was involved in the player development of Charles Lee, who went on to sign a professional contract with the NBA's San Antonio Spurs. Lee was a three-time All-Patriot League selection and the 2006 Patriot League Player of the Year.

In the summer of 2008, Prosser returned to the sidelines at Southern Conference-member Wofford. During his first season back in Spartanburg in 2008, the Terriers set a school record with 12 SoCon wins. In addition, the team posted its first winning overall record since moving to the NCAA Division I level. The following year, Prosser helped Wofford reach a school-record 26 wins along with the Southern Conference Championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

All told, with Prosser on the bench in Spartanburg, the Terriers posted a 63-36 (.636) overall record, highlighted by back-to-back SoCon regular season and tournament championships, and consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. He helped Wofford to a then school-record 26 victories in 2009-10 with a second 20-win season in 2010-11 with a squad that led the SoCon in assists and was also first in assist/turnover margin. Wofford also was eighth in the nation in 3-point percentage and 12th in overall field goal percentage.

Prosser was instrumental in the development of three-time first-team All-SoCon selection Noah Dahlman, a post player who scored more than 2,000 career points and was twice dubbed SoCon Tournament MVP.

A native of Wheeling, W.Va., Prosser played collegiately at Marist College in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., before a knee injury ended his career prematurely. He began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Marist until his graduation in 2002, helping the Red Foxes to a share of the Metro-Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) regular season title in 2001-02.

Prosser and his wife Emily are the parents of two -- a daughter, Ava Grayce and a son, Declan.
