Cheryl Miller
Head Coach

One of the most iconic figures in women's basketball, Cheryl Miller is the new women's basketball head coach at Cal State LA. Miller joins the Golden Eagles after spending two successful years as the head coach of Langston University.

Miller is widely considered one of the best players of all-time and is enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. She led USC to a pair of national titles and guided the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team to a gold medal.

She has also excelled as a head coach, leading winning programs at USC, the Phoenix Mercury of the WNBA and Langston and she also had a successful career as a television reporter and analyst, working with TNT for 17 years before returning to coaching.

Miller comes to Cal State LA from Langston University, an NAIA program in Langston, Oklahoma. She led the Lions to a 48-12 record over two seasons and to a pair of appearances in the NAIA National Tournament.

In her first year at Langston, Miller guided the Lions to a 28-4 overall record and to the program's first Red River Conference Tournament title since 2011. Langston advanced to the second round of the NAIA National Tournament.

Last season, Miller led Langston to a 20-8 overall record that included a 14-4 mark in conference play. Langston once again appeared in the NAIA National Tournament, where the Lions fell in a first-round game.

Miller was previously the head coach at USC for two seasons from 1993-95 and led the Trojans to a 42-14 record and to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. The Trojans reached one regional final.

She also was the head coach and general manager of the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for four seasons and led the Mercury to the WNBA Finals in 1998.

She then embarked on a distinguished broadcasting career, most notably spending 17 years as a sideline reporter for TNT's coverage of NBA games.

As a player, Miller was one of the best of all-time. She was enshrined in the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass in 1995, into the inaugural class of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1999 and into the International Basketball Federation (FIBA) Hall of Fame in 2010.

Miller gained early fame while starring at Riverside Poly High School, where she once scored 105 points in a game and led her program to a four-year record of 132-4 that included an 84-game winning streak and four straight CIF championships.
She became the first high school player, male or female, to be named a Parade All-American four straight years. She was named the national high-school scholar-athlete of the year in 1981 and broke state records for points scored in a single season (1,156) and in a career (3,405 points).

She continued that success at USC, where she led the Trojans to a 112-20 overall record over four seasons and back-to-back championships in 1983 and 1984 when she was named the NCAA Tournament MVP both times. She was selected as the Naismith Player of the Year three times and earned the Wade Trophy once. She was also a four-time Kodak All-American and finished her career owning virtually every school record, including career scoring (3,018 points), scoring average (22.3 points per game), career rebounds (1,534), total field goals (1,159) and total free throws made (700).

She was the ESPN Female Athlete of the Year in 1984-85 and was named the Player of the Decade (1980s) by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. When the Pac-12 Conference unveiled its All-Century Team in March of 2016, Miller was named the Pac-12 Player of the Century.

Miller was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in 1995 and USC retired her No. 31 jersey in November of 2006.

Miller's international playing career was highlighted by gold medal performances in the 1984 Olympics, the 1983 Pan American Games and the 1986 Goodwill Games where she led each team in scoring.

Casandra Renno
Assistant Coach

A talented assistant coach who has been a big part of Cal State LA women's basketball program over the past two years, Casandra Renno returns for her third season with the Golden Eagles. Renno has been charged with spearheading the team's recruiting efforts, overseeing team academics, facilitating community service, developing a life skills program, managing all camps and clinics, mentoring the point guards as well as scheduling, travel, and equipment.

Renno helped the Golden Eagles to a 10-17 overall record, an 8-12 mark in California Collegiate Athletic Association play and a return to the CCAA Championship Tournament. The Golden Eagles won six of their last nine games, including a 98-92 overtime win over Cal State Dominguez Hills. The 98 points were the most for a Cal State LA squad since 1998.

Renno helped the Golden Eagles post an 11-15 overall record and a 10-12 conference mark in 2014-15 despite having a short-handed roster of just 11 players that included only two seniors.

Renno came to Cal State LA from the University of La Verne, where she spent the 2013-14 season as an assistant coach.

Prior to her stint at La Verne, Renno formed the OC Elite Southwest AAU Girls Basketball Club in the fall of 2012 in Niceville, FL, serving as a youth and high school club coach. In the first year, her Under-14 team won the Gulf Coast Showdown and Tallahassee Comets Summer Xplosion Tournament. In 2012, Renno also served the Niceville High School program as assistant varsity and head junior varsity coach.

From 2010-12, Renno was an assistant varsity and head freshman coach at Robert M. Shoemaker High School in Killeen, Texas. Renno was a graduate assistant coach at Missouri Valley College from 2008-10, coaching the junior varsity team in 2009-10 and earning a masters degree in Educational Administration. She began her coaching career as an assistant for La Sierra University in the 2005-06 season and was the girls' junior varsity head coach and assistant varsity coach at Hanau High School in Germany in 2006-07.

A four-year standout point guard at UC Riverside, Renno, graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Studies with a major in English and minor in Education. She left the Highlander program as its all-time leader in assists and 3-pointers, earning first-team All-Big West Conference honors in 2003 and 2004, All-Freshman first-team honors in 2002 and Big West honorable mention honors in 2005.

Renno attended Apple Valley High School, where she was a three-time All-Mojave River League Most Valuable Player. She also earned All-CIF Division I second-team honors as a junior and All-CIF first-team honors as a senior.

Renno has been married to her husband, Marc Renno, a U.S. Army E.O.D. Tech, for 11 years.

Ronnie Barney
Assistant Coach

A talented coach with impressive credentials, Ronnie Barney joins the Cal State LA women's basketball program as an assistant coach. Barney comes to Cal State LA from Langston University, where he spent two successful seasons with the NAIA program.

In his two years with the program, Barney helped Langston to a 48-12 overall record and back-to-back NAIA Division I National Tournament appearances. The Lions also won the Red River Athletic Conference tournament title during the 2014-15 season. Langston had a 28-4 overall record that season.

Before coaching at Langston, Barney was the Director of Basketball Operations at Louisiana Tech University. His responsibilities included administrative duties in the basketball office, practice scheduling, and supervising team managers. He also managed the team's social media and team travel. Barney was part of a program that reached the Conference USA quarterfinals.

Barney brings an impressive coaching background and strong player development skills to Cal State LA. He has experience not only at the collegiate level, but also at high school and in the AAU circuit. Barney was an integral part of the Sophia Young Elite AAU program sponsored by WNBA All-Star Sophia Young. Barney spent the majority of two years as an assistant coach before taking over as the director and head coach during the 2012 and 2013 summer seasons.

Barney earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Schreiner University in Kerrville, Texas, in 2008. He was a four-year letter winner for the men's basketball program.

Cal State L.A. boasts a rich athletic history with seven national team championships, 10 national team runner-up finishes and 75 conference championships. This tradition of excellence continued in 2015-16 as evidenced by the following:

- Nearly 40% of our student-athletes earned year-long GPAs of 3.0 or higher.
- Golden Eagle student-athletes earned 5 All-America awards, 1 Academic All-America awards, 26 All-Region awards and 43 All-CCAA awards.
- Khallifah Rosser won an NCAA Division II national championship in the 400 hurdles, the first national title earned for the Golden Eagles since 2012.
- Iona Lofrano (volleyball), JamieAnn Bero (volleyball), Khallifah Rosser (men's track and field) and Megan Thompson (women's track and field) earned All-America awards.
- Iona Lofrano (volleyball) earned Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, becoming the second volleyball player at Cal State LA to earn that honor. Lofrano, Herbert Biste (men's soccer) and Lucas Rio Torto (men's soccer) earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors.
- Khallifah Rosser (men's track and field) was named the West Region and CCAA Track Athlete of the Year.
- Megan Thompson was named the CCAA Track Athlete of the Meet at the CCAA Championships.
- J'Liyah Miles was named the CCAA Freshman Track Athlete of the Meet at the CCAA Championships.
- The Golden Eagles claimed 6 individual CCAA championships: Khallifah Rosser won a conference title in the 400-meter hurdles and joined Fabian Griffith, Matthew Sherrills and Johnathan Hill to win the 4x100 relay. Megan Thompson won conference championships in the 100 and 200, Gonzalo Ceja won the conference title in the men's steeplechase and J'Liyah Miles won the conference title in the women's long jump.
- Cal State LA's men's soccer team reached the NCAA playoffs for the fifth straight year and for the eighth time in the past 10 years.
- Cal State LA's men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball teams reached CCAA Championship tournaments in their respective sports.
- Cal State LA's women's tennis team finished the season ranked 23rd in the nation, its fifth straight top-25 ranking, and finished fourth in the PacWest Conference in its second year as an affiliate member.
- Cal State LA's women's volleyball team recorded its 19th consecutive winning season and had its most wins since 2009.
- Cal State LA's men's basketball team became only the second No. 8 seed to upset a No. 1 seed in the CCAA Championship Tournament. It was the second conference tournament win in the program's history.
- Cal State LA's women's basketball team reached the conference tournament for the fourth time in the past five years and scored its points in a game since 1998 with a 98-92 win over Cal State Dominguez Hills during the regular season.
