FIRST PITCH

► Seeking to clinch its first postseason berth since 2012, the Cornell baseball team wraps up its 2024 regular-season slate this weekend when it travels to Providence, R.I., for a three-game series against Brown.

SCENARIO CENTRAL

► Cornell can clinch a spot in this year's Ivy League Baseball Tournament with three different scenarios: Big Red wins at least two games OR Cornell wins once and Princeton loses two-plus games to league-leading Columbia OR Dartmouth sweeps Penn.

LAST TIME OUT

► The Big Red is coming off a 13-7 victory over Binghamton on Wednesday in Vestal, N.Y., sweeping the season series from the Bearcats for the first time since 2017.

► Cornell's first five hitters in its lineup collectively went 10-for-21 (.476), combining for three doubles, a triple, and three home runs. Junior infielder MAX JENSEN went 2-for-4 with a home run and drove in a team-leading four RBI. Junior outfielder JOHN QUINLAN (double, triple) and senior catcher NATHAN WAUGH (two doubles, home run) registered multiple extra-base hits.

► Senior right-handed pitcher STORY KIMURA earned his second victory of the year — both of which coming against Binghamton — after pitching 1.2 scoreless innings of relief.

DIGGING THE LONG BALL

► Cornell has hit 44 home runs this season, marking the most by the Big Red in a single season in the program's 153-year history, besting the previous mark of 38 (2009).

► Freshman catcher MARK QUATRANI registered the record-breaking blast with a leadoff home run in the sixth inning of Cornell's 14-11 setback in the opening game of last Saturday's twin bill with Columbia.

► Having a flair for the dramatic, Cornell has hit seven grand slams, the most in a season on record in program history. The seven grand slams matches the program's combined output over the previous nine years.

Q'S PROVIDING THE A'S

► Junior outfielder JOHN QUINLAN and freshman catcher MARK QUATRANI have been two of Cornell's most reliable hitters since the beginning of Ivy League play.

► Quinlan is hitting an Ivy League-leading .434 (36-of-83) against Ancient Eight opposition this season, ahead of Penn's Wyatt Henseler by three points (.431) for the lead for the Blair Bat, awarded to the Ivy League's top hitter in conference games.

► No Cornell player has earned the Blair Bat since CHIP DeLORENZO in 1991, when he registered a .478 average against EIBL opponents (22-for-46). If Quinlan wins the Blair Bat, he would be the fourth Cornell player to earn the award since it was first awarded in 1971, joining PETE WATZKA (1971), JOHN DeMAYO (1982), and DeLorenzo.

► Quinlan's 36 hits are the most in conference play by a Big Red player in program history and is tied for the ninth-most in EIBL / Ivy League history. With four hits this weekend against Brown, he would become the second player in EIBL / Ivy League history with 40-plus hits in conference games, joining former Dartmouth infielder Tyler Cox (45 in 2022).

► Quatrani has seven home runs in Ivy League contests, the most by a Big Red player in conference play in program history, besting six-home run outputs produced by RAUL GOMEZ (2001), BRIAN KAUFMAN (2006), and SAM KAPLAN (2022).

► Quatrani's seven Ivy League home runs are tied with Columbia's Sam Miller for the second-most home runs in conference contests this season, trailing Henseler who paces the Ivy League with 10 home runs, tied with Columbia's Chandler Bengtson (10 in 2019) and Princeton's Kyle Vinci (10 in 2023) for the most home runs by a player in Ivy League play in a season.

► Paired with his home runs, Quatrani's 26 RBI are tied with Columbia's Sam Miller and Griffin Palfrey for the Ivy League lead in RBI. The 26 ribbies by Quatrani are tied with JOHN DeMAYO for the second-most by a Cornell player in conference games in a single season. BRIAN KAUFMAN (29 in 2006) assumes the record, ranking sixth in EIBL / Ivy League history.

NEWS & NOTES ON KELLER

- THIS WEEKEND: Keller will be making his seventh start of 2024 while appearing in his 11th game ... appearance will be the 23rd of his collegiate career and 18th start.
- LAST TIME OUT: Saddled with the loss for the third time in last four starts, allowing six runs on eight hits in four-plus innings of work against Columbia in series opener last Saturday ... gave up his first three home runs of the season in outing, while walking three and striking out four.
- NOT FUN FOR LEFTIES: Despite having a much smaller sample size, left-handed hitters have had a tough time figuring out the sophomore southpaw this season as lefties are hitting just .194 (6-for-31) with a .479 OPS (.286 on-base percentage and .194 slugging percentage) off the Big Red southpaw compared to a .353 clip (42-of-119) with an .988 OPS (.458 on-base percentage and .529 slugging percentage) produced by righties ... all six hits allowed by Keller to left-handed hitters have gone for singles.
- AGAINST BROWN: In lone career outing against the Bears last April 8, registered second quality start of collegiate career, allowing one run on five hits over seven innings of work ... struck out seven batters, the first of three seven-strikeout outings last season ... 67.9 percent of his 109 pitches went for strikes (74).

SCOUTING BROWN

- Brown enters this weekend with a 9-27 overall record and a 4-14 mark in Ivy League play. The Bears have dropped its last three contests and been on the wrong end of 11 of the last 12 decisions.
- On Tuesday, the Bears fell to Holy Cross, 6-5, in their final non-conference game of the 2024 season. Holy Cross entered the ninth inning trailing by one run, tying the game on a bases-loaded hit by pitch before registering a walk-off RBI single up the middle to take the victory. Mark Henshon, Quinn Rooks, and Charles Crawford all hit solo home runs in the setback for Brown.
- Nathan Brasher (.321/.421/.403) and DJ Dillehay (.303/.370/.483) are the lone Bears with batting averages north of .300. Gunner Boree (.275/.415/.471) has a team-leading .886 OPS, and is tied with Dillehay and Crawford for the lead in home runs with four. Dillehay has driven in 27 RBI, one of two Brown players with 20-plus RBI (Mika Petersen — 23).
- Paxton Meyers (3-4, 4.97 ERA) has started in all 10 of his appearances, which includes one complete game. Meyers, who owns the team's best ERA, has also held opponents to a .265 batting average this season, yielding 61 hits against in 58 innings of work. Jack Seppings (3-6, 7.08 ERA) and Santhosh Gottam (2-7, 7.58 ERA) have started 12 and 10 games, respectively.
- The Bears' bullpen has revolved around seven players, all of which have registered at least nine appearances on the season. Jacob Young (0-4, 5.56 ERA) has a team-leading three saves across 15 outings, limiting opponents to a .213 batting average. Ryan Oshinskier (0-0, 7.56 ERA) has two saves and Carter Rasmussen (0-2, 12.18 ERA) also has one save to his credit.
- 131 YEARS, 325 MILES, 135 MEETINGS
- Cornell and Brown have met 135 times prior to this weekend's three-game series. The Bears own the series lead, 71-62-2, thanks to winning 14 of the last 17 contests, which includes coming out victorious in the previous five games.
- The Big Red's last win over Brown came in a 3-0 triumph in the opening game of a doubleheader on May 7, 2022, where former right-handed pitcher LUKE YACINICH tossed a six-hit complete game shutout, the Big Red's last time shutting out an opponent.
- Entering this weekend, Cornell has not won a series against Brown since taking two of three games in 2018, also coming in Providence, R.I.
- Should Cornell sweep this weekend's series, it would be the first time Cornell has swept Brown in a season since taking both games of a doubleheader on April 6, 2014, in Providence.

BOOTH FIELD

After spending over 100-plus years at Hoy Field, Cornell's legendary, and storied, on-campus field, the Cornell baseball team officially moved to Booth Field, the program's brand-new, $17.5 million off-campus facility on Friday, April 21, 2023.

Booth Field is named in honor of former Cornell pitcher RICH BOOTH '82, who has shown "extraordinary leadership and generosity — much of its anonymous — over the last four decades."

The facility features many state-of-the-art amenities for the Cornell baseball team, including a 1500-square foot team room and lounge, 1500-square foot locker room, and a 7000-square foot indoor area for batting cages and pitching mounds. A nutrition station, Hall of Fame area, and a coaches room is included at the facility, which was completed this past summer.

DAN PEPICELLI

9TH SEASON AT CORNELL

Years in Role: 9th Season as Head Coach

College: SUNY Cortland '90

Coaching Location: Dugout

DAN PEPICELLI was named the Ted Thoren Head Coach of Cornell Baseball on Aug. 10, 2015, and is currently in his ninth season at the helm of the Cornell baseball program.

Pepicelli's 97 wins as the Big Red's head coach stand as the fourth-most in program history, trailing TED THOREN (515), TOM FORD (264), and BILL WALKENBACH (130).

Under Pepicelli's tutelage, Cornell has produced 21 All-Ivy League selections — including five First Team and eight Second Team selections. Four Big Red players have also been selected in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

Before his arrival on East Hill, Pepicelli spent six seasons at Clemson where he had three coaching titles during his six-year stay. The final three years with the Tigers were as the associate head coach.

He became the Tigers' first pitching coach to lead a staff to Omaha in his first season with the squad. That year, Clemson's pitching staff posted the first of four consecutive seasons with a sub-4.00 ERA. Pepicelli recruited and developed Matt Crownover, who earned freshman All-America accolades in 2013 and ACC Pitcher of the Year honors in 2015, and was instrumental in assembling Baseball America's ninth-ranked recruiting class in 2015. Ten Clemson pitchers were selected in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft in Pepicelli's tenure at Clemson.

By joining the Big Red, Pepicelli returned home to upstate New York, where he previously had 11 years of head coaching experience at the Division III level between St. John Fisher and Hartwick.

After serving as an assistant coach for three seasons at Hartwick, Pepicelli was promoted to head coach for the 1999 season. Following his two-year tenure at Hartwick, Pepicelli was head coach and assistant athletic director at St. John Fisher for nine seasons (2001-09). Pepicelli was a two-time Empire 8 Coach of the Year (2001, 2007), with the latter coming when the Cardinals advanced to the NCAA Division III College World Series for the first time in program history.

Pepicelli's teams at St. John Fisher had winning records in each of his last seven seasons. His team garnered national recognition for sportsmanship in 2008 after a line-drive foul ball struck the opposing team's third-base coach in the head during the ninth inning of the play-in game of the 2008 ECAC Upstate Championship. Despite the fact the Cardinals were trailing, Pepicelli and the Cardinals elected to concede the game, ending any hope of clinching a berth an NCAA Tournament berth. The Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct presented Pepicelli's team with the NCAA All-Divisions Sportsmanship Award.

Along with being the baseball coach at St. John Fisher, Pepicelli was the head strength and conditioning coach where he spent three years on the NCAA Competitive Safeguards Committee. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist and is a member of the National Strength & Conditioning Association.

A native of Schenectady, N.Y., Pepicelli is married to the former Robyn Molloy, who played for and served as an assistant coach with the Syracuse women's soccer team. The couple has a daughter, Mia, and a son, Owen.
