QUICK HITS

SAN JOSÉ STATE

- Colorado State returns to Mountain West action after a bye week, traveling to face San Jose State. The Rams opened the season Aug. 25 with a loss to MW foe Hawai'i at home.
- CSU ranks 13th in FBS in passing offense, averaging 320.8 yards per game through the air, against competition that has included one Pac-12 and two SEC programs in the Rams' five games.
- Sophomore punter Ryan Stonehouse ranks 3rd in FBS in gross punting average (50.8). Seventeen of his 27 punts have traveled 50 or more yards, and he has placed eight punts inside the 20-yard line, had four fair caught, and just three touchbacks.
- CSU's prolific wide receiver duo of Olabisi Johnson and Preston Williams were each added to the Biletnikoff Award watch list on Sept. 25. CSU has produced two Biletnikoff Award finalists in the past four years -- Rashard Higgins (2014) and Michael Gallup (2017).
- Johnson and Williams are both on pace to reach 1,000 receiving yards this season. CSU has never had two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.
- Senior kicker Wyatt Bryan made CSU history when he passed legendary running back Steve Bartalo for the program's all-time scoring record during the Rams' win over Arkansas on Sept. 8. Bryan has also recently been recognized for his efforts in the classroom, being named a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy on Sept. 26. The award is given annually by the National Football Foundation, recognizing the top football scholar-athletes in the nation.
- The Rams have had four true freshmen start this season. Cornerback Rashad Ajayi and defensive lineman Devin Phillips have started all five games. Tight end Trey McBride has started three games and linebacker Cam'ron Carter made his first career start on Sept. 22 against Illinois State.
- Linebacker Josh Watson is on pace for one of the more prolific tackling seasons in the history of the program. He is averaging 11.0 tackles per game and has at least tied for the team lead in tackles in every game this season.

son. New Mexico State opened its season on Aug. 25 against Wyoming and then traveled to play Minnesota five days later on Aug. 30. CSU and New Mexico State both played two games before all but 97 teams in the FBS had played one.

CSU played twice in August for the second time in program history (2002) and is now 8-4 all-time in the month.

NEW RAMS HAVE STELLAR DEBUT

Several players made their debut for CSU against Hawai'i in the season opener on Aug. 25. A pair of offensive transfers made a strong first impression.

Senior quarterback K.J. Carta-Samuels, a graduate transfer from Washington, completed 34-of-50 passes for a school record 537 yards and five touchdowns against the Rainbow Warriors. His five touchdowns are tied for the second-most in a single-game in CSU history. Carta-Samuels threw for 422 yards in the second half, which would be the sixth-most in a game in program history on its own Wide receiver Preston Williams, a junior that transferred from Tennessee during the 2016 season, had nine receptions for 188 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Williams had 127 yards in the second half, including a 69-yard reception down the left sideline where he showed off his speed, agility and strength all in one sitting.

In total, 27 players have made their first appearance as a Ram during the 2018 season:

- Transfers: 7 (V.J. Banks, Jan-Phillip Bombek, K.J. Carta-Samuels, Damion
- Dickens, Dajon Owens, T.J. Roundtree, Preston Williams)

RAMS IN ELITE COMPANY AT ANNUAL AWARDS SHOW

Colorado State is one of just 10 college football programs to have had a finalist for a major national award, and been represented at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show, in at least three of the last four years. WR Michael Gallup was a finalist for the 2017 Biletnikoff Award, presented on Dec. 7. WR Rashard Higgins was also a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2014, and P Hayden Hunt was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award in 2015.

The Rams are the only school from a non-Power 5 conference to be represented at the College Football Awards 3 of the last 4 years:

- 4 Alabama, Auburn, Utah
- 3 Clemson, Colorado State, Iowa, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Stanford, Texas

BOBO GUIDING OFFENSE TO NEW HEIGHTS

Two Rams seniors, RB Izzy Matthews and WR Olabisi Johnson, have had significant roles during all three of Bobo's seasons. Matthews totaled 1,937 yards in his first three seasons (2015-17), including four 100-yard games, and is fourth in program history with 27 rushing TDs. Johnson owns the program's top single-game receiving effort with 265 yards in the 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl against Idaho.

Other notable offensive players to play under Bobo at CSU:

- WR Michael Gallup -- Biletnikoff Award finalist and consensus All-American in 2017.
- QB Nick Stevens -- First-Team All-MW in 2017; CSU's second all-time leading passer.
- RB Dalyn Dawkins -- Second-Team All-MW in 2017, school's third all-time leading rusher.
- WR Rashard Higgins -- First-Team All-MW in 2015; entering his third season with the Cleveland Browns.
- All-conference offensive linemen Jake Bennett, Zack Golditch, Trae Moxley and Fred Zerblis.

GOING FOR 500 (AND 600)

CSU posted 653 yards in its season opener against Hawai'i on Aug. 25. It was the most yards that a Rams team has had under fourth-year head coach Mike Bobo and the fifth-most in a single game in program history. It also further illustrated a trend that Bobo has set since taking charge of the program in 2015.

CSU eclipsed 500 yards of total offense seven times in 2017, and reached 600-plus yards a school-record four times. Under Coach Bobo, the Rams have exceeded 500 yards of total offense 17 times (4 in 2015, 5 in 2016, 7 in 2017, 1 in 2018).

PRENTICE THE NATION'S HIGH-EST-GRADED FULLBACK

Redshirt sophomore Adam Prentice was the highest-graded fullback in the FBS in 2017, according to Pro Football Focus. He rated at an 82.5 for the season — the highest rating of any returning Ram.

Prentice is also known for his off-the-field efforts. He is on the 2018 Wuerffel Trophy watch list and is a nominee for the 2018 Allstate Good Works Team.

WR U?

The Colorado State football team has groomed several incredible talents at the wide receiver position over the last five years. Rashard Higgins, a fifth-round draft selection of the Cleveland Browns in 2016, set multiple program records during his three seasons at CSU. Higgins was a Biletnikoff Award finalist and consensus All-American in 2014 following a season where he totaled 1,750 yards receiving and 17 touchdowns. Michael Gallup earned the same national accolades last season, producing 1,413 yards on a school-record 100 catches. Gallup was a third-round draft choice by the Cowboys this year, and is competing to be a starter in year one.

Since 2014, seven different Rams receivers have posted at least one 100-yard receiving outing -- Higgins, Gallup, Joe Hansley, Charles Lovett, Elroy Masters, Jr., Olabisi Johnson and Preston Williams (plus tight end Cameron Butler).

A few prominent current Rams are looking like they will continue the tradition of stellar wide receiver play in Fort Collins, under the tutelage of head coach Mike Bobo and wide receivers coach Alvis Whitted, himself a nine-year NFL veteran. Johnson and Williams were included among Lance Zierlein's (NFL.com) top-10 wide recevers to watch going into this season.

NEW STAFF ADDITIONS FOR 2018

The Rams added six new full-time assistant coaches into the fold before spring ball started, including three new coordinators. The defense will be led by defensive coordinator John Jancek, who brings 10 years of experience as a defensive coordinator at the FBS level, most recently a three-year stint at Tennessee. Four other new assistant coaches join Jancek on that side of the ball, including special teams coordinator and linebackers coach Chase Gibson. Dave Johnson was also added to the staff to be the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The six new full-time assistant coaches boast over 100 years of combined experience on Division I coaching staffs.

GOING BOWLING

For the 17th time in school history and fifth year in a row, the Rams went bowling in 2017, facing Marshall in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. It marked the first time CSU qualified for a bowl game in five consecutive seasons since 1999-2003. All-time, CSU has played in 17 bowl games, including 16 since 1990.

The Rams finished with a 7-6 record for the third consecutive year, and have now posted winning records in five straight seasons.

CSU SETS TOP ATTENDANCE MARKS

CSU saw its total attendance increase 16.2 percent from 2016 - the eighth-highest per-game attendance increase in the FBS for 2017.

Other attendance facts:

- · Second year in a row with an increase in attendance -- the seventh-highest two-year per-game attendance increase among all FBS schools (7,145; 28.7%)

THIS WEEK IN CSU HISTORY -- AGGIES OPEN COLORADO FIELD WITH 14-13 WIN OVER UNIVERSITY OF DENVER; DR. LORY DECLARES A HOLIDAY

by John Hirn, CSU Athletics Historian

October 5, 1912 – The Aggies had not won a football game in nearly three years, so when they took the field for the 1912 opener, few people in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference thought they could beat Denver despite in the inaugural game at Colorado Field. The new athletic complex located on College Avenue had been three years in the making thanks to the undying support of fourth-year College President Charles A. Lory.

Dr. Lory had tirelessly lobbied the State Board of Agriculture to move the football, track and baseball fields to a better location on the Colorado Agricultural College campus, and in the fall of 1911 it was approved. Built between May and September of 1912, Colorado Field was considered the nicest football field in the state. It was the first to be built with grass, boasted a cinder track around it and a clubhouse with hot showers and steam tables. In 1912, the concept of showers on-site at a football stadium was almost unheard of, let alone steam stables.

So on opening day, October 5, 1912, the Aggies hosted the University of Denver "Ministers" at the brand new Colorado Field. CAC had not beat DU since the 1903 season, had not scored on them since 1905 and after nearly three winless years of football in Fort Collins, they were not expected to beat Denver in 1912. Second-year head Coach Harry Hughes had whipped his Aggies into shape in the off-season and CAC became the biggest surprise of the year starting with the opening of their new home field.

Colorado Field also became the first football field in Colorado, and one of the first in the nation to be built to accommodate the new rules of football adopted for the 1912 season. Some of those new rules included a 100-yard field (previously 110-yards), four downs to make a first down in 10 yards, a uniform ball for the first time and the scoring system was established as we know it today with six-points for a touchdown and one point for a point after touchdown.

DU had a great advantage against the Aggies in having more substitutes that could keep the Ministers fresh on the field while Harry Hughes' men lacked the same depth. That did not matter in the first quarter when Aggie all-conference tackle Joe Brill intercepted a DU pass and returned it for a touchdown. The score stood 7-0 at halftime, and following the intermission CAC jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the third quarter when William Leigh, Aggie halfback scored on a 30-yard run down the sideline.

Colorado Field was so new that the 1,000-seat grandstand was not completed by game time and fans had to cram their way into the new field to stand, sit or even climb nearby trees to watch the inaugural game. The fans were jubilant with the first two-touchdowns scored since the Aggies' last win against Wyoming in 1909. DU would come back with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter and on the next series of downs by Denver, the Ministers drove to the Aggie two-yard-line. At that moment the Aggie defense held DU on downs in an epic goal line stand forgotten in time.

With little time remaining in the fourth quarter, Denver scored their second touchdown of the day and it looked like the game would end in a tie. DU halfback Koonsman muffed the snap for the extra point kick and it sailed over his head, ending the game at 14-13 in favor of the Aggies. It was not only the first win at Colorado Field it would also be the first of Coach Harry Hughes' 126 wins as mentor of Aggies football.

Fans, students and even the school's administration were so happy with their first win in so very long, they all convened at the intersection of Mountain and College Avenue and a massive bon fire was built with everyone dancing around in celebration. Dr. Lory, who had worked so tirelessly to get Colorado Field built, declared Monday, October 7th a school holiday and closed the college to celebrate the win.

The next week the Aggies took another victory, the first ever over the University of Colorado in what could be considered one of the greatest upsets in school history. Dr. Lory again closed the school after the CU win and a new era of football was born in Fort Collins. For the next 15 seasons (1913 to 1927), Hughes' teams would win six conference titles, and go 71-30-7 for a .702 win percentage. The Million Dollar Days of the Hughes Era would be some of the greatest in CSU history.

The Colorado State Rams were formerly the Colorado A&M Aggies (prior to 1957).

Each CSU team wears uniforms representing the school's original colors (pumpkin and alfalfa) once per season.

Since 1981, Ag Day, hosted by CSU's College of Agricultural Sciences and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics along with Colorado agricultural organizations and associations, is a non-profit event with proceeds furnishing scholarships to CSU agricultural science students. The Rams issue a belt (pictured above) to a player that forces a turnover. One player is chosen after each game to keep the belt the following

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. The newly re-branded Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

Canvas Credit Union is a not-for-profit, state-chartered, member-owned financial cooperative that has been in business since 1938. Today, the credit union has more than $2.3 billion in assets and more than 238,000 members — and a mission to help individuals and families make better decisions and grow stronger financially. Learfield's Rams Sports Properties and their Campus+ business brokered the agreement as part of its ongoing support for Colorado State University athletics.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both gameday and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL MEDIA COVERAGE GUIDELINES

• We appreciate your coverage of Colorado State Athletics, and look forward to working with you to accommodate you and your organization within the framework of the following media policy. The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Mike Bobo and the Athletics Communications office. Please take a few minutes to read through and familiarize yourself with these guidelines. Failure to comply with these policies could result in revocation of credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Associate A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk at (970) 988-3482 or via email at paul.kirk@colostate.edu with any questions.

Interview access to players and coaches throughout the calendar year is as follows:

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the football program, including Mike Bobo, the coaching and football staffs, and student-athletes, must be coordinated through the Athletics Communications office.
- True freshmen and other student-athletes in their first year in the program are not eligible to be included on the regular interview list.
 Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, mem-
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Requests approved by Coach Bobo will be facilitated by the Athletics Communications staff.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from directly contacting any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including by text message, e-mail, phone (cell, office or home) or social media, without first approaching the Athletics Communications office.
- For all practices, no live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during practice may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered.
- Designated student-athletes from the interview list will be made available on specified days during the spring and preseason practice periods, and on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the regular season.
- Assistant coaches will be made available to media one time each during spring practice on a schedule provided Athletics Communications.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will be available following most practices.
 Exceptions include night practices and certain practice days during spring and preseason.
- All interviews take place in the interview room of the stadium, located at field level, one level down from the media entrance on the west side of the stadium. Media are not permitted to enter the football offices, or the training room, locker room, weight room or meeting rooms unless arrangements have been made through the Communications office.
- Media may not photograph or report on individuals or groups participating in workouts outside of organized team sessions within campus practice or competition locations.

PRESEASON CAMP

 Coordinators will be made available on Media Day. No other assistant coach access is available during preseason camp.

REGULAR-SEASON GAME WEEKS

- On Mondays, Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct a weekly press conference in the stadium interview room. Bobo will begin speaking at 12 p.m. and the press conference will end at approximately 12:30-35.
 The press conference is livestreamed at CSURams.com/live, and the archive will be available on YouTube and on CSURams.com. Audio from the press conference also is made available to media.
- Following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, student-athletes on the interview list will be made available, with either offensive or defensive players being available Tuesday and those from the other side of the ball on Wednesday, Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Approved requests will be granted, but those interviews need to take place on Tuesday following practice.
- On Wednesday, Bobo will be available following practice.
 Following Wednesday availability, there is no further media availability with members of the program until the end of the game on Saturday, with the exception of contractual obligations with broadcast partners.

GAMEDAY

- Every member of the program must report to the locker room following the game before conducting interviews. Other than network TV and radio obligations, CSU does not allow on-field interviews in the minutes following the game's conclusion.
- Postgame press conferences take place in the home and visiting team interview rooms, located just off the elevator from the press box at field level. From the field, enter the southwest tunnel and proceed right and down the hall to reach the interview rooms on your left.
 Head Coach Mike Bobo and requested players will be available to
- Head Coach Mike Bobo and requested players will be available to the media in the interview room after a reasonable cooling-off period. Coach Bobo will conduct his postgame press followed by requested players from the interview list being made available in the interview room. Assistant coaches and true freshmen players are not available.
- The visiting team press conference and media availability will take place in the visiting team interview room adjacent to the home team interview room, down the hall from the visitors' locker room.

RECRUITING PERIOD

 Access to Head Coach Mike Bobo will be less regular during this time, from the end of the regular season through the second signing day, the first Wednesday in February, due to recruiting responsibilities. Assistant coaches are not available during this period.

ALL OTHER TIMES

- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available either in-person or by phone, by appointment through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (paul kirk@colostate.edu).
- Assistant coaches do not have regular availability throughout the year. Requests for their participation in interviews must be made through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk, and will be granted only by approval of the head coach.
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach, staff member, or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, or contact information for family members and friends where such interviews will enhance a feature story.

INJURIES

- At all times throughout the calendar year, including spring practice, Head Coach Mike Bobo will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Bobo, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete, or his teammates.
- · If Coach Bobo is unavailable, please contact Paul Kirk

- Most Colorado State football practices are open to media for the first few periods unless otherwise noted.
- Videography, provided it is not live-streamed, is allowed during the media viewing period, but no sound may be recorded.
- No live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during the media viewing period may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered by the coach.
- During the spring, most regular practices (excluding scrimmages) are open to the media during the media viewing period as specific by Athletics Communications.
- All media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, media are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- Cameras are restricted from shooting/filming any 11-on-11 period, as well as selected other periods (Athletics Communications staff will notify).
 Photography must be tight, "iso" shots that do not reveal alignments or strategy.

- Photographers are allowed to shoot individual drills and group activity as directed by the Athletics Communications staff. No photography is allowed of players receiving treatment from medical staff, or of injured players, whether participating in individual workouts or observing practice.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to bring tripods onto the practice field.
- Photographers and videographers should remain on the sidelines, or behind the end lines. They are not permitted in any drill or in close proximity to any team or position-group huddles at any time.

broadcast for live radio coverage of football, volleyball and men's and women's basketball. For video, click the "Fans" tab at the top, and scan the menu under Multimedia, or directly access the URL CSURAms.com/watch. News also will be disseminated via the Colorado State football program's official twitter account, @CSUFootball, as well as the general athletics account, @CSUAthletics, and Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (@PaulKirk_CSU).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

 Credentials must be requested through Paul Kirk in writing at least seven days in advance of an event. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the Communications office, or at the game.
 Season credential applications will be made available in mid-July, and the online single-game credential request link can be found at http:// www.csurams.com/sb_output.aspx?form=20.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

 Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field, or behind each end zone in a kneeling position.

GAME-DAY SERVICES

- A pregame meal is served 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the press box. Colorado State provides reliable WiFi in the press box, photographers' workroom and interview rooms, and access to live statistics through StatBroadcast. We have greatly reduced the amount of information distributed on paper at our home games in favor of full digital offerings of game notes, statistics, postgame audio and postgame notes. All credentialed media will receive an email the day before a game with all pertinent coverage and team information directly or via links embedded in the email.
- Colorado State's stadium offers complimentary wireless Internet access in the press box, interview room and photo workroom. Ethernet lines also are available in the photo workroom, located just inside the southwest tunnel at field level, near the visiting team locker room. Check the seat-assignment label on press row for wireless access information.

PARKING

- Media parking on game days is generally available in the Lake Street Garage (Lot 570), located near the intersection of Prospect Road and Center Avenue in the south area of campus. Denver TV stations have space allotted for one vehicle per station in front of the connection panels on the west side of the stadium. Please contact the Athletics Communications office to request a game day parking pass.
- Parking in all campus parking lots requires a permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the Communications office, and pay-to-park stalls are located on the north side of the stadium, on Pitkin Street, in front of the Ram Zone store and ticket office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: http://pts.colostate.edu, and many lots offer a payment klosk to purchase a daily pass.
- The CSU Athletics Communications office will provide complimentary annual passes to the Moby/McGraw Center lot and Lot 240 near the stadium for select media organizations and members of the press who consistently cover the Rams. Those passes are not replaceable and should be treated like cash.

STADIUM DIRECTIONS/WILL CALL

- Colorado State's on-campus stadium is located between Pitkin and Lake Streets, just west of Shields Street in Fort Collins. The mailing address is 751 W. Pitkin Street. From I-25, media should take the Prospect Road exit, turn left, and proceed west toward the mountains. To access Lot 570 with a game day parking permit, please turn right onto Center Ave., from westbound Prospect Road. The entrance to the garage will be on your right. The stadium's media entrance, and Media Will-Call, is located on the west side of the stadium through the door marked "Media & Staff Entry," and press box access is via elevator just inside that entrance.
- Ticket will call is located at the main stadium ticket windows on Pitkin Street, at the Northwest corner of the stadium.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

 Please contact the CSU Athletics Communications office to request video highlights. Broadcast-quality video highlights and soundbites will be emailed to media frequently throughout the year by the Athletics Communications staff. If you would like to have an email address added to that distribution list, please contact Paul Kirk or Zach Balside.

WEEKLY RELEASES

 The weekly game release will be available by approximately 12 noon each Monday during the season on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also are e-mailed to media outlets upon request, and available via Twitter at @CSUFootball.
