YALE BULLDOGS (2-0, 0-0 Ivy) AT CORNELL Big RED (0-2, 0-0 Ivy)

Oct. 4, 2014 • 12:30 P.M. • ITHACA, N.Y. • SCHOELLKOPF FIELD (4,473)

TV: NONE • RADIO: WHCU 870 AM (BARRY LEONARD AND BUCK BRIGGS '76) • LIVE VIDEO: IvyLeagueDigitalNetwork.com • LIVE STATS: CornellBigRed.com

YALE LEADS THE SERIES 45-29-2 • YALE WON LAST MEETING, 38-23 (9/28/2013 IN NEW HAVEN, CONN.)

STORY LINES

- The Cornell football team will open the 59th official season of Ivy League play when Yale visits Schoellkopf Field on Saturday, Oct. 4 at 12:30 p.m.
- The contest will be broadcast live on the Ivy League Digital Network, while Barry Leonard and Buck Briggs '76 will have the radio call on WHCU 870 AM.
- The game will serve as the home opener for the Big Red and is the latest Cornell has opened its schedule at Schoellkopf since 2001.
- Cornell has won three straight home openers by a cumulative score of 114-32 (average of 38.0-10.7), including the 2012 game against Yale 45-7.
- The Big Red will be looking for a breakout in its home stadium after dropping a pair of non-conference contests to Colgate (27-12) and Bucknell (20-7).
- Cornell has improved its numbers across the board defensively, particularly in getting teams off the field on third down. The Big Red defense has allowed third down pickups just 36.4 percent of the time this season as compared to 46.2 percent last year.
- The young offense, featuring only one senior skill position player on the depth chart, has been tremendously balanced. Three quarterbacks have taken snaps, seven different players have taken at least one carry and 12 receivers have caught a pass this season.
- Special teams rank third nationally in net punting and are averaging 64.2 yards on kickoffs, just five yards short of a perfect season on six kickoffs (four touchbacks).
- Freshman Jake Jatis was named the Ivy League Rookie of the Week after his performance against Bucknell. He became the second Cornell freshman to start a game at quarterback, joining two-time All-American Jeff Mathews '14.
- Yale is off to a 2-0 start after pulling the 49-43 overtime upset over Army this past weekend.

ABOUT YALE

- Yale is a perfect 2-0 after stunning Army last weekend at the Yale Bowl, 49-43 in overtime.
- The win was the first by an Ivy League school against a team from the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) since Penn beat Navy in 1986.
- The previous weekend, the Bulldogs rallied from a 21-point deficit to defeat Lehigh in their season opener, 54-43.
- The Lehigh game celebrated the 100th anniversary of the Yale Bowl.
- The hero of the win over Army was running back Tyler Varga and his five touchdowns on the ground. He ended the day with 185 rushing yards on 28 carries, including the 3-yard winner in the first extra session. He was named the FCS National

InsideCornellFootball.com

Cornell football launched a web site, www.INSideCornellFootball.com, during the spring of 2011 to provide all the latest information on the Big Red program. Log on for new, exclusive videos and other information.

Live Stats

Cornell will use SIDEARM Live Stats for each of the Big Red's home games in 2014. Visit www.sidearmstats.com/cornell/football/ for all of the official statistics.

Luncheon

Each Monday during the football season, the Tompkins County Sports Council sponsors a luncheon at the Ramada Inn (2310 North Triphammer Rd., Ithaca, N.Y.) with the head coaches of Cornell, Ithaca College and Ithaca HS.

Postgame Interviews

Coach Archer and selected players will be available after the required 10-minute "cooling-off" period after each game. The Big Red locker room is closed.

Practice Interviews/Coverage

All interviews with Coach David Archer '05 and players must be requested in advance through the Athletic Communications Office. The coach and players are available for interviews before practices by appointment only, so as not to interfere with academic or practice schedules.

Radio

All of the Big Red's football games in 2014 are carried live on WHCU-870 AM in the Ithaca area and on the internet at www.CornellBigRed.com. Barry Leonard returns for his 17th season in the booth and 15th season in the play-by-play chair, while Buck Briggs '76 is back to provide the color commentary for a 14th season.

IvyLeagueDigitalNetwork

You can watch live or on-demand video in High Definition of Cornell's home football games and select road games, including non-televised contests against Ivy League opponents. Cornell also broadcasts home games for sprint football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's ice hockey, wrestling and men's and women's lacrosse. For more information, visit www.IvyLeagueDigitalNetwork.com

Social Media

You can follow the team on YouTube, Facebook and Twitter. Highlights, interviews and features on all 36 of Cornell's varsity sports can be found at www.youtube.com/cornellathletics, www.facebook.com/cornellathletics or www.twitter.com/cornellsports

Player of the Week by College Sports Madness.

- Quarterback Morgan Roberts completed 23-of-40 passes for 290 yards and a touchdown, and his favorite target was Grant Wallace (six receptions, 101 yards).
- The Bulldogs rolled up 625 yards on offense (335 rushing, 290 passing) on 36 first downs against the Army defense.
- Yale has allowed 43.0 points per game in its 2-0 start.
- The Bulldogs were picked to finish fifth in the Ivy League Preseason Media Poll after last year's 5-5 record.
- Tony Reno, in his third season as head coach at Yale, is now 9-13 on the Bulldog sidelines. He was the 2002 AFLAC/Coach Magazine National Assistant of the Year at Worcester State and also had stints as an assistant at both Yale and Harvard.

THE CORNELL-YALE SERIES

- Yale leads the all-time series 45-29-2 dating back to the first encounter in the 1889 season.
- Cornell's longest win streak over Yale is four games (1990-93), while the Bulldogs claimed seven straight victories over the Big Red (1973-79).
- The series has recently tilted toward the Bulldogs, who have won nine of the last 13 meetings between the squads, though Cornell upset the 2008 preseason Ivy League favorites 17-14 at Schoellkopf Field in 2008 and knocked off the Bulldogs 14-12 at the Yale Bowl in 2009.
- Yale avenged its 2012 loss to the Big Red in Ithaca with a 38-23 victory last fall in New Haven, Conn.

A WIN OVER YALE WOULD ...

- give the Big Red its first win of 2014.
- snap a two-game skid.
- be the team's fourth straight in a home opener.
- make Cornell 3-2 in its last five games dating back to last year, including 2-0 at home.
- be its fourth win over the Bulldogs in the last seven seasons after losing six of the previous seven meetings.
- be the 631st in program history (12th-most in the Football Championship Subdivision).

THE IVY OPENER

- Cornell opens the 59th official season of Ivy League play with a 27-29-2 record in the previous 58 conference starters.
- The Big Red has faced Yale 14 times (each of the last 14 seasons) in Ivy openers previously with a 5-9 mark.
- Included was last year's 38-23 Yale triumph in New Haven, Conn.

THE LAST TIME OUT (Bucknell 20, Cornell 7 - Sept. 27, 2014 at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, Lewisburg, Pa.)

- Bucknell's C.J. Williams ran for 188 yards and a touchdown and R.J. Nitti passed for two scores as the Bison remained unbeaten with a 20-7 win over Cornell at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.
- Cornell, without the services of starting quarterback James Few, held the ball for more than 35 minutes and the defense limited the Bison to 3-of-9 on third downs and kept the Big Red in the game throughout the middle portion of the game.
- The Bison never trailed, however, after marching down the field to start the game to take a 7-0 lead just 2:21 in.
- Freshman quarterback Jake Jatis completed 11-of-23 passes for 102 yards and a touchdown but was intercepted twice. He also gained 20 yards on the ground.
- Junior Luke Hagy led the team with 59 rushing yards and caught three passes for 24 yards. In the process, Hagy became the first Cornell player in school history to surpass 1,000 career yards both rushing and receiving.
- Sophomore punter Chris Fraser, the 2013 Ivy league Rookie of the Year, averaged 42.5 yards on four punts with three downed inside the 20 and a 72-yarder that flipped field position downed at the 22. The punt was the seventh-longest in Big Red history.
- Sophomore Marshall Deutz caught the lone touchdown, a 19-yarder from Jatis in the first quarter for his first career reception. It was also Jatis' first touchdown throw.
- Defensively, Jarrod Watson-Lewis had eight tackles and a sack, sharing team tackling leader with Rush Imhotep.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Junior Luke Hagy carried the ball 15 times for 59 yards last weekend at Bucknell to push him past the 1,000 career yard mark on the ground. He became the 29th player in school history to surpass that milestone and the first to hit the century mark in both rushing and receiving at Cornell.

• Other Cornell players to hit 1K-1K milestones are Gary Wood '64 (2,156 rushing yards, 1,891 passing yards) and Ryan Kuhn (1,110 rushing yards, 1,692 passing yards).

• Freshman quarterback Jake Jatis earned the start at Bucknell, becoming just the second rookie to start a game under center. He joins good company, as two-time All-American Jeff Mathews '14 - the Ivy League's all-time leading passer - started the final nine games of the 2010 campaign to become the first.

• Jatis was named Ivy League Rookie of the Week after his performance against the Bison, the first Cornell player honored with the award since Luke Hagy did it twice in 2012.

• Sophomore punter Chris Fraser had a career day against the Bison, averaging 42.5 yards on four punts without allowing a return yard and pinning three of his kicks inside Bucknell's 12 yard line. The fourth traveled 72 yards to flip field position and was downed at the 22. That punt was the seventh-longest in school history and a career-long.

• Sophomore Marshall Deutz's 19-yard grab in the right corner of the end zone in the first quarter against Bucknell was the first catch of his collegiate career. It was also the first touchdown pass for Jatis.

• Senior receiver Lucas Shapiro caught three passes for 25 yards against the Bison, moving him within 191 yards of becoming the 21st player at Cornell to surpass 1,000 career receiving yards.

• On offense, freshmen had 20 of the team's 43 rushing attempts and all 25 pass attempts at Bucknell. They also combined for six tackles and a blocked punt.

• Oct. 4 is the latest Cornell has played a home opener since 2001, when it played in front of the Crescent against Lehigh on Oct. 6. A home game scheduled that season for Sept. 15 was canceled after the attack on America on Sept. 11. It is the latest regularly scheduled home opener since 1973, when Cornell met Lehigh on Oct. 6.

• Cornell has at least one passing touchdown in 18 consecutive games and 34 of its last 35 contests.

• The Big Red offense hasn't been shut out in 42 games, with the last coming against Penn (34-0 to close out 2009).

• The team's 122 rushing yards against Colgate were the most in a non-conference game since posting 135 yards in a win over Bucknell in 2010.

• Sophomore Miles Norris, who entered the season with 15 career tackles, nearly matched that total against Colgate with a game-high 13 stops to go along with two sacks. He has surpassed the total with 18 tackles in two games.

• In its final 10 quarters of 2013, Cornell allowed 803 yards on 166 plays (4.8 yards per play), an average of 321.2 ypg.

• After allowing an average of 217.1 rushing yards

LAST MEETING

YALE 38, CORNELL 23

Sept. 28, 2013 The Yale Bowl New Haven, Conn.

GAME NOTES

- Deon Randall scored four times and Yale piled up 566 yards of total offense to overshadow another record-breaking performance by Jeff Mathews as the Bulldogs defeated Cornell 38-23 at the Yale Bowl.
- Mathews became Cornell's career leader in touchdown passes as part of his 23-of-41 effort for 336 yards and three touchdowns.
- He surpassed Ricky Rahne's record of 54 with his second score of the day, a diving 22-yard catch by Chris Lenz in the fourth quarter.
- The day belonged to Randall, who missed last season's 45-6 Cornell victory in Ithaca. He caught 11 passes for 148 yards and three scores and ran for another 18 yards and a touchdown.
- On the day, Yale ran for 213 yards and threw for 353 more as Henry Furman was an effective 29-of-36 through the air, though virtually none of his passes travelled more than five yards beyond the line of scrimmage. Furman also ran for the game's first score.
- Becoming almost an afterthought was All-American running back Tyler Varga who put together a workmanlike 105-yard effort on the ground on 21 carries.
- Cornell's defense was led by Bobby Marani's 10 tackles and a forced fumble, while JJ Flves also forced a fumble and made a total of six stops. Justin Harris was credited with two pass breakups for the Big Red.
- Yale's fastbreak offense, which was neutralized by the Big Red most of the first half, came alive after halftime of a 10-10 tie. The Bulldogs scored on the first four possessions after the break, while the Big Red punted twice and turned it over twice over the same span.
- By the time Yale finished it off with 9:44 remaining in regulation, it was 38-10. A pair of Big Red touchdown drives cut into the deficit, but never threatened the result.

David Archer '05

THE ROGER J. WEISS '61 HEAD COACH OF FOOTBALL

- Second season directing the Big Red football program.
- Became youngest Division I head football coach in the country when he was named the Roger J. Weiss '61 Head Coach of Football on Jan. 3, 2013.
- In front of more than 15,000 fans at Schoellkopf Field, Cornell flew around the field defensively, made huge special teams plays and showcased an opportunistic and explosive offense in a 45-13 win over Bucknell in his first game.

- His steadfast preparation and positive attitude helped the Big Red weather a mid-season storm that saw Cornell lose seven straight games, only to turn the season around with wins in its last two contests.
- Spent six seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, including the last four seasons as the recruiting coordinator.
- Coached the fullbacks, tight ends, running backs, offensive linemen and linebackers during his tenure as an assistant.
- His three recruiting classes as coordinator yielded 55 first-year players earned varsity action and 21 captured at least one start.
- Was a three-year starter and team captain in 2004 while playing on the offensive line.

YOUNGEST DIVISION I FOOTBALL COACHES

Name, School	Age (as of Oct. 4, 2014)	Record
David Archer, Cornell	31 years, 333 days	3-9 (second season)
Paul Nichols, Davidson	33 years, 253 days	1-15 (second season)
Jerry Mack, North Carolina Central	33 years, 353 days	1-3 (first season)
PJ Fleck, Western Michigan	33 years, 310 days	3-13 (second season)
Matt Campbell, Toledo	34 years, 310 days	10-7 (second season)
Kliff Kingsbury, Texas Tech	35 years, 57 days	10-7 (second season)

per game over the first eight contests of 2013 (on 4.6 yards per carry), the Big Red surrendered just 106 total yards in its final two games (both wins) on 2.3 yards per carry.

- Senior John Wells has been outstanding on kickoffs in each of his last three seasons, averaging 61.0 yards with 47 touchbacks in 108 kickoffs (44 percent). He put 52 percent of his kickoffs through the back of the end zone (26-of-50) a season ago and started out strong this year with four of his six kickoffs resulting in touchbacks against Colgate and Bucknell.
- Wells booted a pair of 27-yard field goals in the opener against Colgate and a PAT at Bucknell, giving him 11 for his career. With 72 career points, he needs 11 to join the top 10 for career kicking points.
- After having his first career punt returned for a 59-yard touchdown in 2013, Fraser's next 56 punts have been returned a total of 96 yards (18 return attempts, 5.3 yards per return).
- Cornell led the Ancient Eight in punting average (42.9) and net punting average (38.1) in 2013. The team's net punting average ranked 13th nationally.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- For the second straight season, Cornell held a preseason scrimmage at Mynderse Academy in Seneca Falls, N.Y., approximately 43 miles north of the Big Red campus.
- A pair of former Big Red football players have been elected to the Cornell Athletics Hall of Fame and will be inducted the weekend of Nov. 7-9.
- Clarence Fauntleroy '54 won letters in football as a first string left tackle/left guard in 1951 and 1952, but was better known for his lacrosse exploits. He was a two-time All-America selection in lacrosse, receiving third-team honors in 1954, when Cornell compiled an overall record of 9-3, and he received honorable mention All-America honors in 1955, when the Big Red went 8-3-1.
- Ricky Rahne '02 was a three-year starter at quarterback who set 33 Cornell passing and total offense records. His 7,718 passing yards ranked third all-time in Ivy League history. Rahne was a two-time honorable mention All-Ivy League selection and was named honorable mention All-America by Don Hansen's Football Gazette in 2000. The three-time team MVP became the all-time leader in completions (678), yards (7,710), touchdown passes (54) and 200-yard games (25) among others. He also graduated in the top spot in total offense with 7,994 yards (7,710 passing, 284 rushing) during his Cornell career.

BIG RED ELECTS THREE CAPTAINS FOR 2014

- The Cornell football team elected three seniors as captains for the 2014 season.
- All-Ivy League candidates Justin Harris (DL), Rush Imhotep (S) and Lucas Shapiro (WR) received an overwhelming majority of votes from their upperclassmen teammates to lead the squad into the upcoming campaign.
- "When I saw the results of our team elected vote for captains I couldn't be more pleased. The coaching staff unanimously approved the choices of Rush Imhotep, Justin Harris and Lucas Shapiro to serve as the 2014 captains of Big Red football. Being captains of this team is a special honor and its one that is earned over years of constant, consistent hard work and caring for your teammates. These guys embody the positive influence and levels of leadership that we promote and develop in our program. I'm excited and honored to have Lucas, Justin and Rush as our team captains." — David Archer '05, the Roger J. Weiss '61 Head Coach of Cornell Football

BIG RED INVOLVED IN STORIED RIVALRIES

- The Big Red is involved in three of the top 20 most-played rivalries in college football.
- The Cornell-Penn series ranks fifth in most games played with 121.
- The 100 meetings between Cornell and Columbia ranks 12th, while the Cornell-Colgate rivalry stands 17th with 97 games played.
- The Cornell-Dartmouth and the Cornell-Penn series are the second-longest uninterrupted active series, as the teams have met every season since 1919, a span of 94 years.
- They trail only the Lafayette-Lehigh series, which has been played every year since 1897.

FOOTBALL GETS NCAA RECOGNITION (AGAIN)

- Football has been publicly recognized by the NCAA for its Academic Progress Report (APR) score being in the top 10 percent nationally each year since the scores were first tabulated in 2004-05.
- Only eight schools have been honored each year (Brown, Cornell, Dartmouth, Davidson, Dayton, Penn, Princeton and Yale), with seven coming from the Ivy League.
- The APR measures semester-by-semester records for every individual team in Division I with regard to each team members' continuing eligibility, retention and progress toward graduation.

STATING THE STATES

- Cornell's 102-player roster is made up of student-athletes from 29 states, as well as the District of Columbia.
- A team-high 18 players come to Cornell from California, while another 12 attended school in bordering Pennsylvania and 10 are from the home state of New York.
- Six players are from Texas and five apiece came from Georgia, Maryland and Michigan.

CORNELL FOOTBALL AT 127 YEARS

- This is the 128th year since the start of Cornell football, but it will be the 127th season.
- The first official Big Red football team was formed in 1887, and Cornell has sponsored a squad every year since except 1918 during World War I.
- The Big Red has an overall record of 630-492-34 (.560) in its 126 years of football.
- The program's 630 wins rank 12th among all FCS schools.
- Over the years, Cornell has taken on 88 different opponents, with its most frequent opponent being Penn (121 meetings).

CORNELLIANS IN THE NFL

- Four Cornellians were on NFL opening day rosters.
- Ninth year pro Kevin Boothe '06 signed as a free agent with the Oakland Raiders this past offseason after seven years with the New York Giants.
- Boothe joined former star tailback Derrick Harmon '84 as the second Cornell alumnus to earn a Super Bowl ring after playing on special teams during the New York Giants' run to Super Bowl XLII. He has been part of two Super Bowl championship teams, including starting at left guard during the Giants' 21-17 Super Bowl XLVI win over the New England Patriots in February 2012.
- This will be his second go-around with the Raiders, the team he was drafted by. Boothe started as a rookie in 2006 after being picked in the sixth round of the 2006 NFL Draft (pick #176).
- Boothe entered the season having played in 105 career games with 62 starts (38 consecutive regular season, 42 including playoffs).
- Bryan Walters '10, one of the Big Red's all-time greats at wide receivers, begins his fifth NFL season after earning a Super Bowl ring last year with the Seattle Seahawks.
- He previously had spent time with the San Diego Chargers and the Minnesota Vikings.
- Walters caught three passes for 27 yards in 2011 with the Chargers and is now the Seahawks' starting punt returner.
- Second-year offensive lineman JC Tretter '13 was an FCS All-American before being drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers in 2013.
- Tretter suffered an injury during official team activities (OTA) and missed his first NFL season, but is slated to be the Packers' starting center when he returns from a preseason injury.
- Record-setting quarterback Jeff Mathews went undrafted in the 2014 NFL Draft but has since had stints with both the Atlanta Falcons and the Indianapolis Colts.

IVY PRESEASON POLL

- The Cornell football team, under second-year head coach David Archer '05, was picked to finish seventh in the Ivy League media preseason poll.
- There were 17 voters in the poll (two media representatives per school and one national media representative).
- 1. Princeton (128 pts — nine first-place votes); 2. Harvard (127 pts — eight first-place votes); 3. Dartmouth (91 pts); 4. Penn (79 pts); 5. Yale (68 pts); 6. Brown (65 pts); 7. Cornell (34 pts); 8. Columbia (20 pts)

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Cornell holds claim to five national titles in its storied football history.
- The Big Red claimed at least a share of the 1915 (Helms Athletic Foundation, Houlgate System, National Championship Foundation and Parke Davis), 1921 (Helms, Houlgate, National Championship Foundation and Parke Davis), 1922 (Helms, Parke Davis), 1923 (Sagarin) and 1939 (Litkenhous, Sagarin) titles.
- All five teams went undefeated and dominated their opponents.
- The 1915 team was 9-0 and outscored its opponents 287-50 with four shutouts.
- The 1921, 1922 and 1923 squads each went 8-0 and outscored their opponents 392-21, 339-27 and 320-33, respectively.
- The teams allowed more than one touchdown in a game just once during that 24-game span while scoring 40 or more points 14 times.
- The 1939 team was 8-0 and defeated Syracuse, Penn State and Ohio State.

NEXT UP

- The Big Red returns to the road for the third time in the season's first four weeks when it heads to Cambridge, Mass. for a matchup against the defending Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson.
- The game, which will be broadcast on Fox College Sports, will kickoff on Saturday, Oct. 11 at 1 p.m. at Harvard Stadium.
- Harvard leads the all-time series 44-32-2 and has won 12 of the last 13 meetings.
- The last Big Red victory came during the 2005 campaign, a 27-13 Cornell win.

THE CORNELL FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

Few collegiate football programs have the storied history of Cornell University. With more than 120 seasons of football in the books, the Big Red has collected five national titles, won more than 600 games and has had legendary players and coaches perform on historic Schoellkopf Field. Names such as Glenn "Pop" Warner and Heisman Trophy finalist and NCAA record-breaker Ed Marinaro have suited up for Cornell, while seven College Football Hall of Famers (including Warner, Gil Dobie and Carl Snively) and multiple-time Super Bowl winner George Seifert have set the strategy as head coaches. Now, with David Archer '05 leading the program, there's little doubt that history will continue to be made.

The Cornell football record book includes ...

- Statistical records (individual and teams)
- All-time results
- Individual and team stats (back to 1983)
- Bios of Cornell football legends
- Cornell vs. opponents
- Individual awards
- All-time letter winners
- Big Red football players in the pros

GAME 1 COLGATE 27, CORNELL 12

Sept. 20, 2014 Andy Kerr Stadium Hamilton, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- A game of inches went the way of the established program and the Raiders took home a 27-12 victory over the Big Red at Andy Kerr Stadium.
- Underclassmen made big plays throughout for the Big Red, but it was upperclassmen that did all of the scoring.
- Fifth-year senior John Wells booted a pair of 27-yard field goals and junior James Few hit senior Lucas Shapiro for a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter.
- Few ended the day 10-of-19 for 102 yards and a touchdown.
- The home team ran the ball 46 times for 270 yards, with quarterback Jake Melville leading the way with 10 carries for 113 yards and a 53-yard touchdown. He also completed 11-of-17 passes for 124 yards in the win.
- The Big Red defense wasn't outclassed, however, making a number of big plays throughout the day.
- Sophomore Miles Norris had 13 tackles and a pair of sacks to lead the unit, while junior JJ Fives also recorded a sack.
- Junior Twan Terrell and sophomore Michael Staples each had eight stops and fifth-year senior Justin Harris had a tackle for loss and a fumble recovery.
- Both junior Jarrod Watson-Lewis (seven tackles) and senior Rush Imhotep (five tackles) each had a pass breakup.
- Offensively, sophomore Luis Uceta posted 125 all-purpose yards, while junior Luke Hagy ran 13 times for 62 yards.
- Freshman quarterback Jake Jatis completed each of his three passes for 50 yards and ran four times for 29 more yards in his first varsity appearance for the Big Red, which played three different quarterbacks.
- Sophomore Chris Fraser, the reigning Ivy League Rookie of the Year, was again outstanding, averaging 40.0 yards on his four punts with a long of 57 yards.

GAME 2 BUCKNELL 20, CORNELL 7

Sept. 27, 2014 Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium Lewisburg, Pa.

GAME NOTES

- Bucknell's C.J. Williams ran for 188 yards and a touchdown and R.J. Nitti passed for two scores as the Bison remained unbeaten with a 20-7 win over Cornell at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.
- Cornell, without the services of starting quarterback James Few, held the ball for more than 35 minutes and the defense limited the Bison to 3-of-9 on third downs and kept the Big Red in the game throughout the middle portion of the game.
- The Bison never trailed, however, after marching down the field to start the game to take a 7-0 lead just 2:21 in.
- Freshman quarterback Jake Jatis completed 11-of-23 passes for 102 yards and a touchdown but was intercepted twice. He also gained 20 yards on the ground.
- Junior Luke Hagy led the team with 59 rushing yards and caught three passes for 24 yards. In the process, Hagy became the first Cornell player in school history to surpass 1,000 career yards both rushing and receiving.
- Sophomore punter Chris Fraser, the 2013 Ivy League Rookie of the Year, averaged 42.5 yards on four punts with three downed inside the 20 and a 72-yarder that flipped field position downed at the 22. The punt was the seventh-longest in Big Red history.
- Sophomore Marshall Deutz caught the lone touchdown, a 19-yarder from Jatis in the first quarter for his first career reception. It was also Jatis' first touchdown throw.
- Defensively, Jarrod Watson-Lewis had eight tackles and a sack, sharing team tackling leader with Rush Imhotep.
- R.J. Nitti had a strong game for the Bison at quarterback and completed 11-of-23 passes for 189 yards and two touchdowns.
