SERIES SYNOPSIS

Coe trails the all-time series against the Knights 27-13. Coe's last win came in the 2016 season, defeating Wartburg 37-34 at Clark Field.

LEADING KOHAWKS

Coe is no. 21 in the week 7 AFCA DIII Poll and 10th in the first edition of the NCAA DIII NPI Rankings, the list that will determine the field for the 2024 Football Championship bracket. Trenton Barnes has led Coe's offense out of the backfield throughout the season, rushing for 856 yards which is second in DIII. Jeron Senters has led the attack down the field, hauling in a team-high eight receiving touchdowns which ranks 19th in the nation. Alex Aitchison has been on a tear on the defensive side of the ball of late, recording at least half a sack in four straight games. The fifth-year senior had multiple sacks the previous two weeks against Central and NWU.

2024 Coe College Kohawk Football

Dominant defensive effort & explosive second half leads no. 21 Football to victory at Nebraska Wesleyan

LINCOLN, Neb. - The Coe College football team cruised to its nation-leading seventh win of the 2024 season on Saturday afternoon at Nebraska Wesleyan, rolling past the Prairie Wolves 50-0. The Kohawks started the game slowly, scoring just 10 points in the opening quarter before going scoreless in the second. Coe's offense came to life in the third, ripping off 26 points as Trenton Barnes, Latrell Taylor, Andrew White and Jeron Senters all found the endzone in the period. The Kohawk offense added 14 more in the fourth quarter as the reserves continued to pour it on, getting a one-yard plunge from White and a 32-yard score from Tre'sean Cunningham to make it 50-0. Coe's defense continued its dominant run in 2024, allowing 214 total yards and just 43 rushing yards. The Kohawks limited the Prairie Wolves to 1.4 yards per rush and totaled seven tackles for loss. Alex Aitchison had his second multi-sack week in a row, tallying a pair while recording two QB hurries.

#21 COE 50 - NEBRASKA WESLEYAN 0 GAME FACTS

The opening drive was nearly perfect for the Kohawk offense after the defense forced an immediate three-and-out, driving 59 yards in seven plays before Krousie hit Slade Huerta for a two-yard touchdown. Julian Garcia Ayala put the next three points on the board on Coe's next drive as a special teams punt block was recovered deep in NWU territory. The Kohawk offense failed to put seven on the board despite starting at the 10, having to settle for a 27-yard kick which Garica Ayala converted. Coe's offense threatened during a long drive early in the second quarter, marching from its own 14 down to the NWU 10 before turning it over on downs as Krousie failed to hit Devon Kollasch on a fourth and three attempt. The Kohawk defense stood up to the test on the ensuing possession, allowing the Prairie Wolves to move the ball past midfield before missing a deep 48-yard field goal attempt. Coe's offense struck again on its first drive of the second half, shaking off the slow start with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that was capped off by Barnes' eighth rushing TD of the year. Henry Ryan quickly got the offense back on the field on NWU's next drive, picking off a third-down pass to set up Krousie in plus territory. The Kohawks hit pay dirt moments later, capitalizing on the turnover with a one-yard touchdown pass to Taylor. Coe scored for its third straight drive minutes later as the defense forced another three-and-out, getting a seven-yard score from Andrew White to go up 29-0. Senters capped off the incredible quarter with Coe's fourth straight TD drive, hauling in a 47-yard bomb from Krousie for his eighth TD of the season. The Kohawks put two more touchdowns on the board early in the fourth quarter, pouding in two more rushing scores from one yard and seven yards out as White and Cunningham put the icing on the cake.

HEAD COACH: TYLER STAKER

Tyler Staker is no stranger to the Kohawk football program, serving 10 seasons as an assistant coach before being named the Head Coach of the Kohawk football program in November of 2015. Staker replaced his father, Steve, a legendary hall of famer who spent over 50 years positively impacting young peoples' lives coaching high school and college football.

Staker finished his eighth season in charge in 2023, leading Coe to nine wins, its second-highest total in his tenure. The Kohawks rolled to a 7-1 record in the A-R-C and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III Playoffs for the first time since 2016. Coe had a program-record 16 all-conference performers with five earning first-team honors.

In his first year at the helm, the 2016 Kohawk team finished 11-1 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III Playoffs. Coe won the Iowa conference for the fifth time in school history while completing the third 10-0 regular season in school history. Staker was named IIAC Coach of the year as well as the AFCA D3 Regional Coach of the year. The 2016 team produced IIAC offensive MVP in running back Trevor Heitland, and defensive MVP in defensive back Dylan Stepleton. 2021 produced Coach Staker's best season since 2016 as the Kohawks registered an 8-2 overall record with a 6-2 mark in the A-R-C. Coe extended its winning streak over local-rival Cornell to 21 games during the season and saw 11 players earn all-conference honors to cap off the campaign.

During his stint as head coach, Coe has had eighth all-Americans and over 80 all-conference players, including over 30 first-team selections. Staker has also coached 3 conference MVPs. Staker is a 2006 graduate of Coe College and is the youngest of 5 siblings that all attended Coe. He was a four-year letterman and a two-time captain for the Kohawks, where he garnered all-conference honors as a defensive back his junior and senior years, as well as an all-west region performer his senior year. During his four years as a student-athlete, Staker helped the Kohawks to a record of 29-14 and three IIAC championships.

After graduation, Staker spent two seasons as a graduate assistant, where he helped coach the offensive line and wide receivers before he took over as the offensive coordinator in 2008. During his 8 year run as offensive coordinator, the Kohawks posted a 51-23 record, an IIAC championship in 2012, and 3 NCAA Playoff appearances. Staker is married to Kristy Staker, a 2008 graduate of Coe College. Tyler and Kristy have four kids, Avery, Cade, Ellie and Olivia.
