LAST MEETING

UMHB's defense opened with a forced fumble but the Tigers recovered to keep possession. A short rush and an incomplete pass gave UMHB the ball back at their 47-yard line. Isaac Phe found Jerry Cephus for 39 yards on the first play to put the Cru in the red zone. Another short completion and a trio of rushes from Kamerin Ferguson, including a one-yard touchdown punch, put the Cru ahead 7-0. The Tigers responded with a 78-yard touchdown pass on the next play to even the game at seven. Both teams traded punts until the Tigers put together a seven-play, 78-yard scoring drive capped by a 50-yard touchdown pass from Kaden Brown to Zay Thomas. ETBU's lead was short lived with UMHB scoring at 11:52 in the second quarter off an 11-yard rush from Asa Osbourn.

Durand Hill forced a fumble on the Tigers' next offensive play and UMHB took over at the Tiger 34-yard line after a recovery by Joey Johnson. That drive came up empty but Hill forced another fumble on the next Tiger possession, giving UMHB the ball back in the red zone off a recovery from Robert Williams. Kamerin Ferguson used just three touches to find the end zone after that, putting the Cru ahead 21-14. ETBU came up empty on their next drive and the Cru took over with 4:23 on the clock and the ball on their 26. Isaac Phe threw back-to-back completions to TJ Rone to give the Cru a first down before a pair of rushes put UMHB near midfield. Phe found Cephus for 20 yards up the middle, followed by a 14-yard rush from Daunte Blake and a 19-yard grab from Christopher Gacayan to put the Cru up by two scores after the first two quarters.

ETBU blanked the Cru in the third and cut the gap with a touchdown at 2:21 on the clock. The Tigers opened the fourth quarter with another score to take a one-point lead but the Cru pressed, responding with a 15-play, 86-yard scoring drive to get back on top. Daunte Blake was the workhorse late in the drive, rushing five times for 28 yards to put the Cru at the ETBU 25. Isaac Phe threw a pair of short completions to Tyler Woods to get in the red zone then capped the drive with a diving catch from A.J. Williams in the end zone for the lead. Phe also completed the two-point conversion with a rush up the middle for a 35-28 Crusader margin. Defense sealed the UMHB win on the Tigers' next drive when Daniel Keith forced and recovered an ETBU fumble. Daunte Blake scored on the next play, running in from 12 yards out for the two-score margin.

UMHB CRUSADERS

COACH LARRY HARMON

Larry Harmon was promoted to Head Football Coach in January 2022 after spending the previous 20 seasons as the Cru's defensive coordinator. Harmon guided the Cru to a 12-2 record in his first season at the helm as the Crusaders finished in the NCAA Division III Semifinals for the fifth time in program history.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the UMHB defense ranked among the nation's best in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and pass efficiency defense. Under his direction, the Cru defense produced 18 ASC Defensive Players of the Year and four national defensive players of the year. UMHB also led the nation in rushing defense in 2006. In addition to his defensive coordinator duties, Coach Harmon also worked with UMHB's kick return and kick coverage teams. He opened his career at UMHB in 1999, spending three years as UMHB's secondary coach.

Coach Harmon spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Northwest Missouri State prior to joining UMHB. He helped guide the Bearcats to the NCAA Division II national championship in 1998. Coach Harmon also spent one season as an assistant coach at South Dakota State before moving to Northwest Missouri.

Coach Harmon is a 1995 graduate of South Dakota State University. He was a four-year letterman as a strong safety for the Jackrabbits football team. Larry and his wife, Sandi, have two children, Brett and Christopher.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

QB Jake Wright | Wright didn't play the last time these two teams met, so look for him to shake up the offense in his second game as the starter.

S Joey Johnson | Johnson had a big game last time out against HPU with an interception and a pass breakup. Watch for him to be a difference maker as the Tigers are a throw-heavy offense.

WR TJ Rone | Rone has been the Cru's main returner the last two weeks and given UMHB several short-field situations. Look for him to make strides on special teams with big returns.

LAST TIME OUT

UMHB got on the board early after a high snap on a Howard Payne punt went through the back of the end zone for a safety. The Cru defense forced a three-and-out on the next HPU series and drove 43 yards on four plays to score off a 13-yard touchdown pass from Jake Wright to Jerry Cephus. The Cru forced another three-and-out and marched back down the field, going 57 yards for another score. Kamerin Ferguson put the Cru in the red zone off a 27-yard rush then used three more carries to find the end zone for a 16-point margin.

UMHB's defense recorded another safety after a six-yard sack from Justin Hines-Moore pinned the Yellow Jackets deep and another bad snap on punt sailed through the end zone. Defense held the Cru on the next possession before HPU got into UMHB territory off a 39-yard completion to Gus Charles. The Yellow Jackets drove down to the Cru 25 but turned the ball back over on downs. Wright led the Cru back down the field, constructing a nine-play drive that went 75 yards and scored off a three-yard pass to T.J. Rone. Neither team scored again in the quarter, giving UMHB a 25-0 lead after the first two frames.

UMHB opened the second half with a 42-yard field goal from Edwin Lopez with 9:24 left in the quarter. Defense forced another punt with 8:29 to play and followed that with another 50-play scoring drive, ending with a 22-yard field goal from Lopez. Howard Payne ran just one play on the next drive before Joey Johnson intercepted a pass from Zy Gravitt, running it back 30 yards for a score. The Cru added one more score in the fourth quarter off a 29-yard field goal from Lopez to secure the 41-0 victory. UMHB totaled 484 yards of offense in the contest, putting up 216 yards on the ground and 268 in the air.

A LOOK FORWARD

UMHB faces off against ASC rival Hardin-Simmons next week in the second of two matchups against the Cowboys. UMHB is 22-8 all-time against HSU but dropped a 21-44 game to the Cowboys earlier this season. UMHB needs to win by a minimum of 21 points to stay in contention for the league's automatic qualification.

EAST TEXAS BAPTIST

COACH CALVIN RUZICKA

Calvin Ruzicka was named head coach for the Tigers after serving as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at ETBU since 2018. Prior to coming to University Hill, Ruzicka spent 17 years at Cedar Hill High School, where he won Texas state championships in 2006, 2013, and 2014 and was state runner-up in 2012.

In his time at Cedar Hill, Ruzicka was the special teams coordinator, secondary coach, and freshman head coach. In 2013, he was awarded the National Football Foundation 6A Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In two seasons as Athletic Director and Head Football Coach at Texas Christian Academy in Arlington, Texas, Ruzicka led the Stars to a Texas Christian Athletic League (TCAL) Championship in 2000 and a 1999 TCAL Northwest District Championship while compiling an 18-4 overall record.

During the 2022 season, the Ruzicka-led Tiger defense ranked third in the American Southwest Conference (ASC) in total defense and finished the regular season ranked first in the nation for team tackles for a loss with 9.2 per game and 13th in the country for sacks per game with 3.4. In Fall 2021, Ruzicka had six players earn All-ASC awards, and freshman Joey Johnson finished second in the ASC in tackling with 73 tackles, averaging 7.3 tackles per game. The 2021 spring season brought tremendous success for the ETBU defense as seven players earned All-ASC awards. KJ Kelley was an All-ASC first-team member and made the D3football.com All-American first-team, while Justice Henson was named to the D3football.com All-Region team. The defense finished third in the ASC, allowing just 21.2 points per game and led the conference with 10 interceptions for four touchdowns.

A 1988 graduate of Texas State University, Calvin earned a Bachelor of Business Management. He and his wife Julie have two children, Darron and Mason, and three grandchildren, Caden, Brady, and Landon.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

RB Paul Woodard | Woodard rushed for 132 yards last week against Hardin-Simmons, averaging 8.8 yards per carry. Look for him to be an asset for the Tigers amidst a bad weather game.

DL Jahkamian Carr | Carr is the leader of the ETBU defense and a static threat to the Cru. Look for him to bring pressure against a young Cru quarterback.

QB Kaden Brown | Brown is a dual-threat on the Tigers' offense. Look for him to make big plays and be a threat both on the ground and in the air as the Tigers figure out an inclement-weather plan.

LAST TIME OUT

HSU started with a 14-0 lead, scoring at 8:32 on a 67-yard pass and then a 28-yard run at 3:02 in the first quarter. The Cowboys looked to run away with the game making it 21-0 at 7:45 in the second quarter on a five-yard run. ETBU answered with a nine-play, 75-yard drive that took over five minutes, ending with a Drinkard 18-yard run cutting the lead to 14 at half, 21-7. The third quarter brought 10 more points for HSU as they jumped out to a 31-7 lead. Once again, ETBU responded with a three-play drive for a score. Woodard had a 50-yard run to the HSU 12-yard line in that drive. The next play brought an ESPN Top 10-worthy catch by Llanas-Wilcox at the back of the endzone to make it 31-14.

HSU scored within the fourth quarter's first minute, pushing the lead to 38-14. Five plays and 65 yards later, Jordan Woodard rushed in from 12 yards out for a 38-20 score. Drinkard then ran in a two-point conversion with 11:20 to go for the 38-22 score. After that, HSU ran almost six minutes off the clock but fumbled into the endzone at 5:52 for a touchback given to ETBU. ETBU then moved the ball to the HSU 12-yard line but ran the clock out, trying to score as the game ended.

A LOOK FORWARD

ETBU returns to action next week at Howard Payne University. The Tigers earned a 42-33 win over Howard Payne in their first meeting on October 12th.

FAMILIAR FACES

Both ETBU and UMHB switched some faces around this offseason with guys in new uniforms. Elijah Mankins (C), Gabriel Adewusi (FS) and Jordan Woodard (RB) all traded in their purple for navy and have joined the Tigers' roster this season. Mankins, a sophomore from Midlothian Heritage, transferred to be with former Heritage Head Coach Ryan Smith. Adewusi traded in his uniform and position, lining up at free safety for ETBU after a season at tight end for the Cru. Jordan Woodard is also a Tiger this season after two seasons on the Cru's active roster.

Joey Johnson (S), Robert Williams (CB), Daevien Willis (CB) and James Wright (DL) are all ETBU transfers on the UMHB roster this season. Johnson was a two-time all-conference selection in his time with the Tigers, ranking second in the ASC with 73 tackles as a freshman. Williams played three seasons with ETBU, totaling more than 50 tackles with four interceptions and 15 pass breakups. Willis played his junior year in Marshall, tallying 34 tackles with one forced fumble and three interceptions. Wright was also a two-time all-conference selection during his tenure as a Tiger, totaling 54 tackles with 7.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks. Those four join UMHB defensive line coach Jordan Collins, who came to UMHB after five seasons in Marshall.

FOR COACH

Elijah Mankins was not the only Midlothian Heritage alum to transfer to ETBU after the hiring of Coach Smith. Smith's stepson, Kaden Brown, transferred from South Dakota State to play for his stepdad at ETBU. Brown ranks in the top 40 in all major passing categories in his first season at the Division III level after a redshirt season in the FCS. Mason O'Neal and Brandon Thomas both came to ETBU this season after opening their collegiate careers at Texas Wesleyan while Dillon Miller followed Smith for his collegiate debut. Before Midlothian Heritage, Smith spent four seasons as head coach at Nelson University in Waxahachie (formerly Southwestern Assemblies of God University.) Two of his athletes from those rosters, Jordan Malone and Tyson Nonette, also joined the ETBU squad this season after playing for Smith at Nelson.

Brooks Brock (ETBU) also transferred in to play under his father at ETBU, defensive coordinator Scott Brock.

SHAKING THINGS UP

Both teams are debuting new coordinators this season with UMHB making moves at defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator while the Tigers changed at the offensive and defensive spots. Ryan Smith, as mentioned earlier, is the Tigers' offensive coordinator this season after time at the high school level and a four-year stint in NAIA. Scott Brock was named defensive coordinator for the Tigers, coming to ETBU from Carson Newman University (DII). Mark Carey was promoted to defensive coordinator for UMHB after the departure of Jack Johnson. Nick Brace replaced Carey as the Special Teams coordinator this season, with UMHB's offensive coordinator Andy Padron as the only returner at that level in this contest.

CONNECTIONS

ETBU's Kaden Brown originally committed to South Dakota State out of high school, which is the alma mater of UMHB Head Coach Larry Harmon. The two teams also share high school teammates lining up against each other, including Layden Roque (UMHB) and Navian Brown (ETBU) from Dickinson HS and Tommy Schobel (UMHB) and Ezra Hill (ETBU) from Columbus.

HARMON'S THOUGHTS

On the bye week...

"We felt like we gave our kids things mentally that stimulated them and kept them really engaged in practice. We kept the routine the same. It's not like we took something out or shortened practice or anything like that. We kept our normal routine... So I think we're in a good place... any change to your routine is a pain and it's always on a coach's mind, just the distractions. All the negative things that can happen. So we tried to keep it as normal as we could."

On the round robin...

"You have to keep the patience to keep coaching and keep pushing kids and giving them the reps that they require in order to get something done is very important. There's a lot of self scout. Whenever you're playing a double round-robin, self scout is almost as important as scouting the other team. Because you don't want to be laying out some really strong tendencies that give the other the advantage on you."

On the importance of turnovers...

"You just have to take every opportunity you can. You have to keep your eyes right and you have to keep punching at the ball. Their quarterback is very, very talented and he's good at looking you off so you don't get quite the same break on the ball against him that you do on some other guys in our conference. It's going to be a challenge. The challenges for our defensive line are to be able to get pressure on [the quarterback] to force some bad throws and nobody's done it yet. But we're all trying to get somebody in his face to where we have a better chance of getting an interception."
