ON-CAMPUS STADIUM

Colorado State Football is coming home in 2017.

Construction began in the summer of 2015 on a new stadium in the heart of CSU's campus in beautiful Fort Collins. Set to open in time for the 2017 season opener, the $220 million state-of-the-art facility will have a capacity of approximately 41,000.

The new stadium will house the Rams' entire football operations, including coaches offices, the weight room, equipment room, training room, recruiting lounge, a training table for meals and a hall of fame.

Coming back to campus will better connect our alumni and students with an unbeatable game-day experience, and the stadium will serve as a focal point for year-round engagement on the CSU campus. Get ready...we're coming home!

THIS IS COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

World-class academics: With more than 150 programs of study and 78 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges -- and a faculty-to-student ratio of 17:1 -- students have access to a wealth of educational possiblities.

First-class facilities: Colorado State student-athletes have access to state-of-the art facilities to train both their minds and their bodies, including the $7 million Anderson Academic & Training Center (above), and the $13 million Indoor Practice Facility (below). Both facilities were completed in 2009.

Colorado State has a proud tradition of impact players in the NFL, including former All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter (right), and 2014 NFL Draft selections Weston Richburg (top left) and Crockett Gillmore (top right).

As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

With more than 150 programs of study and 78 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 17:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

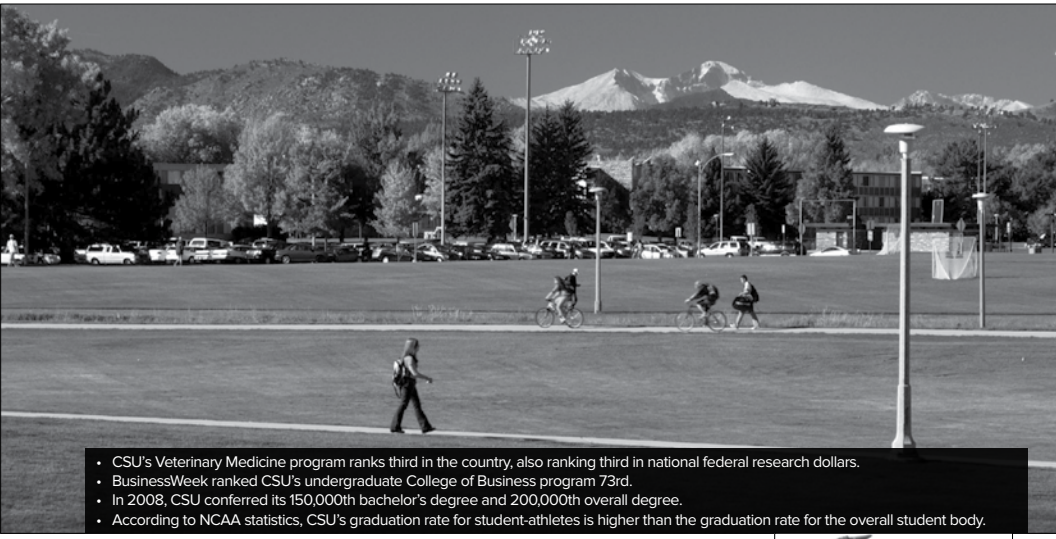

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart. Even more important, CSU's character is reflected in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission of service and go on to make a significant impact on our world when they graduate.

We invite you to learn more about Colorado State, a university with vision, character and a commitment to excellence.

- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks third in the country, also ranking third in national federal research dollars.
- BusinessWeek ranked CSU's undergraduate College of Business program 73rd.
- In 2008, CSU conferred its 150,000th bachelor's degree and 200,000th overall degree.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the graduation rate for the overall student body.

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that Colorado State is tied for the lead in the Mountain West in graduation rate for student-athletes at 68 percent – well ahead of the conference's overall four-year student-athlete graduation rate of 62 percent. The Rams' 68 percent, four-year graduation rate is also well above the NCAA Division I average of 65 percent. Additionally, CSU student-athletes continue to graduate at a higher percentage than the general student body at 64 percent.

Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which has greatly enhanced the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.

While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State in the top 60 of its annual "America's Best Colleges" report among public schools, up to 58th in 2015 from 60th in 2014. The university offers 72 majors, 133 concentrations and 83 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. Construction recently was completed on the state-of-the-art University Center for the Arts and Computer Science buildings and the Rockwell Hall expansion at the College of Business.

FORT COLLINS FACTS

- America's Most Satisfied City (Time magazine, April 2014).
- 2013 Best Towns in America (1 of 18) (Outside magazine, October 2013).
- Ranked 7th on Best Places for Business and Careers (Forbes, August 2013).
- No. 4 Healthiest Mid-Size City in U.S. (2012 Gallup-Healthways Survey, February 2013).
- Ranked 11th on America's Top 50 Bike-Friendly Cities (Bicycle Magazine, May 2012).
- No. 5 in Forbes magazine's best United States cities for business and careers (June 2011).
- One of the Top 20 Places to Thrive (Best Boomer Towns, February 2009).
- Fifth-Most Educated City in the country based on education levels of our adult population (Portfolio.com, December 2010).

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Tucked against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 21st-largest metro area.

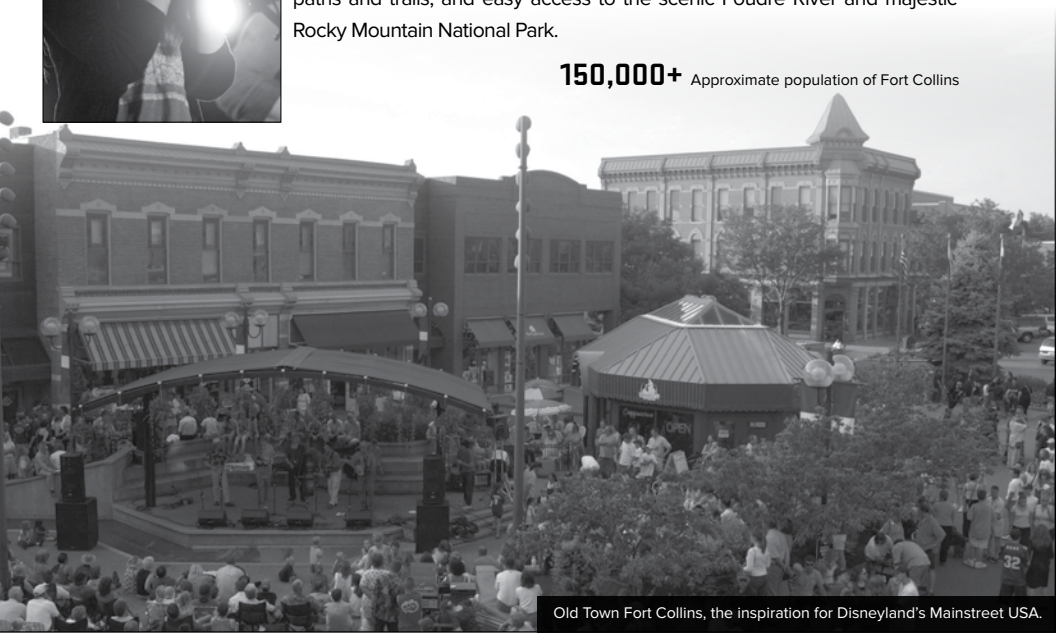

Fort Collins' 150,000 residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and the city boasts a lively arts and cultural scene, and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with over 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

150,000+ Approximate population of Fort Collins

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 29 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. Old Town, the heart of Fort Collins, offers a one-of-a-kind shopping experience and more than 80 restaurants, in addition to a vibrant night life and multiple cultural arts centers.

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of 2.4 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 16 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation. Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, right), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (bottom), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, left), and the world's 10th-busiest airport, Denver International (below, right). Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

#NEXTLEVELRAMS

Former Ram Joey Porter (right) retired from the NFL during the summer of 2012, capping an All-Pro career where it began, with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2006, Sports Illustrated called Porter the "most feared player in the NFL."

Several players continue to carry the NFL torch for Colorado State, including four players selected in the top 100 picks in each of the last two NFL Drafts: OL Weston Richburg (No. 43 in 2014, N.Y. Giants), TE Crockett Gillmore (No. 99 in 2014, Baltimore Ravens), OL Ty Sambrailo (No. 59 in 2015, Denver Broncos) and QB Garrett Grayson (No. 72 in 2015, New Orleans Saints).

Ten-year NFL veteran Erik Pears is in his first year of a new contract signed with the San Francisco 49ers in 2015, after four seasons with the Buffalo Bills. Pears is one of four former Rams' offensive lineman in camps this offseason with NFL clubs, along with the Giants' Richburg, and the Broncos' Sambrailo and six-year NFL veteran Shelley Smith. Smith and Sambrailo are joined in Broncos camp by LB Shaquil Barrett and RB Kapri Bibbs, while their former teammates TE Gillmore, QB Grayson and CB Bernard Blake will be with the Ravens, Saints and Packers, respectively in 2015.

In April 2005, just before earning a Super Bowl XL ring as a defensive leader for the Pittsburgh Steelers' world championship team, former Colorado State star and NFL All-Pro Joey Porter donated $200,000 to his alma mater to renovate the Rams' football locker room inside Moby Arena. Porter returned to CSU in July 2013 to finish his bachelor's degree (May 2014) and served as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Rams. He now coaches for the Steelers.

"I am excited to be able to provide this gift to Colorado State football. My time at CSU was very special as a football player and a student-athlete. Coach Lubick provided me with an opportunity to pursue my dream of playing in the NFL. I am grateful for having had the opportunity, and this was a way for me and my family to invest in the future of the Rams."
--Joey Porter

Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium, the home of the Colorado State football program, lies at the base of the three miles west of the main campus, the stadium offers one of the most scenic settings in college football. Opened in 1968, the venerable stadium has undergone several upgrades over the decades, including a major renovation between 2003 and 2006.

Legendary basketball coach (then CSU's AD) J.J. Williams and former football All-American and future AD Thurman "Fum" McGraw examine a model of the under-construction Hughes Stadium in 1967

21st-Century Renovations

In 2003, the Bohemian Foundation contributed $15.2 million to the Colorado State athletic department. The majority of that gift was focused on improving Hughes Stadium. Over a three-year period, the facility received a spectacular new west tower, containing club seating, luxury suites and a new press box. CSU also enclosed the north end zone, increasing capacity to 32,500.

The foundation insisted that the venue's playing surface receive a new name in 2006--Sonny Lubick Field--after the legendary head coach that spurred the most successful run of bowl games and conference championships in program history.

The final phase of the renovations focused on that surface itself. The field underwent a $1.33 million makeover prior to the 2006 season, when Colorado State installed FieldTurf, the revolutionary, rubberized surface used by several NFL and major college football venues across the country.

In October 2012, President Tony Frank approved CSU's recommendation to begin fundraising for a brand-new, $225 million on-campus stadium (see inside front cover), which will become the new home of CSU football in 2017.

In its history, Colorado State's football teams have called two other venues home: Durkee Field (1899-1911) and Colorado Field (1912-67). Durkee Field, which sat on the location where South College Gym is located today, was the first official home after unknown locations hosted games in 1893-94, before the program's resurrection in 1899. Colorado Field was located on the site of the current Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's track and field programs.

Student-athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them. That's why, in 2009 the Anderson Academic Training Center was completed, offering Rams student-athletes a first-class academic facility.

Features:
- A computer lab with more than 30 workstations.
- Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas.
- Six full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

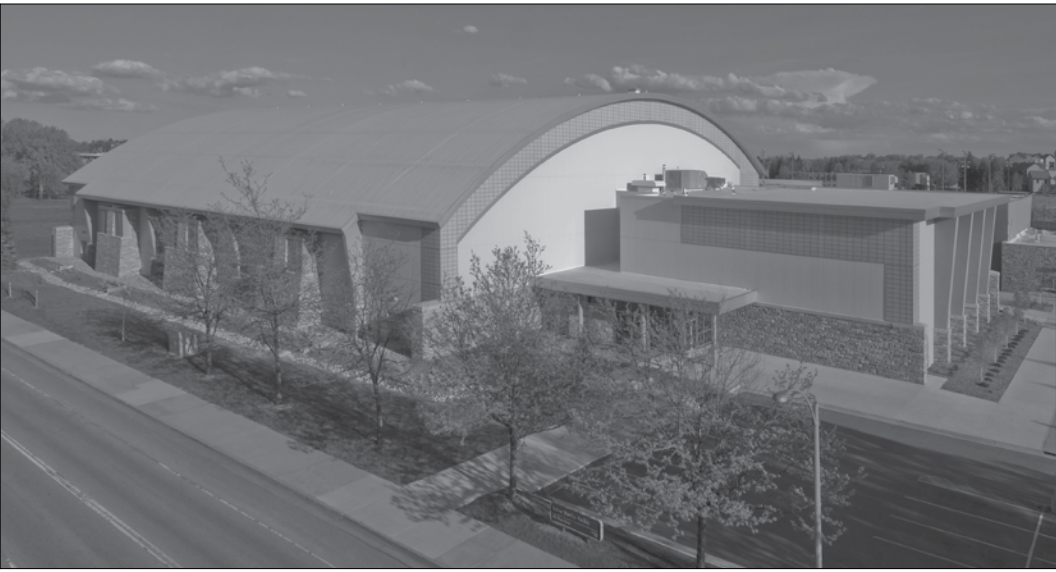

The training portion includes a state-of-the-art weight room and strength and conditioning center, in addition to a nutrition center. One of the newest and most comprehensive in the Mountain West, each team has a sport-specific strength coach to work with them throughout the year.

Training Room

During the summer of 2013, the athletic training room went through a major transformation, doubling in size to help make it one of the finest in the country. It features a multitude of taping and treatment tables, rehabilitation equipment, and hot/cold tubs, including an underwater treadmill, the only of its kind in the state.

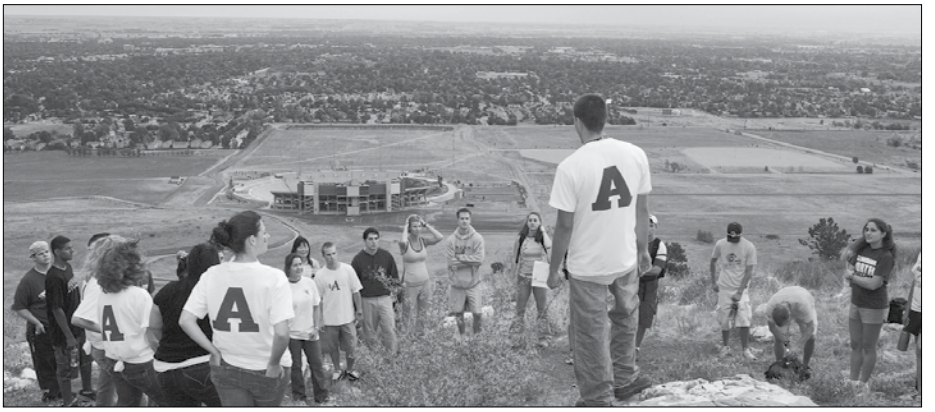

Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility, measuring more than 66,000 square feet. The structure allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

- A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field.
- Large gymnasium for basketball and volleyball
- Utilized for training by all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track.
- Retractable netting for batting cages and golf workouts.
- Video deck allows CSU coaches and student-athletes to review technique and put it into play immediately.

THE AGGIE "A"

The "A" evolved after World War I when a trend began among colleges to display the school insignia on a hill near campus. At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect such an emblem. A group of military volunteers formed the "A" Club and donated vehicles for transporting supplies, and female students provided food for the workers.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A." One small detail was missing: The school didn't own the land on which the insignia sat. The College and Ag Board members met with landowner R.G. Maxwell and negotiated a long-term lease for the sum of $1.

The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom. For many years the freshman class carried out the annual tradition of whitewashing the "A."

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

RAM WALK

THE CANNON

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents that just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU athletics.

CAM THE RAM

The official mascot of Colorado State is CAM the Ram, whose name symbolizes CSU's history — an acronym for Colorado Agricultural & Mechanical College, the institution's former name.

All told, 23 live rams have served proudly. The mascot has its own corps of students, known as the 'Ram Handlers,' as well as a traveling trailer.

CSU FIGHT SONG

Fight on you stalwart Ram team,
On to the goal.
Tear the (opponent's) line asunder,
As down the field we thunder.
Knights of the Green and Gold,
Fight on with all your might.
Fight on you stalwart Ram team,
FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
GO RAMS!

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Colorado State football program owns 15 conference championships. The 1915 team captured the program's first Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title.

The Rams' most recent conference title came in 2002 (left), when the team posted a 10-4 overall record, and a 6-2 mark in Mountain West play. In all, CSU claimed three of the first four titles in Mountain West history.

TRAVELING TROPHIES

FUM McGRAW

The most recognized name in CSU annals is Thurman "Fum" McGraw (left). The university's first consensus football All-American (1948-49), he went on to an illustrious career in the NFL, where he helped the Detroit Lions to two world championships. McGraw devoted more than 40 years to the university he loved, including a decade as director of athletics (1976-86).

His retired No. 48 jersey hangs in the locker room during every game, home and road.

A passionate competitor, during his days as a Colorado A&M student and fraternity member, he sang a song directed at regional rivals. The ballad later became known as "Fum's Song."

FUM'S SONG

I'll sing you a song of college days, and tell you where to go.
Aggies, where your knowledge is, and Boulder to spend your dough.
C.C. for your sissy boys, and Utah for your times,
D.U. for your ministers, and drunkards School of Mines.
Don't send my boy to Wyoming U. a dying mother said.
Don't send him to old Brigham Young, I'd rather see him dead.
Just send him to our Aggies, it's better than Cornell.

GOING BOWLING

The Colorado State football program has earned 14 bowl berths in its history, dating back to the team's first postseason appearance, a physical matchup against Occidental College in the 1949 Raisin Bowl (pictured at right). The Rams were led to their first bowl game by second-year head coach Bob Davis.

Earle Bruce guided the Rams back to the postseason in 1990, when he coached the team to a resounding 32-31 victory over the Oregon Ducks in the Freedom Bowl (below, right).

DAILY COVERAGE

Colorado State is a nationally prominent brand, due in large part to the success of its athletic teams and the media coverage they receive.

The Rams are covered by five newspapers in addition to the Associated Press. What's more, eight area television stations, mostly from Denver (the nation's No. 18 television market), and several radio outlets along the Front Range come to campus to interview and feature CSU's student-athletes and coaches.

GAMEDAY COVERAGE

Colorado State football plays regularly on regional and national television. Overall, since the program's first telecast game in 1956, the Rams have played 259 such contests, including eight or more televised games in each of the past 20 seasons. CSU's Sept. 21, 2013 game at Alabama drew 2.78 million viewers on ESPN2, the 2013 New Mexico Bowl on ESPN drew 2.77 million viewers, and the 2014 Las Vegas Bowl on ABC drew 2.12 million viewers.

MEDIA DAYS

MEET THE PRESS

Bobo was introduced as Colorado State's head football coach in a press conference (left) on Dec. 23, 2014.

The press conference was held in the Bob Davis Hall, adjacent to the Rams' newly renovated Hall of Fame. And the event did not disappoint, as the announcement drew scores of fans and media members, including writers, photographers and electronic media.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 16th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 15 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Craig Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002. Entering the 2014 season, the MW has eight (8) different bowl games that in any given year will generate six (6) or seven (7) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Valley of the Sun Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San Jose State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.

JOE PARKER

PARKER AT A GLANCE

Education
- Bachelor's degree in Economics from Michigan
- MBA from Texas

Personal
- Wife: Jennie; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy AD at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate AD at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker, a proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, was hired as director of athletics at Colorado State University by President Tony Frank on March 17, 2015.

Parker, who has been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

Parker, who was an All-America swimmer at Michigan, has served in the deputy role at Texas Tech since April 2011.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker has been involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity matters at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and recent launch of a current $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jennie, have two children, Emma and Will.

Joe Parker was introduced as the director of athletics at Colorado State on March 17, 2015.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT JOE PARKER...

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director
"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech
"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."

Jeff Long, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas
"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma
"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's AD/Exec. Sr. Associate A.D., University of Texas
"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, former AD, University of Michigan
"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, athletics director, TCU
"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

DeLoss Dodds, retired athletic director, University of Texas
"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University
"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

MIKE BOBO

Colorado State University President Tony Frank announced the appointment of Mike Bobo as head coach of the Rams' football program on Dec. 23, 2014. Bobo is the 22nd head coach in the history of the program, and came to Fort Collins from the University of Georgia, where had spent the previous 14 seasons, including the last eight as his alma mater's offensive coordinator.

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia, where he had starred at quarterback in the late 1990s, began in January, 2001, when head coach Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach, for his second stint with the school. He was promoted by Richt to offensive coordinator in 2007.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award Finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In 2014 Bobo led a Bulldogs offense that averaged 41.7 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 454.9 yards of total offense per game. Against teams currently that ended the regular season ranked in the Top 25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game.

Additionally, the Bulldogs' offense ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing offense (255.0; 12th FBS), team passing efficiency (157.86; 9th FBS), scoring offense (41.7; 8th FBS) and fourth-down conversion percentage (85.7%; 1st FBS).

The 537 points scored in 2014 established a Georgia single-season record. The previous single-season record was set in 2012 while Bobo was offensive coordinator.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, who played from 2010-13. Murray, who was chosen in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, set more than 25 UGA records and four SEC marks. He became the first player in SEC history to have at least 3,000 passing yards in four consecutive seasons.

The NFL's No. 1 draft choice in 2009, Matthew Stafford, also blossomed under Bobo's tutelage. The Detroit Lions' starting quarterback was second-team All-SEC and earned All-America recognition in 2008 for Georgia and was MVP of the 2009 Capital One Bowl.

In Bobo's time at Georgia he also mentored quarterback David Greene (2001-04), who was the winningest quarterback in NCAA Division I history at the time (42), wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff in Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State, after working as an administrative assistant and graduate assistant from 1998-99 at UGA.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, earning four letters, and led the team in passing in 1996 and '97. Among all UGA quarterbacks, Bobo ranks first in single-season completion percentage (65% in '97), single-season passing efficiency rating (155.8 in '97), second in career touchdown passes (38) and third in career pass completions (445), season passing yards (2,751 in '97), career passing yards (6,334) and single-season touchdown passes (19). In his career Bobo threw for 6,334 yards, which is third-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback.

Bobo and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew (11); triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace (9); and Kate (6).

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT MIKE BOBO...

Mark Richt, Head Coach at Georgia:

"Mike Bobo has been a leader his entire life playing the position of quarterback in high school and college. And he has led well. While he's on the cutting edge of offensive football, he's also old school in his approach. He's a tough disciplinarian who is results-oriented. I never had to worry about our offense with Mike's leadership as our coordinator."

Matthew Stafford, starting QB, Detroit Lions:

"I am extremely happy for Coach Bobo, and I know he has been ready for an opportunity like this for quite some time. He helped me grow as a quarterback immensely in just a short amount of time at UGA and taught me what I needed to know for football at the highest level. I owe a lot of my success to the coaching and knowledge that he passed on to me. He was a great motivator and truly cared about his players. Because of that, I know he will be a successful head coach and bring a lot of success to the Colorado State team and fans."

Peyton Manning, starting QB, Denver Broncos:

"He was the starting quarterback at Georgia during the whole time I was in school at Tennesee, or the three years--sophomore, junior and senior years. They had great teams, they had Champ, Hines Ward and Robert Edwards. So, they had a lot of great players and Mike was a great leader, great SEC quarterback. We had some good battles. I always think you have a little bond with SEC guys, especially SEC quarterbacks. I enjoyed competing against him. He was a great player."

Todd Gurley, RB, St. Louis Rams:

"He's very passionate about his job. He takes it seriously. With his offensive skills, he can definitely help them improve and move the ball. He's a high-energy guy. He's going to get on you, but it's going to make you better. His offense really helps young guys and gets you ready for an NFL career if you get that opportunity. He's going to be balanced and utilize his talents."

A.J. Green, WR, Cincinnati Bengals:

"The first thing that comes to mind about Mike Bobo is that he's a really smart guy. Kind of a unique guy, just with his schemes and his play-calling. He always had something that was going to surprise the defense and mess them up."

WILL FRIEND

Colorado State head football coach Mike Bobo announced on Dec. 24, 2014 that he hired Will Friend to be the Rams' new offensive coordinator on his inaugural staff.

Friend was hired at Georgia in 2011 and added the title of Running Game Coordinator in 2013. Working with Bobo as offensive coordinator, Friend helped guide a Bulldogs' offense that averaged 41.7 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 454.9 yards of total offense per game. Against teams currently ranked in the top-25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 2001 | West Alabama | Offensive Line |
| 2002 | Tuscaloosa Central HS | Head Coach |
| 2003-04 | Georgia | Graduate Assistant |
| 2005-06 | Gardner-Webb | Offensive Line |
| 2007-10 | UAB | Offensive Line |
| 2011-12 | Georgia | Offensive Line |

Additionally, the 2014 Bulldogs' offense ranked in the top-15 nationally in rushing offense (255.0; 12th FBS), team passing efficiency (157.86; 9th FBS), scoring offense (41.7; 8th FBS) and fourth-down conversion percentage (85.7%; 1st FBS). Friend and the offensive staff at Georgia also posted record-setting numbers in 2012 and '13, including single-season total offense (6,547 in 2012 and 6,294 in 2013); average yards per game (484.2 in '13 and 467.64 in '12) and touchdowns in a season (72 in 2012 and 58 in '13). He also coached three 2012 NFL draft choices - OT Cordy Glenn (2nd, Bills), C Ben Jones (4th, Texans), and OT Justin Anderson (7th, Colts).

Prior to his tenure at Georgia, Friend spent four seasons as offensive line coach at UAB (2007-10) where the Blazers' average offensive output per game in 2009 and '10 represented two of the top three season marks in program history. The UAB offense registered 5,074 yards in 2010, the school's second-highest single-season total. The Blazers finished the 2010 campaign ranked No. 24 nationally in total offense (422.8 yards per game) and were 24th in passing offense (267.0). In 2009, UAB's rushing average of 229.9 yards per game was the highest mark for the Blazers in school history and ranked No. 7 in the nation.

Friend spent the previous two years at Gardner-Webb (2005-06) as offensive line coach after two years as a graduate assistant coach at Georgia (2003-04). In his first season at Gardner-Webb, the Bulldog offense ranked No. 10 nationally in total offense as Friend saw three of his linemen earn All-Big South Conference honors. He also spent a year at Tuscaloosa Central High School (2002) and was the offensive line coach at West Alabama in 2001.

A two-time All-SEC and four-year starting guard at Alabama, Friend helped the Crimson Tide to the SEC Western Division title and berths in the SEC Championship Game in 1993, '94 and '96, with appearances in the Gator Bowl, Citrus Bowl (1996) and Outback Bowl (1997). Friend was named to Alabama's Team of the Decade for the 1990s.

Friend was a Parade Magazine All-America selection as a senior at Neshoba Central High in Philadelphia, Miss. He earned his B.S. degree in human performance from Alabama in 1998. He and his wife, the former Carrie Moon, have three children: Katie (10), Brooks (4) and Charlie (1).

TYSON SUMMERS

Colorado State head football coach Mike Bobo announced the hiring of Colorado State's newest defensive coordinator Tyson Summers on Dec. 29, 2014. Summers came to CSU from the University of Central Florida where he served as defensive coordinator in 2014 for a unit that ranked among the best in the nation.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 2002 | Tift County HS | Defensive Backs |
| 2003 | Presbyterian | Defensive Backs |
| 2004 | Troy | Graduate Assistant |
| 2005 | Georgia | Graduate Assistant |
| 2006 | Georgia Southern | Safeties |
| 2007-10 | UAB | Linebackers |
| 2011 | UAB | Safties/Co-Special Teams Coord. |
| 2012-13 | UCF | Linebackers |
| 2014 | UCF | Defensive Coordinator |

In his first full season as a defensive coordinator in 2014, Summers guided the top defense in the American Athletic Conference, and one that ranked in the top 10 among FBS schools in total defense (7th, 298.5), rushing defense (7th, 104.3), scoring defense (8th, 19.2) and red zone defense (6th, 71.4%). Summers' defense helped UCF to a 9-4 record, a second consecutive American Athletic Conference title and a berth in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. The Knights held six opponents under 100 rushing yards and nine under 200 passing yards.

Three of Summers's defensive players earned first-team all-conference honors, while three more garnered second-team honors. That included cornerback Jacoby Glenn, who was The American's Co-Defensive Player of the Year, and UCF's first Associated Press All-American (second team) since it joined the FBS level in 1996.

Under Summers' tutelage, linebacker Terrance Plummer earned back-to-back first-team all-conference honors, who was on the All-American Athletic Conference First Team in 2013 and 2014. He also was a two-time national defensive player of the week his final two years at UCF.

Summers was hired at UCF as a defensive assistant coach in 2012, and earned the title of linebackers coach one month later. For the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and that spring season, he was named interim defensive coordinator before being promoted to full-time defensive coordinator in April when spring camp concluded.

Summers helped call the plays in UCF's upset victory over high-powered Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, capping an unforgettable season for the Knights. The win enabled UCF to set a school record with 12 victories overall and achieve a program-high by being ranked No. 10 in the final AP Top 25 Poll. Plummer was named Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, along with his first-team all-conference honors.

Leading the UCF linebackers in 2012, Summers tutored three Knights into consistent starters en route to a Conference USA East Division crown, a Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl win and a 10-4 record. Plummer, in his first year as the Knights' middle linebacker, went on to rack up 108 tackles with seven for loss. On the outsides, Ray Shipman broke out in just his second full season as he amassed 91 tackles. Previously a running back, Jonathan Davis was named the team's Most Improved Defensive Player, capping off the year with 99 tackles, including nine for a loss.

Summers' tenure at UCF came after a five-year stint at UAB that begin in December 2006. He served as the Blazers' linebackers coach and added the roles of safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator in the final season of his tenure.

In his first year working with the UAB safeties in 2011, Summers helped mentor Jamie Bender in his senior season as he led the Blazers with 119 tackles. Bender also posted 7.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, six break-ups and four forced fumbles. He was voted on to the All-C-USA Second Team for that performance. On special teams, UAB ranked 17th in the nation by allowing just 4.71 yards per punt return, while freshman kicker Ty Long was named a 2011 Freshman All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

In Summers' first year at UAB, linebacker Joe Henderson was named to the All-C-USA Second Team. In 2008, Henderson climbed up to the first team thanks to a team-high 87 tackles as well as 12.5 tackles for loss, and went on to play for the BC Lions of the CFL from 2010-11. With a new wave of linebackers under Summers' control in 2010, Marvin Burdette paced the Blazers with 114 tackles en route to All-C-USA Honorable Mention accolades. While Summers was with UAB, kicker Swayze Waters was an All-C-USA First Team pick in 2007 and 2008, and has appeared in NFL preseason games highlighted by a stint with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2011.

A native of Tifton, Ga., Summers coached the safeties at Georgia Southern in 2006 a year after serving as a graduate assistant for Georgia in 2005. That season the Bulldogs won the SEC title and earned a berth in the Sugar Bowl. Summers worked with the secondary and witnessed three UGA defensive backs being selected in the NFL Draft: Tim Jennings (second round, first-team All-SEC), DeMario Minter (fifth round, first-team All-SEC) and Greg Blue (fifth round, first-team All-American).

During the 2004 season Summers was a graduate assistant at Troy, which reached the postseason and the Silicon Valley Classic, and in 2003 he helped guide the defensive backs at Presbyterian. Summers earned his first coaching position at Tift County High School in Georgia where coached the defensive backs in 2002.

A four-year letterwinner at Presbyterian, Summers earned preseason All-South Atlantic honors as a linebacker in 1999 and was selected as team captain as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Presbyterian in 2002.

Summers is married to the former Beth King, and the couple has three sons, Jake (7), Walker (5) and Anderson (2). Summers' father was a running back at the University of Florida.

JEFF HAMMERSCHMIDT

Special Teams Coord./TEs | 4th Year at CSU | 24th Year Coaching

Jeff Hammerschmidt is in his 24th season in the coaching profession in 2015, and his fourth season as special teams coordinator at Colorado State. He also served as the Rams' running backs coach in his first three years with the program, from 2012-14, and now transitions from that position group to the tight ends in 2015.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 1992 | Arizona | Graduate Assistant |
| 1993 | Arizona | Safeties |
| 1994-95 | Arizona | Defensive Backs |
| 1996-97 | Southern Utah | Def. Coord./Linebackers/Defensive Line |
| 1998-99 | Indiana | Special Teams Coord./Outside Linebackers |
| 2000-02 | Saint Mary's | Defensive Coordinator |
| 2003-04 | Montana | Defensive Coordinator |
| 2005 | Cal Poly | Linebackers |
| 2006 | Stanford | Special Teams/Outside Linebackers |
| 2007 | San Jose State | Linebackers |
| 2008-11 | Arizona | Special Teams Coord./Defensive Ends |
| 2012-14 | Colorado State | Special Teams Coordinator/RBs |

Both areas overseen by Hammerschmidt excelled for the Rams in 2014, leading to second-team All-Mountain West honors for running back Dee Hart and honorable mention All-MW recognition for kicker Jared Roberts and punter Hayden Hunt. Hart's 16 rushing touchdowns ranked fifth on CSU's all-time single-season list, while his 1,275 rushing yards ranked eighth. In three years under Hammerschmidt's tutelage, Roberts became the most accurate kicker in CSU history with a career field-goal percentage of .778, and tied for fourth in career field goals made (42). Hart and Roberts each earned two MW Player of the Week honors in 2014.

Those exploits followed a banner 2013 season for Hammerschmidt's troops, which were highlighted by the record-setting play of running back Kapri Bibbs, who signed with the Denver Broncos as a rookie free agent. The sophomore running back earned second-team Walter Camp All-America and first-team All-MW honors and ranked sixth in the nation in rushing with a CSU-record 1,741 yards. He also broke the school's rushing touchdown record with 31, tying for No. 1 in the nation, and broke the school's single-game records for rushing yards (312) and rushing touchdowns (6).

Hammerschmidt's special teams units saw success across the board in 2013. Roberts was the MW's first-team kicker, converting 21 of 24 field-goal attempts and all 58 PATs. He ranked second in the MW and 19th in the nation in field goals per game (1.5). The Rams' return units were among the best in the conference in 2013, averaging 23.8 yards on kickoff returns (2nd MW, 18th FBS) and 11.4 on punt returns (3rd MW, 28th FBS).

In Hammerschmidt's first year at Colorado State in 2012 punter Pete Kontodiakos earned his third consecutive All-MW award and his first as a first-teamer, while Roberts earned second-team All-MW honors in his first year of play as a sophomore. Kontodiakos as a senior ranked third in the nation in punting with a school-record average of 46.5, and was named Mountain West special teams player of the week for games of Nov. 10. Roberts also earned a Mountain West player of the week honor en route to a 56-point season on 9-of-10 field-goal accuracy and 29-of-31 on PATs.

Hammerschmidt's running backs also excelled in 2012, with two different players producing a total of five individual 100-yard rushing games (Donnell Alexander--3; Chris Nwoke--2). Those performances came in the last five games of the season, a period in which the Rams as a team averaged 169.6 yards per game after netting an average of 99.7 over the first seven games.

Hammerschmidt came to Colorado State from Arizona, where he'd served as special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach for four seasons (2008-11), helping the Wildcats to the Las Vegas, Holiday and Alamo bowls. A standout defensive back for the Wildcats in his playing days, his players during his second stint at Arizona totaled eight all-conference selections: PK John Bonano in 2011, DE Brooks Reed and DE Ricky Elmore in 2010, Elmore in 2009, PK Jason Bondzio and P Keenyn Crier in 2009, and Reed and PR Mike Thomas in 2008.

Two of his defensive ends, Reed and Elmore, were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft. Elmore led the Pac-10 with 11 sacks in 2010, while Reed compiled 8½ to help the Wildcats finish third in the league. Hammerschmidt also coached the Pac-12's leading punter in 2011, Kyle Dugandzic.

Hammerschmidt had returned to Arizona after a trio of one-year stops at San Jose State (linebackers in 2007), Stanford (special teams/outside LBs in 2006) and Cal Poly (linebackers in 2005). At SJSU he coached first-team all-WAC selection Matt Castelo.

The San Diego-area product caught the attention of many observers during a two-year term (2003-04) as defensive coordinator at Montana, where he guided the Grizzlies to a berth in the 2004 Division I-AA national championship on the strength of 38 takeaways, tied for second in the country. The year before, Montana owned the nation's fifth-best rushing defense.

Hammerschmidt made the jump to Montana after three seasons (2000-03) as defensive coordinator at St. Mary's, which disbanded football in 2003.

Prior to that, he served two seasons (1998-99) in the Big Ten as Cam Cameron's special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Indiana. With the Hoosiers, he coached three future NFL starters: Adewale Ogunleye, Kris Dielman and on special teams Antwaan Randle El.

Hammerschmidt had left his alma mater to become a first-time coordinator, taking the defensive reins at Southern Utah from 1996-97, while also coaching the Thunderbirds' defensive line and linebackers.

Recruited to play at Arizona by Tomey in the mid-1980s, Hammerschmidt launched his coaching career under his mentor at Arizona as a graduate assistant in 1992. Promoted to safeties coach the following season, he helped the Desert Swarm defense vault to No. 9 in the final 1993 rankings after a 29-0 Fiesta Bowl triumph over Miami (Fla.). Hammerschmidt coached the team's entire secondary from 1994-95.

During his first stint as an Arizona coach, his star pupil was consensus All-America safety Tony Bouie. Another safety, Brandon Sanders, was a two-time all-Pac-10 performer.

A four-year letterman, three-year starting safety and first-team all-Pac-10 selection at Arizona, Hammerschmidt was semi-finalist for the 1989 Jim Thorpe Award. After beginning his career as an occasional option quarterback in 1987, he garnered Pac-10 Player of the Week honors in 1989 after helping the Wildcats to a 6-3 victory over No. 6 Oklahoma. Signed as a free agent by the Los Angeles Rams in 1991, he played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League in 1992 before embarking on his coaching career.

A product of San Diego's Helix High School, which later produced both the No. 1 and No. 2 overall selections in the NFL Draft, he followed in the footsteps of Chuck Cecil in signing with Arizona.

The brother of former Colorado safety and longtime assistant coach Dan Hammerschmidt, Jeff and his wife Felicity have two children, Bryn and Bode. He owns a bachelor's degree in sociology from Arizona ('91).

BRYAN APPLEWHITE

Running Backs | 1st Year at CSU | 17th Year Coaching

Bryan Applewhite is in his first year as running backs coach at Colorado State in 2015, and his 17th season in coaching. He joined the Rams' staff on Jan. 3, 2015, after spending the previous five seasons at the University of Louisiana Monroe.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 1999 | Northern Colorado | Graduate Assistant |
| 2000-02 | Northern Colorado | Running Backs |
| 2003-08 | Northern Colorado | Running Backs |
| 2009 | Montana State | Running Backs |
| 2010-14 | Louisiana Monroe | Running Backs/Recruiting Coord. |

Applewhite's arrival in Fort Collins marked a return to his home state of Colorado. In his five seasons at ULM (2010-14) he served as the Warhawks' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator, and groomed two all-conference running backs. In 2012 ULM's running backs combined for a total of 19 touchdowns (17 rushing, two receiving) as ULM finished the season with eight wins and made its first appearance in a bowl game (Independence Bowl) since moving up to FBS in 1994.

In 2013 Applewhite's ULM running backs elevated further as six different running backs recorded 1,239 rushing yards and eight touchdowns. Centarius Donald missed the majority of the non-conference season, but came alive in conference play en route to All-Sun Belt honors.

Prior to joining ULM's staff, Applewhite spent one season at Montana State (2009) and six at Wyoming (2003-08) as running backs coach. In his one season at Montana State, Applewhite coached a two-headed running back tandem that tallied over 1,110 rushing yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

Under his tutelage, Applewhite groomed two of Wyoming's three all-time leading rushers in Devin Moore (2,963) and Wynel Seldon (2,672). Moore signed a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts and Seldon signed a contract with the Washington Redskins. Moore's 2,963 career rushing yards are the most all-time by a Cowboys player. Seldon holds the school record for most rushing attempts in a career with 636.

Prior to joining the Wyoming staff, he coached at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, from 1999-2002. A standout fullback at Northern Colorado from 1994-98, Applewhite played on teams that won two NCAA Division II National Championships (1996 and 1997), competed in the Division II Playoffs for four straight seasons (1995-98) and won North Central Conference crowns during his junior and senior seasons. During his entire tenure at UNC and Wyoming, fellow Colorado State assistant coach Marty English served on the coaching staff at the two schools.

Applewhite, a 1993 graduate of Brighton High School, joined the UNC coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1999 and was elevated to full-time status in 2000. The Bears finished sixth in Division II in rushing offense (127.8 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (362.1) in 2002, and the 1999 and 2002 Bears competed in the Division II Playoffs.

Applewhite has served as a member of the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Minority Issues Committee since 2006 and was recently reappointed to the Committee. In 2007, he was named to the AFCA Assistant Coaches' Committee and participated in the 2004 AFCA Coaches' Academy.

Applewhite received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Northern Colorado in 1998 and his master's degree in sports administration for Northern Colorado in 2001.

He and his wife Rachelle have two daughters, Morgan and Skylar.

MARTY ENGLISH

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 1987-89 | Northern Colorado | Graduate Assistant |
| 1990-99 | Northern Colorado | Special Teams/Recruiting Coord. |
| | | Strength & Conditioning/Linebackers |
| 2000-02 | Northern Colorado | Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers |
| 2003-08 | Wyoming | Linebackers |
| 2009-11 | Wyoming | Defensive Coord./Linebackers/Special Teams |
| 2012-14 | Colorado State | Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers |

Marty English is in his fourth season at Colorado State in 2015, serving as the Rams' linebackers coach. He also served as co-defensive coordinator along with his duties as linebackers coach from 2012-14.

English, a 29-year coaching veteran with significant experience along the Front Range, has been part of the Colorado State staff that has led an impressive return to prominence over the past three seasons, highlighted by back-to-back bowl appearances for the first time since 2002-03 and a 10-win season in 2014 for the just the fifth time in school history. The Rams' 18 wins over the 2013-14 seasons were their most in a two-season span since 1999-2000 (also 18), and tie for second most in school history.

In 2014 the Rams' defense allowed just 23.4 points per game in the regular season (3rd MW/34th FBS), the fewest by a CSU defense since 2006 (21.9). Two linebackers under English's tutelage, seniors Max Morgan and Aaron Davis, finished their careers in 2014 ranked among the top seven tacklers in school history. Morgan finished his CSU career with 348 tackles to rank sixth on the school's all-time list, and the most in a career since Rick Crowell tallied 370 from 1996-2000, while Davis, a second-team All-Mountain West choice, finished with 345 tackles to rank seventh all-time. Returning linebacker Cory James has recorded 22 career sacks, 5th-most among CSU defenders and seventh among active FBS defenders. James and Morgan earned honorable mention All-MW.

English helped lead a Rams defense in 2013 that ranked third in the MW and 30th in D1 FBS in rushing defense (140.6), fourth (46th FBS) in sacks (2.3 per game) and fourth in scoring defense (29.8). Three CSU defenders earned All-MW recognition in 2013, including MW Defensive Player of the Year and first-team linebacker Shaquil Barrett, who signed as a rookie free agent with the Denver Broncos. Cornerback Shaq Bell earned second-team honors while Morgan earned honorable mention. In his first season at Colorado State three Rams defenders earned All-MW honors: Defensive end Lanston Tanyi (2nd team), Barrett and Bell (honorable mention). James was named to Phil Steele's national All-Freshman second team and set a Colorado State freshman record with 7.5 sacks in 2012.

A Colorado product, English had spent the previous nine seasons at Wyoming (2003-11). He had served as the Cowboys' defensive coordinator, linebackers and special teams coach from 2009-11. The senior member of the Wyoming staff when he joined the Rams, he spent his first six years (2003-08) in Laramie as Joe Glenn's linebackers coach.

English helped the Cowboys to two bowl appearances in his three seasons at the reins of the defense, including 2011, when Wyoming led the Mountain West and tied for 10th in the nation with 31 takeaways. DB Blair Burns, a Freshman All-American, was one of six all-conference players on English's 2011 defense. As the Cowboys' linebackers coach, English helped Wyoming finish ninth nationally in 2006 in total defense, and No. 8 against the pass. In 2004, the Pokes ranked 13th in the country with 28 takeaways, a key part of a season that concluded with a win over UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl. All told, English has served on coaching staffs that led their teams to the postseason on 14 occasions.

English spent 16 seasons (1987-2002) at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, in Greeley, serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach (2000-02); special teams, linebackers, strength and conditioning coach and recruiting coordinator (1990-99), and graduate assistant (1987-89). At UNC, English and the Bears won a pair of NCAA Division II national championships (1996-97) and went to the national playoffs eight times, including the 2002 national semifinals.

As a player, English was part of another national championship, when his Idaho State team won the 1981 NCAA Division I-AA title. English then transferred to Northern Colorado, lettering three years as a linebacker. As a 1985 senior captain, he garnered all-North Central Conference recognition.

A 1986 and 1989 graduate of Northern Colorado, English owns a bachelor's degree in recreation management, and a master's in physical education in 1989. He grew up in Lakewood, Colo., and earned all-state honors at Alameda High School.

Marty and his wife, Suzie, have one daughter, Kelsey, and one son, Tyler. Kelsey is a graduate of the University of Wyoming, while Tyler is a graduate of Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo.

TERRY FAIR

Cornerbacks | 1st Year at CSU | 6th Year Coaching

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 2006-07 | Phoenix College | Defensive Backs |
| 2008 | Mesa Community College | Defensive Backs |
| 2013-14 | Univ. of Tennessee | Defensive Quality Control Asst. |

Former first-round NFL Draft choice Terry Fair is in his first year at Colorado State in 2015, coaching the team's cornerbacks on Mike Bobo's inaugural staff. He was hired Jan. 7, 2015.

Fair spent 2013 and '14 as the defensive quality control assistant at his alma mater, the University of Tennessee. He began his coaching career at Phoenix College (2006-07), where he sent four defensive backs to Division I schools to continue their collegiate careers, and Mesa Community College (2008).

The native of Phoenix, Ariz., was a four-year starter for UT from 1994-97, where he was a two-time All-SEC honoree in his final two seasons and played on the Vols' 1997 SEC championship team. Fair, who earned SEC All-Freshman honors in 1994, is tied for seventh on Tennessee's all-time list with 30 passes defended (19 PBU, 11 INT).

Fair went on to be drafted in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft, No. 20 overall, by the Detroit Lions. He played six seasons with the Lions (1998-2001), Carolina Panthers (2002) and St. Louis Rams (2005), accumulating 215 tackles, one sack, seven interceptions and one fumble recovery in 60 games (48 starts). Fair scored five touchdowns in his career, two each by kickoff return and interception return, and one by fumble return. For his career Fair averaged 24.3 yards on 111 kickoff returns (2 TDs) and 6.9 yards on 50 punt returns.

In his rookie season with the Lions, Fair racked up 39 total tackles, including one sack, and led the NFL in kickoff return average with a career-best 28.0 average on 51 returns. He returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, including an NFL-best 105-yard effort on Monday Night Football vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 28, 1998. Fair earned NFL All-Rookie and first-team All-NFL honors from The Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers' Association, and was selected as an alternate for the Pro Bowl.

Fair and Colorado State wide receivers coach Alvis Whitted both entered the NFL in the 1998 Draft and played against one another in one game. On Dec. 6, 1998, Whitted's Jacksonville Jaguars defeated Fair's Lions 37-22 in Jacksonville. Fair made four tackles in the game while Whitted was credited with one rushing attempt for -1 yard.

Before joining the Tennessee coaching staff Fair was co-host of a Knoxville, Tenn., sports talk show called "The Drive" on WNOX. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Tennessee in 2010 through the athletic department's Renewing Academic Commitment program.

RONNIE LETSON

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 2000-01 | Jacksonville State | Wide Receivers |
| 2002 | Presbyterian College | Wide Receivers |
| 2003 | Ole Miss | Offensive Graduate Assistant |
| 2004-12 | Jacksonville State | Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks |
| 2013 | Alabama | Offensive Analyst |
| 2014 | Georgia | Director of Player Personnel |

Ronnie Letson is in his first season as Colorado State's quarterbacks' coach in 2015, hired by head coach Mike Bobo on Jan. 2, 2015.

Letson accompanied Bobo from the University of Georgia, where he had served one season as director of player personnel for the Bulldogs. He had a brief stint as the wide receivers coach at Samford University in early 2014, and prior to that Letson spent nine seasons at Jacksonville State (2004-12) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

At Jacksonville State, Letson was in charge of play-calling and developing the Gamecocks' offensive game plan. In his nine-year stint Letson groomed 31 all-conference players and six All-Americans. Letson helped guide the Gamecocks to an Ohio

Jacksonville State's 2011 conference championship team was fueled by Letson's powerful offense, which averaged 414.9 yards per game against conference opponents, including 245.0 yards on the ground and an OVC-best 148.8 pass efficiency rating. In 2010 Letson helped lead JSU to a 9-3 record and a No. 2 ranking in FCS. His offenses in 2004, '08 and '09 led the OVC, and the Gamecocks led the OVC in scoring offense in '04, '07, '09 and '10. Letson helped produce 2009 OVC Offensive Player of the Year Ryan Perrilloux and 2010 OVC Freshman of the Year Coty Blanchard.

Letson originally began his coaching career at Jacksonville State in 2000 as the wide receivers coach before taking the same position at Presbyterian College in 2002, where he assisted with the development of the offensive game plan. He got his first taste of coaching in the Southeastern Conference as an offensive administrative graduate assistant at his alma mater, Ole Miss, in 2003, when the Rebels finished with a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC West Division title and a Cotton Bowl Championship. In the spring of 2004 he moved to the defensive side of the ball as a graduate assistant before returning to Jacksonville State in May 2004.

Letson is a 1999 graduate of the University of Mississippi, from which he holds a bachelor of business administration degree. He was a three-year letterman for the Rebels, earning All-SEC academic honors in 1999, and helped lead Ole Miss to three consecutive bowl victories. The Rebels claimed the Ford Motor City Bowl against Marshall and two wins in the Independence Bowl, including a last-second win over Oklahoma.

A 1995 graduate of Norcross (Ga.) High School, Ronnie and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Tripp and Eli.

RICKY LOGO

Defensive Line | 1st Year at CSU | 21st Year Coaching

Ricky Logo is in his first season as Colorado State's defensive line coach in 2015, and his 20th season coaching football. Hired Jan. 5, 2015, he joined head coach Mike Bobo's inaugural Rams staff after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Houston.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 1995-2000 | Tennessee-Chattanooga | Defensive Line |
| 2001 | Tennessee-Chattanooga | Defensive Coordinator |
| 2002-04 | Troy | Defensive Line |
| 2005-06 | Troy | Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line |
| 2007-10 | Vanderbilt | Defensive Line |
| 2011 | Furman | Defensive Line |
| 2012-14 | Univ. of Houston | Defensive Line |

Logo joined the Cougars' staff in 2012 and played an instrumental role in helping to lead a team that finished the 2014 season with an 8-5 record, capping it with a dramatic 35-34 victory over Pittsburgh in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

From his first season to his second in Houston, the Cougars defensive line made major improvements. In 2013, his nine-man defensive line helped lead the third most-improved scoring defense (+14.2). In 2013 the Cougars defense allowed just 21.8 points per game in 2013 compared to 36.0 in 2012. In 2014 the scoring defense continued to improve, improving to 20.6 points per game.

Under Logo's tutelage, Tyus Bowser led all freshmen in The American Athletic Conference and was second on the team with 4.5 sacks. Bowser was also one of three defensive linemen with an interception on the year, joined by B.J. Singleton and Tomme Mark. The group also has three fumble recoveries from Jeremiah Farley, Cameron Malveaux and Eric Eiland, who returned his 62 yards vs. SMU. Logo's group accounted for 36.5 tackles for loss, 17.5 sacks and seven forced fumbles.

Logo spent the 2011 season at Furman after coaching for four years in the SEC at Vanderbilt University. In 2008, he was a part of a staff that led the Commodores to their first winning season since 1982, thanks to a 16-14 victory over Boston College in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl. While at Vanderbilt the defensive front made incredible strides and two of his players, Curtis Gatewood and Theo Horrocks, signed NFL free agent contracts.

Before making the jump to arguably the toughest conference in college football, Logo spent five seasons at Troy University, two of which were spent as co-defensive coordinator. His resume at Troy includes working with first-round NFL pick DeMarcus Ware, currently with the Denver Broncos, and second-rounder Osi Umenyiora, who now plays for the Atlanta Falcons.

Logo began his coaching career at Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1995. He spent six seasons as the Mocs' defensive line coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for one season in 2001. After that he spent one season at Western Carolina as an assistant head coach before joining Troy's football program.

A native of Santa Ana, Calif., Logo played nose tackle at North Carolina State. He helped the Wolfpack advance to four consecutive bowl games and was named team captain, All-ACC and third-team All-America as a senior in 1992. N.C. State went 32-16-1 during Logo's four seasons and he played in the 1992 Hula Bowl, the Japan All-Star Game and the East-West Shrine Game.

Following his collegiate career Logo signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Detroit Lions, but suffered a career-ending injury during his first season.

A native of Columbus, Ga., Logo was a three-sport star at Spencer High School, excelling at football, wrestling and track and field. He was an All-State performer in football and was awarded the Columbus Coca-Cola Award as the city's top high school football player following his senior year.

Logo earned his B.A. degree in sociology from North Carolina State in 1992. He and his wife, Folole, have two sons, Elijah (8) and Enoka (4).

ALVIS WHITTED

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 2008-09 | Orange High School (North Carolina) | Assistant Coach |
| 2010 | Millsaps College | Wide Receivers |
| 2011 | UCLA | Offensive Assistant |
| 2012- | Colorado State | Wide Receivers |

Alvis Whitted, a nine-year NFL veteran, is in his fourth season as wide receivers coach at Colorado State in 2015. He originally came to Colorado State in 2012 and was retained by head coach Mike Bobo in January 2015.

Whitted has played a key role in the development of consensus first-team All-American Rashard Higgins. As a true sophomore in 2014 Higgins was named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award while leading the nation in receiving yards (1,750) and receiving touchdowns (17) with his school-record 96 receptions. The first-team All-Mountain West wide receiver recorded a school-record 10 games with 100 or more yards in 2014 and has scored a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns in just two seasons.

The Rams' wide receiver corps was outstanding in 2014, as junior Joe Hansley (35-540-15.4, 2 TDs), redshirt freshman Xavier Williams (30-430-14.3, 3 TDs) and senior Charles Lovett (28-490-17.5, 3 TDs) provided dangerous targets for MW Offensive Player of the Year Garrett Grayson. All but Lovett return in 2015, along with a host of of young talent that makes the Rams wide receiver corps one of the best in all of college football.

Whitted in 2013 helped develop one of the most improved position groups on the Rams' roster. Under his tutelage Higgins set a CSU freshman receiving record with a team-high 68 catches for 837 yards and six touchdowns. Higgins' 68 receptions ranked sixth by all players on CSU's all-time single-season receptions list. As a sophomore Hansley also blossomed in his second season under Whitted, catching a career-high 52 passes for 613 yards and one touchdown.

In his first season at Colorado State, Whitted guided Lovett, then a sophomore, and senior Marquise Law to the best years of their careers. Lovett led the team with 35 receptions for 428 yards (12.2) and two touchdowns, while Law capped his collegiate career with 29 catches for 287 yards (13.3) and two scores, catching passes from three different starting quarterbacks because of injuries at the position.

Whitted (pronounced WHITT-id) came to Fort Collins in February 2012 after a brief stay at Appalachian State, following a year as offensive quality-control assistant on Rick Neuheisel's UCLA staff in 2011.

At UCLA, Whitted worked with wide receivers and special teams, and helped prepare the offense for games by heading the defensive scout team.

Before moving to Pasadena, Whitted spent the 2010 season at Division III Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., as wide receivers coach. There, he began to launch recruiting ties throughout the Southeastern U.S., and coached senior Michael Galatas, a first-team all-conference selection and the league Special Teams Player of the Year.

Following an impressive NFL playing tenure, Whitted began his coaching career as a high-school assistant at his alma mater, Orange High School in Hillsborough, N.C., from 2008-09.

Selected by Tom Coughlin and the Jacksonville Jaguars in the seventh round (192nd overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft, Whitted played for three teams, including the Atlanta Falcons (2001) and Oakland Raiders (2002-06). In addition to Coughlin, who would go on to win two Super Bowls, Whitted's NFL head coaches included Dan Reeves, Norv Turner and Art Shell. He played under coaching staffs that included Dom Capers, Wade Phillips, Jim Harbaugh, Bobby Petrino, Frank Gansz and Dick Jauron.

Over a nine-year NFL career, Whittted played in 122 games with 24 starts, and caught 74 passes for 1,030 yards and six touchdowns. He also picked up 118 yards on 14 rushing attempts. As an occasional kickoff returner, he had 388 yards on 21 returns, including a 98-yard touchdown in 1999. A special-teams standout, he recorded 20 career coverage tackles.

Whitted played in a pair of AFC championship games, with Jacksonville in 2000 and Oakland in 2002, and helped the Raiders to a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII following the '02 season. His finest season was his last, 2006, when he started 13 games and established career highs with 27 receptions and 299 receiving yards.

Whitted and Colorado State cornerbacks coach Terry Fair both entered the NFL in the 1998 Draft and played against one another in one game. On Dec. 6, 1998, Whitted's Jaguars defeated Fair's Detroit Lions 37-22 in Jacksonville. Fair made four tackles in the game while Whitted was credited with one rushing attempt for -1 yard.

A dominant return specialist at N.C. State (1994-97), he totaled 1,929 kickoff-return yards, No. 2 in school history at the time of his graduation, and currently third all-time. He owns two of the top 10 kickoff returns in Wolfpack annals, a 97-yard TD vs. Maryland in 1994 and a 96-yard score vs. Florida State in 1996.

Whitted's N.C. State athletic contributions on the track in the spring were just as valuable. A world-class sprinter as a four-time All-American, he holds the school records in the 100, 200 and 400 meters. At the 1996 U.S. Olympic Trials, he finished sixth in the 200. On two occasions, the Atlantic Coast Conference named him its most valuable performer, and seven times he won an individual conference title. After being drafted into the NFL, he graduated with the H.C. Kennett Award, the most prestigious honor given to an N.C. State athlete each year.

A native of Durham, N.C., Whitted competed in football and track at Orange High School in Hillsborough, N.C. He won the 100 and 200 meters at the North Carolina state championship.

Whitted graduated from North Carolina State in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in business management/finance. In the summer of 2014 he married Tracy Ljone, who serves as a strength and conditioning coach and professor of sport management and health education at Colorado State.

RYAN DAVIS

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 2008-09 | West Florida | Asst. Strength & Performance |
| 2009 | Alabama | Volunteer Intern |
| 2010 | Louisville | Football Strength & Conditioning |
| 2011 | Alabama | Asst. Strength & Conditioning |
| 2012 | Samford | Football Strength & Conditioning |
| 2013-14 | Samford | Director of Strength & Conditioning |

Ryan Davis was hired by head football coach Mike Bobo on Jan. 7, 2015 as Colorado State's head football strength and conditioning coach. Davis comes to CSU from Samford University where he spent the 2012-14 seasons.

Davis spent his first year at Samford in 2012 as the football strength and conditioning coach before being promoted to director of strength and conditioning for all of Samford's athletics programs. In that first year, Davis implemented the "Fourth Quarter" program, which had a major impact on the Bulldogs' football program.

Prior to his stint at Samford, Davis spent two seasons as an assistant in the Alabama strength and conditioning program. While with the Crimson Tide he worked directly with the football team, specializing in the development of running backs and quarterbacks. In that time he mentored players such as Heisman Trophy winner Mark Ingram and Heisman Trophy candidate Trent Richardson.

Davis initially was a volunteer intern during the Tide's 2009 national championship season and later was an assistant on staff when the team claimed its second title in a three-year span in 2011. In addition to his football responsibilities, Davis oversaw the strength and conditioning programs for volleyball, rowing and women's tennis.

Prior to returning to Alabama, Davis was the strength and conditioning coach for the football program at the University of Louisville from May to September of 2010. He was an assistant strength and performance coach at the University of West Florida from August 2008 to April 2010, during which time he obtained his master's degree in education. While at West Florida, Davis worked with several sports including volleyball, softball, baseball, men's and women's soccer and men's and women's basketball.

Davis is a graduate of Rowan University in Glassboro, N.J., where he obtained his bachelor's degree in health and exercise science. He is certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. Davis was awarded by the CSCCA in May of 2010 with the John Stucky Award recognizing his performance in the practical component of his certification.

Davis has been mentored by some of the most popular names in the field, including long-time Alabama strength coach Terry Jones, Sr., and Alabama Director of Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran.

TOM EHLERS

| CAREER BACKGROUND | | |
|---|---|---|
| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
| 1985-86 | Oregon State | Graduate Assistant |
| 1987 | Arizona | Graduate Assistant |
| 1987-88 | Brown | Defensive Line |
| 1989-04 | Colorado State | Defensive Line |
| 2005- | Colorado State | Director of Football Operations |

One of Colorado State's most passionate individuals, Tom Ehlers is in his 31st overall season in the Rams athletic department, and his 35th year overall in college athletics.

After a long career as a Rams student-athlete and assistant football coach, Ehlers took on a new role prior to the 2005 season, assuming supervision over the football program's logistics, administration and overall operations.

Originally a competitor on the gridiron as a four-year starter on the Rams' offensive and defensive lines, he began a new career after his playing career, channeling his gregarious enthusiasm into the coaching profession. And now, including his chapter as director of operations, his tenure as a member of the football staff is the longest by an assistant in school history.

During his coaching career, he tutored 12 all-conference performers, including Bryan Save (2003), Peter Hogan (2001, '02), Clark Haggans (1999), Joey Porter (1998), Adrian Ross (1997), Brady Smith (1994, '95), Sean Moran (1994, '95), Steve Norton (1993), and Steve Hodge (1993).

Six of the players he formerly coached ranked in the top 10 in quarterback sacks, including Haggans (first), Smith (second), Porter (fourth), Hodge (tie, seventh), Ross (tie, seventh), and Moran (ninth).

In 2003, defensive tackles Bryan Save, Lavell Mann and Chris Kiffin all ranked among the conference leaders in quarterback sacks. In 2002, Peter Hogan was a first-team all-conference selection.

Porter, a former NFL star, was a first-team all-conference performer in 1998 and played in two postseason all-star games before finishing his career with the Arizona Cardinals in 2012. In 2013 Porter began a coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at CSU while completing his bachelor's degree, and in 2014 was hired by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Porter earned all-pro honors and won a Super Bowl in 2005 as a member of the Steelers, and also played for the Miami Dolphins.

Ross was a two-time first-team all-conference selection in 1996 and '97 and played in the Hula Bowl following his senior season. He later played six years in the NFL as a member of the Cincinnati Bengals.

Smith and Moran each earned first-team honors in 1994 and '95. Smith was the conference's defensive player of the year in 1995. Both played extensively in the NFL.

Haggans initially played for the Pittsburgh Steelers, and was a member of the team's Super Bowl championship team before signing with Arizona, which went to the Super Bowl in his first season there, and then San Francisco, with whom he went to another Super Bowl in 2012.

Ehlers also was responsible for recruiting Gartrell Johnson, who finished his CSU career with the second-most prolific rushing season in program annals. Ehlers formerly served as a defensive line coach at Oregon State (1985-86) as a graduate assistant for the Beavers. In 1987, hewas a graduate assistant working with the defensive line at the University of Arizona.

As a player at Colorado State (1980-84), Ehlers was a four-year starter and letterwinner. He played offensive line and defensive line and was a WAC Scholar-Athlete Award Winner in 1984. On three occasions, he earned academic all-WAC honors.

Born July 10, 1962, in Riverside, Calif., he and his wife Laurie have three children, Annie, Christine and Timothy, and make their home in Fort Collins.

Ehlers graduated from Colorado State in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration, before earning an MBA from Oregon State ('86).

ANTHONEY HILL

Director of Player Development & Community/Alumni Relations

31st Year at CSU | 35th Year Coaching

Anthoney Hill returned to his alma mater in the newly-created role of director of player development and community/alumni relations in March 2015.

Hill previously served as an assistant football coach at CSU from 2008-11, and was a student assistant for the Rams in 1998. He returned to Fort Collins after spending the 2014 season as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at McPherson (Kan.) College and one season as assistant offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Colorado Ice professional indoor football team.

The creation of Hill's position adds an important component to the overall student-athlete experience for the CSU football program, and builds upon the top-notch coaching staff assembled by Bobo in his first year at CSU.

CAREER BACKGROUND

| Seasons | Team/School | Title/Position Coached |
|---|---|---|
| 1996-97 | University City (Calif.) High School | Quarterbacks |
| 1998 | Colorado State | Student Assistant |
| 1999-2000 | University City (Calif.) High School | Off. Coord./QBs |
| 2001-02 | La Jolla (Calif.) High School | Offensive Coordinator |
| 2003-04 | Southwestern (Calif.) College | Offensive Coordinator/TEs |
| 2005-06 | La Jolla (Calif.) High School | Offensive Coordinator |
| 2007 | San Diego (Calif.) High School | Head Coach |
| 2008-10 | Colorado State | Running Backs |
| 2011 | Colorado State | Tight Ends |
| 2012 | Horizon Christian Academy | Asst. Coach/Recruiting Coord. |
| 2013 | Colorado Ice | Assistant Offensive Coord./Quarterbacks |
| 2014 | McPherson (Kan.) Coll. | Pass Game Coordinator/WRs |

Hill, a 1999 graduate of Colorado State with a degree in exercise and sports science, returned to his alma mater for the second time in 2008 as running backs coach on Steve Fairchild's first staff. He served in that role for three years before moving to tight ends coach in 2011.

Prior to joining the Ram's coaching staff in 2008 he spent the previous 12 seasons coaching football at either the high school or college level. He came to Fort Collins after serving in 2007 as head coach at San Diego High School, where his top assistant, former Rams teammate Paul Turner, succeeded him at the helm.

Hill concluded his CSU playing career in 1994 as one of the most exciting players in program history. He played professionally in 1995 as a reserve quarterback for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League before returning home and serving as an assistant coach from 1996-97 at University City (Calif.) High School, where he starred in the late 1980s. At UCHS, he tutored the young field generals who followed in his footsteps and in each of his two years, one of his pupils earned all-league honors. In addition to football, Hill for two seasons was an assistant on both the boys' basketball team and the girls' track and field squad.

He made his first return to Fort Collins in 1998 to work with Colorado State's wide receivers as a student assistant coach and peer mentor while finishing his degree. From 1996 to 2000—before and after his 1998 return to CSU—Hill served on the faculty of UCHS as a teacher's aide and instructional aide. He worked one semester with special-education students, and two semesters with at-risk students. In the latter role, he spearheaded a mentoring and tutoring program for students in danger of dropping out, and saw the program enjoy great results.

Hill then spent two seasons (2003-04) as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, Calif., before coming back to La Jolla (Calif.) High School to serve as the Vikings' offensive coordinator for two more seasons (2005-06), prior to accepting the head coaching position at San Diego High School in 2007.

As a senior in 1994 at CSU, where his position coach was Fairchild and the wide receivers coach was Urban Meyer, Hill led the Rams to a storybook 10-2 season. The quarterback guided CSU to a berth opposite Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today/CNN coaches' poll and a No. 16 slot in the season-ending Associated Press rankings.

That season the Rams were in the nation's Top 10 in five straight polls entering the Holiday Bowl. Hill guided an opportunistic offense to a 21-16 win at No. 4/6 Arizona (Oct. 8), throwing two TD passes against the Wildcats' vaunted "Desert Swarm" defense, as well as wins over two other ranked opponents, No. 18/10 BYU and No. 23/23 Wyoming -- each on the road. All told in 1994, he completed 154 of 290 passes (53.1 percent) for 2,552 yards and 16 TDs, while rushing for 163 yards on 93 attempts, with five TDs, and earned second-team all-conference honors.

A three-year starter (1992-94), Hill left CSU as the school's career total offense leader (7,428 yards), surpassing Kelly Stouffer (6,666). His mark now ranks third after Bradlee Van Pelt (8,579) broke it in 2003 and Garrett Grayson (9,478) topped Van Pelt's mark in 2014. Hill also ranks tied for fifth with 39 career touchdown passes, and sixth in career passing yards (6,309). He was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

A 1990 graduate of San Diego's University City High School, Hill garnered second-team all-city and second-team all-conference recognition, passing for 1,903 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior in 1989. In addition to football, he lettered in basketball and track.

Born Dec. 24, 1971, in San Diego, Anthoney and his wife, Kesha, make their home in Fort Collins. He also has three children, Bakir, Kiara and Deja. Hill earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Colorado State in 1999.

JOE COX

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Joe Cox is in his first season at Colorado State in 2015, serving as a graduate assistant to the offensive coaching staff. The former Georgia quarterback, who started every game in 2009 for current Rams head coach Mike Bobo, joined the staff after coaching for two years at the high school level in his home state of North Carolina.

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14 when the school won back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

As Georgia's starting quarterback in 2009, Cox completed 185 of 331 pass attempts for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, at the time the second-best single-season total in UGA history. An offensive captain, Cox led the Bulldogs to a record of 8-5, and was named Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his five-touchdown, 375-yard performance at Arkansas.

For his career, Cox completed 56 percent of his passes for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns with 16 interceptions. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia in December 2009. Cox was the 2004 state of North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year and AP Prep Player of the Year, and a Parade Magazine All-American at Independence (N.C.) High School. He was the No. 7 quarterback in the nation by Rivals.com and ESPN's Tom Lemming.

ANDREW DODGE

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Andrew Dodge is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Colorado State in 2015. He came to Fort Collins to join Coach Bobo's staff from the University of Central Florida, where he served for two years as a graduate assistant.

At UCF, Dodge assisted the defensive staff for a unit that ranked in the top 10 among FBS schools in 2014 total defense (5th, 298.5), rushing defense (6th, 104.3), scoring defense (9th, 19.2) and red zone defense (6th, 71.4%).

Dodge began working at UCF in 2008. He received his bachelor's degree in 2012 and his master's degree in sport & exercise science in 2014.

In 2012, Dodge volunteered as the wide receivers coach at Timber Creek High School in Orlando, Fla. That season they went to the second round of the Class 8A state playoffs.

RICKY SANTO

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 3rd Year at CSU

Ricky Santo is in his third season as a graduate assistant to the Rams' offensive coaching staff. He joined the CSU staff from Ohio State, where he served as offensive line intern during the Buckeyes' undefeated 2012 season. Santo was part of a staff that produced a 12-0 record, a Big 10 title and a final ranking of No. 3.

Santo worked his way to Ohio State after establishing a well-rounded coaching and teaching career at Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., from 2009-11. He spent all three seasons as an assistant football coach for a program that compiled a 35-4 record and back-to-back District and Metro Conference championships. The 2010 Dr. Phillips team was state runner-up, ranked No. 2 in the state 6A poll and held the No. 22 spot in the final USA Today national high school rankings.

Beginning in 2009, Santo served as defensive line coach (2011), assistant special teams coordinator (2011), assistant linebackers coach (2010), and assistant running backs coach (2009), and was defensive coordinator of the J.V. squad, while also being head coach of the freshman team.

Santo also was head coach of the softball team (2010-11) and head coach of the J.V. baseball team (2010) at Dr. Phillips.

Santo earned his bachelor's degree in engineering and technology with a specialization in building construction from the University of West Florida (Pensacola) in 2007 and an associate's degree in business from Florida Community College at Jacksonville.

WALTER VAUGHN

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Walter Vaughn is in his first season as a graduate assistant for the Rams' defensive coaching staff in 2015. Vaughn joined the Colorado State staff in the spring of 2015 after spending one season as the defensive line coach at Highland (Kansas) Community College.

At Highland CC Vaughn was part of the defensive coaching staff whose unit ranked No. 1 in the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference in sacks. Three of Vaughn's star pupils signed Division 1 scholarships, including Colorado State's Darnell Thompson, as well as Rostell King (Central Arkansas) and Jake Swalley (Arkansas State)

Prior to his year at Highland, Vaughn spent the 2013 season as a defensive quality control coach at Eastern Kentucky. He began his coaching career in 2011 as the defensive line coach at Alcovy High School in Covington, Ga. In his two year at Alcovy, three of his defensive linemen went on to sign Division I scholarships, including Curtiss Benton and Okon Godwin (Appalachian State) and Jaquin Ross (Presbyterian College).

Vaughn played college football at Southeastern Louisiana University, where he was a three-year starter and four-year letterman (2005-08). Vaughn earned his bachelor's degree in management from Southeastern in 2009.

HEATH PULVER

Special Teams Quality Control | 4th Year at CSU

Heath Pulver is in his fourth year with the Rams in 2015, assisting special teams coordinator Jeff Hammerschmidt with those units.

Prior to his move to Fort Collins, Pulver spent four seasons with the Eastern Washington Eagles. He began as a student assistant for the defense in 2008 and '09 before coaching the tight ends in 2010 and '11. Pulver received his bachelor's degree from EWU in interdisciplinary studies with a minor in art and history in 2009.

In 2010, Pulver coached honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference tight end Matt Martin, as well as a pair of young freshmen – Zack Gehring and Ryan Seto. That trio combined for 30 catches for 349 yards and three touchdowns as Eastern went on to finish 13-2 and win the NCAA Division I FCS title.

A 2000 graduate of University High School in Spokane, Wash., Pulver redshirted as a defensive tackle at Eastern Oregon in the fall of 2000. He returned and coached running backs at University High School from 2001-02, then spent five years at Montana. Pulver was a student manager for the Grizzlies in 2003, and from 2004-07 he was a student assistant coach for the offense before enrolling at EWU in 2008.

JOHN MICHAEL CLAY

Assistant Football Strength & Conditioning | 1st Year at CSU

John Michael Clay is in his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at Colorado State in 2015. # MICHAEL RAY

Assistant Football Strength & Conditioning | 2nd Year at CSU

Michael Ray is in his second season as an assistant strength & condititiong coach for CSU football in 2015.

He joined the Rams in 2014 after spending the previous three years as an assistant sports performance coach at Wyoming, where his primary focus was with the football team.

A former Cowboys football defensive back, Ray assisted with all aspects of the football sports performance program. He was responsible for writing and implementing the training programs for all freshmen and developmental players; writing the pre-activity preparation as well as the plyometric programs for football; assisting with all aspects of the Cowboys' NFL Pro Day preparation and conducting workouts for injured football student-athletes during practice.

Prior to his position at Wyoming, Ray served as an assistant in the Arizona State University Sports Performance area within the ASU athletics department from January 2009 to January 2011. He was responsible for planning and implementing the strength & conditioning regimens for the women's volleyball, men's golf and women's tennis programs. Ray also assisted with the speed program for ASU football players leading up to the NFL Combine and Pro-timing days at Arizona State.

As a student-athlete with the Cowboys, Ray appeared in 43 career games and started 13 at strong safety. He tallied 68 total tackles, five pass breakups and one interception.

Ray earned his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology and health promotion from Wyoming in May 2009 and his master of education degree in curriculum and instruction from Arizona State in May 2011. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Michael and his wife Sara, a letterwinner on Wyoming's 2006 volleyball team, have two sons, Jordan and Jaxon. Sara was hired in June 2014 as CSU's director of student-athlete support services.

JOE MCKAY

Strength & Conditioning Graduate Assistant | 2nd Year at CSU

Joe McKay is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach with Colorado State's football strength and conditioning staff in 2015. He entered the positon in 2014 after completing his playing career with the Rams.

McKay played in 37 career games as a Ram, including all 14 games on special teams and as a reserve on offense in his senior season of 2013. That year Colorado State capped the season with a victory in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl over Washington State.

For his career McKay recorded nine tackles, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and a blocked punt on special teams. He scored his lone career touchdown in 2013 on a 2-yard reception from Garrett Grayson at Tulsa, Sept. 7.

McKay earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Colorado State in the spring of 2013, prior to his final season of eligibility.

McKay was a four-year letterman in basketball, baseball and football at Akron (Colo.) High School, leading his team to three consecutive Class 1A football state championships from 2006-08. He earned all-state in both football and baseball. McKay graduated as valedictorian in 2009.

MIKE STACCHIOTTI

Strength & Conditioning Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Mike Stacchiotti is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach with Colorado State's football strength and conditioning staff in 2015. He came to Fort Collins after spending the 2014-15 school year as a strength and conditioning intern at Mississippi State.

Stacchiotti was a three-year letterwinner and a team captain as a middle linebacker and fullback at Baldwin-Wallace University in Berea, Ohio. He finished his career with 120 tackles, including a team-high 72 as a junior in 2012. Stacchiotti earned his bachelor's degree from the school in exercise science in 2014.

A native of Girard, Ohio, Stacchiotti was a four-year football letterwinner as a middle linebacker at Girard High School. As a senior he was named to the All-American Conference team, the All-Northeast Ohio team, and the All-Ohio team as he helped lead his team to the first undefeated regular season in school history. Stacchiotti was the County Defensive Co-Captain and a McDonald's McScholar Athlete. His father, Jim, played football at Syracuse.

GEOFF MARTZEN

Geoff Martzen is in his first season as Colorado State's director of player personnel in 2015.

Martzen plays a key role in CSU's overall recruiting efforts, coordinating several aspects of the Rams' year-round student-athlete recruitment process. He serves as a link between the coaching and support staff to develop student-athletes on and off the field, including strength and conditioning coaches and academic coordinators. Additionally, Martzen serves as the liaison between CSU and NFL scouts for Pro Day events, and assists with camps, clinics and other football-related activities.

Martzen came to Colorado State from BYU, where he was a player personnel and on-campus recruiting coordinator. Some of his key responsibilities were to identify prospects, plan on-campus recruiting events, stay up-to-date with recruits via social media and provide recruiting aids for coaches.

Before joining the Cougars' staff, Martzen assisted in coordinating the recruitment of high school and junior college recruits at Boise State in 2013 and Alabama in 2012.

Martzen earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Fresno State, and started working towards a master's degree at Alabama and Boise State.

LEAH KNIGHT

Leah Knight is in her first season as Colorado State's assistant director of football operations in 2015.

Knight came to Fort Collins from the University of South Florida, where she spent two seasons as a recruiting operations coordinator from 2013-14.

At Colorado State, Knight handles a variety of duties including assisting director of football operations Tom Ehlers with day-to-day operations, coordinating details for football camps and clinics, and helping with recruiting while working closely with director of player personnel Geoff Martzen.

While at USF, Knight helped secure the consensus No. 1 ranked 2014 recruiting class in the American Athletic Conference. Additionally, she managed 20 student workers to help with day-to-day recruiting tasks and planned and coordinated many aspects of official and unofficial visits.

Prior to joining the Bulls, the Fayette, Ala., native was a member of the University of Alabama's student recruitment team, where she helped sign the nation's top recruiting class in 2013.

Knight, graduated from Alabama with a degree in public relations and a minor in general business.

JOHNNY SQUARE

Team Advisor | Second Decade at CSU

Johnny Square has been mentoring CSU student-athletes for nearly two decades.

A student-athlete attending Colorado State receives an education from one of the nation's premier institutions of higher learning. But the education a student-athlete receives at CSU extends far beyond the classroom and the football field. Rams' Head Coach Mike Bobo and his staff painstakingly work individually and collectively with student-athletes to provide cultural, social and economic guidance as part of their overall educational experience.

Square, a former football player at CSU who lettered four years from 1972-75 and played alongside former athletics director Mark Driscoll, provides valuable leadership and guidance to various student-athletes in the Rams' program.

Square has the unique perspective of having competed at the collegiate level, and faced many of the same personal challenges present in the lives of student-athletes in today's world. He provides that guidance individually and to various groups in the Rams' program as part of the educational experience available at Colorado State.

He also adds another unique perspective: Not only did he compete as a collegian and later play in the NFL, Johnny and his wife, Vicki, are the parents of two former CSU student-athletes. Daughter Justine was a women's basketball player for the Rams, while son Alex was a running back on Colorado State's football team from 2005-09.

In 1989, Square founded Iasis Christ Fellowship, launching the church in 1994 with a heart for serving the Fort Collins community.

Also a leader in the city, Square has helped organize a Pastor's Prayer Fellowship, which has been meeting monthly for nearly 20 years. He also serves as a chaplain with the Fort Collins Police Department.

Johnny and Vicki have lived in the Fort Collins community for more than a quarter century.

JIMMY STEWART

Mental Health Services | 2nd Year at CSU

Jimmy Stewart was hired in 2014 to make his 15 years of experience in the mental health and wellness field available to CSU's student-athletes and staff. He is a National Certified Counselor (NCC), and Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist (LMFT) in Louisiana, North Carolina & Colorado.

Stewart spent the previous 10 years in private practice and as an athletic consultant since 2005 to a number of universities, including Tulane, where he provided support for student-athletes impacted by Hurricane Katrina. He also worked in counseling centers at UNC Asheville and Loyola University and has worked on military bases as a consultant to military personnel through the Department of Defense.

Stewart was a football student-athlete at Tulsa (1974-76). He earned second-team Associated Press All America and Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1976. His Tulsa teammates included former Tulsa head coach Bill Blankenship, Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Lovie Smith, Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Largent and current Tulane A.D. Rick Dickson. Stewart completed his bachelor's degree in marketing at the University of New Orleans, and in 1999 completed his Master of Education Counseling from the University of New Orleans.

Stewart was drafted in the eighth round by New Orleans in 1977 and played two seasons there before playing for Detroit and New England. He worked in New Orleans for 20 years in the oil industry as a marketing professional for a publicly-held company. Jimmy and his wife Melissa reside in Fort Collins with their son Sam. His daughter, Kati Hill, her husband Brian and son Jackson reside in New Orleans.w

Medical Support Staff

The medical support staff at Colorado State University is second to none. The experienced staff that works with CSU student-athletes is charged with evaluating, diagnosing, treating and rehabilitating athletes in each of the Rams' 16 varsity programs. Along with the Colorado State athletic training staff, CSU's medical team enjoys state-of-the-art facilities and equipment that give Rams athletes the ability to be successful.

2014 (Sophomore): Did not play; spent season as a varsity reserve.

2013 (Freshman): Did not play; spent season as a varsity reserve.

2012 (Redshirt): May have played as a true freshman, but injured his knee early in the year and wound up redshirting in his first season of college eligibility.

High School: Served as a key component in helping Valor Christian, one of Colorado's most dominant programs, to consecutive state championships in 2009 and `10...Played just one full season in south suburban Denver at VCHS, after overcoming a broken leg his senior year and state rules that forced him to sit out his sophomore campaign after transferring from Regis Jesuit High School, his home as a freshman...Was a first-team all-conference defensive lineman as a junior in 2009, before playing mostly on offense as a senior...A solid yet unsung lead blocker, helped pave the road for an offense that totaled 3,361 yards and 42 touchdowns on the ground, and averaged 7.1 yards per carry in 2010, the program's first in Class 4A...Sustained a broken fibula in Valor Christian's 2010 opener, and missed the ensuing four games, before returning for the balance of the regular season and run to the Colorado state title...Without him in their backfield, the Eagles (11-3) were just 3-3, losing three of their first four, then went 8-0 after his return...An excellent short-yardage ball-carrier, had 212 yards on 43 totes (4.9 avg.), with six TDs in 2010... Broke open a close Broomfield game to help propel VCHS into the state championship contest, scoring back-to-back touchdowns, a 3-yard run and an 8-yard reception, his only catch of the 2010 season...Also scored the first points of that state title game, against Wheat Ridge at Invesco Field in Denver, with a 4-yard run to snap a scoreless tie in the second quarter...As a junior in 2009, started on both sides of the line and scored nine touchdowns, seven on the ground, one on a reception and one on defense...In his first year at VCHS (14-0), the Class 3A state champion, started the entire year at fullback and defensive line, where he garnered first-team all-Metro Conference honors...Had five sacks - second on a defense that exasperated the state in 2009 -- and 45 tackles (20 solo)...Also flashed his speed as a junior, scoring on a 73-yard touchdown run, one of his 86 carries for 442 yards and seven scores...Caught two passes for 12 yards in 2009, with one TD...Head football coach was Brent Vieselmeyer...Also lettered in track for the Eagles, throwing the shot and discus...A competitive weightlifter with exceptional strength, received first-team All-America honors in the sport from the National Collegiate Scouting Association...Top bench press as a prep was 330 pounds...Did not receive recruiting interest from other schools, primarily because true fullbacks generally don't see serious attention until late in their senior years, and also because of his broken leg.

Personal: Full name is George Talanoa Maumau...Born Aug. 7, 1993, in Honolulu, Hawaii...Has taken the surname of his uncle and aunt, the legal guardians that raised him, Vili and Michele Maumau...Has two younger brothers and one younger sister...Uncle and guardian, Vili Maumau, played defensive tackle at Colorado in the mid-1990s, was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the 1998 NFL Draft, and spent two years in the NFL...Another uncle, Chris Maumalanga, played defensive tackle at Kansas, was drafted in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft, and played for several teams...Cousin, Sam Tai, is a defensive end at UCLA...Another cousin, Mario Fatafehi, was the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year and a first-team all-conference defensive tackle at Kansas State, played in the NFL with the Cardinals, Panthers and Broncos, and finished his career in the CFL...Spent time at Children's Hospital in high school during a celebration of World Down Syndrome Day...Majoring in liberal arts at Colorado State, with an eye on a career in law enforcement...Hometown: Denver, Colo.

| COLORADO | 17 | Friday, Aug. 29, 2014Sports Authority Field at Mile HighDenver, Colo.Attendance: 63,363 |

- During Friday's season-opener, 17 Rams saw their first action in the green and gold uniform:
- CSU's 14-point victory was their largest victory over Colorado since the Rams' 41-14 victory in 1999. The Buffs' last score came at the 9:47 mark of the third quarter. After that point, the Rams rattled off 21 unanswered points.
- Running back Dee Hart entered the game on the third play, a third-and-14, and rushed for seven yards. In the end, Hart rushed for a career high 139 yards on 22 carries and two touchdowns. Tonight's two scores were Hart's second and third collegiate touchdowns. His first came in Alabama's 49-0 victory over Tennessee-Chattanooga on Nov. 23, 2013.
- In the first half, Hart accounted for 72 of Colorado State's 119 total yards, with 58 coming on the - ground and 14 receiving yards.
- Treyous Jarrells, a junior college transfer from Grossmont College, recorded his first rush early in the second quarter, taking the handoff for seven yards. Jarrells was dominant in the second half rushing for over 100 yards before finishing with 121 yards.
- The last time Colorado State had two 100-yard rushers in one game was Sept. 28, 2002 at Nevada when QB Bradlee Van Pelt (128) and Cecil Sapp (125) each eclipsed the 100-yard mark. The last time CSU had two running backs rush for 100 yards in the same game was in 1996, in the Rams' season-opener against Tennessee-Chattanooga (Jaime Blake - 138, Calvin Branch 127).
- Senior quarterback Garrett Grayson became only the third CSU quarterback to defeat Colorado twice in - his career.
- The Rams did not get off to the fast start that the coaching staff wanted. In the first quarter CSU could only manage 26 yards of total offense, but over the next three quarters the team racked up 349 yards of total offense.
- The Rams rushed for 266 yards, while the Buffs ran for 134. Under McElwain, the Rams are 12-1 when outrushing their opponent.
- Head Coach Jim McElwain is the first CSU head coach since Bob Davis to defeat in-state Colorado twice in his first three seasons.

GAME 2
Saturday, Sept. 6, 2014
Lyle Smith Field at Albertsons Stadium
Boise, Idaho
Attendance: 34,910

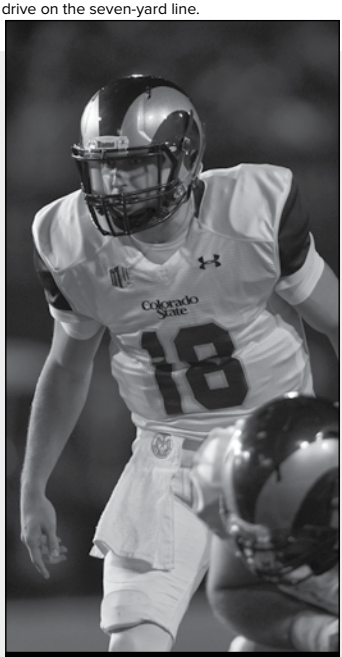

- Senior quarterback Garrett Grayson threw for 434 yards, making tonight his seventh game with more than 300 passing yards. This ties Scooter Molander for second-most in a career. Terry Nugent holds the CSU record with eight games of at least 300 passing yards.
- Grayson's 434 passing yards ties for the second-most in CSU single-game history with Terry Nugent. Nugent passed for 434 yards on Oct. 29, 1983 vs. New Mexico.
- The native of Vancouver, Wash., set a career-high with 58 pass attempts, which also ties for the most in single-game CSU history with Terry Nugent (Nov. 6, 1982 vs. UNLV).
- Grayson compiled 428 yards of total offense (434 passing, -6 rushing), this is the second-most total offensive yards in a single game by a CSU player. Grayson holds the single-game record with 445 yards of total offense at home last year vs. Boise State.
- Sophomore wide receiver Rashard Higgins steps up his play when it comes to facing Boise State. On Saturday, Higgins registered a career-best 11 receptions for 143 yards. The 143 yards are the second-most of his career. The native of Mesquite, Texas, has recorded 21 receptions for 242 yards in two games.
- Junior wide receiver Joe Hansley hauled in a career-long 55-yard reception, a touchdown early in the fourth quarter.
- Hansley finished the game with seven catches for a career-high 149 yards. His previous high was 102 receiving yards against New Mexico on Nov. 24, 2012.
- Tight end Steven Walker registered his first career touchdown late in the first quarter. The 24-yard scoring reception was also the longest catch of his career.
- Senior wide receiver Charles Lovett now has a catch in 23 consecutive games that he has played in. He hauled in a five-yard reception in the second quarter. Lovett's last game without a catch was on Nov. 19, 2011 at TCU.
- Trent Matthews registered his sixth career interception, stopping a Boise State drive on the seven-yard line.

GAME 3
Saturday, Sept. 13, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 21,202

- Saturday marked the 10th time under offensive coordinator Dave Baldwin that the Rams eclipsed 500 yards of total offense. The Rams had one game of more than 500 total offensive yards in 2012, a school-record eight in 2013 and one so far in 2014.
- Colorado State's 21 first-quarter points are the most in the opening quarter since Oct. 30, 2010 when the Rams hung 21 on New Mexico. CSU went on to win that contest 38-14.
- This is the second consecutive week the Rams have blocked a kick. Last week defensive lineman Joe Kawulok blocked a PAT and this afternoon DB Trent Matthews got his hands on a 25-yard field goal attempt by UC Davis.
- Saturday's 49 points against UC Davis are the most the Rams have scored on a current member of the FCS since defeating South Dakota State 52-20 on Nov. 6, 1965.
- CSU's 452 passing yards are the most by the Rams in a single game. The previous high was 449 passing yards at Hawai'i in 1987. Furthermore, the Rams' 676 yards of total offense is the second-most in a single game by CSU. The Rams tallied a school-record 693 yards of total offense against Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1996.
- The Rams racked up 10.1 yards per play on Saturday afternoon, the second-most all-time at Colorado State. The record, 11.6 yards per play, was set in 1996 vs. Tennessee-Chattanooga.
- Senior QB Garrett Grayson completed 22-of-31 passes for 425 yards and four touchdowns. Grayson now has 40 career touchdown passes, a mark that is tied for the third-most in school history with Terry Nugent (1980-83). His 6,177 career passing yards are the seventh-most in school history.
- Grayson is the first CSU QB to throw for 400 yards in back-to-back games since Terry Nugent in 1983. Nugent threw 434 yards against New Mexico on Oct. 29 and then 418 vs. Northern Colorado on Nov. 5.
- Sophomore WR Rashard Higgins had seven receptions for 147 yards and two touchdowns. That puts him over the 1,000-yard receiving mark in just 17 games. Higgins has 1,143 yards on 87 receptions.

GAME 4
Saturday, Sept. 27
Alumni Stadium
Chestnut Hill, Mass.
Attendance: 33,632

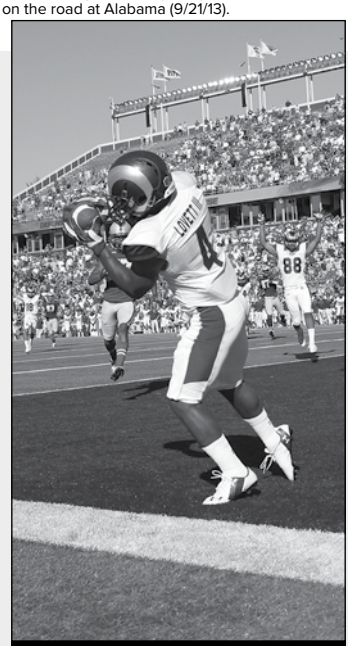

- The Rams have now rattled off three consecutive victories over teams from Power 5 conferences. CSU began the streak by defeating Washington State in the 2013 New Mexico Bowl. From there the Rams beat Colorado in the 2014 season-opener and Boston College on the road.
- Colorado State is one of only three teams from the Group of 5 conferences that has notched at least one win over a team from the Power 5 conferences in each of the past three seasons (UL-Monroe and Northern Illinois).
- With today's 24-21 win at Boston College the Rams moved to 3-1 on the season, and are 9-3 in their last 12 games, the most successful 12-game stretch for the program since the 2002 team began the season 10-2.
- Today's CSU win also was unique in two ways: It marked just the second time under McElwain that CSU has won a game in which the opponent outrushed the Rams (239 to 162 today), against 14 losses, and was just CSU's fourth win under McElwain in a game in which it lost the turnover battle (-1 today), against 10 losses).
- The Rams' today rushed for 162 yards against Boston College, the nation's 18th-ranked rushing defense entering the game (98.5) and gained 430 total yards against the nation's 11th-ranked overall defense (273.0).
- Boston College, the nation's No. 3 rushing offense (336.3) which had logged 452 and 413 rushing yards in its last two games (vs. USC and Maine), rushed for 239 today, nearly 100 yards below its season average.
- The Eagles boasted the nation's No. 4 ranking for rushing differential entering today, at 238 yards per game, but managed just a 77-yard margin today, 161 below its average.
- Redshirt junior linebacker Cory James recorded two tackles, including two tackles for loss and one sack, during Saturday's victory. James' sack late in the fourth quarter moved him up to the 10th-spot on CSU's all-time sack list. He now has 17.5 career sacks.
- The Rams got their second takeaway of 2014 when senior CB Bernard Blake picked off Tyler Murphy early in the fourth quarter. That was Blake's second interception of his career. His first interception came on the road at Alabama (9/21/13).

GAME 5
Saturday, Oct. 4, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 25,806

- The Rams are 10-3 in their last 13 games as a program, and started 4-1 for the first time since 2006.
- The Rams went undefeated in non-conference play (4-0) for the first time since 1994.
- At Hughes Stadium, the Rams have won nine of their last 11 games and four consecutive games.
- The Rams' second scoring drive (2 plays – 46 yards) lasted only 34 seconds. This is CSU's second scoring drive under one minute this season, and the fastest since the 2013 Gildan New Mexico Bowl vs. Washington State. In that game, CSU scored twice in under 15 seconds.
- Sophomore wide receiver Rashard Higgins hauled in six receptions for 178 yards and four touchdowns. Higgins' four receiving touchdowns set a CSU single-game record and tied the Mountain West record, which was previously set seven times. Entering action this week, no player in the NCAA had hauled in more than three receiving touchdowns in a single game.
- Late in the first half, Higgins hauled in his 100th career reception. Higgins reached triple digits in the fewest amount of games (19) in CSU history. The record was previously held by Rashaun Greer, who caught his 100th pass in his 24th game.
- Junior defensive lineman Joe Kawoluk recorded 3.5 sacks on Saturday, tying for the fourth-most in a single game by a CSU defender, and the most since Nordly Capi's 3.5 at New Mexico on Sept. 3, 2011.
- Running back Dee Hart registered a career-best 143 rushing yards and two touchdowns. On CSU's first drive, Hart broke off a career-long 53-yard rush, which set up his first rushing touchdown.
- Jasen Oden Jr., a converted safety, also ran for a career-high 90 yards, 63 of which came on one rush in the first quarter. His 63-yard scamper was a career-best.
- On CSU's second defensive series, defensive back Preston Hodges recorded his first career interception. The former running back (at Bakersfield CC) returned it 12 yards.
- DB Trent Matthews registered his seventh career interception when he ended a Tulsa drive by picking off a pass in the end zone.

GAME 6
Saturday, Oct. 11, 2014
Chris Ault Field at Mackay Stadium
Reno, Nev.
Attendance: 21,847

- The Rams are 5-1 for the first time since 2000. That year, CSU went 10-2 and were Mountain West champions. Saturday also marked CSU's fourth consecutive victory, the longest win streak the Rams have put together in a single season since 2002. That year CSU won six consecutive games.
- CSU has won five of its last seven true road games dating back to last season, the most successful road stretch since winning five of six during the 2002-03 season. Including neutral site games, CSU has won seven of its last nine games outside Fort Collins.
- Senior QB Garrett Grayson completed 26-of-36 passes for 326 yards and three touchdowns on Saturday. The 36 pass attempts moved him into third-place for career passing attempts with 872.
- Grayson threw for his ninth 300-yard game of his career, which is a school record. Terry Nugent (1980-83) previously held the record with eight 300-yard passing games.
- Sophomore Rashard Higgins has quickly become Grayson's favorite target. On Saturday night, Higgins caught 10 receptions for a career-high 194 yards and two touchdowns.
- On the season, the sophomore wide receiver has 44 receptions for 776 yards and 10 touchdowns. The 10 receiving touchdowns is tied for the most nationally with Colorado's Nelson Spruce, while the 776 receiving yards rank third-most.
- Higgins' 194 receiving yards are the most by a Mountain West pass-catcher this season and the 16th-most nationally. It is also the second-most receiving yards by a CSU player in a road contest, behind Willie Miller's 230 at Arizona State on Nov. 23, 1974.
- Senior kicker Jared Roberts set the Mountain West and Colorado State record for consecutive PATs made when he connected on the point after attempt after the Rams' first score. The record was previously held by CSU kicker Jason Smith, who made 86 in-a-row. Roberts extended the record to 90.
- Junior linebacker Cory James recorded his 18th career sack in the second quarter, putting him in a tie for 7th-place with Shaquil Barrett (2010-13), Robert Chirico (1987-90) and Eric Shaller (1986-90).

GAME 7
Saturday, Oct. 18, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 32,546

- Saturday's announced attendance was 32,546.
- According to CSU Athletics legend Gary Ozzello, today marks only the second advanced sellout in Colorado State history. The first advanced sellout came in anticipation of CSU's Sept. 14, 2002 contest vs. Louisville (31,607).
- Saturday is the first sellout since the Rams hosted Wyoming on Oct. 22, 2004 (30,108). At that time, Hughes Stadium's capacity was 30,000.
- Tonight was the largest crowd at Hughes Stadium since 2006 vs. UNLV.
- Senior quarterback Garrett Grayson was 20-of-31 for 243 yards. He became CSU's all-time leading passer with 7,250 passing yards. The record was previously held by Kelly Stouffer (7,142; 1984-86).
- Grayson now has five career fourth-quarter comebacks, which ties for the fourth-most among active FBS quarterbacks.
- Sophomore wide receiver Rashard Higgins caught 10 passes for 187 yards. This is Higgins' third-consecutive game with at least 175 receiving yards. The last FBS pass-catcher to accomplish this feat was Michael Crabtree (Texas Tech) in 2007.
- In his 21-game career, Higgins has 1,758 receiving yards, which is just 90 yards short of cracking the top-10 all-time CSU receiving list.
- The Rams are bowl-eligible in the fewest amount of games (7) since 2000, when CSU also became bowl-eligible after the first seven games.
- CSU's five-game winning streak is its longest in a single season since 2002, when the Rams rattled off six consecutive victories.
- The Rams have now won five consecutive games at Hughes Stadium and 10 of their last 12, dating back to the 2012 season. Colorado State has now won 12 of its last 15 games overall.
- Utah State's running back Joe Hill busted off a 59-yard touchdown run, but the CSU defense contained him to just five yards on his other eight carries, including his five carries in the second half that registered for a net of zero yards.

GAME 8
Saturday, Oct. 25, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 32,529

- The Rams have rattled off six consecutive victories, the longest win streak Colorado State has put together in a single season since 2002, when they also won six straight.
- The Rams are 13-3 in their last 16 games as a program, and started 7-1 this year for the first time since 2000
- Sophomore WR Rashard Higgins, who caught five passes for 174 yards and two touchdowns is currently the nation's leading receiver in terms of yards (1,137) and receiving touchdowns (12). The 1,137 receiving yards ranks fourth in CSU single-season history. David Anderson holds the top spot (1,293 yards in 2003). The 12 receiving touchdowns are the most by a CSU pass-catcher in a single season. On the year, Higgins is averaging 40.1 yards per touchdown.
- Higgins became the first FBS pass-catcher with at least 170 receiving yards in four consecutive games since Missouri's Danario Alexander (2009).
- Tonight, he became the first CSU receiver to record more than 1,000 receiving yards in a single season in fewer than 10 games. After eight games, Higgins has 1,038 receiving yards. The previous best was set twice by David Anderson, who reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark in 10 games in 2003 and 2005. The record was previously held by Dion Morton (2008) and Jeff Champine (1981), who both had 10 receiving touchdowns.
- On Saturday, senior quarterback Garrett Grayson became Colorado State's all-time passing touchdown leader, passing Moses Moreno, who threw 51 from 1994-97. Grayson threw a career-best five touchdown passes, tied for the second-most in a single game by a CSU quarterback. This gives him 53 passing touchdowns in his career. The five touchdown passes are the most in a game by a CSU quarterback since Matt Newton's five touchdowns at Air Force (Nov. 11, 2000).
- When Grayson hit Joe Hansley for a 65-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, Grayson became Colorado State's all-time pass completions leader. Grayson now has 587 career completions. The record was previously held by Kelly Stouffer (1984-86), who had 577 pass completions.

GAME 9
Saturday, Nov. 1, 2014
Spartan Stadium
San Jose, Calif.
Attendance: 17,887

- Colorado State earned its first victory in San Jose, Calif. since 1997. Saturday was also the Rams' first victory in the state of California since 2008, when the Rams defeated San Diego State.
- The Rams' 8-1 start to the season is the best by the Rams since 2000 when they also began 8-1.
- CSU's 4-1 start in conference play is the best since the 4-1 start in Mountain West play in 2005.
- The Rams' seven-game winning streak is the longest in a single season since 1997 (9).
- This winning streak is fourth-longest active streak among all FBS teams. Florida State has the longest at 24 consecutive wins.
- Entering Saturday, San Jose State were only allowing 89 passing yards per game. Senior quarterback Garrett Grayson threw for 290 yards on the Spartans. The previous most they allowed was 135 to Auburn's Nick Marshall.
- Sophomore wide receiver Rashard Higgins hauled in eight receptions for 143 yards and scored one touchdown in Saturday's win. He became the first CSU pass-catcher to record at least 100 receiving yards in five consecutive games.
- Higgins now has a nation-leading 13 receiving touchdowns, which extends his school record.
- Junior running back Dee Hart recorded a career-high four rushing touchdowns, which ties for the most by a Mountain West running back this season (SDSU's Donnel Pumphrey vs. UNLV) and tied for fifth-most among all FBS rushers.
- Senior Aaron Davis tied a career-high with 15 tackles, while recording his first-career interception. Davis' interception ended a Spartans drive which was deep inside CSU territory.
- Junior linebacker Cory James' strip-sack in the first quarter was his 20th career sack. James is now tied with Joey Porter (1995-98) with the fifth-most sacks in Colorado State history. This was also James' fourth career forced fumble.
- Freshman defensive lineman Josh Lovingood jumped on the loose ball, giving the Rams defense their first fumble recovery of the season.
- Jared Roberts' 53-yard field goal in the second quarter ties as the 10th-longest in Colorado State history.

GAME 10
Saturday, Nov. 8, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 25,236

- Saturday's attendance was 25,236. This is the first season since 2005-06 that the Rams have had four consecutive home games with at least 25,000 fans in attendance.
- Colorado State has its first 9-1 start since 1994, when the Sonny Lubick-led Rams started 10-1. This is the Rams' ninth 9-win season since the program was formed in 1893.
- The eight-game winning streak is the longest in a single season by a CSU team since 1997 when the Rams won nine straight. This remains the fourth-longest active win streak nationally, behind Florida State (25), Mississippi State (12) and Marshall (10).
- At Hughes Stadium, the Rams have won seven consecutive games, and 12 of their last 14 games, dating back to the 2012 season. This is the best period of success at home for the Rams since winning 15-of-17 stretching across the 1997-2001 seasons.
- Under Head Coach Jim McElwain and offensive coordinator Dave Baldwin, the Rams have eclipsed 500 yards of total offense 13 times and scored at least 40 points in 10 games.
- The victory is CSU's third on the season by four possessions or more. The last time the Rams accomplished this was in 1997.
- CSU's 49 points scored tied a season best (also vs. UC Davis; 49-17).
- CSU has scored 40-plus points nine times in the past two seasons. CSU reached that mark nine times from 2005-12.
- The Rams' six-play 94-yard scoring drive in the third quarter was their longest of the season (previous was 91).
- CSU scored on its opening drive for the fourth home game in a row. The Rams have scored first in all five home contests.
- Redshirt-freshman wide receiver Elroy Masters, Jr. made his first career start. He played in all nine previous contests this season.
- Masters recorded his first career touchdown catch on Colorado State's first drive when he hauled in an eight-yard touchdown pass from Garrett Grayson. Masters finished with 1 reception for 8 yards.
- Senior quarterback Garrett Grayson set the CSU single-season record when he connected with Charles Lovett for a 52-yard touchdown late in the first quarter. Grayson now has 26 passing touchdowns on the season.

GAME 11
Saturday, Nov. 22, 2014
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 22,131

- Colorado State this season recorded its highest average home attendance since 2005. In the six games at Hughes Stadium, the attendance average was 26,575. In 2005, the average home attendance was 29,347.
- With today's win, the Rams have now won 16 of their last 19 games dating back to a 52-22 win at Wyoming on Oct. 19, 2013. Only three FBS schools have won more games in their last 19; Florida State (19-0), Michigan State and Marshall (17-2). Furthermore, CSU has won eight consecutive home games, and 13 of their last 15 at Hughes Stadium. This is the best period of success at home since winning 15-of-17 across the 1997-2001 seasons.
- Colorado State is 10-1 for only the second time ever, with the first 10-1 start coming in 1994. That season the Rams finished 10-2.
- The Rams have now won nine consecutive games, the longest winning streak in a single season by CSU since 1997. The 1997 squad also rattled off nine straight wins. This remains the third-longest active streak nationally.
- The Rams finished undefeated at home (6-0) for the first time since 2000 (5-0), and fourth time overall since 1955.
- On Saturday CSU set a single-game school record racking up 698 yards of total offense (406 passing, 292 rushing). The previous best was 693 yards vs. Tennessee-Chattanooga (8/31/96).
- The Rams converted 9-of-15 (60%) third downs today, to improve their season conversion rate to 52.3 percent (78-149). With one game to play, CSU is on pace to shatter the previous school record of 46.3% in 1985.
- The Rams offense is averaging 500.2 yards of total offense through 11 games, which is on pace to crush the school record of 470.8 set last season in 2013.
- CSU's 32 first downs on Saturday were the fifth-most in a single game in school history.
- In 2014, the Rams have a 3,000-yard passer (Garrett Grayson), 1,000-yard receiver (Rashard Higgins) and 1,000-yard rusher (Dee Hart). This is only the second time in program history the Rams have accomplished this feat. In 2005, QB Justin Holland threw for 3,185 yards, WR David Anderson had 1,221 yards and RB Kyle Bell rushed for 1,288 yards.

GAME 12
Friday, Nov. 28, 2014
Falcon Stadium
USAFA, Colo.
Attendance: 32,650

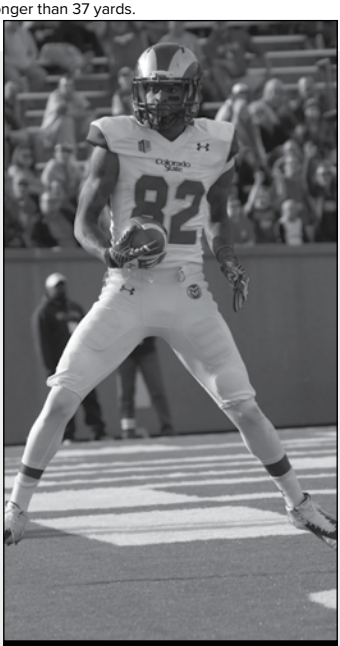

- The Rams' 10 wins in the regular season tie for the most all-time. It is the fourth 10-win regular season in program history.
- On the first drive, sophomore WR Rashard Higgins caught four passes for 71 yard, including a seven-yard touchdown. He finished the game with a career-high 12 receptions for 193 yards and two touchdowns. The 193 receiving yards is the second-most by Higgins, falling just one-yard short of tying his career-best set at Nevada on Oct. 11, 2014.
- The 12 receptions are tied for the second-most in a single game by a CSU receiver, and it is the most by a CSU pass-catcher since David Anderson's 12 receptions at Colorado on Sept. 3, 2005.
- On the year, Higgins has hauled in a school-record 89 receptions for 1,640 yards and 17 touchdowns. He leads the nation in receiving yards, receiving touchdowns and receiving yards per game. David Anderson previously held the CSU single-season receptions record with 86 in 2005.
- Friday is his seventh consecutive 100-yard receiving game for Higgins, and eighth of the year. These are both school records.
- Senior QB Garrett Grayson completed 23 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns. He now owns the Colorado State career pass attempts record, which was previously held by Kelly Stouffer (1,015 attempts from 1984-86). In his career, Grayson has attempted passes 1,051. He also broke his record for single-season passing yards by a CSU QB.
- Linebacker Cory James recorded a career-high 10 tackles and his 22nd career sack. James remains in fifth-place among CSU defenders for career sacks. One more sack will move James into fourth-place.
- Junior running back Dee Hart rushed for 115 yards on Friday at Air Force. This is seventh 100-yard rushing performance of the season, which is the most in a single-season by a CSU rusher.
- Colorado State scored on its opening drive for the third consecutive game. Defensively, Air Force is only the second opponent to score on CSU on its opening drive. The other opponent to score on its first drive was Boise State (9/6).
- In the final three quarters, the Rams defense only allowed one drive that was longer than 37 yards.

GAME 13
Saturday, Dec. 20, 2014
Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 33,067

- Colorado State finished the season with a 10-3 record, tied for the second-most wins in a single season by a CSU team, and the most in a single season since 1997.
- In 14 bowl appearances, the Rams have compiled a 6-8 record.
- Saturday's attendance was 33,067, the 10th largest crowd in Las Vegas Bowl history.
- The Rams secured the school record for yards of total offense per game with 480.9, surpassing last year's total of 470.8.
- In the first quarter, quarterback Garrett Grayson caught his third career pass, a 39-yard touchdown pass from Charles Lovett, but it was his first reception that was actually intended for him. Grayson's first two receptions came in 2013 off of deflected passes.
- Lovett's touchdown pass was his third of his career and first since 2011. As a sophomore in 2011, the native of Tampa, Fla., threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Crockett Gillmore vs. Colorado (Sept. 17) and a 20-yard touchdown strike to Matt Yemm vs. Boise State (Oct. 15).
- Grayson finished his senior season with 4,006 passing yards, becoming the first CSU quarterback to eclipse the 4,000-yard mark. Additionally, Grayson is the third Mountain West quarterback to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a single season. The 4,006 passing yards mark the fourth-most in a single season by a MW quarterback.
- Sophomore wide receiver Rashard Higgins, who caught seven passes for 110 yards, went over the 100-yard receiving mark for the 10th time this season. On the year, Higgins had 96 receptions for 1,750 yards and 17 touchdowns, all of which are single-season school records.
- The 1,750 receiving yards are the second-most all-time in a single season by a Mountain West pass-catcher, trailing only J.R. Tolver who had 1,785 receiving yards for San Diego State in 2002.
- Utah's All-American return man Kaelin Clay entered the game averaging 16.7 yards per punt return, but the Rams shut him down. Clay finished the game with minus 8 punt return yards.

GENERAL LEWIS W. WALT TO BE HONORED IN 2015

On September 12th at the annual salute to military day, Colorado State University will honor the greatest military man in school history with a newly created scholarship and salute on the field during the game against Minnesota.

Lewis W. Walt was a Fort Collins High School graduate who played football and ran track for legendary Coach Harry Hughes. His outstanding athletic record was only part of his legacy at CSU. Following graduation in 1936, Walt took a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant in the US Marine Corps and began a legendary career.

From WWII to the Vietnam War, Walt climbed the ladder in the Marines and achieved the rank of 4-star general by 1969. From 1968 to 1971 he acted as Assistant Commandant, which is second in command of the United States Marines. General Walt is the highest-ranking graduate from CSU to have served in any branch of the US military.

He was awarded two Navy Crosses, two Distinguished Service Medals, a Silver Star, Bronze Star, Legion of Merit and two Purple Hearts. General Walt retired in 1971 and died on March 26, 1989 at the age of 76.

RETIRED NUMBERS

21 | Eddie Hanna: A star Colorado A&M running back, his promising career ended after he passed away due to heart failure following the first game of the '49 season. His sudden tragic death shocked the campus. Colorado A&M class president Roy Romer, who later served as governor of the state, collected money for an Eddie Hanna memorial scholarship that still is available today. Hanna came to Fort Collins after serving in World War II. A 5-foot-6, 165-pound athlete from Dodge City, Kan., Hanna also played basketball and ran track for the Aggies. He helped the school to its first bowl, the Raisin Bowl following the '48 season, and nearly won the game with touchdown runs of 71 and 79 yards.

48 | Thurman "Fum" McGraw: Fum McGraw is the most recognized athlete in university history. He was the first player to earn consensus All-America honors in football in 1948 and '49, and later played professionally for the Detroit Lions. McGraw also was a coach and athletic administrator at his alma mater. He was the school's director of athletics from 1976-86.

NUMBER HONORED

3 | Greg Myers: Former Rams safety Greg Myers has his jersey number permanently displayed on the press box at Hughes Stadium. Myers played for the Rams from 1992-95 where he picked off 14 passes. He is the only Western Athletic Conference athlete to earn first-team all-conference honors four years in-a-row. Nationally, Myers won the 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the best defensve back in the nation.

W.J. Forbes

First head coach in program history
Record: 0-2-1 (.167)
One season: 1899
Alma mater: Vermont
Forbes was the first paid coach in school history, earning $25 to lead the CACs in his only season at the helm.

NOTE — Nov. 30 game forfeited to CAC

George E. Toomey

Second head coach in program history
Record: 1-3 (.250)
One-plus seasons: 1900-01
Alma mater: Baker, Denver ('98)
Toomey was well-liked but the Dibble scandal of 1901 ended his coaching career when he inadvertently played an ineligible man in the CU game, resigning after that contest.

Clarence J. Griffith

Third head coach in program history
Record: 2-5-2 (.333)
One-plus seasons: 1901-02
Alma mater: Iowa ('99)
Toomey's assistant, "Griff", took over in October 1901. He resigned just before the 1903 season to concentrate on his graduate studies and care for his new baby girl.

| Oct. 26 | at | Colorado College | L | 0-16 |
| Nov. 5 | | Colorado Mines | L | 0-11 |

NOTE — Toomey was replaced by Griffith after the 1901 season opener; CSU, then known as Colorado Agricultural College, attempted to play an ineligible player and CU coach Fred Folsom pulled his team from the field in protest. CU, however, didn't protest the game properly and the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of Colorado awarded the game to CSU as a forfeit. Amid the controversy, Toomey resigned.

Matt Rothwell

Fourth head coach in program history
Record: 5-1-0 (.833)
One season: 1903
Alma mater: Colorado ('99)
A Denver doctor, Rothwell agreed to travel to Fort Collins to coach the Aggies, but that distance became a problem and he only coached the 1903 season.

SONNY LUBICK

Head Coach, 1993-2007

Four-time Conference Coach of the Year | Six Conference Titles | Nine Bowl Games

Colorado State's football program attained previously unknown heights during head coach Sonny Lubick's 15 seasons. During that time, Lubick created a standard for excellence never before evident during the 115-year history of the football program. Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just two bowl appearances prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- Colorado State won or shared six conference titles from 1994-2007, more than any other Mountain West member over that period;
- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- The Rams ranked among the Top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranked among the Top 20 NCAA Division I FBS active coaches in career wins at the end of 2007;
- Colorado State placed among the leaders in MWC victories since the conference came into being in 1999;
- The Rams seven times won eight or more games in a season. Four times – the first four times in school history – CSU won 10 or more games.

Lubick ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprint can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstiles. Not only were the Rams perennial postseason competitors under Lubick, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history came during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single-game crowds in CSU history came during his time at the helm. Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division I-A coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members.

Interest and support of CSU's program had never been greater. The 2006 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor. The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season. Prior to the 2006 season, a new artificial playing surface was installed to complete the renovation.

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch touched the entire athletic department. For instance, during his tenure, CSU was able to:

- Renovate and expand the stadium ($15.2 million).
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990s and a gift of $75,000 from former defensive end and 10-year NFL veteran Brady Smith for program enhancements.
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions.
- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5) million in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone totaled more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success that CSU's football program enjoyed after Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cared deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program was responsible for his actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick placed a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remained more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remaining on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick had those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact was felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the Sports Illustrated Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record.
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work.

- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Assocation-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He was an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors;
- Lubick and his family were honored by a local charitable organization in the winter of 2006 for their commitment and dedication to the northern Colorado community.
- In January of 2007, Lubick was named the Collins Award winner, given annually to a local figure that exemplifies leadership and service to the Fort Collins Community by the local chamber of commerce.

Lubick remained staunch in his belief a family approach was one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure. Four of his 2007 coaching staff members – Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993. Marc joined the staff in 2005 after time with the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi. Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere took place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick always was embraced by his three young grandchildren – Matthew, William and Emma – children of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle. Lubick's smile while embracing his three youngest Rams fans reflected the same happiness CSU supporters had come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.

IN THE POLLS SINCE 1994

After a win at BYU, Sept. 17, 1994, CSU entered the USA Today coaches poll ranked No. 25, the first appearance in the weekly poll since a brief stay in the UPI coaches rankings in 1977. The following week, in 1994, the Rams earned their first Associated Press ranking in program history. Overall, the program has been ranked 51 total weeks, most recetly in 2014.

STEVE BARTALO

RB | 1986 All-American
Career Rushing Leader
1986 WAC Offensive POY

Told by nearly every college recruiter he would never play NCAA Bowl Subdivision football, Bartalo proved every critic wrong in record-setting fashion.

A former Wishbone offense quarterback at Doherty High School in Colorado Springs, Colo., Bartalo walked on to the CSU squad in the fall of 1982, redshirting his first season but making his presence felt nonetheless.

Bartalo earned the attention of his coaches and the ire of defenders with his competitive attitude as the "scout team" quarterback. Bartalo made it apparent to every teammate and coach that he would be a key contributor to CSU's program.

A season later, Bartalo was buried on the team's offensive depth chart, so far down he didn't see action in the first two games of the season, both losses. In fact, he was scheduled to play on special teams the second game of the year, a conference date in Hawaii. A day prior to the team's departure, Bartalo was replaced on the travel squad. While disappointed in the decision, it only further reinforced his will to succeed at CSU.

A week later, the Rams trailed Colorado at halftime. CSU's rushing game had been negligible at best, and Leon Fuller and his staff desperately looked for answers. They found one in Bartalo, who gained 61 yards in the second half and became a fixture in CSU's backfield the rest of his illustrious career.

Following his impressive debut in Boulder, Bartalo surpassed the 100-yard mark for the first of 28 times in his career while making his first start in the backfield.

Bartalo was listed at 5'-9 inches tall and weighed about 200 pounds. But those tangible measurements failed to gauge his heart, determinate and competitive drive.

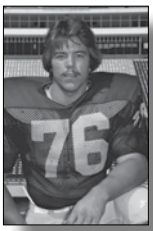

By the time he concluded his four-year career, he became the first and only player in school history to lead the team in rushing four consecutive seasons. Bartalo was a three-time all-conference selection. Following his freshman season, despite playing in just eight of the team's 11 games, he was named the conference newcomer of the year. Following his senior season in 1986, Bartalo was voted the league's offensive player of the year.

He concluded an illustrious career with 4,813 yards, still a record and set an NCAA mark with 1,210 career rushing attempts. In his career he gained more than 100 yards in a game 28 times, another school record.

Bartalo later played in the Japan Bowl, and was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL selection process by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. After one season, 1987, with the Bucs, he played one season, 1988, with the San Francisco 49ers. He concluded his professional career by playing for the Frankfurt Galaxy in 1989 and '90.

Bartalo's prominence was not limited to the football field. In 1986, he was named an NCAA Academic All-American, and was also the winner of an NCAA post-graduate scholarship award.

In 1995, Bartalo was inducted into the CSU Sports Hall of Fame.

MIKE BELL

DT | 1977-78 All-American
No. 2 Pick in 1979 Draft

"Football is my life; it's everything to me and I won't have it any other way."
— Mike Bell

Football was life for the 6-foot-5, 265-pound defensive tackle from Wichita, Kan. After an all-state career at Archbishop Carroll High School, Bell and his identical twin brother, Mark E., came to Colorado State to continue their playing careers.

Following his Colorado State career, Bell became the second overall selection in the NFL Draft and played for more than a decade with the Kansas City Chiefs, his boyhood dream team.

He was a three-year starter and letterwinner. As a sophomore, Bell made his presence felt nationally, earning a spot on the Football News Sophomore All-America team in 1976, when he recorded 86 tackles and 10 quarterback sacks, helping the Rams to a 6-5 overall record.

Perhaps Bell's greatest season at Colorado State was his junior year (1977), when he compiled numerous awards and achievements. He was named twice the Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Week, while on his way to the Lineman of the Year award and a first-team all-WAC selection. Sports Illustrated and the Associated Press also honored Bell as National Lineman of the Week, for his outstanding play against Arizona State on November 19.

In 1977, Bell compiled 103 tackles, 15 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries in leading his team to a 9-2-1 record. These amazing stats landed him Associated Press second-team All-America recognition. Bell's award list didn't stop there; he was named Colorado State University's Most Valuable Player for his outstanding play, competitive spirit, and team leadership. He was also selected as the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame's Collegiate Athlete of the Year, in 1977.

Coming into his senior season Bell was a confident young football player who had fire in his eyes. But Bell's senior year was cut short by a knee injury. Despite his shortened season, Bell was selected to several post-season teams, including the coaches' All-America team, the Kodak All-America team, and the Sporting News' All-America team. Even before the season began, Bell was named as a Playboy Preseason All-America pick.

Following his senior season, the hype about Bell being selected in the NFL Draft continued to grow. Rumors were flying that he would be a top draft pick in the first round. The Kansas City Chiefs made Bell the second selection in that draft, and he was the top player in the group to sign when No. 1 pick Tom Cousineau opted to instead play in the Canadian Football League.

ANTHONY CESARIO

OG | 1997-98 All-American
Third-Round Pick in 1999 Draft

With a powerful pancake block and a 6-foot-6, 310-pound frame, opposing defensive linemen knew that they were in for a war when offensive guard Anthony Cesario took his three-point stance from across the line.

The offensive lineman from Pueblo, Colo., was destined for stardom even before he stepped on the field as a Colorado State Ram. He was named first-team all-conference as a senior at Pueblo South High School, earned two varsity letters in football and three in track.

In his first two years as a Ram, Cesario first redshirted then played sparingly on the offensive line and special teams. As a sophomore in 1996, he started to blossom into one of the best offensive linemen in school history.

In his first year as a starter, he played in all 12 games and was named second-team all-Western Athletic Conference.

As the 1997 season approached, expectations were high for Cesario; not only from his teammates and coaches, but from the fans as well.

He didn't disappoint. Cesario was named the top offensive guard in the nation by The Sporting News as he led his team to an 11-2 record and a Holiday Bowl appearance, where he helped defeat the Missouri Tigers 35-24. As a starter in all 12 regular-season games, Cesario had a team-best 64 pancake blocks and graded out at 91.3 percent. In that same year he did not allow a single quarterback sack. Cesario was also named first-team all-conference and second-team All-America, and was a nominee for the Outland Trophy, which recognizes the best offensive lineman in the nation.

After such an amazing junior year, Cesario was named as a 1998 preseason nominee for the Lombardi Award, presented to the most outstanding offensive or defensive lineman in the country, and would later that year become one of 12 finalists for the award. In his final season as a Ram, Cesario once again started in all 12 games, bringing his total to 37 consecutive games as a starter. To opposing defenses, he was a brick wall that no one could seem to forge around for two straight years, as he allowed no quarterback sacks. Cesario was named first-team all-WAC for the second year in a row and was named first-team All-America for his position at offensive guard. He helped his team to an 8-5 record and recorded more than 70 "big blocks," breaking his own single-season record.

With three solid seasons at CSU, Cesario entered the 1998 NFL Draft with high expectations. He was selected in the third round by the Jacksonville Jaguars as the 88th pick overall.

Cesario was a member of the Jaguars team that advanced to the AFC title game in 1999.

RICK CROWELL

LB | 2000 Liberty Bowl MVP
2000 MWC Defensive POY

Imagine, Rams head coach Sonny Lubick said before the 2000 season, how well Colorado State's defense could be with the return of star linebacker Rick Crowell.

Crowell, from Chula Vista, Calif., made dreams a reality in 2000 as a senior. He carried away from his last game as a Ram an armful of awards and honors.

Crowell was named CSU's defensive MVP in leading the Rams to a 22-17 win over Louisville in the AXA Liberty Bowl. He was credited with seven tackles in the game, including six unassisted, and helped force three turnovers in leading the Rams to a win over the Conference USA champions.

Crowell entered the bowl game having already been named the MWC Defensive Player of the Year after leading the league in total tackles with 125, 12.5 per contest, over the 10 games in which he played. He was a consensus all-conference selection as chosen by the conference's head coaches and media members who regularly follow the teams. Crowell was named to the all-league squad three times in his Colorado State career.

He concluded his Colorado State career with 370 tackles, the fifth-most in school history. Additionally, he was selected to play in the Hula Bowl all-star game when the Rams returned victoriously from Memphis, Tenn.; in the Hula, he made made four tackles and had an interception.

EDDIE HANNA

HB | 1948 First-Team All-Skyline
Uniform No. 21 Retired

When Rams fans enter Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium, they see only two numbers retired in the illustrious history of the football program. One of those belongs to Thurman (Fum) McGraw (48) and the other belongs to Eddie Hanna (21), whose short time with Colorado A&M made a lasting impact.

From 1947-49, Kansas native Eddie "Twinkletoes" Hanna was an electric running back and track letterman, part of a dangerous backfield few teams could stop. After only two practices, Hanna ran 51 yards on three plays in his first game, against the Colorado School of Mines. Hanna was at the forefront of a resurgence.

Playing with legends such as McGraw and Jack Christiansen under then-head coach Bob Davis, Hanna and his "Cinderella Rams" put together an 8-2 regular season in 1948. The campaign was capped with a trip to the Raisin Bowl to play Occidental, the first bowl in program history. Hanna shined, and 50 years prior to Gartrell Johnson's record-setting performance in the New Mexico Bowl, Hanna had two long TDs. His first was a 71-yard dash for his first touchdown of the game to set a Raisin Bowl rushing record. His second, in the second half, was for 79 yards and another touchdown. Unfortunately, Occidental made an incredible comeback to beat Hanna's club, 21-20.

Sadly, Hanna would play in only one more game for the Rams. During the first game of the 1949 season against Colorado College, Hanna came to the sidelines in the first half with a shortness of breath and chest discomfort and team doctors sat Hanna for the rest of the game. On the train ride back from Colorado Springs, Hanna suffered a heart attack and died.

His number 21 will never be worn again at Colorado State, and his amazing career will never be forgotten.

NATE KVAMME

LB | 1999 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship Recipient

During his stellar four-year playing career at Colorado State, Nate Kvamme established himself as one of the finest linebackers in school history.

Kvamme, from Windsor, Colo., concluded his Ram career fourth on the school's career tackles list with 385. The four-year starter was a two-time all-conference selection.

He was named the conference preseason Defensive Player of the Year in 1998 and was named to All-America teams by several publications.

Kvamme (pronounced QUAM-ee) in 1998 was also a Dick Butkus Award nominee for the honor presented annually to the nation's most outstanding linebacker.

What Kvamme accomplished on the field paled in comparison to his academic success. Kvamme was a three-time academic all-conference selection, and a three-time academic all-district pick by the College Sports Information Directors of America. In 1998, he was also honorable mention Academic All-America.

A Civil Engineering major, Kvamme had a 3.77 grade-point average. At the conclusion of his playing career, Kvamme was awarded a $5,000 scholarship for post-graduate study by the NCAA. Kvamme used the scholarship to continue his studies and pursue a career in college coaching.

KEVIN MCDOUGAL

RB | 1999 MWC Offensive POY

Running back Kevin McDougal provided a glimpse of what was to come during the Rams' opening game of 1999 at Mile High Stadium in Denver.

He rushed for 189 yards and scored two touchdowns in leading the Rams to a 41-14 win over in-state rival Colorado before a sell-out crowd and national television audience.

McDougal five times in 1999 rushed for more than 100 yards, finishing the season with 1,223 yards. He enjoyed one of the most impressive seasons in school history, finishing with what is now CSU's seventh-highest rushing total all-time.

McDougal had a total of 13 career 100-yard rushing games and led the league in rushing while ranking among the national leaders as well. He finished his career with 3,067 yards, CSU's fourth-highest career total ever.

Following the season, the league's coaches named McDougal the MWC Offensive Player of the Year and he was also selected to first-team all-league. McDougal picked up an additional award when the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame named him the MWC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

"FUM" MCGRAW

OT | 1948-49 All-American
Uniform No. 48 Retired

The most recognized name in Colorado State football history is that of the school's initial first-team All-American, Thurman "Fum" McGraw.

McGraw was a two-time All-American for the Rams in 1948 and '49. McGraw led Colorado State, then known as the Colorado A&M Aggies, to the first bowl game in school history. McGraw and his teammates played Occidental in the 1949 Raisin Bowl on New Year's Day in Fresno, Calif. A year later, McGraw was again named All-American.

McGraw had a five-decade love affair with his alma mater, where he was a standout athlete and athletic administrator.

Following his career in Fort Collins, McGraw played professionally for the Detroit Lions from 1950-54, helping the team to three world championships and earning All-Pro honors three times.

He returned to Colorado State when his playing career ended, as the school's wrestling coach and an assistant with the football and track teams from 1955-58. He was later an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1958-62, then returned to campus as an administrator from 1962-65, when he became an assistant athletic director.

From 1970-76, he was an NFL scout until returning to his alma mater as the school's athletic director, a position he held until 1986.

He was inducted into the state's Sports Hall of Fame in 1971, and received similar honors at Colorado State in 1988. He is also a member of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame as well as the National Association of College Directors of Athletics Hall of Fame.

KELI MCGREGOR

TE | 1984 All-American
Third-Round Pick in 1999 NFL Draft

All-American tight end Keli McGregor learned a valuable lesson a long time ago: Hard work pays off.

One of the most prolific players to ever compete at Colorado State, McGregor was an All-American football player and an All-American person.

McGregor came to Colorado State as a walk-on in 1981, and used his work ethic to become the starting tight end for the Rams by the end of his freshman season. After an impressive first year with the Rams, McGregor was one of the first CSU players to meet new coach Leon Fuller, who took over the coaching duties in Fort Collins prior to the 1982 season. With hard work in his first season, McGregor shed his walk-on tag in 1982. He responded with a breakthrough campaign: 36 catches for 393 yards and three touchdowns.

Used as a wingback in Colorado State's single-back offensive attack, McGregor flourished for the Rams in the next two seasons. In 1983, McGregor continued to impress his coaches and Colorado State fans.

He concluded his finest season at Colorado State by catching a school-record 69 passes for 717 yards and a pair of touchdowns while earning second-team all-WAC honors.

A remarkable senior season was in the future for McGregor, as he was named to the preseason All-America teams as selected by several national publications. McGregor went on to catch 47 passes for 479 yards and three touchdowns, leading the Rams for a second straight season in receptions.

McGregor also had two of his best games as a Ram in 1984 as he caught seven passes for 105 yards against Wyoming, and one week later had eight receptions for 62 yards and a touchdown at Utah. He was named second-team all-WAC for a second straight season and he received second-team All-America honors as selected by United Press International. McGregor also played in the East-West Shrine and Japan Bowl all-star games following the completion of his collegiate career.

After the best career by a tight end at Colorado State, McGregor went on to the National Football League Draft, where he was selected by the Denver Broncos in the fourth round. He later played for the Indianapolis Colts until the 1986 season, and also played for the Seattle Seahawks.

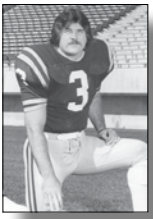

Following his professional playing career, McGregor entered sports administration, first at the University of Florida and later at the University of Arkansas. He served as an associate athletics director at each institution.

His ties to Colorado led him back home in 1993, when he joined the staff of the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club. McGregor supervised the construction of Coors Field, the team's current playing facility, considered among the finest venues in professional sports. He ascended to president of the franchise, which won the NL pennant in 2007 and brought the World Series to his hometown.

In 1997, he was accorded another honor from his Rams' playing career, when he was inducted into the Colorado State Hall of Fame.

Sadly, McGregor passed away unexpectedly on April 20, 2010. To preserve his legacy, the CSU athletic department created the Keli S. McGregor Memorial Scholarship Endowment, and in his name awards the scholarship to a deserving walk-on player.

KEVIN MCLAIN

LB | 1974-75 All-American
No. 26 Pick in 1976 NFL Draft

He had speed, agility, size, quickness, leadership and intellect. The perfect football machine?

No, but he was a coach's dream. He was Kevin McLain.

A former middle linebacker for the Rams from Anaheim, Calif., and a junior-college All-American from Fullerton College, McLain was called by Colorado State coaches and players the best linebacker they had ever seen, and a once-in-a-lifetime player.

While at Fullerton, he set a school record in 1973 with 124 unassisted tackles in 11 games on a team that was ranked third nationally. In 1974, McLain picked Colorado State as the school for whom he wanted to play, choosing the Rams over schools such as UCLA.

Selected as one of four captains for the 1974 season, McLain led the team in tackles with 195 total stops and was named All-Western Athletic Conference. He had 93 unassisted tackles, with 12 for losses totaling 48 yards.

McLain started out the 1975 season with the same fire he had displayed the previous season. He was named to the preseason All-America team for his position at middle linebacker, then went on to garner all-league and All-America honors.

Although he only played in the first nine games due to a knee injury, he was credited with 84 unassisted tackles, including 11 tackles for 53 lost yards. In the Rams' 27-16 win over New Mexico, he compiled 11 unassisted tackles, 11 assisted tackles, and two interceptions, one a 53-yard return, and another for a touchdown. This game earned McLain National Lineman of the Week recognition from the Associated Press. He was also named the Colorado Sportlight Athlete of the Month, and was a projected top choice in the 1976 National Football League Draft.

McLain was a first-round draft choice by the Los Angeles Rams, and played several seasons in the NFL and later in the World League.

MOSES MORENO

QB | 1997 WAC Offensive POY
1997 Holiday Bowl Co-MVP

Screenwriters could not have written a better script than the season former all-star quarterback Moses Moreno enjoyed in 1997.

Moreno, a native of Chula Vista, Calif., returned home in leading the Rams to their third Holiday Bowl appearance in four seasons, when Colorado State travelled to San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium in 1997.

Moreno, in his senior season, guided Colorado State to the highest win total in school history when the Rams finished the year with an 11-2 record. Colorado State defeated Missouri, 35-24, to win the Holiday Bowl and end the season ranked as high as 16th nationally.

For his efforts in the bowl game, Moreno was joined by teammate Darran Hall as the game's co-MVP. That came on the heels of Moreno's record-shattering career.

In 1996, Moreno threw for 2,921 yards, the fifth-highest total in school annals. A year later, he nearly matched that total and finished his career with 6,986 yards, the third-highest total in school history.

Moreno was named first-team all-conference as a senior, and was named Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

GREG MYERS

S | 1994-95 All-American;
1995 Jim Thorpe Award Winner;
Class of 2012 College Football Hall of Fame

The only four-time all-Western Athletic Conference selection in league history — and the only player so honored in school history — Myers is regarded as one of the finest players in the history of Colorado State's football program. He was inducted in 2012 into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame.

The native of nearby Windsor, Colo., earned the respect of his teammates, coaches and opponents with his spirited play throughout an illustrious four-year career wearing the green and gold of Colorado State.

Twice, in 1994 and again in '95, he was named first-team All-America. He was also a two-time academic All-American, while majoring in biological sciences with plans to become a physician.

In 1992, Myers became one of only two players in WAC history to be named first-team all-conference as a freshman. He repeated that honor again in 1993, and in 1994 set the stage for achieving national prominence when he was placed among the best in the Jim Thorpe Award balloting for the nation's most outstanding defensive back.

Myers helped the Rams to a 10-2 record and No. 15 national ranking as the team won its first-ever WAC championship and played in the Holiday Bowl in 1994.

Myers, meanwhile, became the first Colorado State player to ever win a national award when he was named the winner of the Thorpe Award in 1995. He was honored during ESPN's College Football Awards Show at Disney World in Orlando, Fla., but Myers' national distinction didn't stop there.

On the same night he walked onto the national stage in the limelight of winning the Thorpe Award, Myers was also named the Honda Scholar Athlete of the Year for his academic prominence. He was also named the winner of a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame post-graduate scholarship.

Myers concluded his Colorado State career among the school's all-time leaders in pass interceptions and total tackles. He also set the school and WAC records for career punt-return yardage.

Following the completion of his Colorado State playing career, Myers was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft, then proceeded to start in the team's secondary. He went on to play for the Dallas Cowboys.

While Myers was one of the finest football players in CSU history, he was equally successful in the classroom, balancing his significant athletic and academic demands.

"When I came to Colorado State," Myers said as a senior, "I had two goals in mind: To work as hard as I possibly could to become the finest student I could, and to work to be the finest athlete that I could become. I've been fortunate to be involved in athletics. Athletics has taught me many things about life, and has given me many friendships and memories that will last forever."

MIKE NEWELL

OC | 1998 Academic All-American

Just prior to the 1994 season, Mike Newell arrived in Fort Collins on the Colorado State University campus, set to begin his Rams football journey.

Two years later, as Newell entered his sophomore season in 1996, head coach Sonny Lubick mused that Newell would be the top center in the country by the time his career concluded.

Newell concluded his CSU career in 1998 as one of the top offensive linemen in school history on his way to a host of regional and national honors.

Newell started nearly 40 games at center for the Rams during his career. Over that span, the Rams won more league games than any other conference team and were among the national leaders in total victories.

Newell, a former all-state performer at Littleton (Colo.) High School, helped Colorado State to three conference titles, and three Holiday Bowl appearances, including a 1997 win over Missouri.

Newell was named first-team all-conference in 1998, and earned honorable mention All-America honors. He was also a Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy nominee.

Newell, 6-foot-3 and 290 pounds, combined speed, power, quickness, and overall athletic ability from his center position.

He was so talented and so agile, the Rams installed several pass and run plays during his career in which he "pulled" to lead the blocking from his center position — truly a rarity at any level of football competition.

Newell earned the respect of his teammates and coaches with his tremendous work ethic. He was a team leader from the time he stepped onto the field, not with his words as much as his actions.

At the conclusion of each season, Colorado State's players and coaches are honored at the team banquet. Coach Sonny Lubick and his staff handed out many awards for various achievements, but players vote on the team's most valuable player.

In 1998, Newell was named the team's MVP, capping a long list of individual achievements in 1998. Newell's prowess wasn't limited to the playing field. He boasted a 3.77 grade-point average while majoring in horticulture with an emphasis in turfgrass management.

Three times, Newell earned academic all-conference honors for his success in the classroom. In 1997 and again in '98, he was selected academic all-district by the College Sports Information Directors of America and GTE. In 1998, he was an honorable mention academic All-American.

After the 1998 season, Newell also was named by the Burger King Corporation as a national scholar-athlete. Burger King named scholarship winners during the 1998 season, and each was then a finalist for an end-of-season scholarship award.

MATT NEWTON

QB | 2000 MWC Offensive POY

But first and foremost, he was a winner. Often.

Newton, from Englewood, Colo., was named the 2000 Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year after leading the Rams to a 10-2 record, a conference title, and a Liberty Bowl win over Louisville.

Newton became the second Ram in as many years to win the offensive award, following the trail set by Kevin McDougal, the 1999 winner.

In two seasons as the Rams' starter, Newton led Colorado State to 18 victories in 24 games, the second highest win total by a two-year starter in school history.

He also helped the Rams to back-to-back MWC titles and Liberty Bowl appearances in Memphis, Tenn., where CSU in 2000 concluded one of the most successful seasons in school history with a win over Louisville. The Rams finished No. 14 in the final polls.

Newton finished his career as one of the top passers in school history (currently eighth) with 5,634 career yards. He also is among the leaders in career touchdown passes and total offense.

In 2000, his 2,767 yards passing ranks as the Rams' eighth-highest total ever.

ERIC PAULY

LB | 2002 Academic All-American

Pauly completed his playing eligibility in 2003 and also earned his undergraduate degree with a double major in computer information systems and business management. Pauly concluded his playing career with a 3.8 grade-point average and was the speaker for the College of Business fall semester commencement exercise.

The native of Conway Springs, Kan., earned first-team Academic All-America honors in 2002 and was a second-team selection in 2003 as chosen by the College Sports Information Directors of America, despite playing only half the season after a knee injury cut short his career. Pauly was honorable mention in 2001.

He made his mark on the field during a four-year career as a linebacker for the Rams. As a sophomore in 2001, Pauly led the Mountain West Conference in tackles on his way to first-team all-league honors.

In the classroom, he was named to the academic all-district team and was honorable mention Academic All-America.

A year later in 2002, he finished among the top three players in tackles and again was a first-team all-league selection. He earned first-team Academic All-America.

Pauly's senior year was unfortunately cut short by a knee injury in the fifth game of the season. He was so dominant on the field to that point in the season that his tackles total was still atop the league's statistical charts for two weeks after he had been sidelined by the injury.

Conference coaches and media members voted Pauly honorable mention all-conference and he was named second team Academic All-American.

Pauly made 288 career tackles during his career, including 15 behind the line of scrimmage, and he had five quarterback sacks and two pass interceptions. Seventeen times during his career, Pauly had 10 or more tackles in a game.

CECIL SAPP

RB | Single-Season Rushing Record
2000 Liberty Bowl MVP

Running back Cecil Sapp made a statement of national proportions during Colorado State's 22-17 win over Louisville in the 2000 AXA Liberty Bowl game.

Sapp, a native of Miami, Fla., rushed for 160 yards on 36 carries and scored a touchdown in helping the Rams vault to the school's highest-ever end-of-season national ranking, No. 14 in the Associated Press poll.

Sapp's performance was impressive in every regard. He ran inside. He ran outside. And he ran more times with the football than any other rusher in the storied tradition of 42 Liberty Bowl games. His 160 yards were the most ever by a Rams player in bowl competition until Gartrell Johnson's 2008 New Mexico Bowl, and Sapp set another record with 36 carries.

Rewarded for his 1,601 yards, which broke Steve Bartalo's single-season CSU rushing record, Sapp was named Colorado State's offensive MVP. And following the bowl, Sapp added another honor to his resume. Media members attending the game named him the Liberty Bowl MVP.

Sapp's list of honors didn't stop with the MVP award. He was named to the All-Bowl Team selected by CBS.Sportsline.com as one of the most prominent postseason performers.

Following his career with the Rams, Sapp was signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos, with whom he played five seasons (2003-07) and started nine of the 49 games in which participated. He also played with the Houston Texans.

BRADY SMITH

DE | 1995 WAC Defensive POY

Sonny Lubick took little time in placing his footprint on Colorado State's program. Since his arrival, Lubick had preached the virtues of stellar defensive play.

No one took his teachings more to heart than former Ram all-star Brady Smith, who in 1995 was named the Western Athletic Conference's Defensive Player of the Year.

Smith in 1994 had burst onto the regional scene by making 9½ quarterback sacks, still one of the top 10 performances in school history. He played a vital role in Colorado State's 10-2 season and miracle run to the league title and a berth in the Holiday Bowl against Michigan — ironically, the school for which his father played years before.

Smith was back in full force one year later, eclipsing his sacks total of a year before by finishing with 16 - still the top single-season mark in school history.

He concluded his career with 28½ career quarterback sacks, now the second most in school history but a record at the time. Smith finished his collegiate career in 1995.

He followed in the footsteps of his father, Steve, who played in the NFL for more than a decade. Brady, following the conclusion of his career at Colorado State, played first for the New Orleans Saints and then for the Atlanta Falcons.

BRADLEE VAN PELT

QB | 2002 & 03 MWC Offensive POY

Quarterback Bradlee Van Pelt will long be remembered as one of the most prolific players in Colorado State football history. Van Pelt earned the distinction of becoming the first player in school history to earn back-to-back conference Offensive Player of the Year honors, in 2002 and 2003.

He closed his career honored in voting by the Mountain West Conference coaches and media covering the league with the offensive award for the second year in a row, and was named the first-team quarterback for a second time, prior to being selected in the NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

Van Pelt earned the back-to-back honors by leading CSU in 2003 with 909 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns, and throwing for 2,845 yards and 19 touchdowns. He led the Rams to a school-record fifth consecutive bowl appearance and also received postseason all-star game invitations to the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl.

Van Pelt ended his Colorado State eligibility as only the fourth quarterback in NCAA Division I-A history to throw for at least 5,000 career yards (6,271) and rush for more than 2,000 career yards (2,308).

He left CSU as the school's career total offense leader, with 8,579 yards, and set a single-season record with 3,754 total yards in 2003 including a single-game record 416 yards in the team's opening game of the season against Colorado.

Van Pelt set another school record for rushing yards in a season by a quarterback, 909 in 2003. He concluded his career with eight 100-yard rushing games, easily the highest total in school history by a quarterback.

In 2002, in his second season as the Rams' starting quarterback, Van Pelt led Colorado State to a 10-4 record and the team's third Mountain West Conference football title in four seasons.

1949 RAISIN BOWL
Saturday, Jan. 1, 1949

Attendance: 10,000

Colorado State — at the time known as the Colorado A&M Aggies — made its first trip to a postseason bowl game at the conclusion of the 1948 football season, capping one of the most successful years in school history.

Coached by Bob Davis, Colorado A&M played on New Year's Day against Occidental College, after an 8-2 regular season highlighted by a 29-25 win over in-state rival Colorado in Boulder. The only two regular-season losses came at the hands of Drake and Utah, setting the stage for the team's trip to postseason play.

It was a star-studded Colorado A&M lineup that took the field that day in Fresno. Four players — Fum McGraw, Tuffy Mullison, Dale Dodrill, and Jack Christiansen — were team mainstays and now occupy spots in Colorado State's Sports Hall of Fame. A fifth star, running back Eddie Hanna, tragically would pass away after the opening game of the following season.

McGraw, the school's first consensus All-American, later played with the Detroit Lions, as did Christiansen, while Dodrill played for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Colorado A&M led 13-0 at halftime behind the play of Hanna. He scored on a 71-yard run after the Aggies had scored when quarterback Bob Hainlen hit Keith Thompson with a 5-yard scoring pass. But Occidental scored 21 second-half points to rally for the victory.

Colorado State's football squad opened the 1990 season with dreams higher than many observers felt possible. Those dreams included a postseason bowl berth.

Having not been invited to a postseason game in 42 years, Colorado State earned a trip to the Freedom Bowl in 1990.

Colorado State scored first, opening the game with a 75-yard, 15-play drive on Mike Gimenez's 1-yard plunge. Oregon later led 17-14, setting the stage for a dramatic fourth quarter.

Trailing 25-19, the Rams took the lead on Gimenez's 49-yard pass to Greg Primus, then added insurance on Todd Yert's 52-yard scoring run to lead 32-25 with minutes remaining. But Oregon made one last grasp at victory behind quarterback Bill Musgrave, who led his team on a 79-yard scoring drive. The Rams' Selwyn Jones then thwarted the Ducks' two-point conversion pass attempt, an amazing play, to seal the win.

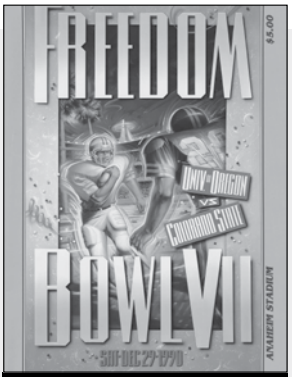

Yert was named the game's Offensive MVP, while teammate Robert Chirico earned defensive honors.

Colorado State's miraculous dream season in 1994 concluded on the turf of San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

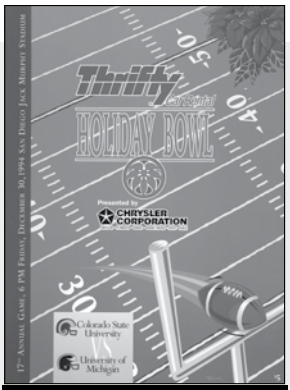

Holiday Bowl 17 featured the young and enthusiastic upstart Rams, representing the Western Athletic Conference for the first time ever in the postseason event, against the Big Ten's Michigan Wolverines, long a bastion of college football tradition.

Colorado State served notice on the night in San Diego that the Rams' program would be a force in coming years. Following a Michigan touchdown on the Wolverines' initial drive of the game, Colorado State answered.

Quarterback Anthoney Hill drove the Rams 66 yards in nine plays for the tying touchdown, hitting receiver Paul Turner on a 32-yard scoring play. Hill, a native of San Diego, later would be honored as Colorado State's Offensive MVP in the game.

By the end of the game, which was played before the eighth-largest crowd in Holiday Bowl history, statistics reflected the closeness of the contest. Michigan had gained 341 total yards, only 1 more than the Rams had managed.

Attendance: 51,051

The Rams, having earned the right to represent the WAC in the final game of the season by virtue of a victory over San Diego State, joined Brigham Young and Wyoming as the only three schools to have appeared in the Holiday Bowl in consecutive years since the bowl's inception.

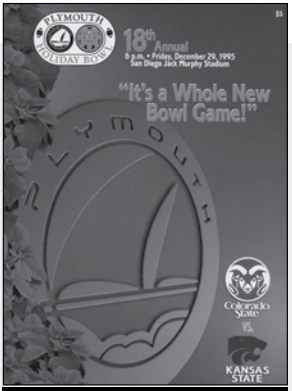

Colorado State entered the game with an 8-3 record after finishing 10-2 in the previous year, the school's first-ever trip to the Holiday Bowl. Colorado State returned to Jack Murphy Stadium, the site of its league-title clinching win over SDSU, for a date with Kansas State.

Kansas State entered the game ranked among the top 10 teams nationally after finishing in a tie for second in the Big Eight Conference.

The teams were tied, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter before an interception and a partially blocked punt led to K-State's 19 second-quarter points.

The Rams were led offensively by freshman running back Damon Washington. Playing before a hometown crowd, Washington stung Kansas State's defense for 101 yards on just 10 carries, scoring one touchdown.

Defensively, Colorado State cornerback Ray Jackson intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown on a play that was nullified by an official's inadvertent whistle.

1997 HOLIDAY BOWL
Monday, Dec. 29, 1997
Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 50,761

Colorado State served notice on the game's first drive that it was a team bent on making history. The Rams secured a spot in the laurels of school annals with a ninth win in a row, a 35-24 win over Missouri in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Holiday Bowl.

Colorado State made its intentions known from the outset, taking the first drive on a crisp evening in San Diego 85 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Wide receiver Darran Hall — a San Diego native — capped the drive, scoring on a 14-yard reverse.

Hall played a major role in the game, taking a punt early in the third quarter and returning it 85 yards for a touchdown, the longest such return in the bowl's history.

He and teammate Moses Moreno — another San Diego-area native — were the game's co-MVPs. Moreno, despite a sore foot injured during the game, completed 18-of-24 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Kevin McDougal gained 110 yards on 18 carries.

Colorado State's defense was equally as impressive. The Rams limited Missouri to just 68 passing yards. Linebacker Willie Taylor and safety Myron Terry led the way with eight tackles apiece, while Eric Vaughn had seven stops.

One of the game's many highlights came with 10:44 to play and the Rams nursing a 28-24 lead. Reserve quarterback Ryan Eslinger, lined up as the holder in a field goal formation, faked that play and instead ran up the middle for a 23-yard touchdown to seal the victory.

The game featured a myriad of unusual plays. USM's first touchdown came on a fumble return. Following a field goal by the Rams' C.W. Hurst, USM scored on a blocked punt. Later in the first half, Rams wide receiver Frank Rice ran 2 yards on a reverse, a touchdown set up by CSU's blocked punt.

2000 LIBERTY BOWL
Friday, Dec. 29, 2000
Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium
Memphis, Tenn.
Attendance: 58,302

Colorado State entered the game having won a second straight Mountain West Conference title. Coach Sonny Lubick's Rams featured eight players — the most in school history — who were named first-team all-league. Included in that group were quarterback Matt Newton and linebacker Rick Crowell, named the league's offensive and defensive players of the year, respectively. For the fourth time in seven seasons, Lubick was named the league's coach of the year.

Running back Cecil Sapp's 2-yard scoring run in the second quarter tied the game, and wide receiver Frank Rice's 16-yard reverse late in the first half put the Rams ahead to stay, 16-10.

Colorado State was later voted 14th by the Associated Press, the highest end-of-season AP ranking in school history.

2001 NEW ORLEANS BOWL
Tuesday, Dec. 18, 2001
Louisiana Superdome
New Orleans, La.
Attendance: 27,004

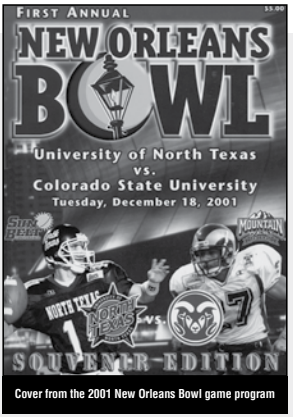

Colorado State's football squad in 2001 made school history, playing in a third consecutive bowl game. CSU won the first-ever New Orleans Bowl played at the Louisiana Superdome, home to Super Bowl XXXVI just seven weeks later. And, the win marked the first time in school history that Colorado State had won back-to-back bowl games.

Colorado State coach Sonny Lubick guided the Rams to five wins in the team's final six games, including the team's sixth bowl game since 1994.

The Rams took control of the game early, scoring 17 points in the first quarter and 24 by halftime. Senior receiver Brad Svoboda scored the first touchdown of his career, a 2-yard reverse, on the game's first drive, set up by a 56-yard catch-and-run play by Pete Rebstock on a pass from Bradlee Van Pelt.

Colorado State sealed the win in the third quarter when the game's MVP, Justin Gallimore, blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown to put the Rams up, 31-14. The Rams' defense, which allowed only 329 yards, was led by linebacker Eric Pauly's 10 tackles, while safety Aaron Sprague also had 10 stops.

Offensively, running back Henri Childs led the way with 97 rushing yards. Backup Chad Dixon, a senior playing in his first game as a Ram, scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run.

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium
Memphis, Tenn.
Attendance: 55,207

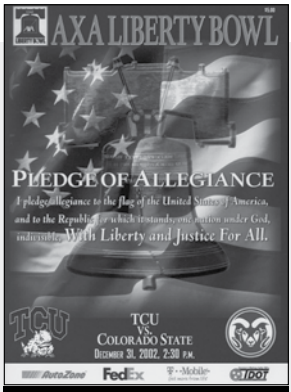

Colorado State concluded a successful 2002 season with the program's third trip in four seasons to the Liberty Bowl as the Mountain West Conference champion.

The bowl date with Conference USA champion TCU marked the Rams' seventh postseason trip overall in Sonny Lubick's 10 seasons as head coach, including a school-record fourth bowl game in row.

Colorado State entered the game with a 10-3 record, the fourth time in Sonny Lubick's career at Colorado State the Rams had won 10 or more games in a season.

Running back Cecil Sapp was the offensive star gaining 106 yards on the day, while linebacker Eric Pauly, defensive back David Vickers, linebacker Adam Wade and linebacker Drew Wood all finished in double figures in tackles.

2003 SAN FRANCISCO BOWL
Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2003
SBC Park
San Francisco, Calif.
Attendance: 25,621

Colorado State made its fifth consecutive bowl appearance, facing Boston College in the second annual Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Colorado State continued its bowl-game streak by winning five of the team's final seven games, including a 24-23 win over UNLV on the Rams' final drive of the game to ensure another postseason trip.

Colorado State battled back from a first-quarter deficit to close within a touchdown when WR David Anderson caught a 40-yard toss from QB Bradlee Van Pelt to draw the Rams within 21-14. Anderson was impressive in the game with 10 receptions for 134 yards and a touchdown, both CSU bowl game records for catches and receiving yards.

Van Pelt threw for 163 yards and passed for one touchdown and rushed for another. Running back Jimmy Green rushed for a team-best 74 yards and scored a touchdown. LB Jeff Flora led the Rams defense, which limited BC to 361 yards, with nine tackles, while LB Drew Wood and DB Lukas Davis each had six stops. The Rams also were credited with three quarterback sacks in the game.

Attendance: 36,842

Despite throwing for 381 yards on a 26-for-33 evening, senior Justin Holland and the Rams could not overcome the Navy offense in the inaugural Poinsettia Bowl. The Rams ended their season with a 6-6 record, the 11th time in Sonny Lubick's 13-year career the Rams had ended the year with a non-losing record.

Navy slotback Reggie Campbell led the team, tying the NCAA bowl record with five touchdowns, and had 290 all-purpose yards. The Midshipmen notched 611 total yards in the game, with 467 coming on the rush. The Rams netted 571 yards on offense themselves, with 431 net passing yards for the game.

Colorado State sophomore Kory Sperry caught a career-high eight passes for a career-high 117 yards, including four for 54 yards in the opening drive. Senior David Anderson had a game-high 126 yards receiving, second most in a Colorado State bowl game.

Kyle Bell rushed for 122 yards in the game. It was the sixth time that season Bell had surpassed 100 yards.

Albuquerque, N.M.
Attendance: 24,735

Gartrell Johnson rushed for a career-high 285 yards and scored two touchdowns as Colorado State rallied for a 40-35 victory over Fresno State.

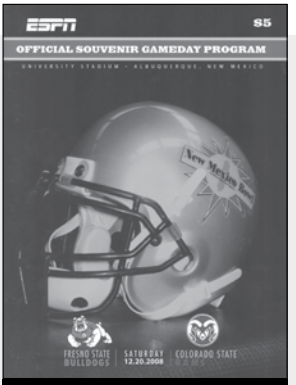

Johnson sealed Colorado State's first bowl victory since 2001 on a 77-yard touchdown with 1:46 remaining, igniting a celebration by fans who made the 7-hour drive from Fort Collins, Colo. Johnson added 90 yards receiving for 375 combined rushing and receiving yards, the most by any NCAA player ever in a bowl game.

The Rams (7-6) took their first lead at 33-28 when Billy Farris threw a 69-yard TD to Rashaun Greer with 7 minutes left. Fresno State cornerback Sharrod Davis took a big chance but whiffed on his attempt to bat the ball. Greer made the catch at the 30 and went untouched into the end zone.

Fresno State got within 40-35 with 55 seconds to go, but CSU's Kyle Bell secured the ensuing onside kick. Fans came out of the stands as the final seconds ticked off, capping a strong first season for Colorado State coach Steve Fairchild.

Johnson was named most valuable offensive player after he put on a show. He broke a 57-yard run in the first quarter and went another 57 yards on a shovel pass from Farris in the second, leaving defenders reaching for the dreadlocks tumbling out of his helmet.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Saturday, Dec. 21, 2013
University Stadium
Albuquerque, N.M.
Attendance: 27,104

Playing in its first bowl game since the 2008 season, Colorado State wanted to prove that it belonged and that this was what the program is to expect in the future. Sophomore sensation running back Kapri Bibbs did his part leading the Rams with 169 yards rushing and 3 touchdowns.

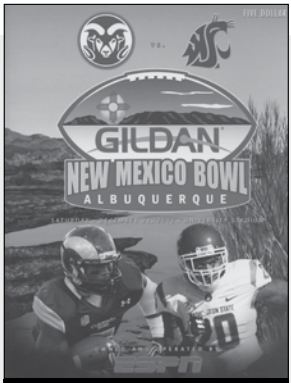

The Colorado State Rams (8-6, 5-3 MW) capped off their 2013 football season in dramatic fashion with a come-from-behind 48-45 victory in over the Washington State Cougars.

After a crucial stop, Colorado State got the ball back down 45-30 with 4:17 left in the game and two timeouts left. Grayson looked as poised as ever as he calmly led the Rams 72 yards down the field in just 1:25. On the final play of the drive, Grayson connected with freshman wide receiver Jordon Vaden for a 12-yard touchdown to make it 45-37 with 2:52 left in the game, and most importantly, Grayson preserved both of Colorado State's timeouts.

Trusting its defense to make a play, CSU kicked the ball off to Washington State. After using both of its timeouts, the Rams faced a key third down needing to get off the field. The Cougars converted with a nine-yard pass to seemingly put the nail in the coffin on the game with just over two minutes left. The Rams once again proved resilient as Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year Shaquil Barrett stripped Washington State running back Jeremiah Laufasa and also pounced on the ball with 1:51 left in the game.

CSU proceeded to march down the field and Bibbs scored his 31st touchdown of the season to put the Rams in position to tie the game up with 33 seconds left. On the ensuing two-point conversion, the Rams converted a 'Statue-of-Liberty' handoff to Donnell Alexander to tie the game at 45.

On the very next kickoff, Colorado State once again came up with a big play as linebacker SteveO Michel forced a fumble which Jasen Oden recovered. Kicker Jared Roberts sealed the victory with a 41-yard field goal as time expired.

2014 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 33,067

The Colorado State football team fell to Utah in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium, 45-10, on Dec. 20, 2014. The Rams finished one of the most successful seasons in school history with a record of 10-3, making them one of just five teams in program history to win at least 10 games.

Colorado State Interim Head Coach Dave Baldwin applauded his team for the effort they have put forth this season. Baldwin made note of the progress this team has made this season and for the seniors the progress they made over their career. After the game he thanked and appreciated the Colorado State fans that traveled to Las Vegas to watch the team play.

Colorado State finished the season with at least 10 wins for just the fifth time in school history. The Rams' nine-game winning streak from games 3-10--the program's longest since 1997--ran their record to 10-1 on Nov. 22 and a No. 21 national ranking before a last-second loss in the regular-season finale at Air Force, and today's loss.

Grayson finished the season with a school-record 4,006 passing yards--the fourth-most in Mountain West history--and claimed all-time CSU passing records in every major statistical category. Grayson ended the game completing 20 or 34 attempts for 227 yards with one interception. His longest completion went 59 yards in the first quarter to All-America wide receiver Rashard Higgins, who hauled in 7 receptions for 110 yards to record his 10th 100-yard receiving game of the season.

The Rams; rushing game was held to 12 net rushing yards on 19 carries, with junior Dee Hart mustering 21 yards on seven carries. Indicative of the uncharacteristic offensive struggles, the unit that set a school record this season for success on third down was limited to 1-of-10 on third-down conversion opportunities.

Durkee Field (1899-1911)

Durkee Field

While little is known about the program's home grounds in 1893 nization resurrected football in 1899, the team's first official field 1899, the area between Agricultural Hall and the Chemical Buildtoday) was cleared of trees and drained of water. The ground was surface. With the railroad tracks on the west and South College ing ground was actually a natural streambed, which is marked the railroad tracks. This stream becomes active when torrents of campus, such as the devastating flood of 1997. The newly reteam of 1899 played the first games here on a playing surface primarily dirt and rocks.

In 1901, a graduate from the Class of 1900 named Charles Durkee donated money for a tall wooden fence, erected on three sides of the field with the railroad tracks acting as a barrier for the fourth side. The barriers helped keep non-paying fans out better than the military cadets (the previous system for chasing off freeloaders). In return for his fence, the college named the athletic grounds Durkee Field. Bleachers were later added for spectators to watch games and military drills. The facility was described by former players and head coach Harry Hughes as horrible to walk on, let alone play football. That stream would reappear during wet weather and ran through the playing field during some games.

Hughes' first football season of 1911 marked Durkee's last season of hosting football. When the rules of football changed to standardize the 100-yard field, Hughes used that opportunity to build a better field for his athletes. The military continued to drill on Durkee for several years, and tennis courts were later added for women's athletics. But in 1925, ground was broken for a new gym and fieldhouse that opened in 1927 and still stands there today.

Colorado Field

Colorado Field (1912-67)

In 1910, the site of a college experiment station that grew potatoes was identified as the location where the future athletic field should be built. After two years of lobbying and with the support of college president Charles Lory, construction began on May 23, 1912. Students and faculty, including Lory, removed rocks and planted seed to build the first college football field in Colorado with grass.

Play began in the fall of 1912, after 1,000-seat grandstands were added by the beginning of football season. A cinder track around the field was added in 1914, since Harry Hughes was also the track coach.

In September 1912, the school built a clubhouse just east of the railroad tracks on what is now University Avenue, providing locker rooms and showers for both the Aggies and visiting players. Coupled with the outstanding grass surface and clubhouse, the state-of-the-art football stadium was the envy of the region and helped the Aggies to win eight conference championships over the next 25 years. The ninth and final conference championship team to play on Colorado Field was in 1955.

Over the 55 years Colorado Field served the Aggies, larger grandstands were built and bleachers were added on the east side and end zones. Today, Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's outdoor track and field squads and named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer, stands on the site where Colorado Field once graced the CSU campus.

In 1961 the university conducted a study to determine whether to turn Colorado Field into a major-college football stadium, or replace it with a new venue on the foothills campus. Because of traffic concerns and the facility's location in the center of Fort Collins, officials opted to construct a new stadium west of town, at the foothills. The last varsity game played on Colorado Field was in 1967, shortly before its demolition.

Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium (1968-Present)

Built at the base of the Hog Back Mountains in the shadow of the Aggie "A," Hughes Stadium has served Colorado State for nearly 50 years.

The site of not just football, but also Rolling Stones and Beach Boys concerts, the 32,500-seat stadium was named after legendary coach Harry Hughes.

After great success in the 1990s, the stadium was expanded and the field renamed in honor of all-time great head coach Sonny Lubick. In 2000, permanent lighting standards were installed. Four years later, 4,400 additional seats were constructed in the north end zone, while the stadium's press box and Rams Horn levels were renovated, and 12 new luxury boxes were constructed. Finally, the installation of a FieldTurf playing surface prior to the 2006 season completed renovations.

2015 COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL MEDIA COVERAGE GUIDELINES

We appreciate your coverage of Colorado State Athletics, and look forward to working with you to accommodate you and your organization within the framework of the following media policy. The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Mike Bobo and the Athletics Communications office. For your own benefit, please take a few minutes to read through the policies. Violations of these policies could result in revoked credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Asst. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk at (970) 491-4672 or via email at paul.kirk@colostate.edu, at any time with any questions.

General policies
- All interviews with any member of the football program, including Mike Bobo, the coaching and football staffs, and student-athletes, must be coordinated through the Athletics Communications office.
- True freshmen and other student-athletes in their first year in the program are not eligible to be included on the regular interview list.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Requests approved by Coach Bobo will be granted.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from contacting any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including text messages, e-mail, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, such as Facebook and Twitter, without first approaching the Athletics Communications office.
- For all practices, no live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming in any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during the media viewing period may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered by the coach.
- Designated student-athletes from the interview list will be made available on specified days during the spring and preseason practice periods (see schedule), and on Tuesdays during the regular season.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will be available following most practices. Exceptions include, during preseason camp, night practices at the stadium on two-practice days.
- All interviews must take place at field level, either inside or outside the southwest Moby Arena doors, or on the practice field. Media are not permitted in the football office area, or in the training room or locker room, unless the Communications office has previously made such arrangements.
- The outdoors cold-tub rehabilitation area during preseason camp, in the shade near the softball field, is considered an extension of the training room. Photographs, videography, or interviews are not permitted in this area.

Spring practice
- Assistant coaches are available one time each, following practice, on the day designated in the media schedule issued by the Communications department.

Preseason camp
- Coordinators will be made available on Media Day (date and time TBA). No other assistant coach access is available during preseason camp.

Regular-season game weeks
- On Mondays, Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct a weekly press conference in Bob Davis Hall, located on the south concourse of Moby Arena. Bobo will begin speaking at 12 p.m. and the session should conclude by 12:30 p.m. Designated players will be made available following Coach Bobo's press conference.
- Following Tuesday's practice, student-athletes on the interview list will be made available. Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Approved requests will be granted, but those interviews need to take place on Tuesday following practice.
- On Wednesday, a designated assistant coach will be made available to the media at 12 p.m. The Communications office will provide in advance the names and dates of that coach availability. Those Wednesdays will represent the only assistant-coach availability of the week.
- On Wednesday, Bobo will be available following practice.
- Following Wednesday availability, there is no further access to members of the program until the end of the game Saturday, except for contractual broadcast obligations.

Gameday
- Every member of the program must report to the locker room following the game before conducting interviews. Other than network TV and radio obligations, CSU does not allow on-field interviews in the minutes following the game's conclusion.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will meet the media following a 10-minute cooling-off period in a designated area. The CSU locker room is closed. Requested student-athletes from the interview list will be brought to the interview area. Assistant coaches or true freshmen players are not available.

Recruiting period
- Access to Head Coach Mike Bobo will be less regular during this time, from the end of the regular season through signing day, the first Wednesday in February, due to recruiting responsibilities. Assistant coaches are not available during this period.

All other times
- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available either in-person or by phone, by appointment through Assistant A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- All assistant coaches are unavailable other than designated sessions on Wednesdays during regular season game weeks and on each coach's designated day during spring practice. That schedule will be issued prior to the start of spring ball.
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach, staff member, or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletic Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, or contact information for family members and friends where such interviews will enhance a feature story.

Injuries
- At all times throughout the calendar year, including spring practice, Head Coach Mike Bobo will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Bobo, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete, or his teammates.
- If Bobo is unavailable, please contact Paul Kirk.

Practice guidelines
- All Colorado State football practices are open for the first few periods unless otherwise noted. At a designated time after individual drills have concluded, the remainder of the session will be closed to the media.
- Videography is allowed during the media viewing period, but no sound may be recorded.
- During the spring, some scrimmages are open to the media. Fall scrimmages are not open.
- All media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, media are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.

Photography/videography guidelines
- Cameras are restricted from shooting/filming any 11-on-11 period, as well as selected other periods (Athletics Communications staff will notify). Photography must be tight, "iso" shots that do not reveal alignments or strategy.
- No sound may be captured during the shooting of practice video.
- Photographers are allowed to shoot individual drills and group activity as directed by the Athletics Communications staff. No photography is allowed of injured players or players receiving treatment from medical staff.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to bring tripods onto the practice field.
- Photographers and videographers should remain on the sidelines, or behind the end lines. They are not permitted in any drill or in close proximity to any team or position-group huddles at any time.
- Photographers should stand a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, photographers are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags and/or camera equipment, or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.
- Media are not permitted within listening distance of the post-practice team huddle, nor may photography of any kind take place during the huddle.
- All posed photo shoots must take place at times arranged prior to the beginning of practice, working through the Athletics Communications office. Posed photo shoots are not permitted during any practice.

Telephone interviews
- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available for phone interviews as time permits. Media should call to make an appointment through Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the athletic Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses.

CSURams.com/social media
- The official Web site of Colorado State athletics is CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics, and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs. Rams fans worldwide can also listen to the live play-by-play coverage offered by the Colorado State Sports Network through the Internet site. Fans can click on www.CSURams.com,then click on the radio broadcast icon on the site's front page for football and men's and women's basketball live radio coverage. News also will be disseminated via the Colorado State football program's official twitter account, @CSUFootball, as well as the general athletics account, @CSUAthletics, and Asst. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (@PaulKirk_CSU)

Media credentials
- Credentials must be requested through Paul Kirk in writing at least seven days in advance of an event. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the Communications office, or at the game.

Photographer credentials
- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field.

Game-day services
- A pregame luncheon is served 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the press box. In-game services include statistics and play-by-play information following each quarter and notes and statistics following the conclusion of the game.
- Hughes Stadium offers complimentary wireless Internet access. Check the seat-assignment label on press row for access information.
- The south tunnel contains a small photographer workroom with a table, chairs and several hard-line, high-speed Internet connections.

Parking
- Media parking is available at Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium in selected lots. Please contact the CSU Communications office to request a Hughes Stadium parking pass.
- Access to the parking lot immediately west of the McGraw Center will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the Communications office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: www.colostate.edu/depts/parking.
- The CSU Communications office will provide complimentary annual passes to this lot for select media organizations and members of the press who demonstrate a consistent willingness to cover the Rams. Those passes are not replaceable and should be treated like cash.

Stadium directions/will call
- Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium is located two miles west of the central campus at the base of the Rocky Mountain foothills, below the "Aggie A." The stadium is just south of Prospect on Overland Trail. From I-25, media should take the Prospect exit west to the mountains, then turn left on Overland Trail. Press box access is on the west side of the stadium via elevator to the fourth level.
- Ticket will call is located at the southwest corner of the south tunnel parking lot. There is no separate media will call. Provided arrangements are made in advance, passes will be left at the ticket will-call location.

Video highlights
- Please contact the CSU Athletics Communications office to request video highlights.

Weekly releases
- The weekly news release will be available by approximately 12 noon each Monday during the season on the school's official Web site, CSURAMS.com. News releases are also e-mailed to media outlets upon request, and available by Twitter link via @CSUFootball.

Colorado State media e-mail list
- To receive e-mail updates on the Rams, e-mail Paul Kirk at paul.kirk@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to receive the news releases via e-mail.
