PUCK DROP

► No. 20-ranked Cornell officially begins its 109th season of men's hockey this weekend with a two-game series against No. 13 UMass (5-2-0, 0-1-0 Hockey East) at the Mullins Center in Amherst, Mass.

► Puck drop is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday and 6 p.m. Saturday, with both games streaming live on ESPN+. Jay Burnham will call the play-by-play on both broadcasts and will have Colin Casey (Friday) and Adam Frenier (Saturday) providing analysis for the respective games.

LAST TIME OUT

► ITHACA, N.Y. (OCT. 25, 2025) — Junior forward JAKE KRAFT recorded a goal and two assists, one of four players with multi-point nights, to lead No. 19 Cornell to a 5-4 exhibition victory over the U.S. National Team Development Program Under-18 Team at Lynah Rink.

► Junior forward RYAN WALSH and sophomore forward CHARLIE MAJOR each added a goal and an assist for Cornell, which outshot the visitors 37-19. Junior defenseman GEORGE FEGARAS chipped in a pair of assists.

► Senior goaltender REMINGTON KEOPPLE earned the win in relief, stopping five of seven shots over the final 29:28. Freshman netminder ALEXIS COURNOYER started and made 10 saves on 12 shots in the first 30:32.

OPENING WEEKEND

► Cornell holds a 37-17-4 (.672) record over the first two games of a season since 1995-96 — the first year under recently retired head coach MIKE SCHAFER '86. The Big Red are 19-9-2 (.667) in season openers during that span and will seek its third straight opening-night win on Friday.

► This weekend marks the fourth consecutive year Cornell is opening its season against a ranked opponent, following matchups against Minnesota Duluth (No. 19 in 2022-23 and No. 11 in 2023-24) and No. 6 North Dakota (2024-25).

► A win Friday would be the sixth time Cornell has won at least three straight season openers. It would be the first occurrence since 2004-06, while also joining spans from 1963-78 (16 seasons), 1982-85 and 1990-93 (4 seasons each), and 1996-98 (3 seasons).

ON THE ROAD AGAIN...

► Cornell is opening the 2025-26 campaign on a four-game road trip, the program's longest season-opening road stand since 2022-23, when the Big Red opened with a six-game road swing. That 2022-23 trip included a two-game series at No. 19 Minnesota Duluth before Cornell opened ECAC Hockey play at Princeton, No. 7 Quinnipiac, St. Lawrence, and Clarkson.

► This marks just the fourth time in Cornell's modern era, since 1957-58, that the Big Red have played at least their first four regular-season games away from Lynah Rink. The other occasions came in 1959-60 (first nine games on road or at neutral sites), 2016-17 (first five games on the road), and 2022-23 (first six games on the road).

PASSING THE TORCH ON EAST HILL

► A new era has arrived on East Hill for the Cornell men's hockey team as former captain CASEY JONES '90 has assumed head coaching duties from legendary head coach MIKE SCHAFER '86, who retired after a 30-year tenure.

► With Jones taking the reins, the 2025-26 season continues an impressive lineage of former players coaching the Big Red. This season marks the 39th consecutive year a Cornell graduate has served as head coach, joining BRIAN McCUTCHEON '71 (1987-95) and Schafer (1995-2025).

► Cornell owns the second-longest active streak in Division I hockey of having an alumnus serve as head coach, trailing only Boston University, which has had a graduate at the helm for each of the last 53 seasons, highlighted by Jack Parker's 40-year tenure from 1973-74 to 2012-13. New Hampshire (36 years) and Boston College (32 years) are the only other programs with at least a 30-year streak of former players serving as men's hockey head coach.

► Dating to the 1970-71 season, the first year DICK BERTRAND '70 served as Cornell's head coach, the Big Red have featured an alum as head coach in 50 of the last 56 years.

► Jones is one of 11 new head coaches in Division I hockey this season and one of three new coaches in ECAC Hockey, joining RPI's Eric Lang and Yale's Joe Howe, who is serving as interim head coach of the Bulldogs for the 2025-26 season.

ECAC HOCKEY PRESEASON POLL

► The ECAC Hockey conference office announced Sept. 25 that Cornell was picked to finish third in its annual coaches' preseason poll. Cornell received one of the 12 first-place votes, finishing as one of three teams with more than 100 points (111).

► Quinnipiac was tabbed to finish as ECAC Hockey's regular-season champion, garnering nine first-place votes and finishing with 129 points, ahead of Clarkson, which had the remaining two first-place votes, by 11 points (118). Dartmouth (97 points) finished 14 points behind the Big Red, as it was selected to finish fourth to round out the projected first-round byes for the 2026 ECAC Hockey Championship.

► Union was right behind Dartmouth with 93 points, and Harvard (79), Colgate (77), and Princeton (55) were slated to host first-round games. Rounding out the 12-team poll were St. Lawrence (48), Brown (47), RPI (42), and Yale (27).

PERENNIAL POWER

► Cornell began the season ranked No. 17 in the preseason USCHO.com poll, which was released Sept. 22. It marked the Big Red's ninth consecutive season starting ranked in the top 20 of the preseason USCHO poll.

► It is the second-longest streak in program history, trailing only an 11-year span when the Big Red were ranked in the preseason poll from 2002 to 2012.

► Cornell is one of four Division I programs that have been ranked in the preseason top 20 in each of the last nine seasons, joined by Denver, North Dakota and Providence.

► North Dakota (25 consecutive years) and Denver (24 straight) are the only two Division I programs that have been ranked in the top 20 of the preseason poll since USCHO permanently increased its poll from 15 to 20 teams for the 2005-06 season. North Dakota's streak — the longest active in Division I hockey — dates to the 1997-98 season.

► Providence is the only other team ahead of Cornell, having been named a preseason top-20 team in each of the last 13 preseason polls, dating to the 2013-14 campaign.

► Across USCHO's 29 preseason polls, Cornell has been included 23 times, making the Big Red one of seven Division I programs to appear in at least 20 preseason polls, joined by North Dakota (29), Boston College (27), Michigan (27), Minnesota (26), Boston University (25) and Denver (25).

CORNELL
HOCKEY

FAITHFUL TO LYNAH

► Cornell enters this weekend owning the third-best home win percentage among Division I programs since the start of the 2017-18 season, despite playing on the road for the first two weekends.

► Only Minnesota State (126-28-7 — .804) and Denver (109-27-13 — .775) have higher win percentages than the Big Red during the timeframe, as Cornell is one of five programs with at least a .700 home win percentage. Accompanying the Big Red are fellow ECAC Hockey rival Quinnipiac (102-35-6 — .734) and North Dakota (104-38-12 — .714).

► The Big Red have won at least nine home games in each of the last seven seasons it has played, as Cornell withheld from playing during the 2020-21 campaign due to Ivy League's decision regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.

► Cornell is tied with Clarkson, Denver, Quinnipiac, and UMass for the fourth-most nine-win seasons in Division I hockey since 2017-18, only trailing Minnesota, Minnesota State, and North Dakota, who have all won at least nine games in each of the last eight years. Minnesota owns the longest active streak in Division I hockey, having won at least nine games at home in each of the last 49 years, dating back to 1977-78, while Minnesota State has at least 10-plus home wins in each of the last 13 years.

TIME TO STUDY THE ROSTER

► Cornell has 14 newcomers on this year's roster — 12 freshmen and two sophomore transfers — matching the program's highest total since 2021-22, when the Big Red added 14 freshmen following the COVID-19 cancellation of the 2020-21 season.

► Only four teams in program history have had more newcomers: 1992-93 (18), 1957-58 (16), 1964-65 (16), and 1978-79 (16). The 1978-79 team included four transfers from Penn, which disbanded its program that year.

► Newcomers comprise 45.2 percent of Cornell's roster, the 13th-highest percentage in the program's modern era (since 1957-58) and the highest since 2021-22 (46.7 percent).

► Cornell's 12 freshmen are tied with Alaska, Boston University, Bowling Green, Colorado College, UMass Lowell, and Miami (Ohio) for second-most in Division I, trailing only Michigan Tech (13).

YOU FEEL THAT (NHL) DRAFT?

► Cornell has nine players drafted by NHL clubs, the program's highest total since 2005-06. Only the 1990-91 (14) and 2004-05 (10) teams had more NHL draft picks on their roster.

► For the first time in program history, Cornell has three draft picks selected within the first three rounds: junior forward JONATHAN CASTAGNA (70th overall, Utah via Arizona), sophomore defenseman MICHAEL FISHER (76th, San Jose) and junior defenseman GEORGE FEGARAS (83rd, Dallas). The Big Red previously had two players selected in the first three rounds 10 times, most recently in three of the last four seasons.

► Fisher is the highest-drafted Cornell defenseman since SASHA POKULOK went 14th overall to Washington in 2005.

► Freshman goaltender ALEXIS COURNOYER was Cornell's lone selection in June's NHL Entry Draft, taken in the fifth round (145th overall) by Montréal. He became the 13th Big Red goaltender to be drafted and the first since DAVID LeNEVEU went in the second round (48th overall) to Phoenix in 2002.

► Cornell's nine NHL draft picks are tied with Colorado College for 11th-most in Division I. Boston University leads the nation with 19, followed by Michigan State (15), Denver (14), Michigan and Minnesota (13 each), Boston College and North Dakota (12 each), and Harvard, Western Michigan and Wisconsin (10 each).

(BIG) RED MEANS STOP

► Cornell has firmly established itself as one of the nation's premier defensive programs, ranking among the top 10 in Division I for scoring defense 12 times over the past two decades — the most by any Division I team during that span. The Big Red are one of three programs to post 10 or more top-10 finishes in that period, alongside Denver and Minnesota State (10 each).

► Over the last nine seasons, Cornell has finished top 10 nationally in scoring defense seven times, tying Minnesota State for the most in Division I. The Big Red have also placed top 12 in each of their last eight seasons, one more than Denver and Minnesota State, and in 10 of their last 11 campaigns, matching Minnesota State for the national lead.

► Across the past decade, Cornell has allowed an average of 1.985 goals per game, joining only Minnesota State (1.889) as the lone Division I programs to yield fewer than two goals per contest.

► That consistency extends beyond recent years — Cornell has not conceded 100 or more goals in a season since 1997-98, a streak spanning 26 consecutive seasons. The run stands as the longest active in Division I hockey, double the next-closest streaks by Minnesota State and Providence (13 each). Clarkson (8) and Quinnipiac (7) rank second and third, respectively, in ECAC Hockey.

LIGHTING THE LAMP (CARNELIAN) RED

► On the opposite end of Cornell's defensive prowess, the Big Red have also shown a consistent ability to light the lamp. Cornell has averaged at least three goals per game in each of the past seven seasons, dating back to 2017-18.

► The Big Red's seven-year streak of averaging three or more goals per game is the second-longest active run in Division I hockey, trailing Western Michigan's nine-season streak. Boston University and North Dakota each enter the year with six consecutive seasons above the three-goal mark, while Quinnipiac holds ECAC Hockey's second-longest active streak at five seasons.

► Since the 2017-18 season, Cornell ranks 12th nationally in goal scoring (3.204), one of just 17 Division I programs averaging at least three goals per contest. The Big Red's average is second-best in ECAC Hockey behind only Quinnipiac (3.436, sixth nationally), while Denver leads all Division I teams at 3.650 goals per game.

FINDING HIS SCORING TOUCH

► Forward RYAN WALSH enters his junior season with 29 career goals, including 17 as a sophomore last year — the most by a Big Red player since JOE DEVIN '11 matched that total in 2010-11 and the most by a sophomore since MATT MOULSON netted 18 in 2003-04.

► Walsh's 29 goals rank third among Cornell players through their first two seasons over the last 40 years, trailing only TRENT ANDISON (48, 1987-89) and Moulson (31, 2002-04). He is one of seven Big Red players to score at least 25 goals in his first two collegiate seasons since 1985-86, also joining KENT MANDERVILLE (28, 1989-91), RYAN HUGHES (25, 1989-91), COLIN GREENING (25, 2006-08), and RILEY NASH (25, 2007-09).

► Walsh's 29 goals since the start of the 2023-24 season are tied with Miami's Matteo Giampa and Ohio State's Riley Thompson for 18th among active Division I players and 12th for players through their junior year.

► Walsh's 53 points (29 goals, 24 assists) are the most by a Cornell player through two seasons since Nash (66, 2007-09). He is the 11th Big Red player since 1985-86 to reach 53 points through his sophomore year, joining Hughes (25-50—75, 1989-91), Andison (38-33—71, 1987-89), KYLE KNOPP (24-41—65, 1995-97), DOUG DERRAUGH (20-38—58, 1987-89), Moulson (31-27—58, 2002-04), Manderville (28-29—57, 1989-91), RYAN VESCE (17-40—57, 2000-02), RYAN MOYNIHAN (22-31—53, 1996-98), and DENIS LADOUCEUR (24-29—53, 1998-00).

THE GAME'S ON HIS STICK!

► Seven of junior RYAN WALSH's 29 career goals have been game-winners for the Big Red. Walsh enters this weekend tied with Ohio State's Davis Burnside, Bemidji State's Adam Flammang, Bentley's Kellan Hjartarson, Michigan's T.J. Hughes, Wisconsin's Kyle Kukkonen, Minnesota's Brody Lamb, and UConn's Joey Muldowney for the ninth-most career game-winning goals among active Division I skaters.

► Michigan State's Daniel Russell leads all active players with 12 career game-winners, followed closely by Minnesota State's Adam Eisele, Denver's Sam Harris, and Brown's Ryan St. Louis with 10 each.

► With his next decisive tally, Walsh will move into an 11-way tie for 27th on Cornell's all-time list and record the most game-winning goals by a Big Red player since ANTHONY ANGELLO netted 10 during his career from 2015 to 2018. TRENT ANDISON holds the program record with 15 career game-winners.

ON THE PLUS SIDE...

► Senior forward NICK DeSANTIS begins the season with a career plus-minus rating of plus-36, ranking 13th among active Division I players.

► Among active forwards, DeSantis ranks fifth nationally, trailing Quinnipiac's Mason Marcellus (+46), Boston College's Andre Gasseau (+42), and Quinnipiac's Victor Czerneckianair and Denver's Rieger Lorenz (each +40). He's also one of 12 Division I forwards to own a career rating of at least plus-30.

► DeSantis' mark matches that of current NHLer MORGAN BARRON for the 12th-highest in program history since the stat was officially tracked in 2002-03.

► Along with junior defenseman HOYT STANLEY's career plus-30 rating, Cornell is one of six Division I programs to feature multiple players with career plus-minus ratings of at least plus-30, joining Denver (five), Boston College (four), Quinnipiac (three), and Minnesota and Ohio State (two each).

PUTTING THE 'BIG' IN BIG RED

► Cornell ranks second nationally in average height (6-foot-1.7) and weight (198.0 pounds) this season, according to College Hockey, Inc. research, trailing UMass (6-foot-1.9) and Notre Dame (200.3 pounds), respectively.

► The Big Red are one of seven programs to rank in the top 10 in both average height and weight, alongside Brown, Harvard, North Dakota, Notre Dame, St. Cloud State, and UMass.

► This year's average height and weight both rank among the largest averages in Cornell's modern era, dating back to 1957-58. The average height surpasses the previous record set in 2015-16 by 0.16 inches, while the weight ranks as the fourth-heaviest in program history, only trailing the squads from 2015-16 (198.86 lbs.), 2014-15 (198.85 lbs.), and 1999-00 (198.70 lbs.).

► Freshman goaltender ALEXIS COURNOYER is not your stereotypical Cornell goaltender. The 6-foot-4 native of Trois-Rivières, Québec, is the tallest netminder on record in the modern era of the Big Red men's hockey program. Cournoyer edged the late Cornell Athletics and Hockey Hall of Fame goaltender KEN DRYDEN '69 (1966-69), JEAN-MARC PELLETIER (1995-97), and HAYDEN STEWART '18 (2014-18) for the unique distinction.

► Sophomore defenseman LUKE ASHTON (6-foot-5) is tied for being the tallest blueliner in program history, matching the heights of R.J. FARNWORTH (1983-84), RYAN O'BYRNE (2003-06), SASHA POKULOK (2004-06), and DAN WEDMAN (2014-17). Ashton, along with sophomore forward PARKER MURRAY and freshman forward REEGAN HISCOCK — both of whom also measure at 6-foot-5 — are the first Big Red trio to stand at 6-foot-5 or taller since 2017-18, when BEAU STARRETT, ANTHONY ANGELLO, and DWYER TSCHANTZ '18, all registered 6-foot-5 measurements.

MAKING A STRONG IMPRESSION

► When opening a brand-new season, the uncertainty of how first-year players will acclimate to the college game is seemingly always questioned. That has not been the case for Cornell over the last seven seasons, as the Big Red have had a freshman score in each of their previous seven season-opening contests.

► Last year against No. 6-ranked North Dakota at Lynah Rink, defenseman NICHOLAS WOLFENBERG scored at the 12:32 mark of the first period to give Cornell a 3-1 lead in an eventual 4-1 victory over the Fighting Hawks.

► Wolfenberg became the third Cornell freshman blueliner to score in a season opener, joining SASHA POKULOK, who scored against Army in a 7-1 win on Oct. 29, 2004, and JOAKIM RYAN, who scored twice in a 5-4 loss to Mercyhurst on Oct. 29, 2011.

► Forwards RYAN WALSH (2023-24), WINTER WALLACE (2022-23), ONDREJ PSENICKA (2021-22), JACK MALONE (2019-20), MAX ANDREEV (2018-19), and MORGAN BARRON (2017-18) are the others to score their first collegiate goals in the Big Red's last six season openers.

► ANTHONY ANGELLO also scored in his first collegiate game in the 2015-16 season, giving Cornell a first-year goal-scorer in eight of the previous nine seasons.

HAIL TO THEE, OUR ALMA MATER!

► CASEY JONES '90, the Jay R. Bloom '77 Head Coach of Cornell Men's Ice Hockey, is one of 25 Division I head coaches leading his alma mater this season.

► Roughly 40 percent of the 63 active Division I programs are helmed by alumni head coaches. Within ECAC Hockey, Jones is joined by Ted Donato (Harvard), Mike Harder (Colgate), Jean-François Houle (Clarkson), and Brendan Whittet (Brown).

► ECAC Hockey is tied for the national lead with five alumni head coaches, alongside Hockey East and the NCHC. The Big Ten and CCHA each have three, while Atlantic Hockey and the Independents feature two apiece.

WALSH TO WEAR THE 'C'

► Junior forward RYAN WALSH has been named captain of the Cornell hockey team, head coach CASEY JONES '90 announced Sept. 30.

► Senior defenseman JACK O'BRIEN and junior forward JONATHAN CASTAGNA will serve as alternate captains alongside Walsh.

► "We have a large contingent of guys who can be leaders in our locker room — it's one of the program's strengths," Jones said, who also captained the Big Red during his senior season in 1989-90. "We have a lot of guys who lead by example and do things the right way. It was evident, talking with players and our staff, that these three came to the forefront as emblematic of what Cornell hockey is all about. When you have guys who work this hard, do things the right way, and are great players, it's a good combination with Ryan, Jonathan, and Jack."

► Walsh becomes the 22nd player since the 1957-58 season to be named a captain within his junior year — and only the fourth to do so as the team's lone captain, joining STEPHEN BÄBY (2001-02), JOHN MCCARRON (2013-14), and KYLE PENNEY (2023-24).

MODEL OF CONSISTENCY

► With its win over RPI in the regular-season finale this past March 1, Cornell registered its eighth consecutive season with at least 10 victories in ECAC Hockey play.

► The streak is the third-longest in program history, trailing only a 19-year span from 1964-83 and a 13-season streak from 1999-2012. Under MIKE SCHAFER '86, who retired at the conclusion of last season, the Big Red had at least 10 conference victories in 24 out of 29 seasons played (82.8 percent).

► Cornell's active streak of 10-win conference seasons is the fourth-longest in Division I hockey, trailing Minnesota State (13 seasons), Boston University (11 seasons), and Western Michigan (9 seasons).

IN ELITE COMPANY

► Cornell enters this season as one of six Division I programs to have qualified for the NCAA Tournament in at least three consecutive seasons, joining Quinnipiac (six), Minnesota (five), Denver and Western Michigan (four each), and Boston University (three).

► Among that group, Cornell and Boston University are the only programs to have won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of their last three appearances.

MAKING THEIR NUMBERS

► Sophomore goaltender JUSTIN KATZ (No. 37), junior forward JONATHAN CASTAGNA (No. 38), and freshman goaltender ERICK ROEST (No. 40) are the first players to wear their respective sweater numbers in Cornell men's hockey history.

► Roest is the first player in program history to wear a sweater number of 40 or higher, besting the previous high of goaltender EDDY SKAZYK's No. 39 from 1994-96.

► Castagna is the first forward in Cornell program history to wear a number north of 30, and his No. 38 sweater is the highest number ever worn by a Big Red player since Skazyk donned No. 39 between the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons.

► Junior defenseman MARIAN MOSKO is just the second player since LANE MONTESANO (1957-59) to wear No. 13, and the first defenseman to don the oft-deemed "unlucky" number in 66 years. Forward JACK MALONE '23 wore No. 13 from 2019-23, while Montesano split time as both a forward and defenseman.

CORNELL'S MELTING POT

► This year's roster of 31 players features three countries (Canada, Slovakia, United States), 10 states (California, Colorado, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont, and Wisconsin), and six Canadian provinces (Alberta, British Columbia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Ontario, and Québec) represented.

► Freshman forward CONNOR ARSENEAULT is one of six Division I hockey players to reside in the maritime province of New Brunswick, joining Matteo Mann (Colorado College), Josh Nadeau (Maine), Ryan Nause (Bentley), Sam Oliver (New Hampshire), and Kale McCallum (Providence). Arseneault is the Big Red's first player from the province since MITCH VANDERLAAN (2015-19).

► REEGAN HISCOCK, another freshman forward, is one of five Division I players from Newfoundland and Labrador, alongside Conor Cole (Alaska Anchorage), Jaden Dyke (LIU), Mark Hillier (Merrimack), and Alex Power (Quinnipiac). Hiscock is Cornell's fourth-ever Newfoundlander and first since Colin GREENING (2006-10).

► Another freshman forward, GIO DiGIULIAN, is one of six Vermonters in Division I hockey, accompanying Jacob Bernadet (St. Lawrence), PJ Forgione and Caeden Harrington (Vermont), Nicholas Niemo (Niagara), and Carter Rapalje (Ferris State). DiGiulian is the second Cornell player ever from the Green Mountain State, joining goaltender GEOFF RAYNAK (1992-93).

If you've never been to a Big Red hockey game at Cornell's Lynah Rink, there are quite a few things you've never experienced. You've never camped in line to get season tickets and ensure your spot as one of the raucous and devoted "Lynah Faithful." But most importantly, if you've never been to Lynah, you've never experienced all the best that college hockey offers.

Lynah Rink, which enters its 68th year serving as the home of Big Red hockey this season, was formally dedicated on April 6, 1957, a month after its opening to the public on March 4, 1957. The facility, which was built following a $500,000 anonymous donation (approximately $5.59 million in 2024), honors the late JAMES LYNAB '05, who served as the director of athletics at Cornell from 1935-43.

The donation to build Lynah Rink resurrected the Cornell hockey program following a 10-year hiatus, ensuring hockey returned as a varsity sport for the 1957-58 season.

Cornell began sponsoring hockey as a varsity sport with the 1900-01 season, which featured all Big Red home games played on the university's outdoor rink on Beebe Lake. Due to a series of abnormally mild winters, the program was left — literally — on thin ice, causing Cornell to drop the program entirely after the 1947-48 campaign.

Since its opening in March of 1957, Lynah Rink has received numerous face-lifts since hosting its inaugural event on March 21, 1957, a 7-3 victory for the NHL's New York Rangers in an exhibiton against the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League (AHL). Hockey Hall of Fame goaltender Gump Worsley stopped 44 shots in the victory for the Rangers.

Among the renovations, Cornell spent nearly $1 million in the summer of 2000, to replace the rink floor, drainage system, frost protection and refrigeration piping, and adding new boards and seamless glass.

During the summer of 2006, a 16,700-square-foot expansion added new locker rooms, coaches offices, study lounges, new athletic training space, and approximately 450 new seats in the seating bowl.

Over last season's winter break, updated Cornell branding on the façade and south concourse brought a more modern look to the facility.

Though many physical aspects of Lynah Rink have changed over time, the crowd remains constant. Lynah Rink can hold 4,267 boisterous Cornell hockey fans, who provide unwavering support for the Big Red while creating an unparalleled atmosphere in college hockey.

Although many rinks in the nation are bigger in capacity, few are known to be louder. The Cornell fans, aptly named the "Lynah Faithful," stream into every home contest, making themselves as much a part of the game as the players do. Whether they're cheering for the Big Red or joining the pep band in their rendition of "Give My Regards to Davy," the Lynah Faithful reaffirms the old saying, "There's no place like home."

Since the doors opened on Lynah Rink, the Cornell men's hockey program has won a pair of NCAA Division I men's hockey championships in 1967 and 1970, garnering an ECAC Hockey-record 13 tournament championships (1967-70, 1973, 1980, 1986, 1996-97, 2003, 2005, 2010, 2024) and 26 Ivy League titles, 22 of which have been won outright.

CASEY JONES '90

1ST SEASON AS CORNELL HEAD COACH

Years at Cornell: 7th Season; 2nd Season of Third Stint
College: Cornell '90

CASEY JONES '90 is entering his first season as the Jay R. Bloom '77 Head Coach of Cornell Men's Ice Hockey, taking over for soon-to-be Cornell Athletics Hall of Fame head coach MIKE SCHAFER '86, who retired after spending a program-record 30 seasons as the Big Red's head coach (1995-25).

Officially the 13th head coach in Cornell program history, Jones is entering the second season of his third stint on the Big Red coaching staff, having served as an assistant coach (1991-93) and associate head coach between 2008-11 in addition to last season.

Returning to East Hill following a 13-year tenure at fellow ECAC Hockey rival Clarkson (2012-24), Jones amassed a record of 234-185-56 (.552) with the Golden Knights, which included him winning the Tim Taylor Award, ECAC Hockey's Coach of the Year, in 2019.

While at Clarkson, the Golden Knights registered six 20-win seasons, four of which came during a five-year stretch between 2015 and 2020. Clarkson, who finished within the top 16 in pairwise ranking for five consecutive seasons (2017-22), made a pair of NCAA Tournaments in 2018 and 2019, and was poised for a third consecutive trip in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic halted those aspirations. The Golden Knights made the ECAC Hockey semifinals on three occasions (2018, 2019, 2022) under Jones, which included claiming the 2019 ECAC Hockey Tournament title.

Prior to his first head coaching appointment, Jones returned to Cornell for a three-year stint, serving as an associate head coach from 2008-11. The Big Red appeared in two NCAA Tournaments and won the 2010 ECAC Hockey Championship title while Jones was on staff, where the Big Red posted a 59-34-11 (.620) record and 38-20-8 (.636) mark in ECAC Hockey contests.

Jones returned to East Hill after coaching at Ohio State for 13 seasons (1995-2008) on John Markell's staff, serving as an assistant coach for nine years (1995-2004) before being elevated to associate head coach for his remaining four years with the Buckeyes. While at Ohio State, Jones served as the program's recruiting coordinator, aiding in the recruitment of 20 NHL draft picks — including a trio of first-round picks in R.J. Umberger (16th overall in 2001), Dave Steckel (30th overall in 2001), and Ryan Kesler (23rd overall in 2003).

Known for being a staunch recruiter, the Buckeyes earned five NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by a trip to the 1998 Frozen Four, where Ohio State fell to Boston College in the national semifinal. Ohio State won one Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) Super Six title in 2004, defeating Michigan for the program's first CCHA championship in 32 years.

One year following his graduation from Cornell in 1990 with a degree in business management, Jones found his spot on Cornell's bench, serving as an assistant coach under BRIAN McCUTCHEON, the head coach whom he played for. Jones spent two seasons on McCutcheon's staff from 1991-93 before making the move north to Clarkson for a two-year stint as an assistant on Mark Morris' staff from 1993-95. While with the Golden Knights, Clarkson generated a 43-19-9 (.669) record, winning the 1995 ECAC Hockey Championship title to clinch the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

A standout centerman for the Big Red between 1986 and 1990, Jones accrued 112 points (30 goals, 82 assists) in 110 career games for Cornell, highlighted by registering 30-point seasons as a sophomore in 1987-88 (10-22—32) and a junior in 1988-89 (8-27—35). Jones also served as a captain during his senior season.

Following his freshman season at Cornell, Jones was drafted by the Boston Bruins in the 10th round (203rd overall) of the 1987 NHL Entry Draft.

Originally from Témiscaming, Québec, Jones is married to his wife, Kimberlee, a Cornell alumna, and has two children, Gabi and Bryan.

KEN DRYDEN

1947-2025

KEN DRYDEN '69, the legendary Cornell men's hockey goaltender who still holds the program record for career wins (76) and backstopped the Big Red to its first national championship in 1967, died Sept. 5, after a courageous battle with cancer. He was 78.

"KEN DRYDEN was not only one of the greatest goaltenders in the history of hockey, but also a symbol of excellence, intellect, and leadership who represented Cornell with unmatched distinction," said Dr. NICKI MOORE, Cornell's Meakem & Smith Director of Athletics & Physical Education. "His impact on the game, on our university, and in communities throughout his homeland in Canada will endure far beyond the ice. Cornell Athletics & Physical Education mourns his passing, and we extend our deepest condolences to his family, friends, and all who were inspired by his extraordinary life."

"KEN DRYDEN was the quintessential student-athlete," added CASEY JONES '90, the current Jay R. Bloom '77 Head Coach of Cornell Men's Ice Hockey. "He was a great ambassador for Cornell and hockey in general. Our thoughts are with his family and friends."

"Intelligent, classy, articulate, kind, athletic, and thoughtful are just a few characteristics that come to mind," stated former Cornell men's hockey head coach MIKE SCHAFER '86. "KEN DRYDEN was a legend and a trailblazer in the sport of hockey. Cornell University, Cornell Hockey, the Montréal Canadiens, and the hockey community have lost one of the greatest ambassadors for our sport. Our thoughts go out to his family, and especially his wife, Lynda."

At Cornell, Dryden compiled a remarkable 76-4-1 record with a 1.59 goals-against average and .939 save percentage, while leading the Big Red to the first three of its four consecutive ECAC Hockey Tournament titles (1967-69), two ECAC Hockey regular-season championships (1968 and 1969), and the 1967 NCAA title. His career goals-against average and save percentage still rank second in program history among eligible goaltenders.

After graduating from Cornell in 1969 with a degree in history, Dryden launched an extraordinary eight-year NHL career with the Montréal Canadiens. He won six Stanley Cups, five Vezina Trophies, the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1971 as the Stanley Cup Playoffs' MVP, and the Calder Trophy in 1972 as the league's Rookie of the Year.

In 1973, Dryden earned the first of his five Vezina Trophies after leading the league in wins (33), goals-against average (2.26), and save percentage (.926). He remains one of four goaltenders in NHL history to win the award at least five times, alongside Jacques Plante (seven), Bill Durnan (six), and Dominik Hasek (six).

Dryden stepped away from hockey for the 1973-74 season, briefly retiring while earning a law degree from McGill University and working at a Toronto law firm, before returning to the Canadiens in 1974. Over the next five seasons, he anchored one of the NHL's most dominant dynasties, guiding the Canadiens to four straight Stanley Cups (1976-79) and capturing the Vezina Trophy each year. During that stretch, he posted a 150-33-30 record with a 2.13 goals-against average, .920 save percentage, and 28 shutouts.

"From the moment KEN DRYDEN joined Montréal as a 23-year-old rookie in 1971, he made an immediate and lasting impact on the NHL, the Canadiens franchise, and the goaltending position," said NHL Commissioner and fellow Cornell alumnus GARY BETTMAN '74 in a statement. "After playing six regular-season games during that first year, Ken proceeded to lead his team to a Stanley Cup while winning the Conn Smythe Trophy as the playoffs' most valuable player. It is almost incomprehensible to believe that he accomplished all of that the year prior to winning the Calder Memorial Trophy as the League's best rookie in 1971-72.

"Ken's early success was only a harbinger of what was to come. In eight years with the Canadiens, Ken would lead a team filled with future Hall of Famers to six Stanley Cup championships, quickly becoming a beloved figure in his adopted hometown of Montréal. He won five Vezina Trophies as the League's top goaltender, including four consecutive awards from 1975-76 to 1978-79. Named as a member of the League's Greatest 100, he was the NHL's dominant goaltender during the 1970s.

"On a personal note, Ken was a fellow Cornellian whose career ranks among the greatest runs in collegiate hockey and famously led the Big Red to the 1967 NCAA Championship. On behalf of the National Hockey League, we mourn the passing of a legendary Canadian and extend our sincere condolences to his wife Lynda, family, and many friends and fans all over the hockey world."

Dryden was inducted into the Cornell Athletics Hall of Fame in 1978 and the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1983, both in his first year of eligibility. His No. 29 sweater was retired by the Canadiens in 2007, and his No. 1 sweater was retired by Cornell in 2010, alongside JOE NIEUWENDYK's No. 25.

In 1971, Dryden became the first rookie in league history to capture the Conn Smythe Trophy as the most valuable player of the Stanley Cup playoffs, cementing his place as one of the game's greats. He was named one of the NHL's top 100 players of all time in 2017.

A 1983 inductee into the Hockey Hall of Fame, KEN DRYDEN parlayed his dominant Cornell career — where he went 76-4-1 — into one of the most remarkable eight-year runs in NHL history with the Montréal Canadiens.

Dryden backstopped the Canadiens to six Stanley Cups, compiling a career regular-season record of 258-57-74 with a 2.24 goals-against average, a .922 save
