SERIES HISTORY VS. BROWN: The Cornell and Brown rivalry began when the Bears joined the Ivy League in men's lacrosse in 1964. The Big Red came away with an 8-7 victory in that first meeting, and won 23 of the first 28 games between the two programs. The Bears won eight-straight contests vs. Cornell from 1991 to 1997 to gain some ground in the series, which Cornell leads, 36-20. Since snapping that Brown winning streak with a 6-5 decision in 1998, the series has been very tight, despite Cornell's 13-7 record over that time. Of the last 20 meetings, 10 have been decided by three or fewer goals.

LOOKING AT THE BEARS: Brown improved to 6-5 on the season with a midweek double overtime victory over Providence to claim the Ocean State Cup. The Bears feature a high-power offense that has reached double-digit goals in all 11 games this season. The team is led by the reigning Tewaaron Trophy winner, Dylan Molloy, who has team-highs in points (56), goals (34) and assists (22). In total, eight Bears have reached double-digit points on the year, including senior long pole midfielder Larken Kemp, who is the second highest scoring long pole in NCAA Division I history. Brown ranks 10th in the nation in face-offs, thanks to Ted Ottens, who ranks 11th nationally (198-of-330; .600). Ottens is also ninth in the nation in ground balls per game (7.55 per game). In goal, freshman Phil Goss leads the nation with 13.00 saves per game, but has posted a 13.66 goals-against average and a .505 save percentage.

A WIN OVER BROWN WOULD:

- snap a two-game winning streak by the Bears.
- keep the Big Red in top three of the Ivy League standings.
- improve Cornell to 37-20 all-time in the series and even Coach Kerwick's record at 2-2.
- be the 746th win in program history.
- make Cornell 71-72 all-time when unranked in the USILA Coaches' Poll.
- improve Cornell to 251-54 all-time vs. unranked teams.

CAMPUS CONNECTIONS:

- Dan Nemirov, Tom Reilly, Jake McCulloch and Brown midfielder Jimmy Coughlan all attended Ward Melville HS.
- Ryan Matthews and Brown attackman Dino Lavallo both went to Manhasset HS.
- Brandon Salvatore and Brown midfielder both attended The Taft School.
- Ryan Bray and Brown attackman Jason Curran both attended Shoreham-Wading River.
- Walt Gahagan, Scott Flynn and Brown goalie Phil Goss all attended Deerfield Academy.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK: Jeff Teat has been named the Ivy League Rookie of the Week twice this season. The first award came on March 13 following his 11-point performance vs. No. 13 Virginia. He took home the honor again on April 17 after posting 14 points on six goals and eight assists vs. No. 1 Syracuse and Lehigh. His six points and four assists are both tied for season-highs by an opponent this season against the Orange.

CURRENT CAREER LEADERS:

- Freshman Jeff Teat has more career points (54) and more career assists (29) than any other player on the current Big Red roster.
- Not including first-year program Cleveland State, Teat is the only freshman in the nation to currently lead his team in career points ... He is also the only freshman in the nation to currently lead his team in career assists.
- The player with the second most career points is sophomore Colton Rupp (44), while the player with the second most career assists is sophomore Clarke Petterson (17).
- Sophomore Colton Rupp has more career goals (37) than any other player on the roster.
- There are only four players on the 2017 roster that have more than 30 points – junior Jordan Dowiak (30), sophomores Colton Rupp (44), Clarke Petterson (39), and freshman Jeff Teat (54).
- There are only nine players on the 2017 roster that have more than 20 points. Of those, more than half (5) are underclassmen.

NATIONAL FRESHMAN:

- Jeff Teat ranks sixth in the nation – second among freshmen – in assists per game (2.64).
- Teat ranks 10th in the nation – second among freshman – in points per game (4.91).
- In both categories, Princeton freshman Michael Sowers ranks first.
- Teat ranks 33rd in the nation – sixth among freshman – in goals per game (2.10).
- Brandon Salvatore ranks 18th in the nation – first among freshman – in caused turnovers per game (1.64).

LAST MEETING

No. 3 BROWN 22, CORNELL 5

April 23, 2016 Schoellkopf Field Ithaca, N.Y.

ITHACA, N.Y. – No. 3 Brown scored three times in the first 3:19 and jumped out to a 7-1 lead on its way to a 22-5 victory over Cornell at Schoellkopf Field.

"We ran into everything as advertised today," said Matt Kerwick, the Richard M. Moran Head Coach of Lacrosse. "Brown was making plays all over the field. I gotta give them credit. They put us on our heels early and unfortunately we couldn't dig out of it. I thought we could have possible dug out a little bit in that second quarter once we settled in and started getting some defensive stops, but to their credit they ran all over us."

Senior goalkeeper Brennan Donville did his part to try and keep the Big Red in the game with a career-best 16 saves, but the high-octane Brown offense, coupled with a swarming pressure defense that forced 21 Cornell turnovers, allowed the visitors to claim their second straight victory in the series.

Dylan Molloy had six points (three goals, three assists) as he continues his quest for the NCAA single-season scoring record, while Kylor Bellistri had six points (four goals, two assists), Henry Blynn had five (three goals, two assists) and Brendan Caputo notched four (three goals, one assist) to lead the Brown offense. Molloy added five ground balls and caused three turnovers and Jack Kelly had 12 saves and allowed just five goals to pick up the win in goal.

Cornell's John Edmonds became the 41st player in school history to reach 100 career points with his fourth quarter assist on Senior Day. Kason Tarbell was the lone multi-point scorer for the Big Red with a pair of goals, while Tony Britton had a pair of caused turnovers and six ground balls.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Brown's 22 goals are the most scored by either team in the history of the series, besting the 20 goals scored by Cornell in 1970 as the Big Red won, 20-6.
- The 22 goals are the most scored at Schoellkopf Field since Cornell registered 23 goals vs. Canisius in 1998.
- It was just the 19th time in Cornell history that an opponent has scored more than 20 goals in a game, and the first since a 20-12 loss to Maryland in 1995.
- Cornell's man-down defense had killed off 12 consecutive penalties before allowing a Brown man-up goal on their second chance of the day with 3:54 to play in the third quarter.

CORNELL STREAKS

- Clarke Petterson has the longest point scoring streak on the team having registered one point in each of the last nine games.
- Jeff Teat has registered at least three points in eight consecutive games, with five points in four consecutive.
- Walt Gahagan has caused at least one turnover in six straight games.
- Christian Knight has double-digit saves in two consecutive games.

UPWARD TRENDS:

- Since moving into the starting line-up vs. Colgate, Walt Gahagan caused at least one turnover in six straight games, averaging 2.8 over the six contests. Prior to that, in his role as a man-down specialist he had caused just three turnovers in three seasons . . . He currently ranks ninth in the nation with 2.0 CT per game.
- Through the first five games of the season, opponents cleared the ball successfully .865 percent of the time (90-of-104). Since that time, Cornell has implemented a 10-man ride and has held opponents to a .730 percent success rate (84-of-115).
- After registering just two points in his first three collegiate games, Jeff Teat has been phenomenal, registering 52 points over eight games (6.5 points per contest).
- With 54 points and 29 assists this season, Jeff Teat has registered more career points and career assists than any other player on the current Cornell roster.
- Cornell has assisted on at least .650 percent of its goals in each of the last four games, including a season-high .875 percent vs. Lehigh (14-of-16).

FRESHMAN CLASS POINTS:

- The Big Red's current freshman class has amassed 91 points from seven players – Jeff Teat (54), Connor Fletcher (29), Austin Fingar (3), Paul Rasimowicz (2), Sam Duggan (1), Ryan Maloney (1), and Brandon Salvatore (1).
- The Class of 2020's 91 points are the most in program history for a rookie class ahead of the 2009 freshmen (86) and the 2016 freshmen (82).
- During the 2009 season, the 86 freshmen points came from three players – Rob Pannell (67 points), Roy Lang (11 points), and Mitch McMichael (eight points).
- Last season's freshman class is now the third highest scoring rookie class in program history with 82 points coming from seven players – Colton Rupp (24 points), Ryan Bray (22 points), Clarke Petterson (15 points), Anthony Teixeira (nine points), Zach Ward (seven points), Jake McCulloch (four points) and Conor O'Brien (one point).
- There are just four rookie classes in program history that have amassed more than 75 points, with the fourth class coming from the 2002 freshmen that had 76 points from three players – Sean Greenhalgh (42 points), Justin Redd (31 points) and J.D. Nelson (eight points).
- In the 41 seasons since freshmen became eligible to participate in varsity athletics, Cornell has had a freshman class register at least 40 points just eight times (2017, 2016, 2009, 2006, 2002, 2003, 2000, 1995).
- There have been 17 seasons in which the Big Red received just single-digit points from its freshmen (2015, 2014, 2008, 2007, 2005, 1994, 1993, 1990, 1989, 1988, 1986, 1985, 1984, 1983, 1981, 1978, 1977).
- Cornell has had three seasons in which a freshman did not register a single point (2007, 1986, 1978).

THE PETTERSON-TEAT CONNECTION:

- Clarke Petterson and Jeff Teat both attended The Hill Academy.
- Of Petterson's 24 points on the season, more than half (13) have involved Teat.
- Teat has assisted on six of Petterson's 13 goals this season.
- Of Petterson's 11 assists on the year, seven have come on goals by Teat.

Matt Kerwick

RICHARD M. MORAN HEAD COACH OF CORNELL MEN'S LACROSSE

Matt Kerwick was named the Richard M. Moran Head Coach of Men's Lacrosse at Cornell University on June 11, 2014. Kerwick, who served in the position on an interim basis during the 2014 season, became the 11th head coach in the programs' 122-year history.

One of just four current head coaches to take three different teams to the NCAA tournament, Kerwick has led Cornell to a combined record of 27-18 (10-8 Ivy), two Ivy League championships, and two appearances in the NCAA tournament.

He has coached 18 All-Ivy selections nine All-Americans, one Ivy League Player of the Year and one Ivy League Rookie of the Year. A coach that demands excellence in the classroom as well as on the field, Cornell has had five players named USILA Academic All-Americans, two Academic All-Ivy selections, one CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree, one Senior CLASS Award winner, and one YRL Unsung Hero finalist.

Kerwick spent the 2012 season with Georgetown, working as an associate head coach on Dave Urick's staff. Kerwick played for Urick at Hobart College, where he was a two-time All-American, won four consecutive Division III national championships, and was named the 1989 NCAA Tournament MVP.

Prior to his time at Georgetown, Kerwick accumulated 15 years of head coaching experience with stops at Jacksonville, Hobart, Alfred and Randolph-Macon.

During his time as head coach at those institutions, he helped his teams earn three NCAA tournament berths (Hobart - 2; Alfred 1), two Upstate Tournament appearances (Alfred) and one conference championship (Hobart). While at Hobart, he was named the 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year and was also selected as the ECAC Co-Coach of the Year in 2008. As the head coach at Alfred, he was named both the 1996 Super Six Lacrosse League Coach of the Year Award and the 1997 "Babe" Kraus Division III Coach of the Year.

Kerwick graduated from Hobart in 1990 with a degree in economics. An all-around athlete, he was a four-year letter winner on both the Statesmen hockey and lacrosse teams, serving as captain for both squads as a senior. Following graduation, he played for the MLL's Baltimore Thunder, earning an All-Star selection in 1992.

Kerwick has strong ties to Cornell as both his parents Thomas and the late Patricia Kerwick, as well as his sister Ann, all graduated from Cornell. He resides in Skaneateles and he and his wife Mary have two sons, Thomas and Sean.

FRESHMAN MARKS:

- Jeff Teat and Connor Fletcher have combined for 83 points, making them the highest scoring freshmen duo in Cornell history, surpassing Rob Pannell and Roy Lang, who combined for 78 points in 2009.
- Jeff Teat ranks second among all Big Red freshmen in assists (29), behind only Rob Pannell who handed out 42 assists as a rookie in 2009.
- Teat is also second among Cornell freshmen in points (54) and third overall in goals (25).
- Connor Fletcher also ranks sixth among all Big Red freshmen in goals (21), and eighth overall in both points (29) and assists (8).
- Freshman Brandon Salvatore ranks second among all Cornell rookies in caused turnovers (18), second behind Jason Noble, who posted 27 caused turnovers in 2010.

INDIVIDUAL NCAA RANKINGS: Big Red players rank in the top 25 in the nation in ...

- Saves per game – Christian Knight (11th; 11.91)
- Assists per game – Jeff Teat (6th; 2.64)
- Points per game – Jeff Teat (10th; 4.91)
- Caused turnovers per game – Walt Gahagan (9th; 2.00)
- Caused turnovers per game – Brandon Salvatore (18th; 1.64)

IN THE NCAA RANKINGS: The Big Red ranks in the top 25 in the nation in ...

- Ground balls per game (9th – 32.55)
- Caused turnovers per game (10th – 8.64)
- Clearing percentage (15th – .896)
- Points per game (15th – 18.27)
- Assists per game (16th – 7.00)
- Saves per game (17th – 12.00)
- Scoring offense (21st – 11.27)

GROUND BALL FACTS:

- Cornell ranks ninth in the nation in ground balls per game (32.55).
- Of the teams ranked in the top 10, Cornell is ranked the lowest in face-off win percentage (65th).
- Of the other nine teams ranked in the top 10, five rank in the top 10 of face-off win percentage (Albany, Army, Yale, Loyola, Brown), with two others (Rutgers and Virginia) ranked in the top 25.
- The other two members of the top 10 – Maryland and Princeton – rank 30th and 42nd, respectively in face-off winning percentage.
- Despite ranking in the top 10 in the nation in ground balls per game, Cornell does not have a single player on pace to finish with 100 ground balls, which would make 2017 the first season without a 100-ground ball guy since the 2012 campaign.
- Jeff Teat currently ranks third on the team with 27 ground balls. If he remains in third place, he will be the first Big Red attacker to finish in the top three on the team in ground balls since Ryan Hurley picked up 47 in 2009.

MOVING ON UP IN CORNELL HISTORY:

- Marshall Peters ranks fourth in caused turnovers (56) ... He needs seven more to move into third place.
- Christian Knight ranks eighth in career saves (417) ... He needs 37 more to move into seventh place.

DOUBLE-DIGIT SAVES: Christian Knight has posted double-digit saves eight times this season, one off his career-high of nine 10+ save performances in 2014.

SINGLE GAME ASSISTS:

- Jeff Teat has posted two of the highest single-game assist tallies by a freshman in Cornell history.
- His six assists vs. Virginia are the most ever recorded by a Cornell rookie.
- Teat's five assists vs. Dartmouth are tied for the second most by a freshman in Big Red history.

GAHAGAN'S GAME RECORD:

- Senior defender Walt Gahagan tied the Cornell school record for caused turnovers in a single game with six vs. Dartmouth on April 1.
- The mark was previously held by Jason Noble, who achieved it twice during his career.
- The six caused turnovers were also the most this season in NCAA Division 1 until Virginia's Scott Hooper posted seven vs. Robert Morris on April 11.

RANKED OPPONENTS: Of the Big Red's 13 opponents this season, five are currently ranked in the USILA Coaches' Poll – Syracuse (first), Albany (fifth), Penn State (10th), Yale (12th) and Princeton (16th) ... Cornell 0-4 vs. ranked opponents this season.

EXPERIENCE BY THE NUMBERS:

- The 2017 Big Red roster has just seven players that have played more than 35 career games – Marshall Peters (56), Andrew Keith (51), Walt Gahagan (43), Christian Knight (40), Jake Pulver (39), Jordan Dowiak (38), and Kason Tarbell (38).
- Cornell has just 10 players with 20-35 games played – Ryan Matthews (30), Scott Flynn (29), Jack Bolen (28), Dan Bockelman (26) Charlie Estill (26), Clarke Petterson (24), Colton Rupp (24) and Grant Mahler (23), Chad Otterman (22), Fleet Wallace (22) and Ryan Bray (21).
- There are 29 players on the Big Red roster that have played in less than 20 career games.

FLETCHER'S FIVE GOALS:

- Freshman Connor Fletcher had a hand in six of Cornell's nine goals vs. Penn with five goals and one assist.
- His five goals are tied for the second-most ever in a game by a Big Red freshman, behind Sean Greenhalgh's six goals vs. Syracuse in 2002
- Fletcher is the first Cornell rookie to record five goals since Greenhalgh did so vs. Dartmouth on April 13, 2002.

NO SHOT: The Big Red held Dartmouth without a single shot during the first quarter of its 14-5 victory over the Big Green on April 1.

- Dating back to 2003, when shots by quarter began being recorded regularly, Cornell had never held an opponent without a shot in a quarter.
- The previous low had been one shot, last done by Penn in the fourth quarter of a 16-11 Big Red victory on March 24, 2012.

SAVE STREAK: Christian Knight opened the 2017 season by registering at least 10 saves in six games, and in seven consecutive games dating back to the 2015 season finale. That was the longest double-digit save streak of his career, and the longest by any Big Red goalie since Justin Cynar stopped 10+ shots in eight consecutive games during the 2000 season.

NOTING TEAT'S 11-POINT PERFORMANCE:

- Jeff Teat registered 11 points on five goals and six assists vs. No. 13 UVA on March 11.
- The 11 points were the most scored in NCAA Division I this season for one week before Hobart's Chris Aslanian registered 13 points vs. Wagner.
- The six assists and 11 points are the most ever recorded by a Cornell rookie.
- The 11 points are the sixth most in Big Red history.
- Teat becomes the first Cornell player to register 11 points in a contest since Tim Goldstein '88 vs. Dartmouth on April 23, 1988.

THE NOTABLE JEFF TEAT:

- Jeff Teat was named the No. 1 overall recruit in the Inside Lacrosse 2016 Power 100 Freshmen Rankings.
- He is the Big Red's first-ever Inside Lacrosse No. 1 recruit.
- He is Inside Lacrosse's first-ever overall No. 1 to hail from Canada.
- Last year, as a member of the Ontario Junior A League's Brampton Excelsiors, he finished the regular season as the leading scorer in the league with 145 points (7.6 points per game), the highest point total since John Grant Jr. registered 160 in 1994.

LOTS OF WINS: Cornell's 12-10 victory over Princeton on April 26, 2014 was the 725th win in program history. The Big Red now has 745 victories, ranking seventh among the winningest programs in collegiate lacrosse.

OVERTIME NOTES: With its 19-18 overtime loss vs. Virginia on March 11, 2017 Cornell has played at least one overtime game in each of the past 11 seasons, dating back to a 12-11 overtime triumph over Albany in the 2007 NCAA quarterfinals. During that span, the Big Red has posted a 10-6 record in OT games ... Cornell had won three consecutive overtime games prior to the loss to UVA and head coach Matt Kerwick is 4-2 all-time at Cornell in overtime contests.

CLOSE CALLS: Since the beginning of the 2003 season, Cornell is 36-22 in games that have been decided by a single goal, a mark that was lowered when the Big Red fell to Penn, 8-9, on March 25. Of the 22 losses, 17 have come against ranked opponents, including 11 against squads ranked in the top-10, five of which were ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 in the nation.

GOALIE ASSIST: When Christian Knight assisted on Jeff Teat's goal with one second to play in the third quarter vs. Hobart on Feb. 24 it was the Big Red's first point by a goalie since Ted Lynch registered an assist vs. Colgate on April 13, 1993.

THROWBACK NUMBERS:

- The 2017 roster features two unique numbers on it - #51 and #77.
- Freshman Jeff Teat is the first player to wear #51 since Jerome Dolins wore it in 1966.
- Sophomore Tom Reilly is the first Big Red men's lacrosse player to ever wear #77.

IVY KINGS:

- Since Ivy League play began in 1956, Cornell has won a conference-high 29 titles, including 17 undefeated crowns.
- Cornell has won a share of 12 of the last 14 Ivy League titles, with its last crown coming in 2015.
- The Big Red also has the best regular season Ivy League record of any team in the conference at 254-104-1.

250 IVY WINS: With its 8-2 victory over Dartmouth on March 28, 2015, Cornell became the first program in the Ivy League history to reach 250 regular season conference victories ... The Big Red's 254 regular season conference wins are also the most conference wins by any school in Division I men's lacrosse history.

FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET: On Dec. 21, 2014, Marshall Peters tied the Cornell Department of Athletics record for fastest 40-yard dash, running it in a time of 4.38 seconds and matching the mark set by Max Seibald in 2008. Administered by Tom Howley, Associate Director of Athletics for Athlete Performance, the dash is laser timed and the record is across several sports in the department.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: The Big Red has four captains this season – seniors Ryan Matthews and Marshall Peters, junior Jake Pulver, and sophomore Clarke Petterson ... Petterson is the first sophomore captain in the history of the men's lacrosse program.

ELITE COMPANY: Over the past 10 seasons (2007-2016) only 10 schools have registered 100 victories – Duke (151), Syracuse (126), Denver (122), Maryland (122), Notre Dame (120), UVA (116), Cornell (115), North Carolina (110), Hopkins (105), Loyola (105) ... During that span, only seven teams have won at least 70 percent of its games – Duke (.766), Notre Dame (.755), Syracuse (.754), Cornell (.723), Maryland (.713), Denver (.709), and UVA (.703).

Academic All-Americans

The Cornell men's lacrosse program has the second most CoSIDA Academic All-Americans of any Division I team in the nation, second only to Johns Hopkins. Of Cornell's six selections, five have come since 2001.

Unlike other Academic All-America teams in which the selections are all from the same sport, the At-Large men's team is highly competitive as it is comprised of athletes from fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, skiing, swimming, tennis, volleyball, water polo and wrestling. To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings at his/her current institution and be nominated by his/her sports information director.

Cornell's All-Time Academic All-Americans

- 1999 Troy Gorman '99 (third team)
- 2001 David Key '01 (second team)
- 2004 Tim DeBlois '04 (second team)
- 2005 Casey Stevenson '05 (second team)
- 2007 Mitch Belisle '07 (first team)
- 2007 Matt McMonagle '07 (first team)

MILLIMAN TABBED TO ASSIST TEAM USA: Peter Milliman, the Mario St. George Boiardi '04 Associate Head Coach of Men's Lacrosse, has been named an assistant coach for the 2019 U.S. men's national indoor team. The team will be led by Regy Thorpe (Syracuse University), who in February was named head coach of Team USA, and will guide the team in pursuit of a gold medal at the 2019 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Indoor Lacrosse Championship (WILC), Sept. 19-28, 2019, in Langley, British Columbia, Canada.

HARD HAT: Jake Pulver was selected to carry the Hard Hat for the 2016 season. The tradition of the Hard Hat began in the fall of 1999. Midway through the fall season, a player is selected to carry the Hard Hat for the year. The recipient is someone that the coaches feel demonstrates a blue-collar approach to the game of lacrosse; he is driven and selfless, not the most talented player on the field, but consistently the hardest worker. He puts the team first, and embodies how the coaches want Cornell players to act and respond on or off the field.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS: Junior defenseman Jake Pulver was named a preseason honorable mention All-American by Inside Lacrosse Magazine.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK: The 14-member Class of 2020 consists of five US Lacrosse All-Americans, as well as two members of the Team Canada U19 squad, and consists of nine midfielders, two attackmen, two defenders, and one goalie. The group hails from six different states, including a class-high four New Yorkers, as well as one player coming from both Alberta and Ontario.

BUCZEK'S BACK: Former Cornell men's lacrosse great Connor Buczek '15 joined the Big Red staff as a volunteer assistant prior to the 2016 season. Buczek, a recipient of a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, is currently a student in Cornell's Johnson Graduate School of Management. One of the best business schools in the country, Buczek is in rare company, as one of just two individuals, and the only one from Cornell, to be admitted directly from undergraduate studies.

FAMILY TIES:

- Head Coach Matt Kerwick's parents Thomas and the late Patricia, as well as his sister Ann, all graduated from Cornell.
- Andrew Keith's brother, Thomas '13, was an All-American long-stick midfielder for the Big Red, earning four varsity letters.
- Ryan Matthews' cousin Matt Sutherland played lacrosse at Cornell.
- Sam Welch's parents, Patrick '85 and Ruth Welch '87, are both former Big Red athletes. A two-time Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association champion at 150 pounds, Patrick is in the Cornell Hall of Fame, while Ruth was a three-year letter winner for gymnastics, serving as team captain as a senior.
- Dan Nemirov's mother, Jamie, as well as one aunt and his maternal grandfather all graduated from Cornell.
- Scott Flynn's grandfather Norman Penney attended Cornell Law School and later served as both a professor in the law school and Dean of University Faculty.
- Charlie Estill's grandfather Frederick Siefke graduated from Cornell in 1948.
- Troy Revello's older sister Grace attends Cornell.
- Anthony Teixeira's great-uncle Stephen W. Fillo graduated from Cornell in 1959.
- Connor Fletcher's father, Daniel, graduated from Cornell in 1985 and his great uncle, Bob Mealy '51, is considered one of the best runners in Cornell track history and is a member of the Cornell Athletic Hall of Fame.
- Griffin Buczek's brother, Connor '15, was an All-American lacrosse player for Cornell and currently serves as the team's volunteer assistant coach while attending Cornell's Johnson Graduate School of Management and playing professionally for the Florida Launch ... His aunt, Colleen Cottrell Calderwood, also attended Cornell.
- Ryan McDonald's uncle, Dan McDonald, played lacrosse at SUNY Potsdam and served as an assistant coach for the Big Red under Richie Moran from 1995-96 ... His aunt, Tina Mahoney graduated from Cornell in 1988.
- Griff Gosnell's great-uncle, John Gude Gosnell, graduated from Cornell in 1950.
- Josh Gully's father, Josh '83, lettered twice for the Big Red lacrosse team and he is the 22nd member of his family to attend Cornell.

U19 TEAM CANADA: Three Big Red – sophomore Clarke Petterson, and freshmen Jeff Teat and Caelahn Bullen – were members of the Team Canada squad that won the silver medal at the Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) U19 Men's Lacrosse World Championship this past summer.

MLL DRAFT FACTS:

- Cornell has the ninth most Major League Lacrosse draft picks (25) of any school in the nation.
- Since having a program-high five players selected in the 2007 MLL Draft, the Big Red has had multiple picks in five of the last 10 drafts.
- Beginning with the 2007 MLL Draft, Cornell has had five first round draft picks, including one selection at No. 1 (Rob Pannell), and two at No. 2 (Connor Buczek and Max Seibald).

TICKLE THE ALL-IVY: The Big Red returns two All-Ivy selections from a year ago – Jake Pulver (second-team) and Ryan Matthews (honorable mention). Both were first-time honorees.

RUPP'S ROOKIE RANKING: Colton Rupp finished the 2016 season ranked fourth in Cornell history for the most goals scored by a freshman (23), behind Sean Greenhalgh (39 in 2002), Matt Wise (29 in 1995), and Rob Pannell (25 in 2009).

* 2017 opponents in bold

FRESHMAN FOUR: Cornell started at least four freshmen in each of its final 11 games of the 2016 season. Dating back to the 2003 season, when the games-started statistic began to be kept regularly, the Big Red started four freshmen five times in a season just once – the final five games of the 2010 campaign. In that stretch, Cornell started Mike Bronzino (defense), Jason Noble (defense), AJ Fiore (goalie) and a combination that featured either Ross Gillum (midfield) or Steve Mock (attack).

BABY BIG RED: Of the 39 players that saw action during the 2016 season, more than one-third (15) were freshmen, including seven that started at least one game – Colton Rupp (13 starts – attack), Ryan Bray (11 starts – midfield), Clarke Petterson (10 starts – midfield), Anthony Teixeira (6 starts – attack), Zach Ward (5 starts – attack), Chad Otterman (3 starts – defense) and Jake McCulloch (1 start – midfield).

RECAPING 2016: One of the youngest teams in the nation, the Big Red finished the 2016 season with a 6-7 record overall (1-5 Ivy), with four of its seven losses coming to nationally ranked opponents. Cornell managed two upsets on the season, defeating No. 17 Virginia, and taking down No. 11 Syracuse in overtime for Cornell's first win over the Orange since 2012.

UP NEXT: Cornell will play its final regular season game and honor its senior class when it welcomes Princeton to Schoellkopf Field on Saturday, April 29 at 3 p.m.

Home Sweet Home

Cornell has enjoyed a true home field advantage since beginning play on Schoellkopf Field in 1972, going 233-83 for a .737 winning percentage. Cornell has been even more impressive since 2000:

2000	7-3
2001	3-2

2015	6-1
2016	2-4
2017	3-2
Total	100-29 (.775)

Double Digits

A key to the Big Red's success over the years has been reaching double-digits goals in a game. Since 2000, Cornell is 160-21 (88.4%) in games in which it has registered 10 goals or more.

2000	9-2
