PLAYOFF SEMIFINAL

• NO. 5 OREGON VS. NO. 1 INDIANA •
• 2026 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL
POSTGAME NOTES •

- Indiana advances to play in the CFP National Championship Game for the first time in program history after tonight's CFP Semifinal win.
- The Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl's last two Semifinal winners have gone on to win the national title (2019 LSU and 2022 UGA). If Indiana wins on Jan. 19 in Miami, the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl will become the first CFP bowl to have three consecutive CFP Semifinal winners go on to win the national championship.
- The Big Ten will have a team in the CFP National Championship for the third consecutive season as the Hoosiers attempt to win the third title in a row for the conference following Ohio State (2025) and Michigan (2024).
- Indiana wins its first-ever CFP Semifinal game, its first Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and back-to-back bowl games for the first time in program history.
- No. 1 seeds remain undefeated at 4-0 when the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl hosts a Semifinal and improve to 9-2 in the CFP Semifinal round and 14-7 overall in the playoff.
- Heisman trophy winners move to a perfect 3-0 mark in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 2-0 in CFP Semifinal Games. Mendoza joins Joe Burrow as the second Heisman winner to win the Bowl's Semifinal game after throwing for 177 yards and five touchdowns.
- Indiana improves to 3-2 vs. Oregon all-time and 2-0 this season. The Hoosiers become one of only two teams to win both the regular season matchup and the rematch game in the playoffs since the creation of the CFP (Ole Miss vs. Tulane was the other earlier this year).
- Mendoza was named the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl's Offensive MVP while D'Angelo Ponds was named the game's Defensive MVP. Mendoza completed 17 of 20 passes for 177 yards and five touchdowns, along with six rushes for 28 yards. Ponds had six tackles on the day (four solo) and an interception return for a touchdown on the first play of the game.
- Cignetti remains undefeated in bowl games as IU's head coach (2-0) and jumps Lanning for the best head coaching record over the past two seasons (26-2). He also ranks first among active college football coaches with the best win percentage as an FBS coach at 45-6 (.880 percent).
- Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl/CFP Records:
- Ponds' pick-six was the fastest score to start a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (0:11) and the first opening TD in the Bowl that was scored by defense/special teams since Miami's Devin Hester returned a blocked Florida FG attempt in 2004.
- Fernando Mendoza set a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl passing completion percentage record, completing 17 of 20 passes (85 percent) - min. 20 attempts.
- Indiana's 28-point halftime lead was the largest since the 2019 CFP Semifinal at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl between Oklahoma and LSU (35 pt LSU advantage).
- IU is the first team to force three or more turnovers in a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl since Auburn in 2019.
- The Hoosiers secured the largest margin of victory (34) in an intra-conference CFP game and the largest margin of victory for Big Ten team in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl: Oregon vs Indiana

Coach Curt Cignetti

Fernando Mendoza

D'Angelo Ponds

Postgame Press Conference

CURT CIGNETTI: It's a great win against a really good football team. Really proud of our players, our staff. It all started with Ponds' pick six, and then they put a nice drive together. Had us off balance a little bit, but we responded with a score and then created some turnovers on defense. We capitalized on offense, and that was the story of the first half.

Scoring early in the second half and distancing ourselves helped. Got a couple guys nicked in some areas we were thin on defense, which was concerning, but it's a great win.

Q. Cignetti, your ability to keep finding guys to make plays and Tuioti tonight, the way he played and just the number of guys you're getting contributions from now?

CURT CIGNETTI: I think when you have good people and they buy in and they prepare the right way, we have a lot of those kind of guys. They're high-character, smart guys that can play and Coach Haines puts them in position to make plays and put the offense in conflict and attacks.

And on the other side of the ball, too, in special teams as well, we've been very consistent in all three phases.

Q. Coach, what were you trying to negate with their team and execute with your team? What were you trying to negate with their team and execute with your team?

CURT CIGNETTI: To me, every game is the same. You got line of scrimmage. You gotta win the line of scrimmage. You gotta be able to run the ball, stop the run, affect the quarterback, protect the quarterback. And then the turnover ratio, which was huge in this game.

We're number one in the country in that. And those turnovers in the first half led to 21 points, explosive plays, and then you gotta be good in critical situations, third and fourth down, two-minute. And special teams always needs to be a win, or at least a draw.

Q. Fernando, your thoughts on not only what you've accomplished, but what you've given to Hoosier Nation, this ride that now goes onto the National Championship game?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: I think it is the other way around. Hoosier Nation has given myself and the coaching staff here has given myself so much great opportunity. Told me a year ago, I believe a year ago today or day before actually is the day I arrived on campus after transferring, so Hoosier Nation, the coaching staff and the entire sports staff has given myself so much opportunity here and so much belief in my character and my play, not only as a player, also as a leader. I'm forever in debt.

Q. Fernando, you'll be playing in the National Championship game in Miami. What does it mean for you to be able to play this game for the first time in your collegiate career in your hometown?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: I think playing a National Championship would get anybody fired up and definitely stir up some emotions. However for myself, I believe it's going to be a great game. The Hurricanes are a fantastic team, led by a great coach in Coach Cristobal. I think it's really just playing our brand of football, playing the Indiana Hoosiers football, that even though it is the National Championship, we don't have to do anything that is out of character. We just gotta play our brand of football, and that's what has led us to this point in 50 wins this season.

Q. Fernando, in your first two playoff games here, you have eight touchdown passes and only five incompletions and tonight you threw touchdown passes to four different guys.

What does it say about not only your accuracy throwing and finding guys, but also just how the plays have been getting schemed up, you get guys open?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah, I would say I've come a long way from being in game one. Game one, I threw zero touchdown passes. I was trying to be Superman, and then the coaching staff settled me down and was like, hey, you don't gotta be Superman. We have a great defense and a great superstars, playmakers and offense, so just do your job.

My job is to be effective with making really accurate balls and really great decisions, and that's what I pride myself on every single play, and so I'm glad those results came. However, none of that matters. All that matters right now is the National Championship.

Q. For both players, guys that are 21, 22 years old, they chase instant gratification and kind of ride with that. You two and then this whole team appreciate high highs, but you're able to reset.

How are you able to week in, week out as you approach a National Championship game?

D'ANGELO PONDS: I feel like it stems down from the coach's mindset. Coach Cig does a great job keeping us steady, keeping us moving one week at a time. We take things one week at a time, success or failure. We don't look back at it. We just keep moving forward.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: I would say delayed gratification is a concept that was brought by stoicism. It's one of the greatest attributes. If you ever have delayed gratification, discipline in yourself and your discipline in your process and preparation, you're able to execute every single week this play or this game is the National Championship. Like this game is the most important thing.

So I think a lot of players and a lot of coaches and everybody in Bloomington has done a great job of upholding that concept of delayed gratification and discipline throughout all aspects of our lives when there's a lot of distractions especially with the BIG TEN Championship and the Heisman and all the other things, I think our team has done a great job of keeping that delayed gratification at the forefront.

Q. Coach Cig, I wanted to ask you about defensively obviously you've got players doing great things. How much does Coach Haines' ability to kind of create schematic confusion factor into what your defense is able to do?

CURT CIGNETTI: I think it's a huge part. It's hard to put a percentage on because the players make the plays, but they're well coached, and they've got a lot of repetition, stemming from spring ball fall camp.

But our philosophy is to attack, and we are moving a lot of pieces in the front seven. And we've always been Top 5 in the country against the run, TFLs and sacks and that's just our philosophy on how to play defense.

Q. Fernando, this did not sound like a neutral site game. What impact did the crowd have you on?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Shout out to Hoosier Nation for being here. We played an awesome stadium, week five. I believe I had five or six pre-snap penalties.

CURT CIGNETTI: Seven.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Seven. (Laughs). Seven pre-snap as Coach Cignetti just stated. That's huge. That's huge, especially that's one of the ways that you're able to lose a game.

And I think that not having to be able -- not having to go on Sally count because of Hoosier Nation being here and making them go on Sally count is a huge aspect of the game and offensive operation that's not talked about enough.

So shout out to Hoosier Nation because going on Sally count especially against the Ducks is always tough and making the other team go on Sally count, that might have as well counted for some points.

CURT CIGNETTI: No doubt.

Q. Curt, can you evaluate Fernando's performance?

And Fernando, what do you feel like went right tonight?

CURT CIGNETTI: I thought he was incredible. He was great. I also thought our receivers made some nice contested catches. I thought Sarratt was on fire. Charlie Becker made some big plays. EJ and Cooper got in the act as well. And when he wasn't there, Fernando used his legs. I mean, he was on top of the game, and it was a huge difference his performance in this football game.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah. I would say that it was a great team effort. There was a lot of contested catches. Charlie Becker's touchdown, Elijah Sarratt, you know, making catches all over the field. Omar Cooper and EJ, they were getting open all game and to be able to throw with those guys, I'm like a point guard out there. I'm throwing to the open guy, and they shoot the threes.

I got the glory and the fame, but those guys are the ones that make the shots, make the threes. And there was still a lot. Although the scoreboard does not show it, there is still a lot I have to improve on, like footwork. There was a protection check I missed, and there's a ball that I want to have back.

So there's always things to improve and especially for the National Championship game, I think it's important not to dwell on the past. That was a great performance. This is the National Championship. And for this next week like for myself, I don't think there's any time to celebrate because this is what everybody dreams of, and I'm going to put every ounce of my body into preparation going into the next game.

Q. D'Angelo, you talked about changing up your looks after watching the film. What did you see on the pick six and did you change the lookup?

D'ANGELO PONDS: Actually I did. We play a lot of cover three. So coming out, I kind of knew it was a RPO type of deal. I played off, so I could break on the ball. Kind of read his eyes and got a jump on it. It was an amazing feeling walking into the end zone.

Q. Coming off these two playoff performances you've had, what do the next 10 days look like to maintain the level of play you have had in the playoffs?

CURT CIGNETTI: We'll put the best preparation schedule together try to keep it as normal as possible. We'll have an extra day regardless of what we decide to do. And the reason we are where we are is because we're prepared the right way. That's why we've been able to meet the challenge and put it on the field.

We got ten days. Everybody will be off tomorrow. And then Sunday, I'm leaning toward players off Sunday as well. We'll have a couple of official visits on campus and be back at it on Monday.

Q. Dan, for the student-athletes, you believed in the mission for Coach Cig to come to Indiana and see this through and now you're going to the National Championship.

Coach, you believed in these gentlemen to come in and be a part of this movement. So what each of you can say about believing in each other to the point of getting to the National Championship.

D'ANGELO PONDS: I would say, from my perspective, I feel like I believed since day one, trusted this guy. If I didn't believe, I wouldn't have came here, I feel like. I knew we were going to be successful. Honestly, couldn't have asked for this. Didn't think we were going to a National Championship, but I trusted in him and trusted his process, and I knew we were going to be successful.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah. It's been a great journey, I believe, for all of us. I still remember when I was in the transfer portal, Coach Cignetti said, hey, if you're going to come here, you're going to develop into a hell of a quarterback, and it wasn't about, at that point, hey, I'm going to promise you a National Championship. It was you're going to develop and have that belief.

Means a lot to myself, and I think I've been able to see myself, the offense, the entire team grow throughout. So I just think it means a lot that, although social media before the year was like, oh, Cinderella story, we all had the internal belief in the facility, behind closed doors, and I believe that's what helped us propel us to this moment.

CURT CIGNETTI: Well, I think without question, these are two key cogs in the machine. But we have great people upstairs and downstairs. The assistant coaches do a great job of preparing these guys for game day. And downstairs, we got a lot of veteran guys that have strong character, very intelligent, and they can play.

And the bottom line really in this business is you gotta get everybody to think alike. And if you can get everybody thinking alike, focused on the same thing, you can accomplish anything.

Q. Fernando, so you do have experience against your next opponent, Miami. You played them last year. What do you remember about that game and how do you think that could help you potentially next week?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah, so they did switch defensive coordinators. And the last year, with a very different offensive schematic as well, however, it was a tight game that Cam Ward, who is fantastic, ended up being the number one overall pick, and that game came down to the wire.

I remember running on the third down, getting knocked out by Wesley Bissainthe. I hope I said the last name right. I apologize for that. But he's a great player. So I remember getting knocked out there, and we lost by one point. It was heartbreaking. So just looking forward to the opportunity to play them again.

Q. Coach, odds of Indiana winning the National Championship preseason were 100 to 1. What should they be going into this game against Miami?

CURT CIGNETTI: You all have a job to do, and a lot of times you'll piggyback off somebody else's story or belief, and there's pressure to get it nowadays with the internet, get the story out there. And a lot of those, people really don't know our team. They don't know what we're made of, what we got. And I get it.

There was a lot of skepticism after last year, that we were a fluke. That team did a lot of great things and got it all started. That team never trailed until the ninth game of the year, and when it did, 10-0 in the first quarter up at Michigan State, they scored 47 straight.

I think a lot of that negative stuff in the media fueled the guys returning from this team, and we added some real key pieces, the main ones sitting right here on my left, but other ones as well. Great leaders, great players.

And we've just built off our successes, and we've won some big games on the road, and it helps when you have a quarterback play his best football when the game is on the line in the fourth quarter. So here we are.

Q. Coach, do you mind touching on the decision to get D'Angelo the ball on the offensive end, and then Fernando, what was it like throwing it to a guy that you're typically playing against?

CURT CIGNETTI: I can actually take credit for that one. I still sit in in the offensive meetings, but I don't call the plays anymore and haven't for about nine years.

It was a play that matched up well against their defense on third and two. We thought we could also use it in medium. And D'Angelo is probably the best start/stop guy and he's got speed and thought it would be a nice little change up pitch.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah. I mean, especially against solid team, it's basically the same play Jeremiah Smith ran in the National Championship last year against Notre Dame. D'Angelo you saw him pick six. His start/stop is incredible, if not the best in the nation.

So to be able to have him run that and throw the man coverage, and it was man coverage. So at that point I needed to put the ball in the vicinity of D'Angelo because although he's a defensive back, he has fantastic ball skills. He has great hands. He could be a receiver, he has such great hands. It was kind of an extended hand off to him and not only is he a great change of direction, great hands, he is also the fastest player on our team, too. So that helps for the first down.

Q. Fernando, can you just talk about you've touched on it, but how much of a full circle moment this is for you going back to your hometown? Have you played in Hard Rock before? What does this mean to you?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: I've actually not played in Hard Rock before, but I've been to a lot of games there. And it's a very full-circle moment for myself. If you open Google Maps and put my address, the University of Miami campus, it's under a mile away. And I walked there, biked there, played basketball rec games in the offseason there.

It means a lot to me, however, I think the National Championship means a lot to everybody. So I wouldn't want it any other way, on a great stage, that the Indiana Hoosiers are going to have to compete their butt off. They're a great team and really looking forward to the opportunity.

Q. Fernando, heading to the National Championship first time, as well as Mario Cristobal, the head coach of the Miami Hurricanes, two Latinos going at the national stage, what does this do for the Latino community?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah. It does a lot. I think it puts it in the forefront and the light, and I think we've seen Latinos in football. It's been growing, and every single year, you hear about more Latinos, like Jake Rodriguez, great Latino from Texas Tech, and I think it's just a really good path of just making football more adverse and inclusive. I think it's great.

I mean, Mario Cristobal played with my dad in high school, and so I do know him. I think it's going to be a great opportunity for both teams.

Q. Fernando, D'Angelo, you haven't played this completed game without a tremendous week of practice. Just curious if you could shine a light on a couple of your teammates that did a great job in getting you ready and what they did and what that meant to the output on the field.

D'ANGELO PONDS: I would say scout team did a great job giving us a good look all week during practice. I feel like they challenged us. We actually get better from going against the scout team.

I feel like our coaches also do a good job of putting together a game plan for us. Each week they put us in the right positions, and we kind of just buy into what they're saying and trust in what they're saying, and I feel like that's what makes us successful.

FERNANDO MENDOZA: Yeah, I think that week of practice the scout team does a fantastic jobs with all of the GAs, getting all of those guys in the right positions and the right looks and a lot of the looks that we had on scout team showed up today. And I think that was great.

Scouting by the coaching staff and by the GAs to really put that in the pudding, so we were able to execute today. And also the guys -- the entire offensive line like Pat Coogan and Riley Nowakowski, the tight end, those guys really get us energy and juice because our practices are fast and they're short. So a lot of people can tend to be a little tired, but we need intense energy throughout the entire week of prep. And those are two guys and two captains of the offense that did a fantastic job of really motivating our guys whether it was the first play of scout team or the last play.

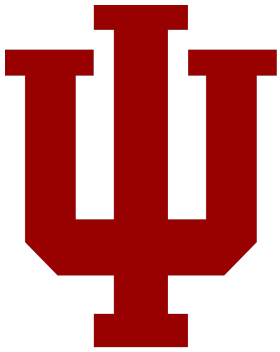

CURT CIGNETTI: And we have another Miami guy here returning to Miami, don't we, Ponds?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: D'Angelo actually picked me off in high school in a Miami game. (Laughs)

MODERATOR: Is there a story behind that that we need to hear?

FERNANDO MENDOZA: He's a really good player and he picked me off. I mean, it was starting off against man, but against this guy, it's tough. I'm thankful to be on his team now. It's a good full-circle moment for both of us to play on the same team now. Thanks, guys. God bless.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

Indiana Offensive Coordinator Mike Shanahan

On sticking to the run game and keeping Fernando efficient:

“In the second half with a big lead, we wanted to eat up a bit of time on the clock and limit their possessions, but also, we wanted to stay in the flow, so it was trying to find a balance there. But I’ve learned from my mistakes in the past too. Abandoning the run and being one dimensional is no fun for anybody. So even though we may have been only gaining two, three or one yard or so at times, it's important to always let those guys up front come off the ball, and we took advantage of some RPOs when they presented themselves. But for the most part, we were just trying to be balanced throughout the whole game.”

On play of QB Fernando Mendoza:

“We had good protection for the most part, we were able to establish the run which helped him out. When [Fernando] had time to throw the ball, he was dialed in, he was accurate and played on rhythm. He played the way he’s capable of playing.

“He makes my job so much easier. He’s a great player and he can get you out of bad situations. He makes good decisions. I felt like he embodies the whole offense. Just his ability to do his job, not try to be a superhero and understand and to distribute the ball to our playmakers. I feel like he’s playing his best ball right now.”

Indiana Defensive Coordinator Bryant Hanes

On DeAngelo Ponds:

“I had mentioned earlier in the week that – as gifted as DeAngelo Ponds is athletically – he’s just as gifted mentally. He’s going to see that split, he’s going to see tendencies, so I’m not surprised.”

On his team’s offense helping his defense:

“It’s really easy to play decent defense when they’re doing what they’re doing on offense. We were playing really good ball on the sidelines.”

On team growth:

“I personally think that all defensive coordinators – at least the good ones that I’ve been around – have a healthy fear that they’re not as good as others might think. You’re always chasing perfection.”

Indiana Wide Receiver Elijah Sarratt

On making tough catches:

“We pride ourselves on being able to make those tough catches. We feel like even if someone is on us, we feel like we can make those catches, just because of the work we put into our practice. We do those line drills like we do growing up. We get a lot of reps in after practice on the jump. It's really a testament to how we play when we’re out here.”

On practicing with and against cornerback D’Angelo Ponds:

“We have so many reps against each other, just from JMU and then coming over to Indiana. He's made me a lot better just going against a guy who's gonna be playing on Sundays every single day, iron sharpens iron. He gets me better every time we go against each other. That was his first college reception. He was talking to me and he's like, ‘man, I never would have thought that was gonna get a reception.’ So that's pretty cool to see him do that. He almost scored, he almost broke up out of tackle. But that's pretty cool. Maybe we'll have something else for him.”

On the idea for D’Angelo Ponds to run receiver routes:

“We just came into the meeting room, and then they said D’Lo (Ponds) is going to run this. We were kind of like ‘we're receivers, why is he running that?’ But we listened to him, and it worked out. Shout out to the coaches, shout out to D’Lo.”

Indiana Defensive Lineman Mario Landino

On the maturity of the team:

“I think we have a very mature team. I didn’t realize all the older guys we had, but at the end of the day you still have to play smart football and it’s the little things and details. No matter how young or old, everyone’s doing it at the same rate.”

Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl: Oregon vs Indiana

Oregon Ducks

Coach Dan Lanning

Dante Moore

Bryce Boettcher

Postgame Press Conference

Indiana, 56 - Oregon, 22

DAN LANNING: First off, all the credit in the world to Indiana. Said it before that they're an unbelievably well-coached team. I think that was really apparent tonight. They started off hot, and they really didn't slow down. They were able to run it and have success.

Passing at their defense played outstanding. We were able to generate a little momentum there at times, but we were so far in the hole that you really couldn't create yourself out of that. And the takeaway is obviously they were able to create some. We didn't create those. They won average starting field position throughout the night. Their special teams were special.

You see a really complete team. And I think they obviously have a great chance to keep it going and have unbelievable success. Credit to the Coach Cignetti and credit to those players. They've got great leadership and a veteran team that really showed up.

Q. Coach Lanning and Dante, you guys seemed to feel very confident that you had fixed a lot of issues that contributed to the poor offensive play in the first game. What went wrong tonight?

DANTE MOORE: First thing is first, the quarterback has to protect the football. They have a great defense, great disguise and different looks, but you can't win football games if you're causing turnovers. Something of course I need to work at. It comes with just reps. But overall, I mean, Indiana defense is great, defensive coordinator, but at the end of the day, we beat ourselves.

DAN LANNING: Ultimately there were moments where we had success offensively. But obviously when you have the takeaways, you start off with the pick six. You get a little bit in the hole. You probably start to press a little bit. You get away from some of the success you have in the run game at times.

There's moments that we had some plays, but that's a damn good team. And you gotta give credit to them, too. It's not just what we didn't do, it's what they did do.

Q. Coach, just your takeaways having gone up against Fernando Mendoza now twice, coaching against him, just what you saw from him this time around and just overall his play?

DAN LANNING: Yeah. The guy makes the right decisions. You consistently see if he sees the right coverage, you know, he takes the ball where it's supposed to go, dictated by coverage. I think he did a great job again on the scrambles early. I thought we had him boxed up on the third down early in the game, which was critical and was able to scramble for a first down. That happened a couple of times. They were 11 for 14 on third down.

So when you're able to have that kind of success on third down, you can't get a stop on third down. That's a lot of credit to him, the job he does. He understands what he's doing. He has great weapons to be able to take advantage of.

Q. Coach Lanning, what's the hardest part of being in the locker room right now?

DAN LANNING: Man, you hurt for those guys because the world is going to judge everybody in that room based on the result tonight. I'm going to judge those guys on the kind of fathers they become some day, kind of husbands they become some day. But in this moment you feel like a failure, right, for them, and they're not. They're not failures. These guys won a lot of damn ball games. They've had a lot of success. They've change some peoples' lives, but right now, that moment is going to hurt.

And the hard part, you know, you got guys like Bryce that they don't get to be a Duck anymore. They will be a Duck forever, but he does not get to go wear that uniform and go play a game for us again. I really wanted that for them, really wanted them to be able to enjoy that and experience that, and they don't get to. And I didn't do a good enough job of getting them there.

They set the stage where there might be an opportunity down the road where somebody in this program is able to create something like that again, but he won't get to share that. But he will be a part of that if we're able to accomplish that moving forward.

Q. Dante, on that second turnover, can you describe what happened? Looked like you went back to throw and hit the running back's shoulder or something. Can you describe that play and kind of how that really seemed to kind of almost finish you guys off a little bit?

DANTE MOORE: Yeah. On that play, it was running back was behind me in the pistol and tried to throw the smoke screen off the field. I gotta clear the midline better to make sure that when I am going to throw, I don't hit the running back in his elbow. So the ball hit his elbow, but at the end of the day, it's on me. I gotta take care of the ball and make sure they're out of the way and get the ball to the receivers.

Q. Dante, we saw you and Poncho have a long embrace there at the end of the game. Just curious if you can share what he said to you in that moment and what it was like with your teammates.

DANTE MOORE: Yeah. Poncho is somebody I love to death, and we've been through a lot this year, and I love him to death. And he's just somebody that's always willing to pray for me. He prayed for us in that moment, just prayed for the season. Just at the end of the day, Jesus won. At the end of the day, you have to give him his glory. It is just two competitive teams that's playing on the biggest stages in the world right now. And at the end of the day, you gotta give God the glory win or loss.

Q. Bryce, I wanted to ask you being the senior, how does it feel to kind of sum of your career with Oregon?

BRYCE BOETTCHER: Yeah, it sucks right now. I'm not going to lie. Not how I envisioned it whatsoever. Obviously prepared to win, and Indiana was a better team tonight. Doesn't take away from our season. We had one heck of a season. Didn't finish how we wanted to, but my journey here has been unbelievable.

I have had so many people, Coach Lanning included, give me an opportunity, a local kid who is a buck 95, played football two years ago. And so many people in my corner that helped me accomplish what I've been able to. So I'm blessed and grateful.

Q. Dante, obviously the calendar of college football doesn't allow a lot of time to reflect and move on. And I'm wondering how you look at the decision you have upcoming to return or not and maybe the process of going through that decisionmaking?

DANTE MOORE: I knew that question was coming. Yeah. I want to soak this moment up. That's most important. Just giving hugs and just thank yous to my teammates, but at the end of the day, I don't know my decision yet.

I'm going to talk to Coach Lanning and talk to my family and everybody, but at the end of the day, I don't want to think about that right now. I just want to think about my teammates and give love to them. Appreciate you though.

Q. Dan, having seen them twice now this year, how would you describe the roll they are on right now maybe compared to October and why from your standpoint they're kind of playing with this sort of relentless confidence they have.

DAN LANNING: They're complete. Again, they do a lot, and they do it really, really well. And there's not a weakness in their game. They run the ball well. They stop the run well. They throw the ball well. They defend the pass well. They're great in special teams. So you see a really complete team, a well-coached team. They obviously have a ton of belief and deservedly so. They're really good.

Q. Defensively thought you guys had learned a lot. How much pressure was it put on the defense with the turnover consequently being in that situation? (Inaudible).

BRYCE BOETTCHER: We take pride in putting the fire out, and we've done a pretty good job of that all year. Obviously it's hard to play when turnovers happen, but it is a standard that whenever the ball is placed, we don't let them score. And they scored too much tonight, so that's on the defense and credit to Indiana.

Q. Dante, what kind of impact did the crowd have tonight? Obviously heavily favored Indiana.

DANTE MOORE: Yeah. I thought it was just the right seats, but it was the Indiana fans. They had a ton of fans here. Of course I'm just glad that the fans from Oregon were able to make it. I'm glad they came.

Yeah, but it was pretty loud. At the end of the day, the dome gets pretty loud, but we prepared for loud situations and changed up the cadence. But yeah, they came out and showed out.

Q. Dan, it's hard to avoid the fact that your season ends in really lopsided fashion for a second straight year in the playoff.

As you reflect on this, is there anything that you see that you wish you had done differently in terms of preparation or that you will take with you going forward for when you guys are back in this position?

DAN LANNING: I think it's probably too premature for me to speak on what happened tonight until I go back and really evaluate it. We're about growth. It is not just sometimes.

I also think you can't discredit that we played well. We've played well at times even here in the postseason. Yeah, there will be an opportunity for reflection and evaluation, but I couldn't speak on that right now.

Q. Dante, you speak so much about your faith and you gave all glory to God. As you reflect on this opportunity with the Oregon Ducks and what was given to you, what you can say about being a Duck for life no matter what happens in your decision and what your faith has done to carry you through this including this moment?

DANTE MOORE: Yeah. My faith has taken me a long way, my freshmen year at UCLA. That was the most adversity I've been in my life. Being 17 years old in LA, there's not many people I could rely on. You know, I am from Detroit, Michigan, very far from there.

I know God is always on my side through the good, bad and ugly. Just someone I relied on, prayed everyday to. And even right now, you know, the sun will come up in the morning and give me light, walk in His path, and trust in His journey that he has for me. It's God's time in everything I do.

Q. Coach, I'm curious, you had some reserve O-linemen step into some big spots in the second half. Fox Crader and Kawika Rogers, what did you think of their performance tonight?

DAN LANNING: Again I'll have to watch the film. I'm sure they did some good things, but I'll have to watch it a little bit closer.

Q. Dan, again, I know it's immediate aftermath here, but as you look at Dante and his future and his trajectory, is there, I don't want to say silver lining, but like what do you think he can learn from an experience like this game and what he went through tonight?

DAN LANNING: I think every man can learn from adversity. I just told that whole locker room, right, this is going to be about how you respond in life.

This is going to be a life lesson that a lot of people never get. We just got our butt kicked. Right? That's going to happen in life, right, and not just Dante. Every single person in the locker room, every coach, every person can learn, hey, how do you respond to that.

Some people crawl into a hole, right, don't face the music. Some people say, okay, let's figure it out. Let me challenge myself so I can be better. Let me be an example of how you handle moments like this. I think there is a way to handle that.

Dante has been exceptional. Bryce, these guys have been exceptional, stewards of what we wanted to look like all year long. And it's wrong right for us 13 times. Didn't go right tonight. And you can't let that overshadow. Every one of us has unbelievable disappointment. Learn from it. But there's a lot of lessons to be learned for everybody in life, and we'll learn the hard lessons here. And you know what, most people will never be in the position where they get to learn that lesson that we get to learn on. These guys were in that position.

Q. Dante, there's a lot to be said about experience versus talent. You're clearly uber talented, but do you feel like (inaudible)?

DANTE MOORE: Yeah. Quarterbacks learn from each other. Of course when I watched the film, I'm not just going to watch our side of the ball. I'm going to watch him. He's done a great job all year especially in the red area protecting the football, scoring, doing what they've been doing. They're on the field for a reason.

I give him his credit. Somebody I'm going to stay in touch with when it comes to just talking ball, talking life, but quarterbacks learn from each other. And I'm excited how much I can learn from this game and learn from my future coming up.

Oregon Offensive Lineman Iapani Laloulu

On helping the locker room cope with the loss:

“There’s a lot going through my mind, but as a leader I need to remain calm, cool and collected and be there for the guys. It’s hard to hold back tears, but I’m doing my best to make sure everyone’s good and show some love, especially to our seniors. I’m thankful for their hard work and leadership and the fight they brought every single day. This could be [the seniors’] last time. We don’t know if they’re going to play ball again.”

On his own personal takeaways:

“I can’t be mad or sad in a moment where I was able to be part of one of the final four teams and play in the Peach Bowl. I’m going to be back again next year. We’ll learn our lessons from this game and grow. This gives me some more fire. I’m excited to play at the University of Oregon one more time.”

On the Oregon fans:

“I’m happy for our fan base and everyone who traveled with us and who were there at home games. They played a huge factor into our games and brought fire to Autzen [Stadium] and everywhere else we go.”

On the team’s future:

“We’re just gonna take it day by day and grow. We don’t know who’s going to come back. I pray and home that everyone comes back, but no matter what decisions they make I pray blessings over them and hope they go do what they gotta do.”

On what he said to QB Dante Moore:

“I kept telling him, ‘Dante, I love you boy.’ You ain’t gotta worry and I’m here no matter what. Good or bad, I’m going to stick with you no matter what happens in this life. God doesn’t give his toughest battles to anybody. He gives them to his strongest soldiers, and you have to learn. It wasn't the outcome we wanted, but smile and have joy through the adversity."

Oregon Tight End Kenyon Sadiq

On the season:

"Everyone had to contribute this year, with the injuries and everything that happened. We just all love each other so much and the connection was there.

On Indiana's defense:

"In a game like this you have to limit those mistakes. These guys (Indiana) were able to capitalize on those mistakes and take advantage. We just can't have that many mistakes in a game like this against a team like that. Shout out to them and their defense. They do a lot of simulated pressures and twists to create havoc in the backfield. They did a great job of that tonight."

On running back Jay Harris:

"Jay had an awesome game. I'm so happy for him and the work he's put in. He's been waiting for his moment and never knew if it was going to come. He's in the portal and still playing. That shows how much he cares about this team and the effort he gave for this game."

On Dan Lanning's postgame message:

"He really wanted us to focus on the season and great games we've had as a team. We have great memories going back to fall camp. We don't want this one loss to define who we are on and off the field. We still have a lot to accomplish down the road."

On why he was emotional coming off the field:

"My grandma was diagnosed with breast cancer and this is the last game she'll get to see me play. It was emotional for me. I love her to death and it's tough. She couldn't make it, but she's at home. I texted her and will go back and see her. She's awesome."

Oregon Defensive Back Dillon Thieneman

On his college experience and next steps:

"I'm still processing it and trying to be with the guys right now. I love Eugene and being there with the guys and meeting so many new people. It was a great experience. I wouldn't give it up for the world and would do it all over again. As far as the future, I haven't really thought too much about it and still need to make a decision."

On Indiana's offense:

"I don't think it was anything too different, but they're a good offense. They're efficient. They didn't really hurt themselves. We kinda hurt ourselves on a few plays here and there and they started to build. They just carried that momentum over on both sides of the field. It hurt us playing from behind from the beginning."

On trying to build momentum early:

"We just tried to keep the energy high at halftime and focus on chipping away one play at a time. You can't make up a big deficit all at once. It takes plays and plays and keeping stacking them."

On final takeaways from the game:

"Together as a group we've been through a lot. We've come a long way and dreamed of making this moment. To be here is really special, but we didn't execute the way we needed to and that's why we're feeling these emotions. Football-wise, we can't hurt ourselves and get down at the beginning and have to chase that deficit."

On the future of the team:

"This team is really young, but we're extremely close. We have a lot of good players who are going to come back next year. I'm excited to see how guys grow and change and become better players."

Oregon Linebacker Teitum Tuioti

On Indiana's offense:

"[Fernando Mendoza] did a great job reading our defense and making plays. Up front they were doing a great job being physical as well."

On his future:

"If the decision is to come back, I want to finish the job. We're trying to do something special around here. Coach [Dan] Lanning continues to grow and improve each year. If I come back next year, I want to do something special."
