GAME PREVIEW

By Andy Sneddon
CMU Athletic Communications

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. – A dominant win over Eastern Michigan changed the course, and the vibe, of the season for the Central Michigan football program.

The Chippewas are looking to continue that feel-good, upward trend on Wednesday when they entertain Sacramento State in a Mid-American Conference game (7:30 p.m.) on Kramer/Deromedi Field at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

CMU is 4-5, 2-3 MAC and needs two wins to become bowl eligible. The Chippewas close the regular season with two league road games, at Buffalo (Nov. 18) and at Ball State (Nov. 28).

"We cleaned up what we needed to, executed a little better, and played really well," second-year CMU coach Matt Drinkall said of his team's 35-7 victory over Eastern a week ago. "We should be pretty hungry now to continue to improve and keep being the best version of ourselves."

Which was pretty darned good against the Eagles. CMU played perhaps its most complete game of the season, and perhaps the best it has played since Drinkall took over the program prior to the 2025 season.

The Chippewas finished with 26 first downs and held the Eagles to 177 total yards. EMU had just 52 yards and one first down heading into the fourth quarter as the Chippewas held a 28-0 lead.

Drinkall said the Chippewas have refocused as the season has hit its stretch run and the number of opportunities to step on the field dwindle.

"We've really changed the perception of how important every rep is," he said. "We do everything right. Our kids are in great physical shape, great emotional shape. We're banged up a little bit, but that's just because of the nature of the beast. Everyone is.

"Our kids are playing harder, we're getting better every week, and we kind of made it through the stormy part of our schedule. Go put on the tape from (the EMU game) and put on the tape from Colgate (second game of the season). I mean, that's a completely different looking beast."

Perhaps, Drinkall suggested, the sense of the season coming to an end has myopically morphed into a day-to-day and game-to-game urgency and translated into better starts.

The Chippewas fell behind early and never led in losses to Ohio and to Western Michigan, but in their last two games, they have scored first.

"That's the second week in a row where we started out so much better, and that really helped frame the game so well for us," Drinkall said in reference to the Eastern Michigan win. "That's two weeks in a row we've done that infinitely better."

TOP: CMU's Nick Woodford rushed for a career high 123 yards and three touchdowns against Eastern Michigan.

BOTTOM: Chippewas quarterback Jadyn Glasser celebrates a Central Michigan touchdown.

ABOVE: Justin Ruffin Jr. (9) breaks away from an Eastern Michigan defender for a big gain.

TOP LEFT: Nasir Williams (3) had 57 receiving yards and scored his first touchdown of the season versus Eastern Michigan.

Jadyn Glasser made his second consecutive start at quarterback for CMU in the win over Eastern, and he was an efficient 14-of-19 passing for 175 yards and a touchdown.

The Chippewas did not commit a turnover in either of their previous two games.

Glasser replaced injured starter Angel Flores late in the Chippewas' loss to Western Michigan. In his two starts, Glasser had thrown for 396 yards and two TDs on 32-of-40 passing. Flores, who appeared in seven games this season, rushed for a team-high 618 yards this season.

"It is a monumental shift" from Flores to Glasser, Drinkall said. "It changes the way you have to defend us completely because of his ability to throw the ball all over the field and distribute it quickly."

Sacramento State enters Wednesday's game 2-8, 1-6, but has played two of its best games of the season in its last two. The Hornets defeated Kent State, 31-10, and then lost to Toledo, 20-17. Both games were in Sacramento. Toledo is 7-2 and tied for second place in the MAC at 4-1.

The Hornets are in their first year in the MAC and their first year as a Football Bowl Subdivision program.

"I think maybe they were kind of getting the pieces figured out early in the season," Drinkall said. "They have made some changes with who's calling plays, who's on the field, who's on the staff. And in the last couple weeks, boy, has it made an enormous difference for them.

"I mean, they forced five turnovers against Kent State and won, and then immediately turned around and played Toledo tough and held them to a really low output. It is concerning how big of improvements they have made here in such a short amount of time."

With three games remaining, Central Michigan needs two victories to secure a postseason bowl berth for a second consecutive season under Head Coach Matt Drinkall. The Chippewas close the 2026 season by hosting Sacramento State, then travel to both Buffalo (Nov. 18) and Ball State (Nov. 28).

In MAC play, the Chippewas enter Wednesday night's contest with two wins (35-7 vs. Eastern Michigan and 41-17 vs. Akron) and three losses (31-14 at Ohio, 21-14 vs. Western Michigan, and 28-27 to Miami, Ohio). CMU's three MAC losses are to teams with a combined 12-3 MAC league record and comprise three of the league's top 5 teams in the standings.

Central Michigan plays its final three games without several of its starters including Angel Flores, Xavier White, Langston Lewis, Korver Demma, James Reinbold, Hunter Zirkle, and Max VanFleet. The Chippewas have stepped up in a variety of positions.

Central Michigan is coming off a dominating 35-7 victory over Eastern Michigan last Wednesday at Ford Field. CMU dominated and led 35-0 before the Eagles finally scored with 10 seconds left. Central Michigan held advantages in total yardage (418-177), first downs (26-9), rushing yards (235-74), turnovers (1-0), and time of possession (40:56-19:04). All five CMU touchdown drives went 10 or more plays and 50 or more yards. The Chippewas also converted all five of their fourth down conversions and threw for 183 yards. Running back Nick Woodford was the star as he scored three rushing touchdowns of 11, 2, and 1 yard and finished with career-highs of 123 yards on 21 attempts. Quarterback Jadyn Glasser completed 14 of 19 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. Glasser gave CMU a 7-0 when he found Nasir Williams for an 8-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. Woodford scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter to give the Chippewas a 21-0 halftime lead. From there, the Chippewas coasted to the win. The victory snapped a three-game losing streak for the Chippewas.

On Saturday, Oct. 24, Miami (Ohio) scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:41 remaining to defeat Central Michigan 28-27. The Chippewas battled back several times as the lead changed seven times in the contest. Making his first start of the season in place of the injured Angel Flores, quarterback Jadyn Glasser set career-highs for completions (18), attempts (31) and passing yards (221) and threw one touchdown pass in leading the Chippewas to their best passing game of the season. Wide receiver Langston Lewis was Glasser's favorite target as he had a career day with 10 receptions for 163 yards and a touchdown catch. Lewis became the first player to finish with over 150 yards receiving in 148 games and since Titus Davis achieved it vs. Ohio on Oct. 4, 2014. The Chippewas won the turnover battle 2-0, registered a season-high four sacks, defensive back Justin Taylor scored CMU's first defensive touchdown of the year on a 46-yard interception return, Mayson

Mayson Hitchens (35) has made 50 tackles in his first season with the Chippewas.

ABOUT SACRAMENTO STATE

Wednesday's game marks the first between Central Michigan and Sacramento State.

The Hornets are 2-8, 1-6 Mid-American Conference and in their first year as a Football Bowl Subdivision program.

They were members of the Big Sky Conference from 1996-2025 and won league championships in 2019, 2021 and 2022. They made the Football Championship Subdivision tournament in each of those seasons and in 2023.

Notable former Hornets are current New York Giant Cameron Skattebo, who played at Sacramento State in 2021-22 before transferring to Arizona State; Dallas Cowboys defensive back DaRon Bland; and quarterback Ken O'Brien, who played nine seasons with the New York Jets. Actor Tom Hanks is arguably Sacramento State's most famous alum.

The Hornets lost to MAC frontrunner Toledo, 20-17, at home last week after posting a 31-10 win over Kent State. Both games were played in Sacramento.

Alonzo Carter is in his first season as the Hornets' coach.

The Hornets have used four quarterbacks through their first 10 games. Jackson Sharman has been the primary starter, but he left the Toledo game at halftime due to an injury. Sharman and Brian Salazar combined to throw for 216 yards on 20-of-33 passing. Carson Conklin started the Hornets' season opener, a 28-17 loss at Eastern Michigan. He was injured in the game has not played since.

Sacramento State ranks 11th in the MAC in total offense (13th in rushing, seventh in passing) and is fifth in total defense (10th against the run, fourth against the pass). The Chippewas rank fifth in total offense and third in total defense.

GAME DAY POLICIES A-Z

NEW ON GAME DAY!
Opening three hours prior to kickoff for each Saturday home game, Fan Fest will give Chippewa fans a destination to eat, drink, and enjoy a variety of activities before entering the stadium.

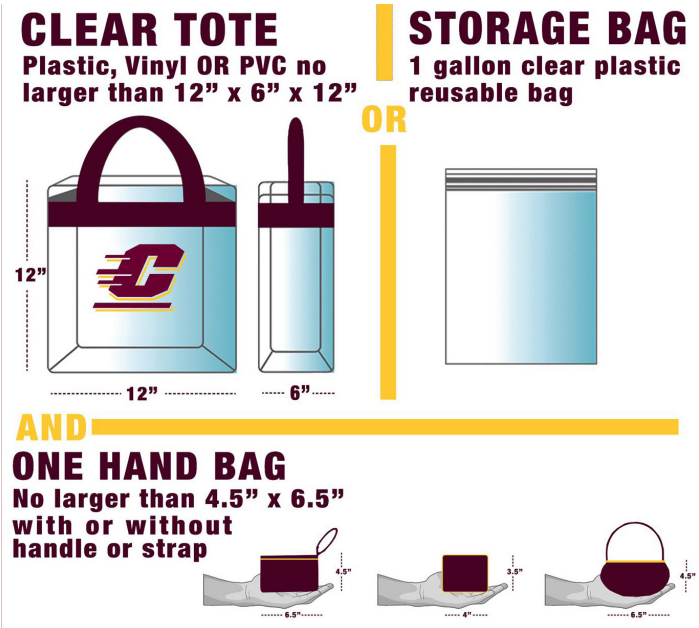

Fan Fest will feature the new Gold Post BBQ & Beer on the Fabiano Brothers Patio, where fans can purchase beer and smoked barbecue from CMU Dining Services. The pre-game experience will also include the Meijer Kids' Zone with bounce houses, yard games, and a coloring station; face painting; a photo booth; sponsor tents and interactive activities; appearances and performances from CMU spirit groups; autograph sessions featuring Chippewa student-athletes from other athletic programs; the traditional Spirit Walk; and the new Central Michigan Football Tailgate Show.

Hosted by Voice of the Chippewas Adam Jaksa, the Central Michigan Football Tailgate Show will begin two hours and 15 minutes before kickoff and bring fans closer to the upcoming matchup with live pre-game coverage from the Fan Fest stage, along with special guests throughout the season.

The Spirit Walk will remain a centerpiece of the Chippewa pre-game tradition, taking place two hours and five minutes prior to kickoff as the football team makes its way from the west entrance of the Courtyard Marriott to the main doors of the Chippewa Champions Center alongside fans, the Marching Chips, and CMU cheer and dance teams.
