Creighton owns five men averaging 9.8 points per game or more, including sophomores Ty-Shon Alexander (16.4 ppg.) and Mitch Ballock (10.0 ppg.). The duo have combined for 140 three-pointers this winter.

Coming on strong of late is Martin Krampelj (12.8 ppg., 6.7 rpg.). He's averaged 16.3 points and 8.2 rebounds in CU's last 15 games with 40 dunks in that time. The junior forward scored a career-high 25 points last Saturday at Seton Hall.

Scouting Seton Hall

Seton Hall is 15-9 this season, including a win at Madison Square Garden over Kentucky, and 6-6 in BIG EAST action. The Pirates are 2-6 in true road games this season and haven't won away from Newark since January 2nd, but did win at Maryland in December.

Junior guard Myles Powell leads the Pirates with 22.0 points per game and 1.9 steals per contest. He also tops the club with 69 three-point baskets made and 86.6 percent accuracy at the line.

Quincy McKnight (10.3 ppg., 4.0 apg.) also scores in double-figures, while Myles Cale (9.7 ppg.), Michael Nzei (9.6 ppg.) and Sandro Mamukelashvili (8.5 ppg., 7.2 rpg.) round out the Pirates top scorers.

SHU averages 73.8 points per game while allowing 71.2 per contest. The Pirates shoot 45.1 percent from the field, 33.2 percent from downtown and 71.8 percent at the line.

The Series With Seton Hall

Seton Hall leads the all-time series with Creighton 13-6, but the Bluejays are 3-2 in games contested in Omaha.

Creighton has won each of the last two games played in Omaha by double-digits, but three of the last 11 meetings at all sites have been one-point contests.

Greg McDermott is 5-7 against Seton Hall and coach Kevin Willard. Willard is 8-5 all-time against Creighton, leading his 2009-10 Iona team to a 63-55 win over the Bluejays at the Old Spice Classic near Orlando, Fla.

The Creighton Coaches

Greg McDermott (Northern Iowa, 1988) is in his ninth season as head coach at Creighton, where he is 200-106 with the Bluejays. McDermott has previously been a head coach at Iowa State (2006-10), Northern Iowa (2001-06), North Dakota State (2000-01) and Wayne State (1994-2000). He owns a career mark of 480-301 in his 25th season and is 349-237 in his 18th Division I campaign.

McDermott is assisted by Preston Murphy, Alan Huss and Paul Lusk.

With A Win, Creighton Can...

- Improve to 201-106 under Greg McDermott at Creighton.

- Beat Seton Hall in Omaha for a third straight season.

- Improve to 7-13 all-time against Seton Hall, and 4-2 in Omaha.

- Snap a three-game losing streak.

Just Call Him Trey-Shon

Ty-Shon Alexander has made a three-point basket in all 24 games he's played this season, stretching his streak dating to last year to 28 games in a row.

Alexander's owns the longest active streak in the BIG EAST, three longer than Villanova's Phil Booth.

Alexander's streak is tied for the second-longest in Creighton history, and just three behind the school record set by Booker Woodfox in 2008-09.

It's worth noting that Kyle Korver's second-place streak of 28 games with a trey was snapped when he did not attempt a field goal in 24 minutes of play during an 83-56 win over UNI (and head coach Greg McDermott) on Feb. 9, 2002. Korver then drained a triple in 27 more games in a row, a stretch from Feb. 13, 2002 to Jan. 20, 2003 before it was snapped against Evansville (and head coach Steve Merfeld).

Ty-Shon Alexander and Mitch Ballock continue to shoot the ball at a rate rarely seen by sophomores.

Alexander has made 76 three-pointers this season, while Ballock has drained 64 treys. Both men rank among the top-four in program history for three-pointers by a sophomore:

Sunday Success at CHI Health Center Omaha

Creighton is 34-2 all-time at CHI Health Center Omaha in games played on a Sunday, and has won 39 of its last 41 Sunday home games since Feb. 4, 2002.

Creighton's streak of 32 straight Sunday home wins was snapped last month on January 13th by Villanova.

Creighton & Seton Hall To The Wire

Creighton and Seton Hall have met 11 times in the regular-season since becoming BIG EAST rivals. Three of those games have been decided by a single point.

Creighton won a Feb. 3, 2014 meeting in Omaha by a 72-71 margin, then lost heartbreakers to the Pirates on Jan. 10, 2015 in Omaha (68-67) and on Feb. 28, 2015 in Newark (67-66).

Creighton is 81-75 all-time in games decided by a single point, including an 8-8 mark under Greg McDermott.

Since the reconfiguration of BIG EAST to 10 teams, there are 45 possible match-up combinations. Only six of them have had multiple one-point games.

Also worth noting...there have been just five league games decided by one point this season (Butler/Seton Hall, Butler/Xavier, DePaul/Seton Hall, Marquette/St. John's, Marquette/Villanova).

Overtime Odds & Ends

Creighton lost 64-61 in overtime at Xavier on Wednesday, dropping to 0-3 this season in OT. The losses have come against No. 21 Marquette, No. 14 Villanova and defending BIG EAST champ Xavier.

Creighton has lost four straight overtime games, including Wednesday's setback at Xavier. Creighton's last win in overtime came against Villanova (2018).

The team to score first in overtime has won 16 of Creighton's last 18 overtime games, though that didn't hold true on Wednesday in Cincinnati.

Creighton is now 56-49 all-time games to go to overtime, including a 42-43 mark in single-overtime games. CU is 20-27 in true road games that last just one overtime.

Creighton has played back-to-back overtime games just five times in school history, and just once in the last 25 years (Dec. 9 & 13, 2014).

Creighton has never played three overtime games in the span of five contests in the same season.

Upon joining the BIG EAST in 2013, just one of Creighton's first 96 games against league opponents (regular season & conference tournament play) went to overtime. Since then, five of CU's last 16 games against league opponents have gone to overtime.

As close as their series has been, Creighton has never played Seton Hall in an overtime game.

Creighton has won just one of its last six overtime games against top-25 competition (89-83 over No. 3 Villanova last season), and is 3-11 all-time in overtime games against top-25 foes.

Creighton has played three overtime games this season, one shy of the school record of four done in 1989-90 and again in 2001-02. This is the seventh time that Creighton has played exactly three OT games in the same campaign.

More information on Creighton's overtime history can be found on page 160 of the program's 2018-19 media guide.

My Favorite Martin

Martin Krampelj has scored in double-figures in 14 of the last 15 games, with nine points in the one contest he was limited to single digits.

In the past 15 games, Krampelj has averaged 16.3 points and 8.2 rebounds per game. He's shot 61.7 percent from the field, 39.4 percent from three-point territory, and 70.6 percent from the line.

His recent stat line represents a vast improvement from the first 10 contests when he was still regaining his form.

Krampelj On The Double

Martin Krampelj had his fourth double-double of the season last Saturday, authoring 25 points and 11 rebounds at Seton Hall on Feb. 9th.

Krampelj owns each of Creighton's four double-doubles this season, and since December 10, 2018 has all eight of CU's double-double games.

The chart below shows Creighton's players with consecutive double-doubles since 1994-95. Of the nine men listed, Krampelj (3x) and Doug McDermott (6x) are the only two men to appear on the list three times or more. Krampelj is already the only Bluejay other than McDermott in the last 25 years to have three consecutive double-dips, having done so last season.

25 & 10 Men

Martin Krampelj finished with 25 points and 11 rebounds at Seton Hall last Saturday. The 25 points were a career-best effort, while the 11 boards were a season-best.

Krampelj is the first Bluejay with 25 points and 10 rebounds in a game since Doug McDermott had 30 points and 12 rebounds on March 21, 2014 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette.

Krampelj is the first Creighton player with 25+ points and 11+ rebounds in a BIG EAST game, as McDermott never had such a game in his senior year when he was named National Player of the Year.

Since Greg McDermott's arrival in 2010, Krampelj is just the third Creighton player with a 25/10 game. Doug McDermott had 17 such games, while Kenny Lawson Jr. had one. It's also worth noting that current Bluejay Connor Cashaw had a game with 27 points and 12 rebounds during his junior season in 2017-18 while playing for Rice.

New Style vs. Old Style

Creighton has gone just 1-3 in its last three games, but has made vast improvements on the defensive end of the court in that time.

In the last four games, a stretch that started with CU's Feb. 3 victory over Xavier, Creighton has allowed 61.8 points per game while holding foes to 38.4 percent shooting from the field and 29.4 percent marksmanship from downtown.

In CU's first eight league contests, Creighton had allowed 82.5 points per game while the opposition shot 49.4 percent from the field and 41.1 percent from deep.

What's Your Favorite Dish?

Creighton owns 4,985 assists since Greg McDermott was hired in 2010, a figure that ranks fourth nationally, and just 15 shy of the 5,000 mark.

The only schools above the Bluejays are North Carolina (5,606), Michigan State (5,309) and Kansas (5,012).

Creighton ranks 24th nationally this season with 16.3 assists per contest, the sixth time in the last eight seasons that the Bluejays have been in the top-25. Each of the previous five seasons in the top-25 resulted in an NCAA Tournament bid.

Xavier Nuggets

A few notes and nuggets from Wednesday's game.
- Ty-Shon Alexander had career-highs with 10 rebounds and four steals.

- Kaleb Joseph tied his season-best with 11 points.
- Creighton's 12 steals and seven blocked shots were both season highs. It was the first time since the same day (Feb. 13) one year earlier (vs. Bemidji State) that Creighton had three players notch multiple blocked shots in the same game.

- Creighton had fewer than 10 three-pointers for the sixth straight game, finishing 9-for-29 from beyond the arc. That comes after the Bluejays made 10 or more treys 15-of-19 games to start the year.
- Creighton now has 1,990 points this season and on the verge of surpassing 2,000 points for the 13th straight season after having done it just 8-of-12 seasons from 1994-95 to 2005-06.

Most Improved?

Ty-Shon Alexander had 23 points vs. Marquette on Jan. 9, then added 22 more vs. Villanova four days later.

It's the fourth and fifth times this season that the sophomore guard has scored 20 or more points in a game, and first time in his career he's done so in consecutive contests.

The Charlotte native has upped his scoring average to 16.4 points per game, an improvement of 10.9 points over his 5.5 points per game from a year ago. That's easily the largest improvement of any of the BIG EAST's top 30 scorers this season, as seen below:

Rk.	Name, School	18-19PPG	17-18PPG	+/-
1.	Ty-Shon Alexander, CU	16.4	5.5	+10.9
2.	Phil Booth, VU	18.5	10.0	+8.5
3.	Paul Reed, DPU	11.7	3.6	+8.1
4.	Paul Scruggs, XU	12.6	4.9	+7.7
5.	Collin Gillespie, VU	11.6	4.3	+7.3

Sophomore Scorer

Sophomore guard Ty-Shon Alexander averages a team-leading 16.4 points per game, quite an accomplishment for a guy who never scored more than 14 points in any game a season ago.

The only Creighton sophomores in the last

40 seasons to score more points per game than Alexander are Doug McDermott (22.9 ppg. in 2011-12), Rodney Buford (19.6 ppg. in 1996-97) and Bob Harstad (16.7 in 1988-89). McDermott, Buford and Harstad are the top three career scorers in Creighton history.

Here's a list of Creighton's top sophomore scorers in the past 50 seasons:

Most Points/Game, CU Sophomores Since 1968-69

Sophomores From Downtown

Ty-Shon Alexander was the first player in Creighton history to make multiple three-pointers in each of the first eight games of a season before he went 1-for-4 beyond the arc at Nebraska.

Here's a look at Creighton's most three-pointers per game for a season (minimum 10 games).

Scheduling Tough

Throught games of Tuesday in the NET rankings provided by the NCAA, no team in the BIG EAST had played a more difficult schedule than Creighton.

CU's schedule is ranked 10th-toughest nationally. The Bluejays have played 11 Quadrant 1 and five Quadrant 2 games. Those 11 Q1 games are the most in the BIG EAST, and the 16 combined Q1 and Q2 games are second-most in the BIG EAST.

Iron Man Mintz

He was the first Bluejay to play a complete game since James Milliken played all 40 minutes at No. 5 Xavier on March 5, 2016.

Despite his heavy minutes, Mintz scored CU's first eight points of overtime and finished with 19 points and a season-high eight rebounds.

Mintz is the first Bluejay to play 45 minutes or more since Austin Chatman logged 47 minutes in a double-overtime win over South Dakota on Dec. 9, 2014.

After 102 Games in BIG EAST Play

Since the reconfiguration of the BIG EAST in the summer of 2013, all 10 league schools have played exactly 102 regular-season BIG EAST games.

Creighton's 51-51 record is the fifth-best mark across the league, as seen below in research by WhiteAndBlueReview.com's Matt DeMarinis.

Depth Being Tested

A slew of injuries has taken a toll on the Creighton bench in recent times. All told, Creighton has had five players miss a combined 26 games so far this season.

Jacob Epperson underwent season-ending knee surgery on January 11th, but was also struggling with back injuries at the time. CU is 6-9 without him this year.

Damien Jefferson injured his ankle on January 9 vs. Marquette, undergoing surgery on January 17th. He missed six games, with CU going 3-3 without him, before returning on Feb. 6 at Villanova.

Mitch Ballock broke his nose on Jan. 16 at St. John's, but has not missed any games as a result.

Connor Cashaw injured a shoulder while running into a screen against St. John's and missed CU's Feb. 3 game vs. Xavier. He returned to the line-up at Villanova on Feb. 6.

Marcus Zegarowski broke the fifth metacarpal in his hand during the opening minutes of CU's Feb. 3 game vs. Xavier, but played 29 minutes in the game. Creighton is 0-3 without him this year, as he missed road games on Feb. 6, 9 and 13th.

Ty-Shon Alexander was injured in practice on Feb. 5 and missed CU's game at Villanova last Wednesday before returning on Saturday at Seton Hall. Creighton is 0-1 without him this winter.

McDermott's 50th BIG EAST Win

CU's Jan. 25th victory over Butler was Greg McDermott's 50th regular-season BIG EAST win.

He's the 24th coach in league history to reach that mark, and fourth active league coach (Jay Wright has 202, Ed Cooley has 68 and Kevin Willard has 68).

Of the 24 men with 50 or more regular-season BIG EAST wins, McDermott's .500 win percentage in league play ranks 16th-best, trailing only Jim Boeheim, Jim Calhoun, John Thompson Sr., Jay Wright, Mike Brey, John Thompson Jr., Lou Carnesecca, Jamie Dixon, Rick Pitino, Rollie Massimino, Steve Lappas, Paul Evans, Buzz Williams, Chris Mack and Mike Jarvis.

McDermott Earns 200th Creighton Win

Creighton's win over Xavier on Feb. 3 marked the 200th victory on the Bluejay sideline for ninth-year coach Greg McDermott. That trails only his predecessor, Dana Altman (327) in program history.

Of the 54 coaches hired in the offseason prior to the 2010-11 season, only Altman (224 at Oregon), McDermott (200 at Creighton) and Tim Cluess (191 at Iona) have more than 180 victories at that school. Seton Hall coach Kevin Willard, also hired at the same time, owns a 165-123 record with the Pirates.

Here's a look at McDermott's record at the time of various milestones.

Creighton is 20-1 all-time in games where it moves over any 1,000 point milestone at CHI Health Center Omaha, as seen below:

Creighton has currently outscored the opposition 21,045 to 17,652 at the 16-year old facility in 270 all-time games in the building that count.

A Scurry Scholly, Again

For the second straight year, Creighton surprised walk-on Jordan Scurry with a scholarship in late January.

Last year, the Jays did it in a team meeting on the same day the die-hard New England Patriots fans saw his beloved team qualify for the Super Bowl.

This season, Scurry was surprised on January 21 on the bus ride following Creighton's 91-87 win at Georgetown, one day after the Patriots qualified once again for the Super Bowl.

Scurry played three minutes before half at Villanova on Feb. 6, the first time in his career he's appeared in the first half of any game.

200,00 Fans, Again

With 222,463 fans to date, Creighton has eclipsed 200,000 or more home fans for the 14th straight season.

Creighton has led its conference in home attendance each of the last 15 completed seasons, and is once again leading the way in the BIG EAST in 2018-19.

Creighton played in front of 306,000 home fans last season, a program record.

The Full Arsenal

Creighton has four men averaging double-figures in scoring, with one other a fraction of a point away from joining them.

Entering Sunday, Ty-Shon Alexander (16.4), Martin Krampelj (12.8), Mitch Ballock (10.0) and Marcus Zegarowski (10.9) are scoring at a double-figure clip, with Davion Mintz (9.8) not far behind.

In league play, Alexander (15.4), Krampelj (16.4), Mintz (10.9) and Zegarowski (11.7) are all well into double-figures, with Ballock at 9.8 points per game.

Creighton has not had five or more men finish a season averaging 10 or more points per game since the 1964-65 club had SIX men average in double-figures (Neil Johnson, 17.3; Elton McGriff, 15.0; Fritz Pointer, 14.3; Tim Powers, 12.6; Bob Miles, 11.9; Charlie Brown (11.6), though Johnson only played in 8-of-23 games.

The 40/40 Club

Creighton is a member of a relatively exclusive 40/40 club this season, having made at made at least 40 percent of its three-point attempts (.405), and having taken 40 percent or more of its field goal attempts (.462) from beyond the arc.

Here's a list of the nation's three other teams that join Creighton in that category.

Team	W-L	3FG%	%FGA's are 3's
Creighton	13-12	.405	.462
Virginia Tech	19-5	.416	.449
Wofford	21-4	.411	.428
South Dakota State	20-6	.408	.403

The Race To 75

Creighton has scored 75 or more points in each of its 13 victories this season, and in 18 straight wins. CU's last win when scoring 74 points or less was a 68-63 win over St. John's on Jan. 23, 2018.

Creighton has scored 80 or more points in each of its last three victories over Seton Hall.

Zegarowski Does It All

Marcus Zegarowski's first career start came on Jan. 13 against Villanova, and the true freshman produced 10 points to go with career-highs of seven rebounds and seven assists.

He's just the fifth player in the last five seasons with a game of 10-7-7 against Villanova, joining Khadeen Carrington, Justin Simon, Kamar Baldwin and Kris Dunn.

Zegarowski is the fifth Bluejay to have a game with at least 10-7-7 under Greg McDermott, and first freshman.

The "Three"-Placements

Coming into the season, many were left wondering how Creighton was going to replace three of its top four three-point shooters from a season ago (Marcus Foster, Khyri Thomas, Toby Hegner), among others, as the Bluejays were left trying to replace 229 of its 343 three-pointers from last year.

The answer has been quite well, thank you.

Creighton's newcomers this season have combined to shoot 67-for-153 (43.8 percent) from three-point range this season, as Connor Cashaw, Marcus Zegarowski and Damien Jefferson are all making 44.8 percent or better from long-range, and Samson Froling is 4-for-14 and Christian Bishop 0-for-3 in limited attempts.

Always Impressing

Since the reconfiguration of the BIG EAST in 2013, Creighton and Providence are the only teams to meet or exceed their poll prediction each season.

Providence was picked to finish third this season, with Creighton slotted ninth.

Under eight previous seasons under Greg McDermott, Creighton has exceeded its preseason poll placement on three occasions, matched its expectation four times, and in 2011-12 were picked first in the MVC but finished second.

Triple Trivia

During Creighton's current streak of 841 straight games with a three-pointer, the Jays have drained 6,539 trifectas, an average of 7.78 treys per game.

That's not surprising since during the streak, Creighton has made exactly 7 three-pointers 132 times, more than any figure.

Only four times in the streak has Creighton made just one three-pointer, but on 224 occasions the Bluejays have made 10 or more trifectas, including three games of 20 or more.

Creighton has made five or more three-pointers in 61 straight games (since shooting 4-20 from deep vs. Providence on 3/9/17), and has made at least one three-pointer before halftime in 212 consecutive contests (since 0-7 at Drake on 1/23/13).

All The Three's

Creighton drilled a program-record 22 three-point shots in its Dec. 20 home game vs. Coe, one year to the day after it made 19 treys vs. USC Upstate which now ranks as the fourth-most in a game in program history.

CU's record-breaking three-pointer came with 31.4 seconds left by Marcus Zegarowski. One night earlier, Zegarowski's brother Michael Carter-Williams hit a trey with 30.3 seconds left as the Houston Rockets set the NBA single-game record with 26 three-pointers made.

Here's a list of Creighton's all-time games with 16 or more treys.

Creighton ranks as one of the highest scoring teams in the nation this year despite not making many trips to the foul line thus far.

The Bluejays have made 276 three-pointers this season, compared to 278 free throws.

Creighton has never finished a season with more three-pointers made than free throws made.

When Three-Pointers Fall, Creighton Excels

Creighton is shooting 40.5 percent from three-point range this season, good for fifth-best nationally.

In Greg McDermott's first eight seasons at Creighton, all five of his teams to shoot 37 percent or better from deep would go on to make the NCAA Tournament, and his lone team to shoot below 35 percent from downtown missed the postseason.

Not Your Ordinary Freshman

Marcus Zegarowski had a season-high 20 points on Dec. 20 vs. Coe. His season average of 10.9 points per game ranks third among BIG EAST freshmen.

Zegarowski is attempting to become one of six Creighton freshmen in the past 25 seasons to average at least 10 points per game.

This is the fifth straight season that Creighton has had a freshman with a 20-point game.

Big Deficits, No Big Deal

Creighton owns 20 victories under Greg McDermott after trailing by double-figures at some point, none larger than the 18-point deficit the Bluejays overcame against then-No.18 Oklahoma on Nov. 19, 2014. Ten of those 20 comebacks have come away from home.

Creighton owns 11 victories since 2000 in which it has won after overcoming a deficit of 15 points or more, as seen below:

Challenging Schedule

Eight of Creighton's 13 non-conference opponents this season won 22 or more games last season, while a ninth foe (Oklahoma) reached the NCAA Tournament.

East Tennessee State (25-9 last year), Ohio State (25-9), Boise State (23-9), Georgia State (24-11), Clemson (25-10), Montana (26-8), Gonzaga (32-5) and Nebraska (22-11) all won 22 or more times a year ago, and combined for a 202-72 record (.737) in 2017-18.

On The Rebound

Damien Jefferson had to sit out last year after transferring in from New Mexico, but he made up for lost time on the glass in the season-opener.

Jefferson grabbed 12 rebounds in just 23 minutes of work, breaking his previous high by three.

Jefferson's 12 rebounds were the most by any Creighton player in their debut since Cyril Baptiste snared 17 boards in 1969.

In his second game at CU, Jefferson had 14 points and two blocked shots vs. East Tennessee State. The two blocks were a career-high, while the 14 points matched his previous best (at the time).

Playing With The Lead

In 270 games at CHI Health Center Omaha all-time, Creighton has not trailed in 75 of those contests, a staggering 27.8 percent of the time.

Under Greg McDermott at home, Creighton is 124-31 and hasn't trailed in 50 of those games.

CHI Health Center Omaha Success

Creighton has played 270 regular and postseason contests at CHI Health Center Omaha all-time in the 16-year-old facility.

The Bluejays own a 221-49 (.819) record all-time at the facility, and have never lost there on a Friday (16-0).

Creighton's Nov. 25, 2017 win over SIU Edwardsville was the program's 200th at the facility, coming in its 242nd home game. CU's 100th win came on Nov. 17, 2010, a 63-58 win over Louisiana.

Creighton has outscored its opponents 21,045-17,652 in games at CHI Health Center Omaha, an average margin of 12.57 points per game. Creighton has not trailed 75 different times.

Creighton is also 28-29 all-time in the 57 games at the arena in which it's fallen behind by double-figures at any point, 7-11 when down by 10+ points at halftime in the facility, and 34-25 when trailing at halftime at CHI Health Center Omaha.

Creighton is 124-31 (.800) at CHI Health Center Omaha under Greg McDermott, including a 72-6 record vs. non-conference teams.

Factor in a 17-0 home mark at the Omaha Civic Auditorium in 2002-03 and two wins at the Civic in the 2010 CIT, and the Bluejays are 238-49 (.829) at home since the start of the 2002-03 campaign.

Preseason BIG EAST Poll Picks CU Ninth

Creighton has been picked to finish ninth in a pre-season poll of BIG EAST coaches.

Villanova earned 8-of-9 possible first place votes and finished ahead of Marquette and Providence. St. John's and Butler rank fourth and fifth, while the bottom half consists of Xavier, Georgetown, Seton Hall, Creighton and DePaul.

Creighton is one of two schools (Providence) to match or exceed its preseason prognostication every year since the reconfiguration of the BIG EAST.

St. John's junior guard Shamorie Ponds was tabbed Preseason BIG EAST Player of the Year, and Providence's David Duke and Villanova's Jahvon Quinerly shared Preseason Freshman of the Year laurels.

Creighton's Martin Krampelj was a Preseason Honorable Mention All-BIG EAST pick.

#ProJays

For the first time ever, Creighton has five NBA players at the same time as Kyle Korver (Utah Jazz), Anthony Tolliver (Minnesota Timberwolves), Doug McDermott (Indiana Pacers), Justin Patton (Philadelphia 76ers) and Khyri Thomas (Detroit Pistons) are all in the league.

Including 2018-18, Creighton has now had an NBA player in 35 of the last 36 years.

Korver ranks second among all active players (Stephen Curry) and ranks fourth in NBA history with 2,310 three-pointers. He's also second among active players (Stephen Curry, again) and eighth all-time in league history with 43.06 percent marksmanship from three-point range. He set a single-season NBA mark that still stands with his 53.6 percent shooting from three-point range in 2009-10, and is the only player in league history to lead the NBA in three-point percentage four times. He is shooting 41.3 percent from downtown and averaging 8.6 points per game this season.

Tolliver is averaging 4.1 points and 2.2 rebounds per game on 37.3 percent shooting from deep this season for the Timberwolves.

McDermott is in his fifth season in the NBA, and first with the Indiana Pacers. He's averaging 6.7 points per game on 38.7 percent three-point shooting this year.

Patton was traded on Nov. 10 from Minnesota to Philadelphia, and currently in the G-League in Wilmington (Delaware). Patton redshirted in 2015-16 before turning pro and being the 16th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls. He spent most of last year in the G-League, but did score two points in his lone NBA appearance last April.

Creighton's newest NBA product is Khyri Thomas, who was the 38th pick in the 2018 NBA Draft by the Philadelphia 76ers before being traded minutes later to the Detroit Pistons. Thomas was a two-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year. He made his NBA debut on Nov. 9th and is averaging 2.9 points and 0.8 rebounds per game.

This year Creighton is averaging 17,113 fans per game at home, good for sixth place.

Last year was the 13th straight season that CU has been among the nation's top 25 in average home attendance, and the seventh straight season in the top-10 nationally in attendance, as well.

Going For 20

Creighton has won 20 or more games in 18 of the last 20 seasons (entering 2018-19), a feat that puts the Jays among an exclusive group, nationally.

Just three schools nationally have had 20 or more wins each of the last 20 years: Duke, Gonzaga and Kansas. Kentucky and Florida have done it in 19 of the last 20 seasons.

Creighton, Xavier, Syracuse and Arizona each are in the 18-of-20 seasons club.

Eight Out Of 20 Tourney Titles

Creighton owns eight league tournament titles in the last 20 years. On a national basis, the only schools that can claim this are Gonzaga (16), Duke (11), Winthrop (10), Kentucky (10), Kansas (9), New Mexico State (9) and Creighton (8).

Home Run

Since Greg McDermott took over in 2010, Creighton is averaging 80.97 points per home game (12,551 points in 155 home games), a figure that climbs to 85.38 points in non-conference home games (6,660 points in 78 home games).

Creighton is 101-5 all-time at CHI Health Center Omaha when scoring 80 or points and had won 90 straight non-conference home games since Dec. 7, 1991 when scoring 80+ points before falling 103-92 to No. 1 Gonzaga on Dec. 1.

Release, Rotation, Splash, Repeat

Creighton has made at least one three-pointer in 841 straight games since a 59-53 loss at Illinois State on Feb. 20, 1993. The streak is the nation's 17th-longest active streak.

Creighton's last win without making a three-point basket came on March 3, 1991 when the Jays went 0-for-2 from three-point range in a 71-66 win over Southern Illinois in the championship game of the MVC Tournament.

Clear Bag Policy Now In Place

CHI Health Center Omaha has adopted new clear bag regulations for all arena events, including Creighton University men's home basketball games. Bags permitted under the policy include clear plastic, vinyl or PVC totes.

Additionally, small clutch-sized bags will also be allowed inside the arena after a proper security inspection. However, oversized bags or purses will no longer be allowed inside the premises.

After observing the success and ease of transition with arenas and venues across the state, MECA and Creighton University believe the updated policy to be the best safety practice for the thousands of fans who loyally attend each basketball game, and countless concert-goers who walk through the doors at CHI Health Center Omaha.

Here are the main bullet-points of the new bag policy.

- Clear plastic bags, measuring 12 inches tall, 12 inches long, and 6 inches wide.
- Small or clutch-sized purses or wallets, not exceeding 4.5 inches tall by 6.5 inches long.
- One-gallon, clear plastic freezer bags are permitted (Ziploc bag or similar).
- No large purses, bags, backpacks or fanny-packs will be allowed inside.
- MECA staff members are not allowed to hold bags during an event.
- Exceptions will be made for bags with medical necessity after appropriate inspection.

Game-by-Game Plus/Minus Chart

The plus/minus figure is a comparison of the Bluejays' points scored (plus) vs. their points allowed (minus) while a specific player is on the floor. For example, if Kaleb Joseph enters the game in the first half with Creighton trailing by three and he departs two minutes later with the Jays ahead by four, he earns a +7 for that stint. These results are tabulated for every player at the conclusion of each game, and also expressed cumulatively. Underlined totals indicate that player led team that night.
