THE MATCHUP

COLORADO STATE

- CSU and Hawaii'i will face off in Fort Collins for the first time since 2014. The Rams won that contest 49-20.
- This game will mark the earliest that CSU has ever played a conference game, and just the second time that the Rams have played a league game in August (Nevada, Aug. 31, 1997).
- CSU begins its season in August for the second year in a row. The Rams hosted Oregon State on Aug. 26 of last year in the first FBS college football game of the season. CSU will play two games in August for just the second time ever. The Rams also played two games in August in 2002, when they went on the road to beat No. 22 Virginia on Aug. 22 and then followed with a win over No. 7 Colorado on Aug. 31.
- That Aug. 22 matchup at Virginia is the earliest in a year that CSU has ever played. This matchup versus Hawaii'i will be the second-earliest and is the earliest home game for the Rams.
- The Rams are 8-2 all-time in August. CSU won its first six August contests, beginning with a 32-24 victory over Arkansas State on Aug. 31, 1991.
- Some of CSU's most memorable wins have occurred in August. CSU defeated a Nick Saban-led No. 23 Michigan State squad (ranked No. 23 at the time) on the road, 23-16, on Aug. 29, 1998. The Rams' two wins over ranked Virginia and Colorado squads to kick off the 2002 season were the program's last two wins over ranked teams. CSU played its first on-campus football game in nearly 50 years on Aug. 26, 2017, opening Canvas Stadium with a 58-27 win over Oregon State.
- Head coach Mike Bobo is entering his fourth season at the helm of the CSU football program. He owns a 21-18 overall record and a 15-9 mark in Mountain West play.
- Defensively, CSU returns three of its top four tacklers (linebacker Josh Watson, safety Jordan Fogal and linebacker Max McDonald), as well as its interception leader in cornerback Anthony Hawkins.
- On the offensive side, running back Izzy Matthews returns with a hefty amount of experience and the fifth-most (26) career rushing TDs in program history. Senior wide receiver Olabisi Johnson, nicknamed by head coach Mike Bobo as "The Standard," also returns and owns CSU's single-game receiving yards record (265 vs. Idaho in the 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl).

The Rams' two wins over ranked Virginia and Colorado squads to kick off the 2002 season were the program's last two wins over ranked teams. RB Izzy Matthews

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL

Two Rams seniors, RB Izzy Matthews and WR Olabisi Johnson, have had significant roles during all three of Bobo's seasons. Matthews has totaled 1,937 yards on the ground since 2015, including four 100-yard games, and is tied for fourth in program history with 26 rushing TDs. Johnson has 1,223 career receiving yards and owns the program's top single-game receiving effort with 265 yards in the 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl against Idaho.

Other notable offensive players to play under Bobo at CSU:

- WR Michael Gallup -- Biletnikoff Award finalist and consensus All-American in 2017.
- QB Nick Stevens -- First-Team All-MW in 2017; CSU's second all-time leading passer.
- RB Dalyn Dawkins -- Second-Team All-MW in 2017, school's third all-time leading rusher.
- WR Rashard Higgins -- First-Team All-MW in 2015; entering his third season with the Cleveland Browns.
- All-conference offensive linemen Jake Bennett, Zack Golditch, Trae Moxley and Fred Zerblis.

GOING FOR 500 (AND 600)

CSU eclipsed 500 yards of total offense seven times in 2017, and reached 600-plus yards a school-record four times. Under Coach Bobo, the Rams have exceeded 500 yards of total offense 16 times (4 in 2015, 5 in 2016, 7 in 2017).

The Rams posted 610 yards at Hawaii on Sept. 30 - a season high and the most under Coach Bobo. The total also ranks 10th all-time at CSU.

The offense came just short of beating that mark two weeks later against Nevada (Oct. 14), putting up 608 yards of total offense.

PRENTICE THE NATION'S HIGHEST-GRADED FULLBACK

Redshirt sophomore Adam Prentice was the highest-graded fullback in the FBS in 2017, according to Pro Football Focus. He rated at an 82.5 for the season -- the highest rating of any returning Ram.

Prentice is also known for his off-the-field efforts. He is on the 2018 Wuerffel Trophy watch list and is a nominee for the 2018 Allstate Good Works Team.

WR U?

The Colorado State football team has groomed several incredible talents at the wide receiver position over the last five years. Rashard Higgins, a fifth-round draft selection of the Cleveland Browns in 2016, set multiple program records during his three seasons at CSU. Higgins was a Biletnikoff Award finalist and consensus All-American in 2014 following a season where he totaled 1,750 yards receiving and 17 touchdowns. Michael Gallup earned the same national accolades last season, producing 1,413 yards on a school-record 100 catches. Gallup was a third-round draft choice by the Cowboys this year, and is competing to be a starter in year one.

Since 2014, six different Rams receivers have posted at least one 100-yard receiving outing -- Higgins, Gallup, Joe Hansley, Charles Lovett, Elroy Masters, Jr., and Olabisi Johnson.

A few prominent current Rams are looking to continue the tradition of stellar wide receiver play in Fort Collins, under the tutelage of head coach Mike Bobo and wide receivers coach Alvis Whitted, himself a nine-year NFL veteran. Johnson and Tennessee transfer Preston Williams were included among Lance Zierlein's (NFL.com) top-10 wide receivers to watch this season. Sophomore Warren Jackson earned praise in fall camp and had two memorable touchdowns at No. 1 Alabama this season.

NEW STAFF ADDITIONS FOR 2018

The Rams added six new full-time assistant coaches into the fold before spring ball started, including three new coordinators. The defense will be led by defensive coordinator John Jancek, who brings 10 years of experience as a defensive coordinator at the FBS level, most recently a three-year stint at Tennessee. Four other new assistant coaches join Jancek on that side of the ball, including special teams coordinator and linebackers coach Chase Gibson. Dave Johnson was also added to the staff to be the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The six new full-time assistant coaches boast over 100 years of combined experience on Division I coaching staffs.

Adam Prentice was the nation's highest-graded fullback last season -- topping all returning players at Colorado State this season

GREEN AND GLOBAL - SERVICE AND LEARNING EXPERIENCE IN JAMAICA

- 12 student-athletes and four staff members traveled to Petersfield, Jamaica from May 17-27.
- The athletes experienced cultural immersion, social action and community-based learning. Students were hosted by local families, with 2-4 students per home.
- Participating football players: Adam Prentice and Barry Wesley.
- CSU's student-athletes have seen their opportunities expand dramatically in recent years. The most visible expansion of the student-athlete experience has come in the way of investments in nutrition, facilities and academic support to further fulfill the department's mission to Educate, Engage and Excel.
- The trip was organized by Dr. Albert Bimper, CSU's senior associate athletic director for diversity and inclusion.
- Bimper was a 2006 CSU graduate and four-year starting center on the football team (2002-05).

Bobo entered the 2018 season ranked 10th all-time in MW winning percentage and is the highest-ranked CSU coach in the category since the league formed in 1999.

Name	Years	Record (%)

STATE PRIDE

There are 38 players on the Rams roster who are Colorado natives. This includes 15 athletes that are listed on the team's first depth chart of the year, and six projected starters:

WR Olabisi Johnson -- Lakewood, Colo. (Bear Creek)
LT Barry Wesley -- Morrison, Colo. (Bear Creek)
RDE Richard King -- Aurora, Colo. (Rangeview)
SLB Tre Thomas -- Denver, Colo. (Overland)
WLB Max McDonald -- Fort Collins, Colo. (Rocky Mountain)
K Wyatt Bryan -- Larkspur, Colo. (Douglas County)

MORE EXPERIENCED THAN YOU THINK

One area of skepticism that has surrounded the Rams entering the 2018 season is a perceived lack of experience. The thought is not completely unfounded -- the Rams did lose 13 starters from last year's squad (seven on offense, five on defense and one specialist). What is not often accurately accounted for is the fact that many of the Rams' 2017 reserves saw a significant amount of playing time.

For example, while there are technically only two starters returning on the offensive line, the 10 players listed on the o-line two-deep have accumulated 112 games of experience at the FBS level.

Another example: CSU did lose its all-everything receiver in Michael Gallup and fellow WR Detrich Clark. However, Olabisi Johnson has played 38 career games, Warren Jackson played in every game as a true freshman last year and Preston Williams has 12 games of experience in the SEC while at Tennessee in 2015-16.

CSU also benefits from plugging three graduate transfers into its two-deep entering the Hawai'i contest. Starting quarterback K.J. Carta-Samuels has appeared in 25 career games, including the 2017 Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl against Alabama. Cornerback V.J. Banks played in 36 games at Rice from 2014-17, including 13 starts. T.J. Roundtree, a transfer from Louisville, will help bolster the offensive line with 18 career games played at the FBS level.

GOING BOWLING

For the 17th time in school history and fifth year in a row, the Rams went bowling in 2017, facing Marshall in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. It marked the first time CSU qualified for a bowl game in five consecutive seasons since 1999-2003. All-time, CSU has played in 17 bowl games, including 16 since 1990.

The Rams finished with a 7-6 record for the third consecutive year, and have now posted winning records in five straight seasons.

CSU SETS TOP ATTENDANCE MARKS

Colorado State set single-season records for total home attendance (192,369) and per game average (32,062) last season, its first in its new on-campus football stadium.

CSU saw its total attendance increase 16.2 percent from 2016 - the eighth-highest per-game attendance increase in the FBS for 2017.

Other attendance facts:

- Second year in a row with an increase in attendance -- the seventh-highest two-year per-game attendance increase among all FBS schools (7,145; 28.7%)
 - 149,500/24,917 in 2015
 - 165,598/27,600 in 2016
 - 192,369/32,062 in 2017
- One of only two MW schools (San Diego State) to experience an attendance increase in each of the past two seasons.
 - Colorado State: 10.8% from 2015-16; 16.2% from 2016-17
 - San Diego State: 22.6% from 2015-16; 5.5% from 2016-17
- Second-highest average attendance increase in MW behind Fresno State (5,139)

RAMS IN ELITE COMPANY AT ANNUAL AWARDS SHOW

Colorado State is one of just 10 college football programs to have had a finalist for a major national award, and been represented at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show, in at least three of the last four years. WR Michael Gallup was a finalist for the 2017 Biletnikoff Award, presented on Dec. 7. WR Rashard Higgins was also a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2014, and P Hayden Hunt was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award in 2015.

The Rams are the only school from a non-Power 5 conference to be represented at the College Football Awards 3 of the last 4 years:

- 4 — Alabama, Auburn, Utah
- 3 — Clemson, Colorado State, Iowa, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Stanford, Texas

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL

THIS WEEK IN CSU HISTORY -- A SALUTE TO 125 YEARS OF CSU FOOTBALL

by John Hirn, CSU Athletics Historian

On December 12, 1892, students from the State Agricultural College, also known as Colorado Agricultural College, decided to form their first football team. A student by the name F.O. Congdon gathered 18 of the 179 students enrolled in the school, and they decided it was time that CAC should join with other schools in the area to play this increasingly popular game.

Following the Christmas break, they found some men at a small private hybrid college/high school called the Longmont Academy who wanted to challenge the CAC team to play the first game in each school's history. On January 7, 1893, on a small patch of ground in Longmont, CSU football was born. Earlier that morning the players and their fans bought orange and green ribbon at a dry goods store in Longmont and the school colors were chosen.

Fast-forward to August 26, 2017, officially the 125th anniversary of CSU football (CSU's game in January of 1893 counts towards the 1892 season). The school has grown considerably with an enrollment of 33,413 students and goes by the name Colorado State University. A brand new stadium built on the main campus opens and football is alive and well in Fort Collins under the leadership of fourth-year head coach Mike Bobo.

Since 1893, football at CSU has seen its share of ups and downs. During its first 20 years the football program, like many things in college learning, could be described as an experiment. After playing only one game in 1894, the college president banned the game and it disappeared until he left the school. The football team reformed in 1899, but saw a dismal record of 14 wins and 35 losses with seven men holding the position as head coach between 1899 and 1910.

The school's first coach, William Forbes, died in a tragic accident in June of 1900 and its fourth coach, Matt Rothwell, may have turned in a 5-1 record in 1903, but history shows most of the players were not even students. After George Cassidy, a one-year coach in 1910, left following an 0-5 season, the program finally found the man who would turn the program in the right direction.

When Harry W. Hughes arrived in Fort Collins in 1911, he not only changed the game of football, but also how the athletic department was to be run. After a winless 1911 season in which the Aggies did not score a single point, Hughes stunned the Rocky Mountain Football world by opening the 1912 season at a new stadium, and beat both DU and CU in consecutive weeks.

Over the course of the next 30 years, Hughes transformed football not just at CAC, but within the entire Rocky Mountain Region. He dismissed so-called professionals who did not attend the school legitimately, halted all fighting by his players against other teams and played a clean game that forced other teams within the small conference to follow suit. The result was eight conference titles, 126 wins and if the Aggies had been bowl-eligible with six wins in a season (providing there were the number of bowl games there are today) Hughes would have had nine teams in bowl games.

Harry Hughes trained agricultural college men and turned them into football players during his 31 seasons as head coach. He was made an active member of the NCAA rules committee from 1926 to 1929 and a lifetime member afterwards. He was a board member of the American Football Coaches Association, brought national acclaim to Aggies football and was known as the Dean of American Football Coaches.

However, as the depression of the 1930s went on and other schools expanded football, Hughes and the school known as Colorado State College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, ran the program as it had been 20 years prior. CSC football saw an incredible decline by the late 1930s while other schools expanded and grew their programs. It was not until after WWII that Bob Davis helped re-energize the football program.

Davis took over in 1947 and a year later took his Aggie-Rams to the 1949 Raisin Bowl, just missing conference titles in 1948, 1949 and 1950. Davis brought a style of football to Colorado A&M that attracted NFL-quality players and by 1955 he finally won his only conference championship. Poor funding and a lack of support from the school prompted Davis to step down and although Tuffy Mullison and Mike Lude did their best to form teams as the school renamed itself to Colorado State University in 1957, they played in outdated facilities and had no funding to support the kind of football other schools supported by the 1960s.

CSU football hit rock bottom in 1962 when it was not allowed to join the Western Athletic Conference and forced to compete as an independent due to those inadequate facilities. The administration soon built both Moby Arena (1966) and Hughes Stadium (1968) allowing the Rams to enter into the WAC, but in many cases CSU football was still 20 years or more behind the times.

When Sark Arslanian was hired as the 14th head coach in program history, he shook up the football program and brought talent to Fort Collins like Rams fans had never seen before. Like Bob Davis, many of Arslanian's players went on to the professional ranks and in 1977 he almost took the Rams to a bowl game with a 9-2-1 record. Arslanian lacked the necessary funds to continue to build his program and by 1981 CSU suffered through a winless season, the first in NCAA history.

The 1980s continued to be a challenging decade, despite producing many fine and talented athletes. It was not until Earle Bruce arrived in 1989 that a fire was lit and football found a way to get back to bowl games. The 1990 Freedom Bowl team, made up of many athletes who played in a 1-10 season in 1988, won the school's first bowl game in history. Bruce's tenure in Fort Collins came to an end following the 1992 season, a former CSU assistant coach named Sonny Lubick returned and transformed football into something special once again.

Lubick was able to build upon the foundation that Earle Bruce established, and took the program to previously unreachable heights. With an excellent coaching staff and a combination of Bruce's and his own talented players, the Rams achieved a near-perfect 1994 season, reaching a peak national ranking of No. 10. Lubick would go on to win six conference championships and guide his teams to nine bowl games. He brought respect to the Green and Gold and propelled still many more of his athletes to the NFL. Over his 15 seasons, Sonny Lubick won 108 games, second most of any coach at CSU, and became the greatest name to CSU football in modern times.

Former CSU quarterback Steve Fairchild took over head coaching duties in 2008 and led the Rams to a bowl game in his first season, defeating Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl. CSU would not reach another bowl game until 2013, in Jim McElwain's second season as the team's head coach. McElwain then led the Rams to a 10-win season in 2014 – its first 10-win year since Lubick's 2002 squad went 10-4.

Including McElwain's final two seasons and current head coach Mike Bobo's first three, CSU has now appeared in postseason play for five consecutive years, tying the school record. Bobo is the first head coach in CSU history to lead the Rams to bowl appearances in each of his first three seasons. The team moved into Canvas Stadium in 2017, upgrading the program's facilities beyond anything CSU had previously known.

Bobo and the Rams will aim to continue to elevate the program as the team begins the 2018 season. History will be made at Canvas Stadium in the 126th season of CSU football, so let the new season begin.

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. The newly re-branded Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

Canvas Credit Union is a not-for-profit, state-chartered, member-owned financial cooperative that has been in business since 1938. Today, the credit union has more than $2.3 billion in assets and more than 238,000 members – and a mission to help individuals and families make better decisions and grow stronger financially. Learfield's Rams Sports Properties and their Campus+ business brokered the agreement as part of its ongoing support for Colorado State University athletics.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Mike Bobo and the Athletics Communications office. Please take a few minutes to read through and familiarize yourself with these guidelines. Failure to comply with these policies could result in revocation of credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Associate A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk at (970) 988-3482 or via email at paul.kirk@colostate.edu with any questions.

Interview access to players and coaches throughout the calendar year is as follows:

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the football program, including Mike Bobo, the coaching and football staffs, and student-athletes, must be coordinated through the Athletics Communications office.
- True freshmen and other student-athletes in their first year in the program are not eligible to be included on the regular interview list.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Requests approved by Coach Bobo will be facilitated by the Athletics Communications staff.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from directly contacting any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including by text message, e-mail, phone (cell, office or home) or social media, without first approaching the Athletics Communications office.
- For all practices, no live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during practice may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered.
- Designated student-athletes from the interview list will be made available on specified days during the spring and pre-season practice periods, and on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the regular season.
- Assistant coaches will be made available to media one time each during spring practice on a schedule provided Athletics Communications.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will be available following most practices. Exceptions include night practices and certain practice days during spring and pre-season.
- All interviews take place in the interview room of the stadium, located at field level, one level down from the media entrance on the west side of the stadium. Media are not permitted to enter the football offices, or the training room, locker room, weight room or meeting rooms unless arrangements have been made through the Communications office.
- Media may not photograph or report on individuals or groups participating in workouts outside of organized team sessions within campus practice or competition locations.

PRESEASON CAMP

- Coordinators will be made available on Media Day. No other assistant coach access is available during pre-season camp.

REGULAR-SEASON GAME WEEKS

- On Mondays, Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct a weekly press conference in the stadium interview room. Bobo will begin speaking at 12 p.m. and the press conference will end at approximately 12:30-35. The press conference is livestreamed at CSURams.com/live, and the archive will be available on YouTube and on CSURams.com. Audio from the press conference also is made available to media.
- Following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, student-athletes on the interview list will be made available, with either offensive or defensive players being available Tuesday and those from the other side of the ball on Wednesday. Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Approved requests will be granted, but those interviews need to take place on Tuesday following practice.
- On Wednesday, Bobo will be available following practice.
- Following Wednesday availability, there is no further media availability with members of the program until the end of the game on Saturday, with the exception of contractual obligations with broadcast partners.

GAMEDAY

- Every member of the program must report to the locker room following the game before conducting interviews. Other than network TV and radio obligations, CSU does not allow on-field interviews in the minutes following the game's conclusion.
- Postgame press conferences take place in the home and visiting team interview rooms, located just off the elevator from the press box at field level. From the field, enter the southwest tunnel and proceed right and down the hall to reach the interview rooms on your left.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo and requested players will be available to the media in the interview room after a reasonable cooling-off period. Coach Bobo will conduct his postgame press followed by requested players from the interview list being made available in the interview room. Assistant coaches and true freshmen players are not available.
- The visiting team press conference and media availability will take place in the visiting team interview room adjacent to the home team interview room, down the hall from the visitors' locker room.

RECRUITING PERIOD

- Access to Head Coach Mike Bobo will be less regular during this time, from the end of the regular season through the second signing day, the first Wednesday in February, due to recruiting responsibilities. Assistant coaches are not available during this period.

ALL OTHER TIMES

- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available either in-person or by phone, by appointment through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- Assistant coaches do not have regular availability throughout the year. Requests for their participation in interviews must be made through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk, and will be granted only by approval of the head coach.
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach, staff member, or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, or contact information for family members and friends where such interviews will enhance a feature story.

INJURIES

- At all times throughout the calendar year, including spring practice, Head Coach Mike Bobo will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Bobo, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete, or his teammates.
- If Coach Bobo is unavailable, please contact Paul Kirk.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

- Most Colorado State football practices are open to media for the first few periods unless otherwise noted.
- Videography, provided it is not live-streamed, is allowed during the media viewing period, but no sound may be recorded.
- No live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during the media viewing period may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered by the coach.
- During the spring, most regular practices (excluding scrimmages) are open to the media during the media viewing period as specific by Athletics Communications.
- All media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, media are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- Cameras are restricted from shooting/filming any 11-on-11 period, as well as selected other periods (Athletics Communications staff will notify). Photography must be tight, "iso" shots that do not reveal alignments or strategy.
- No sound may be captured during the shooting of practice video.
- Photographers are allowed to shoot individual drills and group activity as directed by the Athletics Communications staff. No photography is allowed of players receiving treatment from medical staff, or of injured players, whether participating in individual workouts or observing practice.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to bring tripods onto the practice field.
- Photographers and videographers should remain on the sidelines, or behind the end lines. They are not permitted in any drill or in close proximity to any team or position-group huddles at any time.
- Photographers should stand a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, photographers are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags and/or camera equipment, or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.
- All posed photo shoots must take place at times arranged prior to the beginning of practice, working through the Athletics Communications office. Posed photo shoots are not permitted during any practice.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available for phone interviews as time permits. Media should call to make an appointment through Paul Kirk (paul.kirk@colostate.edu).
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the athletic Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses.

CSURAMS.COM/SOCIAL MEDIA

- The official Web site of Colorado State athletics, CSURams.com, features the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs. Rams fans worldwide can also listen to the live play-by-play coverage offered by the Colorado State Sports Network through the website or the Tuneln app, and can watch livestreamed video of most home events. Fans can click on www.CSURams.com, then click on the schedule pages to access the radio broadcast for live radio coverage of football, volleyball and men's and women's basketball. For video, click the "Fans" tab at the top, and scan the menu under Multimedia, or directly access the URL CSURams.com/watch. News also will be disseminated via the Colorado State football program's official twitter account, @CSUFootball, as well as the general athletics account, @CSUATHletics, and Assoc. A.D. for Communications Paul Kirk (@PaulKirk_CSU).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

- Credentials must be requested through Paul Kirk in writing at least seven days in advance of an event. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the Communications office, or at the game. Season credential applications will be made available in mid-July, and the online single-game credential request link can be found at http://www.csurams.com/sb_output.aspx?form=20.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field, or behind each end zone in a kneeling position.

GAME-DAY SERVICES

- A pregame meal is served 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the press box. Colorado State provides reliable WiFi in the press box, photographers' workroom and interview rooms, and access to live statistics through StatBroadcast. We have greatly reduced the amount of information distributed on paper at our home games in favor of full digital offerings of game notes, statistics, postgame audio and postgame notes. All credentialled media will receive an email the day before a game with all pertinent coverage and team information directly or via links embedded in the email.
- Colorado State's stadium offers complimentary wireless Internet access in the press box, interview room and photo workroom. Ethernet lines also are available in the photo workroom, located just inside the south-west tunnel at field level, near the visiting team locker room. Check the seat-assignment label on press row for wireless access information.

PARKING

- Media parking on game days is generally available in the Lake Street Garage (Lot 570), located near the intersection of Prospect Road and Center Avenue in the south area of campus. Denver TV stations have space allotted for one vehicle per station in front of the connection panels on the west side of the stadium. Please contact the Athletics Communications office to request a game day parking pass.
- Parking in all campus parking lots requires a permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the Communications office, and pay-to-park stalls are located on the north side of the stadium, on Pitkin Street, in front of the Ram Zone store and ticket office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: <http://pts.colostate.edu>, and many lots offer a payment kiosk to purchase a daily pass.
- The CSU Athletics Communications office will provide complimentary annual passes to the Moby/McGraw Center lot and Lot 240 near the stadium for select media organizations and members of the press who consistently cover the Rams. Those passes are not replaceable and should be treated like cash.

STADIUM DIRECTIONS/WILL CALL

- Colorado State's on-campus stadium is located between Pitkin and Lake Streets, just west of Shields Street in Fort Collins. The mailing address is 751 W. Pitkin Street. From I-25, media should take the Prospect Road exit, turn left, and proceed west toward the mountains. To access Lot 570 with a game day parking permit, please turn right onto Center Ave., from westbound Prospect Road. The entrance to the garage will be on your right. The stadium's media entrance, and Media Will-Call, is located on the west side of the stadium through the door marked "Media & Staff Entry," and press box access is via elevator just inside that entrance.
- Ticket will call is located at the main stadium ticket windows on Pitkin Street, at the Northwest corner of the stadium.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

- Please contact the CSU Athletics Communications office to request video highlights. Broadcast-quality video highlights and soundbites will be emailed to media frequently throughout the year by the Athletics Communications staff. If you would like to have an email address added to that distribution list, please contact Paul Kirk or Zach Balside.

WEEKLY RELEASES

- The weekly game release will be available by approximately 12 noon each Monday during the season on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also are e-mailed to media outlets upon request, and available via Twitter at @CSUFootball.

COLORADO STATE MEDIA E-MAIL LIST

- To receive e-mail updates on the Rams, e-mail Paul Kirk at paul.kirk@colostate.edu or Zach Balside at zach.balside@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to receive the news releases via e-mail.
