QUICK LOOK AT THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

After opening the season ranked No. 12 team in the DCU/USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls, Cornell has remained among the top 15 in every poll iteration this year.

In the most recent polls, Cornell moved to No. 10 (DCU/USCHO.com), while moving to No. 9 in the USA Hockey Magazine poll.

BIG RED QUARTET EARN GOLD

Four of Cornell's six incoming freshmen won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2022 IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championships in Madison, Wis., this past June.

Forwards AVI ADAM and MCKENNA VAN GELDER, along with defensemen SARAH MacEACHERN and ALYSSA REGALADO helped the Canadians to a 3-2 victory over Team USA in the gold medal game.

Van Gelder logged a goal and two assists in Canada's six contests. MacEachern also had a pair of assists while appearing in all games. Regalado logged one point, which came on a goal in a 7-0 victory over Slovakia in its quarterfinal round matchup.

DO IT FOR DARON

The Cornell Big Red will honor the DO IT FOR DARON movement this weekend, which pays respects to the tragic passing of DARON RICHARDSON in 2010. The movement supports education, research initiatives, and mental health awareness in hopes to encourage young people to ask for help when in need. LUKE AND STEPHANIE RICHARDSON (Daron's parents), aim to transform a tragic moment in their lives into a movement that will change the world and inspire action far and beyond. Their selfless actions have inspired many including friends and classmates of Daron to push this initiative and help fulfil the mission of transforming the way youth mental health is viewed.

BIG RED LEADERSHIP

Cornell will deploy tri-captains for the season, as seniors GILLIS FRECHETTE and IZZY DANIEL, along with sophomore ASHLEY MESSIER, have been named the captains for the 2022-23 season.

Frechette and Daniel were two of four alternate captains for last year's squad, which was captained by then fifth-year goaltender LINDSAY BROWNING.

DOUG DERRAUGH '91

The Everett Family Head Coach of Women's Ice Hockey
18th season as Head Coach

Derragh brings a 309-166-47 record into the 2022-23 season as he begins his 18th season as the head coach of the Big Red, the program's longest-tenured head coach. During his time on East Hill, Derragh has built Cornell into an perennial contender on both the league and national stages.

The pinnacle of that ascent, so far, was a remarkable 2019-20 season that ended in unprecedented heartbreak, when the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the NCAA Tournament which featured Cornell as the top overall seed for the first time in program history following a 28-2-3 record. It also marked the first time the Big Red ended both ECAC Hockey (19-0-3) and Ivy League (10-0) seasons undefeated, boasting a national-best goals-against average of just 0.94. Then-junior goaltender, LINDSAY BROWNING, was the program's first netminder to earn All-America status as Cornell advanced to the ECAC Hockey championship game for the ninth time in 11 seasons.

Derragh helped lead the Big Red back to the Women's Frozen Four for a fourth time to culminate a 2018-19 season that ended with a 24-6-6 record – highlighted by dramatic postseason performances. MICAH ZANDEE-HART '20 scored the double-overtime winner over Princeton in the league semifinals, and then-freshman GILLIS FRECHETTE lifted the Big Red through the first round of the NCAA Tournament with a breakaway goal in overtime against Northeastern.

The Big Red's current prominence is a far cry from when Derragh took the helm for the 2005-06 season, when he inherited a program that was coming off a 3-23-3 campaign. By 2009-10, the fruits of Derragh's labors took the Big Red to new heights with a stunning run to the national championship game. That proved to be just the tip of the iceberg.

Including that run, Cornell posted five consecutive 20-win seasons – including all four of the Big Red's ECAC Hockey championships. Cornell has won six league regular-season titles and seven Ivy League crowns under Derragh. For his efforts, Derragh is a five-time ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year, three-time AHCA Division I National Coach of the Year, and the USCHO Division I National Coach of the Year on one occasion.

Concurrent to his time at Cornell, Derragh has also served in some capacity with Hockey Canada since the 2012 IIHF Women's Worlds. He most recently served as an assistant coach at the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, China, where the Canadians won gold. He also helped the Canadians in their championship run at the 2021 IIHF Women's Worlds in Calgary. On Aug. 31, Canada won their first title since 2012 after passing the United States in a 3-2 overtime thriller. Along with Derragh, five Cornell alumnae were also members of Team Canada (REBECCA JOHNSTON '12, BRIANNE JENNER '15, JILL SAULNIER '15, JAIME BOURBONNAIS '20, and KRISTIN O'NEILL '20). LENKA SERDAR '19 (Czech Republic) and SARAH KNEE '18 (Hungary) also competed in the 2021 Women's Worlds.

Derragh's roots at Cornell go back to his own playing days, when he racked up 153 points on 66 goals and 87 assists with the Big Red's men's team. He then played professionally in Europe for 13 years before returning to Ithaca to assume his current role.

A native of Arnprior, Ontario, Derragh graduated from Cornell in 1991 with a degree in biological sciences. He and his wife, Louise, who serves as the team's director of operations, have three children.

EDITH RACINE

Fourth Season as Associate Head Coach 14th Season at Cornell

Racine enters her fourth season as the Associate Head Coach of the Cornell women's hockey team. The 2022-23 season will be Racine's 14th overall season with the Big Red program since joining the coaching staff prior to the 2009-10 season. Instrumental in developing the Big Red's goalkeepers, during Racine's first season as an Associate Head Coach, she helped coach LINDSAY BROWNING to become the first-ever Cornell goalie to earn All-America honors and to finish in the top-10 for the Patty Kazmaier trophy. That year, Browning led the nation in goals-against average (0.91), shutouts (12), and win percentage (.894). Browning's .952 save percentage was second, only behind Northeastern's Aerin Frankel. Prior to arriving on East Hill, Racine spent two seasons at ECAC Hockey and Ivy League rival, Brown, serving as a volunteer assistant in 2007-08 before being promoted to a full-time assistant coach for the 2008-09 campaign. Racine also spent six summers as the head goaltending instructor at the Elite Hockey Camp in Hanover, N.H. At the collegiate level, Racine spent four seasons at Elmira College, where she guided the Eagles to a pair of national titles and a national runner-up finish. Racine was a two-time All-American by the American Collegiate Hockey Association.

TIM CROWLEY

First Season as Assistant Coach

Crowley joined the Cornell women's hockey coaching staff in September 2022 after spending the last 10 years on the Elmira women's hockey team coaching staff, spending the last six as head coach. Crowley directed Elmira to a 127-21-10 record over six seasons and a remarkable 88-4-3 conference record to become the winningest coach in program history. Discounting the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, the Soaring Eagles won four consecutive United Collegiate Hockey Conference (UCHC) regular-season and tournament titles before capturing the 2021-22 New England Hockey Conference (NEHC) regular season and tournament titles. Elmira qualified for the NCAA Division III Championships each season. As interim head coach in 2016-17, Crowley's team went 14-2-2 and was runner-up at the ECAC West Tournament before making its fifth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament. He then guided Elmira to the inaugural UCHC regular-season and tournament titles, and a runner-up finish in the NCAA title game in 2017-18. Elmira won at least 22 games in four of the next five seasons, going 13-1 during the COVID-interrupted 2020-21 campaign. Before taking over the women's program, Crowley spent four years as an assistant men's coach. During his time on the bench, Crowley helped guide the Soaring Eagles to the program's 10th ECAC West Title and had one player receive ACHA All-American accolades.
