PUCK DROP

The Cornell women's hockey team plays its final exhibition before the 2022-23 regular season begins next week, hosting Concordia this afternoon at Lynah Rink.

ECAC PRESEASON POLL

During ECAC's annual media day, Cornell was picked to finish sixth in the preseason poll, the conference announced Sept. 14.

Colgate was selected the preseason favorite after receiving six of the 11 possible first-place votes. The Raiders finished with a conference-best 115 points. Yale, who received three first-place votes, was picked second with 98 points, and Princeton ended with 97 points and one first-place selection. Quinnipiac had the fourth-most points (92 points), while Clarkson received the last first-place vote, finishing with 86 points, good for fifth. Cornell (73), Harvard (67), St. Lawrence (60), Brown (33), RPI (30), Dartmouth (27), and Union (14) rounded out the preseason voting.

GUILDAY NAMED TO PRESEASON TEAM

Sophomore RORY GUILDAY was one of two defensemen named to the All-ECAC Hockey preseason team during the conference's annual media day on Sept. 14.

Guilday had a strong freshman year for the Big Red last season. In 29 games, the 5-foot-11 defender logged 18 points (seven goals, 11 assists) while blocking 74 shots, which was second on the team, trailing ASHLEY MESSIER's team-high 78 blocks.

BIG RED RANKS IN TOP 15

Cornell has remained in the top 15 of both the DCU/USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls through the first five weeks of action, despite not having played any regular-season contests.

The Big Red opened the season ranked No. 12 in both polls before jumping up to as high as No. 10 in both the DCU/USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls.

Of the top 15 teams currently ranked, Cornell is currently scheduled to play eight of the remaining 14 programs. Two of the teams (Ohio State — No. 1 — and Northeastern — No. 3) are ranked inside the top 5.

GUILDAY EARNS SILVER

Sophomore defenseman RORY GUILDAY earned a silver medal for Team USA at the 2022 IIHF Women's World Championships in Denmark last month.

On the other side of the gold medal game, BRIANNE JENNER '13 scored twice in a span of 1:24 to aid the Canadians to its second consecutive and 12th overall gold medal. Fellow former Big Red players, MICAH ZANDEE-HART '20 and KRISTIN O'NEILL '20, aided the Canadians to the tournament win.

Guilday appeared in all seven games for Team USA, logging a goal and three assists.

It was Guilday's second time representing the United States at the national level, but the first time with the senior team. Guilday played for Team USA at the IIHF Women's Under-18 Championships in 2020 in Bratislava, Slovakia.

BIG RED QUARTET EARN GOLD

Four of Cornell's six incoming freshmen won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2022 IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championships in Madison, Wis., this past June.

Forwards AVI ADAM and MCKENNA VAN GELDER, along with defensemen SARAH MacEACHERN and ALYSSA REGALADO helped the Canadians to a 3-2 victory over Team USA in the gold medal game.

van Gelder logged a goal and two assists in Canada's six contests. MacEachern also had a pair of assists while appearing in all games. Regalado logged one point, which came on a goal in a 7-0 victory over Slovakia in its quarterfinal round matchup.

RETURNING POWER

 Cornell is returning majority of its offense from last year's team as 18 players who registered at least one game played last year are back for the Big Red.

 Just over 94 percent of the Big Red's total offense from last year is back, returning 179 of its 190 points from the 2021-22 campaign. Nearly 92 percent of Cornell's goal scoring from last year (67 of 73 goals) return, including both of the Cornell's double-digit scorers in LILY DELIANEDIS (14) and GILLIS FRECHETTE (12).

 Frechette, who led the team with her 40 points (12 goals, 28 assists), is one of the top nine scorers from last year who are back for the Big Red in 2022-23. The others on the list include Delianedis, IZZY DANIEL, RORY GUILDAY, KAITLIN JOCKIMS, ASHLEY MESSIER, LEAH MACSWEEN, GABBIE RUD, and CLAUDIA YU.

 Every player who scored a game-winning goal for Cornell last year is back, while 14 of the Big Red's 16 goals scored on the power play are also returning.

LEADERSHIP GROUP ANNOUNCED

 Cornell will deploy tri-captains for the upcoming season, as seniors GILLIS FRECHETTE and IZZY DANIEL, along with sophomore ASHLEY MESSIER, have been named the captains for the 2022-23 season.

 Frechette and Daniel were two of four alternate captains for last year's squad, which was captained by then fifth-year goaltender LINDSAY BROWNING.

LYNAH FAITHFUL

 Cornell has excelled at playing in front of the fans at Lynah Rink, who are deemed the Lynah Faithful, over the last 12-plus seasons. The Big Red have had at least a .500 win percentage at home in 11 of the past 12 seasons of competition, posting an overall record of 158-39-16 in that span.

 Since the 2009-10 season, Cornell's .779 win percentage on home ice ranks as the third-highest by a Division I program in that span. The Big Red trail perennial powers Wisconsin and Minnesota.

 The Big Red's .779 win percentage is the highest by a current ECAC program, with the closest program to Cornell being Clarkson, who ranks fifth nationally with its .772 win percentage (177-43-26).

EXHIBITION HISTORY

Cornell is playing its final exhibition of the season tonight. The Big Red's 6-0 victory over McGill last Friday was the program's first exhibition since Oct. 14, 2018 when defeating the National Women's Hockey League's (NWHL) Buffalo Beauts, 5-2, at Lynah Rink. Four Cornell players (MADDIE MILLS, KRISTIN O'NEILL, LENKA SERDAR, and DIANA BUCKLEY) logged two-points nights in the victory.

Cornell has won its last eight exhibitions and are 16-2-1 all-time record in exhibitions under head coach DOUG DERRAUGH.

The last time Cornell and Concordia squared off was during the 2003-04 season, when the Big Red played in a tournament in Montréal, hosted by Concordia.

WELCOME HOME!

Former Cornell defenseman, and current Concordia assistant coach, LAURIANE ROUGEAU '13 returns to Lynah Rink on Saturday.

Rougeau is in her second stint as an assistant coach with the Stingers, after spending time as an assistant coach during the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons.

During her time on East Hill, Rougeau garnered plethora of accolades. The Beaconsfield, Quebec, native was a First Team All-ECAC Hockey and Second Team All-American in all four years with the Big Red. She was also ECAC Hockey's Best Defensive Defenseman (2011, 2012, 2013) and First Team All-Ivy League on three occasions (2010, 2012, 2013). A four-time Patty Kazmaier Award nominee, Rougeau was also named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team in 2010.

Rougeau has played an integral role with the Canadian National Team, during and after her time with the Big Red. The left-shot defenseman played in five consecutive IIHF Women's World Championships (2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017) and participated in two Olympic Games (2014 in Sochi and 2018 in PyeongChang). In Rougeau's trophy case, she has one Olympic gold medal and one IIHF Women's World gold medal, to go along with four Women's World silver medals and one silver Olympic medal.

In addition to her assistant coaching duties, Rougeau is currently in her fourth year playing in the PWHPA (Professional Women's Hockey Players Association).

DOUG DERRAUGH '91

The Everett Family Head Coach of Women's Ice Hockey 18th season as Head Coach

Derraugh brings a 309-166-47 record into the 2022-23 season as he begins his 18th season as the head coach of the Big Red, the program's longest-tenured head coach. During his time on East Hill, Derraugh has built Cornell into an perennial contender on both the league and national stages.

The pinnacle of that ascent, so far, was a remarkable 2019-20 season that ended in unprecedented heartbreak, when the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancelation of the NCAA Tournament which featured Cornell as the top overall seed for the first time in program history following a 28-2-3 record. It also marked the first time the Big Red ended both ECAC Hockey (19-0-3) and Ivy League (10-0) seasons undefeated, boasting a national-best goals-against average of just 0.94. Then-junior goaltender, LINDSAY BROWNING, was the program's first netminder to earn All-America status as Cornell advanced to the ECAC Hockey championship game for the ninth time in 11 seasons.

Derraugh helped lead the Big Red back to the Women's Frozen Four for a fourth time to culminate a 2018-19 season that ended with a 24-6-6 record – highlighted by dramatic postseason performances. MICAH ZANDEE-HART '20 scored the double-overtime winner over Princeton in the league semifinals, and then-freshman GILLIS FRECHETTE lifted the Big Red through the first round of the NCAA Tournament with a breakaway goal in overtime against Northeastern.

The Big Red's current prominence is a far cry from when Derraugh took the helm for the 2005-06 season, when he inherited a program that was coming off a 3-23-3 campaign. By 2009-10, the fruits of Derraugh's labors took the Big Red to new heights with a stunning run to the national championship game. That proved to be just the tip of the iceberg.

Including that run, Cornell posted five consecutive 20-win seasons – including all four of the Big Red's ECAC Hockey championships. Cornell has won six league regular-season titles and seven Ivy League crowns under Derraugh. For his efforts, Derraugh is a five-time ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year, three-time AHCA Division I National Coach of the Year, and the USCHO Division I National Coach of the Year on one occasion.

Concurrent to his time at Cornell, Derraugh has also served in some capacity with Hockey Canada since the 2012 IIHF Women's Worlds. He most recently served as an assistant coach at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, China, where the Canadians won gold. He also helped the Canadians in their championship run at the 2021 IIHF Women's Worlds in Calgary. On Aug. 31, Canada won their first title since 2012 after passing the United States in a 3-2 overtime thriller. Along with Derraugh, five Cornell alumnae were also members of Team Canada (REBECCA JOHNSTON '12, BRIANNE JENNER '15, JILL SAULNIER '15, JAIME BOURBONNAIS '20, and KRISTIN O'NEILL '20). LENKA SERDAR '19 (Czech Republic) and SARAH KNEE '18 (Hungary) also competed in the 2021 Women's Worlds.

Derraugh's roots at Cornell go back to his own playing days, when he racked up 153 points on 66 goals and 87 assists with the Big Red's men's team. He then played professionally in Europe for 13 years before returning to Ithaca to assume his current role.

A native of Arnprior, Ontario, Derraugh graduated from Cornell in 1991 with a degree in biological sciences. He and his wife, Louise, who serves as the team's director of operations, have three children.

EDITH RACINE

Fourth Season as Associate Head Coach

14th Season at Cornell

Racine enters her fourth season as the Associate Head Coach of the Cornell women's hockey team. The 2022-23 season will be Racine's 14th overall season with the Big Red program since joining the coaching staff prior to the 2009-10 season. Instrumental in developing the Big Red's goalkeepers, during Racine's first season as an Associate Head Coach, she helped coach Lindsay Browning to become the first-ever Cornell goalie to earn All-America honors and to finish in the top-10 for the Patty Kazmaier trophy. That year, Browning led the nation in goals-against average (0.91), shutouts (12), and win percentage (.894). Browning's .952 save percentage was second, only behind Northeastern's Aerin Frankel. Prior to arriving on East Hill, Racine spent two seasons at ECAC Hockey and Ivy League rival, Brown, serving as a volunteer assistant in 2007-08 before being promoted to a full-time assistant coach for the 2008-09 campaign. Racine also spent six summers as the head goaltending instructor at the Elite Hockey Camp in Hanover, N.H. At the collegiate level, Racine spent four seasons at Elmira College, where she guided the Eagles to a pair of national titles and a national runner-up finish. Racine was a two-time All-American by the American Collegiate Hockey Association.

TIM CROWLEY

First Season as Assistant Coach

Crowley joined the Cornell women's hockey coaching staff in September 2022 after spending the last 10 years on the Elmira women's hockey team coaching staff, spending the last six as head coach. Crowley directed Elmira to a 127-21-10 record over six seasons and a remarkable 88-4-3 conference record to become the winningest coach in program history. Discounting the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, the Soaring Eagles won four consecutive United Collegiate Hockey Conference (UCHC) regular-season and tournament titles before capturing the 2021-22 New England Hockey Conference (NEHC) regular season and tournament titles. Elmira qualified for the NCAA Division III Championships each season. As interim head coach in 2016-17, Crowley's team went 14-2-2 and was runner-up at the ECAC West Tournament before making its fifth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament. He then guided Elmira to the inaugural UCHC regular-season and tournament titles, and a runner-up finish in the NCAA title game in 2017-18. Elmira won at least 22 games in four of the next five seasons, going 13-1 during the COVID-interrupted 2020-21 campaign. Before taking over the women's program, Crowley spent four years as an assistant men's coach. During his time on the bench, Crowley helped guide the Soaring Eagles to the program's 10th ECAC West Title and had one player receive ACHA All-American accolades.
