STREAKS, STORYLINES & SIDEBARS

- The Cornell football team begins a pivotal three-game home stand when it welcomes Central New York rival Colgate to Schoellkopf Field on Saturday, Oct. 19 at 1:30 p.m.
- Barry Leonard and Buck Briggs '76 will be in the booth broadcasting on ESPN+.
- The Big Red will be looking to snap a three-game skid when it meets the 2018 Patriot League champions coming off an NCAA FCS quarterfinals appearance.
- The Big Red defense has been strong over its last five games dating back to last season, surrendering just 286.8 yards per game and 105.0 rushing yards on 2.7 yards per carry (192-525) over that stretch.
- Senior running back Harold Coles enters the weekend 151 yards from joining the school's top 10 in career rushing and is 26th nationally on the season at 91.8 yards per game.
- Cornell's seventh-ranked defense is allowing 296.0 yards per game, while Colgate is ranked 119th out of 124 in total offense (254.0 ypg.).
- The Raiders have struggled to an 0-7 record, but the preseason Patriot League favorite holds losses to Air Force out of the FBS and and FCS powers Villanova, William & Mary, Maine and unbeaten Dartmouth.

LOOKING FORWARD, LOOKING BACK

- This year's version of the Big Red returns 14 starters (six offense, eight defense), as well as its punter, placekicker, long-snapper and return specialists from a year ago.
- Cornell went 3-7 in 2018 with a pair of league losses to top-half teams by less than a touchdown (Yale, Columbia).
- The Big Red defeated Harvard for the second straight season for the first time since 1999 and 2000, and hammered previously unbeaten Sacred Heart at home, 43-24.
- Cornell rallied from a double-digit deficit at Brown for a 34-16 victory, the Big Red's first win in Providence, R.I. since 2002 and its first consecutive victories over the Bears since 1993 - before any current member of the team was born.
- Cornell's seven losses came against teams that sported a cumulative 53-21 record, including four to nationally ranked opponents (Colgate, Delaware, Princeton and Dartmouth).
- Colgate reached the national quarterfinals and Delaware earned a spot in the FCS Playoffs, while Princeton went undefeated (10-0) and joined fellow Ivy rival Dartmouth (9-1) in the final top 25 poll.
- Cornell also faced seven of the nation's top 20 defenses, but still had its most successful season running the ball since 2006 (156.1 yards per game).
- Six Big Red players earned All-Ivy honors, with Harold Coles (RB) and David Jones (CB) both finding a spot on the second team.

- The Cornell football team was picked to finish seventh in the Ivy League's annual preseason poll.
- For the fourth times in five seasons, the Big Red will look to surpass the prediction from the poll.
- After being picked to place eighth in 2017, the Big Red finished tied for fifth and entered November in the thick of the Ivy race for the first time since 2000.
- The Big Red was chosen to finish eighth in 2016, then started the year 3-0 and took sixth in the final league standings.
- The year before it was eighth in the poll and didn't end there either.
- The 2017 season saw Cornell climb to fifth in the Ivy standings at 3-4 and was in contention for the Ivy title in November for the first time since 2000.
- The team's three Ivy wins were the most since 2011 and tied for the best Ivy record by the program in more than a decade.
- With seven more wins, Cornell would reach 650 all-time (13th all-time in FCS history).
- With four consecutive wins at Schoellkopf Field to end its season, the Big Red would close out 300 all-time victories at the historic facility, the fourth-oldest FCS stadium (opened in 1915). Only Penn's Franklin Field (1895), Harvard Stadium (1903) and the Yale Bowl (1914) are older.

- The Big Red claimed at least a share of the 1915 (Helms Athletic Foundation, Houlgate System, National Championship Foundation and Parke Davis), 1921 (Helms, Houlgate, National Championship Foundation and Parke Davis), 1922 (Helms, Parke Davis), 1923 (Sagarin) and 1939 (Litkenhous, Sagarin) titles.
- Cornell is the only Ivy League school to be ranked No. 1 in the weekly Associated Press poll, holding the top ranking for three weeks (10/15-10/29) of the 1940 season.
- The No. 1 ranking ended with the historic "Fifth Down Game" against Dartmouth.
- Names such as Glenn "Pop" Warner and Heisman Trophy finalist and NCAA record breaker Ed Marinaro have suited up for Cornell, while seven College Football Hall of Famers (including Warner, Gil Dobie and Carl Snively) and multiple-time Super Bowl winner George Seifert have set the strategy as head coaches.
- The Big Red is involved in three of the top 20 most-played rivalries in the FCS.
- The Cornell-Penn series ranks fifth in most games played, a total that will reach 126 this season.
- The 106 meetings between Cornell and Columbia ranks 14th, while the Cornell-Dartmouth rivalries stand 19th with 102 games played.
- Right behind that is the series with Princeton (101 meetings) and Colgate (100 meetings), which sit right outside the top 20.
- The Cornell-Dartmouth and the Cornell-Penn series are the second-longest uninterrupted active series, as the teams have met every season since 1919, a span of 99 years.
- They trail only the Lafayette-Lehigh series, which has been played every year since 1897.
- Cornell was ranked as one of the top 100 football programs of all-time according to the Associated Press in a ranking released in August 2016.

- At No. 72, the Big Red ranked ahead of a number of Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) schools and second among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) programs.
- Only Penn (No. 66) placed higher among current FCS schools, while other Ivy League teams on the list included Dartmouth (No. 87), Yale (No. 90), Princeton (No. 81) and Columbia (No. 99).
- Cornell was involved in one of the most historic games in college football history, the "Fifth Down Game."
- Played on Nov. 16, 1940 in Hanover, N.H., the top-ranked Big Red improved to 6-0 with a 7-3 victory over Dartmouth, scoring on the game's final play.
- After reviewing game film on Monday, Coach Carl Snively and acting athletic director Robert J. Kane wired Dartmouth officials to tell them Cornell scored on an inadvertent fifth down.
- Though there were no rules compelling the outcome to be changed, in an unprecedented act of sportsmanship, the Big Red relinquished claims to the win.
- The Big Green accepted the forfeit, winning the contest 3-0.
- It remains the only time a collegiate sporting contest has been decided off the field after the completion of a game.

Schoellkopf At 104 Years Young

- Schoellkopf Field has been an indelible mark of Cornell football since it opened in 1915 and this year will be the 104th season at the home field.
- A gift from Willard Straight '01 and the family of Henry (Heinie) Schoellkopf '02 made the construction possible for the current stadium.
- The Big Red's first year on the field was one of its best, going 9-0 and winning the national championship.
- In 1915, General Electric Company completed work on a flood searchlight system for the field, and in 1924 a construction project was completed to bring capacity from 9,000 to 21,500 by adding the famed Crescent.
- In 1947 that capacity was increased to 25,597 and a press box was added.
- In 1971 a gift was made to put artificial turf on the field, and it was resurfaced three times, the last time in 1999.
- A new press box was built in 1986.
- The 2008 season saw installation of FieldTurf synthetic grass to replace the artificial turf.
- In 2016, the West Stands were demolished and the field was moved 15 feet toward the Crescent while replacing the FieldTurf to ready for more construction at the site, lowering the capacity to 21,500 in the process.

Schoellkopf Field Facts

- Schoellkopf Field is the fourth-oldest FCS stadium, opening in 1915. Only Penn's Franklin Field (1895), Harvard Stadium (1903) and the Yale Bowl (1914) are older.
- The playing area before World War I was Percy Field, alongside Fall Creek, the present site of Ithaca HS.
- The Big Red's all-time record at Schoellkopf Field is 296-189-15 (.607).

GAME 1 CORNELL 21, MARIST 7

Sept. 21, 2019 Tenney Stadium Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- Marist was limited to two rushing yards, including none in five cracks inside the 1 yard line with goal to go, and Cornell opened its 2019 season with a defensive-minded 21-7 victory at Tenney Stadium.
- The Big Red defense held Marist to 220 yards of offense and eight first downs while controlling the ball for 40:06 as Cornell won its first season opener since 2016 and by its largest margin since topping Bucknell 45-13 - exactly six years to the date in head coach David Archer's coaching debut.
- Only some first-game miscues allowed Marist to stay in the game, especially after Cornell jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter.
- The Big Red turned the ball over three times and gave up a short field on numerous occasions, but the defense bailed them out a number of times.
- Senior captain Jelani Taylor had a team-best six tackles and a tackle for loss, while David Jones had five stops, 1.5 tackles for a loss, three pass breakups and an interception to lead the way.
- Nathaniel Weber, a senior making his first collegiate start, notched five tackles and 1.5 sacks in the win.
- The offense piled up 419 yards, including 263 on the ground, and moved the chains 21 times while grinding it out on a humid first day out, converting all three fourth down attempts in much the same way the defense stopped all four of Marist's.
- Harold Coles recorded his sixth career 100-yard rushing game with 127 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries, while Mike Catanese added 79 yards and two scores.
- He also completed 15-of-20 passes for 130 yards.
- John Fitzgerald led eight receivers with at least a catch with a pair of receptions for 46 yards.
- Coles moved into the school's top 20 in career rushing and ended the day with 1,360 career yards.
- Cornell is 10-3 when out-rushing its opponent under head coach David Archer '05.
- David Jones' eighth career interception moves him within one of reaching the top 10 in school history.
- Cornell last had 40 minutes in time of possession in 2017 when it defeated Brown 34-7 with 40:19 holding the ball.
- The two rushing yards allowed is the fewest by a Big Red defense in a game since allowing Yale zero (on 28 carries) on Sept. 27, 2008.

GAME 2 YALE 27, CORNELL 16

Sept. 28, 2019 The Yale Bowl New Haven, Conn.

GAME NOTES

- Heading into the final quarter tied at 10-10, Cornell felt like it had the momentum to topple preseason Ivy League favorite Yale on the road for the first time in a decade.
- The final 15 minutes, however, belonged to the opportunistic Bulldogs in a 27-16 victory over the Big Red at the Yale Bowl.
- Yale took advantage of four Big Red turnovers, including a touchdown return for an interception, and scored its final touchdown on an on-sides kickoff return touchdown in the final minutes to balloon the final score.
- Despite that, Cornell out-gained the Bulldogs (339-327) and had its chances to win the game before Yale took control.
- The defense forced one turnover, limited a powerful Yale rushing attack to 3.3 yards per carry and stopped the home team on 9-of-14 third downs, along with a fourth down stop.
- Junior Kenan Clarke had his first career interception in the fourth quarter to keep Cornell alive, while David Jones, Jelani Taylor and Jake Watkins each had a team-best seven tackles.
- Senior Mo Bradford had a pair of tackles for loss, including a half-sack, and broke up a pass.
- On offense, senior Harold Coles tied a career high with 141 rushing yards on 17 carries, while sophomore Delonte Harrell caught six passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns, the first of his career.
- Richie Kenney completed 14-of-28 passes for 210 yards and the two scores, including an 89-yard strike to Harrell in the third quarter to put the visitors into the lead.
- In all, seven different receivers combined for the 14 catches.
- Nickolas Null made his first appearance of the season at punter, averaging 48.0 yards on four kicks with a long of 56 and two pinned inside the 20 and another at the 21.
- Garrett Patla's first career field goal late in the second quarter sent the game into the break tied at 3-3.
- Zane Dudek had 91 yards on 24 carries and Kurt Rawlings was 15-of-21 for 181 yards and a touchdown for the Bulldogs.
- Both Dathan Hickey and Rodney Thomas II had a pair of interceptions to lead the defense, with Micah Awodiran collecting a game-high 10 tackles.

GAME 3 GEORGETOWN 14, CORNELL 8

Oct. 5, 2019 Schoellkopf Field Ithaca, N.Y.

GAME NOTES

- Harold Coles' rushing touchdown to close out the third quarter helped the Cornell football team draw even against a tough Georgetown squad, but the Hoyas pulled back ahead for good on a touchdown with 5:43 on the clock to spoil the Big Red's Homecoming game with a 14-8 victory at Schoellkopf Field.
- Once again, the Cornell defense turned in a staunch effort, holding Georgetown to 117 yards on the ground and 301 overall.
- Freshman linebacker Jake Stebbins led the way with 10 tackles and a sack.
- The Big Red defense also had a hand in setting up the team's scoring drive by pinning the Hoyas deep in their own territory before forcing a punt and a short field for the offense.
- Two plays later, Coles' 20-yard rush up the middle was followed by a Mike Catanese completion to John Fitzgerald, setting up Cornell in the red zone.
- Two Catanese keepers – the second on fourth down – were needed to get one yard and set up first-and-goal from the 5, then Coles rumbled in with zeroes on the game clock to cut Cornell's deficit to 8-6.
- Delonte Harrell took a pitch and beat everyone to the right pylon for the two-point conversion, knotting the teams at 8-8 heading into the final 15 minutes.
- Neither team got out of its own territory for the first half of the fourth quarter, but a 23-yard punt return by Joshua Tomas set up Georgetown at its own 47 with 6:29 to play.
- Three plays later from the Cornell 39, Gunther Johnson unfurled a deep pass up the middle to a wide-open Cameron Crayton – but the ball was underthrown.
- Crayton slowed down and the ball went just beyond the fingertips of a retreating defender, then he scampered into the end zone for the game-deciding score.
- Coles led the Big Red rushing attack with 65 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries.
- Catanese ended his day 15-of-22 passing for 112 yards, hitting seven different receivers.
- Senior punter Nickolas Null averaged 42.9 yards on eight punts with three downed inside the 20.
- Six different defensive players had at least five tackles, the defense had seven tackles for loss and three sacks and caused a turnover.
