CHIPPEWA FOOTBALL

GAME PREVIEW

By Andy Sneddon
CMU Athletic Communications

True, Central Michigan has historically handled Football Championship Subdivision opponents.

Matters little, if at all, to Chippewa coach Jim McElwain.

"These guys are really good," McElwain said of FCS New Hampshire, the opponent for the Chippewas' home opener on Saturday (1:30 p.m.) on Kramer/Deromedi Field at Kelly/Shorts Stadium. "They've got a lot of talent, they're big, they're physical, they've got some guys who are on draft watch lists.

"They're coming in here to show that they can play. We've got to go play and really not care who the opponent is. We've got to get better."

The Chippewas opened a week ago with a 31-7 loss at Michigan State. Yes, there were plenty of positives that CMU took from that game. The Chippewas moved the ball effectively at times, and they were down just 10-7 at halftime and 17-7 entering the fourth quarter.

An inability to cash in early when they had the ball on MSU's 2-yard line and an interception early in the third quarter proved to be turning points. After the interception, which came in Spartan territory, the game turned heavily in MSU's favor as CMU's offense stalled.

"You can't ever give a team opportunities like that and we did," McElwain said. "It's something we've got to learn from. We can't give up explosive plays. That killed us, obviously, in that last game and we've got to get some consistency. We've got to get first downs. Can't have three-and-outs."

The game, as openers do, gave the Chippewas a good gauge.

"I feel like we understand where we are," said senior defensive lineman Jacques Bristol, who made seven tackles, including two for loss, against MSU. "(We're) not trying to take (it as) a moral victory ... we felt like we could have won. There's things we could have done better throughout the game.

"It's just really focusing in on the details, and that's what we take from (the MSU) game. We've got to lock in on the details."

The Chippewas can't afford to look past the Wildcats to next week's game at No. 10 Notre Dame and beyond to a rematch with Redshirt freshman Bert Emanuel, Jr. made the start at quarterback in the season opener at Michigan State and accumulated 128 total yards (98 passing, 41 rushing) with one touchdown pass.

South Alabama, this time in Mobile. The Jaguars handed CMU a 38-24 defeat a year ago.

"You've got to treat every opponent with respect," said sophomore tight end Mitchel Collier, who shared the team lead with three catches against MSU. "You've just got to put every ounce – everything physical, spiritual – into that one game. You can't dwell on what happened in the past and you can't look forward to the future. That's when you can slip up and start making errors."

Scouting

McElwain is correct. These Wildcats, who are ranked 11th in FCS, are good.

They finished 9-4 a year ago and shared the Coastal Athletic Association championship with William & Mary and then advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs.

HOME OPENER: NEW HAMPSHIRE

FAR LEFT: Wide receiver Chris Parker caught his first career touchdown pass, a 12-yard reception in the second quarter from quarterback Bert Emanuel, Jr. at Michigan State.

LEFT: Senior linebacker Nick Apsey finished the season opener at Michigan State with four tackles.

BOTTOM: Defensive linemen Jason Williams (94) and Jacques Bristol (10) close in on Michigan State running back Jalen Berger. Bristol surpassed career-highs for tackles for loss (2.0) and tackles (7). For his efforts, Bristol was named to the PFF Team of the Week.

Junior quarterback Max Brosmer was named the FCS National Performer of the Week after throwing for 284 yards and five touchdowns last week in a 51-17 win over Stonehill College. He registered a video-game-like 237.4 efficiency rating.

A year ago, Brosmer, who has thrown for 5,536 career yards, ranked ninth nationally in FCS in both passing yards and TDs. He was the Coastal Athletic Association Football Co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2022.

But Brosmer may not be the most dangerous player on the Wildcat roster. That distinction may go to triple threat Dylan Laube, who rolled up 229 all-purpose yards and scored three times last week and was named the FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week.

Laube, who has amassed more than 5,000 all-purpose yards and scored 32 touchdowns in his career, was named to every FCS All-American team a year ago and was joined on the Preseason All-America Team by teammates Dylan Ruiz and Josiah Silver, both whom play defensive end.

10-Year Itch

Saturday's game marks the third meeting between CMU and New Hampshire. The Chippewas won, 24-21, in 2013, and 40-33 in 2003.

History

The Chippewas are 14-1 against FCS opponents. They have won 14 consecutive such games since falling to FCS power North Dakota State, 44-14, in 2007. All 15 of those games have been played in Mount Pleasant.

The Chippewas are 3-0 against FCS opponents under McElwain. They won the last two by shutout, 41-0, over Bucknell in 2022, and 45-0 over Robert Morris in 2021.

About the Chippewas

Central Michigan plays its home opener and second game of the 2023 season after it dropped its season opener at Michigan State last Friday, 31-7, in East Lansing.

All Roads Lead Home is the theme for Central Michigan's 2023 football season as the Chippewas' home opener is scheduled against New Hampshire on Saturday. The game is themed a "Welcome Home" game.

The Chippewas are hoping to erase the memories of a 2022 season which saw it finish 4-8 overall and 3-5 in the Mid-American Conference. The Chippewas finished Central Michigan linebackers Kyle Moretti (22), Justin Whiteside (45) and Jordan Kwiatkowski (12) combined for 20 tackles in the season opener against Michigan State. Moretti finished with a career-high 14 tackles.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN GAME NOTES

No. 129 in the nation out of 130 teams in turnover margin (-1.50), 128th nationally in turnovers lost (28) and 130th in fumbles lost (18). The 2022 Chippewas also lost the majority of their playmakers on offense due to injuries, including two of their top wide receivers, an NFL bound tight end (Joel Wilson) and their top three running backs. Still, Central Michigan had an opportunity to become bowl eligible late in the season and had several opportunities to get to six wins.

Last season's results were a drastic change from the course that Head Coach Jim McElwain has put the Chippewas on since his arrival in 2019. In his first year guiding the program in 2019, he took over a team that finished 1-11 and 0-8 in MAC play and led the Chippewas to one of the nation's top turnarounds, an 8-6 record, 6-2 in the MAC with a berth in the 2019 New Mexico Bowl. After a COVID-shortened 2020 season, he led CMU to a 9-4 overall, 6-2 MAC record and berth in the 2021 Sun Bowl, where the Chippewas closed the year on a five-game win streak, and a 24-21 Sun Bowl win over Washington State.

Central Michigan returned 14 players who started a significant amount of games in 2022, including five on offense and nine on defense. Several transfers arrive who will play significant roles in the coming season, several players return from injury, and a variety of players have improved over the offseason and are ready.

CMU successful against NCAA Division I FCS opponents

Since NCAA Division I-AA became NCAA Division I FCS in 2006, Central Michigan has accumulated a 14-1 overall record in 15 meetings against FCS opponents. All 15 games were played at Kelly/Shorts Stadium in Mount Pleasant. In addition, the Chippewas have won 14 consecutive contests against those opponents. The lone loss was to FCS national power North Dakota State on Sept. 22, 2007 (44-14).

That record is a bit deceiving because several of those wins were close. The Chippewas defeated Rhode Island in triple overtime (30-27) in 2017, defeated Chattanooga 20-16 in 2014 and survived New Hampshire by three points (24-21) in 2013.

Head Coach Jim McElwain owns a 3-0 record vs. FCS level opponents at Central Michigan. In each of the last two contests against FCS opponents, McElwain's Chippewas outscored both Bucknell and Robert Morris by a combined 86-0. The Chippewas have held FCS opponents scoreless for the last eight quarters.

CMU-New Hampshire Series Notes

Central Michigan plays New Hampshire for the third time. The Chippewas are 2-0 in the two matchups, which were played on Sept. 6, 2003, a 40-33 CMU win, and Sept. 7, 2013, another 24-21 CMU win. Both games were played at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

First Team All-MAC cornerback Donte Kent finished the season opener at Michigan State with a career-high 10 tackles.

ABOUT NEW HAMPSHIRE

FCS power New Hampshire enters Saturday's game after registering a 51-17 home victory in its season opener against Stonehill College on Saturday. The Wildcats built a 34-0 lead early in the second quarter and piled up 437 yards of total offense. Quarterback Max Brosner threw five touchdown passes and completed an efficient 19 of 25 passes for 284 yards in the victory. He connected on receptions with 11 different receivers. Running back Dylan Laube rushed for 89 yards on 16 carries and a touchdown. New Hampshire limited Stonehill to 303 yards of total offense (125 rushing, 178 passing) and 17 first downs. The Wildcat defense was led by Ryan Toscano and Nate Kapon-go who both tallied five tackles apiece.

Brosner was named the CFPA FCS National Offensive Performer of the Week after throwing a career-high five touchdowns, and Laube earned two Special Teams Player of the Week honors. During preseason, Laube was named to the Walter Payton Award Watch List and a Stats Perform Preseason All-America First Team selection.

New Hampshire is coming off a 2022 season which saw it claim a share of the Colonial Athletic Association title with a 7-1 record, advance to the FCS national playoffs, win an FCS first round contest over Fordham (52-42) and complete its season with a second round loss to Holy Cross (35-19).

In his third year as New Hampshire's head coach, Rick Santos is one of the prolific passers ever to play college football. At his alma mater New Hampshire and under Offensive Coordinator Chip Kelly, who is now the head coach at UCLA, Santos passed for 13,212 yards and 123 touchdowns while accumulating 14,615 yards of total offense. The three-time Walter Camp

All-American connected with UNH's all-time leading receiver and fellow University Hall of Famer David Ball for 53 touchdowns from 2004-06 to set an FCS record that still stands for most career TD connections for a QB-WR duo. Santos also owns the FCS single-game record for highest percentage of passes completed (96.2 percent) when he went 25 of 26 for 306 yards and five TDs in a 52-21 defeat of Northeastern on Oct. 22, 2005.

In 2006, Santos won the Walter Payton

Award as the most outstanding offensive player in FCS football when he threw for 3,125 yards and 29 touchdowns. He was a three-time Atlantic-10/CAA Offensive Player of the Year (2005-07) and four-time All-Conference First Team QB. In 2004, he was named the ECAC Rookie of the Year, Atlantic 10 co-Rookie of the Year, set the FCS record for most yards gained by a freshman in a game (538, at Villanova, Oct. 2, 2004) and freshman TD passes in a season (31).
