

The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The new on-campus stadium at Colorado State University brings Rams football games back to campus for the first time in 50 years, and magnifies the engagement opportunities for the entire university. The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot facility combines all of the Rams' football training facilities and offices on the west side. The $18.5 million east side of the building includes the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center, general classroom space and the Collaborative for Student Achievement. Two spectacular VIP areas—The New Belgium Porch in the north end zone and the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club behind the Rams' bench at midfield—are unique in all of college football.

The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage. The Alumni and Academic Center has been integrated into the design to bring students and faculty into the building year-round, and the stadium clubs, VIP areas and other unique meeting spaces provide opportunities for hundreds of non-game day events year-round.

HONORING HISTORY, BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

The new Multipurpose Stadium aims to be a place that will showcase CSU's athletics legacy, while also providing a new home for future accomplishments on the field.

The Hall of Champions, located on the west side of the facility, is the 6,300-square-foot point-of-pride for all of the tremendous student-athletes that have competed in a varsity-level sport at CSU.

The Old Main Bell has returned to campus, after going missing in 1919. The bell was rung by freshmen to designate the beginning of classes, and its rich sound was heard campus-wide after CSU victories on the gridiron. It is now located above the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center on the northeast side of the stadium.

CSU is also poised to immediately create memories at the new stadium, as several media outlets (Phil Steele, ESPN, Athlon, among others) consider the Rams contenders for the Mountain West title in 2017.

The Old Main Bell, gone missing in 1919, was returned to campus in April of 2017. Its new home is at the stadium, above the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center.

The field at the new stadium will continue to be named after CSU coaching legend Sonny Lubick, pictured here with current Head Coach Mike Bobo.

May 18, 2015: Site prep began and construction fence was erected

Sept. 12, 2015: Ceremonial groundbreaking at construction site

Oct. 2015: Major excavation began in preparation to drill the first of 666 caissons that formed the deep foundation of the stadium

Aug. 2, 2016: Topping-out beam-raising ceremony

Oct. 2016: Premium Seating sold out

April 13, 2017: First sections of playing surface installed

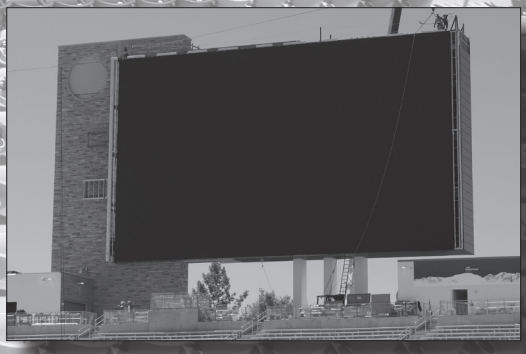

April 22, 2017: Green & Gold spring football game hosted on campus at Lagoon Field

June 9, 2017: Substantial completion; CSU took occupancy

June 16, 2017: "Rocky Mountain Rumble" statue installed on the north side of the facility

July 3, 2017: First special event, a wedding, hosted at the multipurpose stadium

Aug. 26, 2017: First football game, Colorado State vs. Oregon State

The videoboard at the new stadium is one of many amentities that will enhance fan experience at the new stadium.

The main board measures in at 50.5' x 84' (4,242 square feet), making it the largest in the MW and along the Front Range at nearly the size of a basketball court.

The facility includes a pair of practice fields west of the main stadium - one that is full size and one that is 50 yards in length.

The 3,700-square-foot player lounge boasts several televisions, pool tables, and more. The room is also a reminder of CSU's football legacy, showcasing all the former Rams to play in the NFL, past conference champions, bowl game participants and more.

The lounge also overlooks the nearly-10,000-square-foot weight room, and is on the same level as the football coaching and support staff offices.

The spacious player locker room will be the everyday home of the Rams, including game days. Each locker will have a tablet built in, as well as other electronic connectivity ports. CSU legends adorn the walls above each locker space.

The team has several meeting spaces, conveniently-positioned near the locker room and weight room. The position meeting rooms surround the 150-seat, theater-style team meeting room. Above is the defensive backs meeting room, with CSU legend Ray Jackson, who is currently the director of player development for the Denver Broncos.

The student section will be located in the lower level along the east side. The section can hold 10,000 loud and passionate CSU student supporters.

As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

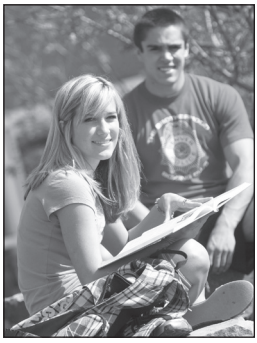

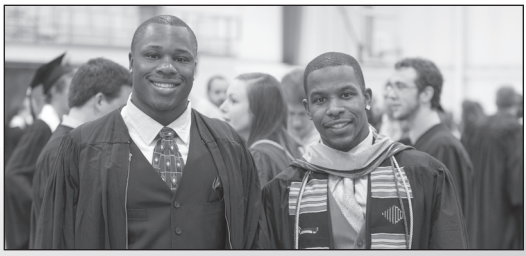

Redshirt senior offensive lineman Jake Bennett (left), and graduated Rams Nolan Peralta and Tyree Simmons in the spacious Anderson Academic and Training Center.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

With more than 150 programs of study and 76 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 18:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

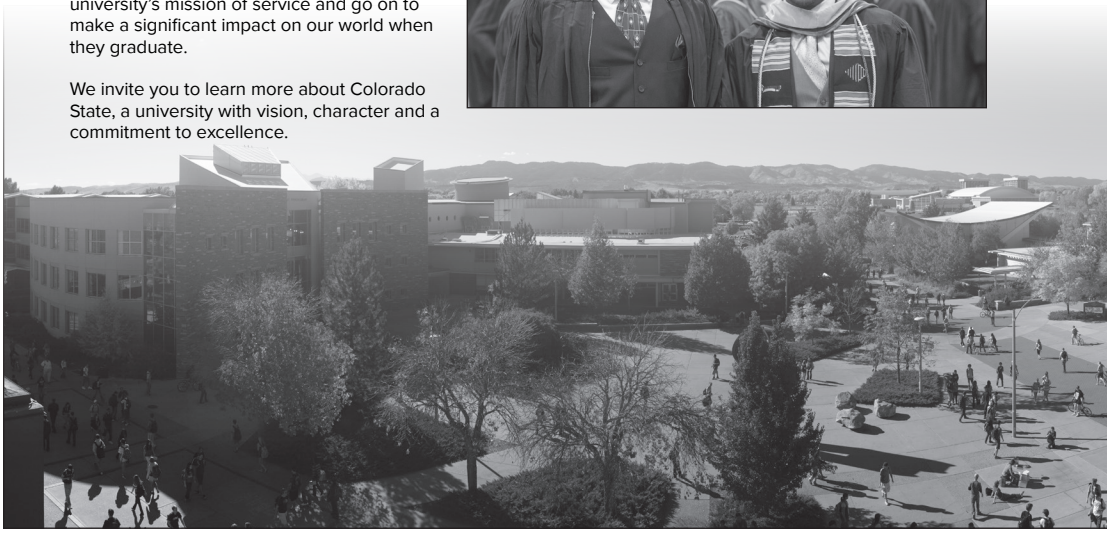

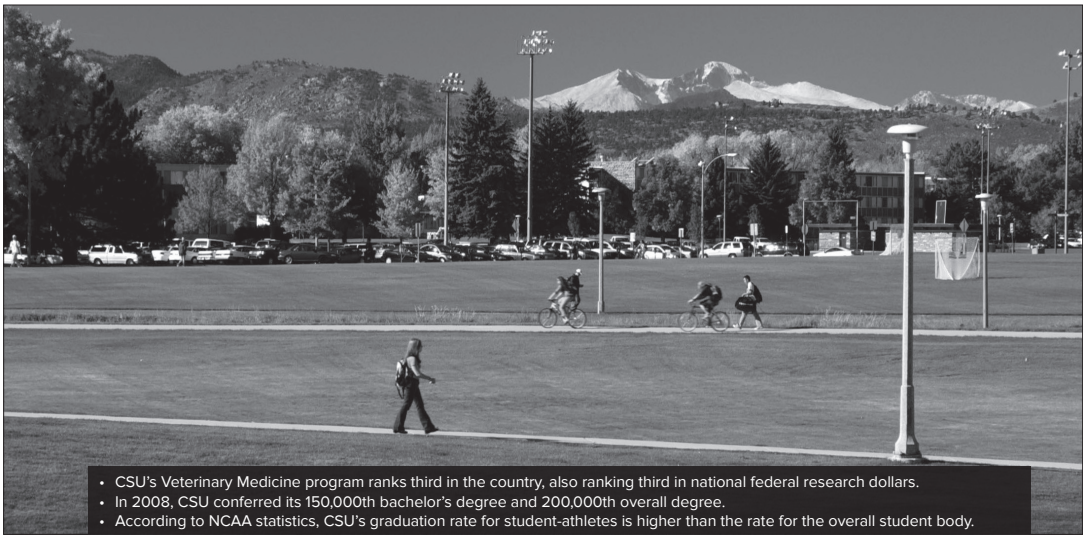

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart. Even more important, CSU's character is reflected in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission of service and go on to make a significant impact on our world when they graduate.

We invite you to learn more about Colorado State, a university with vision, character and a commitment to excellence.

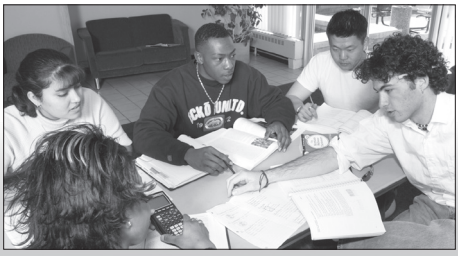

- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks third in the country, also ranking third in national federal research dollars.
- In 2008, CSU conferred its 150,000th bachelor's degree and 200,000th overall degree.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the rate for the overall student body.

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that Colorado State is tied for the lead in the Mountain West in graduation rate for student-athletes at 68 percent – well ahead of the conference's overall four-year student-athlete graduation rate of 62 percent. The Rams' 68 percent, four-year graduation rate is also well above the NCAA Division I average of 65 percent. Additionally, CSU student-athletes continue to graduate at a higher percentage than the general student body at 64 percent.

Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which has greatly enhanced the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.

While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State 61st in its annual "America's Best Colleges" report among public schools. The university offers 76 majors, 137 concentrations and 79 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

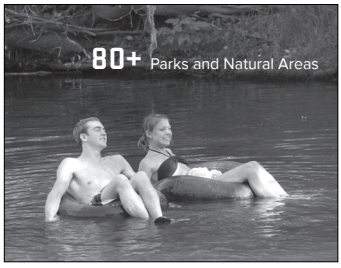

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. Construction recently was completed on the state-of-the-art Computer Science buildings and the Rockwell Hall expansion at the College of Business. Overall, facilities upgrades involving engineering, behavioral sciences, biology and chemstry will be in place by the start of the fall of 2017.

FORT COLLINS FACTS

- America's Most Satisfied City (Time magazine, April 2014).
- 2013 Best Towns in America (1 of 18) (Outside magazine, October 2013).
- Ranked 7th on Best Places for Business and Careers (Forbes, August 2013).
- No. 4 Healthiest Mid-Size City in U.S. (2012 Gallup-Healthways Survey, February 2013).
- Ranked 11th on America's Top 50 Bike-Friendly Cities (Bicycle Magazine, May 2012).
- No. 5 in Forbes magazine's best United States cities for business and careers (June 2011).
- One of the Top 20 Places to Thrive (Best Boomer Towns, February 2009).
- Fifth-Most Educated City in the country based on education levels of our adult population (Portfolio.com, December 2010).

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Tucked against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 21st-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 150,000 residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and the city boasts a lively arts and cultural scene, and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with more than 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

150,000+ Approximate population of Fort Collins

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 29 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. Old Town, the heart of Fort Collins, offers a one-of-a-kind shopping experience and more than 80 restaurants, in addition to a vibrant night life and multiple cultural arts centers.

Horsetooth Reservoir, located just a few miles west of CSU's main campus, offers great outdoors opportunities including camping, boating, fishing, swimming, hiking, climbing and more.

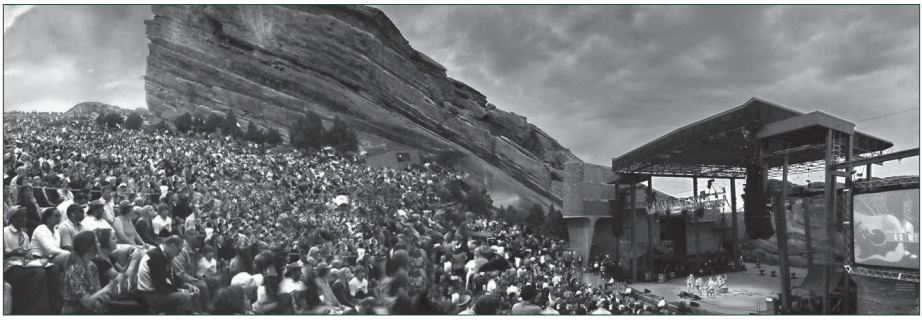

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of more than 3 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 16 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation. Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, right), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (bottom), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, left), and the world's 19th-busiest airport, Denver International (below, right). Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

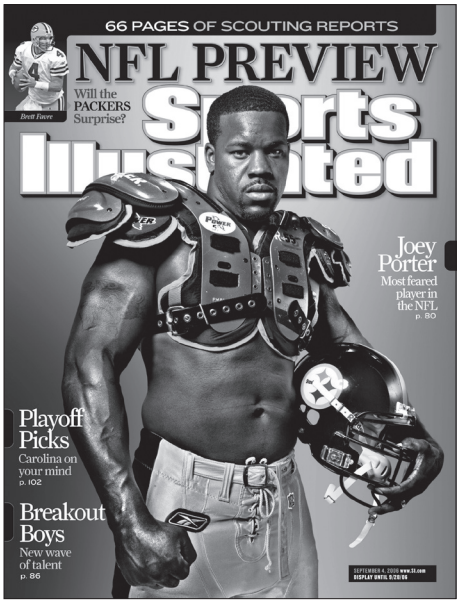

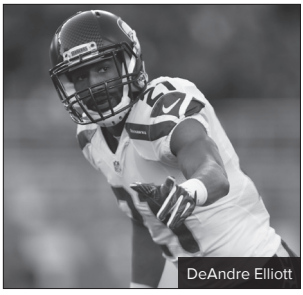

#NEXTLEVELRAMS

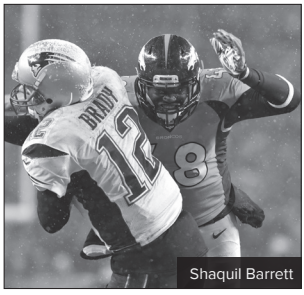

Former Ram Joey Porter (right) retired from the NFL during the summer of 2012, capping an All-Pro career where it began, with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2006, Sports Illustrated called Porter the "most feared player in the NFL."

Several players continue to carry the NFL torch for Colorado State, including six total players selected since 2014: OL Weston Richburg (No. 43 in 2014, N.Y. Giants), TE Crockett Gillmore (No. 99 in 2014, Baltimore Ravens), OL Ty Sambrailo (No. 59 in 2015, Denver Broncos), QB Garrett Grayson (No. 72 in 2015, New Orleans Saints), WR Rashard Higgins (No. 172 in 2016, Cleveland Browns) and LB Cory James (No. 194 in 2016, Oakland Raiders)

DeAndre Elliott signed with the Seattle Seahawks as an undrafted free agent in 2016, and ended up seeing significant time in their secondary. Kevin Davis signed with the Los Angeles Rams after the 2017 NFL Draft, giving the Rams 10 players on NFL rosters.

Student-athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them. That's why, in 2009 the Anderson Academic Training Center was completed, offering Rams student-athletes a first-class academic facility.

Features:
- A computer lab with more than 30 workstations.
- Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas.
- Six full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

The training portion includes a state-of-the-art weight room and strength and conditioning center, in addition to a nutrition center. One of the newest and most comprehensive in the Mountain West, each team has a sport-specific strength coach to work with them throughout the year.

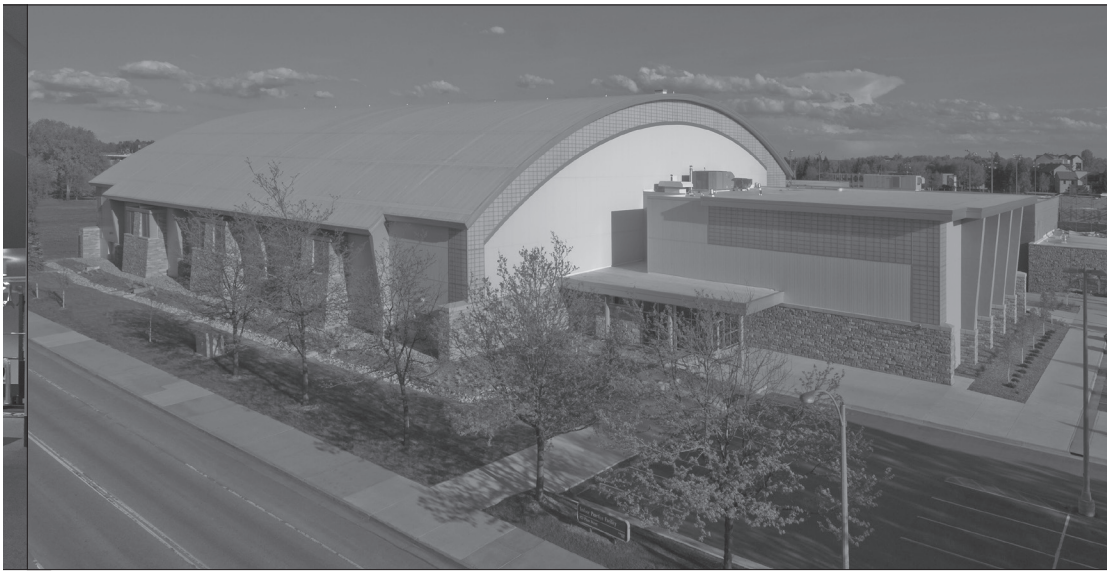

Training Room

During the summer of 2013, the athletic training room went through a major transformation, doubling in size to help make it one of the finest in the country. It features a multitude of taping and treatment tables, rehabilitation equipment, and hot/cold tubs, including an underwater treadmill, the only of its kind in the state.

The team will have a training room with its own equipment, pools, training tables and more, adjacent to its nearly 10,000-square-foot weight room at the new stadium.

Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility, measuring more than 66,000 square feet. The structure allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

- A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field.
- Large gymnasium for basketball and volleyball
- Utilized for training by all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track.
- Retractable netting for batting cages and golf workouts.
- Video deck allows CSU coaches and student-athletes to review technique and put it into play immediately.

THE AGGIE "A"

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking Hughes Stadium (above) turns 93 years old in 2016, making it the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

The "A" evolved after World War I when a trend began among colleges to display the school insignia on a hill near campus. At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect such an emblem. A group of military volunteers formed the "A" Club and donated vehicles for transporting supplies, and female students provided food for the workers.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A." One small detail was missing: The school didn't own the land on which the insignia sat. The College and Ag Board members met with landowner R.G. Maxwell and negotiated a long-term lease for the sum of $1. The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom. For many years the freshman class carried out the annual tradition of whitewashing the "A."

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

RAM WALK

Before every home game, Colorado State's players and coaches exit the team buses at the intersection of Meridian and Hughes Way, and walk south on Meridian toward the north entrance to the stadium. Rams fans, CAM the Ram and cheerleaders line the street, while the CSU marching band plays the fight song.

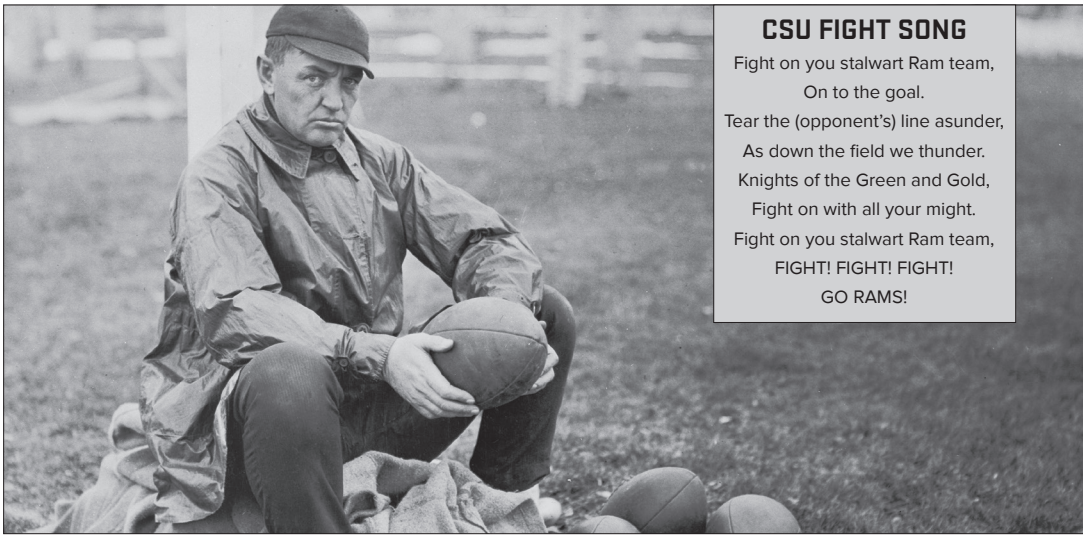

THE CANNON

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents that just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU athletics. At the new stadium, the cannon will be located at field level in the southeast corner.

CAM THE RAM

The official mascot of Colorado State is CAM the Ram, whose name symbolizes CSU's history — an acronym for Colorado Agricultural & Mechanical College, the institution's former name. All told, 25 live rams have served proudly. The mascot has its own corps of students, known as the 'Ram Handlers,' as well as a traveling trailer. The current rambouillet began his duties on Sept. 19, 2015.

CSU FIGHT SONG

Fight on you stalwart Ram team,
On to the goal.
Tear the (opponent's) line asunder,
As down the field we thunder.
Knights of the Green and Gold,
Fight on with all your might.
Fight on you stalwart Ram team,
FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
GO RAMS!

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

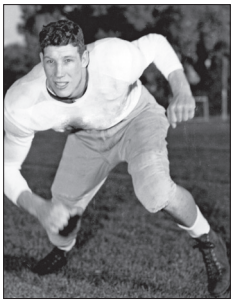

The Colorado State football program owns 15 conference championships. The 1915 team captured the program's first Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title. The Rams' most recent conference title came in 2002 (left), when the team posted a 10-4 overall record, and a 6-2 mark in Mountain West play. In all, CSU claimed three of the first four titles in Mountain West history. Legendary coaches Harry Hughes (above) and Sonny Lubick each won six league championships.

TRAVELING TROPHIES

FUM McGRAW

The most recognized name in CSU annals is Thurman "Fum" McGraw (left). The university's first consensus football All-American (1948-49), he went on to an illustrious career in the NFL, where he helped the Detroit Lions to two world championships. McGraw devoted more than 40 years to the university he loved, including a decade as director of athletics (1976-86). His retired No. 48 jersey hangs in the locker room during every game, home and road.

A passionate competitor, during his days as a Colorado A&M student and fraternity member, he sang a song directed at regional rivals. The ballad later became known as "Fum's Song."

FUM'S SONG

I'll sing you a song of college days, and tell you where to go.
Aggies, where your knowledge is, and Boulder to spend your dough.
C.C. for your sissy boys, and Utah for your times,
D.U. for your ministers, and drunkards School of Mines.
Don't send my boy to Wyoming U. a dying mother said.
Don't send him to old Brigham Young, I'd rather see him dead.
Just send him to our Aggies, it's better than Cornell.
Before I'd see him in Boulder, I'd see my son in hell!

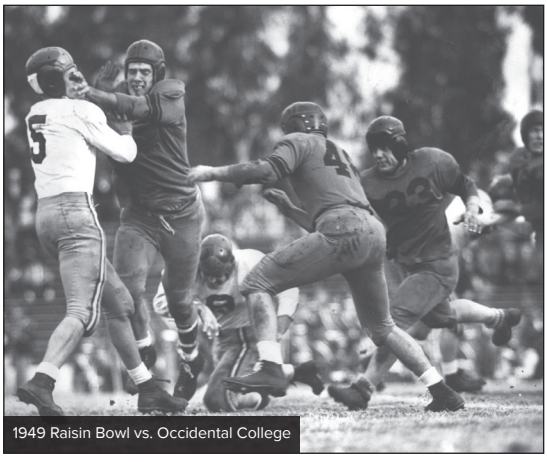

GOING BOWLING

The Colorado State football program has earned 16 bowl berths in its history, dating back to the team's first postseason appearance, a physical matchup against Occidental College in the 1949 Raisin Bowl (pictured at right). The Rams were led to their first bowl game by second-year head coach Bob Davis.

Earle Bruce guided the Rams back to the postseason in 1990, when he coached the team to a resounding 32-31 victory over the Oregon Ducks in the Freedom Bowl (below, right).

After Steve Fairchild led the Rams to a win in the 2008 New Mexico Bowl (right), the program has earned four consecutive bowl appearances under Jim McElwain (2013 New Mexico Bowl vs. Washington State, 2014 Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl vs. Utah) and Mike Bobo (2015 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl vs. Nevada, 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl vs. Idaho).

DAILY COVERAGE

Colorado State is a nationally prominent brand, due in large part to the success of its athletic teams and the media coverage they receive.

The Rams are covered by five newspapers in addition to the Associated Press. What's more, eight area television stations, mostly from Denver (the nation's No. 17 television market), and several radio outlets along the Front Range come to campus to interview and feature CSU's student-athletes and coaches.

GAMEDAY COVERAGE

Colorado State football plays regularly on regional and national television. Overall, since the program's first telecast game in 1956, the Rams have played 284 such contests, including eight or more televised games in each of the past 22 seasons. CSU's Sept. 21, 2013 game at Alabama drew 2.78 million viewers on ESPN2, the 2013 New Mexico Bowl on ESPN drew 2.77 million viewers and the 2014 Las Vegas Bowl on ABC drew 2.12 million viewers.

MEDIA DAYS

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 19th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

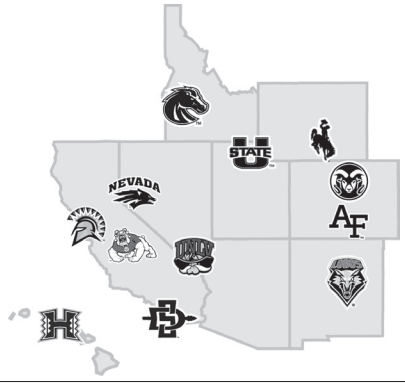

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 18 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. During the last three academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Colorado State President Tony Frank currently sits on the DI Board of Directors, while MW Commissioner Craig Thompson and Fresno State Faculty Athletics Representative Dawn Lewis are members of the DI Council. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2017 season, the MW has agreements with seven (7) different bowl games that will generate at least five (5) guaranteed postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, and Hawai'i Bowl - and secondary positions with the Ticket City Cactus Bowl and the Foster Farms Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

JOE PARKER

Director of Athletics | 3rd Year at CSU | Michigan, '87

PARKER AT A GLANCE

Education

- Bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan
- MBA from Texas

Personal

- Wife: Jen; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy A.D. at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate A.D. at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker in his third year as Director of Athletics at Colorado State University. A proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, Parker was hired on March 17, 2015 by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank.

Parker, who had been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since April 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

In Parker's first two-plus years in Fort Collins he has skillfully and thoughtfully guided the athletics department and the university through the construction of Colorado State's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium, which opens on-time and on-budget for the 2017 football season. The state-of-the-art facility will house all aspects of the Rams' football program and includes general classroom space, the Collaborative for Student Achievement and the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center.

Parker has led the department of athletics through the successful process of selling out all premium seating inventory in the stadium. Comprised of private suites, loge boxes, indoor club and outdoor club seating, the entire premium seating inventory sold out in October 2016, nearly a year before the stadium's opening. Season ticket sales continue to pace at record levels, and memberships are sold out to the stadium's two VIP areas—the New Belgium Porch and Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club. In addition to the memberships selling out, both partnerships by prominent Fort Collins companies illustrate the tremendous connection between the university and the community, and demonstrate great enthusiasm for partnering with Colorado State and investing in its future.

In just his first two years in Fort Collins, Parker has overseen tremendous success by the Rams' athletics programs in competition, and continued growth of Colorado State Athletics. The Rams had the Mountain West's highest average finish in 2016-17 (3.94) across its 16 sport programs, claiming three conference championships and six second-place finishes. The Rams were represented in 10 NCAA postseason competitions, and including the two basketball programs competing in their respective National Invitation Tournaments and football's bowl game, 13 of the 16 CSU athletic programs wrapped up their year in postseason events.

CSU's volleyball and women's basketball programs both went undefeated in their 18 Mountain West contests during the 2015-16 academic year, making CSU just the fourth school in NCAA history to have dual undefeated conference seasons, and the first time in school history. The CSU football team has qualified for its third and fourth consecutive bowl games and the Rams have claimed eight total MW championships since Parker's hire.

In Parker's tenure he also has signed an extension of Colorado State's multi-year agreement with Under Armour to be its official apparel provider through 2021, as well an enhanced, long-term multimedia rights partnership with Learfield, both of which position Colorado State for continued growth in its profile and stature nationally.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker has been involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity issues at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and launch of a current $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

Joe Parker was introduced as the director of athletics at Colorado State on March 17, 2015.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jen, have two children, Emma and Will, both of whom are students at Colorado State.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT JOE PARKER...

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director
"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech
"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech Retired Women's Basketball Coach & 1993 National Champion in WBB
"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."

Jeff Long, Vice Chancellor & Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas
"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma
"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's A.D./Executive Senior Associate A.D., University of Texas
"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, Former Athletics Director, University of Michigan
"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, Athletics Director, TCU
"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

DeLoss Dodds, Retired Athletics Director, University of Texas
"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University
"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

MIKE BOBO

Mike Bobo is in his third season as head coach at Colorado State in 2017, having been appointed by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank on Dec. 23, 2014, as the 22nd head coach in program history. Bobo came to Fort Collins from the University of Georgia, where the former Bulldogs quarterback had spent the previous 14 seasons, including the last eight as offensive coordinator.

Bobo in 2016 became the first head coach in CSU history to lead the Rams to a bowl game in each of his first two seasons. In both years his Rams teams have steadily improved and finished strong, as evidenced by his 7-1 record in November games, which includes a 4-1 mark on the road. The 2016 Rams closed the regular season winning four of their last five games, and five of their last seven, to finish the regular season at 7-5 for the second year in a row.

The Rams' offense fueled the late-season surge, averaging 47.8 points and 533.8 yards per game over the last six contests, including the bowl game. Those figures ranked second and fourth, respectively, among all FBS programs from Oct. 16 through the remainder of the season. CSU ranked fourth in the nation in red-zone scoring (94.6%), 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5).

Five CSU players earned All-Mountain West recognition under Bobo's guidance, including three first-team selections: Wide receiver Michael Gallup, punter Hayden Hunt and guard Fred Zerblis. Second-team honors went to center Jake Bennett and linebacker Kevin Davis, while tackle Nick Callender, quarterback Nick Stevens and guard Paul Thurston received honorable mention.

In 2015 Bobo became the only head coach in program history to win seven regular season games in his first season at the helm. Bobo's Rams won four games in a row, and five out of six, to close the 2015 regular season, securing CSU's third consecutive bowl invitation en route to a 7-6 record. CSU's four wins in the season's final month marked the first undefeated November by a Rams team since 1948, and included three road wins--at Wyoming in his first "Border War," at New Mexico and at Fresno State.

Five Rams earned All-Mountain West honors under Bobo in 2015, including punter Hayden Hunt, who was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award. CSU ranked fourth in the FBS in net punting average (42.0) and 17th in kickoff return average (25.1). Bobo's Rams were one of only two FBS schools to have three running backs each record at least one game with 140 or more rushing yards (Dalyn Dawkins, Izzy Matthews and Jasen Oden, Jr.) and quarterback Nick Stevens set passing records for a CSU sophomore with 2,679 yards through the air and 21 touchdowns (fifth-most in school history).

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia, where he had starred at quarterback in the late 1990s, began in January, 2001, when head coach Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach, for his second stint with the school. He was promoted by Richt to offensive coordinator in 2007. During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In 2014 Bobo led a Bulldogs offense that averaged 41.3 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 457.8 yards of total offense per game. Against teams ranked in the Top 25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game. Additionally, the 2014 Bulldogs' offense ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing offense (257.0; 11th FBS), team passing efficiency (156.06; 9th FBS), completion percentage (67.4%; 7th FBS), fewest interceptions (6; 9th FBS), third-down conversion percentage (49.7%; 8th FBS) and fourth-down conversion percentage (80.0%; 3rd FBS). The 537 points scored in 2014 established a Georgia single-season record. The previous single-season record was set in 2012 while Bobo was offensive coordinator.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, who played from 2010-13. Murray, who was chosen in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, set more than 25 UGA records and four SEC marks. He became the first player in SEC history to have at least 3,000 passing yards in four consecutive seasons. The NFL's No. 1 draft choice in 2009, Matthew Stafford, also blossomed under Bobo's tutelage. The Detroit Lions' starting quarterback was second-team All-SEC and earned All-America recognition in 2008 for Georgia and was MVP of the 2009 Capital One Bowl.

In Bobo's time at Georgia he also mentored quarterback David Greene (2001-04), who was the winningest quarterback in NCAA Division I history at the time (42), wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff in Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State, after working as an administrative assistant and graduate assistant from 1998-99 at UGA.

Bobo was a quarterback at his alma mater, Georgia ('97), from 1994-97, earning four letters, and led the team in passing in 1996 and '97. Among all UGA quarterbacks, Bobo ranks first in single-season completion percentage (65% in '97), single-season passing efficiency rating (155.8 in '97), second in career touchdown passes (38) and third in career pass completions (445), season passing yards (2,751 in '97), career passing yards (6,334) and single-season touchdown passes (19). In his career Bobo threw for 6,334 yards, which is third-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., was inducted into the Thomasville-Thomas County Sports Hall of Fame on Nov. 10, 2016. He joined his father, George, a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia, who was inducted in 2013.

Bobo and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew (13); triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace (11); and Kate (9).

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT MIKE BOBO...

Mark Richt, Head Coach at Miami:

"Mike Bobo has been a leader his entire life playing the position of quarterback in high school and college. And he has led well. While he's on the cutting edge of offensive football, he's also old school in his approach. He's a tough disciplinarian who is results-oriented. I never had to worry about our offense with Mike's leadership as our coordinator."

Matthew Stafford, starting QB, Detroit Lions:

"I am extremely happy for Coach Bobo, and I know he has been ready for an opportunity like this for quite some time. He helped me grow as a quarterback immensely in just a short amount of time at UGA and taught me what I needed to know for football at the highest level. I owe a lot of my success to the coaching and knowledge that he passed on to me. He was a great motivator and truly cared about his players. Because of that, I know he will be a successful head coach and bring a lot of success to the Colorado State team and fans."

Peyton Manning, Two-time World Champion quarterback:

"He was the starting quarterback at Georgia during the whole time I was in school at Tennesee, or the three years--sophomore, junior and senior years. They had great teams; they had Champ (Bailey), Hines Ward and Robert Edwards. So, they had a lot of great players and Mike was a great leader, great SEC quarterback. We had some good battles. I always think you have a little bond with SEC guys, especially SEC quarterbacks. I enjoyed competing against him. He was a great player."

Todd Gurley, 2015 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year:

"He's very passionate about his job. He takes it seriously. With his offensive skills, he can definitely help them improve and move the ball. He's a high-energy guy. He's going to get on you, but it's going to make you better. His offense really helps young guys and gets you ready for an NFL career if you get that opportunity. He's going to be balanced and utilize his talents."

A.J. Green, WR, Cincinnati Bengals:

"The first thing that comes to mind about Mike Bobo is that he's a really smart guy. Kind of a unique guy, just with his schemes and his play-calling. He always had something that was going to surprise the defense and mess them up."

WILL FRIEND

Offensive Coordinator/OL | 3rd Year at CSU | 17th Year Coaching

Will Friend enters his third season as Colorado State's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2017, hired Dec. 24, 2014, as the first member of head coach Mike Bobo's inaugural staff.

In 2016 Friend guided one of the most productive offenses in Colorado State history, and the most potent in the red zone, en route to a second straight bowl appearance. The Rams scored on 53 of 56 trips inside the 20 (94.6%) to rank 4th in FBS. CSU also ranked 12th in passing efficiency (157.04), 28th in scoring offense (35.3), 30th in total offense (462.5), 31st in rushing offense (217.8). Six players from Friend's offensive unit earned All-Mountain recognition: Wide receiver Michael Gallup (1st team), guards Fred Zerblis (1st team) and Paul Thurston (honorable mention), center Jake Bennett (2nd team), quarterback Nick Stevens (honorable mention) and tackle Nick Callender (honorable mention).

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
2001	West Alabama	Offensive Line
2002	Tuscaloosa Central HS	Head Coach
2003-04	Georgia	Graduate Assistant
2005-06	Gardner-Webb	Offensive Line
2007-10	UAB	Offensive Line
2011-12	Georgia	Offensive Line
2013-14	Georgia	Offensive Line/ Running Game Coord.
2015-	Colorado State	Offensive Coord./Offensive Line

The Rams were especially productive in the second half of the 2016 season, averaging 47.8 points and 533.8 yards per game over the last six contests. Friend's offensive line was a strength of the team, which allowed just 1.0 sack per game, 8th-best in the nation. CSU allowed just one sack in the final six games of the season. Quarterback Nick Stevens ranked fifth in FBS (first in MW) with a 171.3 passer efficiency rating and the Rams ranked 12th in FBS with just seven interceptions thrown.

In his first season with the Rams in 2015, Friend helped lead Colorado State to a 7-6 record with an offense that ranked 47th nationally and third in the Mountain West. The unit featured five All-Mountain West honorees, including first team all-conference wide receiver Rashard Higgins and second team honoree Stevens.

Colorado State's offensive line allowed just 1.31 sacks per game and 4.62 tackles for a loss per game, figures which ranked 22nd and 10th, respectively, in the nation. Stevens set passing records for a CSU sophomore with 2,679 yards through the air and 21 touchdowns (fifth-most in school history), and the Rams were one of only two FBS schools to have three running backs each record at least one game with 140 or more rushing yards (Dalyn Dawkins, Izzy Matthews and Jasen Oden, Jr.).

Friend had spent the previous four seasons at Georgia, beginning in 2011 as offensive line coach and adding the title of running game coordinator in 2013. With Bobo as offensive coordinator, Friend helped guide a Bulldogs' offense that averaged 41.3 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 457.8 yards of total offense per game. Against teams ranked in the Top 25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game.

Additionally, the 2014 Bulldogs' offense ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing offense (257.0; 11th FBS), team passing efficiency (156.06; 9th FBS), completion percentage (67.4%; 7th FBS), fewest interceptions (6; 9th FBS), third-down conversion percentage (49.7%; 8th FBS) and fourth-down conversion percentage (80.0%; 3rd FBS). Friend and the offensive staff at Georgia also posted record-setting numbers in 2012 and '13, including single-season total offense (6,547 in 2012 and 6,294 in 2013); average yards per game (484.2 in `13 and 467.64 in `12) and touchdowns in a season (72 in 2012 and 58 in `13). He also coached three 2012 NFL draft choices - OT Cordy Glenn (2nd, Bills), C Ben Jones (4th, Texans), and OT Justin Anderson (7th, Colts).

Prior to his tenure at Georgia, Friend spent four seasons as offensive line coach at UAB (2007-10) where the Blazers' average offensive output per game in 2009 and '10 represented two of the top three season marks in program history. The UAB offense registered 5,074 yards in 2010, the school's second-highest single-season total. The Blazers finished the 2010 campaign ranked No. 24 nationally in total offense (422.8 yards per game) and were 24th in passing offense (267.0). In 2009, UAB's rushing average of 229.9 yards per game was the highest mark for the Blazers in school history and ranked No. 7 in the nation.

Friend spent the previous two years at Gardner-Webb (2005-06) as offensive line coach after two years as a graduate assistant coach at Georgia (2003-04). In his first season at Gardner-Webb, the Bulldog offense ranked No. 10 nationally in total offense as Friend saw three of his linemen earn All-Big South Conference honors. He also spent a year at Tuscaloosa Central High School (2002) and was the offensive line coach at West Alabama in 2001.

A two-time All-SEC and four-year starting guard at Alabama, Friend helped the Crimson Tide to the SEC Western Division title and berths in the SEC Championship Game in 1993, '94 and '96, with appearances in the Gator Bowl, Citrus Bowl (1996) and Outback Bowl (1997). Friend was named to Alabama's Team of the Decade for the 1990s.

Friend was a Parade Magazine All-America selection as a senior at Neshoba Central High in Philadelphia, Miss. He earned his B.S. degree in human performance from Alabama in 1998. He and his wife, the former Carrie Moon, have three children: Katie (12), Brooks (6) and Charlie (3).

MARTY ENGLISH

Marty English is in his sixth season at Colorado State in 2017, and his second back in the role of the Rams' defensive coordinator after serving as linebackers coach in 2015 under head coach Mike Bobo. English, who also continues to coach the Rams' linebackers for the sixth consecutive year, served as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2012-14 on Jim McElwain's staff.

English, a 30-year coaching veteran with significant experience along the Front Range, has been part of the Colorado State staff that has led an impressive return to prominence over the past five seasons, highlighted by four consecutive bowl appearances for the first time since the team went to five in a row from 1999-03 and a 10-win season in 2014 for the just the fifth time in school history. The Rams' 18 wins over the 2013-14 seasons were their most in a two-season span since 1999-2000 (also 18), and tied for second most in school history.

English's defensive unit in 2016 posted six halves of shutout football, including the Rams' first shutout game since 1997, holding Fresno State scoreless on Nov. 5. The Rams ranked second in the Mountain West and 43rd nationally with 6.3 tackles for loss per game, and a total of 22 players had a tackle-for-loss in 2016, with 14 recording a sack. For 11 of those players it was their first career sack.

Linebacker Kevin Davis earned second-team All-MW honors under English's guidance, as he led the team in tackles (110) and tackles-for-loss (10.5). Davis was one of just two FBS players with 100-plus tackles, 3.0 sacks and at least one interception, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble, and signed with the L.A. Rams as a free agent in April 2017.

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
1987-89	Northern Colorado	Graduate Assistant
1990-99	Northern Colorado	Special Teams/Recruiting Coord.
		Strength & Conditioning/Linebackers
2000-02	Northern Colorado	Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
2003-08	Wyoming	Linebackers

2012-14	Colorado State	Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
2015	Colorado State	Linebackers
2016	Colorado State	Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

The play of the Rams' linebackers in 2015 helped the defense rank 10th among all FBS teams in passing yards allowed (177.6) and 26th in third-down percentage defense (34.5%). Under English's tutelage, senior Cory James was named second-team All-Mountain West while Davis earned honorable mention. James finished his career with 24.0 career sacks--all with English as his coach--to rank fourth all-time at CSU, and was drafted in the sixth round (194th overall) in 2016 by the Oakland Raiders.

In 2014 the Rams' defense allowed just 23.4 points per game in the regular season (3rd MW/34th FBS), the fewest by a CSU defense since 2006 (21.9). Two of English's linebackers, seniors Max Morgan and Aaron Davis, finished their careers in 2014 ranked among the top seven tacklers in school history. Morgan finished his CSU career with 348 tackles to rank sixth on the school's all-time list, and the most in a career since Rick Crowell tallied 370 from 1996-2000, while Davis, a second-team All-Mountain West choice, finished with 345 tackles to rank seventh all-time. James and Morgan earned honorable mention All-MW.

English helped lead a Rams defense in 2013 that ranked third in the MW and 30th in D1 FBS in rushing defense (140.6), fourth (46th FBS) in sacks (2.3 per game) and fourth in scoring defense (29.8). Three CSU defenders earned All-MW recognition in 2013, including MW Defensive Player of the Year and first-team linebacker Shaquil Barrett, who signed as a rookie free agent with the Denver Broncos. Cornerback Shaq Bell earned second-team honors while Morgan earned honorable mention. In his first season at Colorado State three Rams defenders earned All-MW honors: Defensive end Lanston Tanyi (2nd team), Barrett and Bell (honorable mention). James was named to Phil Steele's national All-Freshman second team and set a Colorado State freshman record with 7.5 sacks in 2012.

A Colorado product, English had spent the previous nine seasons at Wyoming (2003-11). He had served as the Cowboys' defensive coordinator, linebackers and special teams coach from 2009-11. The senior member of the Wyoming staff when he joined the Rams, he spent his first six years (2003-08) in Laramie as Joe Glenn's linebackers coach.

English helped the Cowboys to two bowl appearances in his three seasons at the reins of the defense, including 2011, when Wyoming led the Mountain West and tied for 10th in the nation with 31 takeaways. DB Blair Burns, a Freshman All-American, was one of six all-conference players on English's 2011 defense. As the Cowboys' linebackers coach, English helped Wyoming finish ninth nationally in 2006 in total defense, and No. 8 against the pass. In 2004, the Pokes ranked 13th in the country with 28 takeaways, a key part of a season that concluded with a win over UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl. All told, English has served on coaching staffs that led their teams to the postseason on 16 occasions.

English spent 16 seasons (1987-2002) at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, in Greeley, serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach (2000-02); special teams, linebackers, strength and conditioning coach and recruiting coordinator (1990-99), and graduate assistant (1987-89). At UNC, English and the Bears won a pair of NCAA Division II national championships (1996-97) and went to the national playoffs eight times, including the 2002 national semifinals.

As a player, English was part of another national championship, when his Idaho State team won the 1981 NCAA Division I-AA title. English then transferred to Northern Colorado, lettering three years as a linebacker. As a 1985 senior captain, he garnered all-North Central Conference recognition.

A 1986 and 1989 graduate of Northern Colorado, English owns a bachelor's degree in recreation management, and a master's in physical education in 1989. He grew up in Lakewood, Colo., and earned all-state honors at Alameda High School.

Marty and his wife, Suzie, have one daughter, Kelsey, and one son, Tyler. Kelsey is a graduate of the University of Wyoming, while Tyler is a graduate of Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo. Each was married in the summer of 2017.

JAMIE BRYANT

Special Teams Coord./Safeties | 2nd Year at CSU | 21st Year Coaching

Jamie Bryant is in his second season as Colorado State's special teams coordinator and safeties coach in 2017. Bryant was hired by head coach Mike Bobo on Feb. 16, 2016, bringing nearly two decades of collegiate coaching experience to Fort Collins.

Bryant's impact on the Rams' special teams in 2016 was significant. CSU ranked 10th in FBS in net punting (40.64), and improved by 48 spots in kickoff return coverage, reducing opponents' returns from an average of 22.65 in 2015 to 19.63 to finish in the top-third in the country. The Rams did not allow a blocked kick or punt for the season, and punter Hayden Hunt earned first-team All-MW honors.

Bryant also guided the Rams' safeties to play a pivotal role for a Rams' defense that posted six halves of shutout football, including the Rams' first shutout game since 1997, holding Fresno State scoreless on Nov. 5. Sophomore safety Braylin Scott had an interception in three consecutive games early in the season, and true freshman Jamal Hicks—implemented into the lineup late in the year—made a key interception at San Diego State that helped the Rams keep momentum en route to a resounding 63-31 defeat of the MW champion Aztecs.

CAREER BACKGROUND

2014	Youngstown State	Defensive Coord.
2015	Delaware State	Defensive Coord./Safeties
2016	Colorado State	Special Teams Coordinator/Safeties

Bryant spent the 2015 season at Delaware State, coaching All-MEAC selections Gabriel Sherrod and Malik Harris. Sherrod led all FCS players with 25.0 tackles for loss. Prior to his season as the Hornets' defensive coordinator and safeties coach, he served as a coordinator for two seasons (2013-14) at Youngstown State.

As defensive coordinator in 2014, the Penguins' line racked up 27 sacks and had two all-conference performers, highlighted by first-team defensive end Derek Rivers. YSU's top two linebackers combined for 188 tackles, while the secondary had nine interceptions and 33 passes defended. The defense surrendered 30 or more points just twice in 2014, the fewest since 2007. The Penguins allowed fewer yards and points than the prior season, and the biggest improvement was seen on third-down situations, when they stopped the opposition on 61 percent of opportunities. In 2013, Bryant served as YSU's special teams coordinator and assistant linebackers coach. YSU punter Nick Liste and kickoff return specialist Andre Stubbs were first-team All-Missouri Valley selections. Liste was the team's first all-conference punter since 2006, while Stubbs was the first return specialist to be recognized since 2001.

Bryant was previously an assistant coach for two seasons at Houston (2011-12). He was the Cougars' defensive coordinator in 2012 and the linebackers coach in 2011. Bryant helped Houston to a 13-1 record in 2011, the best season in school history at the time. UH had four linebackers with more than 100 tackles, led by Marcus McGraw's 141. The starting linebackers posted 62.5 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks and 10 interceptions that season.

From 2002-10 Bryant coached the secondary at Vanderbilt, and during that time spent one season as the Commodores' special teams coordinator and two as defensive coordinator. During his nine seasons in Nashville, he helped lead Vandy to its first postseason appearance in 26 seasons when the Commodores participated in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl. Vanderbilt defeated Boston College, 16-14, with a late field goal to earn its first bowl victory in 53 years. Bryant tutored Vanderbilt's first-ever All-America defensive back in D.J. Moore, and also produced All-SEC defensive backs in three consecutive years – Moore in 2008, Myron Lewis in 2009 and Casey Hayward in 2010. Hayward led the SEC in passes defended and ranked second for interceptions. Moore and Lewis went on to become NFL Draft picks, with Moore selected in the fourth round in 2009 and Lewis in the third round a year later.

Bryant was a defensive graduate assistant at North Carolina during the 2001 season, his first with a BCS program. That year, an aggressive defense helped the Tar Heels win seven of their final nine regular-season games, including impressive routs of ACC foes Florida State and Clemson, before defeating Auburn in the Peach Bowl.

In 2000, Bryant spent a season at the FCS level working as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Saint Francis (Pa.). He entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 as outside linebackers coach at Clarion. He spent three seasons (1997-99) with the Golden Eagles, and his duties evolved to secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1998 and 1999. Before embarking on his extensive collegiate career, Bryant spent five seasons at three separate high schools in Ohio. He was the head coach at East Clinton High School for three seasons, and served as an assistant coach at Anderson and Hayes, for a single season apiece.

A three-year letterwinner at Ohio Wesleyan, Bryant earned a degree in economics management in 1993. He and his wife, Elisa, are the parents of three sons, Luke, Jake and Josh.

BRYAN APPLEWHITE

Running Backs | 3rd Year at CSU | 19th Year Coaching

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
1999	Northern Colorado	Graduate Assistant
2000-02	Northern Colorado	Running Backs
2003-08	Wyoming	Running Backs
2009	Montana State	Running Backs
2010-14	Louisiana Monroe	Running Backs/Recruiting Coord.
2015-	Colorado State	Running Backs

Bryan Applewhite is in his third year as running backs coach at Colorado State in 2017, and his 19th season in coaching. He joined the Rams' staff on Jan. 3, 2015, after spending the previous five seasons at the University of Louisiana Monroe. Applewhite's arrival in Fort Collins marked a return to his home state of Colorado.

In 2016 Applewhite guided a successful trio of Rams running backs to an average of 217.8 yards per game to rank in the top quartile in the country (31st). Junior Dalyn Dawkins, sophomore Izzy Matthews and true freshman Marvin Kinsey, Jr., each rushed for more than 500 yards and logged at least 90 carries, with each crossing the 100-yard mark in the same game on one occasion (vs. New Mexico, 11/19). In that contest, CSU totaled 412 rushing yards, the most in 15 seasons and the 8th-best mark in school history. Overall, CSU's 2,831 net rushing yards and 5.3 yards-per-carry average ranked fifth and second, respectively, in school history.

Applewhite's running backs also helped the Rams allow just 1.0 sack per game, eighth-fewest in FBS, and just one total in the final six games of the season.

The Rams in 2015 boasted the nation's 33rd-ranked rushing attack, and for the first time since 1997 at CSU featured two 700-yard running backs (Dawkins and Jason Oden, Jr.) and for the first time since 1977 featured three 500-yard running backs (Dawkins, Oden and freshman Matthews). Each member of that trio rushed for at least 140 yards in a game, making the Rams one of just two FBS teams to do so in 2015.

In his five seasons at ULM (2010-14) Applewhite served as the Warhawks' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator, and groomed two all-conference running backs. In 2012 ULM's running backs combined for a total of 19 touchdowns (17 rushing, two receiving) as ULM finished the season with eight wins and made its first appearance in a bowl game (Independence Bowl) since moving up to FBS in 1994.

In 2013 Applewhite's ULM running backs elevated further as six different running backs recorded 1,239 rushing yards and eight touchdowns. Centarius Donald missed the majority of the non-conference season, but came alive in conference play en route to All-Sun Belt honors.

Prior to joining ULM's staff, Applewhite spent one season at Montana State (2009) and six at Wyoming (2003-08) as running backs coach. In his one season at Montana State, Applewhite coached a two-headed running back tandem that tallied over 1,110 rushing yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

Under his tutelage, Applewhite groomed two of Wyoming's three all-time leading rushers in Devin Moore (2,963) and Wynel Seldon (2,672). Moore signed a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts and Seldon signed a contract with the Washington Redskins. Moore's 2,963 career rushing yards are the most all-time by a Cowboys player. Seldon holds the school record for most rushing attempts in a career with 636.

Prior to joining the Wyoming staff, he coached at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, from 1999-2002. A standout fullback at Northern Colorado from 1994-98, Applewhite played on teams that won two NCAA Division II National Championships (1996 and 1997), competed in the Division II Playoffs for four straight seasons (1995-98) and won North Central Conference crowns during his junior and senior seasons. During his entire tenure at UNC and Wyoming, Applewhite coached alongside CSU defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Marty English.

Applewhite, a 1993 graduate of Brighton High School, joined the UNC coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1999 and was elevated to full-time status in 2000. The Bears finished sixth in Division II in rushing offense (127.8 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (362.1) in 2002, and the 1999 and 2002 Bears competed in the Division II Playoffs.

Applewhite has served as a member of the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Minority Issues Committee since 2006 and was recently reappointed to the Committee. In 2007, he was named to the AFCA Assistant Coaches' Committee and participated in the 2004 AFCA Coaches' Academy.

Applewhite received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Northern Colorado in 1998 and his master's degree in sports administration for Northern Colorado in 2001.

He and his wife Rachelle have two daughters, Morgan and Skylar.

JOE COX

Tight Ends | 3rd Year at CSU | 3rd Year Coaching

Joe Cox is in his third season at Colorado State in 2017 and his second serving as the tight ends coach. The former Georgia quarterback, who started every game in 2009 for current Rams head coach Mike Bobo, joined the CSU staff as a graduate assistant in 2015 after coaching for two years at the high school level in his home state of North Carolina.

The Rams' tight end corps, under Cox's tutelage, was instrumental in helping the Rams to rank fourth in FBS in red-zone scoring (94.6%) in 2016, as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). The unit also contributed to the Rams' stellar pass protection, which resulted in a No. 8 national ranking for fewest sacks allowed (1.0), including just one total in the final six games of the season. Their impact on the run game resulted in the second-highest yards-per-carry average (5.3) in school history and the second-best rushing total (2,832 net yards).

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14 when the school won back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

As Georgia's starting quarterback in 2009, Cox completed 185 of 331 pass attempts for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, at the time the second-best single-season total in UGA history. An offensive captain, Cox led the Bulldogs to a record of 8-5, and was named Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his five-touchdown, 375-yard performance at Arkansas.

For his career, Cox completed 56 percent of his passes for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns with 16 interceptions. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia in December 2009.

Cox was the 2004 state of North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year and AP Prep Player of the Year, and a Parade Magazine All-American at Independence (N.C.) High School. He was the No. 7 quarterback in the nation by Rivals.com and ESPN's Tom Lemming.

Joe and his wife Erica were married in March 2016.

TERRY FAIR

Cornerbacks | 3rd Year at CSU | 8th Year Coaching

Former first-round NFL Draft choice Terry Fair is in his third year at Colorado State in 2017, serving as cornerbacks coach. He was hired Jan. 7, 2015.

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
2006-07	Phoenix College	Defensive Backs
2008	Mesa Community College	Defensive Backs
2013-14	Tennessee	Defensive Quality Control Asst.
2015-	Colorado State	Cornerbacks

Fair's cornerbacks played a role in helping the Rams' defense post six halves of shutout football in 2016, including the Rams' first shutout game since 1997, holding Fresno State scoreless on Nov. 5. Senior Tyree Simmons capped his career by leading the team with six pass breakups and ranked fifth on the team with a career-high 44 tackles. Fair guided steady improvement from his unit throughout the season, as the Rams' defense improved from an average of 261.5 passing yards allowed per game through the first four games of the season to an average of 155.0 over the final eight regular season contests.

In his first season with the Rams, Fair helped coach a defensive backfield that allowed just 177.6 passing yards per game, a figure that ranked 10th among all FBS schools and second among Mountain West members in 2015. The Rams' defense also ranked 26th in the FBS in third-down percentage defense (34.5%).

Fair spent 2013 and '14 as the defensive quality control assistant at his alma mater, the University of Tennessee. Prior to that, he began his coaching career at Phoenix College, where he sent four defensive backs to Division I schools to continue their collegiate careers.

The native of Phoenix, Ariz., was a four-year starter for UT from 1994-97, where he was a two-time All-SEC honoree in his final two seasons and played on the Vols' 1997 SEC championship team. Fair, who earned SEC All-Freshman honors in 1994, is tied for seventh on Tennessee's all-time list with 30 passes defended (19 PBU, 11 INT).

Fair went on to be drafted in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft, No. 20 overall, by the Detroit Lions. He played six seasons with the Lions (1998-2001), Carolina Panthers (2002) and St. Louis Rams (2005), accumulating 215 tackles, one sack, seven interceptions and one fumble recovery in 60 games (48 starts). Fair scored five touchdowns in his career, two each by kickoff return and interception return, and one by fumble return. For his career Fair averaged 24.3 yards on 111 kickoff returns (2 TDs) and 6.9 yards on 50 punt returns.

In his rookie season with the Lions, Fair racked up 39 total tackles, including one sack, and led the NFL in kickoff return average with a career-best 28.0 average on 51 returns. He returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, including an NFL-best 105-yard effort on Monday Night Football vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 28, 1998. Fair earned NFL All-Rookie and first-team All-NFL honors from The Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers' Association, and was selected as an alternate for the Pro Bowl.

Fair and Colorado State wide receivers coach Alvis Whitted both entered the NFL in the 1998 Draft and played against one another in one game. On Dec. 6, 1998, Whitted's Jacksonville Jaguars defeated Fair's Lions 37-22 in Jacksonville. Fair made four tackles in the game while Whitted was credited with one rushing attempt for -1 yard.

Before joining the Tennessee coaching staff Fair was co-host of a Knoxville, Tenn., sports talk show called "The Drive" on WNOX. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Tennessee in 2010 through the athletic department's Renewing Academic Commitment program.

Fair played at Tennessee during the same four-year span that Bobo played quarterback at SEC rival Georgia.

Fair and his wife, Sherlone, have three children, Herandre, Delon and Ariyah.

RONNIE LETSON

Quarterbacks | 3rd Year at CSU | 18th Year Coaching

Ronnie Letson is in his third season as Colorado State's quarterbacks' coach in 2017, hired by head coach Mike Bobo on Jan. 2, 2015. Letson accompanied Bobo from the University of Georgia, where he had served one season as director of player personnel for the Bulldogs.

Letson guided three different quarterbacks to start at least one game for the Rams in 2016, including true freshman Collin Hill, who started four games before his season ended because of a knee injury. Junior Nick Stevens (honorable mention All-MW) started the season opener and the final seven games and ranked fifth in FBS (first in MW) with a 171.3 passer efficiency rating. The Rams ranked 12th in FBS with just seven interceptions thrown. Under Letson's guidance, the passing game ranked 12th in the nation in passing efficiency (157.04) and took an average of just 1.0 sack per game (8th FBS), including just one total over the season's final six games.

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
2000-01	Jacksonville State	Wide Receivers
2002	Presbyterian College	Wide Receivers
2003	Ole Miss	Offensive Graduate Assistant
2004-12	Jacksonville State	Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
2013	Alabama	Offensive Analyst
2014	Georgia	Director of Player Personnel
2015-	Colorado State	Quarterbacks

In his final seven starts to close the season, Stevens ranked among the hottest quarterbacks in the nation, completing better than 70 percent of his passes for 19 touchdowns and just three interceptions. His season completion percentage of 64.2 ranked third on CSU's single-season list.

In his first season with the Rams in 2015, Letson helped Stevens earn second-team All-Mountain West honors as a first-year starting quarterback. He led the conference in touchdown passes (21) and ranked second in passing yards (2,679). Both figures broke CSU's all-time records for a sophomore, topping the previous marks held by former first-round NFL draft choice Kelly Stouffer.

Prior to Letson's one season at Georgia he had a brief stint as the wide receivers coach at Samford University in early 2014. He spent the 2013 season as an offensive analyst at Alabama and nine seasons at Jacksonville State (2004-12) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At Jacksonville State, Letson was in charge of play-calling and developing the Gamecocks' offensive game plan. In his nine-year stint Letson groomed 31 all-conference players and six All-Americans. Letson helped guide the Gamecocks to an Ohio Valley Conference championship in 2004 and an OVC co-championship in 2011.

Jacksonville State's 2011 conference championship team was fueled by Letson's powerful offense, which averaged 414.9 yards per game against conference opponents, including 245.0 yards on the ground and an OVC-best 148.8 pass efficiency rating. In 2010 Letson helped lead JSU to a 9-3 record and a No. 2 ranking in FCS. His offenses in 2004, '08 and '09 led the OVC, and the Gamecocks led the OVC in scoring offense in '04, '07, '09 and '10. Letson helped produce 2009 OVC Offensive Player of the Year Ryan Perrilloux and 2010 OVC Freshman of the Year Coty Blanchard.

Letson originally began his coaching career at Jacksonville State in 2000 as the wide receivers coach before taking the same position at Presbyterian College in 2002 where he assisted with the development of the offensive game plan. He got his first taste of coaching in the Southeastern Conference as an offensive administrative graduate assistant at his alma mater, Ole Miss, in 2003, when the Rebels finished with a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC West Division title and a Cotton Bowl Championship. In the spring of 2004 he moved to the defensive side of the ball as a graduate assistant before returning to Jacksonville State in May 2004.

Letson is a 1999 graduate of the University of Mississippi, from which he holds a bachelor of business administration degree. He was a three-year letterman for the Rebels, earning All-SEC academic honors in 1999, and helped lead Ole Miss to three consecutive bowl victories. The Rebels claimed the Ford Motor City Bowl against Marshall and two wins in the Independence Bowl, including a last-second win over Oklahoma.

A 1995 graduate of Norcross (Ga.) High School, Ronnie and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Tripp and Eli.

RICKY LOGO

Defensive Line | 3rd Year at CSU | 23rd Year Coaching

CAREER BACKGROUND
Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
1995-2000	Tennessee-Chattanooga	Defensive Line
2001	Tennessee-Chattanooga	Defensive Coordinator
2002-04	Troy	Defensive Line
2005-06	Troy	Co-Defensive Coord./Defensive Line
2007-10	Vanderbilt	Defensive Line
2011	Furman	Defensive Line
2012-14	Univ. of Houston	Defensive Line
2015-	Colorado State	Defensive Line

Ricky Logo is in his third season as Colorado State's defensive line coach in 2017, and his 23rd season coaching football. Hired Jan. 5, 2015, he joined head coach Mike Bobo's inaugural Rams staff after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Houston.

The Rams' defensive line in 2016 was instrumental in helping to post six halves of shutout football, including CSU's first shutout game since 1997, holding Fresno State scoreless on Nov. 5. The Rams ranked second in the Mountain West and 43rd nationally with 6.3 tackles for loss per game, and a total of 22 players had a tackle-for-loss in 2016, with 14 recording a sack. For 11 of those players it was their first career sack. True freshman Toby McBride made an instant impact, leading the team with 4.0 sacks, while junior Darnell Thompson was just behind with 3.5 sacks.

In his first year with the Rams, Logo helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 21st in all of FBS in tackles-for-loss per game (7.2), 10th in passing yards allowed (177.6) and 26th in third-down defense (34.5%).

Logo arrived in Houston in 2012 and played an instrumental role in helping to lead a Cougars team that finished the 2014 season with a record of 8-5, capping it with a dramatic 35-34 victory over Pittsburgh in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

From his first season to his second in Houston, the Cougars defensive line made major improvements. In 2013, his nine-man defensive line helped lead the third most-improved scoring defense (+14.2). In 2013 the Cougars defense allowed just 21.8 points per game in 2013 compared to 36.0 in 2012. In 2014 the scoring defense continued to improve, improving to 20.6 points per game.

Under Logo's tutelage, Tyus Bowser led all freshmen in The American Athletic Conference and was second on the team with 4.5 sacks. Bowser was also one of three defensive linemen with an interception on the year, joined by B.J. Singleton and Tomme Mark. The group also has three fumble recoveries from Jeremiah Farley, Cameron Malveaux and Eric Eiland, who returned his 62 yards vs. SMU. Logo's group accounted for 36.5 tackles for loss, 17.5 sacks and seven forced fumbles.

Logo spent the 2011 season at Furman after coaching for four years in the SEC at Vanderbilt University. In 2008, he was a part of a staff that led the Commodores to their first winning season since 1982, thanks to a 16-14 victory over Boston College in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl. While at Vanderbilt the defensive front made incredible strides and two of his players, Curtis Gatewood and Theo Horrocks, signed NFL free agent contracts.

Before making the jump to arguably the toughest conference in college football, Logo spent five seasons at Troy University, two of which were spent as co-defensive coordinator. His resume at Troy includes working with first-round NFL draft choice DeMarcus Ware, recently retired after a Hall-of-Fame-worthy career, and second-rounder Osi Umenyiora, who retired in 2015 after playing nine seasons with New York Giants and two with the Atlanta Falcons.

Logo began his coaching career at Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1995. He spent six seasons as the Mocs' defensive line coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for one season in 2001. After that he spent one season at Western Carolina as an assistant head coach before joining Troy's football program.

A native of Santa Ana, Calif., Logo played nose tackle at North Carolina State. He helped the Wolfpack advance to four consecutive bowl games and was named team captain, All-ACC and third-team All-America as a senior in 1992. N.C. State went 32-16-1 during Logo's four seasons and he played in the 1992 Hula Bowl, the Japan All-Star Game and the East-West Shrine Game.

Following his collegiate career Logo signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Detroit Lions, but suffered a career-ending injury during his first season.

A native of Columbus, Ga., Logo was a three-sport star at Spencer High School, excelling at football, wrestling and track and field. He was an All-State performer in football and was awarded the Columbus Coca-Cola Award as the city's top high school football player following his senior year.

Logo earned his B.A. degree in sociology from North Carolina State in 1992. He and his wife, Folole, have two sons, Eliah (10) and Enoka (6).

ALVIS WHITTED

Wide Receivers | 6th Year at CSU | 9th Year Coaching

CAREER BACKGROUND
Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
2008-09	Orange High School (N.C.)	Assistant Coach
2010	Millsaps College	Wide Receivers
2011	UCLA	Offensive Assistant
2012-	Colorado State	Wide Receivers

Alvis Whitted, who played nine seasons in the NFL, is in his sixth season as wide receivers coach at Colorado State in 2017. He originally came to Colorado State in 2012 and was retained by head coach Mike Bobo in January 2015.

The wide receiving corps played a key role in the Rams ranking fourth in the nation in red-zone scoring (94.6%) in 2016, as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). Junior Michael Gallup led that effort, earning first-team All-MW honors under Whitted's tutelage in his first season of FBS play. Gallup caught 76 passes for 1,272 yards and 14 touchdowns—each a top-3 total in school history—and ranked 8th in FBS in scoring receptions and top 15 in receptions and receiving yards. Sophomore Olabisi Johnson broke the CSU single-game receiving record in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl with 265 yards on seven receptions again Idaho (12/22/16).

Whitted played a key role in the recruitment and development of 2014 consensus first-team All-American Rashard Higgins, the Rams' all-time leading receiver, who was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 2016, as well as Joe Hansley, who signed a free agent contract with the Oakland Raiders. Hansley finished his CSU career ranked 10th all-time in receiving yards (1,873), playing all four years under Whitted's tutelage.

The Rams' receiving corps in 2015 was instrumental in helping first-year starting quarterback Nick Stevens to set CSU sophomore passing records and earn second-team All-Mountain West honors. Higgins was named first-team All-MW, catching 75 passes for 1,062 yards (14.2) and eight touchdowns, and Hansley was first-team All-MW by Phil Steele with 28 receptions for 415 yards (14.8) and six touchdowns.

As a true sophomore in 2014 Higgins was named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award while leading the nation in receiving yards (1,750) and receiving touchdowns (17) with his school-record 96 receptions. The first-team All-Mountain West wide receiver recorded a school-record 10 games with 100 or more yards in 2014.

The Rams' wide receiver corps was outstanding in 2014, as Hansley (35-540-15.4, 2 TDs), redshirt freshman Xavier Williams (30-430-14.3, 3 TDs) and senior Charles Lovett (28-490-17.5, 3 TDs) provided dangerous targets for MW Offensive Player of the Year Garrett Grayson.

Whitted in 2013 helped develop one of the most improved position groups on the Rams' roster. Under his tutelage Higgins set a CSU freshman receiving record with a team-high 68 catches for 837 yards and six touchdowns. Higgins' 68 receptions ranked sixth by all players on CSU's all-time single-season receptions list. As a sophomore Hansley also blossomed in his second season under Whitted, catching a career-high 52 passes for 613 yards and one touchdown.

In his first season at Colorado State, Whitted guided Lovett, then a sophomore, and senior Marquise Law to the best years of their careers. Lovett led the team with 35 receptions for 428 yards (12.2) and two touchdowns, while Law capped his collegiate career with 29 catches for 287 yards (13.3) and two scores, catching passes from three different starting quarterbacks because of injuries at the position.

Whitted (pronounced WHITT-id) came to Fort Collins in February 2012 after a brief stay at Appalachian State, following a year as offensive quality-control assistant on Rick Neuheisel's UCLA staff in 2011. At UCLA, Whitted worked with wide receivers and special teams, and helped prepare the offense for games by heading the defensive scout team.

Before moving to Pasadena, Whitted spent the 2010 season at Division III Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., as wide receivers coach. There, he began to launch recruiting ties throughout the Southeastern U.S., and coached senior Michael Galatas, a first-team all-conference selection and the league Special Teams Player of the Year.

Following an impressive NFL playing career, Whitted began his coaching career as a high school assistant at his alma mater Orange High School in Hillsborough, N.C., from 2008-09.

Selected by Tom Coughlin and the Jacksonville Jaguars in the seventh round (192nd overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft, Whitted also played for the Atlanta Falcons (2001) and Oakland Raiders (2002-06). In addition to Coughlin, who would go on to win two Super Bowls, Whitted's NFL head coaches included Dan Reeves, Norv Turner and Art Shell. He played under coaching staffs that included Dom Capers, Wade Phillips, Jim Harbaugh, Bobby Petrino, Frank Gansz and Dick Jauron.

Over a nine-year NFL career, Whittted played in 122 games with 24 starts, and caught 74 passes for 1,030 yards and six touchdowns. He also picked up 118 yards on 14 rushing attempts. As an occasional kickoff returner, he had 388 yards on 21 returns, including a 98-yard touchdown in 1999. A special-teams standout, he recorded 20 career coverage tackles. Whitted played in a pair of AFC championship games, with Jacksonville in 2000 and Oakland in 2002, and helped the Raiders to a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII following the '02 season. His finest season was his last, 2006, when he started 13 games and established career highs with 27 receptions and 299 receiving yards.

Whitted and Colorado State cornerbacks coach Terry Fair both entered the NFL in the 1998 Draft and played against one another in one game. On Dec. 6, 1998, Whitted's Jaguars defeated Fair's Detroit Lions 37-22 in Jacksonville. Fair made four tackles in the game while Whitted was credited with one rushing attempt for -1 yard.

A dominant return specialist at N.C. State (1994-97), he totaled 1,929 kickoff-return yards, No. 2 in school history at the time of his graduation, and currently third all-time. Whitted owns two of the top 10 kickoff returns in Wolfpack annals, a 97-yard TD vs. Maryland in 1994 and a 96-yard score vs. Florida State in 1996.

Whitted's N.C. State athletic contributions on the track in the spring were just as valuable. A world-class sprinter as a four-time All-American, he holds the school records in the 100, 200 and 400 meters. At the 1996 U.S. Olympic Trials, he finished sixth in the 200. On two occasions, the Atlantic Coast Conference named him its most valuable performer, and seven times he won an individual conference title. After being drafted into the NFL, he graduated with the H.C. Kennett Award, the most prestigious honor given to an N.C. State athlete each year.

A native of Durham, N.C., Whitted competed in football and track at Orange High School in Hillsborough, N.C. He won the 100 and 200 meters at the North Carolina state championship.

Whitted graduated from North Carolina State in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in business management/finance. In the summer of 2014 he married Tracy Ljone, who served as a strength and conditioning coach and professor of sport management and health education at Colorado State. They have a daughter, Remy, born in 2016.

RYAN DAVIS

Ryan Davis was hired by head football coach Mike Bobo on Jan. 7, 2015 as Colorado State's head football strength and conditioning coach. Davis came to CSU from Samford University where he spent the 2012-14 seasons.

Davis is in charge of designing and implementing the year-round strength and conditioning program for Colorado State's football program, including the offseason "Fourth Quarter" program and the summer strength and conditioning program. He and his staff work closely with the Rams' coaching, sports medicine and nutrition staffs to prepare student-athletes for peak athletic performance.

Davis spent his first year at Samford in 2012 as the football strength and conditioning coach before being promoted to director of strength and conditioning for all of Samford's athletics programs. In that first year, Davis implemented the "Fourth Quarter" offseason program, which had a major impact on the Bulldogs' football program. He has since brought the program to CSU, in addition to multiple motivational and character development speakers.

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
2008-09	West Florida	Asst. Strength & Performance
2009	Alabama	Volunteer Intern
2010	Louisville	Football Strength & Conditioning
2011	Alabama	Asst. Strength & Conditioning
2012	Samford	Football Strength & Conditioning
2013-14	Samford	Director of Strength & Conditioning
2015-	Colorado State	Head Football Strength & Conditioning

Prior to his stint at Samford, Davis spent two seasons as an assistant in the Alabama strength & conditioning program. While with the Crimson Tide, he worked directly with the football team, specializing in the development of running backs and quarterbacks. In that time he mentored players such as Heisman Trophy winner Mark Ingram and Heisman Trophy candidate Trent Richardson.

Davis initially was a volunteer intern during the Tide's 2009 national championship season and later was an assistant on staff when the team claimed its second title in a three-year span in 2011. In addition to his football responsibilities, Davis oversaw the strength & conditioning programs for volleyball, rowing and women's tennis.

Prior to returning to Alabama, Davis was the strength & conditioning coach for the football program at the University of Louisville from May to September of 2010. He was an assistant strength & performance coach at the University of West Florida from August 2008 to April 2010, during which time he obtained his master's degree in education. While at West Florida, Davis worked with several sports including volleyball, softball, baseball, men's and women's soccer, and men's and women's basketball.

Davis is a graduate of Rowan University in Glassboro, N.J., where he obtained his bachelor's degree in health and exercise science. He is certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA). Davis was awarded by the CSCCA in May of 2010 with the John Stucky Award recognizing his performance in the practical component of his certification.

Davis has been mentored by some of the most popular names in the field, including long-time Alabama strength coach Terry Jones, Sr., and Alabama Director of Strength & Conditioning Scott Cochran.

TOM EHLERS

Director of Football Operations | 33rd Year at CSU | 37th Year Coaching

One of Colorado State's most passionate individuals, Tom Ehlers is in his 33rd overall season in the Rams athletic department in 2016, and his 37th year in college athletics. After a long career as a Rams student-athlete and assistant football coach, Ehlers took on a new role prior to the 2005 season, assuming supervision over the football program's logistics, administration and overall operations.

Originally a competitor on the gridiron as a four-year starter on the Rams' offensive and defensive lines, he began a new career after his playing career, channeling his gregarious enthusiasm into the coaching profession. And now, including his chapter as director of operations, his tenure as a member of the football staff is the longest by an assistant in school history.

CAREER BACKGROUND

Seasons	Team/School	Title/Position Coached
1985-86	Oregon State	Graduate Assistant
1987	Arizona	Graduate Assistant
1987-88	Brown	Defensive Line
1989-04	Colorado State	Defensive Line
2005-	Colorado State	Director of Football Operations

During his coaching career, he tutored 12 all-conference performers, including Bryan Save (2003), Peter Hogan (2001, '02), Clark Haggans (1999), Joey Porter (1998), Adrian Ross (1997), Brady Smith (1994, '95), Sean Moran (1994, '95), Steve Norton (1993), and Steve Hodge (1993).

Six of the players he formerly coached ranked in the top 10 in quarterback sacks, including Haggans (first), Smith (second), Porter (fourth), Hodge (tie, seventh), Ross (tie, seventh), and Moran (ninth).

In 2003, defensive tackles Bryan Save, Lavell Mann and Chris Kiffin all ranked among the conference leaders in quarterback sacks. In 2002, Peter Hogan was a first-team all-conference selection.

Porter, a former NFL star, was a first-team all-conference performer in 1998 and played in two postseason all-star games before finishing his career with the Arizona Cardinals in 2012. In 2013 Porter began a coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at CSU, and in 2014 was hired by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Porter earned All-Pro honors and won a Super Bowl in 2005 as a member of the Steelers, and also played for the Miami Dolphins.

Ross was a two-time first-team all-conference selection in 1996 and '97 and played in the Hula Bowl following his senior season. He later played six years in the NFL as a member of the Cincinnati Bengals. Smith and Moran each earned first-team honors in 1994 and '95. Smith was the conference's defensive player of the year in 1995. Both played extensively in the NFL. Haggans initially played for the Pittsburgh Steelers, and was a member of the team's Super Bowl championship team before signing with Arizona, which went to the Super Bowl in his first season there, and then San Francisco, with whom he went to another Super Bowl in 2012.

Ehlers also was responsible for recruiting Gartrell Johnson, who finished his CSU career with the second-most prolific rushing season in program annals. Ehlers formerly served as a defensive line coach at Oregon State (1985-86) as a graduate assistant for the Beavers. In 1987, he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line at the University of Arizona.

As a player at CSU (1980-84), Ehlers was a four-year starter and letterwinner. He played offensive line and defensive line and was a WAC Scholar-Athlete Award Winner in 1984. On three occasions, he earned Academic All-WAC honors.

Born July 10, 1962 in Riverside, Calif., he and his wife Laurie make their home in Fort Collins and have three children – Annie, Christine and Timothy – each of whom is a student at Colorado State. Ehlers graduated from CSU in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration, before earning an MBA from Oregon State ('86).

ANTHONEY HILL

Director of Player Development & Community/Alumni Relations

8th Year at CSU | 22nd Year Coaching

Anthoney Hill returned to his alma mater in the newly-created role of director of player development and community/alumni relations in March 2015. The creation of Hill's position added an important component to the overall student-athlete experience for the CSU football program, and built upon the top-notch coaching staff assembled by Bobo at CSU.

Hill previously served as an assistant football coach at CSU from 2008-11, and was a student assistant for the Rams in 1998. He returned to Fort Collins after spending the 2014 season as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at McPherson (Kan.) College and one season as assistant offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Colorado Ice professional indoor football team.

Hill, a 1999 graduate of CSU with a degree in exercise and sports science, returned to his alma mater for the second time in 2008 as running backs coach on Steve Fairchild's first staff. He served in that role for three years

Prior to joining the Rams' coaching staff in 2008, he spent the previous 12 seasons coaching football at either the high school or college level. He came to Fort Collins after serving in 2007 as head coach at San Diego High School, where his top assistant, former Rams teammate Paul Turner, succeeded him at the helm.

Hill concluded his CSU playing career in 1994 as one of the most exciting players in program history. He played professionally in 1995 as a reserve quarterback for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League before returning home and serving as an assistant coach from 1996-97 at University City (Calif.) High School, where he starred in the late 1980s. At UCHS, he tutored the young field generals who followed in his footsteps and in each of his two years, one of his pupils earned all-league honors. In addition to football, Hill for two seasons was an assistant on both the boys' basketball team and the girls' track & field squad.

He made his first return to Fort Collins in 1998 to work with CSU's wide receivers as a student assistant coach and peer mentor while finishing his degree. From 1996 to 2000 — before and after his 1998 return to CSU — Hill served on the faculty of UCHS as a teacher's aide and instructional aide. He worked one semester with special-education students, and two semesters with at-risk students. In the latter role, he spearheaded a mentoring and tutoring program for students in danger of dropping out, and saw the program enjoy great results.

Hill then spent two seasons (2003-04) as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, Calif., before coming back to La Jolla (Calif.) High School to serve as the Vikings' offensive coordinator for two more seasons (2005-06), prior to accepting the head coaching position at San Diego High School.

As a senior in 1994 at CSU, where his position coach was Fairchild and the wide receivers coach was Urban Meyer, Hill led the Rams to a storybook 10-2 season. The quarterback guided CSU to a berth opposite Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today/CNN coaches' poll and a No. 16 slot in the season-ending Associated Press rankings.

That season, the Rams were in the nation's Top 10 in five straight polls entering the Holiday Bowl. Hill guided an opportunistic offense to a 21-16 win at No. 4/6 Arizona (Oct. 8), throwing two touchdown passes against the Wildcats' vaunted "Desert Swarm" defense, as well as wins over two other ranked opponents, No. 18/10 BYU and No. 23/23 Wyoming – each on the road. All told in 1994, he completed 154 of 290 passes (53.1 percent) for 2,552 yards and 16 touchdowns, while rushing for 163 yards on 93 attempts, with five scores, and earned second-team all-conference honors.

A three-year starter (1992-94), Hill left CSU as the school's career total offense leader (7,428 yards), surpassing Kelly Stouffer (6,666). His mark now ranks third after Bradlee Van Pelt (8,579) broke it in 2003 and Garrett Grayson (9,478) topped Van Pelt's mark in 2014. Hill also ranks tied for fifth with 39 career touchdown passes, and sixth in career passing yards (6,309). He was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

A 1990 graduate of San Diego's University City High School, Hill garnered second-team all-city and second-team all-conference recognition, passing for 1,903 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior in 1989. In addition to football, he lettered in basketball and track & field.

Born Dec. 24, 1971, in San Diego, Anthoney and his wife, Kesha, make their home in Fort Collins. He also has three children, Bakir, Kiara and Deja. Hill earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from CSU.

BEN LARSON

Special Teams Analyst | 1st Year at CSU

Ben Larson enters his first season with the Colorado State football program as the Special Teams Analyst. Larson owns 11 years of experience, largely with special teams units at the Division I level.

Most recently, Larson was on the football staff at the University of Tennessee at Martin as a defensive line coach and the special teams coordinator, a position he began in February 2017.

Larson previously worked with the special teams unit at Texas under head coaches Mack Brown and Charlie Strong from 2013-17. Larson also helped with running backs (2014), the secondary (2014-15) and linebackers (2016) while with the Longhorns.

While with the Longhorns, Larson had a punter (Michael Dickson, 2016) become a finalist for the Ray Guy Award and a kicker (Anthony Fera, 2013) named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award.

The Susquehana University graduate (2005) also worked with special teams at Tennessee (2010-12) and also worked on the strength and conditioning staff with the Volunteers (2012-13).

Larson began his coaching career at Northwestern State in 2006-07, working as a volunteer running backs coach. He then went to Louisiana Tech as a graduate assistant, working with both the offense and special teams units from 2007-10.

Larson played on both the offensive and defensive lines at Susquehana from 2001-05.

Larson and his wife, Lindsay, have one daughter, Collins. He earned his bachelor's degree from Susquehanna University in May of 2005.

GEORGE HELOW

Defensive Quality Control | 2nd Year at CSU

George Helow is in his second season with the Colorado State football program in 2017, and his first in the role of defensive quality control. He joined Mike Bobo's staff in 2016 as a defensive graduate assistant.

Helow has held stints at some of the nation's top collegiate programs during his brief coaching career, including Alabama, Florida State and Georgia. Most recently, Helow spent two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia as defensive quality control, including the first season on staff with Coach Bobo. In 2013, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to a national title.

His first collegiate coaching stint came under Nick Saban at Alabama (2012). After helping with the school's junior day, he was invited to stay on as an intern in the weight room that spring and summer and serve as a defensive intern in the fall. The Crimson Tide defeated Notre Dame in the BCS National Championship game and during the season allowed just 10.9 points per game.

Helow played collegiately at Ole Miss (2006-10) where he earned a degree in marketing. After redshirting in 2006, he saw his first career action against Louisiana Tech in 2007 before playing all 38 games for the Rebels from 2008 to 2010, which included back-to-back Cotton Bowls in 2008 and 2009. Helow, who played mostly on special teams, earned a scholarship before his senior season in 2010. Immediately after graduating, he returned to his high school alma mater, Bishop Kennedy in Jacksonville, Fla., where he coached his younger brother, Peter.

RICKY SANTO

Offensive Quality Control | 5th Year at CSU

Ricky Santo is in his fifth season with the Colorado State football program in 2017, and his second serving as offensive quality control.

From 2013-15, Santo was an offensive graduate assistant for the Rams, helping coach five players who heard their names called during the NFL Draft and a 2014 squad that set CSU records for average yards per game and total yards in a single game. The 2013-16 seasons have been among the most prolific offensively in Colorado State history.

He joined the Colorado State staff in 2013 from Ohio State, where he served as offensive line intern during the Buckeyes' undefeated 2012 season. Santo was part of a staff that produced a 12-0 record, a Big 10 title and a final ranking of No. 3.

Santo worked his way to Ohio State after establishing a well-rounded coaching and teaching career at Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., from 2009-11. He spent all three seasons as an assistant football coach for a program that compiled a 35-4 record and back-to-back District and Metro Conference championships. The 2010 Dr. Phillips team was state runner-up, ranked No. 2 in the state 6A poll and held the No. 22 spot in the final USA Today national high school rankings.

Beginning in 2009, Santo served as defensive line coach (2011), assistant special teams coordinator (2011), assistant linebackers coach (2010), and assistant running backs coach (2009), and was defensive coordinator of the J.V. squad, while also being head coach of the freshman team.

Santo also was head coach of the softball team (2010-11) and head coach of the J.V. baseball team (2010) at Dr. Phillips.

Santo earned his bachelor's degree in engineering and technology with a specialization in building construction from the University of West Florida (Pensacola) in 2007 and an associate's degree in business from Florida Community College at Jacksonville.

JOHN FAIRCLOTH

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 2nd Year at CSU

John Faircloth is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant in 2017. He joined the Colorado State football staff prior to the 2016 season. He previously spent two seasons (2014-15) in a similar role at Black Hills State University, primarily focusing on the Yellow Jackets' wide receivers.

Faircloth attended Mars Hill College as a student assistant for three years (2011-13), coaching defensive backs and tight ends. He helped Mars Hill win its first South Atlantic Conference Championship in 2011.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Mars Hill College after spending one year on the football team at Methodist University.

A native of Erwin, N.C., Faircloth was a two-sport athlete, earning all-state twice in lacrosse and competing in football.

KEVIN O'BRIEN

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 2nd Year at CSU

Former Colorado State offensive lineman Kevin O'Brien is in his second season as an offensive graduate assistant for the Rams' coaching staff in 2017.

O'Brien played in 22 games for the Rams during his collegiate career, including starting at center during his junior season in 2014. That year, the Rams went 10-3 and set school records for offensive yards, total yards per game, passing yards and passing touchdowns. CSU's offense topped the 500-yard mark five times, including twice surpassing 670 yards. O'Brien and the CSU line blocked for a 3,500-yard passer and 1,200-yard rusher. Prior to his senior season in 2015, O'Brien was awarded a scholarship by Mike Bobo.

He began his collegiate career at Incarnate Word in San Antonio, Texas, before transferring to CSU from 2012-15. He was an All-Greater Houston first-team center at Cinco Ranch High School in Katy, Texas, helping the Cougars to a regional championship. O'Brien earned his bachelor's degree from CSU in mechanical engineering.

NOLAN PERALTA

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Former Colorado State tight end Nolan Peralta is in his first season as an offensive graduate assistant for the Rams' coaching staff in 2017.

Peralta played in 49 games as a Ram from 2012-16, totaling 17 receptions for 154 yards. Peralta had two touchdown receptions in his senior season, including a 19-yarder on Senior Night against New Mexico.

The Murrieta, Calif., native was a member of four CSU teams that participated in bowl games from 2013-16. He also received both Mountain West Scholar-Athlete and academic all-conference recognition every year from 2013-16.

SEAN RICHARDSON

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Sean Richardson begins his first season as a Defensive Graduate Assistant at Colorado State in 2017.

Richardson played defensive back in the NFL for the Green Bay Packers (2012-15) and was a three-year starter at safety at Vanderbilt (2008-11). From 2008-10, Richardson was coached in the secondary by current CSU special teams and safeties coach, Jamie Bryant.

For the Packers, Richardson totaled 46 tackles over 30 games in four seasons.

The Linden, Ala., native was extremely productive in his collegiate career for the Commodores. Richardson led the team in tackles (98) in 2010 as a junior, and finished second in the category in both 2009 and 2011.

Richardson was considered a team leader throughout his college career, and was given the program's "Hustle Award" after his sophomore campaign. The safety produced memorable moments for Vanderbilt, including recovering a botched punt return for the Commodores' only touchdown in a Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl victory in 2008.

JOHN MICHAEL CLAY

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach | 3rd Year at CSU

John Michael Clay is in his third season as an assistant strength & conditioning coach for football at Colorado State in 2017.

Previously, he spent three seasons at Samford University. Clay worked with the Bulldogs' football program and oversaw the sports of volleyball, softball and men's and women's golf, being voted an assistant coach of the year for 2013-14.

Clay played college football at Samford, earning All-Southern Conference honors as a defensive end in 2009 and 2010. Samford's 2009 defense ranked in the top 20 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, sacks and tackles for a loss. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports administration from Samford in 2011 and a master's in exercise physiology in 2015.

Clay is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (CSCS).

A 2007 graduate of Vestavia Hills (Ala.) High School, Clay played football and baseball and was captain of the wrestling team.

MICHAEL RAY

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach | 4th Year at CSU

Michael Ray is in his fourth season as an assistant strength & conditioning coach for Colorado State football in 2017.

He joined the Rams in 2014 after spending the previous three years as an assistant sports performance coach at Wyoming, where his primary focus was with the football team.

A former Cowboys football defensive back, Ray assisted with all aspects of the football sports performance program. He was responsible for writing and implementing the training programs for all freshmen and developmental players; writing the pre-activity preparation as well as the plyometric programs for football; assisting with all aspects of the Cowboys' NFL Pro Day preparation and conducting workouts for injured football student-athletes during practice.

Prior to his position at Wyoming, Ray served as an assistant in the Arizona State University Sports Performance area within the ASU athletics department from January 2009 to January 2011. He was responsible for planning and implementing the strength & conditioning regimens for the women's volleyball, men's golf and women's tennis programs. Ray also assisted with the speed program for ASU football players leading up to the NFL Combine and Pro-timing days at Arizona State.

As a student-athlete with the Cowboys, Ray appeared in 43 career games and started 13 at strong safety. He tallied 68 total tackles, five pass breakups and one interception.

Ray earned his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology and health promotion from Wyoming in May 2009 and his master of education degree in curriculum and instruction from Arizona State in May 2011. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (CSCS).

Michael and his wife Sara, a letterwinner on Wyoming's 2006 volleyball team, have two sons, Jordan and Jaxon. Sara was hired in June 2014 as CSU's director of student-athlete support services.

BRISON MANOR

Strength & Conditioning Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Brison Manor enters his first season as a strength & conditioning graduate assistant with the Colorado State football program in 2017.

Manor spent the last four seasons with Louisiana Tech, working with several teams during his tenure. As an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Bulldogs, Manor worked with the softball, golf, volleyball and men's basketball.

Before working at Louisiana Tech, Manor was a strength coach at the Little Rock Sports Training Center in 2012-13.

Manor played on the offensive line at Temple for four seasons (2005-08). He graduated from Temple in December of 2009 with bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

JIMMIE BUNTING

Strength & Conditioning Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Jimmie Bunting enters his first season as a strength & conditioning graduate assistant with the Colorado State football program.

Most recently, Bunting served as a a strength & conditioning intern in 2016 with the Wisconsin football team.

The former Concordia University (Neb.) football player will be entering his second stint in Fort Collins, as Bunting was previously an intern with the football program from Aug. 2015-May 2016.

Bunting was a two-year starter at tight end at nationally-ranked Concordia in college, where he played from 2010-13. He was also team captain his senior season. After his playing career, Bunting worked as an intern and student assistant with the strength staff at Concordia, and also helped coach tight ends.

GEOFF MARTZEN

Director of Player Personnel | 3rd Year at CSU

Geoff Martzen is in his third season as Colorado State's director of player personnel in 2017.

Martzen plays a key role in CSU's overall recruiting efforts, coordinating several aspects of the Rams' year-round student-athlete recruitment process. He serves as a link between the coaching and support staff to develop student-athletes on and off the field, including strength and conditioning coaches and academic coordinators. Additionally, Martzen serves as the liaison between CSU and NFL scouts for Pro Day events, and assists with camps, clinics and other football-related activities.

Martzen came to CSU from BYU, where he was a player personnel and on-campus recruiting coordinator. Some of his key responsibilities were to identify prospects, plan on-campus recruiting events, stay up-to-date with recruits via social media and provide recruiting aids for coaches.

Before joining the Cougars' staff, Martzen assisted in coordinating the recruitment of high school and junior college recruits at Boise State in 2013 and Alabama in 2012.

Martzen earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Fresno State, and started working towards a master's degree at Alabama and Boise State.

EMILY LAFF

Director of Recruiting | 1st Year at CSU

Emily Laff enters her first season as the director of recruiting for the Rams' football program in 2017.

Laff joins the Rams after working for three seasons as an undergraduate assistant with recruiting for TCU's football program.

As the director of recruiting, Laff will be in charge of directing on-campus recruiting and overseeing recruiting interns, as well as other departmental duties. Those duties include social media communications, department administration and NCAA compliance.

While Laff was at TCU, the Horned Frogs had national top-30 recruiting classes and won a pair of bowl games – the 2014 Peach Bowl and the 2016 Alamo Bowl.

Laff graduated with honors from TCU's journalism program in May of 2017. She is a Lone Tree, Colo., native and graduated from Regis Jesuit High School.

JOHNNY SQUARE

Team Advisor | Second Decade at CSU

Johnny Square has been mentoring CSU student-athletes for two decades.

A student-athlete attending Colorado State receives an education from one of the nation's premier institutions of higher learning, but the education a student-athlete receives at CSU extends far beyond the classroom and the football field. Rams' head football coach Mike Bobo and his staff painstakingly work individually and collectively with student-athletes to provide cultural, social and economic guidance as part of their overall educational experience.

Square, a former football player at CSU who lettered four years from 1972-75 and played alongside former athletics director Mark Driscoll, provides valuable leadership and guidance to various student-athletes in the Rams' program.

Square has the unique perspective of having competed at the collegiate level, and faced many of the same personal challenges present in the lives of student-athletes in today's world. He provides that guidance individually and to various groups in the Rams' program as part of the educational experience available at CSU.

He also adds another unique perspective: Not only did he compete as a collegian and later play in the NFL, Johnny and his wife, Vicki, are the parents of two former CSU student-athletes. Justine was a women's basketball player for the Rams, while Alex was a running back on CSU's football team from 2005-09.

In 1989, Square founded Iasis Christ Fellowship, launching the church in 1994 with a heart for serving the Fort Collins community. Also a leader in the city, Square has helped organize a Pastor's Prayer Fellowship, which has been meeting monthly for nearly 20 years. He also serves as a chaplain with the Fort Collins Police Department.

Johnny and Vicki have lived in the Fort Collins community for more than a quarter century.

JIMMY STEWART

Mental Health Services | 3rd Year at CSU

Jimmy Stewart was hired in 2014 to make his 15 years of experience in the mental health and wellness field available to CSU's student-athletes and staff. He is a National Certified Counselor (NCC), Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist (LMFT) in Louisiana, North Carolina and Colorado.

Prior to working at CSU, Stewart spent the previous decade in private practice and as an athletic consultant for a number of universities, including Tulane, where he provided support for student-athletes impacted by Hurricane Katrina. He also worked in counseling centers at UNC Asheville and Loyola University, and has worked on military bases as a consultant to military personnel through the Department of Defense.

Stewart was a football student-athlete at Tulsa (1974-76). He was named second-team All-America by the Associated Press and was the 1976 Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. His Tulsa teammates included former Tulsa head coach Bill Blankenship, Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Lovie Smith, Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Largent and current Tulane athletics director Rick Dickson. Stewart completed his bachelor's degree in marketing at the University of New Orleans, and in 1999 completed his Master of Education Counseling from New Orleans.

Stewart was drafted in the eighth round by New Orleans in 1977 and played two seasons there before playing for Detroit and New England. He worked in New Orleans for 20 years in the oil industry as a marketing professional for a publicly held company. Jimmy and his wife Melissa reside in Fort Collins with their son Sam. His daughter, Kati Hill, her husband Brian and son Jackson reside in New Orleans.

2016 Highlights

- Colorado State won four of its final five regular-season contests to qualify for a bowl game for the fourth year in a row after a 3-4 start to the season. CSU is one of three Mountain West schools to play in a bowl game in each of the past four seasons.
- WR Michael Gallup, P Hayden Hunt and OL Fred Zerblis were named to the All-Mountain West first team in December, joining second-team members Jake Bennett (OL) and Kevin Davis (LB) and honorable mention selections Nick Callender (OL), Nick Stevens (QB) and Paul Thurston (OL).
- CSU went 5-1 at home in 2016, the final season at Hughes Stadium. The Rams closed the door on the 49-year-old stadium on Nov. 19 and will return to campus in 2017 at their new, on-campus stadium.
- CSU's season captains, voted on by their peers, were LB Kevin Davis, P Hayden Hunt, TE Nolan Peralta and OL Fred Zerblis.
- 8 of CSU's 11 regular-season FBS opponents competed in a bowl game. Overall, CSU's 13 opponents combined for a 73-60 (.549) record, good for the 35th-toughest schedule in FBS. The Rams' six losses came to teams with a combined mark of 56-24 (.700).
- After starting three different quarterbacks through the first three games of the season, the Rams' offense got into a rhythm midway through the year. Over the final six games, CSU averaged 47.8 points and 533.8 yards per game, figures which ranked 2nd and 4th, respectively, in all of FBS from Oct. 16 forward. Overall, the Rams ranked 28th in FBS in scoring offense and 30th in total offense; on Oct. 16, they ranked 96th and 75th in those two categories.
- CSU posted six shutouts in a half in 2016, including an entire-game shutout vs. Fresno State (11/5), the Rams' first since 1997.
- CSU scored 53 of 56 times it reached the red zone (94.6%), a figure which ranked 4th in FBS and was the best in school history dating back to at least 2005.
- In addition to blocking for the third-best offense in school history, the Rams' offensive line surrendered just 13 sacks, a figure which ranked 8th in FBS.
- A trio of CSU running backs rushed for more than 500 yards, with each crossing the 100-yard mark vs. New Mexico (11/19). In that contest, CSU totaled 412 rushing yards, the most in 15 seasons and the 8th-best mark in school history. Overall, CSU's 2,831 net rushing yards and 5.3 yards-per-carry average rank fifth and second, respectively, in school history.
- After turning the ball over 27 times in 2015, CSU made one of the largest jumped in FBS, giving up the ball just 12 times, including 7 interceptions. The 12 turnovers lost rank 17th (compared to 116th in 2015) and the 7 interceptions (13th in FBS) were a school record.
- CSU had 27 players make their CSU debuts in 2016, including nine true freshmen. Among them were QB Collin Hill and RB Marvin Kinsey, Jr., who put up eye-opening numbers before their seasons ended early due to knee injuries.
- CSU had 22 players make their first FBS starts in 2016 (T-8th in FBS).
- The Rams' defense limited two of the top rushing attacks in back-to-back weeks. New Mexico entered the Nov. 19 contest leading the nation with 347.8 rushing yards per game, but were out-rushed by the Rams by 127 yards. A week later, CSU stuffed Mountain West champion San Diego State and the NCAA's all-time career rushing leader Donnel Pumphrey. Entering the game ranked second in FBS with 168.6 rushing yards per game, CSU held Pumphrey to 53 yards.
- CSU ranked 2nd in the Mountain West and 43rd nationally with 6.3 tackles for loss per game. A total of 22 players had a TFL in 2016, with 14 recording a sack – 11 of which had never done so prior to 2016.
- CSU scored first in its final eight games, doing so on its first drive six times. Overall, the Rams outscored opponents 131-73 in the first quarter in 2016.
- CSU had two of the top single-game yards-per-play averages in school history, averaging 11.1 vs. New Mexico (2nd) and 9.1 vs. Idaho (7th).

GAME 1
Friday, Sept. 2, 2016
Sports Authority Field at Mile High
Denver, Colo.
Attendance: 69,850

- Colorado State dropped its opening game for the first time since 2013. The Rams had previously won four of their past five openers dating back to 2011.
- A total of 14 players made their CSU debuts on Friday, including three freshmen and 12 players making their Division I debuts.
- CSU forced three fumbles in the game, recovering a pair. In the second quarter, Deshon Mayes forced a fumble recovered by Jake Schlager, and in the third Justin Sweet stripped the ball loose, recovered by Demontrie Taylor. Kevin Davis forced a fumble in the end zone in the first quarter, but CSU could not pounce on the loose ball, resulting in CU's second score.
- Both playing in their first game for CSU, QB Faton Bauta found WR Marcus Wilson for a 5-yard strike on fourth down on the first play of the fourth quarter. It was both player's first career touchdowns.
- Senior LB Kevin Davis had a career-most 19 tackles (17 solo), the most by a Rams defender since Max Morgan in 2013.
- Of CSU's 20 defenders to play Friday, 15 set career highs for tackles, including Kevin Davis (19), Jake Schlager (11), Justin Sweet (8) and Evan Colorito (6).
- DL Jakob Buys had his first career sack, a six-yard loss.
- RB Dalyn Dawkins rushed for 88 yards (6.3 average). In his two Rocky Mountain Showdowns, he is averaging 103 yards. Dawkins' one kickoff return went for 35 yards.
- WR Michael Gallup led CSU with 38 receiving yards on four catches.
- All-America P Hayden Hunt punted six times for an average of 43.3 yards, including two punts over 50 yards.
- In CSU's 14 Rocky Mountain Showdown losses since 1995, the Rams have finished with a winning record in 10 of those seasons.
- Nick Stevens started the game at QB, completing 6-of-20 passes for 31 yards and two interceptions. Faton Bauta had one series in the first quarter and took over for most of the second half, leading CSU to its only score. He finished 6-of-9 for 32 yards and one touchdown.
- CSU committed just two penalties for 15 yards.
- CSU was forced to punt after just three plays each of its first five drives. The Rams didn't record a first down until 5 minutes into the second quarter.
- Friday's attendance was 69,850 the highest total in the series since 2003 (76,219).

GAME 2
Saturday, Sept. 10, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 20,673

- CSU has now won four home openers in a row, and eight of nine dating back to 2008.
- The Rams improved to 2-0 all-time against UTSA.
- CSU held UTSA off the board in the second half, the first time that has happened since shutting out New Mexico in the second half on Sept. 3, 2011. In the second half, the Roadrunners were limited to 63 total yards over 33 plays.
- CSU trailed for just 5:05, taking a 10-7 lead two-thirds of the way into the first quarter and leading for the remainder of the contest.
- After not scoring until the second half of last week's opener, and not recording a first down until nearly 5 minutes into the second quarter, CSU got off to a hot start Saturday by recording a first down on its second play from scrimmage and a field goal on its first drive.
- CSU's 3-0 lead was the Rams' first lead of the season.
- CSU did not turn the ball over, winning the turnover battle 1-0 thanks to a late Braylin Scott interception – the first of the sophomore DB's career.
- The Rams out-rushed the Roadrunners, 220 to -1.
  - The Rams' 193 net rushing yards in the first half were the most since rushing for 209 in the first half vs. Tulsa (10/4/14).
- Senior LB Kevin Davis had 3.0 sacks on the day, including a strip sack, six tackles, two quarterback hurries and a pass breakup.
- Sophomore K Wyatt Bryan went 3-for-3 on field-goal attempts. He has made 15 of his last 17 field-goal attempts dating back to Sept. 26, 2015.
  - Bryan's 46-yard make with 2:24 remaining in the contest was a career long and gave the Rams a two-possession lead.
- All-America punter Hayden Hunt had seven punts, averaging 46.7 yards per punt. He had two that went 50 yards (long of 59) and five that were downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Junior WR Elroy Masters, Jr. led CSU with 67 receiving yards (three receptions), his first since Week 2 last season (Masters missed the majority of the 2015 season with a broken collarbone).
- True freshman QB Collin Hill entered the game early in the fourth quarter, completing an 11-yard screen pass to WR Olabisi Johnson on his first pass attempt.
- True freshmen DB Robert Awunganyi, QB Collin Hill and DL Arjay Jean made their collegiate debuts Saturday.

NORTHERN COLORADO	21
COLORADO STATE	47

GAME 3
Saturday, Sept. 17, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 26,718

- CSU wore orange uniforms in honor of the school's original colors of pumpkin and alfalfa. The Rams improved to 7-0 in Orange Out games.
- CSU and Northern Colorado played for the first time since 2011. With the win, the Rams improved to 20-0-1 in the series.
- Making his first career start, freshman QB Collin Hill was 21-of-27 for 315 yards and four touchdown passes - to four different receivers - plus a 51-yard touchdown run.
  - Hill's 315 passing yards were the most by a CSU QB making his first career start.
- CSU's second score of the game came on a 51-yard keep up the middle by freshman QB Collin Hill. It was the longest rush by a CSU QB since Bradlee Van Pelt (79-yard touchdown run vs. Fresno State, Oct. 4, 2002).
- Hill's four touchdown passes are tied for the sixth-most in a single game in school history. They went to four different receivers, including the first career touchdown by WRs Michael Gallup and Robert Ruiz, and the second by WRs Olabisi Johnson and Elroy Masters, Jr.
- CSU's defense did not allow a point for four complete quarters (16 consecutive drives), dating back to the third quarter of last week's win vs. UTSA and into the third quarter Saturday.
  - The last time CSU kept its opponents off the board for four consecutive quarters was in 2011 (second half vs. New Mexico, Sept. 3; first half vs. Northern Colorado, Sept. 10).
- CSU's offense, which entered the game ranked 123rd in FBS averaging 276.5 yards of offense per game, more than doubled their season average by posting 569 (324 passing, 245 rushing).
- Wyatt Bryan connected on two field goals, including a 53-yard make as the first half expired. It was a career long, surpassing the 46-yard make on his most-recent attempt. The field goal was the tied for the ninth-longest in CSU history, and the longest since Jared Roberts (53) in 2014.
- Freshman RB Marvin Kinsey, Jr. scored his first career touchdown with a nine-yard rush midway through the fourth quarter. It capped an 80-yard drive in 4:34 - the longest and second-longest of the season, respectively.
  - Kinsey finished the game with 18 carries for 97 yards (5.4 average), the most this season by a CSU RB.

GAME 4
Saturday, Sept. 24, 2016
TCF Bank Stadium
Minneapolis, Minn.
Attendance: 44,854

- The loss snapped CSU's three-game winning streak in true road contests. It was the Rams' best stretch since 2002. Overall, CSU has still won 10 of its last 15 true road contests, its best since also doing so from 2001-03.
- Sophomore DB Braylin Scott intercepted a pass in the final minute of the first half. He has now recorded an interception in three consecutive games.
- Junior WR Michael Gallup had a career-most six catches for 53 yards and his second career touchdown. The score cut the Rams' deficit to 7, 31-24, with 6:24 remaining.
- Four different receivers had multiple catches, including three grabs for 40 yards – both career highs – by senior TE Danny Nwosu.
- Two Rams defenders had double-digit tackles: Sophomore LB Josh Watson (career-most 12 tackles, 2.0 TFL) and senior DB Jake Schlager (10 tackles).
- Junior DL Darnell Thompson had a sack, the first of his career. The seven-yard sack forced Minnesota to punt with 4:19 to play in the game, giving the Rams the ball back down just one possession.
- CSU had 11 offensive plays go for more than 15 yards (7 pass, 4 rush).
- The Rams were 3-for-3 inside the red zone, improving their season figure to 14-for-14.
- CSU scored on its first three drives to open the second half.
- CSU's two turnovers resulted in 10 points for the Gophers.
- CSU's first score was a six-play, 75-yard drive – all carries – in just 2:10. Featured on the drive were three rushes of at least 18 yards, including Marvin Kinsey Jr.'s carry to the left side for his second touchdown in as many games.
- Late in the first half, Minnesota had 1st-and-goal from the 2-yard line, but was limited to a field goal after three defensive stops (-8 yards).
- After starting the second half with a solid defensive series, the Rams marched down the field for an eight-play score. All but four yards were on the ground, including the touchdown, a 2-yard rush by WR Detrich Clark, his first touchdown as a Ram.
- The Rams got to within one score (41-yard field goal by K Wyatt Bryan), 24-17, late in the third quarter, behind a 16-play drive that lasted 6:18 – both season highs.
- After Minnesota took a 14-7 lead with 8:59 remaining in the second quarter, CSU's defense allowed just 44 total yards over the Gophers' next four drives (28:47 in time).
- Facing 4th-and-5 from the CSU 30-yard line, All-America punter Hayden Hunt faked a punt and converted a 29-yard pass to DB Braylin Scott. The play set up a touchdown six plays later, with QB Collin Hill finding WR Michael Gallup for 15 yards.

GAME 5
Saturday, Oct. 1, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 33,500

- The sellout (33,500) was the Rams' fifth in their last 13 home games. Prior to that stretch, CSU didn't record a sellout in more than a decade.
- The attendance was the 11th-largest in school history, and most since 2004.
- The Rams had previously won the previous three Border War meetings, never trailing in the series from 2013-15.
- Senior TE Nolan Peralta, who entered the game with eight career receptions, had three catches, including the first touchdown of his career. The nine-yard pass from QB Collin Hill capped a seven-play, 91-yard drive to give the Rams a 7-3 advantage.
- Junior WR Detrich Clark displayed his speed early in the second quarter, rushing down the left sideline for 35 yards and his second touchdown in as many games.
- The Rams' third scoring drive came on the final play of the first half when K Wyatt Bryan connected on a 36-yard field goal.
- It marked the fourth game in a row that Bryan has attempted a field goal on the final play of the first half.
- Of CSU's 14 touchdowns in 2016, 10 have been scored by players who entered the season with zero career touchdowns.
- Freshman QB Collin Hill, making his third start, passed for a career-most 370 yards (23-of-41).
- Senior TE Danny Nwosu, who entered the game with seven career receptions for 79 yards, had a team-most six catches for 68 yards, including three consecutive catches during a second-half drive.
- Sophomore LB Josh Watson tied a career high with 12 tackles (team most), including a half sack.
- Over the past three games, Watson is averaging 11.67 tackles per game.
- CSU's defense had 3.0 sacks (all in the first half) and 8.0 tackles for loss.
- LB Tre Thomas' second-quarter sack was the first of his career.
- LBs Evan Colorito and Josh Watson teamed up to sack Wyoming QB Josh Allen on 3rd-and-goal from the 10-yard line. The loss forced the Cowboys to kick a field goal on their opening drive after initially having 1st-and-goal.
- CSU's two turnovers resulted in 14 Wyoming points.
- After warming up in their traditional jersey combination of green tops and gold pants, the Rams switched into a brand-new, all-gray look just before kickoff. The uniforms are part of CSU's new partnership with Under Armour.

GAME 6
Saturday, Oct. 8, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 32,387

- CSU scored 21 unanswered points, overcoming a 24-10 halftime deficit.
- The Rams' defense posted a second-half shutout, allowing 183 yards over the final two quarters.
- CSU finished plus-2 for the turnover battle, earning two takeaways without giving up the ball.
  - After CSU cut the deficit to one score, 24-17, early in the third quarter, the Rams got the ball back on the Aggies' first play from scrimmage. Senior DB Tyree Simmons knocked the ball loose, which was recovered by senior LB Kevin Davis.
    - The fumble recovery was the Rams' first since the season opener vs. Colorado (9/2) and their first takeaway since a Braylin Scott interception at Minnesota (9/24).
  - Late in the fourth quarter, Davis sealed the win with an interception with 47 seconds remaining, allowing the Rams to line up in victory formation.
- CSU was a perfect 4-for-4 in red-zone opportunities, improving its season average to 95.2 percent (20-of-21).
- Junior QB Nick Stevens replaced freshman QB Collin Hill (knee) late in the third quarter. It was his first action since closing the game vs. Northern Colorado (9/17), and first significant action since starting the season opener vs. Colorado (9/2).
  - Stevens finished 3-of-7 for 37 yards, leading the Rams on two scoring drives. He had a 22-yard third-down completion to junior WR Michael Gallup during the Rams' game-tying scoring drive – the drive Stevens took over for Hill during.
- Junior WR Michael Gallup caught seven passes for 140 yards, including a 60-yard touchdown in which he displayed his speed to beat several defenders.
  - The 60-yard score was the Rams' longest from scrimmage this season. It cut the Rams' deficit to just one score, 24-17, just 2:38 into the second half.
- Providing a nice 1-2 punch, RBs Dalyn Dawkins and Izzy Matthews combined for 198 rushing yards.
  - Dawkins carried 14 times for 125 yards (8.9 average), the second-highest total of his career.
  - Matthews rushed 23 times for 73 yards and two touchdowns.
- The Rams' defense posted four sacks, accounting for 38 lost yards.

GAME 7
Saturday, Oct. 15, 2016
Albertsons Stadium
Boise, Idaho
Attendance: 33,448

- Trailing 28-3 midway through the fourth quarter, Colorado State scored 20 unanswered points to cut the deficit to 28-23. The Rams would score three touchdowns in a span of 1:25, recovering two on-side kicks in the process.
- After a fourth-down stop, CSU got the ball back with 15 seconds, trailing by 5. The Rams intended to run two plays, but were only able to get one off before the clock struck triple zeroes. On the play, QB Nick Stevens completed a five-yard pass to WR Michael Gallup, who tossed the ball back to WR Robert Ruiz. He advanced eight yards before attempting to pitch to Stevens. The ball went out of bounds with 4 seconds on the clock, setting up time for one final play, from the CSU 45-yard line. However, after two reviews, the officials called an illegal forward pass and a 10-second runoff, ending the game.
- CSU scored on its opening drive of the game, becoming the first team to lead on Boise State this season. The Broncos began the season with an FBS-record (since 1996) 307:36 without trailing. The 10-play, 42-yard drive was capped with a 39-yard field goal by K Wyatt Bryan, his ninth make of the season.
- The Broncos entered the game out-scoring opponents 63-14 in the first quarter, but trailed CSU, 3-0. They were averaging 26.4 first-half points and 36.8 points overall, before scoring just 7 and 28, respectively, vs. CSU.
- Prior to Boise State's touchdown with 27 seconds remaining in the first half, CSU's defense had held opponents without a score on 14 consecutive drives (63:27). The streak dated back to the final 3:54 of the first half vs. Utah State (10/8).
- On CSU's second scoring drive, the Rams successfully converted three fourth-down conversions, including a 19-yard gain by QB Nick Stevens. The 17 plays were a season most, and used up 5:53 off the clock (second-longest).
    - It marked RB Izzy Matthews' fourth touchdown of the season, and third in his last two games.
- WR Michael Gallup's 53-yard touchdown reception was the fourth-longest play of the season. Overall, Gallup has three of the Rams' six longest plays.
    - The one-play, 12-second drive marked the shortest and quickest scoring drive of the season.
- RB Dalyn Dawkins finished with 90 all-purpose yards, carrying the ball 14 times for 66 yards and catching five passes for 24 yards, including a touchdown.
- Freshmen DL Richard King and Toby McBride each recorded a sack.

Attendance: 18,362

- CSU improved to 16-6-1 all-time against UNLV, winning 16 of its last 19 but first in Las Vegas since 2007.
- The Rams have won 11 of their last 17 true road contests dating back to the 2013 season, their best stretch since 2001-03. Prior to the current stretch, the Rams had lost 10 true road contests in a row and 21 of 23.
- CSU scored the game's first 35 points, never trailing during the contest. The Rams' six first-half drives featured five touchdowns.
- The CSU defense posted its fourth shutout of a half this season, allowing zero points, 72 total yards and forcing two turnovers in the first half.
- CSU scored 42 points, its highest in a road contest since scoring 66 at New Mexico (Nov. 22, 2014).
- CSU rushed for 230 yards, with three backs totaling at least 49 yards. RBs Marvin Kinsey, Jr. and Izzy Matthews each found the end zone twice, becoming the first set of CSU teammates to each score two touchdowns in a game since 1996.
- Junior Michael Gallup tied a career high with seven catches for 91 yards and a touchdown. The WR is averaging 107.3 yards per game over the past three contests and has scored a touchdown in five of his past six games.
- QB Nick Stevens completed 21 of 28 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns. The junior completed 16 of 19 first-half passes, helping CSU score on five of its first six drives.
- CSU nearly doubled UNLV's time of possession (39:37 to 20:23), securing the football for at least 10 minutes in three of the four quarters.
- The Rams – who entered the game ranked 109th nationally converting just 34.0 percent of third-down opportunities – were 10-of-18 on third down (55.6 percent), in addition to 3-fo-4 on fourth down.
- CSU won the turnover battle for the third week in a row, earning two first-half takeaways. Senior DB Jake Schlager intercepted his first pass, while late in the second quarter, junior DB Justin Sweet recovered a fumble, which set up a CSU touchdown three plays later.
- A total of 23 different Rams defenders recorded at least one tackle.
- CSU was penalized just four times for 21 yards, with one penalty (5 yards) being an intentional delay of game to set up the Rams' punt better.
- The Rams scored on their opening drive for the third game in a row.

FRESNO STATE	0
COLORADO STATE	37

GAME 9
Saturday, Nov. 5, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 23,187

- Colorado State posted its first shutout since Oct. 4, 1997 (63-0 win over Hawai'i), spanning 225 games.
- CSU out-gained Fresno State, 494-232 (season best by CSU defense), including 337-68 in the first half.
- CSU has won six home games in a row in the month of November.
- Fresno State didn't record its initial first down until more than 18 minutes into the game. At that point, the Rams had already recorded 12 first downs. The Bulldogs didn't cross midfield for the first time until midway through the third quarter.
- Junior WR Michael Gallup continues to emerge as the Rams' top pass-catcher, catching a personal-best nine passes for 126 yards and a touchdown.
- The 126 receiving yards are the second-most of his career, and the second-highest of the season by a Ram. He is the only CSU player to reach 100 receiving yards in a game this season.
- QB Nick Stevens completed 19-of-24 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns.
- Stevens has completed 60 passes and attempted 90 since his last interception (both personal bests).
- The Rams did not turn the ball over for the third time in their past four games. They've won the turnover battle each of the past four contests.
- Senior CB Jordon Vaden, a converted wide receiver, recorded his first career interception, picking off Fresno State's Zach Kline early in the fourth quarter.
- The Rams rushed for a season-most 254 yards. RBs Marvin Kinsey, Jr. (83 yards), Izzy Matthews (55) and Dalyn Dawkins (35) each carried the ball 10 times.
- Kinsey, Jr. gave CSU a 10-0 first-quarter lead with a five-yard touchdown to cap a four-play, 66-yard drive in just 1:17.
- Matthews has had multi-touchdown games in back-to-back contests, scoring on a pair of 1-yard rushes vs. Fresno State. He has a team-most eight touchdowns on the season, including seven in his last four games.
- CSU had a season-high-tying 10 tackles for loss. 11 different defenders were in on a tackle for loss, led by true freshmen LB Arjay Jean and DL Toby McBride, who each had 1.5 sacks.
- LB Max McDonald (0.5) and DL Johnny Schupp (0.5) each had their first career sacks.
- WR Robert Ruiz had a career-most 60 receiving yards (2 catches).

COLORADO STATE		46
AIR FORCE		49

GAME 10
Saturday, Nov. 12, 2016
Falcon Stadium
USAFA, Colo.
Attendance: 23,467

- The game marked the first time that CSU has ever had a 300-yard passer, 200-yard receiver and a 100-yard rusher in a game.
- CSU's 559 yards of total offense were a season most against an FBS opponent. The Rams out-gained Air Force, despite the Falcons' 485 rushing yards.
- CSU has scored at least 37 points in each of its last three games, averaging 41.67 points and 506.67 yards.
- The 94 combined points were the most scored in the series, surpassing the 84 points scored in the 2000 meeting.
- CSU and Air Force have split the past four meetings in the series, but CSU has yet to win at Falcon Stadium since 2002.
- Junior WR Michael Gallup caught 13 passes for 213 yards and a touchdown. The 13 catches were the second-most in CSU history (Jeff Champine holds the record with 14 vs. New Mexico on Oct. 29, 1983), while the 213 receiving yards were the fifth-most, and highest total since David Anderson vs. BYU on Oct. 2, 2004.
- Junior QB Nick Stevens had a career-high 374 passing yards – surpassing his previous high of 310 vs. Nevada in the 2015 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.
- RB Dalyn Dawkins reached the century mark with 102 rushing yards (7.3 average) and two touchdowns. It was the first multi-touchdown game of his career.
- Dawkins' first touchdown came just 1:01 into the contest, rushing to the right side for 61 yards – it was the longest play from scrimmage this season for the Rams.
- Senior LB Kevin Davis, a nearby Fountain-Fort Carson High School graduate, had 15 tackles and two forced fumbles.
- Junior DB Justin Sweet intercepted his first career pass and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown to give CSU a 24-14 lead. He also had six tackles and a breakup. The pick-six was CSU's first since Shaquil Barrett did it vs. UNLV on Nov. 10, 2012.
- Sophomore RB Izzy Matthews scored a first-quarter touchdown to give CSU a 14-7 advantage.
- LB Tre Thomas had a career-most 13 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Josh Watson was also in double figures (11), while Evan Colorito finished with a personal-best nine (including 2.0 tackles for loss), plus his first career fumble recovery.
- CSU scored on its first three drives. Over the past three games, CSU has had early success, scoring on five of its first six drives at UNLV (10/22) and six of its first seven vs. Fresno State (11/5).

NEW MEXICO	31
COLORADO STATE	49

GAME 11
Saturday, Nov. 19, 2016
Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.
Attendance: 29,133

- CSU became bowl eligible for the fourth consecutive season, its best stretch since going bowling five years in a row from 1999-2003.
- Saturday was the final game at Hughes Stadium, the 49-year-old the facility that had served as the Rams' home since 1968. CSU went 146-114-2 (.562) in 262 games at the stadium.
- CSU's 49 points and 576 total yards were season highs. Over the past four games, the Rams are averaging 43.5 points and 524.0 yards.
- A trio of running backs – Marvin Kinsey, Jr. (127 yards), Izzy Matthews (107) and Dalyn Dawkins (102) – reached the century mark in rushing, helping CSU total 412 total yards on the ground. It was the Rams' highest rushing total since 2001 (440 vs. BYU on Nov. 1).
- CSU is the first opponent to out-rush New Mexico this season (412-285). The Lobos entered the game ranked No. 1 in the nation, averaging 347.8 rushing yards per game. Prior to Saturday, New Mexico had out-rushed all of its opponents by at least 112 yards.
- CSU scored on its opening drive to take a 7-0 lead. It marked the sixth game in a row that the Rams have scored first, and the fifth time in their last six games that they've scored on their opening drive.
- QB Nick Stevens finished the game completing 9-of-10 passes for 164 yards and two touchdowns. In addition to his passing totals, QB Nick Stevens rushed for two first-half touchdowns. His quarterback rating of 293.8 was the highest by a CSU quarterback since Garrett Grayson vs. Wyoming on Oct. 25, 2014 (320.3).
- RB Izzy Matthews finished the game with a season-high 107 yards on 14 carries (7.6 average), including a scoring drive in which he carried four times for 77 yards – with all four going for at least 12 yards.
- RB Marvin Kinsey, Jr. led all players with a career-best 127 rushing yards (12.7 average), including a touchdown.
- WR Michael Gallup was over the 100-yard receiving mark for the third game in a row (5 catches for 116 yards). Since an Oct. 8 win over Utah State, he is averaging 132.2 yards with a touchdown in all six games.
- P Hayden Hunt, who earlier in the week was named a finalist for the Ray Guy Award, punted twice, averaging 58.5 yards. His first punt traveled a season-long 66 yards.

COLORADO STATE		63
SAN DIEGO STATE		31

GAME 12
Saturday, Nov. 26, 2016
Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 34,223

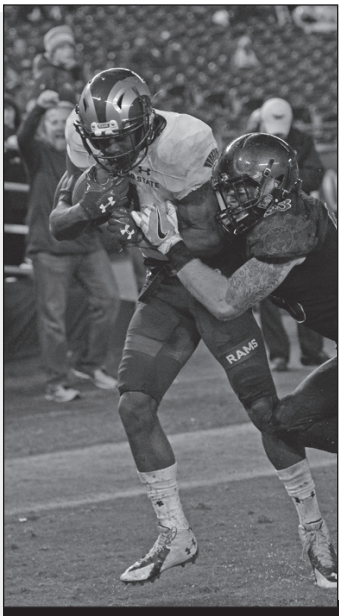

- CSU beat San Diego State for the first time since 2008, snapping a five-game losing streak to the Aztecs.
- The win guaranteed the Rams a winning record for the fourth year in a row, the first time since CSU posted a winning record in 10 consecutive seasons from 1994-2003.
- CSU scored 63 points, who entered the game as the nation's eighth-best scoring defense, allowing just 16.9 points per game (10.8 in Mountain West play).
- The 63 points were a season most for CSU (surpassing last week's 49 vs. New Mexico) and the highest total since CSU scored 65 in the 2015 season opener vs. Savannah State (9/5/15). The 63 points were the most allowed by SDSU since 2008.
- SDSU entered the game ranked in the top 10 nationally for rushing offense (283.4 yards per game; seventh) and rushing defense (97.2; third. The Rams out-rushed the Aztecs, 291-194.
- The win snapped SDSU's 10-game home winning streak overall – which was the fourth-longest active streak in FBS.
- CSU took an early lead 2:25 into the contest. It marked the seventh game in a row that the Rams have scored first. The score marked the first time since the 2015 Mountain West Championship game vs. Air Force that the Aztecs have trailed at home.
- Senior Robert Ruiz returned an SDSU punt 91 yards for a touchdown, the longest in school history. The previous long was 90 yards by Glen Davis in 1926. Ruiz also caught his third career touchdown reception, a 5-yard catch.
- Heisman Trophy candidate RB Donnel Pumphrey, who entered the game ranked second in the nation with 168.6 rushing yards per game, was limited to 53 net yards (2.9 yards per carry). It was his lowest rushing output since his freshman season (Dec. 21, 2013 vs. Buffalo; 2 carries for 2 yards).
- Junior WR Michael Gallup had six receptions for 139 yards and three touchdowns. Gallup is the eighth Ram (10 times total) to have three touchdowns in a game.
- QB Nick Stevens completed 10 of 15 passes for 210 yards and a season-best four touchdowns.
- For the second week in a row, CSU had two running backs reach the century mark. Sophomore RB Izzy Matthews carried the ball 14 times for 104 yards and two scores, while junior RB Dalyn Dawkins had 15 carries for 103 yards.
- CSU won the turnover battle for the fifth time in the past seven games, with LB Evan Colorito forcing a fumble and DB Jamal Hicks intercepting a pass.

IDAHO		61
COLORADO STATE		50

GAME 13- Famous Idaho Potato Bowl
Thursday, Dec. 22, 2016
Albertsons Stadium
Boise, Idaho
Attendance: 24,975

• Colorado State finished the season 7-6, marking the team's third consecutive winning season. The seven victories under Mike Bobo are tied for the most by a first-year CSU head coach.
• CSU played in a bowl game for the third season in a row, its longest stretch since playing in five in a row from 1999-2003. All-time, CSU is 6-9 in 15 bowl games.
• Tuesday marked the third time that CSU has played in an inaugural bowl game (2001 New Orleans and 2005 Poinsettia Bowl).
• Junior WR Rashard Higgins had nine receptions for 129 yards, the 18th 100-yard receiving game of his career (extending his school record).
• Higgins hauled in a 20-yard reception during CSU's final scoring drive, passing David Anderson to become the school's all-time receiving yards leader (3,649). He also owns CSU's career touchdowns (31) and receptions (239) records.
• Sophomore QB Nick Stevens had a career-most 310 passing yards Tuesday, plus a rushing touchdown. He finished the season with 2,679 passing yards (CSU sophomore record) and ranked fifth among all Rams quarterbacks with 21 touchdown passes and tied for ninth with 211 completions.
• Senior LB Cory James played in every game over the past four seasons. He is believed to be the only CSU player to play in 52 career games. James finished his career ranked fourth with 24.0 sacks.
• Senior RB Jasen Oden, Jr. became the 21st Ram to rush for 1,000 career yards, finishing with 1,022.
• The Rams out-gained Nevada, 532-345, in addition to having more first downs (30 to 18), total plays (84 to 53) and third-down conversion (9-of-16 to 3-of-9).
• During a period stretching from the final 7:04 of the first half and into the first 11:05 of the second half, CSU and Nevada scored on seven consecutive possessions
• Senior safety Kevin Pierre-Louis wore No. 16 in honor of fellow safety Trent Matthews, who missed the game due to a ACL tear during the Rams' regular-season finale at Fresno State (11/28). Matthews, who assisted as a volunteer coach on the sideline, wore Pierre-Louis' No. 26 on his jersey.

RETIRED NUMBERS

21 | Eddie Hanna: A star Colorado A&M running back, his promising career ended after he passed away due to heart failure following the first game of the '49 season. His sudden tragic death shocked the campus. Colorado A&M class president Roy Romer, who later served as governor of the state, collected money for an Eddie Hanna memorial scholarship that still is available today. Hanna came to Fort Collins after serving in World War II. A 5-foot-6, 165-pound athlete from Dodge City, Kan., Hanna also played basketball and ran track for the Aggies. He helped the school to its first bowl, the Raisin Bowl following the '48 season, and nearly won the game with touchdown runs of 71 and 79 yards.

48 | Thurman "Fum" McGraw: Fum McGraw is the most recognized athlete in university history. He was the first player to earn consensus All-America honors in football in 1948 and '49, and later played professionally for the Detroit Lions. McGraw also was a coach and athletic administrator at his alma mater. He was the school's director of athletics from 1976-86.

NUMBER HONORED

3 | Greg Myers: Former Rams safety Greg Myers has his jersey number permanently displayed on the press box at Hughes Stadium. Myers played for the Rams from 1992-95 where he picked off 14 passes. He is the only Western Athletic Conference athlete to earn first-team all-conference honors four years in-a-row. Nationally, Myers won the 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the best defensve back in the nation.

Clarence J. Griffith

Third head coach in program history
Record: 2-5-2 (.333)
One-plus seasons: 1901-02
Alma mater: Iowa ('99)
Toomey's assistant, "Griff", took over in October 1901. He resigned just before the 1903 season to concentrate on his graduate studies and care for his new baby girl.

1901 CAC Aggies (1-2)

Oct. 12		Colorado*
Oct. 19		Denver	W	56-5
Oct. 26	at	Colorado College	L	0-16
Nov. 5		Colorado Mines	L	0-11

NOTE — Toomey was replaced by Griffith after the 1901 season opener; CSU, then known as Colorado Agricultural College, attempted to play an ineligible player and CU coach Fred Folsom pulled his team from the field in protest. CU, however, didn't protest the game properly and the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of Colorado awarded the game to CSU as a forfeit. Amid the controversy, Toomey resigned.*

COLORADO STATE AGAINST RANKED FOES

Since the beginning of the Sonny Lubick era in 1993, CSU has played 45 ranked teams (13-32 record). The team's most recent victory over a top-25 foe came in 2002, a win over No. 7/6 Colorado. CSU's most recent win over a ranked team on the road was in 1998 at No. 23/16 Michigan State. The Rams' win over their highest-ranked opponent came in 1994, a triumph over No. 6/4 Arizona.

SONNY LUBICK

Head Coach, 1993-2007

Four-time Conference Coach of the Year | Six Conference Titles | Nine Bowl Games

Colorado State's football program attained previously unknown heights during head coach Sonny Lubick's 15 seasons. During that time, Lubick created a standard for excellence never before evident during the previous 94-year history of the football program. Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just two bowl appearances prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- Colorado State won or shared six conference titles from 1994-2007, more than any other Mountain West member over that period;
- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- The Rams ranked among the Top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranked among the Top 20 NCAA Division I FBS active coaches in career wins at the end of 2007;
- Colorado State placed among the leaders in MWC victories since the conference came into being in 1999;
- The Rams seven times won eight or more games in a season. Four times – the first four times in school history – CSU won 10 or more games.

Lubick ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprint can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstiles. Not only were the Rams perennial postseason competitors under Lubick, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history came during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single-game crowds in CSU history came during his time at the helm. Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division I-A coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members.

Interest and support of CSU's program had never been greater. The 2006 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor. The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season. Prior to the 2006 season, a new artificial playing surface was installed to complete the renovation. The playing surface at CSU's new on-campus stadium, which opened in 2017, also bears the name Sonny Lubick Field.

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch touched the entire athletic department. For instance, during his tenure, CSU was able to:

- Renovate and expand Hughes Stadium ($15.2 million).
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990s and a gift of $75,000 from former defensive end and 10-year NFL veteran Brady Smith for program enhancements.
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions.
- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5 million) in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone totaled more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success that CSU's football program enjoyed after Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cared deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program was responsible for his actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick placed a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remained more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remaining on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick had those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact was felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the Sports Illustrated Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record.
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Personal: Born March 12, 1937.

Family: Sonny and wife Carol Jo have three children: sons Matt (1/26/72) and Marc (11/13/77) and daughter Michelle (1/4/73). Matt is the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Washington and Marc is an offensive quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills. Michelle and husband Gerard Boyle live in Fort Collins, along with sons Matthew. William and Owen, and daughter Emma.
Education: Graduated from Christian Brothers High in Butte, Mont., in 1955. Earned bachelor's degree from Western Montana, 1960; earned master's degree from Montana State, 1978.

All-Star Coaching

- 2001: Hula Bowl All-Star Game
- 1995: East-West Shrine Game

Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work.

- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Assocation-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He was an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors;
- Lubick and his family were honored by a local charitable organization in the winter of 2006 for their commitment and dedication to the northern Colorado community.
- In January of 2007, Lubick was named the Collins Award winner, given annually to a local figure that exemplifies leadership and service to the Fort Collins Community by the local chamber of commerce.

Lubick remained staunch in his belief a family approach was one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure. Four of his 2007 coaching staff members – Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993. Marc joined the staff in 2005 after time with the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi. Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere took place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick always was embraced by his three young grandchildren – Matthew, William and Emma – children of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle. Lubick's smile while embracing his three youngest Rams fans reflected the same happiness CSU supporters had come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.

IN THE POLLS SINCE 1994

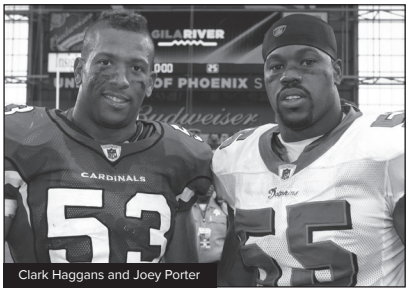

After a win at BYU, Sept. 17, 1994, CSU entered the USA Today coaches poll ranked No. 25, the first appearance in the weekly poll since a brief stay in the UPI coaches rankings in 1977. The following week, in 1994, the Rams earned their first Associated Press ranking in program history. Overall, the program has been ranked 51 total weeks, most recetly in 2014.

1949 RAISIN BOWL
Saturday, Jan. 1, 1949
Ratcliffe Stadium
Fresno, Calif.
Attendance: 10,000

Colorado State — at the time known as the Colorado A&M Aggies — made its first trip to a postseason bowl game at the conclusion of the 1948 football season, capping one of the most successful years in school history.

Coached by Bob Davis, Colorado A&M played on New Year's Day against Occidental College, after an 8-2 regular season highlighted by a 29-25 win over in-state rival Colorado in Boulder. The only two regular-season losses came at the hands of Drake and Utah, setting the stage for the team's trip to postseason play.

It was a star-studded Colorado A&M lineup that took the field that day in Fresno. Four players — Fum McGraw, Tuffy Mullison, Dale Dodrill, and Jack Christiansen — were team mainstays and now occupy spots in Colorado State's Sports Hall of Fame. A fifth star, running back Eddie Hanna, tragically would pass away after the opening game of the following season.

McGraw, the school's first consensus All-American, later played with the Detroit Lions, as did Christiansen, while Dodrill played for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Colorado A&M led 13-0 at halftime behind the play of Hanna. He scored on a 71-yard run after the Aggies had scored when quarterback Bob Hainlen hit Keith Thompson with a 5-yard scoring pass. But Occidental scored 21 second-half points to rally for the victory.

Hanna gave the Aggies their final touchdown of the game on a 79-yard run.

COLORADO STATE	32	1990 FREEDOM BOWL Saturday, Dec. 29, 1990 Anaheim Stadium Anaheim, Calif. Attendance: 51,103
OREGON	31

Colorado State's football squad opened the 1990 season with dreams higher than many observers felt possible. Those dreams included a postseason bowl berth. Having not been invited to a postseason game in 42 years, Colorado State earned a trip to the Freedom Bowl in 1990. Colorado State's 8-4 regular-season record drew bowl attention and thrusted the team into the national limelight in Freedom Bowl VII.

The Rams were matched against PAC-10 member Oregon in what would turn out to be one of the season's most exciting bowl games.

Colorado State scored first, opening the game with a 75-yard, 15-play drive on Mike Gimenez's 1-yard plunge. Oregon later led 17-14, setting the stage for a dramatic fourth quarter.

Trailing 25-19, the Rams took the lead on Gimenez's 49-yard pass to Greg Primus, then added insurance on Todd Yert's 52-yard scoring run to lead 32-25 with minutes remaining. But Oregon made one last grasp at victory behind quarterback Bill Musgrave, who led his team on a 79-yard scoring drive. The Rams' Selwyn Jones then thwarted the Ducks' two-point conversion pass attempt, an amazing play, to seal the win.

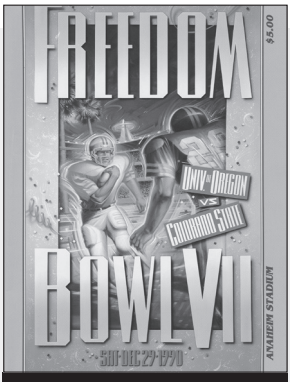

Yert was named the game's Offensive MVP, while teammate Robert Chirico earned defensive honors.

1994 HOLIDAY BOWL

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 59,453

Colorado State's miraculous dream season in 1994 concluded on the turf of San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

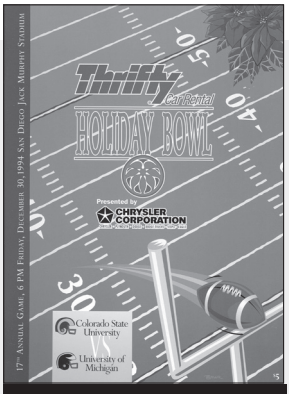

Holiday Bowl 17 featured the young and enthusiastic upstart Rams, representing the Western Athletic Conference for the first time ever in the postseason event, against the Big Ten's Michigan Wolverines, long a bastion of college football tradition.

Colorado State served notice on the night in San Diego that the Rams' program would be a force in coming years. Following a Michigan touchdown on the Wolverines' initial drive of the game, Colorado State answered.

Quarterback Anthoney Hill drove the Rams 66 yards in nine plays for the tying touchdown, hitting receiver Paul Turner on a 32-yard scoring play. Hill, a native of San Diego, later would be honored as Colorado State's Offensive MVP in the game.

The Rams put their final touchdown on the scoreboard late in the game when Hill found receiver Jeremy Burkett down the right sideline for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

By the end of the game, which was played before the eighth-largest crowd in Holiday Bowl history, statistics reflected the closeness of the contest. Michigan had gained 341 total yards, only 1 more than the Rams had managed.

1995 HOLIDAY BOWL
Friday, Dec. 29, 1995
Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 51,051

The Rams, having earned the right to represent the WAC in the final game of the season by virtue of a victory over San Diego State, joined Brigham Young and Wyoming as the only three schools to have appeared in the Holiday Bowl in consecutive years since the bowl's inception. Colorado State entered the game with an 8-3 record after finishing 10-2 in the previous year, the school's first-ever trip to the Holiday Bowl. Colorado State returned to Jack Murphy Stadium, the site of its league-title clinching win over SDSU, for a date with Kansas State.

Kansas State entered the game ranked among the top 10 teams nationally after finishing in a tie for second in the Big Eight Conference. The teams were tied, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter before an interception and a partially blocked punt led to K-State's 19 second-quarter points.

The Rams were led offensively by freshman running back Damon Washington. Playing before a hometown crowd, Washington stung Kansas State's defense for 101 yards on just 10 carries, scoring one touchdown.

Defensively, Colorado State cornerback Ray Jackson intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown on a play that was nullified by an official's inadvertent whistle.

1997 HOLIDAY BOWL
Monday, Dec. 29, 1997
Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 50,761

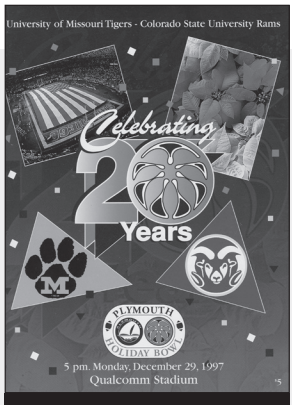

Colorado State served notice on the game's first drive that it was a team bent on making history. The Rams secured a spot in the laurels of school annals with a ninth win in a row, a 35-24 win over Missouri in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Holiday Bowl.

Colorado State made its intentions known from the outset, taking the first drive on a crisp evening in San Diego 85 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Wide receiver Darran Hall — a San Diego native — capped the drive, scoring on a 14-yard reverse. Hall played a major role in the game, taking a punt early in the third quarter and returning it 85 yards for a touchdown, the longest such return in the bowl's history.

He and teammate Moses Moreno — another San Diego-area native — were the game's co-MVPs. Moreno, despite a sore foot injured during the game, completed 18-of-24 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Kevin McDougal gained 110 yards on 18 carries.

Colorado State's defense was equally as impressive. The Rams limited Missouri to just 68 passing yards. Linebacker Willie Taylor and safety Myron Terry led the way with eight tackles apiece, while Eric Vaughn had seven stops.

One of the game's many highlights came with 10:44 to play and the Rams nursing a 28-24 lead. Reserve quarterback Ryan Eslinger, lined up as the holder in a field goal formation, faked that play and instead ran up the middle for a 23-yard touchdown to seal the victory.

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium
Memphis, Tenn.
Attendance: 54,866

The Liberty Bowl pitted the Rams, first-ever champions of the Mountain West Conference, against Conference USA champion Southern Mississippi.

The game featured a myriad of unusual plays. USM's first touchdown came on a fumble return. Following a field goal by the Rams' C.W. Hurst, USM scored on a blocked punt. Later in the first half, Rams wide receiver Frank Rice ran 2 yards on a reverse, a touchdown set up by CSU's blocked punt.

2000 LIBERTY BOWL
Friday, Dec. 29, 2000
Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium
Memphis, Tenn.
Attendance: 58,302

Colorado State entered the game having won a second straight Mountain West Conference title. Coach Sonny Lubick's Rams featured eight players — the most in school history — who were named first-team all-league. Included in that group were quarterback Matt Newton and linebacker Rick Crowell, named the league's offensive and defensive players of the year, respectively. For the fourth time in seven seasons, Lubick was named the league's coach of the year.

Running back Cecil Sapp's 2-yard scoring run in the second quarter tied the game, and wide receiver Frank Rice's 16-yard reverse late in the first half put the Rams ahead to stay, 16-10.

Sapp set a bowl and school bowl game record with 36 rushes, and his 160 yards.

Colorado State was later voted 14th by the Associated Press, the highest end-of-season AP ranking in school history.

COLORADO STATE	45	2001 NEW ORLEANS BOWL
NORTH TEXAS	20	Tuesday, Dec. 18, 2001 Louisiana Superdome New Orleans, La. Attendance: 27,004

Colorado State's football squad in 2001 made school history, playing in a third consecutive bowl game. CSU won the first-ever New Orleans Bowl played at the Louisiana Superdome, home to Super Bowl XXXVI just seven weeks later. And, the win marked the first time in school history that Colorado State had won back-to-back bowl games. CSU head coach Sonny Lubick guided the Rams to five wins in the team's final six games, including the team's sixth bowl game since 1994.

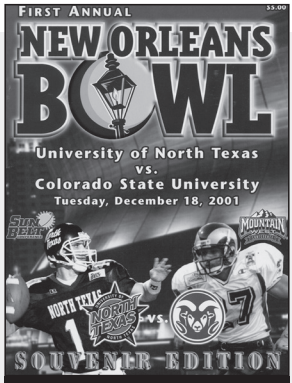

The Rams took control of the game early, scoring 17 points in the first quarter and 24 by halftime. Senior receiver Brad Svoboda scored the first touchdown of his career, a 2-yard reverse, on the game's first drive, set up by a 56-yard catch-and-run play by Pete Rebstock on a pass from Bradlee Van Pelt.

Colorado State sealed the win in the third quarter when the game's MVP, Justin Gallimore, blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown to put the Rams up, 31-14. The Rams' defense, which allowed only 329 yards, was led by linebacker Eric Pauly's 10 tackles, while safety Aaron Sprague also had 10 stops. Offensively, running back Henri Childs led the way with 97 rushing yards. Backup Chad Dixon, a senior playing in his first game as a Ram, scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run.

Memphis, Tenn.
Attendance: 55,207

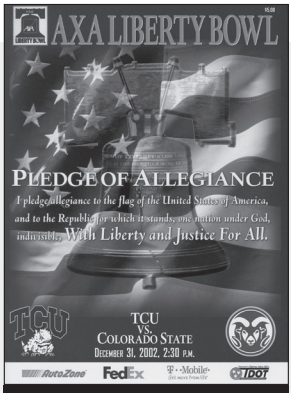

Colorado State concluded a successful 2002 season with the program's third trip in four seasons to the Liberty Bowl as the Mountain West Conference champion.

The bowl date with Conference USA champion TCU marked the Rams' seventh postseason trip overall in Sonny Lubick's 10 seasons as head coach, including a school-record fourth bowl game in row.

Colorado State entered the game with a 10-3 record, the fourth time in Sonny Lubick's career at Colorado State the Rams had won 10 or more games in a season.

Jeff Babcock's 46-yard field goal in the third quarter put the Rams on the scoreboard and proved to be the only scoring for the Rams in the game.

Running back Cecil Sapp was the offensive star gaining 106 yards on the day, while linebacker Eric Pauly, defensive back David Vickers, linebacker Adam Wade and linebacker Drew Wood all finished in double figures in tackles.

2003 SAN FRANCISCO BOWL
Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2003
SBC Park
San Francisco, Calif.
Attendance: 25,621

Colorado State made its fifth consecutive bowl appearance, facing Boston College in the second annual Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Colorado State continued its bowl-game streak by winning five of the team's final seven games, including a 24-23 win over UNLV on the Rams' final drive of the game to ensure another postseason trip.

Colorado State battled back from a first-quarter deficit to close within a touchdown when WR David Anderson caught a 40-yard toss from QB Bradlee Van Pelt to draw the Rams within 21-14. Anderson was impressive in the game with 10 receptions for 134 yards and a touchdown, both CSU bowl game records for catches and receiving yards.

Van Pelt threw for 163 yards and passed for one touchdown and rushed for another. Running back Jimmy Green rushed for a team-best 74 yards and scored a touchdown. LB Jeff Flora led the Rams defense, which limited BC to 361 yards, with nine tackles, while LB Drew Wood and DB Lukas Davis each had six stops. The Rams also were credited with three quarterback sacks in the game.

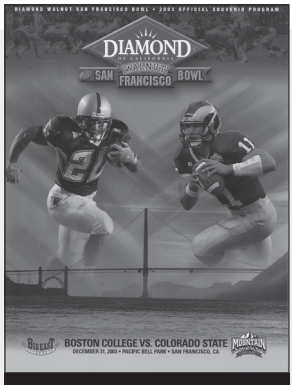

The game was played in SBC Park, home of the San Francisco Giants baseball team.

Attendance: 36,842

Despite throwing for 381 yards on a 26-for-33 evening, senior Justin Holland and the Rams could not overcome the Navy offense in the inaugural Poinsettia Bowl. The Rams ended their season with a 6-6 record, the 11th time in Sonny Lubick's 13-year career the Rams had ended the year with a non-losing record.

Navy slotback Reggie Campbell led the team, tying the NCAA bowl record with five touchdowns, and had 290 all-purpose yards. The Midshipmen notched 611 total yards in the game, with 467 coming on the rush. The Rams netted 571 yards on offense themselves, with 431 net passing yards for the game.

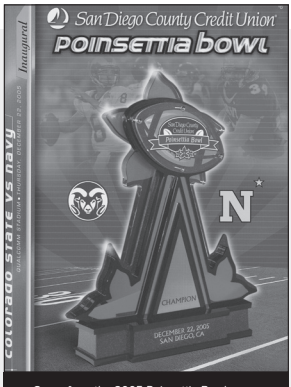

Colorado State sophomore Kory Sperry caught a career-high eight passes for a career-high 117 yards, including four for 54 yards in the opening drive. Senior David Anderson had a game-high 126 yards receiving, second most in a Colorado State bowl game.

Kyle Bell rushed for 122 yards in the game. It was the sixth time that season Bell had surpassed 100 yards.

Gartrell Johnson rushed for a career-high 285 yards and scored two touchdowns as Colorado State rallied for a 40-35 victory over Fresno State. Johnson sealed CSU's first bowl victory since 2001 on a 77-yard touchdown with 1:46 remaining, igniting a celebration by fans who made the 7-hour drive from Fort Collins, Colo. Johnson added 90 yards receiving for 375 combined rushing and receiving yards, the most by any NCAA player ever in a bowl game.

The Rams (7-6) took their first lead at 33-28 when Billy Farris threw a 69-yard TD to Rashaun Greer with 7 minutes left. Fresno State cornerback Sharrod Davis took a big chance but whiffed on his attempt to bat the ball. Greer made the catch at the 30 and went untouched into the end zone.

Fresno State got within 40-35 with 55 seconds to go, but CSU's Kyle Bell secured the ensuing onside kick. Fans came out of the stands as the final seconds ticked off, capping a strong first season for Colorado State coach Steve Fairchild. Johnson was named most valuable offensive player after he put on a show. He broke a 57-yard run in the first quarter and went another 57 yards on a shovel pass from Farris in the second, leaving defenders reaching for the dreadlocks tumbling out of his helmet. CSU's Tommie Hill was named Defensive Player of the Game.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Saturday, Dec. 21, 2013
University Stadium
Albuquerque, N.M.
Attendance: 27,104

Playing in its first bowl game since the 2008 season, Colorado State wanted to prove that it belonged. Sophomore sensation running back Kapri Bibbs did his part leading the Rams with 169 yards rushing and 3 touchdowns and the Rams (8-6) capped their 2013 season in dramatic fashion with a come-from-behind 48-45 victory over the Washington State Cougars. After a crucial stop, CSU got the ball back down 45-30 with 4:17 left in the game and two timeouts left. Quarterback Garrett Grayson looked as poised as ever as he calmly led the Rams 72 yards down the field in just 1:25. On the final play of the drive, Grayson connected with freshman wide receiver Jordon Vaden for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the score to 45-37 with 2:52 left in the game, and most importantly, Grayson preserved both of CSU's timeouts.

Trusting its defense to make a play, CSU kicked the ball off to Washington State. After using both of its timeouts, the Rams faced a key third down needing to get off the field. The Cougars converted with a nine-yard pass to seemingly put the nail in the coffin on the game with just over two minutes left. The Rams once again proved resilient as Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year Shaquil Barrett stripped Washington State running back Jeremiah Laufasa and also pounced on the ball with 1:51 left in the game. CSU proceeded to march down the field and Bibbs scored his 31st touchdown of the season to put the Rams in position to tie the game up with 33 seconds left. On the ensuing two-point conversion, the Rams converted a 'Statue-of-Liberty' handoff to Donnell Alexander to tie the game at 45-45. On the very next kickoff, CSU once again came up with a big play as linebacker SteveO Michel forced a fumble which Jasen Oden recovered. Kicker Jared Roberts sealed the victory with a 41-yard field goal as time expired. The Rams scored 18 points over the final 3 minutes.

2014 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Saturday, Dec. 20, 2014
Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 33,067

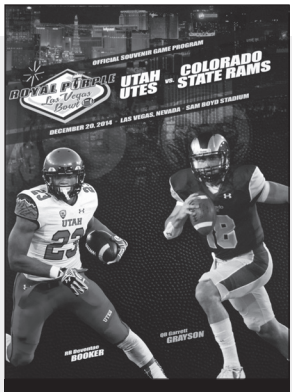

The Colorado State football team fell to Utah in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium, 45-10, on Dec. 20, 2014. The Rams finished one of the most successful seasons in school history with a record of 10-3, making them one of just five teams in program history to win at least 10 games. CSU interim head coach Dave Baldwin applauded his team for the effort they have put forth this season. The Rams' nine-game winning streak from games 3-10--the program's longest since 1997--ran their record to 10-1 on Nov. 22 and a No. 21 national ranking before a last-second loss in the regular-season finale at Air Force, and today's loss.

Quarterback Garrett Grayson finished the season with a school-record 4,006 passing yards--the fourth-most in Mountain West history--and claimed all-time CSU passing records in every major statistical category. Grayson ended the game completing 20 or 34 attempts for 227 yards with one interception. His longest completion went 59 yards in the first quarter to All-America wide receiver Rashard Higgins, who hauled in 7 receptions for 110 yards to record his 10th 100-yard receiving game of the season. The Rams; rushing game was held to 12 net rushing yards on 19 carries, with junior Dee Hart mustering 21 yards on seven carries. Indicative of the uncharacteristic offensive struggles, the unit that set a school record this season for success on third down was limited to 1-of-10 on third-down conversion opportunities.

2015 ARIZONA BOWL
Tuesday, Dec. 29, 2015
Arizona Stadium
Tucson, Ariz.
Attendance: 20,425

Colorado State amassed 532 total yards and Rashard Higgins became the school's all-time receiving yardage leader, but the Rams could not make enough plays to stop the Nevada Wolf Pack, falling 28-23 in the inaugural NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. It was the Rams' third consecutive bowl appearance, their longest postseason streak since playing in five consecutive bowls from 1999-2003, and Mike Bobo became the first CSU head coach to win seven regular season games in his inaugural campaign.

The Rams scored on four consecutive possessions over the second and third quarters — two touchdowns and two field goals — and entered the fourth quarter trailing 22-20. After forcing a Nevada punt with 7:05 left in the game, CSU drove 42 yards in eight plays to kick the go-ahead field goal, a 38-yard effort from Wyatt Bryan, with 3:40 remaining to put CSU up 23-22. The Wolf Pack, however, put together their longest drive since the second quarter, covering 72 yards in eight plays for what turned out to be the game-winning touchdown. James Butler, who earned offensive MVP honors, added the last four of his game-high 192 rushing yards on his 24th carry to provide the final score of 28-23.

CSU made one last threat, moving the ball from its own 12 to the Nevada 12-yard line in just 58 seconds, but the Rams could not get to the line of scrimmage for one last shot into the end zone before time ran out.

2016 FAMOUS IDAHO POTATO BOWL
Thursday, Dec. 22, 2016
Albertsons Stadium
Boise, Idaho
Attendance: 24,975

Sophomore wide receiver Olabisi Johnson set Colorado State's all-time record for receiving yards in a game with 265, but it wasn't enough for the Rams who allowed 606 yards of total offense and a 41-0 Vandal scoring run. Junior quarterback Nick Stevens came up just four yards short of CSU's record for passing yards in a game, with 445 yards and a career-best tying five touchdowns.

The Rams jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a 52-yard touchdown pass from Stevens to Johnson on the first play of the second quarter, but struggled from that point as the Vandals scored 41 unanswered points. CSU had an offensive outburst in the fourth quarter, scoring 36 points in just over 5 minutes of possession time, but ultimately couldn't overcome its early struggles, which included three turnovers.

Sophomore linebacker Josh Watson led the way for the Rams defensively, recording 10 total tackles, followed closely by senior linebacker Kevin Davis who logged nine stops and a tackle for loss. True freshmen Jamal Hicks and Toby McBride each recorded a sack in a starting role, to go along with five and two tackles, respectively.

The postseason game marked the Rams' fourth consecutive bowl appearance, and their 7-6 final record gave the Rams a winning record for the fourth year in a row.

HUGHES STADIUM

Hughes Stadium lies at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about three miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. The facility sat just below the iconic Aggie "A", freshly painted every year by freshmen football players and other campus volunteers.

Opened in 1968, the venerable stadium underwent several upgrades over the decades, including a major renovation between 2003 and 2006.

In 2003, the Bohemian Foundation contributed $15.2 million to the Colorado State athletic department. The majority of that gift was focused on improving Hughes Stadium. Over a three-year period, the facility received a spectacular new west tower, containing club seating, luxury suites and a new press box. CSU also enclosed the north end zone, increasing capacity to 32,500.

The final phase of the renovations focused on that surface itself. The field underwent a $1.33 million makeover prior to the 2006 season, when Colorado State installed FieldTurf, the revolutionary, rubberized surface used by several NFL and major college football venues across the country.

Hughes closed after 262 games, with the final one being a 49-31 victory over New Mexico on Nov. 20, 2016, securing bowl-eligibilty for the Rams.

Legendary basketball coach (then CSU's AD) J.J. Williams and former football All-American and future AD Thurman "Fum" McGraw examine a model of the under-construction Hughes Stadium in 1967.

"They laid the foundation for that stadium. There have been a lot of coaches at this university and sometimes those players feel like they can't come back because they don't know people on the staff. Let them know they are always welcome. They are always a Ram and part of this family. No, I didn't coach them. No, I didn't recruit them, but I want them to be a part of what is going on now at Colorado State. I say it all the time 'It's not my football team, it's their football team." - CSU Head Coach Mike Bobo's post-game comments from Nov. 20, 2016, on all of those represented CSU at Hughes Stadium.

The last game at Hughes Stadium was a memorable one for all CSU fans in attendance. On the frigid evening of Nov. 20, 2016, the Rams rolled New Mexico, 49-31. Over 100 former players and coaches were there to share the glory of the bowl-eligibility-clinching victory. Fans rushed the field after the win to celebrate the 262nd - and final - game in Hughes History.

Durkee Field (1899-1911)

Durkee Field

While little is known about the program's home grounds in 1893 and 1994, when the school's new college athletic organization resurrected football in 1899, the team's first official field was constructed in the spring of 1899. In May 1899, the area between Agricultural Hall and the Chemical Building (where Glenn Morris Field House sits today) was cleared of trees and drained of water. The ground was then graded to make a flat playing surface. With the railroad tracks on the west and South College Avenue on the east, this low-lying ground was actually a natural streambed, which is marked today by a tunnel under the railroad tracks. This stream becomes active when torrents of rain wash through the campus, such as the devastating flood of 1997. The newly reformed football team of 1899 played the first games here on a playing surface made up of primarily dirt and rocks.

In 1901, a graduate from the Class of 1900 named Charles Durkee donated money for a tall wooden fence, erected on three sides of the field with the railroad tracks acting as a barrier for the fourth side. The barriers helped keep non-paying fans out better than the military cadets (the previous system for chasing off freeloaders). In return for his fence, the college named the athletic grounds Durkee Field. Bleachers were later added for spectators to watch games and military drills. The facility was described by former players and head coach Harry Hughes as horrible to walk on, let alone play football. That stream would reappear during wet weather and ran through the playing field during some games.

Hughes' first football season of 1911 marked Durkee's last season of hosting football. When the rules of football changed to standardize the 100-yard field, Hughes used that opportunity to build a better field for his athletes. The military continued to drill on Durkee for several years, and tennis courts were later added for women's athletics. But in 1925, ground was broken for a new gym and fieldhouse that opened in 1927 and still stands there today.

Colorado Field

Colorado Field (1912-67)

In 1910, the site of a college experiment station that grew potatoes was identified as the location where the future athletic field should be built. After two years of lobbying and with the support of college president Charles Lory, construction began on May 23, 1912. Students and faculty, including Lory, removed rocks and planted seed to build the first college football field in Colorado with grass.

Play began in the fall of 1912, after 1,000-seat grandstands were added by the beginning of football season. A cinder track around the field was added in 1914, since Harry Hughes was also the track coach.

In September 1912, the school built a clubhouse just east of the railroad tracks on what is now University Avenue, providing locker rooms and showers for both the Aggies and visiting players. Coupled with the outstanding grass surface and clubhouse, the state-of-the-art football stadium was the envy of the region and helped the Aggies to win eight conference championships over the next 25 years. The ninth and final conference championship team to play on Colorado Field was in 1955.

Over the 55 years Colorado Field served the Aggies, larger grandstands were built and bleachers were added on the east side and end zones. Today, Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's outdoor track and field squads and named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer, stands on the site where Colorado Field once graced the CSU campus.

In 1961 the university conducted a study to determine whether to turn Colorado Field into a major-college football stadium, or replace it with a new venue on the foothills campus. Because of traffic concerns and the facility's location in the center of Fort Collins, officials opted to construct a new stadium west of town, at the foothills. The last varsity game played on Colorado Field was in 1967, shortly before its demolition.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL MEDIA COVERAGE GUIDELINES

- We appreciate your coverage of Colorado State Athletics, and look forward to working with you to accommodate you and your organization within the framework of the following media policy. The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Mike Bobo and the Athletics Communications office. Please take a few minutes to read through and familiarize yourself with these guidelines. Violations of these policies could result in revoked credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Asst. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk at (970) 988-3482 or via email at paul.kirk@colostate.edu, at any time with any questions.

Interview access to players and coaches throughout the calendar year is as follows:

GENERAL POLICIES
- All interviews with any member of the football program, including Mike Bobo, the coaching and football staffs, and student-athletes, must be coordinated through the Athletics Communications office.
- True freshmen and other student-athletes in their first year in the program are not eligible to be included on the regular interview list.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Requests approved by Coach Bobo will be granted.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from directly contacting any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including text messages, e-mail, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, without first approaching the Athletics Communications office.
- For all practices, no live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during practice may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered.
- Designated student-athletes from the interview list will be made available on specified days during the spring and preseason practice periods, and on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the regular season.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will be available following most practices. Exceptions include, during preseason camp, night practices on two-practice days.
- All interviews take place in the interview room of the stadium, located at field level, one level down from the media entrance on the west side of the stadium. Media are not permitted to enter the football offices, or the training room, locker room, weight room or meeting rooms unless arrangements have been made through the Communications office.
- Media may not photograph or report on individuals or groups participating in workouts outside of organized team sessions within campus practice or competition locations.

PRESEASON CAMP
- Coordinators will be made available on Media Day (date TBD). No other assistant coach access is available during preseason camp.

REGULAR-SEASON GAME WEEKS
- On Mondays, Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct a weekly press conference in the stadium interview room. Bobo will begin speaking at 12 p.m., followed by Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Will Friend and Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach Marty English at approximately 12:35 and 12:45.
- Following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, student-athletes on the interview list will be made available, with either offensive or defensive players being available Tuesday and those from the other side of the ball on Wednesday. Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Approved requests will be granted, but those interviews need to take place on Tuesday following practice.
- On Wednesday, Bobo will be available following practice.
- Following Wednesday availability, there is no further access to members of the program until the end of the game Saturday, except for contractual broadcast obligations.

GAMEDAY
- Every member of the program must report to the locker room following the game before conducting interviews. Other than network TV and radio obligations, CSU does not allow on-field interviews in the minutes following the game's conclusion.
- Postgame press conferences take place in the home and visiting team interview rooms, located just off the elevator from the press box at field level. From the field, enter the southwest tunnel and proceed right and down the hall to reach the interview rooms on your left.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo and requested players will be available to the media in the interview room after a reasonable cooling-off period. Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct his postgame press conference after a brief cooling-off period, and requested players from the interview list will be made available following Coach Bobo's press conference. Assistant coaches or true freshmen players are not available.

- The visiting team press conference and media availability will take place in the visiting team interview room adjacent to the home team interview room, down the hall from the visitors' locker room

RECRUITING PERIOD
- Access to Head Coach Mike Bobo will be less regular during this time, from the end of the regular season through signing day, the first Wednesday in February, due to recruiting responsibilities. Assistant coaches are not available during this period.

ALL OTHER TIMES
- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available either in-person or by phone, by appointment through Assistant A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- All assistant coaches are unavailable other than the offensive and defensive coordinator at the Monday press conference during regular season game weeks and to begin spring ball.
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach, staff member, or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, or contact information for family members and friends where such interviews will enhance a feature story.

INJURIES
- At all times throughout the calendar year, including spring practice, Head Coach Mike Bobo will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Bobo, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete, or his teammates.
- If Bobo is unavailable, please contact Paul Kirk.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES
- All Colorado State football practices are open for the first few periods unless otherwise noted.
- Videography, provided it is not live-streamed, is allowed during the media viewing period, but no sound may be recorded.
- No live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during the media viewing period may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered by the coach.
- During the spring, all regular practices (not scrimmages) are open to the media.
- All media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, media are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES
- Cameras are restricted from shooting/filming any 11-on-11 period, as well as selected other periods (Athletics Communications staff will notify). Photography must be tight, "iso" shots that do not reveal alignments or strategy.
- No sound may be captured during the shooting of practice video.
- Photographers are allowed to shoot individual drills and group activity as directed by the Athletics Communications staff. No photography is allowed of players receiving treatment from medical staff, or of injured players, whether participating in individual workouts or observing practice.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to bring tripods onto the practice field.
- Photographers and videographers should remain on the sidelines, or behind the end lines. They are not permitted in any drill or in close proximity to any team or position-group huddles at any time.
- Photographers should stand a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, photographers are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags and/or camera equipment, or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.
- All posed photo shoots must take place at times arranged prior to the beginning of practice, working through the Athletics Communications office. Posed photo shoots are not permitted during any practice

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS
- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available for phone interviews as time permits. Media should call to make an appointment through Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the athletic Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses.

CSURAMS.COM/SOCIAL MEDIA
- The official Web site of Colorado State athletics is CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics, and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs. Rams fans worldwide can also listen to the live play-by-play coverage offered by the Colorado State Sports Network through the website, and can watch livestreamed video of most home events. Fans can click on www.CSURams.com,then click on the schedule pages to access the radio broadcast for live radio coverage of football, volleyball and men's and women's basketball. For video, click "Watch Online" or directly access the URL CSURams.com/videos. News also will be disseminated via the Colorado State football program's official twitter account, @CSUFootball, as well as the general athletics account, @CSUAthletics, and Asst. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (@PaulKirk_CSU).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
- Credentials must be requested through Paul Kirk in writing at least seven days in advance of an event. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the Communications office, or at the game.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS
- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field.

GAME-DAY SERVICES
- A pregame meal is served 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the press box. In-game services include statistics and play-by-play information following each quarter and notes and statistics following the conclusion of the game.
- Colorado State's stadium offers complimentary wireless Internet access in the press box, interview room and photo workroom. Ethernet lines also are available in the photo workroom, located just inside the southwest tunnel at field level, near the visiting team locker room. Check the seat-assignment label on press row for wireless access information.

PARKING
- A limited amount of media parking is available in lots to be determined at the new on-campus stadium. Please contact the CSU Communications office to request a gameday parking pass.
- Parking in all campus parking lots requires a permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the Communications office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: http://pts.colostate.edu, and many lots offer a payment kiosk to purchase a daily pass.
- The CSU Communications office will provide complimentary annual passes to the Moby/McGraw Center lot and spaces and a designated lot near the on-campus stadium for select media organizations and members of the press who demonstrate a consistent willingness to cover the Rams. Those passes are not replaceable and should be treated like cash.

STADIUM DIRECTIONS/WILL CALL
- Colorado State's on-campus stadium is located between Pitkin and Lake Streets, just west of Shields Street in Fort Collins. The mailing address is 751 W. Pitkin Street. From I-25, media should take the Prospect exit, turn left, and proceed west toward the mountains. Media entrance is on the west side of the stadium and and press box access is via elevator just inside that entrance.
- Ticket will call is located at the main stadium ticket windows on Pitkin Street, at the Northwest corner of the stadium. Media will call is located at the media entrance to the stadium, near the southwest corner of the west tower.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS
- Please contact the CSU Athletics Communications office to request video highlights. Broadcast-quality video highlights and soundbites will be emailed to media frequently throughout the year by the Athletics Communications staff.

WEEKLY RELEASES
- The weekly game release will be available by approximately 12 noon each Monday during the season on the school's official Web site, CSURams.com. News releases also are e-mailed to media outlets upon request, and available via Twitter at @CSUFootball.

COLORADO STATE MEDIA E-MAIL LIST
- To receive e-mail updates on the Rams, e-mail Paul Kirk at paul.kirk@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to receive the news releases via e-mail.
