Nov. 19, 2016 • 12:00 P.M. • ITHACA, N.Y. • SCHOELLKOPF FIELD (21,500)

TELEVISION: FOX COLLEGE SPORTS (ERIC FREDE, STEVE DeOSSIE) • RADIO: WHCU 95.9 FM/870 AM (BARRY LEONARD, JASON WEINSTEIN)

LIVE STATS: CornellBigRed.com • PENN LEADS THE SERIES 71-46-5 • PENN WON LAST MEETING, 34-21 (11/21/2015 IN PHILADELPHIA, PA.)

QUICK HITS

- Cornell will attempt to send its seniors out win a win, reclaim the Trustees' Cup and potentially end an Ivy League championship run by one of its fiercest rivals when the Big Red hosts the Penn Quakers on Saturday, Nov. 19 at 12:00 p.m. at Schoellkopf Field.
- The game will be televised Fox College Sports, while local listeners can tune in to WHCU 95.9 FM/870 AM to listen to Barry Leonard and Jason Weinstein.
- Cornell will honor its 26 seniors in a pregame ceremony prior to kickoff.
- The Big Red will then try and win a trophy game for the second straight week when it plays for the Trustees' Cup for the 22nd time.
- Penn holds a 14-7 edge in the Trustees' Cup series and a 71-46-5 in the 122 previous meetings between the programs.
- The 122 games played makes it the fifth-oldest series in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).
- Cornell and Penn have played annually every season since 1919, a span of 97 years - the second-longest uninterrupted active series in the FCS behind Lafayette-Lehigh (119 years).
- Sixty of those years, Cornell and Penn played Thanksgiving Day contests at Franklin Field, including every season from 1897-1938 with the exception of 1918, when the Big Red's season was cancelled due to the escalation of World War I.
- The Big Red is coming off an exciting 42-40 win at Columbia last weekend to snap a five-game losing skid and guarantee the program's first winning road record in 22 years.
- Sophomores engineered much of the offense, as Chris Walker ran for 178 yards and three touchdowns and Dalton Banks completed 24-of-37 passes for 267 yards and two scores while running for a third.
- For his performance, Walker was named Ivy League Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career after posting his third 100-yard rushing game.
- Junior Nick Gesualdi also had a monster game with seven tackles, an interception, a forced fumble at the goal line and a stop on a game-tying two-point conversion attempt in the fourth quarter by the Lions that proved to be the difference in the game.
- Senior All-America punter Chris Fraser averaged 44.0 yards on six punts with a long of 57 yards, but it was his 33-yard reception on a fake punt in the third quarter that changed the game's momentum.
- One play later, the Big Red scored to take the lead for good.
- Penn is 6-3 (5-1 Ivy) and would claim at least a share of its second straight Ivy League title with a win.
- Cornell has played Penn five previous times in a season finale when the Quakers were playing for a title (1-4).
- A win over the Quakers would also be the fourth time this season Cornell has avenged a 2015 loss and would give the Big Red wins over defending champions from both the Ivy League (Penn) and the Patriot League (Colgate).

ABOUT PENN

- The Quakers enter the final weekend of the season with a 6-3 overall mark (5-1 Ivy) and has won six of its last seven entering the season finale
- Penn bumped Harvard from atop the conference standings, creating a three-way tie between the Quakers, Crimson and Princeton Tigers,

A WIN OVER PENN WOULD ...

- send the seniors out with a victory on Schoellkopf Field.
- make Cornell 5-5 overall, the program's first season at .500 since 2011 and just the second time in the last nine seasons.
- snap a two-game Quakers win streak in the series while returning the Trustees' Cup to South Hill.
- cut the Quakers' lead in the all-time series to 71-47-5 overall and 14-8 in the Trustees' Cup series.
- give David Archer '05 a 6-2 all-time record in Megabowl games (Empire State Bowl vs. Columbia, Trustees' Cup vs. Penn).
- be the 637th in program history (13th-most in the Football Championship Subdivision).

BIG RED INVOLVED IN STORIED RIVALRIES

- The Big Red is involved in three of the top 20 most-played rivalries in the FCS.
- The Cornell-Penn series ranks fifth in most games played, a total that will reach 123 this season.
- The 104 meetings between Cornell and Columbia ranks 14th, while the Cornell-Dartmouth rivalries stand 19th with 100 games played.
- Right behind that is the series with Princeton (99 meetings) and Colgate (98 meetings), which sit right outside the top 20.
- The Cornell-Dartmouth and the Cornell-Penn series are the second-longest uninterrupted active series, as the teams have met every season since 1919, a span of 97 years. They trail only the Lafayette-Lehigh series, which has been played every year since 1897.

NOTING THE COLUMBIA GAME

- Cornell's 42 points were the most scored in a game since the Big Red claimed a 42-41 triumph at Penn to close the 2013 campaign.
- The Big Red didn't allow a sack for the first time in a game since a contest at Yale in 2011.
- Senior Collin Shaw became the school's 23rd 1,000-yard receiver with four catches for 44 yards, giving him 1,008 for his career.
- Junior Nick Gesualdi had his sixth interception of the season, good for seventh in a season at Cornell.
- Gesualdi also bumped his career total to 11, tied for third-most in a career.
- Sophomore Chris Walker posted his third 100-yard game of the season with a career-best 178 yards.

PENN 34, CORNELL 21

Philadelphia, Pa.

GAME NOTES

- Senior Luke Hagy walked off the field to hundreds of Cornell fans, including many friends and family, cheering him and his fellow seniors off the field as Penn celebrated an Ivy League title in the background.
- Just minutes before, Hagy broke three tackles to land in the end zone in his final play in a Big Red uniform.
- He lingered a moment on the field after embracing his teammates and walked into a somber locker room, where hours earlier each senior had been given a brick with their names on it to symbolize at all 22 had laid down the foundation that eventually will get Cornell celebrating at midfield like the Quakers were doing on this day.
- In the end, attempting to play spoiler to its most spirited rival, Penn's fast start was too much for the Big Red to overcome as the Quakers clinched a share of the Ivy League title and retained the Trustees' Cup with a 34-21 victory at Franklin Field.
- Penn scored 2-24 in, was up 13-0 with less than five minutes off the clock and had a 20-0 lead before the midway point of the first quarter, and Cornell couldn't recover against the onslaught.
- The Big Red attempted to claw back behind the arm of senior Robert Somborn, who completed 23-of-38 passes for 301 yards and two touchdowns, but the Big Red spotlight largely shined on Hagy.
- The senior running back had 17 carries for 81 yards and caught five passes for 105 yards and ended in the end zone on his final collegiate play.
- Hagy ended his career fourth in all-purpose yardage (3,997), fifth in touchdowns (26), sixth in rushing yards (2,336 yards) and ninth in receiving yards (1,582), and earlier this season became the first Ivy League player to surpass 2,000 yards rushing and 1,500 yards receiving in a career.
- Somborn was responsible for all three Big Red touchdowns, diving over from the 1 early in the second quarter, then throwing for two more in the second half.

- Football has been publicly recognized by the NCAA for its Academic Progress Report (APR) score being in the top 10 percent nationally each year since the scores were first tabulated in 2004-05.
- Two Cornell sports (football and men's golf) have been publicly recognized each year since the APR was first released and are among just 110 teams across the country in all sports with that accomplishment.
- Cornell's score of 991 (out of 1,000) this past year is the highest in school history (the four highest scores in program history have come over the last four years - 987, 987, 986, 991).
- Only five FCS schools have been honored each year in football (Cornell, Dartmouth, Davidson, Penn and Yale), with four coming from the Ivy League.
- The APR measures semester-by-semester records for every individual team in Division I with regard to each team members' continuing eligibility, retention and progress toward graduation.

BIG RED RANKED AMONG TOP 100 COLLEGE PROGRAMS IN HISTORY BY AP

- Cornell was ranked as one of the top 100 football programs of all-time according to the Associated Press in a ranking released in August 2016.
- At No. 72, the Big Red ranked ahead of a number of Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) schools and second among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) programs.
- Only Penn (No. 66) placed higher among current FCS schools, while other Ivy League teams on the list included Dartmouth (No. 87), Yale (No. 90), Princeton (No. 81) and Columbia (No. 99).
- Few collegiate football programs have the storied history of Cornell.
- With more than 120 seasons of football in the books, the Big Red has claimed five national titles, won more than 600 games and has had legendary players and coaches perform on historic Schoellkopf Field.
- Names such as Glenn "Pop" Warner and Heisman Trophy finalist and NCAA record-breaker Ed Marinaro have suited up for Cornell, while seven College Football Hall of Famers have set the strategy as head coaches.
- The top 10 schools on the list, done to celebrate 80 years of the Associated Press poll, were Ohio State, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Alabama, USC, Nebraska, Michigan, Texas, Florida State and Florida.

YOUR 2016 CAPTAINS

- Seniors Miles Norris (ILB), Ben Rogers (WR), Matt Sullivan (TE) and Jackson Weber (ILB) were elected as team captains for the 2016 season.

Schoellkopf At 101 Years Young

- Schoellkopf Field has been an indelible mark of Cornell football since it opened in 1915 and this year will be the 101st season at the home field.
- A gift from Willard Straight '01 and the family of Henry (Heinie) Schoellkopf '02 made the construction possible for the current stadium.
- The Big Red's first year on the field was one of its best, going 9-0 and winning the national championship.
- In 1915, General Electric Company completed work on a flood searchlight system for the field, and in 1924 a construction project was completed to bring capacity from 9,000 to 21,500 by adding the famed Crescent.
- In 1947 that was increased to its current capacity of 25,597 and a press box was added.
- In 1971 a gift was made to put artificial turf on the field, and it was resurfaced three times, the last time in 1999.
- A new press box was built in 1986.
- The 2008 season saw installation of FieldTurf synthetic grass to replace the artificial turf.
- In 2016, the West Stands were demolished and the field was moved 15 feet toward the Crescent while replacing the FieldTurf to ready for more construction at the site

Schoellkopf Facts

- Schoellkopf Field is the fourth-oldest FCS stadium, opening in 1915. Only Penn's Franklin Field (1895), Harvard Stadium (1903) and the Yale Bowl (1914) are older.
- The playing area before World War I was Percy Field, alongside Fall Creek, the present site of Ithaca HS.
- The Big Red's all-time record at Schoellkopf Field is 292-181-15 (.614).

THE CORNELL FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

Few collegiate football programs have the storied history of Cornell University. With more than 120 seasons of football in the books, the Big Red has collected five national titles, won more than 600 games and has had legendary players and coaches perform on historic Schoellkopf Field. Names such as Glenn "Pop" Warner and Heisman Trophy finalist and NCAA record-breaker Ed Marinaro have suited up for Cornell, while seven College Football Hall of Famers (including Warner, Gil Dobie and Carl Snively) and multiple-time Super Bowl winner George Seifert have set the strategy as head coaches. Now, with David Archer '05 leading the program, there's little doubt that history will continue to be made.

The Cornell football record book includes ...

- Statistical records (individual and teams)
- All-time results
- Individual and team stats (back to 1983)
- Bios of Cornell football legends
- Cornell vs. opponents
- Individual awards
- All-time letter winners
- Big Red football players in the pros

GAME 1 CORNELL 24, BUCKNELL 16

Sept. 17, 2016

Christy Mathewson Stadium

Lewisburg, Pa.

GAME NOTES

- At pregame meal, senior captain Matt Sullivan talked to his teammates about the confidence they had built over the offseason.
- Then, when a winning play needed to be made, the big tight end snatched a 22-yard touchdown out of the air that helped Cornell to a 24-16 season-opening win over Bucknell at Christy Mathewson Stadium.
- The Big Red overcame the usual early season jitters that manifested itself in penalties (11 for 85 yards) and missed execution early.
- It didn't affect Cornell's ability to hold on to the ball (zero turnovers) or the defense's ability to separate Bucknell from it (three turnovers).
- Sophomores played an undeniable role in the victory.
- Quarterback Dalton Banks accounted for three touchdowns, running back Chris Walker ran 17 times for 141 yards and cornerback DJ Woullard intercepted two passes.
- Sophomore place-kicker Zach Mays made a career-long 41-yard field goal and all three PAT kicks and placed all five of his kickoffs through the end zone for touchbacks.
- The Big Red scored on all four possessions spanning the second and third quarters, including on three consecutive 11-play drives.
- Junior Daniel Crochet posted a career-high 11 tackles in his first career start.
- The win snapped an eight-game non-conference losing streak and a five-game road skid.
- It also improved Cornell's record in the series to 43-13, ending a two-game losing streak to Bucknell.
- The Big Red trailed 10-0 early in the second quarter and rallied to take the lead in the third.
- The Big Red is now 92-33-4 in season openers, 131-80-7 against Patriot League teams and 104-62-5 in the month of September.

GAME 2 CORNELL 27, YALE 13

Sept. 24, 2016

Schoellkopf Field

Ithaca, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- The football team turned big defensive plays in the first quarter into instant offense, then staved off Yale for a 27-13 victory in front of boisterous Homecoming crowd of 15,493 fans at Schoellkopf Field.
- The victory gave Cornell its first 2-0 start (1-0 Ivy) since 2009.
- Sophomore quarterback Dalton Banks completed 23-of-32 passes for 306 yards and two touchdowns, and the Big Red defense came up with three interceptions.
- A couple of strong defensive plays from junior safety Nick Gesualdi set the stage for the Big Red's offense and a 14-0 lead after the first quarter.
- He broke up a pass on third down to force a Yale punt leading to Cornell's march down the field and J.D. Pickell's 1-yard run for his first collegiate touchdown.
- Gesualdi then picked off a Rafe Chapple pass, his sixth career interception, and returned the ball to the Yale 38 on the next possession.
- Cornell took advantage of the short field and Marshall Deutz scored on a 10-yard screen pass.
- After Yale got on the board with a field goal, Cornell responded quickly.
- Banks completed a 43-yard pass that sent Ben Rogers diving into the end zone and helped Cornell's lead balloon to 21-3.
- Reigning Ivy League Special Teams Player of the Week Zach Mays tacked on a 37-yard field goal to close out the first half.
- He was once again perfect on the day with two field goals and three PATs, while also putting four of his five kickoffs for touchbacks in the second game played under the experimental Ivy rule that had kickoffs marked at the 40 yard-line and touchbacks taken at the 20.
- The Big Red improved to 36-31-2 on Homecoming, including 4-2 in its last six games.

GAME 3 CORNELL 39, #25/- COLGATE 38

Oct. 1, 2016

Andy Kerr Stadium

Hamilton, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- Sophomore quarterback Dalton Banks found senior wide receiver Collin Shaw in the back corner of the end zone with 28 seconds left to rally Cornell to a 39-38 win at No. 25/- Colgate at Andy Kerr Stadium.
- The victory snapped a seven-game losing streak against ranked teams, with the last win over a Top 25 team coming in a 14-7 victory over No. 15 Princeton on Oct. 28, 2006.
- The last win for the Big Red over a ranked team on the road? That came in 1950, when the Big Red earned a 13-6 win over No. 13 Penn at Franklin Field.
- A year ago, Cornell fell behind big (28-7) and rallied to within a touchdown and had four plays within the Raiders' 10 in the final minute to tie the game, but fell short.
- This time, the Big Red fell down big (28-5), got within 38-33 in the third quarter and promptly turned the ball over three straight times.
- Unlike the 2015 season when a fourth-down pass fell to the ground, this time the fourth time was a charm.
- Banks capped off a 454-yard passing day with his fourth touchdown through the air and fifth total of the day by finding Shaw in the back right corner of the end zone with a defender draped over him.
- Chris Walker added 110 rushing yards on 13 carries and James Hubbard caught five passes for 105 yards and a highlight-reel 63-yard touchdown off a deflected pass on Cornell's final play of the third.
- Justin Solomon had a career-high 15 tackles for the Big Red, while Kurt Frimel notched 10 with two for a loss.

GAME 4 #16/22 HARVARD 29, CORNELL 13

Oct. 8, 2016 Harvard Stadium Cambridge, Mass.

GAME NOTES

- No. 16/22 Harvard got up on Cornell quick, and unlike Colgate a week prior, was able to keep the Big Red at arm's length the rest of the way to remain unbeaten with a 29-13 win at Harvard Stadium.
- The Crimson picked off Big Red sophomore quarterback Dalton Banks on the visitors' first play from scrimmage and scored two plays later and never trailed in extending its win streak over Cornell to 11 games.
- Three turnovers and seven penalties — including four that extended Harvard drives — were more than Cornell could overcome.
- The Big Red defense held a high-octane Harvard offense averaging better than 500 yards to 388 yards on 80 plays and kept the visitors in the game most of the night.
- Junior Nick Gesualdi had 11 tackles, a sack and an interception in the loss, while classmate Kurt Frimel made six stops, had a forced fumble and broke up a pass.
- Justin Solomon had five stops with a sack and a blocked kick and Ryan Kelley made a pair of tackles for loss.
- Offensively, Dalton Banks was 19-of-39 passing for 257 yards and two touchdowns to go along with 29 rushing yards, but was also intercepted three times.
- Eight different players caught passes, with Ben Rogers hauling in four passes for 80 yards and two touchdowns.
- The Big Red offense had 337 yards of offense with just 80 of it coming against a Crimson defense that annually ranks among the best in the country against the run.
- With his 29-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter, senior Ben Rogers became Cornell's 22nd player to reach 1,000 career receiving yards (1,003).

GAME 5 SACRED HEART 34, CORNELL 27

Oct. 15, 2016 Schoellkopf Field Ithaca, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- Cornell nearly erased a three touchdown deficit in the fourth quarter, but Sacred Heart was able to hold off the Big Red when it mattered late and escaped Schoellkopf Field with a 31-24 victory.
- The Big Red, playing without its leading rusher and receiver, fell behind 31-10 midway through the third quarter before its defense put the Pioneers on their heels.
- Interceptions on three straight Sacred Heart pass attempts gave Cornell field position it could live with.
- The home team cashed in on two of the turnovers, scoring on a 2-yard run by sophomore J.D. Pickell and a 1-yard rush by classmate Dalton Banks, to cut the lead to 31-24.
- The Big Red forced a pair of punts, but Cornell punted it back to end the first drive and had the game end on an interception on a desperation pass with three seconds left on the clock.
- On a night when the passing game struggled to find a rhythm against a Pioneers defense that had surrendered only six second half points all season entering the day, the rushing game was strong.
- Cornell ran for 257 yards and three touchdowns on a healthy 5.2 yards per carry, with Pickell (22 rushes, 95 yards, touchdown), Banks (15 carries, 87 yards, touchdown) and Jack Gellatly (12 rushes, 75 yards, touchdown) all doing sufficient damage.
- Banks connected on 15-of-38 passes for 117 yards through the air.
- Defensively, junior Nick Gesualdi had a pair of interceptions to lead a Big Red group with five takeaways.
- Justin Solomon and Ryan Kelley each had picks, and Malcolm Chaka recovered a fumble caused by Daniel Crochet that led to the game's first score.

GAME 8 DARTMOUTH 17, CORNELL 13

Nov. 5, 2016

Schoellkopf Field

Ithaca, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- Dartmouth went into Cornell's playbook in the fourth quarter and duplicated the Big Red's first quarter dominance, but the Big Green's touchdowns canceled out the home team's field goals en route to a 17-13 win at Schoellkopf Field.
- The Big Green scored twice and dominated time of possession in the fourth quarter, holding the football for 13:11 and running 28 plays to Cornell's eight.
- It converted 6-of-7 third downs, completely flipping the script on a dominant Big Red first quarter to open the 100th meeting between the rivals.
- Cornell held the ball for 12:55 and ran 20 plays to four for the Big Green while converting on 6-of-8 third down opportunities.
- The only difference between the two quarters - Cornell scored two field goals despite drives of 13 and 16 plays.
- Dartmouth scored touchdowns to cap 12- and nine-play drives.
- Jack Heneghan found Charles Mack from 7 yards out with 6:42 left in regulation to take its first lead of the day a little more than four minutes after scoring its first touchdown on a 1-yard plunge by Miles Smith.
- Smith ended the afternoon with 119 yards on 25 carries, becoming the first Big Green player to surpass 100 yards in a game in more than two years.
- Cornell sophomore quarterback Dalton Banks completed 28-of-43 passes for 216 yards and a touchdown, a 4-yard acrobatic, juggling catch by junior tight end Hayes Nolte in the back of the end zone that gave the home team a 13-3 lead with 4:26 left in the third quarter.
- Cornell's offense was otherwise bottled up, collecting 270 yards of offense in the game despite three separate scoring drives of at least 13 plays, including a 17-play, 86-yard drive that took more than half of the third quarter to develop.
- Nick Gesualdi had 10 tackles to lead the Big Red, while Kurt Frimel made eight stops, including one for a loss.
- Justin Solomon was credited with four tackles and also intercepted a pass and broke up two others.
- Senior All-America punter Chris Fraser averaged 44.0 yards on four punts, pinning two kicks inside the 20.

GAME 9 CORNELL 42, COLUMBIA 40

Nov. 12, 2016

Schoellkopf Field

Ithaca, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- The Cornell seniors have never had to watch Columbia take the Empire State Bowl back to their locker room.
- Even on an emotional senior day for the Lions, the Big Red made sure they would never have to.
- Cornell used explosive plays on offense and key plays when they were needed on defense and special teams to retain the bowl for the fourth straight year after an exciting 42-40 victory over Columbia at Wien Stadium.
- The two teams combined for 82 points and 1,069 yards of offense.
- In both games, the Big Red ended the game in front and celebrated with the Empire State Bowl in hand.
- The four wins on the season doubles the victory total the Big Red compiled in the previous two years combined (2-18).
- It was the first time Cornell finished with a winning road record since 1994 - a span of 22 years - and highlighted the program's march forward.
- The Big Red stopped a game-tying two-point conversion attempt, scored an insurance touchdown on a long run, intercepted a pass to end a late drive, intelligently killed clock and recovered an on-sides kick attempt after Columbia scored to get back within 42-40 with two minutes to play.
- Sophomores engineered much of the offense, as Chris Walker ran for 178 yards and three touchdowns and Dalton Banks completed 24-of-37 passes for 267 yards and two scores while running for a third.
