Rod Barnes became the eighth head men's basketball coach at CSU Bakersfield on Mar. 30, 2011, and is in his twelfth season at the helm of the Roadrunners in 2022-23. In his tenure at CSUB, Barnes has led the 'Runners to postseason play four times including three times over a four-year span

Barnes' vision for the program came to fruition in 2015-16 as he led CSUB to its best NCAA Division I record at 24-9 (11-3 WAC) while also guiding the 'Runners to a WAC Tournament championship and their first NCAA Tournament appearance.

During the 2016-17 season, Barnes built on the success of the 2016 NCAA Tournament bid, leading his team to a WAC regular-season championship, another first for the program. After falling in the WAC Tournament final, the 'Runners made the best of their National Invitational Tournament (NIT) run, becoming the first eight-seed to advance to Madison Square Garden for the NIT semifinals.

The 2018-19 season saw Barnes' program return to the postseason for the third time in a four-year span. The 'Runners accepted an invitation to the Collegenisder.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and again proved to be a force on the road. CSUB won back-to-back games away from home before falling in the CIT quarterfinals.

CSUB transitioned from the Western Athletic Conference to the Big West Conference in summer of 2020. During the program's stint in the WAC - seven seasons, all under Barnes - the 'Runners earned two conference titles, an NABC All-Region honoree, 22 All-WAC nods, and seven academic All-WAC honorees.

The Big West promised increased parity across a deep league and Barnes' squad outperformed its predicted 2020-21 finish in the new conference. The 'Runners posted a 15-10 record in the COVID-abbreviated season while battling to earn the fifth seed at the Big West Championship, just two games behind second-seeded UC Irvine. CSUB's first Big West season also featured a First Team All-Conference honoree in guard Taze Moore.

During the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Barnes posted a 49-19 record and was named 'Don Haskins Coach of the Year' in the Western Athletic Conference each year. He was also named 'Hugh Durham Mid Major Coach of the Year' in 2017.

Barnes came to Bakersfield off a stint at Georgia State (2007-11) where he added 44 wins to his coaching resume and helped rebuild a basketball program amidst academic, administrative, and conference turmoil.

Prior to Georgia State, Barnes led his alma mater Ole Miss to the Sweet 16 in the 2001 NCAA Tournament. The same year, he was named SEC Coach of the Year and Naismith national coach of the year. Barnes posted a win percentage of .564 (141-109) in eight years in the SEC while producing three 20-win seasons.

Barnes had a stellar career as a player at Ole Miss, averaging 19.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 4.0 assists as a senior. He became in the first player in the history of the program to collect 500 points, 100 rebounds, and 100 assists in a single season. Barnes is the only person in the storied history of the Southeastern Conference to be named both All-SEC as a player and SEC Coach of the Year. He was inducted as a member of the Ole Miss Hall of Fame in 2012.

He is a 1988 graduate of Mississippi with a degree in business management. Barnes is married to his wife Bridgett and has three sons, Brandon, Bray, and stepson Corey. Bray (2016-19) and Brandon (2013-14) both competed for Barnes at CSUB during their collegiate careers. The Barnes family now features three CSUB alumni: Bridgett, Brandon, and Bray.

FEATURE PLAYERS

IVAN REYNOLDS

A second-year guard out of Pompano Beach, Fla., Ivan Reynolds quickly proved himself to be a vital part of the Roadrunner squad. While Reynolds' stats may not jump off the box score - he averages 4.6 points and 2.4 rebounds a contest- his contribution goes far beyond the basic metrics. Reynolds is one of the top defenders in the Big West, regularly tasked with guarding the opposing team's biggest scoring threat in the backcourt. Just last week, Reynolds helped Bakersfield hold UC Riverside's Zyron Pullin, who averaged 20.3 points per game, to just eight points on 2-of-4 shooting.

25

Junior guard Kaleb Higgins scored a career-high 25 points in Bakersfield's road game at UC Riverside on Dec. 29. The point total is the highest by any Runner this season.

8-0

Cal State Bakersfield owns an 8-0 record against Cal Poly in its Division I era (since 2007-08). All eight of those games were played with Rod Barnes at helm of the Roadrunners.

5,719

5,719 is the number of miles between California and Lithuania, the home country of two new Roadrunners: Modestas Kancleris and Ugnius Jarusevicius. The pair join Italian Runner Dalph Panopio as a trio of ballers from Europe.

HOME COURT THE ICARDO CENTER

HISTORY OF THE ICARDO CENTER

California State University, Bakersfield saw the completion of the Jimmie and Marjorie Icardo Center in 1989. Originally named the CSUB Activities Center, the building was dedicated in honor of the longtime Roadrunner boosters who donated more than $2.5 million to support Roadrunner Athletics.

The 44,000 square-foot facility originally seated 3,800 fans. Originally funded by the State of California in the 1987-88 fiscal budget, separate improvements financed by the CSU Bakersfield Foundation included 700 improved chair-back seats and air conditioning. A 2,000 square-foot, $100,000 reception room was financed by the Icardo Family.

The Roadrunners moved into city-owned Centennial Garden (now Mechanics Bank Arena) for the 1998-99 season and played exclusively at the downtown facility for the next decade, including their first seasons as an NCAA Division I program. Starting in the 2011-12 season, CSUB played selected games at both the Icardo Center and the arena before moving back on campus exclusively starting in the 2014-15 season.

Due to the move back onto campus, the Icardo Center received a notable facelift in the fall of 2011 with the installation of the nation's first blue floor. The playing surface is the first of its kind in volleyball and created quite a buzz when installed with ESPN, CBS, and NBC and other college sports networks writing stories about this new potentially-trend-setting playing surface.

As part of the continued renovations, additional amenities include a concession area in the lobby, a state-of-the-art south system, dual scoreboards at either end of the playing surface, and a high-definition video board.

In Summer of 2014, the facility underwent construction again, which included a new ceiling and walls color scheme matched to compliment the newly redesigned floor. New blue seats were added in the Summer of 2015 featuring contoured bench seating on the north end of the facility. Similar seating was added to the south end along with additional chair-back seating on both sides in the Summer of 2016, changing the venue capacity to 3,497.

Renovations have continued on the Icardo Center as it is becoming a top-tier athletic facility. The Summer of 2018 saw the men's and women's locker rooms get a complete overhaul to further improve the student-athlete experience.

The old main court was also ripped out and replaced by the same state-of-the-art playing surface used as the primary home court of the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves and in the practice facilities of the Orlando Magic and Cleveland Cavaliers. The new, still-blue court was made possible by the generosity of Kern Schools Federal Credit Union and is now known as the "Kern Schools Court". This past summer, lighted Roadrunner and "Icardo Center" signs were added to the outside of the building.

The CSU Bakersfield men's basketball team boasts an impressive all-time record of 259-58 (.817) in the Icardo Center. CSUB is 64-31 (.674) at home since Jan. 1, 2015 and the Runners are 2-3 at home this season.

94-41

259

Dr. Lynnette Zelezny was appointed to serve as the fifth president of CSU Bakersfield, effective July 1, 2018. She is the first woman to serve in that role. President Zelezny is a strong supporter of Roadrunner Athletics, believing that academics and athletics must rise together at CSUB. She is proud of the program's competitive success - seven conference championships since 2014 - as well as its academic success reflected by eleven consecutive terms of an overall Grade Point Average of 3.0 and increases in Graduation Success Rates and Academic Progress Rates.

LYNNETTE ZELEZNY

Dr. Thomas D. Wallace, Vice President for Student Affairs at California State University, Bakersfield, began his appointment February 15, 2012. He has held administrative and faculty positions at the University of Mississippi and the University of Nebraska, Omaha. Student enrollment has increased almost every year Wallace has served as the chief student affairs officer. He has initiated a number of programs and activities to foster harmony, respect and acceptance among students and campus communities. He has garnered the respect and support of faculty, staff, students and alumni on every campus he has worked. Under his leadership, campuses have been transformed to student-centered environments.

THOMAS D. WALLACE

Kyle Conder became just the fourth-ever Director of Athletics at California State University, Bakersfield on October 1st, 2022. Conder came to Bakersfield with over 20 years of experience in Division I intercollegiate athletics, most recently serving as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Southern Methodist University. In his current role at CSU Bakersfield, Conder oversees an NCAA Division I intercollegiate sports program comprised of 16 varsity sports programs, 300+ student-athletes, 90 employees, and an $18 million operational budget.

KYLE CONDER

ROWDY THE ROADRUNNER

'Rowdy' The Roadrunner is the official mascot of the CSUB Roadrunners and as the men's basketball program experienced their best season to date in 2016, Rowdy received just as much fanfare.

In March of 2016, prior to the NCAA Tournament, USA Today Sports along with 'For The Win' blog ranked all 68 mascots participating in the NCAA Tournament with Rowdy the Roadrunner receiving the number-one spot for his court presence, antics, look and dance moves throughout the season.

With that in mind Rowdy received plenty of national television exposure during CSUB's first-round game against Oklahoma which was televised on Tru TV.

Rowdy is a regular fixture at CSUB contests including soccer, basketball, volleyball and baseball. He also makes regular appearances in the community for various charitable events and outings. He also celebrates his birthday every year with a party at a CSUB event that includes all his mascot friends from around Kern County. It is thought to be the only gathering of the sort in the area and one of the most entertaining scenes when all those characters get together in once place.

Rowdy enjoys watching his Roadrunners play, giving high-fives and taking photos with fans. He also enjoys general shenanigans and the occasional dance party on court.
