KNIGHTS TAKE 7-GAME UNBEATEN STREAK INTO WEEKEND PLAY

A seven-game unbeaten streak, highlighted by the championship crown of the Shillelagh Tournament, capped off the most successful month of November for the Clarkson University Hockey team in nine years. The Golden Knights, guided by sixth-year head coach Casey Jones and assistants Phil Roy '00 and Josh Hauge, will now look to continue their roll into December when they close out play before the exam/holiday break with three key ECAC Hockey games in the North Country.

Clarkson hosts Dartmouth and 8th-ranked Harvard at Cheel Arena this weekend in a pair of 7:00 p.m. contests, and then plays archrival St. Lawrence in Canton on December 9 to close out play before a 20-day break.

Since opening the month with a 5-3 loss to 6th-ranked Quinnipiac, the Green and Gold have strung together five wins and two ties to improve their overall record to 8-5-3. Clarkson stands in a tie for third place in the ECAC Hockey standings with a 4-1-1 league mark.

Led by senior captain James de Haas and assistant captains, senior Perry D'Arrisso and juniors Brett Gervais and Nic Pierog along with a healthy contribution from the Class of 2020, the Knights went 5-1-2 in November. The Green and Gold also posted a .750 winning percentage (6-2) in the month of November during the 2007-08 campaign, the last season Clarkson advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

This past weekend in South Bend, IN, Clarkson claimed its first in-season tournament crown since 2006. The Knights skated to their second consecutive tie against Yale, a 2-2 non-league draw in the first game of the tournament held at Notre Dame, and advanced to the championship game after defeating the Bulldogs in a tie-breaking shootout. Clarkson shut out the host Fighting Irish 2-0 in Saturday's title matchup at the Compton Family Arena for their first tournament title since winning the Badger Showdown 10 years ago in Wisconsin.

• Freshman goaltender Jake Kielly has started 13 of Clarkson's first 16 games and posts a .923 save percentage and a 2.38 goals against average along with two shutouts. He is unbeaten in his last six starts after missing weekend action on November 4-5 with an illness. Kielly was named Most Outstanding Player of the Shillelagh Tournament. He turned aside all 35 shots he faced against 11th-ranked Notre Dame in Saturday's Championship game for his second career shutout. Kielly was named NCAA Ice Hockey's 1st Star of the Week and also earned ECAC Hockey Goaltender of the Week honors for the third time of his freshman campaign.

The Big Green own a 3-3-2 overall record and a 1-3-1 ECAC Hockey slate. Dartmouth split a series vs. Robert Morris in Pittsburgh, over the weekend, winning 5-2 on Sunday after losing 3-0 on Saturday. After opening the season with wins over Michigan (3-2) and Colgate (2-0) and a tie with Cornell (1-1), the Big Green have struggled going 0-3-1 before Sunday's win over Robert Morris.

Head Coach Casey Jones

"The Leonard S. Ceglarski Head Men's Hockey"

Casey Jones is in his sixth year as the Golden Knights head coach in 2016-17. Named a finalist three times for ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year in his short tenure at Clarkson, Jones was designated the second Leonard S. Ceglarski Chair for the Golden Knights in May of 2011, becoming one of few coaches nationally to hold an endowed coaching position in the sport of ice hockey.

In each of his first five campaigns, Jones has had Clarkson in contention for an ECAC Hockey playoff first-round bye right up until the final weekend of the regular season. In two of the past three years, the Green and Gold have skated to 20 wins in a season.

Last season Clarkson was one of the hottest teams in the nation during the 2016 portion of the schedule and was one of only two ECAC Hockey programs to reach the 20-win mark overall. The Knights skated to a 20-15-3 overall record in 2015-16 and finished in a tie for fifth place in the conference standings, just two points shy of a top-four showing, with a 10-9-3 league mark. The Knights played in a school-record four straight overtime postseason games, sweeping Princeton (3-2 2ot, 3-2ot) in first round action at Cheel before falling at St. Lawrence (3-2ot, 3-2 2ot) in the quarterfinals.

Clarkson has steadily boosted its national presence under Jones and is bringing in some of the finest student-athletes in the country. Four current Golden Knights have been selected in the NHL Draft. The crowds at Cheel have also progressively increased with Jones behind the bench, making the Green and Gold's home ice one of the most intimidating venues for opposing teams in the nation. In 2015-16 Clarkson boasted the third best home-winning percentage in Division I. The Knights posted a .842 winning% with a 15-2-2 mark at Cheel Arena.

Several Knights have earned postseason honors during Jones' tenure, including Matt Zarbo, who in 2013 became the first Clarkson player to ever receive the prestigious ECAC Hockey Student-Athlete of the year award. Paul Geiger and James de Haas earned league all-star accolades last season.

After an extensive national search Jones returned to the University after serving the previous three years as associate coach at Cornell. A native of Temiscaming, Quebec, Jones has recruited players and/or coached teams that have participated in the NCAA Tr. eight times, including three schools and in two different leagues. He worked as an assistant for the Knights under head coach Mark Morris from 1993-95. He spent 13 years (1995-2008) at Ohio State as a coach before returning to ECAC when he joined the staff at his alma mater, Cornell, for the 2008-09 campaign. When Jones was at Clarkson from 1993 to 1995, he contributed to the Golden Knights 43-19-9 record, an ECAC Hockey championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament in 1995.

Jones was a four-year letter winner as a player for the Big Red, serving as team captain in 1989-90. For his career, he scored 112 points on 30 goals and 82 assists while playing in 110 contests. He was selected by the Boston Bruins in the 10th-round of the 1987 NHL Entry Draft.

Jones and his wife, Kimberlee, also a Cornell graduate, have a daughter, Gabrielle, and a son, Bryan.

THE SERIES

Clarkson holds a significant 70-28-7 lead over Dartmouth in their series, which began with a 4-1 win in Hanover, NH on February 4, 1929. The series has been fairly even recently with both teams winning five games apiece in the last 10 meetings. Dartmouth has won three of the last five games, but the Knights skated away victors in their last battle, winning 4-3 in Potsdam on February 27. The Big Green won the first meeting last season, 5-2 in Hanover, NH on January 16.

Clarkson is 17-5-3 over Dartmouth at Cheel Arena.

James de Haas has a team-high five points on two goals and three assists against Dartmouth. Jordan Boucher leads the Knights with three goals in the series to go along with one assist. Sam Vigneault and Kelly Summers have two goals each against the Big Green.

The Knights and Harvard will be meeting for the 120th time in their all-time series which first began with a 2-1 Clarkson win in Lake Placid on December 28, 1935. Both teams have 54 wins in the rivalry along with 11 ties.

The Crimson have gone 7-3 over the past 10 meetings, but the Knights swept the 2015-16 season series, winning 5-1 in Cambridge, MA on January 16 and 2-1 in Potsdam on February 26.

Harvard defeated the Knights twice in 2014-15 with a 6-3 victory in Bright-Landry Hockey Center and 3-2 at Cheel Arena.

Clarkson is 15-12-2 over Harvard at Cheel.

A.J. Fossen has a team-high three goals and five points against the Crimson. Sam Vigneault has four points on two goals and two assists in three games against Harvard. Troy Josephs has three assists in the series.

Game 15 (November 25, 2016) - Att: 4,581
First Round - Shillelagh Tournament
Compton Family Arena, South Bend, IN
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Yale 2 OT

Troy Josephs scored late in regulation to force a 2-2 draw against Yale in the opening round of the Shillelagh Tournament, but Clarkson advanced to championship game as the Golden Knights scored on all three of their shots in the tie-breaking shootout. Sheldon Rempal, defenseman Terrance Amorosa and Jordan Boucher tallied the shootout goals and goaltender Jake Kielly turned away two of Yale's three shots to help the Green and Gold advance to their first in-season tournament championship game since 2006. Clarkson opened the scoring to start the game when Rempal finished off a pass from rookie linemate Devin Brosseau with a wrist shot at 3:14 of the first period for his fourth goal of the year. For Brosseau, the ECAC Hockey Rookie of the Week, that was his team-high 10th assist of the season. Yale struck twice in the second period to take a 2-1 lead after 40 minutes. The Knights, who skated to a 3-3 draw against Yale this past Saturday at Cheel Arena, forced overtime when Josephs deflected in a shot by defenseman Aaron Thow at 14:36 of the third period for his fifth goal of the season. Josephs has four goals over the past six games. Both teams had 29 shots. Kielly finished with 27 saves, including 12 in the second period. Clarkson went scoreless on four power-play chances, while Yale converted on one-of-five opportunities. The Knights' last shootout win was against Bemidji State (1-0) in the opening round of the Catamount Cup at the University of Vermont on December 30, 2005.

Game 16 (November 26, 2016) - Att: 3,865
CHAMPIONSHIP - Shillelagh Tournament
Compton Family Arena, South Bend, IN
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Notre Dame 0

Jake Kielly was at his best on Saturday night to back-stop Clarkson to a shutout over Notre Dame as the Golden Knights claimed the championship crown of the 2016 Shillelagh Tournament. Kielly, who finished with 35 saves, was named Most Outstanding Player of the weekend, highlighting Clarkson's first in-season tournament championship title since 2006. Notre Dame, ranked 11/12th in the national polls, outshot the Knights 35-27, but Kielly was perfect in the Clarkson crease to finish with his second career shutout. Clarkson killed off seven Notre Dame power plays, including a lengthy 5-on-3 Fighting Irish advantage late in the third period. Clarkson's Class of 2020 continued to produce offensively with freshmen Devin Brosseau and linemate Sheldon Rempal scoring the goals. Notre Dame controlled play in the first period with a 15-4 shot advantage, but it was the Golden Knights who skated away with the lead after the opening 20 minutes. Brosseau, the ECAC Hockey Player of the Week, scored at 6:29 for the game's first goal. Rookie linemate Nico Sturm picked up the lone assist. Kielly was solid in the Clarkson crease, holding Notre Dame off the scoreboard with 15 saves for the period. Late in the middle frame, Rempal gave the Knights a 2-0 lead. Troy Josephs grabbed a loose puck at the top of the left circle in the Irish zone and fed a pass to Rempal in the slot, where the rookie slipped in a backhand for his second goal of the weekend and fifth of the season at 15:22. Shillelagh All-Tournament team for Clarkson - Sheldon Rempal (F), Terrance Amorosa (D) and MOP Jake Kielly (G).
