FIRST TOUCH

► The Cornell women's soccer team rounds out its three-match homestand with a contest against Boston College on Thursday at Berman Field before making the trip to Bethlehem, Pa., for a match against Patriot League rival Lehigh on Sunday afternoon at the Ulrich Sports Complex.

LAST TIME OUT

► ITHACA, N.Y. (SEPT. 1, 2024) — SYDNEY ALLEN picked an opportune time to record her first collegiate goal as the sophomore forward headed in a cross from the right side of the penalty area by classmate ALANNA COLBERT to guide Cornell to a 2-1 victory over its Central New York rival Syracuse on a picturesque Sunday afternoon on Berman Field.

► Joining Allen in the scoring column was senior forward LAKEN GALLMAN, who opened the scoring with a 22nd-minute tally. Junior goalkeeper Natalie Medugno also factored in the decision for Cornell, making a season-high five saves.

STARTING STRONG

► Cornell has an unbeaten record through its first three matches for a second consecutive season and 12th overall time in the program's 42 seasons of competition. The other instances in which Cornell did not lose any of its first three matches came in 1986, 1990, 1991, 1992, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2014, 2015, 2019, 2023.

► With a win or tie against Boston College on Thursday, it would mark the 10th time Cornell has not lost any of its first four matches in a season (1986, 1990, 1991, 1992, 2004, 2005, 2015, 2019, 2023).

► If the Big Red win or tie against Boston College and Lehigh, it would be the eighth time in program history that Cornell went unbeaten over its first five matches of a season (1986, 1991, 1992, 2004, 2005, 2015, 2023).

NON-LEAGUE DOMINANCE

► Cornell is riding a program-record 14-match unbeaten streak against non-conference opponents, dating back to the 2022 season. During the streak, Cornell has a 6-0-8 record (.714) against non-Ivy League competitors.

► With its win over Syracuse last Sunday on Berman Field, the Big Red broke its tie for the longest unbeaten streak in non-conference contests in program history, besting 13-match streaks set across 2001-03 (8-0-5) and 2014-16 (10-0-3).

► Cornell's last setback in non-league play came against Syracuse, 3-0, on Sept. 11, 2022, at SU Soccer Stadium in Syracuse. The previous instance in which Cornell dropped a non-conference match at Berman Field came against Marist, 2-1, on Aug. 28, 2022.

KNACK FOR THE NET

► Cornell has scored at least one goal in 36 of its 50 matches played under ROB FERGUSON, dating back to the 2021 campaign.

► The 72.0 percent of contests with a goal ranks as the highest clip in Cornell program history, surpassing RANDY MAY, the first head coach in program history, who saw his teams score in 67.7 percent of the 282 matches he coached during his 18-year tenure at the helm of the Big Red (191 games with a goal).

► As of late, the Big Red has displayed its scoring prowess by scoring at least one goal in each of its last nine contests, 19 of its previous 20 matches, and 22 of its latest 25 fixtures, dating back to 2022.

► With a goal against Boston College on Thursday, Cornell will have scored in 10 consecutive matches for the fifth time in program history. A 10-match goal streak would be tied for the second-longest in program history and be the first instance since scoring in 10 consecutive matches across the 2022 and 2023 seasons (Oct. 29, 2022 to Sept. 27, 2023).

► Entering Thursday's match with Boston College, Cornell has scored in 12 consecutive home contests, tied for the longest stretch of home fixtures with a goal scored. Cornell's previous record was initially set between the 2013 and 2014 seasons from Sept. 13, 2013, and Oct. 3, 2014, where Cornell scored 32 goals in 12 consecutive home matches.

► The Big Red's current 12-match streak of home games with a goal is the third instance in which Cornell has scored a goal in 10-plus consecutive home fixtures, also joined by a 10-match span between the 1985-87 seasons (Oct. 16, 1985 to Sept. 30, 1987).

EMPIRE STATE OF MIND

► Six of Cornell's first seven matches will feature the Big Red playing a contest within the Empire State, with the lone exception being this Sunday's contest against Lehigh in Bethlehem, Pa.

► Dating back to Sept. 4, 2022, the Big Red has a 9-4-11 record (.604) in matches played within New York State.

► Across its last 18 matches within New York, Cornell is unbeaten in 16 contests, posting an 8-2-8 record (.667). The lone setbacks came last season in Ivy League matchups on Berman Field against Harvard (3-1 — Oct. 7) and Brown (2-1 — Oct. 21).

GEOGRAPHICALLY DIVERSE

► Cornell women's soccer does not generally recruit a specific area of the nation, which is exemplified with the makeup of this year's roster.

► A total of 17 states are represented this season, spanning all four contiguous U.S. time zones. New York leads the way with six players while California is right behind with five. Texas ranks third with three student-athletes.

► Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania all have two representatives, while Colorado, Massachusetts, Michigan, North Carolina, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, and Washington are represented once.

RISTIANTO REPRESENTS INDONESIA

► This past summer, rising sophomore defender KAYLA RISTIANTO suited up for the Indonesian Women's National Team in a pair of friendlies in Hong Kong.

► The pair of contests between the Asian-based countries were held on July 11 and July 14 at the Hong Kong Football Club Ground, with Hong Kong taking both contests by 3-2 and 4-1 scores, respectively.

► "Very proud of Kayla for earning this opportunity to learn and grow, and incredibly excited for her to continue to shine on this next stage with the Indonesia National Team," said Cornell women's soccer head coach ROB FERGUSON.

EUROPEAN TRIP REWIND

► Upon the conclusion of classes last spring, Cornell took a trip to Europe, where the Big Red participated in three exhibition contests.

► A roster of 30 players and four staff left the United States on May 27, playing a trio of exhibitions against Spanish-based clubs.

► The Big Red claimed a 4-1 victory against its first opponent, Girona FC, which competes in the Preferente Catalana, the fifth tier of Spanish soccer. Cornell's middle match of the trip saw the Big Red play Levante Las Planas of Liga F, the top division of Spanish football, before wrapping its trio of contests was a 6-2 victory against Font Santa Fatjó.

IVY PRESEASON POLL

► Cornell was picked to finish eighth in this year's Ivy League women's soccer preseason poll, the conference office announced on Aug. 19.

► Harvard, which won the inaugural Ivy League Women's Soccer Tournament title last November, was tabbed the preseason favorite after garnering 10 of 16 first-place votes. The Crimson concluded with a point total of 120, 12 points ahead of Brown (108), which received four first-place votes. Right behind Brown was Princeton with its 103 points and the other two first-place votes.

► Rounding out the eight-team poll ahead of Cornell's 22 points was Columbia (77 points) in fourth, Dartmouth (57 points) in fifth, Yale (48 points) in sixth, and Penn (41 points) in seventh.

ROB FERGUSON

FIFTH YEAR (FOURTH SEASON) AS HEAD COACH

Years at Cornell: Sixth Year

College: University of Manchester

ROB FERGUSON, who is entering his fifth year as the head coach of the Cornell women's soccer team, was hired as the sixth head coach in program history in February 2020. Prior to his appointment as head coach, Ferguson served as an assistant coach for the Big Red during the 2019 campaign under previous head coach DWIGHT HORNIBROOK.

Ferguson's most recent campaign in 2023 saw Cornell register an overall record of 4-5-6 and an 0-5-2 mark in Ivy League action. The Big Red had its most offensive production in a season since 2015, as the Big Red recorded 21 goals and 58 points. REAGAN PAUWELS was named a Second Team All-Ivy selection for a second consecutive season while MIA GONZALEZ (forward) and CECILY POKIGO (defender) earned Honorable Mention All-Ivy honors. The trio of Big Red players marked the first time Cornell has had at least three players earn All-Ivy honors in consecutive seasons since 2014 and 2015.

Cornell also opened the 2023 campaign unbeaten over its first six matches of the season (2-0-4), marking the fifth time in program history that the Big Red had not lost any of its first six matches of a season (1986, 1991, 2005, 2015, 2023). The Big Red also went 2-0-3 in its first five home games to register a program-record 11-game home unbeaten streak that dated back to 2022 (5-0-6).

During the 2022 season, Cornell had a 4-7-5 overall record and a 2-3-2 ledger in Ivy League play. Both of Cornell's conference victories — the most by the Big Red since 2016 — came in the program's final two matches of the season against Princeton and Dartmouth. The victory over Princeton was Cornell's first since 1995, snapping a 25-match losing streak to the Tigers.

The consecutive victories over Princeton and Dartmouth marked the first time Cornell had registered back-to-back wins in Ivy League contests since the final conference fixture in 2014 and the first league bout in 2015.

Cornell had a 3-1-3 record on its home turf at Berman Field in 2022, featuring the Big Red going unbeaten across its final six matches (3-0-3). The Big Red also had a trio of All-Ivy award winners, including Pauwels and Pokigo earning Second Team All-Ivy honors.

Ferguson's first year as Cornell's head coach did not see the Big Red play in any contests with the cancelation of all matches due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In his second year at the helm, Ferguson's first year of competition as head coach saw Cornell have an overall record of 3-11-2 and a 1-6-0 Ivy League mark. The lone league victory was the Big Red's first over an Ancient Eight opponent since defeating Columbia in 2016.

In his first overall season on East Hill as an assistant coach on Hornibook's staff in 2019, Ferguson guided the Big Red to four consecutive victories to start the season — including three straight clean sheets over Siena, Bucknell, and St. Bonaventure. Cornell ultimately finished the season with a 4-10-1 record after the rigors of one some of the strongest Ivy League competition seen in recent years. Ferguson helped get the Big Red's impact freshman class acclimated to collegiate competition, a group that included 2019 All-Ivy League honorable mention selection ASHLEY DURIK.

Ferguson joined the Big Red following a very successful stint as the director of coaching with the WNY Flash Academy. He helped turn the program into a player development leader in Western New York, expanding the program's footprint from 15 teams to 34 teams, and moving them into national recognition in Elite Clubs National League (ECNL).

Under Ferguson's leadership at the Flash, their 03G ECNL and 02G ECNL advanced into the Elite 8 in June 2018, and the club had their first US Youth National Team Camp call-up.

Before joining the WNY Flash Academy, Ferguson was the head coach of both the men's and women's soccer programs at Huston-Tillotson University, an NAIA institution based in Austin, Texas. Prior to that, he served as the executive director of business for the Lonestar Soccer Club for eight years, spanning from 2008 to 2015.

One of the largest and most successful youth soccer clubs in the country, Ferguson coached the Lonestar 96B Red, 93G Red, 94G Red and 95G Red, helping advance the 95G Red to the USYSNC Region III Championships in 2013 and 2014.

Previous stops for Ferguson included a stint as the head coach with Albion Hurricanes FC in Houston, where he guided the AHFC 94G Blue to the USYSNC Regionals for the first time in their history. Before that, he was the director of coaching for FC Arsenal for three years in Bastrop, Texas, and was a regional manager for Britannia Soccer/ProExcel, based in Seattle.

Ferguson is a graduate of the University of Manchester, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in sports studies and business management. He lives with his wife, Kelsey, their two children, Maxwell and Mirann, and their two dogs, Bonsai and Charlie.
