INSIDE THE MATCHUP

Bucknell Bullets

- Bucknell comes into Thursday's contest a week removed from a 2-0 win at Saint Joseph's on Sept. 5. That win snapped a streak of back-to-back losses for the Bison. This year, the group is being narrowly outscored by opponents, 10-9.
- Two of Bucknell's three wins this season have come in shutout fashion. When it heads into the halftime break with a lead, the team is 3-0. The Bison have held their opponents scoreless in the first half in five of their six contests this season. The only exception was in a 3-0 loss at Monmouth where they trailed 2-0 at the break.
- The Bison lead the Pioneer League with 16.00 shots per game, a number that puts them 74th nationally. Their 6.17 shots on goal per game are second in the league. All-told, they have landed 37 of their 96 shots on frame.
- Teresa Deda and Katie Connell have combined for six of the Bison's nine goals this season, netting three each for the third-most in the Patriot League. Deda has been an offensive threat, scoring nine points with three assists. She is shooting at a .375 clip with nine of her 24 attempts landing on target. She is averaging four shots per game, the second-most in the Patriot League and 33rd nationally.
- Katie Schiano joins Deda as the team's leading helper this season, also recording three assists. The pair are tied for second in the Patriot League with .50 assists per game and are third for total assists.
- Jess Benattar (2-1) and Dylan Zednik (1-1-1) have shared time in net this season, each playing in 270 minutes of action. Benattar has saved six of the 30 shots she has faced with three goals allowed while Zednik has grabbed 12 of 35 with seven goals getting past her.
- Villanova has yet to face a loss in its all-time series with Bucknell, leading the series with a 4-0-2 leads the all-time record against Bucknell 4-0-2 since the series began in 1991. The most recent meeting came last year with Villanova leaving Lewisburg, Pa. with a 1-1 draw. Against Patriot League sides, Villanova is 32-12-6 all-time with the last two results being draws, building on a four-game unbeaten streak against the league.

Cornell Corner

- Cornell will play back-to-back games against BIG EAST opponents this week, traveling to St. John's Thursday before hosting Villanova Sunday. The team comes into the week with a 1-1-3 record, sitting tied for sixth nationally for ties this season through Sept. 8.
- The Big Red is currently second in the Ivy League with 6.60 shots on goal per game. Tanum Nelson leads the conference with 3.40 shots per game, a number that puts her 83rd nationally. She leads the team with 17 shot attempts, five of those on frame. Ava Laden has landed the most shots on frame for the team this season at eight.
- All six of Cornell's goals this season have been scored by different players.
- Natalie Medugno has played in all 450 minutes of action for Cornell heading into the weekend. She has saved 19 of the 60 shots she has faced, allowing six goals.
- Villanova and Cornell have met six times prior to Sunday's contest with Villanova holding a 3-2-1 advantage since 1984. The 'Cats hosted the Big Red last year and played to a 1-1 draw. Villanova has not won a game at Cornell since Oct. 25, 1998 when they left with a 4-1 victory.
- This will be the sixth time Villanova has faced an Ivy team in third-year head coach Samar Azem's tenure, going 1-1-3 in that time. The 'Cats have built a three-game unbeaten streak against the league with a pair of draws last year and a 1-0 win over Penn earlier this season.

NOVA NOTES

Home Sweet Higgins

The Wildcats are at home just three times in the month of September after starting the season with three consecutive home games. Villanova is 157-96-31 all-time at home and 6-7-7 during head coach Samar Azem's tenure.

Road Trip Ahead

Villanova takes on its longest road stint of the season over the next two weeks, playing away from Higgins Soccer Complex for three consecutive games. The group has played just two games this season, going 1-1 in those games. With head coach Samar Azem at the helm, Villanova has gone 5-11-4 away from the Main Line.

A Balanced Slate

Ten of Villanova's 18 matches this season will take place inside the friendly confines of Higgins Soccer Complex, bringing in opponents from six different conferences including the Sun Belt, American, Ivy League, ACC, Patriot League and, of course, the BIG EAST.

Tough Back Line

Villanova's defensive unit has been one of the best in the BIG EAST so far this season with a .833 save percentage and 5.00 saves per game, numbers that land it third and second in the league, respectively. The backline is led by goalkeeper Hannah Dickinson who leads the conference with 29 saves through the first six games of the season, tying her for 63rd nationally. She is third with a .829 save percentage and second with 4.83 saves per game. In the last two matches alone, she has combined for 20 saves.

Hannah's Honor

Junior netminder Hannah Dickinson was tabbed the BIG EAST Goalkeeper of the Week on August 26. Her first conference plaudit came after helping Villanova to a second straight clean sheet on the season with a 1-0 win over Penn, her first solo shutout as a 'Cat. She was called upon for one save in the win, moving her to 2-1 on the year. She is the first Wildcat keeper to earn the honor since Megan McClay on Sept. 26, 2022.

Reaching New Heights

The 4-0 win over Temple on August 18 marked the most goals in a game for Villanova since a 4-1 win at Delaware on August 22, 2021. The four-goal victory also marks the largest winning margin for the program since a 5-1 win over Seton Hall on Oct. 10, 2019.

Freshmen Firsts

The freshman duo of Madison Shumate and Morgan Kotch had a stellar outing in the 4-0 win over Temple, scoring two goals each for their first collegiate goals. They are the first Wildcats to notch two goals in a single game since Jackie Richards netted two at George Mason on Sept. 3, 2023.

Memorable Morgan

Morgan Kotch's debut weekend in the Blue and White ended with Freshman of the Week accolades on August 19 after netting two goals in the win over Temple. Her first collegiate goal came in the 37th minute before netting the dagger in the 60th minute. The Yardville, N.J. native recorded five shots on the week with two on frame in 80 minutes of action.

Back Again

Villanova lost 10 players from the 2023 squad with five of those being starters. Of the 16 point scorers from last year who totaled 57 points, 10 are back on the roster this year, accounting for 24 points on four goals and 16 assists.

New 'Cats on the Block

Villanova welcomes 10 newcomers to this year's roster. Three of the new faces come in as transfers: junior netminder Hannah Dickinson (USC), graduate defender/midfielder Caitlyn Leffler (South Carolina) and graduate defender Olivia Neal (Campbell). The seven freshmen span all ends of the pitch with a class that includes a midfielder, three forwards, two defenders and a keeper.

On the Map

Ire Omotayo is the only Wildcat on this year's roster to hail from outside of the United States. The sophomore defender comes to the Main Line from Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Reppin' Their Nations

Both Ire Omotayo and Amalia Cardo have represented their respective countries since joining the 'Cats. Omotayo was selected for the U-17 Women's National Soccer Team for Canada in 2022 while Cardo was called up to the Portuguese Women's U18 National Team training center over the summer.

Preseason Poll

Villanova checked in tied for at ninth in the conference's Preseason Coaches' Poll with 22 points. The team looks to build off of a 4-7-7 season in 2023 that saw the group be one of the last 13 undefeated teams in the nation and the last remaining one in the BIG EAST, starting the season with nine consecutive unbeaten games.

'Cats in the Pros

Two recent Villanova alumnae signed professional contracts over the summer. Payton Woodward inked a deal with HK Kópavogur in Iceland while Jackie Richards signed with Heart of Midlothian FC in Scotland. They are two of three former 'Cats to currently be playing at the pro level, joining Samantha Rosette who signed with France's Racing Club de Strasbourg Alsace in July 2023.

SAMAR AZEM - HEAD COACH

Villanova University Vice President & Director of Athletics Mark Jackson announced the hiring of Samar Azem as the eighth head coach of the Wildcats women's soccer program in December 2021.

Heading into the 2024 season, Azem has led the 'Cats to an 8-15-11 record since coming to the Main Line. In that time, she has coached four All-BIG EAST selections and has seen one player, Payton Woodward, go on to sign a professional contract.

The 2023 campaign brought a 4-7-7 record for the Wildcats that started with the team logging an impressive undefeated streak to be on the last 13 teams without a blemish to their record. The 'Cats went nine games without a loss, holding a 4-0-5 record in that time for the second-best start to a season since the 2007 squad's 11-game undefeated spurt. Reaching back to the end of the 2022 season, Villanova went 12 games without a loss, the longest unbeaten streak in team history since the 2006 group went 13-0-2 to start the season.

Villanova's 2022 campaign brought the second-best BIG EAST record in the last five years and third-best in the last decade, going 3-5-2 in league action and 4-8-4 overall. The 'Cats allowed just eight goals in BIG EAST action, the second-fewest for the program in the last decade.

Azem came to Villanova after serving as head coach at Campbell University for the past five seasons where she guided the Camels to a 50-30-8 record. Azem led Campbell to a 12-4-2 overall record in 2021, a 9-1-0 Big South mark and a trip to the conference championship game. Prior to becoming head coach, Azem was a member of the Campbell staff as an assistant for one year and the Associate Head Coach for two seasons.

During the COVID-19 delayed and shortened 2020-21 schedule, Azem led Campbell to an 8-4-1 overall record and 6-2-1 Big South mark and its first Big South Championship since 1993. By winning the conference title, Campbell garnered an NCAA Tournament berth for the second time in program history. Campbell earned a No. 22 national ranking and had a program record four players named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Region teams. The Camels also had a program best seven All-Conference honorees. For her efforts, Azem was the 2020-21 Big South Conference Coach of the Year.

Throughout her Campbell career, Azem helped the Camels become one of the top offensive teams in the country. For her last three years there, Campbell ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense, including ranking eighth this past year, ninth in 2020 and 10th in 2019. It outscored its opponents by a 126-53 margin.

Azem also guided numerous players to individual honors there. Highlighting this list were Alexa Genas who was the program's first-ever two-time Big South Attack Player of the Year, earning the honor in 2017 and 2019. During the 2020-21 season, Jessica Donald was named a Top Drawer Soccer Top 100 performer, while Cazzi Norgren was a Top Drawer Top 100 Freshmen honoree. Donald was also the program's first Big South Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2021.

Azem began her head coaching career at Division II Anderson University from 2011-13 where she tallied a 21-24-9 overall record, including a 12-10-7 record in South Atlantic Conference play. During the 2011 season, Anderson advanced to the semifinal round of the SAC Tournament for the first time in program history. Azem also led her team to a No. 8 ranking in the Southeast Region in 2011.

She also has had assistant coaching stops at Brevard College, Mercer University and Presbyterian University.

As a player, Azem was a standout goalkeeper at Campbell. In 2004, she helped the Camels win both the A-Sun regular season and tournament championships. Throughout her collegiate career, Azem also earned A-Sun All-Academic recognition and the program's Coaches Award in 2005 and 2006.

A native of Jos, Nigeria, Azem graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in broadcasting and a minor in Psychology from Campbell in 2007 and she earned her Master's Degree in education from Mercer in 2010.
