Founded in 1853, Central College is a four-year coeducational liberal arts college of the Reformed Church in America. Located 40 miles southeast of Des Moines, Central offers its 1,500 students learning opportunities not only on the Pella campus, but on branch campuses in London, England; Merida, Mexico; Leiden, the Netherlands; and Bangor, Wales; and at study centers in Granada, Spain; Paris, France; and Vienna, Austria.

Central is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Division III, and the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Men compete in baseball, football, basketball, tennis, golf, wrestling, soccer, track and cross country, while women compete in tennis, golf, track, softball, volleyball, cross country, soccer and basketball. Rugby is offered at the club level.

The A.N. Kuyper Athletics Complex

The A.N. Kuyper Athletics Complex is located at the corner of Independence Street and West Fifth Street in southwest Pella. The complex includes P.H. Kuyper Gymnasium (1970), H.S. Kuyper Fieldhouse (1987), Ron and Joyce Schipper Stadium (1977), the baseball and softball fields (1978), Ryerson Golf Practice Range (2005), tennis courts (1992), soccer field (2005) and the Ron Schipper Fitness Center (1999). The complex also includes practice and intramural softball diamonds and football fields. Golf meets are held at the Bos Landen Golf Club, two miles southwest of the campus on Highway T-15.

Jeff McMartin

Head coach, quarterbacks

Among the winningest coaches in the U.S., Jeff McMartin has guided his alma mater back to four Iowa Conference football titles while earning four NCAA Division III football playoff berths in nine seasons as coach.

McMartin has posted a glossy 73-23 record (.760). He's a three-time conference coach of the year (2005, 2006, 2007) and was named an AFCA Division III regional coach of the year in 2007. McMartin's squads have posted three undefeated regular seasons, with a 28-game regular-season win streak from 2006-08.

McMartin, who also serves as the team's quarterbacks coach, has been a part of one of the nation's most tradition-rich college football programs as a player, student assistant and now head coach. Central's 2009 league title was the program's 30th and the school's 20 NCAA Division III playoff berths are the third-most in the U.S. The Dutch have compiled 17 undefeated regular seasons and haven't had a losing football campaign since 1960.

Named as one of 10 "hot" coaches in the NCAA Division III by American Football Monthly in 2005, McMartin also gained extensive coaching experience at other schools for 13 years, coaching nearly every position.

Prior to returning to Central, McMartin was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at DePauw University (Ind.). During his four years there, DePauw broke several school offensive records.

From 1995-2000, he served as offensive line coach at Beloit College (Wis.) where he also worked with special teams. From 1994-95 he was the defensive line coach at the University of Rochester (N.Y.) and was defensive line coach at Illinois Wesleyan University from 1992-94. He was a graduate assistant at Wake Forest from 1990-92.

McMartin graduated from Central in 1990 with a bachelor's of arts degree in physical education. He earned a master's degree in liberal studies from Wake Forest University (N.C.) in 1992 in liberal studies.

While at Central, McMartin served as a student coach under hall of fame coach Ron Schipper for two seasons after a career-ending injury. He was also a student coach at Oskaloosa High School in 1987.

McMartin is also a veteran track and field coach. He was head men's and women's coach at Beloit from 1995-2000 and interim head coach at Illinois Wesleyan in 1994. McMartin was an assistant at De Pauw from 2000-03, at Rochester from 1994-95 and at Illinois Wesleyan in 1994.

McMartin's wife Laurie is also a 1990 graduate of Central and they have two children.

Assistants

Cody Baethke - tight ends, kickers, punters

Cody Baethke is in his first season as an assistant football coach at Central College.

A native of Williamsburg and 2010 Central graduate, Baethke was a four-time letterwinner for the Dutch football team and was named second-team all-conference defensive back in 2009. He is second on the school leaderboard with 26 career pass breakups. Central won three Iowa Conference championships and posted a 46-9 overall record during his career.

Baethke is completing requirements for a master's degree from the University of Wis.-Eau Claire, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the 2012-13 academic year.

Jeff Bollard - wide receivers

Jeff Bollard is in his 28th season as an assistant football coach at Central, working with the receivers.

A native of Pocahontas and a 1989 Central graduate, Bollard is an IT manager at Precision Pulley and Idler (PPI) in Pella. He is also a pilot with commercial and instructor ratings. Bollard and his wife Betty have a son and a daughter.

Carl Coleman - recruiting coordinator, cornerbacks

Carl Coleman is in his second season on the Central football coaching staff.

Coleman is a 2009 graduate of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor (Texas) and is completing requirements for a master's degree there. Coleman was a student assistant coach for the Crusaders from 2006-08, then spent the last three seasons as a graduate assistant. He's coached defensive backs and wide receivers while also serving as the program's recruiting coordinator. Mary-Hardin Baylor won American Southwest Conference titles during each of his six seasons on the staff and reached the NCAA Division III semifinals in 2007 and 2008. The Crusaders pulled out a 42-40 victory over Central at Pella in the 2009 NCAA playoffs.

Coleman also serves Central as recruiting coordinator and an admission liaison.

Don De Waard - defensive coordinator, inside linebackers

Don De Waard is in his 32nd year on the Central staff. He is a 1982 Central graduate and former Dutch player.

In 2000, the American Football Coaches Association named De Waard the NCAA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year. He was honored at the AFCA convention in Atlanta, Ga. in January, 2001.

De Waard served as head coach for Team Stars and Stripes, a Division III all-star team that competes in the Tazon de Estrellas (Bowl of the Stars) against a Mexican college squad at Guadalajara, Mexico. He previously served as an assistant for the U.S. team and also coached in earlier years in the game's predecessor, the Aztec Bowl.

A native of Kanawha, he is a certified public accountant and also serves as president of the Molengracht, a downtown development project in Pella. De Waard and his wife Jean have four children and five grandchildren.

Reid Evans - offensive coordinator, running backs

Reid Evans is in his 13th season as an assistant coach, and his fifth year as offensive coordinator.

A 2001 Central graduate, Evans was a four-time varsity letterwinner and a two-time first-team all-Iowa Conference center for the Dutch. The Newton, Iowa native was a third-team pick for the 2000 Hewlett-Packard all-America team and participated with a team of Division III all-stars in the 2000 Aztec Bowl in Mexico.

Evans was also a four-time track and field letterwinner, winning conference titles in the shot put and discus and qualifying for the NCAA Division III national meet in those events.

Following graduation, Evans played and coached football for the Franken Timberwolves in Nuremburg, Germany in 2001. Evans is pursuing a master's degree at the Univ. of Northern Iowa. He and his wife Liz have two children.

Eric Jones - offensive line

Eric Jones is in his 16th season on the Central staff, returning in 2006 after a three-year absence.

Jones returned to the offensive side of the ball in 2009 and worked with the tight ends for two years before moving to the offensive line. He also previously spent a season as the team's offensive coordinator.

A 1987 Central graduate, Jones was an offensive guard for the Dutch. He received a master's degree in counseling education from Iowa State University.

Jones taught and coached in Shelby, Mo. and was an at-risk coordinator and assistant coach at Pella High School. He previously served as assistant director of admission at Central while also working with the college's retention program and in several capacities in the student life office.

In 2002, Jones received a Central Presidential Service Standards Award for his work at the college.

From 2003-06 Jones was dean of students at Waukee High School before returning to Central as a counselor in the student life office. He headed the college's retention program in the academic affairs office before serving as interim dean of student life in 2011-12. Jones now serves Central as the director of academic resources and a class dean.

Nick Mulder - defensive line

Nick Mulder is in his second season as an assistant coach on the Central staff.

Mulder, a Pella native, is a 2007 Central graduate and was a two-time second-team all-Iowa Conference defensive lineman. He was a member of three NCAA playoff squads and teams that won or shared three league championships.

For the past two seasons Mulder has served as a graduate assistant coach in the defensive line for Anderson University (Ind.). The 2011 Anderson defense led the Heartland Conference in sacks and turnovers forced. Since August, Mulder has also served as the football team's strength and conditioning coordinator. He is completing requirements for a masters of business administration degree.

Matt Paulsen - safeties

Matt Paulsen is in his 16th season on the Central football coaching staff.

A 1997 Central graduate, Paulsen was an all-American defensive back for the Dutch and a four-time letterwinner. He was a three-time all-Iowa Conference selection, the 1997 team MVP, and holds the school career interceptions record (18). He spent the summer of 1999 playing for a club team in Germany. A Waverly-Shell Rock High School graduate, Paulsen was raised on a farm near Plainfield, Iowa and is a two-time selection to the All-American Farm team named by Successful Farming magazine. He is employed by Heritage Lace, Inc.

Jeff Sanger - outside linebackers

Jeff Sanger is in his 11th season as an assistant football coach at Central.

Sanger, a 2001 Central graduate, was a two-time all-America selection, a two-time Schilder team MVP award winner and a three-time all-Iowa Conference pick as a linebacker. He also was chosen as a Central team co-captain for two seasons. The Britt, Iowa native set the school freshman-season tackles record in 1997 with 111 and racked up 375 stops in his career.

Sanger is a staff accountant in the Central controller's office and is pursuing a master's degree at Drake University.

Austen Schueler - special teams coordinator, wide receivers

Austen Schueler is in his fourth season on the Central football staff. He previously coached the defensive secondary and defensive ends.

A 2008 graduate, Schueler was a defensive back for the Dutch. The two-time letterwinner received the Mel VerMeer Loyalty Award and the P.H. Kuyper Award in 2007. A Granger native, Schueler was also a two-year letterwinner for the men's track and field squad, competing in the triple jump and javelin throw.

Schueler is an admission representative and is entering his fourth season as a volunteer men's and women's track and field coach.

Drew Sikkink - offensive line

Drew Sikkink is in his seventh season as a Central College assistant football coach, working with the receivers after four years with the offensive line.

An Urbandale native, Sikkink is a 2006 Central graduate and played offensive line for the Dutch, receiving the P.H.

Kuyper Award in 2005. He was a recruiting intern in the spring of 2006. Sikkink also serves Central as a residence hall director.

Student assistants - Aric Balk, Cody Gullett, Seth Marburger

Strength and conditioning coordinator

Kyle Johnson

Kyle Johnson is in his third year as head strength and conditioning coordinator at Central and his sixth year on the Dutch staff.

He graduated with honors from Central in 2002 and earned a master's degree in health and human performance from Iowa State University in 2004. Johnson worked as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Iowa State football squad and later was a personal trainer and fitness coach at Delta City Club in Nashville, Tenn. He then spent two years as assistant sports performance director at Velocity Sports Performance in Franklin, Tenn.

While at Central, Johnson was a member of the Dutch football squad, receiving academic all-Iowa Conference honors.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist, Johnson is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He's an Elliott, Iowa native and graduate of Villisca High School.

Johnson served as a USA Weightlifting club coach and remains a competitive weightlifter as well, winning Olympic lifting titles in the 105-kilogram class at the Georgia Games, the Chattanooga Open and the Southeastern Regional meet in 2005 and the Emory Open in 2007. He was 11th in the 2007 American Open. In 2011, Johnson finished 12th at the USA Weightlifting National Championships and climbed to eighth in 2011.

Head athletic trainer

Frank Neu

Frank Neu returned to Central as an assistant athletic trainer in 2010 and was promoted to head athletic trainer in 2011.

A 1991 Central graduate, Neu previously served as assistant athletic trainer at Drake Univ. for five years. Earlier, he spent eight years as head athletic trainer at Lycoming College (Pa.). He earned a master's degree at Drake and served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer there for three years.

Neu has worked at numerous championship and other postseason events, including six trips as an athletic trainer for the AFCA Division III all-star football squad at the Aztec Bowl in Mexico. He was the sports medicine coordinator for the Budd Whitehill Division III National Wrestling Duals from 1998-2005.

A National Athletic Training Association member since 1990, Neu joined the Iowa Athletic Trainers' Association in 2005 and serves as the organization's treasurer. While at Lycoming, Neu was a member of the Eastern Athletic Training Association, the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Association and the College Athletic Trainers' Society. He was the athletic training chair of the Middle Atlantic Conference in 2004-05.

Central's Mexico game selections

The Aztec Bowl was sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association and played in Mexico each December, featuring a team of Division III all-stars. Only one player was selected from a school. From 1997-2005, the team was coached by former Central coach Ron Schipper. The game was last played in 2007. Since 2009, a team of Division III all-stars competes in the Tazon de Estrellas (Bowl of the Stars) against a Mexican all-star team. Central assistant Don De Waard became the U.S. head coach in 2012 after several years as assistant. Dutch athletic trainers John Roslien and Frank Neu have also served the U.S. squad.

Outlook

There was no need for a lengthy off-season analysis to determine ways the Central College football team can improve in 2013.

A late-season surge let the injury-battered Dutch emerge with a 5-5 record in 2012 and tie for second in the Iowa Conference at 4-3 in the league, but coach Jeff McMartin said the recipe for progress was immediately evident—make fewer turnovers and allow fewer big plays. It was clearly an issue in early action, but there was significant improvement as the season progressed. The Dutch committed 25 turnovers but were plus 10 in turnover margin over the last four games of the season. Likewise Central yielded 15 touchdowns of 20 yards or more, but just four in the final four games. Consequently, the Dutch rallied enough to once again be able to proclaim they haven't had a losing season since 1960, Dwight Eisenhower's final year as president.

"Eliminating turnovers and eliminating big plays will really help us enjoy more success," McMartin said. "That's got to be a focus for us."

Experienced players generally make fewer mistakes and with 15 starters returning, the Dutch are a far more veteran crew than the squad that took the field a year ago.

"We're going into it with guys that are proven and with the expectation that we can be a better football team," McMartin said. "We really feel good about this squad. There are always injuries to deal with but if we keep people healthy, shore up the turnovers and limit big plays, we could be a dangerous football team."

Quarterback

Nowhere is the increased experience level more evident than at quarterback, where the Dutch were unsettled entering 2012. Now Central has two players back who have taken the game's first snap. Junior Aaron Eiseler (6-foot, 210 pounds) emerged as the starter in the last half of the season, while sophomore Brendon Boerm (5-11, 185) started three games at quarterback and three at wide receiver, although he'll likely stay at receiver this year. Also back is senior Austin Blom (6-2, 195), who got some playing time last year and is getting a shot this season, as well as sophomore Cael Halfman (5-10, 190) The Dutch have some promising freshmen candidates as well.

McMartin isn't naming a starter yet but should be able to do so much sooner than he did last year.

"I think we can get to a point pretty quickly where we're getting these guys prepared and ready to play," he said. "We'll have a competition, evaluate the competition and get things in place so we can let them get a feel for what their roles are."

"Last year we really had some questions but this year we at least have guys who have played. Two of them have started and we have another quarterback who's played."

Eiseler (6-0, 210) completed 114 of 188 passes (60.6 percent) for 1,311 yards (145.7 yards per game) with eight interceptions and seven TDs.

"Aaron did a nice job," McMartin said. "We want him to continue to improve and become a complete quarterback."

Blom saw less action but has McMartin's confidence.

"Austin traveled last year and took another step in his progression," he said. "He's competing very well."

Boerm is still an option, if needed. He only completed 11 of 29 passes for 133 yards but knows how to run the offense and is a serious threat on the ground. He gained 122 yards and three touchdowns on 26 carries.

Tight end

Junior Jack Norgaard (6-3, 220) started all 10 games last year at tight end, with 21 catches for 175 yards and a touchdown.

"Jack did a great job," McMartin said. "I'm excited to see what he can do this year. He's a tough player who runs good routes."

Sophomore Drew Lindaman (6-3, 225) appeared in nine games, catching two passes for 29 yards while sophomore Jake Wassenaar (6-3, 215) was a regular for the JV.

"They both did a good job as freshmen and got bigger and better in the off season," McMartin said.

Offensive line

"We have the most experience at tackle," McMartin said. "Travis Hook did a nice job at left tackle last year and Matt Schrafel also got better."

Junior Jordan Youngman (6-4, 305) will contribute at tackle as well.

"Jordan had a great off season," McMartin said. "Those are three guys we can build around."

Collins is among a host of other line candidates.

"He improved a lot this summer," McMartin said. "Ryan really did a great job of adding strength and size."

Senior Joe Flaherty (6-2, 265) will be in the mix.

"Joe can help this football team," McMartin said. "He has a great attitude and works hard."

Others in contention include juniors Caleb Lynch (6-0, 270), Garrett Young (6-0, 265) and Lucas Sears (5-10, 225) and sophomores Ben Field (6-0, 250), DJ Smith (6-1, 265), Tyron Steere (6-2, 280), Curtis Weeks (6-0, 240), Nick Watson (6-4, 245), Steven Clubb OL (6-1, 265) and Travis DeFrancisco (6-1, 265).

Watson moved to offensive tackle after lettering in the defensive line as a rookie.

"That's a good move for us," McMartin said. "He gives us some flexibility."

McMartin also likes the potential of some incoming freshman linemen.

"They can give us some depth," he said.

Receivers

Boerm and junior Blaine Forsythe (6-1, 200) have starting experience as receivers after both arriving at Central as quarterbacks.

Boerm topped the receptions chart with 34 for 364 yards and a touchdown. Forsythe had 24 catches for 328 yards and a team-high three TDs.

"Brendon is a dual threat," McMartin said. "He can do a lot of different things. We're counting on him to take another step as a playmaker.

"Blaine has great hands. He's a former quarterback so he's a heady football player. He really knows the game and is a big target."

But senior Grant McArdle (6-3, 215) also developed into a threat as well after being slowed by injury. Debuting in the third game last season, McArdle had 15 catches for 237 yards and two TDs.

"We're really excited to have Grant back," McMartin said. "He really came into his own last season and made some big plays down the stretch. He got better every week."

Seniors Nolan Blythe (6-2, 195) and Keegan Frisch (6-1, 195) will compete and be factors at the position. Frisch appeared in nine games and Blythe also saw action.

"They both contributed as juniors," McMartin said. "They can help us."

Moving over from defensive back, junior Landon Coker (5-9, 180) is getting a hard look as well.

"He's got good hands," McMartin said. "He just has to continue to learn the offense."

Central also picked up Justin Fisher, a promising transfer.

Combined with the increased experience at quarterback, the Dutch receiving numbers should continue to rise.

"We've got a number of freshmen who will help this group as well," McMartin said. "They've got to work together to help create a really strong unit."

Running back

While Central graduated its starter at running back, the position is in good hands. Elusive juniors Josh Osborn (5-10, 190) and De'Andre Currie (5-6, 170) may lack size, but they put up good numbers and are breakaway threats. Osborn rushed for 548 yards on 116 carries (4.7 per carry) with two touchdowns while Currie gained 339 yards on 66 carries (5.1 per carry) and three scores. Osborn, who received all-conference honorable mention, also caught 17 passes for 158 yards and Currie caught three balls for 41 yards.

"Those two guys have a lot of experience," McMartin said. "They have different styles but they both have the potential to make big plays. They're very willing and capable blockers and are great in the passing game in the open field."

Another undersized back, sophomore Taylor Cox (5-6, 155) got his feet wet late in the year as a punt and kick returner. "Taylor can do some good things at running back and in the slot," McMartin said.

Junior Schyler Bardole (6-0, 205) appeared on special teams.

"He's getting bigger, better and faster," McMartin said.

Another physical option is junior Tyler Lenox (6-1, 230), who was a blocker at the S-back position last year but will be used more at running back.

"He's a bigger back who runs the ball well," McMartin said. "He slips a lot of tackles and can bang it in there when needed. He can do a lot of things for us."

Central also got a boost when sophomore transfer Adam Lindell (5-11, 210) joined the squad.

The S-back position, similar to a fullback in Central's pro-style offense, returns junior starter Austin Shaver (5-11, 225), who rushed just three times but was an instrumental part of the Dutch running game.

"He's continued to get bigger, stronger and better," McMartin said. "He also catches the ball well."

Depth is a concern, however. Sophomore Parker Smith (5-9, 215) is in the mix but was the only other returnee as the Dutch opened preseason camp.

"This is an area where we might have to move people," McMartin said. "It's an important position for us."

Defensive line

The Dutch D should be solid up front. Senior ends Danny Samson (5-11, 255) and Jack Shipley (6-3, 255) both return, along with junior nose guard Brody Janssen (6-2, 250).

Samson, a versatile athlete who even made a few appearances on offense and rushed for a touchdown, made 42 tackles, including 11.5 tackles for loss and a team-high 5.5 sacks. He also had a blocked kick, a forced fumble and a pass breakup, earning first-team all-conference honors.

"Danny had a great year," McMartin said. "We're excited to see him elevate his game even more this season."

Janssen made 34 tackles, including four tackles for loss with a sack and a fumble recovery.

"Brody is one of the strongest players on the team," McMartin said. "I look for him to have a great junior year."

Shipley had 35 tackles with six tackles for loss, including three sacks as well as an interception, fumble recovery and two pass breakups.

"Jack has really evolved as a player," McMartin said.

The Dutch have depth as well. Senior Spencer Matlock (6-0, 285) returns for a medical hardship year at nose guard after missing all of last season.

"Spencer is a good leader," McMartin said. "He played a lot as a junior and we're glad to have him back."

Also back is senior letterwinner JJ Kotz (6-0, 235), who had nine tackles.

"JJ made some plays last year," McMartin said. "He's a physical player with a high motor."

Sophomore Dustin Smith (6-0, 230) lettered as a freshman, making 12 tackles. Others contending for playing time include sophomores Jake Pike (5-10, 220), Trent Smothers (6-0, 235) and Kyle Kroymann (6-0, 200).

Linebackers

Central graduated both starting inside linebackers.

"That's a concern," McMartin said.

But the area was also hard hit by injuries last year and there was an upside to that.

"That got some young guys on the field and we saw some good things," McMartin said.

Sophomore Zac Miller (5-10, 195) was among those tasting action. He made 10 tackles and recovered a fumble.

Junior Jordan Wachter (5-11, 205) started two games and made 19 tackles, including two for loss with a sack.

"Jordan played a lot last year," McMartin said. "He's going to be a great leader."

Juniors Nick Henry (6-0, 215), Brayton Meeker (5-11, 235) and Mitch Schroeder (6-0, 195) lettered, as did sophomore Grant Gustafson (6-0, 215). Sophomore Mark Richards (5-11, 185) will also compete.

There's no shortage of experience at outside linebacker, where the Dutch actually return three starters at two positions.

"It's one of the strengths of the team," McMartin said.

Senior Mike Young (5-11, 185) blossomed into a second-team all-conference honoree. He led the Dutch with 79 tackles, including 12 for loss with 3.5 sacks and three pass breakups.

"Mike had a great season," McMartin said. "He's always around the ball."

The Dutch also regain the services of senior Keith Rush (5-10, 210), a three-time letterwinner who was a first-team all-conference pick in 2011 after making a team-high 79 tackles. He's a two-time winner of the team's Lankelma Award as the outstanding underclass player, but missed all of 2012 with injury.

"We're excited to get Keith back," McMartin said. "He's ready for a big year."

Meanwhile senior Luke Geneser (6-1, 225) started all 10 games last season and made 58 tackles, with 4.5 tackles for loss, a sack, three interceptions, two forced fumbles and two pass breakups.

"Luke made a ton of big plays," McMartin said.

Sophomore Tommy Feller (5-9, 180) will push for time as well.

"They're all good football players," McMartin said. "They'll all get on the field."

Defensive backs

Last year's pain is this year's gain at cornerback as well. Senior Jason Breon (5-10, 175), a team co-captain last season, was injured in the second game and missed the rest of the season. He made 36 tackles in 2011.

"Jason will definitely help us," McMartin said. "He can play either safety or corner."

In his absence, junior Eric Larson (6-2, 175) continued to shine. He made 27 tackles with three interceptions, a forced fumble and two pass breakups en route to becoming a second-team all-conference honoree. He's also one of Division III's top athletes, as he demonstrated when he swept the NCAA indoor heptathlon and outdoor decathlon championships for the Dutch track and field squad.

"Eric had a great season, he just kept getting better and better," McMartin said. "He had to fight through some injuries in the middle of the season but he came back and finished strong. I know that we were a better team when he was healthy."

But McMartin isn't sure about who will start at the other cornerback position. It could be Breon, but others gained experience there last year in his absence, including junior Michael Daigle (5-7, 160) and sophomore Bryan Mejia (5-7, 155). Senior Michael Rus (5-11, 200) could play at cornerback or safety after missing much of last season with injury.

Starting safeties Jacob Tune (6-1, 205), a junior, and senior Jacob Edleman (6-0, 185) return. Tune was Central's third-leading tackler with 61, including 3.5 tackles for loss with three interceptions and four pass breakups. Edleman, meanwhile, had a team-high six interceptions to go with 57 tackles, including four for loss and two pass breakups.

"They both did a great job," McMartin said. "Jacob Tune's a very physical player and a hard-hitting safety. Jacob Edleman covers a lot of ground. He really stepped into an important role."

"They both kind of learned on the run but they've got a season as starters under their belts now."

Look for sophomore Jaemin Powell (6-3, 190) on the field as well after lettering as a freshman. He made nine tackles. Others getting a look are senior Levin Spain (6-1, 175), senior Tug McLeery (5-10, 185) and junior Spencer Beekman (5-10, 180).

And McMartin isn't ruling out giving some newcomers a shot.

"We've got some freshmen we're excited about," he said.

Special teams

The strength of the special teams last year was one of the squad's most consistent players, junior kicker Kevin Sheldon (6-0, 190), a first-team all-conference selection in each of his first two college seasons. He was a third-team all-West Region pick by D3football.com. Sheldon was perfect on 25 extra-point tries and 12 of 17 on field goals (70.6 percent) with a long of 47 yards, only 5 yards shy of the school record. He's missed just one extra point attempt at Central (47-48).

"His leg definitely helps us," McMartin said.

Forsythe handled the punting duties last year, averaging 37.7 yards with nine kicks inside the opponent's 20-yard line. But there are other options. Senior Tanner Price (5-10, 245) can kick and punt as can sophomore Jacob De Waard.

Boerm and, later, Cox were among those returning punts last year. Cox averaged 7.8 yards on four returns. Boerm and Osborn also returned kicks. Osborn averaged 23.7 yards on 11 returns.

McMartin isn't sure who will return kicks and punts this year, but he's determined to see improvement in all areas of special teams, normally a source of pride for the Dutch.

"We got off to a slow start last year," he said. "We didn't do a good job of covering or returning. There's no reason we can't be great at special teams."

The season

Central has the same daunting non-conference slate as last year, although the Dutch at least get to play two of the three games at home. Wis.-Oshkosh was dominant in a 47-28 season-opening win last year en route to reaching the NCAA Division III semifinals and is also the opening opponent in 2013. Augustana (Ill.) and Albion (Mich.) present challenges as well before Central ventures into a wide-open Iowa Conference race. But McMartin is looking at the bright side.

"A tough non-conference schedule will help us from a maturity standpoint," he said. "It will push us to be prepared. We've got to continue to improve every week. That's a big key."

Coe is the defending league champ and the preseason pick of league coaches, but there's no clear-cut favorite, McMartin said.

"I think there are at least six teams that could win the league," he said.

After the non-conference hurdles, Central has to open the conference schedule with back-to-back road games. McMartin doesn't want the results of those early contests to affect his club's performance down the home stretch.

"We have to look at each week with a one-game mentality," he said. "We've got to keep a positive attitude throughout the season--that's critical. Every game is important for us."

The freshmen

McMartin thinks this year's newcomers will provide a talent upgrade.

"We've got some very talented kids," he said. "You're going to see some of them playing and others will develop into solid players down the road."

"We felt like we really needed good linebackers and wide receivers. Those areas were addressed and, really, we've got some talented players at every position. That's exciting."

The program

McMartin was quick to credit the work of his assistant coaches, especially newcomers Carl Coleman and Nick Mulder, for Central's recruiting success.

"They helped tremendously," he said. "And they'll be very good as we move forward."

There's one more change on the staff this year as 2010 Central grad Cody Baethke returns to coach the tight ends along with the punters and kickers. He was a four-year letterwinner at defensive back for the Dutch.

Central has also raised its competitive level in facilities. A new Fieldturf playing surface was installed over the summer. And PPI of Pella made a huge commitment to the college by funding a new Daktronics video board that should be ready by mid-season.

"We're really excited about that," McMartin said.

Now it's just a matter of doing it on the field.

"We've got to coach these guys well," McMartin said. "The players have got to have confidence in each other and believe they can win. That's the great challenge we have as football coaches. The players' challenge is to execute."
