

USILA Awards

Over the years, Cornell has won its fair share of awards presented by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA), the governing body of collegiate lacrosse since 1895.

The Big Red has had the most recipients in the history of the Morris Touchstone Award with five winners since the award was first given in 1958.

Cornell's six winners of the Lt. Raymond Enners Award ranks third among all universities, while its six recipients of the Ens. C.M. Kelly, Jr. Award ranks fourth all-time. Those trophies were first given out in 1969 and 1949, respectively.

The Big Red ranks fifth overall with five winners of the Jack Turnbull Award (first awarded 1946), and is sixth in lacrosse history with five recipients of the Schmeisser Cup (1942) and three winners of the Lt. j.g. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award (1973).

Lacrosse Hall of Fame

To see evidence of Cornell's rich lacrosse history, one would need to look no further than the list of National Lacrosse Hall of Fame members. Beginning with Roy Taylor's induction with the inaugural class of 1957, the Big Red have placed 20 former lacrosse players and coaches into the hall.

Senior Class Award

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award honors the attributes of senior student-athletes in four areas: classroom, community, character and competition. The award program is designed exclusively for college seniors who are utilizing their complete athletic eligibility, remaining committed to their university and pursuing the many rewards that a senior season can bring.
