2015 TEAM GUIDE

Cortland Concludes 2014 Season With Dramatic Cortaca Jug Win

Cortland turned a bad field goal snap into a winning touchdown pass on the game's final play as the Red Dragons defeated Ithaca College, 23-20, in the annual Cortaca Jug rivalry game in front of nearly 9,000 fans at the SUNY Cortland Stadium Complex.

The crazy finish saw a potential game-tying field goal turn into a broken play and possible loss before holder Luke Hinton rolled left and threw the winning pass to Jon Mannix. The play was ranked #3 on ESPN's SportsCenter Top 10 plays that evening and was featured during the next week by numerous national media outlets.

Cortland has won five straight games versus Ithaca from 2010-14, matching the Red Dragons' longest win streak versus the Bombers originally accomplished from 1955-59.

The Red Dragons won five of their final six games after opening the season with four losses that included an overtime setback at Buffalo State and a three-point home loss to Brockport.

Dylan Peebles earned D3football.com First Team All-America honors as a kick returner. He led Division III nationally with 34.9 yards per kickoff return and three touchdowns, including a 91-yard return versus Ithaca that tied the score in the fourth quarter. Offensive guard Vin Juliano joined Peebles on the All-East first team, while Peebles, defensive end Jake Ceresna and safety Andrew Tolosi were All-ECAC South Region selections.

Dylan Peebles is pictured above returning a kickoff 91 yards versus Ithaca to tie the game in the fourth quarter of the 2014 Cortaca Jug game. Peebles led NCAA Division III with three kick returns for touchdowns and 34.9 yards per kickoff return during the 2014 season and earned First Team D3football.com All-America honors.

Cortland Football Joins Empire 8 Conference in 2015

SUNY Cortland football has joined the Empire 8 starting in the fall of 2015. The Red Dragons will be affiliate football members along with The College at Brockport, Buffalo State and Morrisville State College. Full football-playing members of the conference are Ithaca College, St. John Fisher College, Alfred University, Utica College and Hartwick College.

Cortland was a football-only member of the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) from 2000-14. The Red Dragons finished at least tied for first in the NJAC six times (2005-08, 2010, 2012). They were outright league champions in 2008 and 2012, and they won a tiebreaker to earn the conference's NCAA automatic bid in 2010.

"Cortland is a strong academic institution with a rich football history with many of the Empire 8 institutions," said Empire 8 Commissioner Chuck Mitrano. "They are a perfect fit and further enhance the competitive level of what is already the toughest conference in Division III."

"It's an exciting time for Cortland Football as we embrace change," said Cortland football head coach Dan MacNeill. Thanks to the Empire 8 for accepting us into their prestigious conference, where we look to build stronger relationships with familiar competitors and establish new regional rivalries."

"We look forward to meeting new challenges in the Empire 8 and to creating new relationships with some of these institutions that are so close to us geographically but that we haven't had the opportunity to compete against on a regular basis in years past," said Cortland Director of Athletics Mike Urtz. "We hope we can bring added value to an already great and highly competitive conference."

Coaching Staff

Dan MacNeill, Head Coach

Dan MacNeill begins his 19th season as SUNY Cortland's head football coach in 2015. His teams are a combined 119-66 and have made 12 postseason appearances, including five NCAA tournament showings. He ranks first at Cortland in both career victories and career winning percentage (.643).

MacNeill's Cortland squads played as an independent from 1997-99 and were a member of the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) from 2000-14 before joining the Empire 8 in 2015. MacNeill was named NJAC Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2012, and he was a finalist for 2008 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year honors after Cortland finished 11-2 and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals before losing at eventual national champion Mount Union. The Red Dragons were recognized as the top Division III teams in the East by winning both the Lambert Trophy and the ECAC Team of the Year awards, and the 11 victories and national quarterfinal appearance matched school records.

Under MacNeill, Cortland won outright NJAC titles in 2008 and 2012 and tied for first in the conference in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2010. His squads tied for ninth nationally after advancing to the second round of the NCAA playoffs in 2010 and 2012, as well as a tie for ninth in 1997 in a 16-team field and a tie for 17th in 2005.

MacNeill's teams have won eight or more games eight times, including 10 victories in 2010 and nine in 2002, 2006, 2011 and 2012 in addition to the 11-win 2008 campaign.

In addition to the five NCAA appearances, MacNeill's teams won ECAC bowls in 2002, 2007 and 2012 and played in four other ECAC postseason games. Among MacNeill's other highlights at Cortland are a 32-31 win over nationally second-ranked and eventual national semifinalist Rowan University in the 2001 season and an 11-7 record against rival Ithaca College in the annual "Cortaca Jug" game, including five straight wins from 2010-14.

MacNeill has coached 26 All-Americans, 81 All-East and 70 All-ECAC players at Cortland. Those players included two Gagliardi Trophy national Player of the Year finalists – defensive tackle Adam Haas in 2006 and quarterback Dan Pitcher in 2011 – along with 1997 ECAC Upstate New York Player of the Year Omar Darling, 2007 ECAC Southeast Rookie of the Year Brian Haas, and 2013 ECAC South Defensive Rookie of the Year Tristan Laurore.

In addition, MacNeill's players earned 204 All-NJAC honors, highlighted by the selection of Adam Haas as the 2005 NJAC Defensive Player of the Year, Bryan Wiley as the 2009 NJAC Defensive Player of the Year, Justin Autera as the 2010 NJAC Co-

Offensive Player of the Year and Dan Pitcher as the 2011 NJAC Offensive Player of the Year.

An assistant coach at Division I-AA Villanova University from 1984-96, MacNeill is Cortland's 11th head coach since the school's modern era of football began in 1924. MacNeill served as linebackers coach at Villanova and was the team's defensive coordinator from 1988-96.

One of the nation's top defensive coaches, MacNeill's charges consistently ranked among the best defensive teams in the Yankee Conference. His 1991 squad finished the year first nationally in scoring defense, second in total defense and fifth in rushing defense while leading the Yankee Conference in every defensive category. The Wildcats placed first nationally in rushing defense in 1992. In 1996, Villanova finished 8-4 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

While at Villanova, MacNeill coached three AFCA/Kodak First Team All-Americans, one Associated Press All-American, six first team All-Yankee Conference performers, six first team All-ECAC selections and one player who went on to the NFL. He received a master's degree in educational administration from Villanova in 1994.

A 1979 Cortland graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education, MacNeill was a four-year Red Dragon letterwinner and three-year starter at linebacker and defensive tackle. He served as a team tri-captain during his senior campaign in 1978. In his last varsity game against Southern Connecticut State, he was credited with 11 unassisted tackles and three quarterback sacks.

MacNeill began his football coaching career as an assistant at Port Byron (N.Y.) Central High School from 1980 to 1982, prior to being named as a graduate assistant coach at Ithaca College. He coached Ithaca's junior varsity team in 1982 and was in charge of the Bombers' receivers in 1983.

A native of Walton, N.Y., MacNeill was an all-league defensive end at Walton Central High School as a senior in 1974. MacNeill and his wife, Sherrie, have two daughters — Mikayla and Maura.

Coaching Staff

2015 Assistant Football Coaches

Tunde Agboke – Defensive Coordinator/ Defensive Line

Tunde Agboke begins his second season as Cortland's defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2015. In his first season in 2014, the Red Dragons ranked 11th nationally in Division III in third-down conversion defense (27 percent), and one of the linemen he coached, Gabe Ostrow, earned a mini-camp invitation from the NFL's Washington Redskins.

Agboke previously worked from 2011-13 at Marist College, where he coached defensive linemen for three years and was the special teams coordinator for one year. In 2013, Marist won the Pioneer Conference Championship and set a school record for wins in a season. Agboke coached All-America defensive end Terrence Fede, who was chosen in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins as Marist's first-ever NFL draft selection. During Agboke's three seasons, Marist ranked in the top 10 four times and the top 20 four times in NCAA FCS in defensive categories. In all, his defensive linemen at Marist earned a combined 10 all-conference selections.

Agboke coached the defensive line at Shippensburg University in 2010, and the previous season was a linebackers coach at William Paterson University. His players earned two all-league awards at each school.

Agboke began his playing career as a redshirt safety at the University of Kentucky for one season before transferring to Southeast Missouri State. At SMS, he was a three-year starter at linebacker and a two-year captain. A Dean's List student, he earned the 2005 Ohio Valley Conference Medal of Honor for maintaining at least a 3.25 grade point average in season. He is a native of Houston, Texas, and was born in Lagos, Nigeria.

Bill Castro – Offensive Line/ Strength and Conditioning

Bill Castro enters his third season as the Red Dragons' offensive line coach in 2015 after assisting with that position in 2012. He is also the team's strength and conditioning coach.

The Washingtonville, N.Y., native was a two-time All-America and four-year letterwinning offensive lineman for the Red Dragons from 2008-11. As a senior, he was a team captain and he earned second-team All-America honors and was a first-team All-East, All-ECAC and All-NJAC selection. He competed in the D3 Football Senior Classic in Salem, Va., and anchored an offensive line that allowed only nine sacks in 11 games.

In 2010, Castro was an honorable mention All-America and first-team All-East and All-NJAC honoree. He helped the Red Dragons finish 10-2 and advance to the NCAA second round. Castro also started all 11 games for Cortland as a sophomore in 2009. Bill is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Sam Chase – Defensive Assistant

Sam Chase will serve as a defensive assistant for the Red Dragons in 2015. Chase graduated from Cortland this past May after playing offensive line for two seasons. He appeared in every game for the Red Dragons during both the 2013 and 2014 seasons, and was the 2014 recipient of the Dragon Heart Award.

The Mechanicville, N.Y., native also attended Hudson Valley Community College and Buffalo State prior to his arrival at Cortland.

At Mechanicville High School, Chase earned all-section football honors, was the team's Defensive MVP as a senior, and was a sectional wrestling champion who placed sixth in New York State.

Therno Diallo – Defensive Assistant

Therno Diallo will work as a defensive assistant on the Cortland staff in 2015 as he completes his undergraduate studies in sport management. Diallo was a wide receiver for the Red Dragons in 2014, and he previously played two seasons at Husson University in Maine and one year at Lackawanna College. The Brooklyn native graduated from Grand Street Campus High School in 2011.

Geige Dziados – Wide Receivers

Geige Dziados will coach Cortland's wide receivers in 2015 after working with that position as a student assistant in 2014. Dziados also coached Cortland's tight ends and was a defensive intern at Colgate University working with linebackers during the spring of 2015.

A native of Cicero, N.Y., Dziados was a wide receiver at Cortland for one season as well as playing stints at Monroe College and Onondaga Community College. He graduated from Cortland in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. Dziados is a 2011 alumnus of Cicero-North Syracuse High School, where he played both football and baseball. He was a scholar-athlete award winner in both sports, and he earned honorable mention all-league honors as a defensive back while receiving the team's Most Improved Player award.

Greg Frantz – Tight Ends

Greg Frantz joins the Cortland coaching staff as the team's tight ends coach in 2015. Frantz worked with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League in the spring and summer of 2015 and coached for three seasons at Conestoga Valley High School in Lancaster, Pa., from 2012-14. He coached a variety of areas at Conestoga Valley, including defensive line, tight ends/fullbacks, linebackers, wide receivers and special teams.

Frantz graduated from Millersville (Pa.) University in 2012. He was primarily a tight end and fullback during his four-year playing career with the Division II Marauders, serving as a team captain as a senior. Frantz was a four-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference

Coaching Staff

(PSAC) Scholar-Athlete and earned second-team All-PSAC honors as a junior after catching 11 passes, three for touchdowns. He served as a student assistant coach with the program in the spring of 2012. A native of Lansdale, Pa., Frantz played football and baseball at LaSalle College High School in Wyndmoor, Pa. He graduated in 2007.

Kevin Gorman – Linebackers

Kevin Gorman enters his second season on Cortland's staff in 2015 as the team's linebackers coach. He graduated in 2014 from Juniata College, where he played four seasons at middle linebacker. He earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior and was a second-team all-league choice in both his sophomore and junior years. Gorman led the Eagles in tackles each of those three seasons.

A native of Waverly, N.Y., Gorman graduated from Waverly High School in 2010. He was a first-team all-state running back in 2009 and a first-team all-state linebacker in 2008. Gorman also competed scholastically in basketball and baseball.

Maurice Hart – Defensive Backs

Maurice Hart enters his second season as Cortland's defensive backs coach in 2015. In 2014, Cortland ranked 35th nationally in Division III in passing efficiency defense and 11th nationally in third-down conversion percentage defense. Hart came to Cortland from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he coached the Engineers' defensive backs in 2013. Under his tutelage, RPI led the Liberty League in interceptions and ranked 62nd nationally in passing efficiency defense.

The previous season, Hart coached cornerbacks at Emporia State University in Kansas. The program led the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association and ranked fifth nationally in interceptions and finished the 2012 season with a school-record 10 wins and a Kanza Bowl championship. Hart also coached defensive backs at Ellsworth Community College in 2011.

Hart earned a bachelor's degree from North Carolina Central University in 2010 while serving as a coaching intern. He played three seasons at College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita, Calif., where he ranked among the top safeties in the national junior college ranks. He earned two All-Western State Conference awards and his teams won two bowl games. The Durham, N.C., native also received a scholarship to play on the Division I level as a defensive back at Western Michigan University.

Greg Kolodinsky – Offensive Assistant

Greg Kolodinsky will work as an offensive assistant for the Red Dragons in 2015 as he finishes his undergraduate work as a coaching major.

Kolodinsky was a four-year member of the football team from 2011-14 and served as a team captain during his senior year. He started every game each of his last two seasons, earned All-New Jersey Athletic Conference honors as a junior, and competed in the 2014 National Bowl Senior All-Star Game.

A Seaford, N.Y., native, he graduated in 2010 from Seaford High School, where he was an all-state lineman and an all-county lacrosse player.

Tom Murphy – Running Backs/Special Teams

Tom Murphy returns for his sixth season on the Cortland staff in 2015. He coaches the team's running backs and is the Red Dragons' special teams coordinator after previously coaching outside linebackers in 2010 and 2011. In 2014, Cortland ranked first nationally in Division III in team kickoff return average and Dylan Peebles led the national individually in kickoff return average and touchdowns.

A Cortland native, Murphy coached the varsity football and modified boys' lacrosse teams at Cortland High School from 2006-09 and also coached junior varsity football and lacrosse and modified boys' basketball from 2000-01.

Murphy graduated from Mansfield University in 1996 with a degree in criminal justice administration. He played four seasons on the offensive line for the Division II Mountaineers from 1990-93 and was a forward on the basketball team during the 1994-95 season. Murphy also spent time as an assistant on the Mansfield basketball staff from 1995-96. A 1990 Cortland High alumnus, Murphy earned all-league honors in football, basketball and lacrosse on the scholastic level. Murphy and his wife, Judie, have three children – Adrianna (12), Kaedyn (10) and Thomas (7).

Jon Rocha – Defensive Assistant

Jon Rocha begins his second year on the Cortland football coaching staff in 2015 and serves as a team defensive assistant. A native of Kalamazoo, Mich., Rocha is currently a full-time student at Cortland enrolled in the school's coaching program. He graduated from Portage Northern High School in 1999 and played two seasons of scholastic football. A veteran of the United States Marine Corps, Rocha is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Marine Corps League. Rocha has two children – Jon Jr. (12) and Arianna (8).

Greg Roskos – Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Greg Roskos begins his seventh year as Cortland's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015. Under his guidance, the Red Dragons ranked in the top three in the New Jersey Athletic Conference in scoring offense each of the last five years and in the top three in total offense each of the past four seasons.

Roskos came to Cortland from the University of Minnesota, where he was an assistant quarterbacks and quality control coach. The Golden Gophers were selected for the Insight Bowl in 2008, the second of his two seasons with the program.

In 2005 and 2006, Roskos served as a graduate assistant offensive coach at the University of Toledo. The Rockets finished 9-3 and won the GMAC Bowl in 2005. Roskos also was an assistant secondary coach at Patriot League champion and NCAA Division I-AA qualifier Lafayette College in 2004 and was linebackers coach in 2003 for a Muhlenberg College squad that won the Centennial Conference and played in the NCAA Division III tournament.

Roskos graduated from Bloomsburg University with a bachelor's degree in marketing in 2002. He was a four-year letterwinner and two-time all-conference selection for the Huskies and was the team's Defensive MVP when they advanced to the 2000 NCAA Division II championship game.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Roskos graduated from West Scranton High School. He currently resides in Cortland with his wife, Rebecca, and their three children, Gwyneth, Elle and Ivan.

Cortland Record Book (1963-2014)

(Active players in bold italics)

(Records include postseason games, beginning in 2002, per NCAA rule change)

(NOTE: Beginning in 2010, the Cortland Football Record book was adjusted to reflect only accomplishments since 1963, the first year complete offensive records were compiled at the College. In addition, complete individual defensive statistics, including individual tackles and sacks, were first tracked at Cortland in 1979.)

Unless otherwise noted, All-America teams listed above are Div. III and were sponsored by Pizza Hut (1983-89), Champion U.S.A. (1990-93), Sports Information Directors (1982 and 1994) or Hewlett Packard (1995-2002). Football Gazette selected All-Americans from 1986-2006 and D3football.com began selecting All-Americans in 1999 (in 2012 only, they named a 4th team instead of honorable mention). Cortland has had seven American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-Americans. In addition to the six listed above, receiver Rod Verkey earned AFCA All-America honors in 1967.

About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York's "City of Seven Valleys," the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor's degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, more than 7,000 students are pursuing degrees within the College's three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-eight departments with a faculty of more than 500 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 75 undergraduate majors and 92 undergraduate minors, concentrations and options from which to choose.

The College's main campus covers 191 acres and includes 33 traditional and modern buildings. Sixteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Education Center on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women's and 11 men's — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed 12th nationally out of approximately 450 colleges and universities in the 2014-15 all-sport Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Division III standings. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only five nationwide to finish in the top 25 each of the last 20 years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 17 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The state-of-the-art on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse and men's and women's track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called "...a new stadium worthy of a major university power."

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena; racquetball and squash courts; a wrestling room; modern athletic training facilities; and the Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland's soccer teams play on the Jets Field with its plush, natural-grass surface. T. Fred "Prof" Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests, also is utilized by the soccer teams. Additionally, the College boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields and built a new outdoor tennis complex that opened in September 2015.
