WE ARE CSUN

We are now "CSUN" and request that CSUN be used to refer to the school and its Division I athletic programs. Please do not refer to the school as "Cal State Northridge," "CS Northridge," "CSU Northridge," "CS North" or "Northridge." Both the men's and women's programs are the "Matadors" and there is no need to add "Lady" before any women's athletic program.

Offensively, Julia Crawford leads Fullerton averaging 3.81 kills per set which ranks fourth in the Big West. As a team, the Titans are hitting .175 as a team which ranks seventh in the conference.

Series: Friday's match is the second this season and 51st all-time between the Matadors and Cal State Fullerton with CSUN holding a commanding 39-11 lead in the series. The Matadors won in straight sets inside The Matadome on Oct. 19, their 17th consecutive victory over the Titans.

UC Irvine (4-18, 1-9 Big West) has dropped six straight matches since upsetting Hawai'i in Honolulu on Oct. 4. The Anteaters fell in five sets at UC Riverside on Tuesday after dropping a four-set decision at Cal State Fullerton on Saturday. Offensively, Abby Marjama leads UCI averaging 2.80 kills per set. Onye Ofoegbu is hitting a team-high .274 while the 'Eaters are hitting .160 as a team.

MAKEKAU-WHITTAKER PASSES 1,000 ASSISTS

With 52 assists in home wins over UC Irvine and Cal State Fullerton (Oct. 18-19), senior setter Kamalu Makekau-Whittaker passed the 1,000 career assists plateau for her CSUN career. Now with 1,089 career assists, Makekau-Whittaker became the 17th setter in CSUN history to reach the career milestone and first since Lauren Conati in 2016. The senior from Hilo, Hawai'i also moved up to seventh in CSUN's Rally Scoring era (2001-present), passing Steffi Miller who had 992 from 2012-14. Makekau-Whittaker needs 86 more assists this season to reach the all-time CSUN top-10. Currently, Sydney Gedryn and Laura Woiemberghe share 10th-place on the career list with 1,175 assists.

BIG WEST STANDINGS

Heading into the homestretch of the 2019 Big West season, the Matadors have moved into a tie for fourth place with UC Davis and Long Beach State at 5-6. CSUN is five back in the win column from conference-leading Hawai'i (10-2) and opens the week four back of UC Santa Barbara (9-2) and Cal Poly (9-2). Cal State Fullerton (3-6) is seventh followed by UC Irvine (1-8) and UC Riverside (1-10). The Matadors are currently three slots ahead of where they were predicted to finish in the preseason conference coaches poll (7th).

STORK PICKS UP 100TH MATADOME WIN

CSUN's 3-0 sweep over Cal State Fullerton on Oct. 19 gave head coach Jeff Stork his 100th career home win. Stork now has a Matadome record of 102-85 in 18 seasons. The Matadors' 3-0 victory over CSU Bakersfield on Sept. 6 also marked the 250th win of Stork's coaching career. Including his time as the interim head coach of the Pepperdine men's volleyball team, Stork currently has a career head coaching record of 259-285 (.474). Since taking over the CSUN women's program in 2002, Stork has a record of 237-279 (.457) and a Big West record of 130-157 (.453). Stork's best season at CSUN was 2013 when the Matadors finished 24-7 (9-3), tying for the Big West regular season championship and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

COACHES CORNER

Matador head coach Jeff Stork shares his thoughts each week on CSUN's upcoming matches, his team, and other topics.

On upcoming road matches at Fullerton and Irvine: "Both teams are playing good volleyball right now but what I'm most concerned with this week is what we do on our side of the net and how we mentally prepare to play teams that we've beaten already this season."

On the team leadership: "I think this group has a lot of leadership in it. That's part of the reason we don't have captains, everyone's a captain and we expect each player to hold themselves and each other accountable. We can see the end of the season on the horizon but hopefully we can stay focused and in the moment this week and for the rest of the season."

MATADOR QUICK SETS

/// Freshman Taylor carried a hot hand in the Matadors' two home wins last week. Orshoff, who ranks third on the Matadors with 152 kills, had 22 kills while hitting .538 against UC Davis and UC Riverside. CSUN's Director of Volleyball since 2017, Jeff Stork recently completed his 17th season as the head coach of the Matador indoor volleyball team. Stork will open the 2019 indoor season with 227 career wins and is the second winningest coach in CSUN women's volleyball history.

2013 proved to be an historic season for CSUN women's volleyball as Stork was named Big West Co-Coach of the Year after leading the Matadors to their first-ever Big West championship and a berth in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, a first for CSUN in women's volleyball. Senior Sydney Gedryn and junior Casey Hinger both earned AVCA All-America accolades in addition to AVCA first team All-Pacific South Region honors. The duo, along with Natalie Allen, picked up first team All-Big West honors while senior Mahina Haina was named honorable mention.

In addition to 2011, 2012 and 2013, the 2003 and 2004 seasons are considered to be the most successful seasons of Stork's tenure. In 2003, Stork led the Matadors to a 16-13 overall record and a second place finish in the Big West at 12-6. The 2003 season proved even more memorable as CSUN was awarded an NCAA berth for the first time since 1996. Northridge owned its longest win streak since 1996, included in the streak were wins over No. 15 UC Santa Barbara and No. 24 Pacific. The win streak ended when the Matadors dropped a tough 3-1 decision to No. 8 UCLA.

In 2004, Stork guided the Matadors to a 17-11 overall record (11-7 Big West) and Northridge earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season. The Matadors also posted their highest win total since 1996 and their highest conference win total since that same 1996 season.

Stork was officially named head women's volleyball coach at Cal State Northridge on March 15, 2002. Stork became just the sixth head coach in the 31-year history of Matador volleyball.

During Stork's tenure at CSUN he has also coached the Men's National Team during the World League (2009, 2010) and the Boy's Youth National Team (2010). He also coached his son's USAV junior team to a gold medal in 2007. In 2001, Stork concluded a four-year stint as part of the Pepperdine men's volleyball staff for head coach Marv Dunphy. Stork was tabbed Dunphy's top assistant coach in August of 1998 and helped the 1999 team compile an overall record of 20-5 and earn a No. 4 national ranking from the AVCA and Volleyball Magazine. Stork was named as Pepperdine's interim head coach in 1999 when Dunphy joined the U.S. National Team as an assistant coach through the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Pepperdine fared well under Stork's guidance, compiling a 22-6 record and advancing to the NCAA Championships. The Waves won the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) Mountain Division title in 2000 and advanced to the title game of the conference tournament before losing a four-game decision to UCLA in the title match. Pepperdine earned the lone at-large berth to the 2000 NCAA Championships, but the Waves were beaten by Ohio State in the semifinal round. Pepperdine completed the 2000 campaign ranked No. 3 nationally by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) and Volleyball Magazine.

Stork returned to his assistant's post when Dunphy returned as head coach in 2001. The Waves posted a 14-9 mark that year, finishing the season ranked No. 6 nationally in both polls.

Prior to coaching at Pepperdine, Stork worked as an assistant coach during the 1997 season with the women's program at New Mexico under Laurel Brassey Iverson. The Lobos compiled an overall record of 14-15. A native of Topanga and a graduate of Taft High in Woodland Hills, Stork began his collegiate studies at Pierce College in 1981. He did not play volleyball while at Pierce. He then transferred to Pepperdine where he spent the next three years (1982-84) earning All-American honors all three seasons. During his collegiate career at Pepperdine, Stork helped the Waves to a three-year record of 56-21 (.727). Pepperdine advanced to the NCAA title match in 1983 and 1984, but was beaten both times by UCLA. Stork garnered All-NCAA Tournament Team honors in both seasons. In 1985, Stork decided to try his hand at coaching and served as a graduate assistant coach at Pepperdine while completing work toward a bachelor's degree in education and kinesiology.

While the Waves were winning a national championship, Stork was embarking on a 10-year tour of duty (1985-92 and 1995-96) as a member of the USA Volleyball Team. He would ultimately become a member of three U.S. Olympic Teams (1988, 1992 and 1996) and was the starting setter on the 1988 team coached by Dunphy that won a gold medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea. His 1988 Olympic dreams almost turned into a nightmare as a back injury kept him sidelined for the first two matches. But he returned to spark Team USA's gold medal drive. He is regarded as one of the game's all-time best setters and gained an international reputation for being calm under pressure. His highly technical approach allowed the American squad to maintain its No. 1 world ranking throughout the later half of the 1980s.

Stork is a highly decorated volleyball player and picked up many accolades and medals throughout his career, including being named the co-winner (with Doug Partie) of the 1987 Players Award. In addition to winning the gold medal at the 1988 Olympic Games, Stork struck gold at the 1985 NORCECA Championships, the 1985 World Cup, the 1986 World Championships, the 1987 Savvin Cup and the 1987 Pan-American Games. He has also won three silver medals (1985 Savvin Cup, 1987 NORCECA Championships and the 1991 NORCECA Championships) in his career and two bronze medals (1992 Olympic Games and in the 1992 World League). Stork was named to the USA Volleyball Men's (1978-2002) 75th Anniversary All-Era Team and Most recently, was inducted into the Volleyball Hall of Fame (2012).

In addition to his substantial experience with the U.S. National Team, Stork played professionally for a number of years in Italy and speaks Italian fluently. He was named the Italian League MVP in 1993 while setting for Mediolanum Gonzaga. His Maxicono team captured the 1990 Italian indoor title. He also competed successfully on the beach during the early 1990s, playing in the Bud Light 4-Man Beach Volleyball League's inaugural season (1991) while leading Club Sportswear to a league championship. He was a two-time MVP of the Bud Light 4-Man League (1991 and 1994).

Stork and his wife, Sabine, have three children -- Matthew, Daniel and Nicoletta -- and reside in Topanga, Calif.
