

Cornell Team Awards

Dr. Ray Van Orman Memorial Award ~ Team MVP ~

The Cornell Lacrosse Club Most Valuable Player Award was renamed the Dr. Ray Van Orman Memorial Award in 1984. The award, presented to the squad's MVP, is given in memory of Dr. Van Orman, an outstanding lacrosse coach at Cornell from 1940-49. It was instituted by John Bratten (Class of 1947), who served as a manager of the team under Van Orman.

John W. "Jay" Gallagher Memorial Scholarship

Given by his friends to a needy upperclassman who best exemplifies Jay Gallagher's sense of humor, vitality and dedication to life. John W. "Jay" Gallagher '74 had a memorable association with Cornell and its lacrosse team and it was with much sadness that members of the community heard of his death on Jan. 9, 1992. An assistant lacrosse coach for the Big Red from 1980-85, Jay was a three-year defenseman at Cornell, captaining the team as a senior when the Red, ranked third in the country, went 12-2 and advanced to the NCAA semifinals. Jay was also a first-team All-Ivy player and participated in the 1974 North/South All-Star game.
