STREAKS, STORYLINES & SIDEBARS

- The Cornell football team will celebrate Homecoming 2022 when Yale comes to town on Saturday, Sept. 24 at 2 p.m. at Schoellkopf Field.
- The game will be broadcast on ESPN+ with Barry Leonard and Buck Briggs '76 on the call.
- Cornell won its 2022 opener last weekend with an impressive 28-22 victory over a VMI team ranked in each of the past two seasons from the powerful Southern Conference.
- The Big Red led 28-2 in the fourth quarter and held on for the victory behind a strong defensive performance that included limiting the Keydets to -2 rushing yards on 25 carries.
- It was the fewest yards allowed in a game by a Big Red defense since surrendering -5 yards (on 28 carries) at Columbia on Nov. 15, 1986.
- The Big Red had six sacks and nine tackles for loss in the victory.
- On offense, a new-look offensive line gave up just one sack and senior William Enneking became the first Cornell tight end to catch multiple touchdown passes in the same game with a pair of 3-yard scoring receptions.
- Cornell will search for win No. 650 in program history (15th program in FCS history to reach that mark) against the FCS's all-time leader in wins in the Bulldogs.
- A Homecoming crowd will also cheer for the Big Red as it searches for its 450th win in Ithaca dating back to a 26-0 shutout triumph over Palmyra on Oct. 16, 1888 at the Old Grounds.

LOOKING FORWARD, LOOKING BACK

- The Big Red finished the 2019 season with a 2-8 overall record (1-6 Ivy).
- Four of its losses came to nationally ranked opponents and three others came by a touchdown or less.
- The Big Red's wins over Colgate (first win on a Friday since defeating Manhattan Athletic Club on Nov. 18, 1892) and Penn (first victory for the Trustees' Cup since 2013) were both memorable victories.
- Its last win at home on a day other than Saturday came on Monday, Oct. 9, 1916 vs. Gettysburg. The 26-0 Big Red win was the seventh game ever played on Schoellkopf Field.
- Cornell is dealing with the departure of 46 letter winners, 21 starters and five all-league players from 2021 due to graduation, with a number of those players competing at the BCS and FCS level as graduate transfers.
- Among the losses are second-team All-American offensive lineman Hunter Nourzad (Penn State) and linemates Jack Burns (Duke) and Will Swope (Buffalo), all-league corner Michael Irons (Tarleton State), starting safety Eric Diggs and running back Devon Brewer (Stetson), kick returner Eric Gallman (Duke), safety Isiah Hogan (Cal Poly) and wide receiver Curtis Raymond III (TCU).
- In addition, corner Kenan Clarke is playing in the CFL after being a sixth-round pick of Edmonton in 2021.

- The 2020 season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- This year's version of the Big Red returns six position starters (two offense, four defense), as well as its punt returner (Thomas Glover) from 2021.
- Returning to the roster is first-team All-Ivy League picks Thomas Glover (WR) and Jake Stebbins (LB).
- The next win for Cornell will allow it to reach 650 all-time (15th all-time in FCS history).

A WIN OVER YALE WOULD...

- be the 650th in program history (13th-most in the Football Championship Subdivision).
- be the 450th all-time for the Big Red in Ithaca (nine on the Old Grounds, 136 at Percy Field, 304 at Schoellkopf Field).
- give the Big Red a 2-0 record for the first time since 2016 and the 68th time in program history (out of 134 seasons).
- narrow Yale's lead in the all-time series to 51-31-2 and snap a four-game Bulldogs' win streak.
- improve Cornell's mark in Ivy openers to 29-35-2.
- give Cornell a 105-67-5 (.607) record all-time in the month of September.
- make the Big Red 12-5 all-time on the date of September 24 with two straight wins.

NOTES FROM THE LAST MEETING WITH YALE

- The last time Cornell scored a pair of touchdowns in the span of 75 seconds was during a 2013 game at Monmouth when Jeff Mathews scored on a 1-yard run with 3:50 remaining before halftime, then hit Grant Gellatly with a 15-yard touchdown pass 1:14 later.
- Along with a safety at 5:44, Cornell scored 16 points over the span of 3:08 in that game.
- The 14 penalties called against Yale are the most by a Big Red opponent since the Bulldogs also had 14 in 2017, while the 144 yards flagged are the most ever against Cornell, surpassing the 140 that went against Syracuse in 1958.
- The Big Red defense limited Yale to 88 rushing yards, the fewest surrendered by Cornell in New Haven since the Bulldogs posted 61 yards on 38 carries in 1980.
- Senior Curtis Raymond III had a game-high 80 receiving yards after entering the contest with one catch for 17 yards for his career.
- Senior Ben Mays threw for 104 yards and a touchdown off the bench, the first Big Red quarterback to throw for more than 100 yards with a touchdown as a reserve since D.J. Busch had 112 yards and a score behind Ryan Kuhn in a 2004 matchup with Princeton, a 21-20 Big Red win.

NOTES FROM VMI GAME

- Cornell is the first team to defeat a current member of the Southern Conference since Columbia knocked off VMI 26-7 on Oct. 28, 1939. It is the first-ever win by an Ivy school on the road against a Southern Conference opponent.
- The last time Cornell limited an opponent to negative rushing yards was on Nov. 5, 2005 when Dartmouth managed -1 yards on 20 carries.
- Cornell improved to 94-36-4 all-time in season openers, including 4-5 under head coach David Archer '05.
- The win was the Big Red's fifth straight on the date of September 17.
- Though VMI made a valiant fourth quarter comeback, the Big Red now sports a 432-42-4 mark when entering the fourth quarter with a lead (.908).
- Coupled with last season's 34-20 win over Colgate, Cornell has now won consecutive non-conference games for the first time since 2016 when captured road games against both Bucknell and Colgate.
- Despite four new starters on the offensive line, Cornell surrendered just one sack - and has now allowed just 11 total in its past 13 games dating back to 2019.
- The team's nine tackles for loss is the most in a non-conference game since also recording nine at Delaware in 2017.
- The six sacks in the most against a non-league opponent since registering eight against Wagner in 2011.
- It is the third time since 2019 and fourth time since 2017 that Cornell allowed two rushing first downs or fewer in a game.

ing for three weeks (10/15-10/29) of the 1940 season.

- The No. 1 ranking ended with the historic "Fifth Down Game" against Dartmouth.
- Names such as Glenn "Pop" Warner and Heisman Trophy finalist and NCAA record breaker Ed Marinaro have suited up for Cornell, while seven College Football Hall of Famers (including Warner, Gil Dobie and Carl Snavely) and multiple-time Super Bowl winner George Seifert have set the strategy as head coaches.
- When ESPN named its 150 greatest college football coaches of all time as part of the 150th anniversary of college football, Warner was ranked No. 11, Dobie was at No. 75 and Percy Haughton was No. 139.
- Marinaro, the runner-up for the 1971 Heisman Trophy, was ranked No. 126 on the list of greatest football players of all time by ESPN in January of 2020.
- The Big Red is involved in three of the top 20 most-played rivalries in the FCS.
- The Cornell-Penn series ranks fifth in most games played, a total that stands at 126.
- The 107 meetings between Cornell and Columbia ranks 14th, while the Cornell-Dartmouth rivalries stand 19th with 104 games played.
- The Cornell-Dartmouth and Cornell-Penn series were the second-longest uninterrupted active series in the FCS, as the teams met every season since 1919, a span of 101 years — they trailed only the Lafayette-Lehigh series, which had been played every season since 1897.
- Cornell was ranked as one of the top 100 football programs of all-time according to the Associated Press in a ranking released in August 2016.
- At No. 72, the Big Red ranked ahead of a number of Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) schools and second among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) programs.
- Only Penn (No. 66) placed higher among current FCS schools, while other Ivy League teams on the list included Dartmouth (No. 87), Yale (No. 90), Princeton (No. 81) and Columbia (No. 99).
- Cornell was involved in one of the most historic games in college football history, the "Fifth Down Game."

- Played on Nov. 16, 1940 in Hanover, N.H., the top-ranked Big Red improved to 6-0 with a 7-3 victory over Dartmouth, scoring on the game's final play.
- After reviewing game film on Monday, Coach Carl Snavely and acting athletic director Robert J. Kane wired Dartmouth officials to tell them Cornell scored on an inadvertent fifth down.
- Though there were no rules compelling the outcome to be changed, in an unprecedented act of sportsmanship, the Big Red relinquished claims to the win.
- The Big Green accepted the forfeit, winning the contest 3-0.
- It remains the only time a collegiate sporting contest has been decided off the field after the completion of a game.

Schoellkopf At 106 Years Young

- Schoellkopf Field has been an indelible mark of Cornell football since it opened in 1915 and this year will be the 107th season at the home field.
- A gift from Willard Straight '01 and the family of Henry (Heinie) Schoellkopf '02 made the construction possible for the current stadium.
- The Big Red's first year on the field was one of its best, going 9-0 and winning the national championship.
- In 1915, General Electric Company completed work on a flood searchlight system for the field, and in 1924 a construction project was completed to bring capacity from 9,000 to 21,500 by adding the famed Crescent.
- In 1947 that capacity was increased to 25,597 and a press box was added.
- In 1971 a gift was made to put artificial turf on the field, and it was resurfaced three times, the last time in 1999.
- A new press box was built in 1986.
- The 2008 season saw installation of FieldTurf synthetic grass to replace the artificial turf.
- In 2016, the West Stands were demolished and the field was moved 15 feet toward the Crescent while replacing the FieldTurf to ready for more construction at the site, lowering the capacity to 21,500 in the process.

Schoellkopf Field Facts

- Schoellkopf Field is the fourth-oldest FCS stadium, opening in 1915. Only Penn's Franklin Field (1895), Harvard Stadium (1903) and the Yale Bowl (1914) are older.
- The playing area before World War I was Percy Field, alongside Fall Creek, the present site of Ithaca HS.

GAME 1 CORNELL 28, VMI 22

Sept. 17, 2022 Foster Stadium Lexington, Va.

GAME NOTES

- For months, Cornell head coach David Archer '05 has been stopping his players randomly on campus and having them sing the fight song, "Cornell Victorious," along with him.
- On Saturday, after the Big Red's season-opening 28-22 win over VMI at Foster Stadium, they understood why.
- Because when the time came to sing the song again, they needed to be prepared.
- All offseason, the Roger J. Weiss '61 Head Coach of Cornell Football, preached embracing preparation.
- When the moments came on Saturday - like William Enneking's first two career receptions going for touchdowns, or Holt Fletcher's pick-six, or Max Lundeen's strip-sack - they took the opportunity.
- Cornell's talented, but inexperienced group, grabbed hold of every opportunity they earned against the Keydets, then held on for dear life at the end in order to sing Cornell Victorious.
- The Big Red defense dominated for the first three quarters, forcing three turnovers with two more turnovers on downs, as well as picking up a huge goal-line stand.
- The team had six sacks and nine total tackles for loss. Cornell held the Keydets to -2 rushing yards.
- VMI posted 169 of its 356 total yards on its final two possessions in the game's final five minutes when it was desperately trying to cut into Cornell's lead, which was 28-2 at one point.
- On offense, quarterback Jameson Wang completed 5-of-10 passes for 42 yards and two touchdowns, both to Enneking - his first two career catches.
- Freshman running back Gannon Carothers had 16 carries for a game-high 57 yards and a touchdown in his first collegiate game.
- Senior linebacker Jake Stebbins made nine tackles, including two on the key goal-line stand in the first quarter, and added a tackle for loss, a half-sack and a fumble recovery.
- Fletcher's 11-yard interception to the house, senior captain Demetrius Harris' pick for 17 yards and Lundeen's strip sack also highlighted the defensive effort.
