C2C Tournament Time

Christopher Newport University travels to Fredericksburg, Va., for the 2024 Coast-To-Coast Athletic Conference Tournament. Game time Friday for a semifinal game vs. either UC Santa Cruz or Pratt is scheduled for 5:00 p.m. at Ron Rosner Arena. A victory on Friday would advance the Captains to the C2C Championship Game Saturday night at 7:00 p.m.

The Captains, National Champions last year, are looking for their third straight C2C title since the inception of the conference. CNU has beaten Mary Washington in the title game the last two years, in Newport News in 2022 and in Santa Cruz, Ca., last year.

John Krikorian's squad is 19-6 and coming off a 71-55 road loss at Salisbury last Saturday to conclude the regular season. Christopher Newport was the pre-season #1 team in the country, and the Captains are ranked 25th in the nation this week.

CNU games are broadcast live on the Christopher Newport/Pepsi Radio Network (Xtra 99.1 FM) with the pre-game show beginning 20 minutes prior to tip off.

Leading the Captains

Christopher Newport Head Coach John Krikorian is in his 13th season leading the Captains, and has a mark of 309-71 in 380 games at CNU (.813). His overall coaching record, including four seasons at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, is now 374-113 (.768). He won his 300th game leading the Captains on December 28th in a 102-56 victory over Old Westbury.

Krikorian wrapped up his 12th season guiding the Captains, and 16th season overall as a head coach, by winning a National Championship and by being named the National Coach of the Year by the NABC (National Association of Basketball Coaches). Krikorian has led the Captains to seven straight NCAA Tournaments, and nine in 12 years since taking over. He has guided CNU to three NCAA Final Fours.

Hines Climbing

Christopher Newport senior All-American Jahn Hines has now has scored 1,415 career points in 88 games played (16.0 ppg), and is currently in 13th place on the all-time scoring list, 64 points behind Mike Cherry for 12th place.

Hines went over the 1,000 point mark for his career during the NCAA Tournament last March. He became the 34th CNU player in history to reach 1,000. Hines set a new personal high when he scored 39 points at Berry College on New Year's Day, and became one of just six Captains all-time to score 39 or more points in a game.

Hines was selected the Coast-To-Coast Athletic Conference Player of the Year this year and Player of the Week four times this season. He was a second team All-America by D3hoops.com prior to the start of the season. Last season, Hines was selected as fourth team All-American by the website, the second career All-American honor for the senior from Norfolk.

Freeman Facts

This was the 23rd season for the Captains in the Freeman Center, and CNU is now 309-59 (.840) in 368 games all-time since the building opened in 2000. CNU was 12-2 at home this season, and was 17-0 at home in 2021-22 and 13-1 last season. CNU is 12-3 all-time in NCAA games at the Freeman Center and has compiled a record of 176-21 (.893) in its last 197 home games dating back to the 2010-11 season, John Krikorian's first at CNU...and 73-5 (.936) at home since the start of the 2018-19 season.

Tournament Talk

Last season marked the seventh straight NCAA Division III Men's Basketball Tournament for the Captains, and 26th total in the history of the program. It was the third trip to the National Semi-finals, and first National Championship for the Captains in the 55 years of men's basketball.

CNU has advanced to the tourney nine times in 12 years under Head Coach John Krikorian.

Christopher Newport is 33-25 all-time in NCAA play following six victories last season over Farmingdale State, Hampden-Sydney, Mary Hardin-Baylor, Wheaton, Swarthmore, and Mount Union in the title game.

The Captains had previously advanced to the Final Four twice, heading to Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 2018-2019 and finishing with a 29-4 record. CNU first advanced to the Final Four, in Salem, Va., in a 30-2 season in 2015-16. CNU advanced to the Elite 8 in 2021-2022 for the fourth time, falling at Marietta to end the season at 27-3.

CNU HEAD COACH: JOHN KRİKORIAN

13th Season at CNU (309-71, .813), 17th season overall (374-113, .768)

Assistant Head Coach: Dom Parker

Assistants: Roland Ross, Quentin Acree, Jamaal Madison

HEAD COACH JOHN KRIKORIAN

JOHN KRIKORIAN was named men's basketball coach at Christopher Newport on June 14, 2010. He is just the fourth head coach in the program's 56-year history, and has led the Captains to amazing success, including its first National Championship and first three Final Four appearances. His squads have advanced to the 2015-2016 Final Four in Salem, Va., as well as the 2018-2019 and 2022-2023 National Semifinals in Fort Wayne, Indiana, where CNU won its first title in 2023 by beating Mount Union in the title game.

Krikorian has continued the program's remarkable history since taking over from longtime coach and Athletic Director C.J. Woollum, who led the program for 26 seasons. He has now guided the Captains to the NCAA Tournament a total of nine times, including the last seven. His overall record at CNU is now 290-65 (.817) through his first dozen seasons at the helm.

Krikorian was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) following his title season. He was named the inaugural Coast-To-Coast Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 2021-2022 after being honored as the Capital Athletic Conference's Coach of the Year for five straight years. Krikorian's teams at CNU have won at least 18 games every season, and advanced to the Conference Championship game every year as a member of three different leagues (USA South, CAC and C2C).

A native of Auburn, Massachusetts, "Coach K" compiled a record of 65-42 (.607) at the Merchant Marine Academy over four years prior to coming to CNU. He led the squad to a 24-5 record his last season there in 2009-2010, and won the Landmark Conference regular-season and post-season championships...advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He was named the 2010 Landmark Conference Coach of the Year. During his tenure at the Merchant Marine Academy, Krikorian transformed the program and put particular focus on defense.

Krikorian earned a bachelor's degree in Systems Engineering in 1996 from the University of Pennsylvania, where he played on the junior varsity basketball team coached by Steve Donahue, who later became head coach at Boston College after years of success at Cornell. Krikorian became a student assistant at Penn during his senior season, his first taste of coaching hoops. Following his college days, Krikorian spent two years in the business world working for Princeton Consultants, an information management company in Princeton, New Jersey. In 1998, Krikorian returned to his passion and accepted the position of graduate assistant basketball coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College. What followed was a steady climb up the ladder of the college coaching ranks.

After one season at West Virginia Wesleyan, he made his first stop at the Merchant Marine Academy as an assistant coach under Billy Lange during the 1999-2000 season. After a season there, he returned to his alma mater for two seasons, working as an assistant at Penn under Fran Dunphy. Krikorian then accepted an assistant position at another Division I program, Lafayette College in Easton, PA. There he assisted Fran O'Hanlon from 2002-2004. His journey then took him to Annapolis, MD, where he spent two years as an assistant at the United States Naval Academy (2004-2006)...re-uniting with head coach Billy Lange. His time at Navy came to an end when he was named the head coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in 2006, beginning his head coaching career with an amazing four-year transformation of the Mariners.

Krikorian received his masters from VCU in 2017 and his coaching resume now includes six seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant and 16 as a Division III head coach. He and his wife, Emily, reside in Newport News with their three children...daughters, Lillian Grace and Katherine Rose ...and son, Jack.

Honors for Hines and Hollenbeck

Senior All-American Jahn Hines and freshman Toa Hollenbeck were honored Wednesday by the Coast-To-Coast Athletic Conference. Hines was named the C2C's Player of the Year and Hollenbeck the conference's Rookie of the Year following voting of the league's coaches.

Hines, a product of Norview High School in Norfolk, receives his second Player of the Year honor from the C2C after being named the Player of the Week four times this season. Hines has averaged a team-high 15.4 points per game while also leading the Captains in assists (68) and steals (34). This marks his third straight first team All-Conference selection from the C2C, and Hines was also honored as Player of the Year following his sophomore season in 2021-22.

Hollenbeck, a native of Chesapeake and Grassfield High School graduate, has averaged 10.8 points per game in his first season with the Captains. He has played in all 25 games, and has knocked down 43 three-point field goals, leading the squad in that category. Hollenbeck has topped the team in scoring six times during his freshman season, and has scored 20 or more points five times, including a career-high 23 vs. Mary Washington at the Freeman Center on February 10th. Hollenbeck was selected the C2C's Player of the Week earlier this month, and becomes the first CNU player to receive conference Rookie of the Year honors since Marcus Carter following the 2014-15 campaign.

Captains Weekly Honors

Senior All-Americans Jahn Hines and Trey Barber as well as freshmen Hasan Hammad and Toa Hollenbeck were honored this season as the Player of the Week in the Coast-To-Coast Athletic Conference.

Hines received the honor four times, more than any other player in the conference. He was also recognized in back-to-back weeks on January 15th and 22nd. Barber was chosen for the honor twice this year, in back-to-back weeks of November 20th and 27th. Hammad was named the Player of the Week on December 18th, and Hollenbeck was selected the POW on February 12th.

Hines Shines

Senior All-American Jahn Hines has been moving steadily up the Christopher Newport University scoring chart this season. The Norfolk native went over the 1,000 point mark for his career during the NCAA Tournament last March. He became the 34th CNU player in history to reach 1,000, and has now has scored 1,415 career points in 88 games played (16.0 ppg). Hines is currently in 13th place on the scoring list, 64 points behind Mike Cherry for 12th place. Hines set a new personal high when he scored 39 points at Berry College on New Year's Day, and became one of just six Captains all-time to score 39 or more points in a game.

Hines was a second team All-America by D3hoops.com prior to the start of the season. Last season, Hines was selected as fourth team All-American by the website, the second career All-American honor for the senior.

Below are the CNU all-time scoring lists, by total points and by average points per game.
