CHI HEALTH CENTER OMAHA

Creighton's home for men's basketball is CHI Health Center Omaha. The facility formerly known as Qwest Center Omaha (2003-11) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (2011-18) is located on a 421-acre site of the former Union Pacific Railroad yards, just a few blocks from Creighton's campus, the historic Old Market and three miles from Eppley Airfield.

Starting in 2018, CHI Health is paying $23.6 million over 20 years for the naming rights to the arena.

Built for $291 million and finished in the fall of 2003, the facility is a key element in the continued renovation and development of Omaha's riverfront.

Among the amenities at CHI Health Center Omaha are seven locker rooms, five dressing rooms and a media interview room. The Creighton locker room contains secure, wood-paneled lockers and is located just a short walk off the court.

A $6 million Daktronics, Inc., scoreboard hangs from the arena center. The scoreboard is more than 26 feet in height and approximately 32 feet in diameter. The scoreboard was upgraded in the summer of 2013 and is one of the nation's finest, as CHI Health Center Omaha is one of the nation's only arenas to have 4 mm and 6 mm pixel configurations to give fans significantly better resolution.

Twelve permanent concession stands and 20 free-standing kiosks help feed and quench thirst for crowds of up to 17,352 for basketball and 18,300 for concerts.

CHI Health Center Omaha provides more than 194,000 square feet of exhibition space, and the Exhibit Hall can hold dinners for up to 15,000 people at once. Downtown Omaha's 40-story First National Bank Tower could be laid down inside the length of the exhibit space.

Attached to the facility via a skywalk is the eight-story, 600-room Hilton Omaha hotel. That $71-million building opened in April 2004.

Funding for CHI Health Center Omaha came from private donations, taxes and projected revenue from the facility.

The facility has hosted some of America's top sporting events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Championships (2008, 2012, 2015 and 2018), NCAA Volleyball Championships (2006, 2008 and 2015), U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (2008, 2012 and 2016), NCAA Wrestling Finals (2010), and the U.S. Figure Skating Championships (2013) and four title fights for boxing champion Terence Crawford.

The facility has also hosted concerts by artists such as The Eagles, Justin Timberlake, Lady Gaga, Katy Perry, Taylor Swift, Bruce Springsteen, Dave Matthews Band, Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney, U2, KISS, Aerosmith, Prince, Miley Cyrus, ZZ Top, Britney Spears, Justin Bieber, Alan Jackson, Jimmy Buffett and Garth Brooks.

More than 1,700 new seats were added to the upper deck on the north side of the building during the summer of 2006, moving capacity to 17,352 for basketball.

Located one block northwest of CHI Health Center Omaha is TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which opened in 2011 as the home of Creighton baseball and the NCAA Men's College World Series.

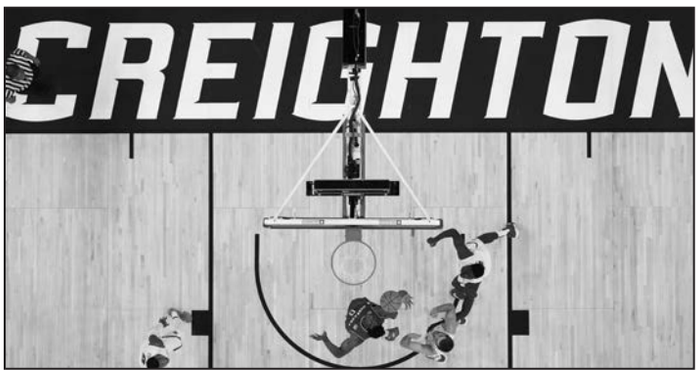
What Others Have Said About CHI Health Center Omaha



ATTENDANCE

"As you look through the top 10 in attendance in the country and Creighton jumps out at No. 5, we're the school that doesn't look like we fit there. But once you come to our arena and see how passionate our fans are, what an understanding they have of the game of basketball, it's really a special place."
- Greg McDermott, Creighton coach

"Creighton basketball is one of the true gemstones of this sport. The university is committed to excellence, the city of Omaha is fully engaged, and the fan base is as passionate and dedicated as any in the nation."
- Seth Davis, CBS Sports/The Athletic

THE ARENA

"I've seen a lot of basketball games, and I would call this a pro-quality game presentation. It's exceptional. The fans here are terrific, but I knew coming in that you all here had something special because of the turnout for our men's basketball tournament."
- Val Ackerman, BIG EAST Commissioner

"With the notable exception of Madison Square Garden, the Bluejays play in the best arena in the BIG EAST."
- Kevin McNamara, Providence Journal

"It's one of the very best environments in college basketball, there's no question. It gets loud. They have a tremendous fan base and following."
- Chris Holtmann, Ohio State coach

THE ATMOSPHERE

"I'm happy this is my last time here. This environment is crazy, it's hectic. When they get on a run, you hear it. We'd be talking on the court and we can barely even hear what we're saying. One time coach called a play and I had no idea what he was calling. I couldn't even tell what we were in. Kris (Jenkins) was trying to tell me. Kris was like 5 feet away. I'm like, 'what are you saying?' This environment is crazy. It's one of the crazy ones I've been in, and you've got to love that."
- Josh Hart, former Villanova All-American

"Their fans are crazy, and I say that in a positive sense. It's going to be sold out. It's loud in there. It's one of the more difficult places to play in the league to be honest. Their fans are great, and players definitely feel it, and they definitely see it. It definitely energizes them."
- John Thompson III, former Georgetown coach

"Creighton is one of my favorite places to go. The fan support is tremendous, and it's also a program that makes me feel good about college basketball."
- Jeff Goodman, Basketball Analyst at Stadium

The Championship Center

The Kyle Korver Courts features two full courts, 12 hoops and four scoreboards.

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened The Championship Center, a facility that will benefit all student-athletes for years to come. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, The Championship Center is highlighted by the Athletic Performance Center, Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

"I wish we could take it back to Denver. I was talking to the coaching staff here, coach McDermott and his staff, obviously their hospitality and allowing us to be here. We're thrilled. One of the coaches said, 'Is there anything we can get you guys?' I looked around this gym. But this is state of the art, beautiful. Very, very excited to be here in Omaha. ... This is a nice, nice place and this allows us to have a great training camp because everything here is just perfect and what we're looking for. With 20 guys you need two courts. So it's perfect, really like it a lot."

2018-19 Guide (1-11).indd 4 10/4/18 9:41 AM

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the four Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, Mutual of Omaha, and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 850,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo has spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums feature diverse offerings. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into an art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Creighton's baseball team shares the same home as the College World Series, TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

2018-19 Guide (1-11).indd 5 10/4/18 9:41 AM

A young nucleus leads the Creighton men's basketball team in 2018-19 as it vies for a third consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament.

CU's top three scorers from a year ago are gone. Replacing two-time All-BIG EAST pick Marcus Foster (19.8 ppg.), two-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year Khyri Thomas (15.1 ppg.) and forward Toby Hegner (8.4 ppg.) will be no easy task, but Greg McDermott's ninth season on the Creighton sideline brings renewed enthusiasm thanks to a mix of talented veterans and the arrival of six newcomers.

Davion Mintz started all but one game a year ago at point guard and led the BIG EAST in assist to turnover ratio. He'll be asked to take on more of a scoring role in his junior campaign, while continuing to run Creighton's up-tempo offense.

Another key returner is Martin Krampelj, who averaged 11.9 points and 8.1 reobunds per game. However, the junior missed the final 14 games of last season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee in January. Now rehabbed, look for Krampelj to continue the development that saw him become one of the BIG EAST's most improved players last season.

Creighton's highly-touted sophomore class will be asked to step into bigger roles, and gains Damien Jefferson, who sat out last year as a transfer from New Mexico. Jefferson made big strides in the spring and summer and figures to be part of the Bluejay rotation.

Davion Mintz

Mitch Ballock

Mitch Ballock averaged 7.3 points per game and started CU's final five games. The Kansas native showed no fear while playing a starring role in Bluejay wins over UCLA and Villanova in his rookie season.

Ty-Shon Alexander spent most of his time at point guard last year but will see more action this winter at the off-guard position. Alexander is a gifted scorer who could be the latest in a long line of standout Bluejay guards.

Jacob Epperson had his redshirt pulled in late January after Krampelj's injury and showed flashes of brilliance. He shot 69.4 percent from the field, including 14 dunks, and gives the Bluejays the capability to feature one of the better post duos in the BIG EAST.

Creighton owns just two seniors on this year's roster.

Kaleb Joseph was nagged by injuries early last season and never had a chance to show what he was fully capable of. He aims to use the experience and explosiveness that made him a starter at Syracuse earier in his career.

CU's other senior, Connor Cashaw, is a graduate transfer from Rice. Cashaw averaged 15.5 points and 7.1 rebounds per game for the Owls to rank in the top-12 of Conference USA in both categories.

Also in the mix in CU's backcourt is junior guard Jordan Scurry, who earned a scholarship midway through last season and is a dangerous long-range shooter.

Four freshmen dot the Bluejay roster looking to earn playing time.

Center Samson Froling was among the best players at the FIBA U18 Asian Championships and has shown promise in preseason workouts.

Southpaw swingman Christian Bishop boasts an intriguing inside/outside game who gives McDermott line-up flexibility.

Marcus Zegarowksi excelled in prep school and could make an immediate impact at the point guard spot. He looks to follow in the footsteps of his brother Michael Carter-Williams, who starred in the BIG EAST at Syracuse before later being named NBA Rookie of the Year.

Also fighting for playing time at the point is Jett Canfield, who helped his team to a high school state title in Kansas.

The Bluejays non-conference schedule boasts the likes of Ohio State, Gonzaga, Nebraska and Oklahoma, not to mention a trip to the Cayman Islands Classic.

Creighton has won 20 or more games in 18 of the last 20 seasons, a feat that puts the Jays among an exclusive group, nationally.

Just three schools nationally have had 20 or more wins each of the last 20 years: Duke, Gonzaga and Kansas. Kentucky and Florida have done it in 19 of the last 20 seasons.

Due to space limitations, seating at courtside tables is restricted to working media only and is not guaranteed.

Greg McDermott

Head Coach - Ninth Season at Creighton

Graduating student-athletes, record win totals, sold-out crowds, regular-season and tournament titles, postseason success and a three-time All-American son are part of the legacy that Greg McDermott has created during his first eight seasons on The Hilltop.

Named the 16th head coach in Creighton men's basketball history on April 27, 2010, McDermott boasts a 187-94 record in his first eight seasons, while returning the program to the national rankings with an up-tempo style of play that sees fans turning out in record numbers.

Twenty of 21 seniors to complete their eligibility the past five years have earned their undergraduate degree, with 13 going on to play professionally and four others to graduate school.

Last year's team returned to the NCAA Tournament after tying for third place in the BIG EAST and posting victories over No. 3 Villanova, No. 19 Seton Hall, No. 20 Northwestern and No. 23 UCLA. CU ranked fifth nationally with 17,000 fans per home game, and handed eventual national champ Villanova its final loss of the season on Feb. 24th. Marcus Foster was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second straight year and Khyri Thomas repeated as BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year before turning pro and being the No. 38 pick in the NBA Draft.

McDermott was also honored after the season with the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer Champions Award, a testament to his work in the community and with the program's annual Pink Out game.

Creighton's 2016-17 team went 25-10, spending 16 consecutive weeks in the top-25, including a program-record No. 7 mark on January 16th. CU won the Paradise Jam and scored a school-record 2,864 points while posting four victories against top-25 competition. The Bluejays started the season 18-1 for the program's best 19 game start ever, while its 13 victories to start to the campaign was its best since 1942-43. Creighton finished fifth nationally in home attendance, welcoming 17,413 fans per contest.

That team was aided by the successful integration of the top scoring newcomer in program history, Foster (18.2 ppg.), as well as 7-foot center Justin Patton, who declared for the NBA Draft after his redshirt freshman season and went No. 16 overall.

Creighton's 2015-16 team finished 20-15 overall, winning a pair of postseason games to reach the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament.

The Bluejays won the Men Who Speak Up Main Event in Las Vegas, beat rival Nebraska by double-digits for a fifth straight season, and picked up victories over No. 5 Xavier and No. 18 Butler.

In 2013-14 McDermott's club led the nation in three-point percentage, three-pointers made and assist/turnover ratio, while also ranking second in three-pointers per game and assists per game. His son, Doug, swept all 14 National Player of the Year awards, led the nation in scoring (26.7 ppg.), became the fifth-leading scorer in Division I history (3,150 career points) and went on to become the 11th overall pick in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Making the big leap from the Missouri Valley Conference to the BIG EAST in 2013-14, Creighton finished second in its new conference in both the regular-season and league tournament. In the process, CU owned a pair of lopsided wins over top-10 Villanova, including a 96-68 road win that saw the Bluejays drain a three-pointer on each of their first nine possessions.

His 2012-13 team swept the MVC regular-season and tournament titles, defeating rival Wichita State in both deciding contests, and finished 28-8. The Jays won an NCAA Tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time, before falling to Duke in the third round.

During the 2012-13 campaign Doug McDermott repeated as MVC Player of the Year and once again was named First Team All-American. He led the nation in field goals made and points scored, while also setting then-CU records for points in a season and career. Additionally, Grant Gibbs and Gregory Echenique were named Honorable Mention All-MVC, with Echenique earning a spot on the All-Defensive Team for a third straight year. Ethan Wragge was named MVC Sixth Man of the Year.

Creighton tied a school record in 2011-12 with 29 wins and reached the third round of the NCAA Tournament, while establishing a then-program record with 2,772 points. The team spent 16 weeks ranked in the Top 25, and earned its inaugural First Team AP All-American in program history when his son was honored following a record-setting season. Doug was the first sophomore in league history named MVC Player of the Year, setting a school record with 801 points, while also leading the nation with 307 field goals.

Creighton finished the year ranked No. 19 in the AP poll, and also ranked sixth nationally for its average home attendance of 16,665.

McDermott's first year in Omaha was also a success. He led Creighton to a 23-16 record in his first campaign, as the Jays won a school-record four postseason games, advancing to the CBI finals.

Doug McDermott swept MVC Freshman and Newcomer of the Year awards while becoming the first freshman since 1952 to be named First Team All-MVC. Point guard Antoine Young was named Second Team All-Valley and also earned a spot on the MVC's Most-Improved Team.

Additionally, Echenique was named to the MVC All-Newcomer and All-Defensive Teams, while McDermott and Jahenns Manigat landed All-Freshman Team spot s. Four members of his first team (Kaleb Korver, Matthew Dorwart, Ross Ferrarini and Derek Sebastian) were honored for their work in the classroom.

GREG MCDERMOTT

A native of Cascade, Iowa, McDermott owns a 336-225 record in 17 seasons on the Division I sidelines. He has a 467-289 career mark in 24 seasons as a head coach, which includes 10 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Before coming to Creighton, McDermott spent four seasons as head coach at Iowa State.

McDermott won 59 games at Iowa State, where his teams consistently ranked in the upper half of the Big 12 in scoring defense and three-point shooting. He coached five players who earned all-conference recognition, including Craig Brackins, who was the first Cyclone since 2001 to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors in 2009. He also coached Mike Taylor, who was a second-round pick in the 2008 NBA Draft and played for the Los Angeles Clippers in 2008-09.

McDermott's 2008-09 squad broke school records in three-pointers made (236) and fewest turnover average (12.1 tpg.) in a season.

McDermott's meteoric rise in the head coaching ranks occurred in his five seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northern Iowa. After taking over a program that had not posted a winning season since 1997, McDermott's recipe for success launched the UNI program into the national spotlight. In his third season with the Panthers, McDermott led UNI to the 2004 Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and its second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history while recording a 21-10 mark.

He backed up UNI's 2004 season with yet another NCAA Tournament bid in 2005, this time earning the Panthers' first at-large berth with a No. 11 seed. The Panthers tallied a 21-11 record and took No. 6 seed Wisconsin to the wire, falling 57-52. The 2006 UNI season was just as successful, as McDermott led the Panthers to their first Associated Press Top 25 ranking while tying a then-school record with 23 wins. UNI defeated five NCAA Tournament teams en route to its third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance with a No. 10 seed. McDermott compiled a 90-63 record at UNI, earning him a spot in the school's Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

McDermott has proven to be a top-notch recruiter and a sound tactician. He has coached 36 players who have earned some sort of conference award in his 17 years as a Division I coach, including four players who earned First Team All-MVC honors a combined seven times (Doug McDermott, David Gruber, Ben Jacobson, Grant Stout), one First Team All-Big 12 pick (Brackins), two First Team All-BIG EAST picks (Doug McDermott and Marcus Foster) and 2017 BIG EAST Freshman of the Year Justin Patton.

McDermott received his first head coaching job at Wayne State (Neb.) from 1994-2000. He led the Wildcats to four-straight 20-win seasons, one Northern Sun Conference title and a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 berth in 2000. He won 116 games in his six years with the Wildcats while earning conference coach of the year honors in 2000.

He left Wayne State to take over the coaching duties at Division II North Dakota State for one season (2000-01) before heading to Cedar Falls. The Bison finished 15-11 overall and defeated three top-25 opponents on the road in 2001.

McDermott began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of North Dakota from 1989-94. During his tenure, UND made five consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, were ranked No. 1 in the final 1991 NCAA poll and won two North Central Conference crowns. He was also a part of two North Central Region Championships and compiled a 126-37 record in his six seasons.

A fourth-team All-State center for Cascade High School in 1983, McDermott entered the IHSAA Hall of Fame in 2015 for his playing prowess as a prep.

He accepted UNI head coach Jim Berry's scholarship offer to play for the Panthers. He played three seasons for Berry and two years for Eldon Miller, recording 1,033 career points and ranks 36th on UNI's all-time scoring chart. As a junior, he ranked 16th nationally in field-goal percentage (58.7 percent) and shot 60.3 percent from the field as a senior. The 6-foot-8 center was named second-team all-Mid-Continent Conference as a junior and was a team co-captain as a senior. McDermott received his B.A. degree from Northern Iowa in 1988. He played one season professionally in Switzerland after graduation before beginning his coaching career.

McDermott and his wife, Theresa, have three children: Nick (29), Doug (26) and Sydney (18). Doug plays for the Indiana Pacers and is in his fifth year in the NBA.

Preston Murphy

Assistant Coach - Fourth Season at Creighton

Assistant coach Preston Murphy enters his fourth season at Creighton after joining the Bluejay staff in June of 2015.

Murphy works closely with Creighton's backcourt and scouting, and has made an impact in recruiting several current and future Bluejays, as well.

The Bluejays have won 66 games with Murphy on staff in the previous three seasons, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths.

Guard Marcus Foster was twice named First Team All-BIG EAST, Khyri Thomas was twice named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year, and Davion Mintz led the league in assist-to-turnover ratio. Thomas went on to be selected 38th in the 2018 NBA Draft.

Murphy spent the 2014-15 season as an assistant coach at Boston College, where he had previously been the program's director of operations from 2006-10. During that first stint, the Eagles went 72-57 and made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. BC featured NBA First Round picks Jared Dudley, Sean Williams and Reggie Jackson, as well as second-round selection Olivier Hanlan in those years.

Prior to his return to BC, Murphy spent four years at his alma mater, the University of Rhode Island. Murphy was an assistant coach with the Rams from 2010-14 before being promoted to the role of associate head coach in the spring of 2014.

During his time at URI, the Rams had three All-Atlantic 10 selections, three All-Rookie Team picks and 2014 Co-Rookie of the Year E.C. Matthews. He also worked with Xavier Munford, who recently signed a multi-year deal with the Memphis Grizzlies.

His first coaching job came at Woonsocket High School in Rhode Island, where he was a head coach from 2003-06.

Murphy graduated from Rhode Island in 1999 with a degree in finance. He scored 1,218 points for the Rams while playing in four straight postseasons, including a run to the Elite Eight in 1998. He ranks among URI's all-time leaders in three-point percentage, assists and steals.

Upon his graduation, Murphy played three professional seasons in Belgium and Holland. He played with the Los Angeles Clippers in the Southern California Summer Pro League in 2002, and also played one season with the Magic Johnson All-Stars.

Murphy and his wife, Maria, have three boys, Preston Jr. (15), Payton (13) and Chase (10) as well as one daughter, Aria (2).

Alan Huss

Assistant Coach - Second Season at Creighton

Alan Huss is in his second season on staff at his alma mater.

Huss works with Creighton's big men while also playing a key role in the team's scouting and recruiting.

"My family and I are unbelievably excited to return to home to Creighton," Huss said when he was hired. "Although I have been away for the last 15 years, I have followed coach McDermott and the program closely throughout their ascension to the highest level of college basketball. I am humbled and honored to be a part of the program going forward and cannot wait to get started."

As an assistant in three seasons at New Mexico, Huss helped guide the Lobos to 49 victories. UNM went 33-13 at The Pit during that time, and the Lobos finished 5-1 in six meetings against in-state rival New Mexico State.

Huss went to UNM after spending four seasons at the helm of the prep program at La Lumiere School in La Porte, Ind., where he amassed an impressive 102-19 record for a team that was regularly ranked as one of the top high school programs in the nation. His record also includes a perfect 62-0 home record at Marsch Gymnasium. Huss coached more than three dozen Division I products at the high school level, including former NBA guard Darington Hobson.

Prior to his time at La Lumiere, Huss was the head coach at Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind. where he set the school record for wins in each of his final two seasons with the Eagles.

"I'm excited to welcome Alan Huss back to Creighton," said McDermott. "He has an outstanding track record as a recruiter and as a basketball coach. His prep school teams achieved at unprecedented levels at every stop. His passion for his alma mater was evident during the interview process and ultimately separated him from the many other quality candidates."

Huss was a four-year member of the Creighton men's basketball team from 1997 to 2001, where he played under head coach Dana Altman and alongside NBA sharpshooter Kyle Korver. During his collegiate career with Bluejays, Huss was part of three NCAA Tournament teams (1999, 2000, 2001), two Missouri Valley Conference Tournament titles (1999, 2000) and one MVC regular-season title (2001). He played in 94 games with the Bluejays, including 39 starts.

The 6-foot-9-inch Huss was a prep standout at North Kansas City High School. He averaged 26 points and 12 rebounds per game for the Hornets en route to All-Kansas City metro honors as a senior. Following his final season at North Kansas City High, he was selected to the Greater Kansas City Basketball Coaches Association and Missouri-Kansas all-star games.

Huss earned his Bachelor's degree from Creighton in Business Administration in 2002. He and his wife Katie (also a 2002 Creighton alum) have two daughters, Nicky (13) and Mary (9).

Paul Lusk

Assistant Coach - First Season at Creighton

Former Missouri State men's basketball head coach Paul Lusk was named an assistant coach at Creighton in April, and starts his first season with the Bluejays in 2018-19.

"I've known Paul Lusk for 15 years," said McDermott. "He is a man of high character and integrity. His connections throughout the country will aid in our recruiting efforts. His passion, work ethic and enthusiasm to teach the game is a perfect fit for our coaching staff. We can't wait to welcome him and his family to Omaha."

Lusk spent seven seasons as a head coach at Missouri State, winning 105 games and advancing the Bears to the Arch Madness semifinals in 2014 and 2017. His 2013-14 club went 20-13 and reached the CollegeInsider.com Tournament, and his 2017-18 team went 18-15.

"Coach McDermott's one of the best coaches in the country," said Lusk. "He's also one of the best people in the business. Creighton has a long, rich basketball tradition and continues to be in the top five in the country in attendance. That speaks volumes about how important basketball is to the city and the University. I can't wait to join his staff and be a part of the Creighton basketball family."

Lusk coached 10 MVC Scholar-Athlete Team selections, six All-MVC players, four All-Freshman Team picks, four members of the MVC All-Newcomer Team and two members of The Valley's Most-Improved Team in seven seasons in Springfield. He also coached the 2016 and 2017 MVC Newcomers of the Year.

Lusk arrived at Missouri State after seven seasons as an assistant coach and associate head coach at Purdue. During his tenure on the Purdue coaching staff, Lusk helped guide the Boilermakers to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances with a collective 129-45 ledger during that span.

In 2010 he was named by FoxSports.com as one of the nation's top 25 high-major assistant coaches. In April 2011, Lusk was inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Before moving to Purdue, he spent one season on Matt Painter's staff at Southern Illinois in 2003-04, a campaign that also culminated in an NCAA Tournament berth, a No. 15 national ranking and a 25-5 record.

Prior to that, he spent one season as head coach at the University of Dubuque. His head coaching debut came on the heels of three seasons at Division II Missouri Southern State in Joplin where he was an assistant. The Lions were 71-21 in that span (1999-2002) with an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1999-2000. His coaching career started with a one-year stint as an assistant at Southwestern Illinois College in Belleville.

The native of New Baden, Illinois, began his playing career at Iowa in 1990 where he spent two years before he found a home at Southern Illinois under coach Rich Herrin. He helped guide the Salukis to three straight NCAA Tournament trips (1993-95), earning All-MVC second-team honors in 1994 with a 15.2 scoring average as a junior. As a senior, he earned a spot on the Valley Scholar-Athlete and All-Tournament teams and finished his Saluki career with 1,031 points.

He went on to play professionally both in the United States and Argentina and earned two different invitations to the Phoenix Suns' training camp.

A 1995 graduate of Southern Illinois, Lusk and his wife Melanie have a daughter, Maddie (16), and a son, Jack (14). The couple both earned their Masters of Science in Education from Missouri State in 2000.

Steve Merfeld

Assistant to the Head Coach - Ninth Season at Creighton

Steve Merfeld gives Creighton the unique distinction of having two staff members who have won games in the NCAA Tournament as a head coach.

After three seasons as an assistant coach, Merfeld was elevated to assistant to the head coach position in April 2013 on Greg McDermott's staff, and enters his sixth season in that role.

In his first year at Creighton, he worked with MVC Newcomer and Freshman of the Year Doug McDermott, Preseason MVC Player of the Year Kenny Lawson Jr., and MVC All-Defensive Team big man Gregory Echenique. In his second season, McDermott became Creighton's first player named First Team All-American, while Echenique became CU's first honoree to be named MVC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2012-13, McDermott repeated as a First Team All-American and as MVC Player of the Year, while Echenique became Creighton's first player to be named to the MVC's All-Defensive Team in three straight seasons. In addition, sharpshooting forward Ethan Wragge was named MVC Sixth Man of the Year.

McDermott would go on to sweep all 14 National Player of the Year honors in 2013-14.

Creighton has won 187 of 281 games in the past eight seasons, making five NCAA Tournaments and one NIT appearance. Creighton tied the school record with 29 wins in 2011-12, then had 28 more wins in 2012-13 and 27 in 2013-14.

Merfeld boasts 32 years of NCAA Division I experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach: at Hampton from 1997-02 and at Evansville from 2002-07.

As a college head coach, Merfeld collected 144 wins, two regular-season conference championships, two conference tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. That first postseason appearance in 2001 led to one of the signature moments in NCAA Tournament history as the video of his players lifting him up in celebration following No. 15 seed Hampton's upset of No. 2 seed Iowa State in the 2001 tourney remains a popular March Madness clip.

Merfeld led Hampton to a winning record in four of his five years, finishing with a 90-57 (.612) record that was capped by back-to-back sweeps of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 2001 and 2002. After Hampton became just the fourth No. 15 seed to win an NCAA Tournament game in 2001, Merfeld's Pirates became the first 15-seed winner to return to the NCAA Tournament the following season. In his final season at Hampton, Merfeld led the 2001-02 Pirates to a school-record 26 wins. Merfeld was rewarded for his efforts in returning Hampton to the Big Dance by being named the 2002 CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Coach of the Year.

He replaced longtime Evansville head coach Jim Crews in 2002 and directed the Purple Aces to an RPI that improved 131 spots during his tenure. His Evansville teams also collected 11 victories against postseason squads (7 NCAA, 4 NIT). In addition to four All-Missouri Valley Conference players, he coached two-time Academic All-American Clint Cuffle (2003, 2004) and a trio of 1,000-point scorers on his 2006-07 squad.

Merfeld was a member of the Bradley coaching staff for three seasons; starting in 2007, Merfeld helped the Braves to a pair of 21-win seasons, including seven postseason victories that helped Bradley claim a pair of postseason tournament runner-up finishes.

A 1984 graduate of Wisconsin-La Crosse, Merfeld was a 10-year assistant for current Miami (Fla.) head coach Jim Larrañaga at Bowling Green prior to joining the Hampton staff as an assistant in 1996. During his time with the Falcons, Merfeld established himself as a highly-regarded recruiter and is credited with signing Antonio Daniels, the fourth pick in the 1997 NBA Draft. He also landed three Mid-American Conference Rookies of the Year in a five-year span, including Daniels and Anthony Stacey, both of whom went on to be named the league's Player of the Year in 1997 and 2000, respectively.

Merfeld and his wife, Mary Jo, have a 19-year-old daughter, Lauren, and 17-year-old son, Andrew.

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT

Arguably college basketball's most famous conference tournament is the BIG EAST Tournament, which returns to Madison Square Garden for the 37th consecutive season. It is the nation's longest-running conference tournament at any one site.

The BIG EAST Tournament has been home to some of the most storied moments in NCAA history, including Connecticut's run of five wins in five days in 2011 en route to the national title, and an epic six-overtime game between Connecticut and Syracuse in 2009.

Connecticut and Georgetown have each won seven tournament titles to top all teams. Five of the current schools in the BIG EAST have won a title.

Only two players have been named Tournament MVP in consecutive seasons, Georgetown's Patrick Ewing (1984 & 1985) and Louisville's Peyton Siva (2012 & 2013).

Prior to moving the tournament to Madison Square Garden, the first three years of the BIG EAST Tourney were held in Providence (1980), Syracuse (1981) and Hartford (1982).

All nine basketball games of the 2019 BIG EAST Tournament will be televised nationally on FS1 or FOX.

The 2019 BIG EAST Tournament will take place in New York City from March 13-16 at Madison Square Garden.

2017-18 SEASON RECAP

Creighton finished the 2017-18 season with a 21-12 record, tied for third place in the BIG EAST Conference with a 10-8 league mark, and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the last seven seasons.

The season will be remembered for the standout backcourt of First Team All-BIG EAST senior Marcus Foster (19.8 ppg.) and Second Team All-BIG EAST choice Khyri Thomas (15.1 ppg.), who was also named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season. Both men surpassed 1,000 points as a Bluejay during the campaign.

CU's third-leading scorer, sophomore forward Martin Krampelj (11.9 ppg., 8.1 rpg.), tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee on January 17th and missed the rest of the season, which would later cause the team to burn the redshirt of freshman Jacob Epperson (6.3 ppg.) in the team's 22nd game. Epperson, Ty-Shon Alexander (5.5 ppg.) and Mitch Ballock (7.3 ppg.) comprised of one of the highest-touted freshman classes in program history.

The campaign also saw senior guard Tyler Clement be named a First Team CoSIDA Academic All-American, and head coach Greg McDermott win the NABC Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award.

Creighton handed eventual national champion Villanova its final loss of the season on February 24th in Omaha.

The Bluejays started the season 4-0, including wins away from home over top-25 teams Northwestern and UCLA in consecutive games. The Bluejays challenging non-conference schedule saw the Bluejays drop games against fellow top-25 foes Baylor and Gonzaga, but CU would be 6-2 before hosting Nebraska on December 9th. Creighton trailed 33-28 at intermission but shot 58.6 percent from the field after the half en route to a 75-65 triumph, its seventh straight double-figure win over the Huskers.

The Bluejays entered the Christmas break with a 10-2 record before starting league play with a game at Seton Hall. The Bluejays dropped that contest to the Pirates, only to win four in a row before falling at Xavier on January 13th. Four days later Creighton topped No. 19 Seton Hall by 17 points, but lost Krampelj late in the first half to a season-ending knee injury.

The Bluejays later surrendered 19 three-pointers in a loss to Villanova to open February, and after a one-point victory at DePaul, CU dropped a one-point game against No. 5 Xavier on a pair of free throws with 0.3 seconds left.

CU snapped a three-game skid in BIG EAST action on February 24th with an 89-83 triumph over Villanova, a victory that essentially clinched an at-large bid for the Bluejays. Creighton followed that up with a 82-57 Senior Day win over DePaul.

The season ended in disappointing fashion, as CU fell by four points at Marquette in the regular-season finale, lost by four points in overtime in the BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinals to Providence, and dropped a 69-59 decision to Kansas State in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament in Charlotte.

Creighton ranked fifth nationally with 17,000 fans per home game, attracting a single-season program record 306,000 fans during the year.

Creighton honored five managers and four student-athletes following last year's Senior Day win over DePaul.

Game-by-Game Plus/Minus Chart

The plus/minus figure is a comparison of the Bluejays' points scored (plus) vs. their points allowed (minus) while a specific player is on the floor. For example, if Ty-Shon Alexander entered the game in the first half with Creighton trailing by five and he departs two minutes later with the Jays ahead by three, he earns a +8 for that stint. These results are tabulated for every player at the conclusion of each game, and also expressed cumulatively. Underlined totals indicate that player led team that night. Home games listed in ALL CAPS.

All-Americans

Creighton's men's basketball program has produced 31 All-Americans in 100 seasons, beginning with Leonard F. "Jimmy" Lovley in 1923 and 1924. Doug McDermott was a consensus All-American in 2011-12, 2012-13 and 2013-14 while picking up 14 different National Player of the Year honors as a senior while most recently, Marcus Foster earned honorable mention All-America acclaim in 2017-18 from the Associated Press.

Altman, Dana

Creighton's all-time winningest coach with 327 wins, Dana Altman is the only person in MVC history to lead his school to seven straight years of improved records. Altman won three MVC regular-season titles, six MVC Tournament crowns and led his troops to 13 consecutive postseason bids before going to Oregon following the 2009-10 season. He was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in August.

Apke Brothers, Tom and Rick

Former Bluejay coach Tom Apke is the only coach in school history to have led Creighton to the NCAA Tournament in his first season with the team (1974-75). A team captain on Creighton's 1964-65 team, Apke went on to coach the Jays to a 130-64 record from 1974-81.

While Tom was coaching the Bluejays to the postseason, his brother, Rick, was beginning to blossom as a player. After Rick averaged 6.4 points per game during his freshman season, he burst onto the scene as a sophomore with a scoring norm of 16.8 points per game. Rick went on to score 1,682 career points from 1974-78, now the eighth-highest total in school history.

Belford, "Duce"

J.V. "Duce" Belford was referred to as "Mr. Creighton Athletics" in the 1959-60 Creighton basketball media guide. Belford served the athletic department in a variety of roles for 39 years, beginning in 1922 as a student manager. In 1934, he was appointed part-time athletic director and was promoted to full-time A.D. in 1952. During his 39 years at Creighton, he served as the freshman basketball and football coach, varsity basketball coach, director of intramurals, track and field coach, baseball coach and golf coach. Belford passed away during the summer of 1961 following a long illness.

Benjamin, Benoit

A two-time AP All-America center for the Bluejays in the early 1980s, Benoit Benjamin (right) began a 15-year NBA career in 1985 as the third overall draft pick in the first round by the Los Angeles Clippers. Benjamin is the all-time leader for blocked shots in Missouri Valley Conference history with 411 rejections. As a junior during the 1984-85 season, he led all of NCAA Division I in blocked shots and was the nation's second-leading rebounder.

Bevilacqua, Dr. Lee C. "Doc"

Inducted into the Creighton University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1988, Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua became the first person associated with Creighton athletics to be honored by the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame when he was presented with the MVC Award of Merit on Sept. 1, 1998, in St. Louis, Mo.

Bevilacqua died in the fall of 1998 while on a road trip with the men's soccer team. He had spent more than 30 years (1962-82, 1986-98) as the Creighton Athletic Department's team physician without receiving any form of monetary compensation.

CHI Health Center Omaha

The home to Creighton men's basketball since 2003-04, CHI Health Center Omaha ranks as one of college basketball's best venues. The arena was known as Qwest Center Omaha until the fall of 2011, then was CenturyLink Center Omaha from 2011-18.

The facility has hosted NCAA Basketball Tournament games in 2008, 2012, 2015 and 2018, and will also host again in 2020.

Creighton is 213-44 (.829) all-time at CHI Health Center Omaha, including 73 wire-to-wire wins.

Collin, Conrad "Cornie"

Twice an all-MVC forward and the league's leading scorer, Conrad "Cornie" Collin suffered a knee injury during a football scrimmage against the freshmen prior to the 1933 season. Despite withdrawing from both the football and basketball teams due to the injury, Collin became the first athlete in school history to captain both squads.

Conference Affiliation

Creighton enters its sixth year as a member of the BIG EAST Conference, having joined the league on July 1, 2013. The move came after a 54-year affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference (1928-48, 1977-2013).

The Bluejays began play in 1916-17 with membership in both the Nebraska Collegiate Conference and Western Catholic Conference. After playing the next five seasons as an independent, Creighton was a member of the North Central Conference from 1922-27 before beginning its first stint in the MVC.

Prior to the 1948-49 season, the Bluejays withdrew from the MVC and remained independent until rejoining The Valley.

Conference Titles

Creighton won 15 regular-season titles as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference, including eight outright crowns and seven shared titles.

Creighton also has won 12 MVC Tournament championships, four North Central Conference titles, one Nebraska Collegiate Conference crown and one Western Catholic Conference championship in its 100-year history of hoops.

The Jays finished as runner-up in both the BIG EAST regular-season and Tournament in 2013-14.

"Dynamic Duo"

Known as the "Dynamic Duo", Chad Gallagher and Bob Harstad both rank in Creighton's top-five all-time in both scoring and rebounding. As teammates from 1987-91, the pair helped Creighton win two MVC regular-season titles, two MVC Tournament crowns and make a pair of NCAA appearances.

CREIGHTON BASKETBALL GLOSSARY

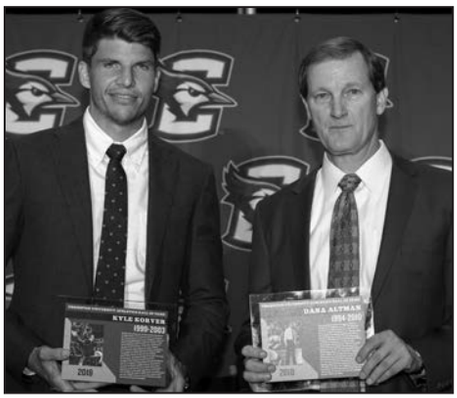
Fight Song

The Creighton University fight song is "The White and the Blue," with words and music by Gordon Richmond.

"The White and the Blue!
Colors two, it is you we defend.
Fearless for you,
our might to the fight we will lend.
So: wave, colors, wave
We will fight on for your glory.
White and Blue!
We will fight till the fight is won."

Hall of Famers

The Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame has inducted 33 former Bluejay men's basketball players and coaches since it was initiated in 1968. Major League Baseball great and former Creighton basketball star Bob Gibson was the first inductee. Most recently, former forward Kyle Korver (1999-03) and former coach Dana Altman (1994-2010) were inducted in August.



High Scores

CU's highest-scoring game was a 124-94 win at Miami (Fla.) on Feb. 10, 1964. Its top point total in a home contest came during a 120-76 victory over Nevada on Dec. 21, 1963, at the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Creighton has reached triple digits 64 times, including five different games last season, and has not lost when scoring 100 or more points since 1978.

Kearney, Charles

Charles Kearney is believed to be the only player/coach in Creighton history and owns the third-best winning percentage among Creighton's 16 head coaches. A two-time All-American and Creighton's top scorer on the team, Kearney coached the Bluejays to a 33-10 (.767) record in parts of two seasons from 1921-22.

Coach Eddie Mulholland was hired prior to the 1920-21 season. However they had a dance the night before a Feb. 4, 1921 game vs. Des Moines, and the floor was very slick for the game. After Des Moines handed CU its first loss of the year, there was an argument about whether there would be dances before games, and subsequently, Mulholland quit as coach. Kearney, who was serving as team captain, took over coaching, too.

Korver, Kyle

Two-time Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Kyle Korver ranks as one of the top players in league history. Korver finished his career tied for sixth in NCAA history with 371 three-pointers while placing 14th in accuracy at 45.3 percent from long-range. Chosen by ESPN's Dick Vitale as the 2002-03 Midseason National Player of the Year, Korver helped lead Creighton's return to the top-25 and garnered unprecedented attention for his all-around play. He now plays for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers, and was an All-Star in 2015.

Major Leaguers

Bob Gibson and Dennis Rasmussen went on to enjoy stellar Major League Baseball careers following their Creighton basketball days. Gibson was an All-American on the court for the Jays and played for the Harlem Globetrotters in 1957-58 before opting for baseball full-time. Among Gibson's career achievements on the diamond were 251 career wins, nine straight Gold Gloves, two Cy Young Awards, two World Series championships, a 1971 no-hitter against Pittsburgh, a first ballot Hall of Famer in 1981 and a spot on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team.

Rasmussen was a solid contributor for the Bluejay basketball team during 1977-80, but like Gibson, decided to make baseball his professional sport. Rasmussen won 91 games as a major league starting pitcher.

CREIGHTON BASKETBALL GLOSSARY

McDermott, Doug

Doug McDermott led Creighton to three NCAA Tournaments while starting all 145 games of his career from 2010-14. He was a four-time first-team all-conference pick, and three-time Conference Player of the Year. Also a three-time First Team All-American, McDermott closed his career by sweeping all 14 National Player of the Year honors in 2013-14 and finishing his career fifth in NCAA history with 3,150 points. He now plays for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

McManus, John J. (Red)

Creighton's fourth-winningest coach is John J. (Red) McManus, who led the Jays to a 138-118 mark from 1959-69, including NCAA bids in 1962 and 1964. A 1979 CU Athletics Hall of Fame inductee, McManus remained loyal to the program after leaving the coaching profession until his death in July, 2013.

National Championship (Unofficial)

The 1918-19 Creighton men's basketball team capped its second straight undefeated season by winning a two-game series against the U.S. Army's Camp Grant. By winning the series, the March 20, 1919, Creighton Chronicle reported, "the Creighton team is recognized as the champions of the west, not only among the college teams, but professionals."

Dr. Floyd Paynter took the success one step further when he wrote in the March 1934 Creighton Alumnus, "After this great season we claimed the basketball championship of the nation for Creighton University."

Olympians

Creighton owns two basketball alums that have played in the Olympics, Willard Schmidt (1936) and Gregory Echenique (2016).

Schmidt was part of the US team that won a gold medal in Berlin, while Echenique represented his home country of Venezuela in Rio de Janeiro.

Schmidt and Echenique are two of five Creighton student-athletes to appear in the Olympics, joining Carl Vincequerra (1936 boxing), Scott Servais (1988 baseball) and Chad McConnell (1992 baseball).

Omaha Civic Auditorium

Creighton men's basketball's primary home from 1955-2003, the Omaha Civic Auditorium provided a tremendous home-court advantage for the Jays. Creighton went 434-155 (.737) overall in the facility.

The Civic was home to five regular-season MVC champs and eight MVC Tournament champs before the CU men closed their run at the Civic in 2003 with six straight sellouts. The Jays returned to the Civic for the first time in seven years in 2010, winning two CIT games when CHI Health Center Omaha was booked.

The facility was torn down during the fall of 2016.

One-Sided Scores

The most lopsided victory in Creighton history was a 57-point triumph, 63-6, against Midland during the 1925-26 season. Conversely, Creighton's most lopsided defeat was a 66-point thumping, 96-30, by Illinois during 1948-49.

Overtime Games

In 100 seasons, Creighton has played 102 overtime games with a 56-46 record. Creighton's first overtime contest resulted in a 20-19 road triumph against St. Viator's on Feb. 12, 1917. The Bluejays' longest game was an 85-82 loss to DePaul in triple overtime on Feb. 1, 1978, at the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

The Bluejays are 11-1 in double-overtime games dating to the start of the 1987-88 season.

Fourteen of CU's last 15 overtime games have been won by the team to score first in the extra session.

Portman, Bob

Bob Portman (below) scored 1,876 career points from 1966-69, making him the fifth-leading scorer in Creighton history. He averaged a school-record 24.6 points per game for his career, including 29.5 points per game during 1967-68. He scored 30 or more points 15 times in his career, including a school-record 51-point effort against Wisconsin-Milwaukee on Dec. 16, 1967. Portman was inducted into the MVC Hall of Fame on March 8, 2013.

Schabinger, Arthur A.

Creighton's winningest men's basketball coach for 75 years, Arthur A. Schabinger directed Creighton to a 165-66 record as coach of the Bluejays from 1922-35. Eleven of his 13 teams finished first or second in the league, including eight teams that won or tied for the title.

Sears, Ryan & Walker, Ben

Keying the rejuvenation of Creighton basketball in the late 1990's were a pair of guards who spent four years in the starting line-up together, Ryan Sears and Ben Walker. Sears ended his career with school-record totals of 570 assists, 283 steals and 245 three-pointers while starting all 124 games of his career.

Walker scored 1,238 points and hauled down 677 rebounds in a stellar four-year career that saw him start 119 of 124 career contests.

Silas, Paul

One of the top rebounders in the history of college basketball, Paul Silas averaged 21.6 rebounds per game during his three-year career (1961-64). Silas' 1,751 career caroms are the fourth-best total among NCAA Division I players to have played three seasons and his career per game rebounding norm is the third-best total for any NCAA Division I player. Silas is also ninth on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,661 points.

Silas was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in November of 2017 as part of a class that included John Stockton and Tim Duncan.

Sutton, Eddie

One of the legendary figures in college basketball history, Eddie Sutton got his first Division I head coaching job at Creighton, where he led the Bluejays to an 82-50 mark in five seasons between 1969-74. Sutton's final coaching stint came in 2007-08 as interim coach at San Francisco. His 806-329 mark in 37 years of coaching ranks eighth on the all-time Division I wins list.

He became the first coach to lead four schools to the NCAA Tournament, taking Creighton, Arkansas, Kentucky and Oklahoma State.

Top 25

Creighton was ranked during the final 15 weeks of the 2002-03 Associated Press poll, returning to the rankings after a 28-season absence. CU has been ranked by the AP 88 different weeks in school history, with 60 of those weeks coming with Greg McDermott as head coach over the past eight seasons.

Creighton's best all-time ranking was No. 7, the week of January 16, 2017.

Triple-Double

Benoit Benjamin recorded the only three triple-doubles in Bluejay history. He finished with 24 points, 17 rebounds and 11 blocked shots on Feb. 16, 1984, against Tulsa; had 43 points, 16 rebounds and 10 blocked shots on Jan. 17, 1985, at Southern Illinois; and had 29 points, 12 rebounds and 12 blocks on Feb. 2, 1985, at Bradley.

Undefeated Conference Seasons

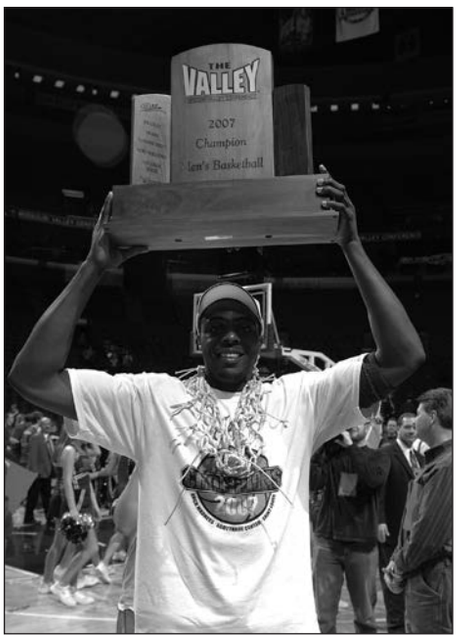
Two of Creighton's eight outright MVC titles came by posting undefeated records in league play. Before ceasing athletics because of World War II, Creighton won the 1943 MVC title by posting a 10-0 conference mark. The Bluejays also won the 1931-32 Valley championship with an 8-0 league record.

Vinardi Center

The Bluejays went 338-92 in 42 seasons in the 3,000-seat Vinardi Center (then known as University Gym) from the time Creighton began sponsoring men's basketball in 1916-17 through the 1959-60 season.

Creighton split its home games between University Gym and the Omaha Civic Auditorium from 1955-60 before moving into the Civic full-time for the 1960-61 year.

Creighton moved to its current home, CHI Health Center Omaha, in 2003.



Anthony Tolliver helped Creighton to the 2007 MVC Tournament title.

Yost, Ray

Ray Yost (below) and Elton Tuttle became the first Creighton basketball players to surpass the 1,000-point barrier, accomplishing the feat in the 1953-54 campaign.

Tuttle finished his career as the all-time scoring leader with 1,303 points (he is currently 20th), but it was Yost who graduated with the single-season mark of 616 during his senior season, which remains eighth in Bluejay history.

Yost scored 1,196 points in his career, which now ranks him 26th on the all-time chart.

Creighton graduates Doug McDermott (left) and Kyle Korver (right) thrilled fans in 2016 during an NBA exhibition game in Omaha.

McDermott finished his fourth year in the NBA averaging 7.8 points per game during 81 games with the New York Knicks and the Dallas Mavericks, and signed with the Indiana Pacers in July.

"I'm more proud of my academic success at Creighton than of all my athletic accomplishments.

"What Creighton University does for an athlete or any student is that they teach you how to think, how to deal with everyday living.

"What I learned at Creighton has helped me close the gap between professional sports and the business world."

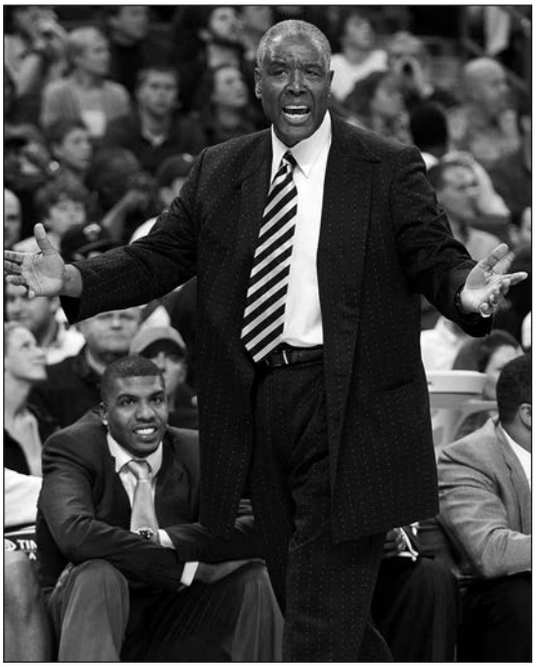
12 Year NBA head coach



After a standout 16-year playing career, Creighton grad Paul Silas coached 12 seasons in the NBA. Silas has led the Clippers, Hornets, Cavaliers and Bobcats on the sideline.

"I'm really proud of where Creighton is, and how Creighton has managed to stay true to who they are, but still do it on a larger scale. Being in the BIG EAST now, playing in this kind of arena, and Doug (McDermott) with all the accomplishments he had really took Creighton to another level. I've always been proud to say I played at Creighton, and I think it's because of the people mostly. The people at Creighton, the people in Omaha."

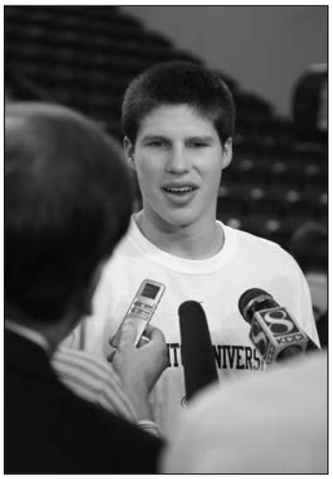
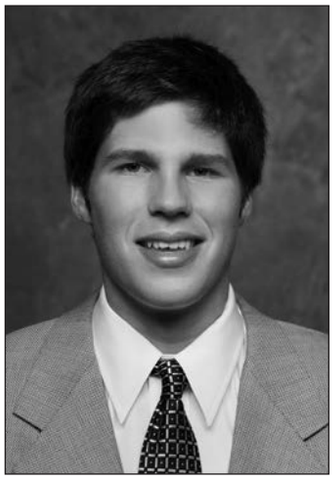
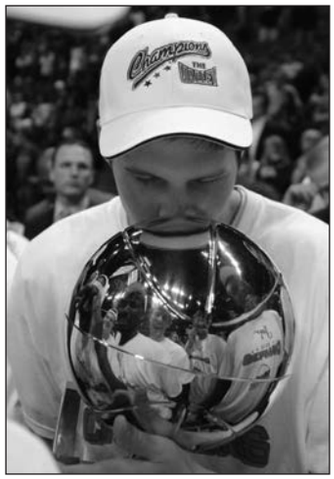
DOUG MCDERMOTT'S HISTORICAL CAREER



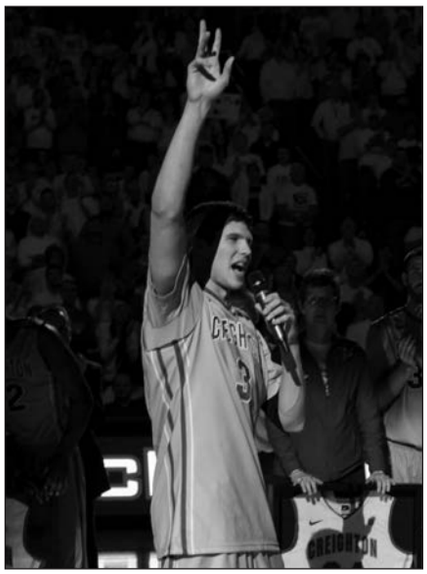




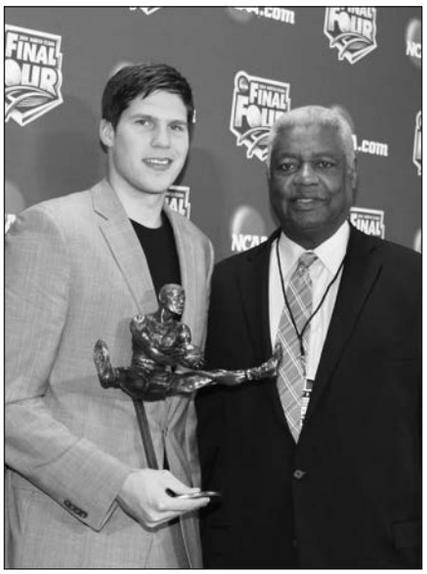
Doug McDermott arrived at Creighton in 2010 as a baby-faced 18-year-old freshman. By the time his career was done, he had spent two summers with USA Basketball, won a pair of MVC Tournament titles and won three NCAA Tournament games.

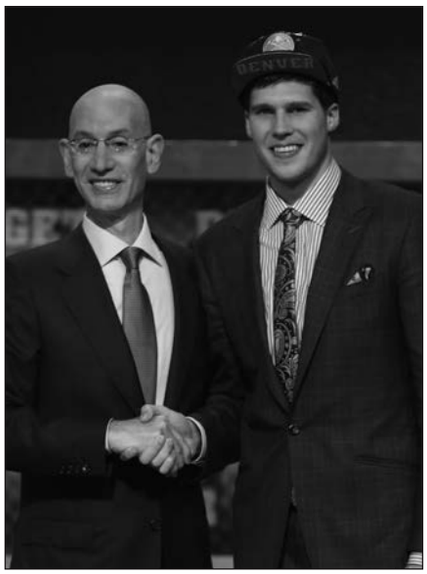
In 2013 while in St. Louis he picked up Creighton's MVC regular-season trophy.

Here he is with his father, Greg, after scoring 2,000 points.



He scored a career-high 45 points and surpassed 3,000 career points during a Senior Day for the ages in 2014.





He swept 14 National Player of the Year Awards, including the Oscar Robertson Trophy, appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated, and shook hands with commissioner Adam Silver as a Lottery pick in the 2014 NBA Draft.

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 900,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private university, one of 28 Catholic, Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

Creighton is nationally recognized as a leading university in the Midwest, known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research opportunities. As a Jesuit university, Creighton is committed to academic excellence and service to others and seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community.

In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, the University's oldest and largest college, Creighton includes the Heider College of Business, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies, the Graduate School, and the Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the Top 10 private Midwestern universities with more than 4,000 undergraduates and among the Top 10 Catholic universities in the nation.

For the 16th year in a row, Creighton is the No. 1 Midwest regional university in the annual U.S. News & World Report magazine's college rankings. U.S. News also again ranked the University No. 1 in the Midwest region for veterans. Creighton was also named among only 90 schools nationally as a top school for undergraduate research opportunities, and among only 41 schools nationwide for internship opportunities available for students.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 382 colleges and universities in its latest college guide.

Campus Life

Creighton offers more than 200 student clubs and organizations, including academic, athletic, cultural, Greek, political, professional, service, social and spiritual groups, as well as opportunities to work on campus publications.

Nine sophisticated on-campus living environments include two junior/senior townhome residence halls with technologically rich furnished apartments and complete kitchens.

Creighton students take part in more than 1 million hours of community service at local, national and international community organizations annually.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic, faculty-led courses taught abroad, or study abroad in nearly every country in the world through exchange or affiliate programs.

Creighton also offers online education and has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including a health professions regional campus at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix; occupational therapy partnerships with the University of Alaska in Anchorage and Regis University in Denver; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

Our Alumni

Nearly 70,000 Creighton alumni live in 90 countries, with 30 percent living in Nebraska. The largest number of alumni who live outside the United States reside in Canada, Japan and Malaysia.

Student Snapshot

Creighton has more than 8,000 students: More than 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates and more than 4,000 are enrolled in the graduate or professional programs.

One-third of Creighton undergraduates participate in research before graduating. Last year, 200 of these students presented their research findings at local, state and national professional conferences.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 120-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

Since 2000, Creighton has invested more than $300 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upperclassman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness & Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012 and serves the fitness needs of all students.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center became the home of the Heider College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center opened in 2014.
- The new 200,000-square foot School of Dentistry building at 21st and Cuming streets opened in the summer of 2018.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University recently undertook the largest renovation project in its history, with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression. Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays - locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CHI Health Center Omaha.

McCormick Endowed Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen

The 2017-18 chairman of the highly esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 25th year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director, and 39th overall at Creighton University, in 2018-19.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than four recent projects that continue to change the area's athletics scene. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, opened in 2011 to rave reviews. Just east of the Ryan Athletic Center is Creighton's student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor in 2012. The most recent addition to the campus is the Championship Center, which opened in June 2014 and is considered one of the best of its kind.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past 15 years, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CHI Health Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 37 regular-season and 40 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 83 postseason appearances. The Bluejays remain the only school in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 24 of the past 26 years. Creighton was also recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of its last nine seasons in the league.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last 13 years.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award. In both 2010 and 2015, Rasmussen was honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, softball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's golf, women's soccer as well as men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 24 straight semesters entering the fall of 2018.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2017 Jamboree generated more than $550,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season. The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994. A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan, David, John, Katie and Grace.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D., is the 25th president of Creighton University. A Nebraska native, Fr. Hendrickson earned his B.A. in psychology and theology from Marquette University in 1993 and entered the Society of Jesus in 1994. He received his M.A. in philosophical resources from Fordham University, a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University, and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University.

Fr. Hendrickson's first contact with Creighton was as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996. He returned as an adjunct instructor of philosophy from 2000 to 2003. He also served as an adjunct professor with Creighton's Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC) program in Santiago, Dominican Republic, in 2002. Fr. Hendrickson was a visiting instructor at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania, and an adjunct professor of philosophy at Fordham University.

In 2012, he returned to Marquette University as associate vice president in the Office of the Executive Vice President, working closely with the president, provost and academic deans. He then became an associate provost for academic initiatives at Marquette. While in administrative posts at Marquette, Fr. Hendrickson also taught each semester jointly in the Department of Philosophy and College of Education, and he served as the co-director of the Burke Scholars service and leadership program. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013; today he serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University and also is a trustee of the St. Francis Indian Mission of the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota.

Fr. Hendrickson has a special interest in education with a global perspective. His international travel and immersion experiences have taken him to over 30 countries on nearly every continent. He is a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral (CESI) in the Dominican Republic and a trustee of Jesuit Worldwide Learning (JWL).

Fr. Hendrickson, who grew up in Fremont, Nebraska, and graduated from Mount Michael Benedictine High School in Elkhorn, comes from a family of educators. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., D.Phil., is an assistant professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan C. Hendrickson, Ph.D., is dean of the Graduate School and vice provost for sponsored research at Eastern Illinois University.

Athletic Training and Athletic Performance

The Creighton University Athletic Training staff works in cooperation with and under the supervision of physicians to provide the best possible care for student-athletes. It has a staff of five full-time athletic trainers, and two graduate assistant athletic trainers. Athletic training students also gain clinical experience as they help serve the sports medicine needs of Creighton student-athletes.

The mission of Creighton University athletic training is to serve as the initial allied healthcare provider for Creighton University student-athletes and to provide access to other healthcare professionals as needed. Services include prevention, assessment, management and rehabilitation of athletic-related injuries and illnesses.

Creighton athletic training is committed to the highest standards of care consistent with the National Athletic Trainers Association Code of Professional Practice and the credentialing statutes of the state of Nebraska.

Ben McNair serves as the men's basketball athletic trainer.

Creighton University student-athletes benefit from year-round strength and conditioning training programs in The Championship Center. The 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art Athletic Performance Center is equipped with 12 Power Lift half-racks that each have inlaid lifting platforms and the EliteForm system. Additionally, the Athletic Performance Center features Uesaka Collegiate Series Bumper Plates, Plae Flooring, Iron Grip dumbbells, and a nutrition and hydration station to provide Creighton student-athletes with the optimal training and recovery environment.

The athletic performance program at Creighton University is designed to help the athletes become strong and powerful. The program combines Olympic lifts, strength training exercises, plyometrics, speed and agility development, flexibility, and cardiovascular regimes. The programs are specifically tailored to each athlete, the sport they participate in and to their individual experience and ability. The goal of the program is to reduce the chance of injury and to help all athletes reach their full potential.

To help maximize athletic performance, each Creighton student-athlete works with the strength and conditioning staff, the sports medicine staff, a certified nutritionist and a sports psychologist, giving Creighton student-athletes all the resources they need to succeed at the highest level.

After the first five years in its current configuration of 10 outstanding and respected academic institutions, the BIG EAST Conference has continued its position as one of the nation's exceptional Conferences and a leader in collegiate athletics.

In the arena and on the playing fields, the BIG EAST's consortium of 10 schools has produced 11 national champions over the past five academic years. Six BIG EAST teams, including two in men's basketball, have captured national titles. BIG EAST student-athletes also have won national championships in five individual events.

In the classroom, 66 BIG EAST athletic programs were recognized in 2017-18 by the NCAA with Public Recognition Awards for outstanding academic achievement in the previous academic year. The BIG EAST ranked third nationally among conferences in percentage of recognized teams with 41.8 percent behind only the Ivy League and Patriot League. By percentage, Villanova led all schools nationally with 82 percent of its squads receiving recognition. BIG EAST schools also produced 15 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

In 2013, the BIG EAST began a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage. The league's 10 member schools—Butler University, Creighton University, DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University, Villanova University, and Xavier University—adhere to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST in conjunction with new alignment in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for athletic achievement at the highest level and has continued to be influential on the national intercollegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees. Ackerman is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level.

Founded by Dave Gavitt in 1979, the BIG EAST has been lauded as a leader in innovative concepts in promotion, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a successful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular-season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 or FOX Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason conference tourney held at the same venue.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's 36 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its member school programs with the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). When the conference launched BEDN in 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform, FOX Sports App, the app that provides live streaming of FOX Sports content. For the third straight year, BEDN will air 225 live events with an emphasis on women's basketball, soccer and Olympic sport regular-season and championship events.

The BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979 through the vision of Gavitt, the former Providence men's basketball coach and athletic director. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and within the span of just a few years the conference had become a national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST evolved over the next three decades, the focus of its schools did not change, reflecting a tradition of broad-based programs that emphasize academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova, announced their intention to separate from the conference's FBS football-playing schools and form an independent association. The seven schools reached an agreement to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college sports. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions sharing the same academic and athletic values —Butler, Creighton and Xavier— and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City to complete the transformation. The BIG EAST's new era officially began on July 1, 2013.

To complement its athletic successes, the conference launched BIG EAST Serves in 2014 to align with the service missions of the member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to the campus communities and the conference's headquarters in New York. In 2017, the BIG EAST hosted a Mental Health Summit to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental health of their student-athletes. That effort continued with the Well Being Forum in 2018.

The BIG EAST and Commissioner Ackerman have taken a leadership role in Sport at the Service of Humanity, an initiative created by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture to focus on how sport and faith can drive positive social change through six principles – joy, compassion, respect, enlightenment, love and balance. Ackerman was a delegate at the inaugural Vatican conference and has served on an advisory committee to develop the framework and content for the initiative as well as several regional follow-up events.

The BIG EAST hosts Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball. The league hosts Transition Game for women's basketball, which assists women's basketball student-athletes in the transition from college player to emerging professional on and off the court.

BIG EAST institutions boast high graduation rates for their student-athletes, and the league has always been able to boast that many of its best athletes are also its best students.

The conference, which crowns champions in 22 sports, had league teams earn a total of 35 NCAA berths and 28 individual NCAA invitations in 2017-18. Nine different national postseason championships saw multiple BIG EAST teams participate, including six teams in men's basketball and a record four squads in women's basketball. Each women's hoops team won its NCAA first-round game. In men's basketball, the BIG EAST has earned 28 NCAA invitations in the five years of the current 10-team alignment.

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success through the years. Villanova has won three NCAA Championships, in 2018, 2016 and 1985. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title. DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985—Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 15 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have reached the Final Four, with Villanova making three trips and Butler two. Xavier has advanced to the Elite Eight three times and the Sweet 16 four other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last nine years (Villanova twice, Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton men's soccer has advanced to the NCAA College Cup twice in the last six seasons, with the Providence men advancing to the College Cup in 2014. Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2016. Connecticut, an associate member in field hockey, has won three national championships in five years. Denver, as associate member in men's lacrosse, won the NCAA crown in 2015.

In the 39 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 41 national championships in eight different sports with 145 student-athletes winning individual national titles in the league's history.

BIG EAST CONFERENCE

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2018-19 season is Creighton's sixth in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York.

The 2018-19 academic year will be the 40th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 14 titles in the last 19 years, including a Villanova title in men's basketball in 2017-18.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 41 national championships in eight different sports and 145 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2017-18. Since the league's 2013 alignment, the BIG EAST has produced 11 individual national champions.

All 10 universities reside within a top-75 media market, including eight schools in a top-36 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.

"We feel that joining the BIG EAST Conference gives us a greater opportunity to recruit, retain, develop, and graduate outstanding students and outstanding student-athletes. We know that continued success and excellence in each of our athletics programs will not be easy. We chose to join the BIG EAST not because it will be easy to be successful, we know it will be difficult. At Creighton University, we believe that goals that are difficult to achieve are the most worthwhile."
