PUCK DROP

The Cornell women's hockey team returns to Lynah Rink for its first pair of home ECAC Hockey games against St. Lawrence and Clarkson at Lynah Rink this weekend in front of the Lynah Faithful.

LAST SERIES REWIND

Cornell split the opening weekend of its ECAC Hockey slate, falling to then-No. 7 Quinnipiac, 4-1, before beating then-No. 10 Princeton by an 3-1 score.

Freshman forward MCKENNA VAN GELDER scored twice in the victory over the Tigers, while senior forward GILLIS FRECHETTE and sophomore defenseman RORY GUILDAY each registered two-assist games.

Sophomore goaltender DEANNA FRASER was strong between the pipes for the Big Red, stopping 53 of 57 shots she faced on the weekend, good for a .930 save percentage.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK, AGAIN!

For the second consecutive week, Cornell had a pair of players earn weekly awards from ECAC Hockey.

Sophomore defenseman RORY GUILDAY and freshman forward MCKENNA VAN GELDER were this week's recipients of Defender and Rookie of the Week, respectively.

Guilday logged her pair of assists on the week in the victory over Princeton and blocked six shots in the pair of games.

Van Gelder scored the first two goals of her collegiate career last Saturday at Princeton, with the latter turning out to be the game-winning goal. The Etobicoke, Ontario, native also blocked three shots on the weekend.

Senior forward GILLIS FRECHETTE (Forward) and freshman defenseman ALYSSA REGALADO (Co-Rookie) were the Cornell players that received honors from the conference for their efforts in the Big Red's season-opening sweep of Mercyhurst.

LYNAH FAITHFUL

Cornell has excelled at playing in front of the fans at Lynah Rink, who are deemed the Lynah Faithful, over the last 12-plus seasons. The Big Red have had at least a .500 win percentage at home in 11 of the past 12-plus seasons of competition, posting an overall record of 160-39-16 in that span.

Since the 2009-10 season, Cornell's .781 win percentage on home ice ranks as the third-highest by a Division I program in that span. The Big Red trail perennial powers Wisconsin and Minnesota

The Big Red's .781 win percentage is the highest by a current ECAC program, with the closest program to Cornell being Clarkson, who ranks fourth nationally with its .775 win percentage (180-43-26).

GUILDAY, DERRAUGH TO RIVALRY SERIES

 Sophomore defenseman RORY GUILDAY and DOUG DERRAUGH '91, the Everett Family Head Coach of Women's Hockey, will face each other later this month in the Rivalry Series between the Canadian and American Women's National Teams.

 Guilday, who appeared with Team USA in September at the IIHF Women's World Championships in Denmark, will be one of six collegiate players on Team USA in the series. Joining Guilday from the collegiate ranks are Ohio State's Gabby Rosenthal and Riley Brengman, Minnesota State's Kelsey King, Northeastern's Maureen Murphy, and Clarkson's Haley Winn.

 Derraugh, who was named to the Canadian Women's National Team coaching staff on Oct. 19, will be behind the bench for Team Canada when play begins on Nov. 15 in Kelowna, British Columbia. Other dates include Nov. 17 in Kamloops, British Columbia, and Nov. 20 in Seattle at Climate Pledge Arena, home of the NHL's Seattle Kraken.

ECAC PRESEASON POLL

 During ECAC's annual media day, Cornell was picked to finish sixth in the preseason poll, the conference announced Sept. 14.

 Colgate was selected the preseason favorite after receiving six of the 11 possible first-place votes. The Raiders finished with a conference-best 115 points.

 Yale, who received three first-place votes, was picked second with 98 points, and Princeton ended with 97 points and one first-place selection. Quinnipiac had the fourth-most points (92 points), while Clarkson received the last first-place vote, finishing with 86 points, good for fifth.

 Cornell (73 points), Harvard (67), St. Lawrence (60), Brown (33), RPI (30), Dartmouth (27), and Union (14) rounded out the preseason voting.

GUILDAY NAMED TO PRESEASON TEAM

 Sophomore RORY GUILDAY was one of two defensemen named to the All-ECAC Hockey preseason team during the conference's annual media day on Sept. 14.

 Guilday had a strong freshman year for the Big Red last season. In 29 games, the 5-foot-11 defender logged 18 points (seven goals, 11 assists) while blocking 74 shots, which was second on the team, trailing ASHLEY MESSIER's team-high 78 blocks.

GUILDAY EARNS SILVER

 Sophomore defenseman RORY GUILDAY earned a silver medal for Team USA at the 2022 IIHF Women's World Championships in Denmark in September.

 On the other side of the gold medal game, BRIANNE JENNER '13, MICAH ZANDEE-HART '20 and KRISTIN O'NEILL '20, aided the Canadians to the tournament win.

 Guilday was the lone active Big Red player at the Women's Worlds, but was one of five players with a Cornell connection to participate in the tournament. Joining Guilday, Jenner, Zandee-Hart, and O'Neill, was SARAH KNEE '18, who represented Team Hungary.

REPRESENTING ECAC WELL

After opening the season ranked No. 12 team in the DCU/USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, Cornell has remained among the top 15 in all seven polls this year.

In the most recent iteration, Cornell slightly fell in the ranking to No. 9 in the DCU/USCHO.com poll, while remaining steady at No. 9 in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine poll.

Cornell is currently one of six ECAC Hockey programs ranked among the top 15 programs in both the DCU/USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls. Harvard and St. Lawrence are ECAC programs currently receiving votes in both polls.

BIG RED QUARTET EARN GOLD

Four of Cornell's six incoming freshmen won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2022 IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championships in Madison, Wis., this past June.

Forwards AVI ADAM and MCKENNA VAN GELDER, along with defensemen SARAH MACEachern and ALYSSA REGALADO helped the Canadians to a 3-2 victory over Team USA in the gold medal game.

Van Gelder logged a goal and two assists in Canada's six contests. MacEachern also had a pair of assists while appearing in all games. Regalado logged one point, which came on a goal in a 7-0 victory over Slovakia in its quarterfinal round matchup.

RETURNING POWER

Cornell is returning just over 94 percent of its scoring production from last year as 179 of its 190 points are back from the 2021-22 campaign. Nearly 92 percent of its goal scoring from last year (67 of 73 goals) are back, including both of the Cornell's double-digit scorers (LILY DELIANEDIS – 14; GILLIS FRECHETTE – 12).

LEADERSHIP GROUP ANNOUNCED

Cornell will deploy tri-captains for the upcoming season, as seniors GILLIS FRECHETTE and IZZY DANIEL, along with sophomore ASHLEY MESSIER, have been named the captains for the 2022-23 season.

Frechette and Daniel were two of four alternate captains for last year's squad, which was captained by then fifth-year goaltender LINDSAY BROWNING.

DOUG DERRAUGH '91

The Everett Family Head Coach of Women's Ice Hockey 18th season as Head Coach

Derraugh brings a 309-166-47 record into the 2022-23 season as he begins his 18th season as the head coach of the Big Red, the program's longest-tenured head coach. During his time on East Hill, Derraugh has built Cornell into an perennial contender on both the league and national stages.

The pinnacle of that ascent, so far, was a remarkable 2019-20 season that ended in unprecedented heartbreak, when the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the NCAA Tournament which featured Cornell as the top overall seed for the first time in program history following a 28-2-3 record. It also marked the first time the Big Red ended both ECAC Hockey (19-0-3) and Ivy League (10-0) seasons undefeated, boasting a national-best goals-against average of just 0.94. Then-junior goaltender, LINDSAY BROWNING, was the program's first netminder to earn All-America status as Cornell advanced to the ECAC Hockey championship game for the ninth time in 11 seasons.

Derraugh helped lead the Big Red back to the Women's Frozen Four for a fourth time to culminate a 2018-19 season that ended with a 24-6-6 record – highlighted by dramatic postseason performances. MICAH ZANDEE-HART '20 scored the double-overtime winner over Princeton in the league semifinals, and then-freshman GILLIS FRECHETTE lifted the Big Red through the first round of the NCAA Tournament with a breakaway goal in overtime against Northeastern.

The Big Red's current prominence is a far cry from when Derraugh took the helm for the 2005-06 season, when he inherited a program that was coming off a 3-23-3 campaign. By 2009-10, the fruits of Derraugh's labors took the Big Red to new heights with a stunning run to the national championship game. That proved to be just the tip of the iceberg.

Including that run, Cornell posted five consecutive 20-win seasons – including all four of the Big Red's ECAC Hockey championships. Cornell has won six league regular-season titles and seven Ivy League crowns under Derraugh. For his efforts, Derraugh is a five-time ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year, three-time AHCA Division I National Coach of the Year, and the USCHO Division I National Coach of the Year on one occasion.

Concurrent to his time at Cornell, Derraugh has also served in some capacity with Hockey Canada since the 2012 IIHF Women's Worlds. He most recently served as an assistant coach at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, China, where the Canadians won gold. He also helped the Canadians in their championship run at the 2021 IIHF Women's Worlds in Calgary. On Aug. 31, Canada won their first title since 2012 after passing the United States in a 3-2 overtime thriller. Along with Derraugh, five Cornell alumnae were also members of Team Canada (REBECCA JOHNSTON '12, BRIANNE JENNER '15, JILL SAULNIER '15, JAIME BOURBONNAIS '20, and KRISTIN O'NEILL '20). LENKA SERDAR '19 (Czech Republic) and SARAH KNEE '18 (Hungary) also competed in the 2021 Women's Worlds.

Derraugh's roots at Cornell go back to his own playing days, when he racked up 153 points on 66 goals and 87 assists with the Big Red's men's team. He then played professionally in Europe for 13 years before returning to Ithaca to assume his current role.

A native of Arnprior, Ontario, Derraugh graduated from Cornell in 1991 with a degree in biological sciences. He and his wife, Louise, who serves as the team's director of operations, have three children.

EDITH RACINE

Fourth Season as Associate Head Coach

14th Season at Cornell

Racine enters her fourth season as the Associate Head Coach of the Cornell women's hockey team. The 2022-23 season will be Racine's 14th overall season with the Big Red program since joining the coaching staff prior to the 2009-10 season. Instrumental in developing the Big Red's goalkeepers, during Racine's first season as an Associate Head Coach, she helped coach LINDSAY BROWNING to become the first-ever Cornell goalie to earn All-America honors and to finish in the top-10 for the Patty Kazmaier trophy. That year, Browning led the nation in goals-against average (0.91), shutouts (12), and win percentage (.894). Browning's .952 save percentage was second, only behind Northeastern's Aerin Frankel. Prior to arriving on East Hill, Racine spent two seasons at ECAC Hockey and Ivy League rival, Brown, serving as a volunteer assistant in 2007-08 before being promoted to a full-time assistant coach for the 2008-09 campaign. Racine also spent six summers as the head goaltending instructor at the Elite Hockey Camp in Hanover, N.H. At the collegiate level, Racine spent four seasons at Elmira College, where she guided the Eagles to a pair of national titles and a national runner-up finish. Racine was a two-time All-American by the American Collegiate Hockey Association.

TIM CROWLEY

First Season as Assistant Coach

Crowley joined the Cornell women's hockey coaching staff in September 2022 after spending the last 10 years on the Elmira women's hockey team coaching staff, spending the last six as head coach. Crowley directed Elmira to a 127-21-10 record over six seasons and a remarkable 88-4-3 conference record to become the winningest coach in program history. Discounting the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, the Soaring Eagles won four consecutive United Collegiate Hockey Conference (UCHC) regular-season and tournament titles before capturing the 2021-22 New England Hockey Conference (NEHC) regular season and tournament titles. Elmira qualified for the NCAA Division III Championships each season. As interim head coach in 2016-17, Crowley's team went 14-2-2 and was runner-up at the ECAC West Tournament before making its fifth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament. He then guided Elmira to the inaugural UCHC regular-season and tournament titles, and a runner-up finish in the NCAA title game in 2017-18. Elmira won at least 22 games in four of the next five seasons, going 13-1 during the COVID-interrupted 2020-21 campaign. Before taking over the women's program, Crowley spent four years as an assistant men's coach. During his time on the bench, Crowley helped guide the Soaring Eagles to the program's 10th ECAC West Title and had one player receive ACHA All-American accolades.
