CHIPPEWA FOOTBALL

GAME PREVIEW

By Andy Sneddon
CMU Athletic Communications

Central Michigan football had its coming-out party last week in front of its home crowd, delivering a resounding 49-10 nonconference victory over Wagner.

It's time to ratchet it up with every remaining game taking on increased importance and the Chippewas fighting in their own weight class.

The Chippewas entertain Eastern Michigan in the Mid-American Conference opener for both schools on Saturday (1 p.m., ESPN Plus) on Kramer/Deromedi Field at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

CMU is 2-2; Eastern is 1-3 and coming off a 34-31 win over Louisiana.

"This is the point in time," first-year CMU coach Matt Drinkall said, "when everyone associated with Central Michigan University needs to jump on board and pull the rope in the same direction.

"We need as many fans, faculty, staff members, people in the community – we need them at the game, we need them cheering like crazy because it takes everybody pulling the rope in the same direction to get over the hump.

"This is a great opportunity. We've positioned ourselves and now it's put up or shut up time."

The Chippewas impressed last week in their win over Wagner, and the result against a winless Football Championship Subdivision foe came as no surprise.

What was perhaps surprising – pleasantly, for CMU supporters -- was how dominant the Chippewas were on both sides of the ball. They held the Seahawks without a first down in the second half and on offense, rolled up 506 yards and scored touchdowns on four of their first five drives.

Starting quarterback Joe Labas threw for 241 yards and a career-high-tying three touchdowns on 12-of-14 passing, while Angel Flores, the Chippewas' QB1A, ran for two TDs and passed for another.

Central Michigan coach Matt Drinkall led the Chippewas to a 49-10 victory over Wagner last week in his first game at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

MAC OPENER: EASTERN MICHIGAN

Far left: Quarterback Joe Labas threw for 241 yards and three touchdowns on 12-of-14 passing last week in a 49-10 win over Wagner.

Below: CMU players celebrate their win over Wagner last week in their home opener.

"The thing that was really great about (Labas') performance on Saturday was, how well he played, that probably holds up against anybody," Drinkall said. "He was accurate, on time, very decisive. There wasn't an ounce of fat on a single one of his reps.

"Joe runs it some when he's in, and Angel throws it pretty well when he's in. Those two just keep getting better and better."

Which is a good sign heading into the league opener. And while the Chippe- was have answered plenty of questions through their first four games, there are plenty more and the stakes now increase.

"The mood is definitely high and we're approaching it like we approach every week – confident," cornerback Kalen Carroll said. "Going against a team like Eastern and it's MAC play, it adds a chip on your shoulder.

"Surprisingly, we came into our Sunday meeting (after the Wagner win), and it wasn't all laughing and giggles and 'good job' like you might think it would be.

"It was, 'We still need to get better on things.' People say comfort kills. We have a standard and we want to live up to that. That's the approach every week."

Today's Top Storylines

Central Michigan and Eastern Michigan open MAC play with a key September matchup in Mount Pleasant.

CMU and EMU meet for the 103rd time in series history, the longest-running series between any two MAC schools. The two teams meet for the 54th consecutive year. CMU has won four of the last six, nine of the last 13, and 11 of the last 16. The Chippewas have won each of the last six series games played in Mount Pleasant.

The contest also marks the first of three Michigan MAC Trophy matchups between CMU, EMU, and WMU. The school with the best head-to-head record earns the right to the Michigan MAC Trophy.

About the Chippewas

Central Michigan (2-2, 0-0 MAC) opens Mid-American Conference play with its fifth overall game and second home game of the 2025 season when it hosts Eastern Michigan (1-3, 0-0 MAC) in a Saturday contest at Kramer/Deromedi Field at Kelly/Shorts Stadium. Kickoff is at 1 p.m. for a televised game on ESPN+.

Central Michigan is coming off a dominating 49-10 home victory over Wagner on Saturday, which saw the Chippewas rack up 506 yards of total offense, 233 yards rushing, 273 yards passing, and 24 first downs. CMU's defense also limited Wagner to 113 yards of total offense, six first downs, 72 yards rushing and only 41 yards passing.

It was defense that gave the Chippewas an early lead in the game's first six minutes. On Wagner's second offensive play of the game, Jordan Kwiatkowski tipped a pass into the waiting arms of Dakota Cochran, who gathered the ball and ran 30 yards for an interception return touchdown and 7-0 lead. Then on Wagner's next drive, Michael Heldman's sack forced a fumble that Cochran picked up. The play gave the ball back to Central Michigan, which drove 36 yards in six plays and ended in a 2-yard touchdown run by Angel Flores and commanding 14-0 lead.

Then the Chippewas offense came to life led by quarterback Joe Labas, who threw three touchdown passes and for 241 yards, and completed 85.7 percent (12 of 14) of his passes, which ranked as the fifth-best performance in school history. Labas' 301.02 passing efficiency rating

CMU wide receiver Tommy McIntosh caught two passes, one for a touchdown, last week in the Chippewas 49-10 win over Wagner.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN GAME NOTES

ranked as the second-best all-time game performance in school history behind Dan LeFevour (303.7) at Buffalo on Nov. 24, 2006. His touchdown passes in the second quarter included an 88-yard screen pass to Nahree Biggins, a 33-yard pass to Tommy McIntosh, and a 33-yard pass to a wide open Tyson Davis and the Chippewas took a 35-3 lead into halftime.

CMU's quarterbacks combined for six of the Chippewas' seven touchdowns (Labas, three TD passes; Flores, 2 rushing scores, one passing).

Previously, Central Michigan opened its season with three straight road games for the first time since 1972. The Chippewas dropped a 63-3 loss at Michigan before 110,740 fans at Michigan Stadium on Sept. 13. Angel Flores led the CMU offense with a career-high 100 total yards, including a career-high 76 yards rushing, and Elijah Gordon and Elijah Rikard both finished with eight tackles on defense.

It dropped a 45-17 decision at Pittsburgh on Sept. 6. The Chippewas trailed 24-17 after DeCorion Temple scored on a 6-yard pass from Joe Labas in the third quarter, but Pitt answered 45 seconds later with a long kickoff return and 48-yard touchdown pass. The Panthers scored two more times for the final score. Central Michigan completed 20 of 27 passes for 177 yards and a touchdown in the game. The Chippewas led time of possession 36:43-23:17 but Pitt scored fast and finished with 464 yards of total offense and 340 passing yards.

In its season opener on Aug. 29, Central Michigan claimed a 16-14 come-from-behind victory at San Jose State. The Chippewas forced three first half turnovers and went up 13-0 in the second quarter. A Brenden Deasfernandes interception in the end zone stopped a Spartan scoring drive and led to a 29-yard touchdown run by Trey Cornist. A forced fumble by Michael Heldman led to a fumble return by Fernando Sanchez III and eventual 34-yard field goal by Cade Graham. Then Elijah Rikard intercepted another pass that set up a 28-yard field goal by Graham and 13-0 CMU lead. San Jose State scored before halftime and then took the lead 14-13 in the third quarter.

Central Michigan continued to battle. The Chippewas drove down to the SJSU one-yard line but couldn't convert. After the CMU defense forced a punt, Central Michigan drove 80 yards in 14 plays and used 7:16 of clock time in a drive that ended in a 28-yard field goal by Graham. That put the Chippewas up 16-14. The Chippewas defense forced two missed field goals by San Jose State to secure the win.

The win represented the first for coach Matt Drinkall as Central Michigan's football coach. Saturday's game at Wagner marks his first game coaching at Kelly/Shorts Stadium. Drinkall was named the 30th football coach at Central Michigan on Dec. 9, 2024 after serving the previous six seasons on staff at Army. His 2024 Army offensive line won the Joe Moore Award for top offensive line unit in the nation and helped guide the Black Knights to a 12-2 record, No. 22 national ranking in the College Football Playoff poll, and the American Athletic Conference title in the program's first year in the league.

In his first 10 months with the Central Michigan Football program, Drinkall has initiated a culture change with numerous improvements to the student-athlete experience. With a 3.2 grade point average, the Chippewas put together their best-ever academic semester in spring 2025. The Chippewas now have top-notch meals provided at their facility by CMU Dining Services, have turned rooms into areas for player use such as the VIP Lounge which was converted into a player lounge, the practice schedule has been revamped, and the team took a team-building trip to amusement park Cedar Point in the summer. Those are just a few of the many changes that he has made since his arrival.

Drinkall became the first coach at Central Michigan to win a debut game on the road since Bill Kelly won a 34-13 victory at Southern Illinois on Sept. 22, 1951.

Ranked as one of the nation's top 40 winningest FBS programs of all-time and with eight current players in the National Football League, Central Michigan is coming off three consecutive sub-.500 seasons for the first time since 2002-04. The Chippewas went 4-8 last season and 2-6 in the MAC.

On a two-game home win streak, historically, Central Michigan enjoys a tremendous home field advantage at Kelly/Shorts Stadium. Since 2019, the Chippewas are a combined 23-10 with a .697-win percentage within the confines of Kelly/Shorts Stadium. The Chippewas have won five of their last seven and nine of its last 12 home contests.

The last time CMU completed a season with an undefeated home record was when the Chippewas went a perfect 6-0 in 2019. The last several seasons, CMU went 1-2 in 2020, 5-1 in 2021, 2-4 in 2022, 4-1 in 2023, 3-2 in 2024, and 1-0 in 2025 at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

The deposit law generates clean material and protects natural resources through efficient, closed-loop recycling.

CONVENIENT ACCESS

No special trips needed. Return your bottles and cans directly to grocery stores.

94% APPROVAL RATING

More popular than football & apple pie, our deposit system is widely approved.

CUTS LITTER IN HALF

Since its 1978 inception, the deposit law has resulted in 50% less litter.
