MARWAN ASS'AD (1983-98)

Marwan Ass'ad helped establish CSUN into a perennial power at the Division II level over his 16 seasons at the helm. Coach Ass'ad led CSUN to six consecutive NCAA regional appearances, highlighted by two national runner-up finishes from 1987-88. He also guided the program to six-straight CCAA championships.

Ass'ad would also serve as CSUN's first Division I head coach in the history of the program, producing four double-digit win seasons in a nine-year stretch.

CSUN won 192 games in his tenure as head coach, the second most in team history.

Ass'ad would be inducted into the Matador Hall of Fame in 2009.

TERRY DAVILA (1999-)

A former four-year starter on the CSUN soccer team, Terry Davila is the longest tenured and winningest head coach in CSUN Men's Soccer history.

Davila has led CSUN to seven NCAA Division I Tournaments in his career on the sidelines. CSUN made its deepest NCAA run in school history in 2005 when the team played in the Round of 16 while Davila also led the Matadors to the NCAA Round of 32 three times.

CSUN has won five Big West regular season titles and two conference tournament crowns in his tenure.

A six-time Big West Coach of the Year, Davila has produced 16 Major League Soccer draft picks with CSUN.

As a player, Davila helped CSUN advance to the NCAA Division II championship game in 1988.
