FIRST TOUCH

► The Cornell women's soccer team welcomes Princeton to Berman Field this afternoon for a noon first touch to open Ivy League play on Homecoming.

LAST TIME OUT

► MALIBU, Calif. (SEPT. 22, 2024) — A two-goal first half by No. 19-ranked Pepperdine helped ignite the Waves' offense to a 3-0 clean sheet over the Cornell women's soccer team at Tari Frahm Rokus Field in Malibu, Calif., on a picturesque Sunday afternoon in Southern California.

► Megan Edelman, Tabitha LaParl, and Kyra Murphy found the back of the net for the Waves, who extended their unbeaten streak to six matches. Jillian Medvecky (three saves) and Taylor Rath (one save) combined for the Waves' fourth clean sheet on the season.

► TANUM NELSON, REINNA GABRIEL, LAKEN GALLMAN, and CECILY POKIGO combined for the four shots on goal that the Big Red registered on the day. Junior goalkeeper NATALIE MEDUGNO made five saves in the setback.

IVY LEAGUE OPENERS

► Cornell is opening Ivy League play against Princeton for the second consecutive season and 11th time in program history. Only one of the 10 previous Ivy League openers against the Tigers has occurred since 2000, as then-No. 14-ranked Princeton posted a 4-2 over Cornell last Sept. 22 at Roberts Stadium.

► The Big Red is 2-7-1 all-time against Princeton in Ivy League openers. Cornell is seeking its first win in an Ivy League opener over Princeton since posting a 4-0 victory on Sept. 15, 1990, at Robison Alumni Fields.

► Today is the first time Cornell is opening Ivy League play at home since 2021, when it snapped a 21-match winless streak to Ivy League opponents (0-19-2) with a 1-0 victory over Columbia on Sept. 25, 2021. Over its last 11 Ivy League openers on its home pitch, Cornell has a 6-5-0 record, with all six triumphs coming against fellow Empire State and Ancient Eight rival Columbia.

► Since Cornell elevated its women's soccer program to varsity status before the 1982 campaign, the Big Red has a record of 19-21-2 in its first Ancient Eight contest of a season.

KNACK FOR THE NET

► Cornell has scored at least one goal in 39 of its 56 matches played under ROB FERGUSON, dating back to 2021.

► The 69.6 percent of contests with a goal ranks as the highest clip in Cornell program history, surpassing RANDY MAY, the program's first head coach, who saw his teams score in 67.7 percent of the 282 matches he coached during his 18-year tenure as head coach (191 games with a goal).

► As of late, the Big Red has displayed its scoring prowess, scoring a goal in 12 of its last 15 contests, 22 of its previous 26 matches, and 25 of its latest 31 fixtures, dating back to 2022.

► Although Cornell has only been held without a goal in three of its last 15 contests, the Big Red has not scored in its previous two matches. Should Princeton register a clean sheet this afternoon, it would be Cornell's first time going three consecutive contests without scoring since going four straight matches without a goal during the 2021 campaign, spanning Oct. 9 to Oct. 30 — all of which were Ivy League contests.

HOME, SWEET, GOALS

► Entering this afternoon's match, Cornell has scored in a program-record 14 consecutive home contests. The record was set in the Big Red's 3-2 loss to Boston College on Sept. 5, besting the previous mark of 12, initially set across the 2013-14 seasons.

► The Big Red's 14-match streak of home contests with a goal is the third instance in which Cornell has scored a goal in 10-plus consecutive home fixtures, also joined by a 10-match span between the 1985 and 1987 seasons (Oct. 16, 1985 to Sept. 30, 1987).

TOURNAMENT TESTS

► Today's match with Princeton is the latter of Cornell's two consecutive matches against opponents who played in last year's NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship, as the Big Red fell to Pepperdine, 3-0, last Sunday at Tari Frahm Rokus Field in Malibu, Calif.

► Facing Princeton will be the second of five opponents Cornell has to play who participated in last year's NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship. Among the other tournament programs from last year that Cornell has yet to face includes a trio of Ivy League rivals in Columbia (Oct. 9), Harvard (Oct. 13), and Brown (Oct. 26) in the Big Red's penultimate regular-season match. The three remaining contests will all occur on the road.

► Last year, the quintet combined for a 55-22-16 record (.677). This year, the programs have a cumulative record of 19-10-12 (.610), highlighted by Harvard (4-0-4), Pepperdine (6-2-2), and Princeton (4-3-0), all having at least four wins on the season.

CLEAN SHEET CLUB

► With her clean sheet against Lehigh on Sept. 8, junior goalkeeper NATALIE MEDUGNO increased her career total for clean sheets to 5.5.

► Medugno is one-half of a clean sheet away from tying MEGHAN CAUZILLO (1997-00) and MEGHAN KENNEDY (2015-18) for the 10th-most shutouts in Big Red program history.

► Should Medugno record a full clean sheet today, it would be her second clean sheet of the season while surpassing Cauzillo and Kennedy and match KATRINA MATLIN (2003-06) for the ninth-most clean sheets by a Cornell goalkeeper.

THIS DATE IN CORNELL WOMEN'S SOCCER HISTORY

SEPT.

28

Cornell is 6-7-0 all-time on Sept. 28

Sept. 28, 1999: SARAH OLSEN scored on a loose ball in the penalty area with 4:45 left in the first overtime, aiding Cornell to a 2-1 win over Colgate. ELLEN DALY scored Cornell's first goal in the 55th minute. MARTHA SCHAUGHNESSY earned her first collegiate win, making three saves in the final 55 minutes.

NOBODY WINS

► As of Thursday morning, Cornell's four draws are tied with 17 other programs for the fifth-most ties by a Division I program this season.

► Ahead of the Big Red includes Abilene Christian (2-2-6), Fairleigh Dickinson (2-3-5), Florida (3-2-5), Louisiana (5-1-5), and Towson (2-3-5) have recorded more draws this season.

► Currently tied for the third-most ties in a single season with the squads from 2002 and 2015, Cornell's next draw, would match the 2022 squad for the second-most draws in program history. Only last year's team, which registered a 4-5-6 record, had more draws in a single season.

LEADERSHIP GROUP

► For the third consecutive season, Cornell will deploy a multi-person leadership team featuring a trio of captains and a leadership council consisting of two juniors and two sophomores.

► Earning spots as captains on this year's team include seniors AVA LADEN, MADDIE LEROY, and CECILY POKIGO. Leadership council members include juniors ABIGAIL BISHARA and IZZY SCOTT and sophomores KAYLA RISTIANTO and ISABEL CHAPMAN.

GEOGRAPHICALLY DIVERSE

► Cornell women's soccer does not generally recruit a specific area of the nation, exemplified by the makeup of this year's roster.

► Seventeen states are represented this season, spanning all four contiguous U.S. time zones. New York leads the way with six players, while California is right behind with five. Texas ranks third with three student-athletes.

► Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania have two representatives, while Colorado, Massachusetts, Michigan, North Carolina, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, and Washington are once represented.

RISTIANTO REPRESENTS INDONESIA

► This past summer, rising sophomore defender KAYLA RISTIANTO suited up for the Indonesian Women's National Team in a pair of friendlies in Hong Kong.

► The pair of contests between the Asian-based countries were held on July 11 and July 14 at the Hong Kong Football Club Ground, with Hong Kong taking both contests by 3-2 and 4-1 scores, respectively.

EUROPEAN TRIP REWIND

► Upon concluding classes last spring, Cornell took a trip to Europe, where the Big Red participated in three exhibition contests.

► A roster of 30 players and four staff left the United States on May 27, playing a trio of exhibitions against Spanish-based clubs.

► The Big Red claimed a 4-1 victory against its first opponent, Girona FC, which competes in the Preferente Catalana, the fifth tier of Spanish soccer. Cornell's middle match of the trip saw the Big Red play Levante Las Planas of Liga F, the top division of Spanish football, before wrapping its trio of contests with a 6-2 victory against Font Santa Fatjó.

IVY PRESEASON POLL

► Cornell was picked to finish eighth in this year's Ivy League women's soccer preseason poll, the conference office announced on Aug. 19.

► After claiming last year's inaugural Ivy League Women's Soccer Tournament title, Harvard was tabbed the preseason favorite upon receiving 10 of the 16 first-place votes. The Crimson concluded with a point total of 120, 12 points ahead of Brown (108), which received four first-place votes. Behind Brown was Princeton, which finished with 103 points and the other two first-place votes.

► Rounding out the eight-team poll ahead of Cornell's 22 points was Columbia (77 points) in fourth, Dartmouth (57 points) in fifth, Yale (48 points) in sixth, and Penn (41 points) in seventh.

SCOUTING PRINCETON

- ▶ Princeton enters Ivy League play with a 4-3-0 overall record, having been dealt setbacks in its last two matches against Georgetown, 1-0, on Sept. 15, and a 1-0 decision to Fairfield last Wednesday (Sept. 18).
- ▶ The Tigers have been held without a goal over their last 196:11 of match action, including each of their previous two matches. Princeton's last time being held without a goal in two consecutive matches was when it lost to No. 9-ranked Rutgers, 3-0, on Sept. 4, 2022, and LSU, 2-0, on Sept. 8, 2022.
- ▶ Should Cornell register a clean sheet on Saturday afternoon, it would be Princeton's first time being shutout in three consecutive matches since 2013, when it drew with La Salle, 0-0, on Oct. 1 before falling to Dartmouth (Oct. 5) and Brown (Oct. 12) by identical 2-0 scores.
- ▶ Heather MacNab leads Princeton with her five points (one goal, three assists) and is one of two Princeton players with multiple assists on the season, joined by Alexandra Barry (one goal, two assists). Barry and Brooke Dawahare (two goals) are behind MacNab with four points. Dawahare is the lone Princeton player who has scored multiple goals this season.
- ▶ Goalkeeping duties have been reserved solely for Tyler McCamey, who has played all 630 minutes between the pipes for Princeton, posting a 0.71 goals-against average and .865 save percentage.
- ▶ Forward Pietra Tordin is slated to return to the Tigers' lineup this weekend after representing the United States at the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup in Bogotá, Cali, and Medellín, Colombia, where she earned a bronze medal as the U.S. defeated the Netherlands, 2-1, in extra time on Sept. 21 in Bogotá. North Korea defeated Japan, 1-0, for its third Under-20 World Cup title.
- ▶ While with the U.S. Under-20 National Team, Tordin scored four goals, the most by an American at an Under-20 World Cup since Maya Hayes in 2012. Three of Tordin's four goals came in a 7-0 victory over Paraguay, marking the first hat trick by an American at the event since Savannah DeMelo in 2018.
- ▶ Tordin earned Player to Watch honors from the United Soccer Coaches on Aug. 13, one of 19 forwards honored. She was also named to TopDrawer Soccer's preseason team, garnering second-team honors as a forward. She was ranked as the No. 19 player in the nation, among eligible sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

PRINCETON'S LAST TIME OUT

- ▶ FAIRFIELD, Conn. (SEPT. 18, 2024) — Elle Scott's 80th-minute goal helped lead Fairfield to a 1-0 victory over Princeton at Lessing Field.
- ▶ Princeton outshot Fairfield by a 17-7 margin and had a 5-2 edge in shots on goal.

42 YEARS, 219 MILES, 41 MEETINGS

- ▶ Princeton has the advantage in the series, 29-8-4, dating back to the first meeting between the two Ivy League programs in 1982.
- ▶ Cornell is seeking to win its second consecutive home match against Princeton, a feat that has yet to be accomplished since winning three straight home matches (1990, 1992, 1994).
- ▶ The Big Red has scored at least two goals in its last two meetings with the Tigers, marking the first time Cornell has scored multiple goals against Princeton in consecutive matches since doing so in five straight seasons (1990-94).

ROB FERGUSON

FIFTH YEAR (FOURTH SEASON) AS HEAD COACH

Years at Cornell: Sixth Year

College: University of Manchester

ROB FERGUSON, who is entering his fifth year as the head coach of the Cornell women's soccer team, was hired as the sixth head coach in program history in February 2020. Prior to his appointment as head coach, Ferguson served as an assistant coach for the Big Red during the 2019 campaign under previous head coach DWIGHT HORNIBROOK.

Ferguson's most recent campaign in 2023 saw Cornell register an overall record of 4-5-6 and an 0-5-2 mark in Ivy League action. The Big Red had its most offensive production in a season since 2015, as the Big Red recorded 21 goals and 58 points. REAGAN PAUWELS was named a Second Team All-Ivy selection for a second consecutive season while MIA GONZALEZ (forward) and CECILY POKIGO (defender) earned Honorable Mention All-Ivy honors. The trio of Big Red players marked the first time Cornell has had at least three players earn All-Ivy honors in consecutive seasons since 2014 and 2015.

Cornell also opened the 2023 campaign unbeaten over its first six matches of the season (2-0-4), marking the fifth time in program history that the Big Red had not lost any of its first six matches of a season (1986, 1991, 2005, 2015, 2023). The Big Red also went 2-0-3 in its first five home games to register a program-record 11-game home unbeaten streak that dated back to 2022 (5-0-6).

During the 2022 season, Cornell had a 4-7-5 overall record and a 2-3-2 ledger in Ivy League play. Both of Cornell's conference victories — the most by the Big Red since 2016 — came in the program's final two matches of the season against Princeton and Dartmouth. The victory over Princeton was Cornell's first since 1995, snapping a 25-match losing streak to the Tigers.

The consecutive victories over Princeton and Dartmouth marked the first time Cornell had registered back-to-back wins in Ivy League contests since the final conference fixture in 2014 and the first league bout in 2015.

Cornell had a 3-1-3 record on its home turf at Berman Field in 2022, featuring the Big Red going unbeaten across its final six matches (3-0-3). The Big Red also had a trio of All-Ivy award winners, including Pauwels and Pokigo earning Second Team All-Ivy honors.

Ferguson's first year as Cornell's head coach did not see the Big Red play in any contests with the cancelation of all matches due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In his second year at the helm, Ferguson's first year of competition as head coach saw Cornell have an overall record of 3-11-2 and a 1-6-0 Ivy League mark. The lone league victory was the Big Red's first over an Ancient Eight opponent since defeating Columbia in 2016.

In his first overall season on East Hill as an assistant coach on Hornibook's staff in 2019, Ferguson guided the Big Red to four consecutive victories to start the season — including three straight clean sheets over Siena, Bucknell, and St. Bonaventure. Cornell ultimately finished the season with a 4-10-1 record after the rigors of one some of the strongest Ivy League competition seen in recent years. Ferguson helped get the Big Red's impact freshman class acclimated to collegiate competition, a group that included 2019 All-Ivy League honorable mention selection ASHLEY DURIK.

Ferguson joined the Big Red following a very successful stint as the director of coaching with the WNY Flash Academy. He helped turn the program into a player development leader in Western New York, expanding the program's footprint from 15 teams to 34 teams, and moving them into national recognition in Elite Clubs National League (ECNL).

Under Ferguson's leadership at the Flash, their 03G ECNL and 02G ECNL advanced into the Elite 8 in June 2018, and the club had their first US Youth National Team Camp call-up.

Before joining the WNY Flash Academy, Ferguson was the head coach of both the men's and women's soccer programs at Huston-Tillotson University, an NAIA institution based in Austin, Texas. Prior to that, he served as the executive director of business for the Lonestar Soccer Club for eight years, spanning from 2008 to 2015.

One of the largest and most successful youth soccer clubs in the country, Ferguson coached the Lonestar 96B Red, 93G Red, 94G Red and 95G Red, helping advance the 95G Red to the USYSNC Region III Championships in 2013 and 2014.

Previous stops for Ferguson included a stint as the head coach with Albion Hurricanes FC in Houston, where he guided the AHFC 94G Blue to the USYSNC Regionals for the first time in their history. Before that, he was the director of coaching for FC Arsenal for three years in Bastrop, Texas, and was a regional manager for Britannia Soccer/ProExcel, based in Seattle.

Ferguson is a graduate of the University of Manchester, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in sports studies and business management. He lives with his wife, Kelsey, their two children, Maxwell and Mirann, and their two dogs, Bonsai and Charlie.
