

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL

CSU set attendance records in the first season at Canvas Stadium for total and per-game average.

Canvas Stadium provides one of the best game-day experiences in college football.

Canvas Stadium features many unique fan areas, including the one-of-a-kind New Belgium Porch, located at field level in the north end zone.

As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

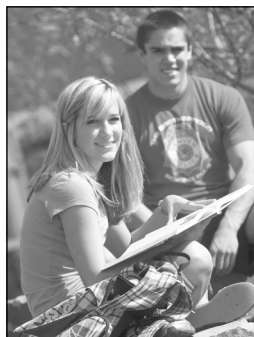

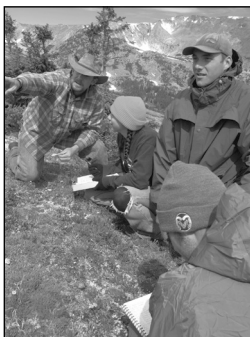

With more than 150 programs of study and 74 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 18:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart. Even more important, CSU's character is reflected in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission of service and go on to make a significant impact on our world when they graduate.

We invite you to learn more about Colorado State, a university with vision, character and a commitment to excellence.

Three CSU football alumni and graduates, Jake Bennett (left), Nolan Peralta and Tyree Simmons in the spacious Anderson Academic and Training Center.

- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks third in the country, also ranking third in national federal research dollars.
- CSU has conferred more than a quarter of a million degrees.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the rate for the overall student body.

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that 65 percent of Colorado State student-athletes graduate within six years, matching the overall university rate. That graduation rate is three points higher than the average of Mountain West athletes and nine points higher than the average graduation rate for all students in the Mountain West.

Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which has greatly enhanced the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.

While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State 70th in its annual "America's Best Colleges" report among public schools. The university offers 76 majors, 137 concentrations and 79 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. The university has invested more than $1.5 billion in new construction and renovations over the past decade, adding new buildings to house chemistry, biology, engineering, computer science, behavioral science, business, horticulture and agricultural science programs. In addition, state-of-the-art residence halls and the new Health & Medical Center have been added to serve students' needs.

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Tucked against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 19th-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 165,000 residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and the city boasts a lively arts and cultural scene, and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with more than 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

165,000+ Approximate population of Fort Collins

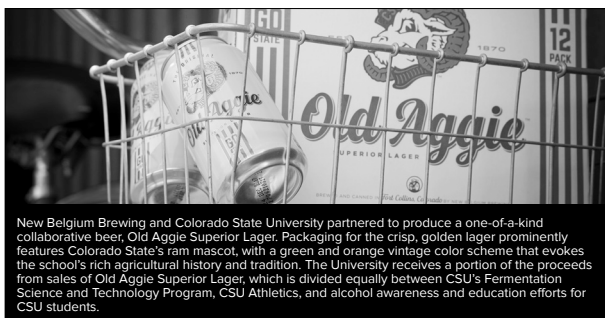

Old Town Fort Collins, the inspiration for Disneyland's Mainstreet USA.

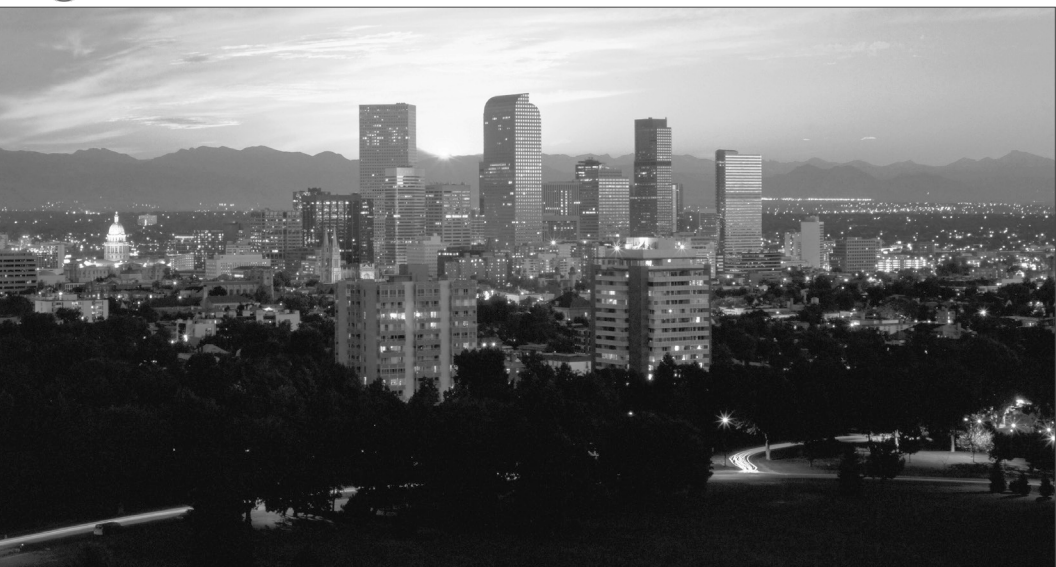

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 29 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. Old Town, the heart of Fort Collins, offers a one-of-a-kind shopping experience and more than 80 restaurants, in addition to a vibrant night life and multiple cultural arts centers.

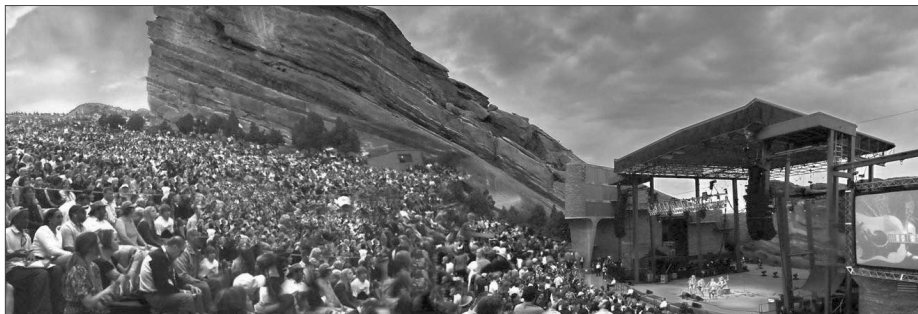

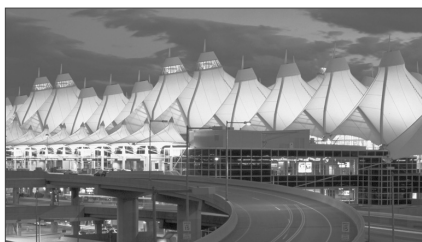

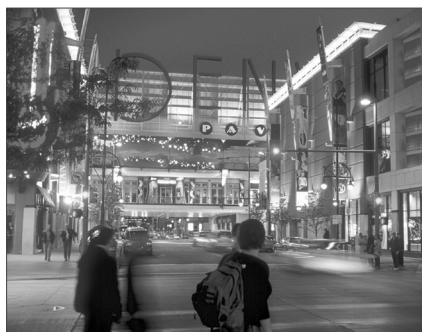

Horsetooth Reservoir, located just a few miles west of CSU's main campus, offers great outdoors opportunities including camping, boating, fishing, swimming, hiking, climbing and more.

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of more than 3 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 17 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation. Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, right), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (bottom), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, left), and the world's 19th-busiest airport, Denver International (below, right). Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

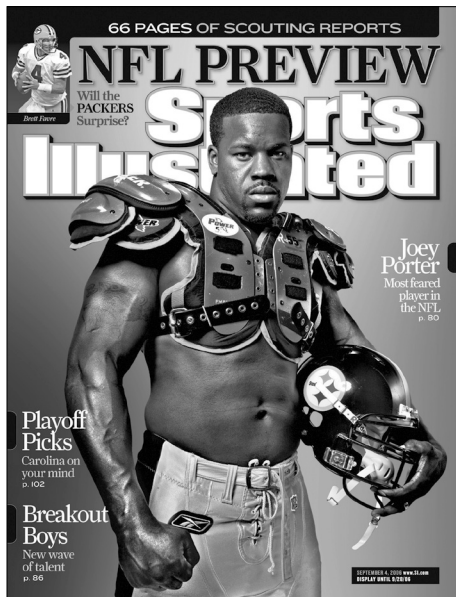

#NEXTLEVELRAMS

Former Ram Joey Porter (right) retired from the NFL during the summer of 2012, capping an All-Pro career where it began, with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2006, Sports Illustrated called Porter the "most feared player in the NFL."

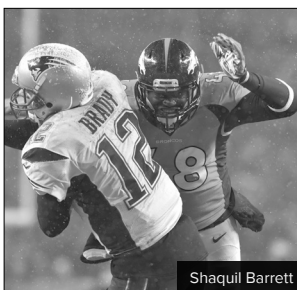

Several players continue to carry the NFL torch for Colorado State, including eight total players selected in the NFL Draft since 2014: OL Weston Richburg (No. 43 in 2014, N.Y. Giants), TE Crockett Gilmore (No. 99 in 2014, Baltimore Ravens), OL Ty Sambrailo (No. 59 in 2015, Denver Broncos), QB Garrett Grayson (No. 72 in 2015, New Orleans Saints), WR Rashard Higgins (No. 172 in 2016, Cleveland Browns), LB Cory James (No. 194 in 2016, Oakland Raiders) and Michael Gallup (No. 81 in 2018, Dallas Cowboys), WR Bisi Johnson (No. 247 in 2019, Minnesota Vikings).

As of July 10, 2019, the Rams have 11 alumni on NFL rosters, including 2018 undrafted free agents Zack Golditch (Chiefs) and Dalyn Dawkins (Titans).

Student-athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them. That's why, in 2009 the Anderson Academic Training Center was completed, offering Rams student-athletes a first-class academic facility.

Features:

- A computer lab with more than 30 workstations.
- Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas.
- Six full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

The training portion includes a state-of-the-art weight room and strength and conditioning center, in addition to a nutrition center. One of the newest and most comprehensive in the Mountain West, each team has a sport-specific strength coach to work with them throughout the year.

Training Room

During the summer of 2017, the athletic training room went through a major transformation, doubling in size to help make it one of the finest in the country. It features a multitude of taping and treatment tables, rehabilitation equipment, and hot/cold tubs, including an underwater treadmill, the only of its kind in the state.

The football team has its own equipment, pools, training tables and more, adjacent to its nearly 10,000-square-foot weight room (pictured at top) at Canvas Stadium.

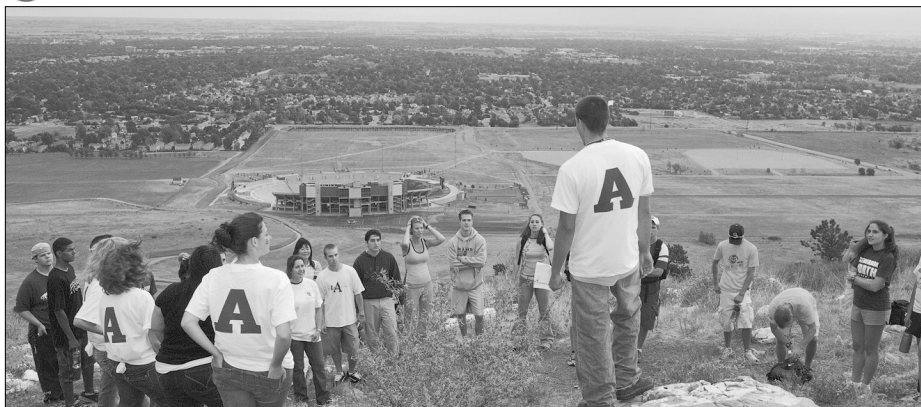

Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility, measuring more than 66,000 square feet. The structure allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

- A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field.
- Large gymnasium for basketball and volleyball
- Utilized for training by all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track.
- Retractable netting for batting cages and golf workouts.
- Video deck allows CSU coaches and student-athletes to review technique and put it into play immediately.

THE AGGIE "A"

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking Hughes Stadium (above) turns 95 years old in 2018, making it the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

The "A" evolved after World War I when a trend began among colleges to display the school insignia on a hill near campus. At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect such an emblem. A group of military volunteers formed the "A" Club and donated vehicles for transporting supplies, and female students provided food for the workers.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A." One small detail was missing: The school didn't own the land on which the insignia sat. The College and Ag Board members met with landowner R.G. Maxwell and negotiated a long-term lease for the sum of $1. The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom. For many years the freshman class carried out the annual tradition of whitewashing the "A."

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

RAM WALK

Before every home game, Colorado State's players and coaches exit the team buses at the intersection of Meridian and Hughes Way, and walk south on Meridian toward the north entrance to the stadium. Rams fans, CAM the Ram and cheerleaders line the street, while the CSU marching band plays the fight song.

THE CANNON

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents that just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU athletics. At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

CAM THE RAM

The official mascot of Colorado State is CAM the Ram, whose name symbolizes CSU's history — an acronym for Colorado Agricultural & Mechanical College, the institution's former name. All told, 25 live rams have served proudly. The mascot has its own corps of students, known as the 'Ram Handlers,' as well as a traveling trailer. The current rambouillet began his duties on Sept. 19, 2015.

CSU FIGHT SONG

Fight on you stalwart Ram team,
On to the goal.

Tear the (opponent's) line asunder,

As down the field we thunder.

Knights of the Green and Gold,

Fight on with all your might.

Fight on you stalwart Ram team,

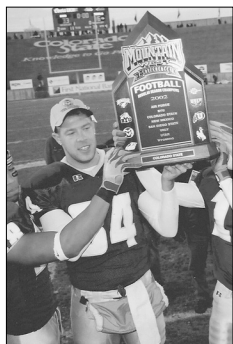

FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!

GO RAMS!

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Colorado State football program owns 15 conference championships. The 1915 team captured the program's first Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title. The Rams' most recent conference title came in 2002 (left), when the team posted a 10-4 overall record, and a 6-2 mark in Mountain West play. In all, CSU claimed three of the first four titles in Mountain West history. Legendary coaches Harry Hughes (above) and Sonny Lubick each won six league championships.

TRAVELING TROPHIES

FUM McGRAW

The most recognized name in CSU annals is Thurman "Fum" McGraw (left). The university's first consensus football All-American (1948-49), he went on to an illustrious career in the NFL, where he helped the Detroit Lions to two world championships. McGraw devoted more than 40 years to the university he loved, including a decade as director of athletics (1976-86). His retired No. 48 jersey hangs in the locker room during every game, home and road.

A passionate competitor, during his days as a Colorado A&M student and fraternity member, he sang a song directed at regional rivals. The ballad later became known as "Fum's Song."

FUM'S SONG

I'll sing you a song of college days, and tell you where to go,
Aggies, where your knowledge is, and Boulder to spend your dough.

C.C. for your sissy boys, and Utah for your times,

D.U. for your ministers, and drunkards School of Mines.

Don't send my boy to Wyoming U. a dying mother said.

Don't send him to old Brigham Young, I'd rather see him dead.

Just send him to our Aggies, it's better than Cornell.

Before I'd see him in Boulder, I'd see my son in hell!

GOING BOWLING

The Colorado State football program has earned 17 bowl berths in its history, dating back to the team's first postseason appearance, a physical matchup against Occidental College in the 1949 Raisin Bowl (pictured at right). The Rams were led to their first bowl game by second-year head coach Bob Davis.

Earle Bruce guided the Rams back to the postseason in 1990, when he coached the team to a resounding 32-31 victory over the Oregon Ducks in the Freedom Bowl (below, right).

Sonny Lubick led the Rams to their most successful bowl run in program history. The Rams competed in nine bowl games under Lubick's guidance, including wins in the 1997 Holiday Bowl vs. Missouri (trophy below), the 2000 Liberty Bowl (page 17, bottom right) and the 2001 New Orleans Bowl (page 17, bottom left).

After Steve Fairchild led the Rams to a win in the 2008 New Mexico Bowl (right), the program has earned five consecutive bowl appearances under Jim McElwain (2013 New Mexico Bowl vs. Washington State, 2014 Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl vs. Utah) and Mike Bobo (2015 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl vs. Nevada, 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl vs. Idaho, 2017 New Mexico Bowl vs. Marshall).

DAILY COVERAGE

Colorado State is a nationally prominent brand, due in large part to the success of its athletic teams and the media coverage they receive.

The Rams are covered by five newspapers in addition to the Associated Press. What's more, eight area television stations, mostly from Denver (the nation's No. 17 television market), and several radio outlets along the Front Range come to campus to interview and feature CSU's student-athletes and coaches.

GAMEDAY COVERAGE

Colorado State football plays regularly on regional and national television. Overall, since the program's first telecast game in 1956, the Rams have played 309 such contests, including eight or more televised games in each of the past 24 seasons. CSU's Sept. 21, 2013 game at Alabama drew 2.78 million viewers on ESPN2, the 2013 New Mexico Bowl on ESPN drew 2.77 million viewers and the 2014 Las Vegas Bowl on ABC drew 2.12 million viewers.

MEDIA DAYS

In July 2019, Head Coach Mike Bobo and redshirt junior Collin Hill and junior Emmanuel Jones will represent Colorado State at the annual Mountain West Media Summit in Las Vegas, Nev.

Rams football is broadcast statewide on the Colorado State Sports Network presented by Learfield Sports. Pregame coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff; the postgame show lasts one hour. The flagship station is Rock 102.9 FM.

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 21st year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 20 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. During the last four academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU rejoined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2019 season, the MW has nine (9) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), five (5) primary bowl positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Mitsubishi Motors Las Vegas Bowl and SoFi Hawai'i Bowl - and three (3) secondary positions with the Redbox Bowl, Cheez-It Bowl and Frisco Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2018-19 IN REVIEW

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed a strong year in 2018-19. In football, the sixth annual MW Football Championship Game took place on December 1, 2018 at Albertson's Stadium in Boise, Idaho. The Broncos, champions of the Mountain Division, hosted four-time defending West Division champion Fresno State with the Bulldogs claiming their second Conference title, 19-16.

For the sixth straight season, the Mountain West sent at least six teams into postseason bowl games.

The league has earned 96 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 52-43 (.547) all-time record (2019 First Responder Bowl between Boise State and Boston College was cancelled due to weather). The 2018 bowl season marked the 11th consecutive year the MW sent at least five teams to bowls and the 15th time overall since the league's inception.

JOE PARKER

Director of Athletics | 5th Year at CSU | Michigan, '87

PARKER AT A GLANCE

Education

- Bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan
- MBA from Texas

Personal

- Wife: Jen; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy A.D. at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate A.D. at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker is in his fifth year as Director of Athletics at Colorado State University in 2019-20. A proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, Parker was hired on March 17, 2015 by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank.

Parker, who had been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since April 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

In Parker's first three-plus years in Fort Collins he has skillfully and thoughtfully guided the athletics department and the university through the construction of Colorado State's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium, which opened on-time and on-budget for the 2017 football season and hosted a school-record 32,062 fans per game. The state-of-the-art facility houses all aspects of the Rams' football program and includes general classroom space, the Collaborative for Student Achievement and the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center.

Parker has led the department of athletics through the successful process of selling out all premium seating inventory in the stadium. Comprised of private suites, loge boxes, indoor club and outdoor club seating, the entire premium seating inventory sold out in October 2016, nearly a year before the stadium's opening. Season ticket sales reached a record of 15,500 for the 2017 season and memberships had sold out by May 2017 to the stadium's two unique VIP areas—the New Belgium Porch and Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club.

In April 2018, Parker and CSU President Dr. Tony Frank announced a $377 million naming rights partnership with Public Service Credit Union, which was in the process of re-branding to Canvas Credit Union, ushering in the name Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. All of the announced partnerships by prominent Colorado companies illustrate the tremendous connection between the university and the community, and demonstrate great enthusiasm for partnering with Colorado State and investing in its future.

Joe Parker was introduced as the director of athletics at Colorado State on March 17, 2015.

Since beginning his tenure in Fort Collins, Parker has overseen tremendous success by the Rams' athletics programs in competition, and continued growth of Colorado State Athletics. CSU boasted 10 All-America awards and one individual NCAA champion (Mostafa Hassan, indoor shot put) in 2017-18. Eight of the Rams' 16 athletics programs finished in the top 3 of the Mountain West, and 11 participated in postseason competition. In 2016-17 the Rams had the MW's highest average finish (3.94) across its 16 sport programs, claiming three conference championships and six second-place finishes. The Rams were represented in 10 NCAA postseason competitions, and including the two basketball programs competing in their respective National Invitation Tournaments and football's bowl game, 13 of the 16 CSU athletic programs wrapped up their year in postseason events.

CSU's volleyball and women's basketball programs both went undefeated in their 18 Mountain West contests during the 2015-16 academic year, making CSU just the fourth school in NCAA history to have dual undefeated conference seasons, and the first time in school history. The bowl games since Parker's hire, and the Rams have claimed 11 total MW

CSU football team has qualified for its third, fourth and fifth consecutive championships under his leadership.

In Parker's tenure he also has signed an extension of Colorado State's multi-year agreement with Under Armour to be its official apparel provider through 2021, as well as an enhanced, long-term multimedia rights partnership with Learfield, both of which position Colorado State for continued growth in its profile and stature nationally.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker was involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity issues at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and launch of a $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jen, have two children, Emma and Will, both of whom are students at Colorado State.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT JOE PARKER...

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director

"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech

"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech Retired Women's Basketball Coach & 1993 National Champion in WBB

"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."

Jeff Long, Former Vice Chancellor & Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas

"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma

"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's A.D./Executive Senior Associate A.D., University of Texas

"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, Former Athletics Director, University of Michigan

"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, Athletics Director, University of Texas

"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

DeLoss Dodds, Retired Athletics Director, University of Texas

"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University

"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

MIKE BOBO

Head Coach | 5th Year at CSU | 22nd Year Coaching

Mike Bobo enters his fifth season as head coach at Colorado State in 2019, having been appointed by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank on Dec. 23, 2014, as the 22nd head coach in program history. Bobo came to Fort Collins from the University of Georgia, where the former Bulldogs quarterback had spent the previous 14 seasons, including the last eight as offensive coordinator.

Bobo is the only head coach in school history to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, and joins Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers. The Rams' offense has been explosive throughout Bobo's three years as head coach, with his teams posting three of the top seven seasons in school history for total yards and scoring. His Rams also have ranked in the top 10 in program history every season in yards per play, first downs, rushing yards, passing yards and total points. Specifically, they have posted two of the top five scoring seasons in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (also 4th, 462.5 in 2016).

The 2017 Rams finished the season with a 7-6 record and ranked 11th in all of FBS in total offense (492.5). CSU also ranked second in third-down conversions (50.3%) and eighth in first downs (251), also both school records.

Five Rams earned All-Mountain West honors in 2017, including first-team selections Jake Bennett (C), Michael Gallup (WR), Zack Golditch (T) and Nick Stevens (QB), and second-team selection Dalyn Dawkins (RB). Gallup was a consensus All-American (just the fourth in CSU history) and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

In 2016 Bobo became the first head coach in CSU history to lead the Rams to a bowl game in each of his first two seasons. In both 2015 and 2016 his Rams steadily improved and finished strong, highlighted by a 7-1 record in November games over his first two seasons, including a 4-1 mark on the road. The 2016 Rams closed the regular season winning four of their last five games, and five of their last seven, to finish the regular season at 7-5 for the second year in a row.

The Rams' offense fueled the late-season surge, averaging 47.8 points and 533.8 yards per game over the last six contests, including the bowl game. Those figures ranked second and fourth, respectively, among all FBS programs from Oct. 16 through the remainder of the season. CSU ranked fourth in the nation in red-zone scoring (94.6%), 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5).

Five CSU players earned All-Mountain West recognition under Bobo's guidance, including three first-team selections: Wide receiver Michael Gallup, punter Hayden Hunt and guard Fred Zerbis. Second-team honors went to center Jake Bennett and linebacker Kevin Davis, while tackle Nick Callender, quarterback Nick Stevens and guard Paul Thurston received honorable mention.

In 2015 Bobo became the only head coach in program history to win seven regular season games in his first season at the helm. Bobo's Rams won four games in a row, and five out of six, to close the 2015 regular season, securing CSU's third consecutive bowl invitation en route to a 7-6 record. CSU's four wins in the season's first month marked the first undefeated November by a Rams team since 1948, and included three road wins—at Wyoming in his first "Border War," at New Mexico and at Fresno State.

Five Rams earned All-Mountain West honors under Bobo in 2015, including punter Hayden Hunt, who was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award. CSU ranked fourth in the FBS in net punting average (42.0) and 17th in kickoff return average (25.1). Bobo's Rams were one of only two FBS schools to have three running backs each record at least one game with 140 or more rushing yards (Dalyn Dawkins, Izzy Matthews and Jasen Oden, Jr.) and quarterback Nick Stevens set passing records for a CSU sophomore with 2,679 yards through the air and 21 touchdowns (first-most in school history).

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia, where he had starred at quarterback in the late 1990s, began in January, 2001, when head coach Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach, for his second stint with the school. He was promoted by Richt to offensive coordinator in 2007. During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In 2014 Bobo led a Bulldogs offense that averaged 41.3 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 457.8 yards of total offense per game. Against teams ranked in the Top 25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game. Additionally, the 2014 Bulldogs' offense ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing offense (257.0; 11th FBS), team passing efficiency (156.06; 9th FBS), completion percentage (67.4%; 7th FBS), fewest interceptions (6; 9th FBS), third-down conversion percentage (49.7%; 8th FBS) and fourth-down conversion percentage (80.0%; 3rd FBS). The 537 points scored in 2014 established a Georgia single-season record. The previous single-season record was set in 2012 while Bobo was offensive coordinator.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, who played from 2010-13. Murray, who was chosen in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, set more than 25 UGA records and four SEC marks. He became the first player in SEC history to have at least 3,000 passing yards in four consecutive seasons. The NFL's No. 1 draft choice in 2009, Matthew Stafford, also blossomed under Bobo's tutelage. The Detroit Lions' starting quarterback was second-team All-SEC and earned All-America recognition in 2008 for Georgia and was MVP of the 2009 Capital One Bowl.

In Bobo's time at Georgia he also mentored quarterback David Greene (2001-04), who was the winningest quarterback in NCAA Division I history at the time (42), wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff in Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State, after working as an administrative assistant and graduate assistant from 1998-99 at UGA.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, earning four letters, and led the team in passing in 1996 and '97. Among all UGA quarterbacks, Bobo ranks first in single-season completion percentage (65% in '97), single-season passing efficiency rating (155.8 in '97), second in career touchdown passes (38) and third in career pass completions (445), season passing yards (2,751 in '97), career passing yards (6,334) and single-season touchdown passes (19). In his career Bobo threw for 6,334 yards, which is third-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., was inducted into the Thomasville-Thomas County Sports Hall of Fame on Nov. 10, 2016. He joined his father, George, a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia, who was inducted in 2013.

Bobo and his wife, Lainie, have five children, Drew; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate.

COACHES & STAFF

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT MIKE BOBO...

Mark Richt, former head coach:

"Mike Bobo has been a leader his entire life playing the position of quarterback in high school and college. And he has led well. While he's on the cutting edge of offensive football, he's also old school in his approach. He's a tough disciplinarian who is results-oriented. I never had to worry about our offense with Mike's leadership as our coordinator."

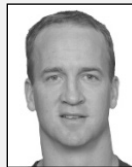

Matthew Stafford, starting QB, Detroit Lions:

"I am extremely happy for Coach Bobo, and I know he has been ready for an opportunity like this for quite some time. He helped me grow as a quarterback immensely in just a short amount of time at UGA and taught me what I needed to know for football at the highest level. I owe a lot of my success to the coaching and knowledge that he passed on to me. He was a great motivator and truly cared about his players. Because of that, I know he will be a successful head coach and bring a lot of success to the Colorado State team and fans."

Champ Bailey, 12-time Pro Bowl cornerback for Washington Redskins and Denver Broncos:

"Mike Bobo was our leader. We had a lot of talented players on that offense but we all followed him. It was long overdue that he became a head coach, and it's no surprise he has been successful."

Peyton Manning, Two-time World Champion quarterback:

"He was the starting quarterback at Georgia during the whole time I was in school at Tennessee, or the three years—sophomore, junior and senior years. They had great teams; they had Champ (Bailey), Hines Ward and Robert Edwards. So, they had a lot of great players and Mike was a great leader, great SEC quarterback. We had some good battles. I always think you have a little bond with SEC guys, especially SEC quarterbacks. I enjoyed competing against him. He was a great player."

A.J. Green, WR, Cincinnati Bengals:

"The first thing that comes to mind about Mike Bobo is that he's a really smart guy. Kind of a unique guy, just with his schemes and his play-calling. He always had something that was going to surprise the defense and mess them up."

Todd Gurley, 2015 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year:

"He's very passionate about his job. He takes it seriously. With his offensive skills, he can definitely help them improve and move the ball. He's a high-energy guy. He's going to get on you, but it's going to make you better. His offense really helps young guys and gets you ready for an NFL career if you get that opportunity. He's going to be balanced and utilize his talents."

RONNIE LETSON

Assistant Head Coach/Quarterbacks | 5th Year at CSU | 20th Year Coaching

Ronnie Letson is in his fifth season at Colorado State in 2019, having joined Mike Bobo's initial staff as quarterbacks coach Jan. 2, 2015. In February 2018 he was promoted to add the title of assistant head coach. Letson accompanied Bobo from the University of Georgia, where he had served one season as director of player personnel for the Bulldogs.

During Letson's tenure coaching CSU's quarterbacks, his passers have had the best four-year stretch in program history, throwing 108 touchdown passes.

Nick Stevens earned All-Mountain West first-team recognition as a senior in 2017.

Stevens—the Rams' all-time leader in touchdown passes—ranked 13th in the FBS in passing yards (3,799) and passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, and 14th in passing yards per game (292.2). In his three seasons the Rams have posted two of the top five scoring marks in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (also 4th, 462.5 in 2016). The 2017 Rams also set school records for first downs per game (25.5) and third-down conversions (50.3%).

Letson guided three different quarterbacks to start at least one game for the Rams in 2016, including true freshman Collin Hill, who started four games before his season ended because of a knee injury. Stevens (honorable mention All-MW) started the season opener and the final seven games and ranked fifth in FBS (first in MW) with a 171.3 passer efficiency rating. The Rams ranked 12th in FBS with just seven interceptions thrown. Under Letson's guidance, the passing game ranked 12th in the nation in passing efficiency (157.04) and took an average of just 1.0 sack per game (8th FBS), including just one total over the season's final six games.

In his final seven starts to close the 2016 season, Stevens ranked among the hottest quarterbacks in the nation, completing better than 70 percent of his passes for 19 touchdowns and just three interceptions. His season completion percentage of 64.2 ranked third on CSU's single-season list.

In his first season with the Rams in 2015, Letson helped Stevens earn second-team All-Mountain West honors as a first-year starting quarterback. He led the conference in touchdown passes (21) and ranked second in passing yards (2,679). Both figures broke CSU's all-time records for a sophomore, topping the previous marks held by former first-round NFL draft choice Kelly Stouffer.

Prior to Letson's one season at Georgia he had a brief stint as the wide receivers coach at Samford University in early 2014. He spent the 2013 season as an offensive analyst at Alabama and nine seasons at Jacksonville State (2004-12) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At Jacksonville State, Letson was in charge of play-calling and developing the Gamecocks' offensive game plan. In his nine-year stint Letson groomed 31 all-conference players and six All-Americans. Letson helped guide the Gamecocks to an Ohio Valley Conference championship in 2004 and an OVC co-championship in 2011.

Jacksonville State's 2011 conference championship team was fueled by Letson's powerful offense, which averaged 414.9 yards per game against conference opponents, including 245.0 yards on the ground and an OVC-best 148.8 pass efficiency rating. In 2010 Letson helped lead JSU to a 9-3 record and a No. 2 ranking in FCS. His offenses in 2004, '08 and '09 led the OVC, and the Gamecocks led the OVC in scoring offense in '04, '07, '09 and '10. Letson helped produce 2009 OVC Offensive Player of the Year Ryan Perrilloux and 2010 OVC Freshman of the Year Coty Blanchard.

Letson originally began his coaching career at Jacksonville State in 2000 as the wide receivers coach before taking the same position at Presbyterian College in 2002 where he assisted with the development of the offensive game plan. He got his first taste of coaching in the Southeastern Conference as an offensive administrative graduate assistant at his alma mater, Ole Miss, in 2003, when the Rebels finished with a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC West Division title and a Cotton Bowl Championship. In the spring of 2004 he moved to the defensive side of the ball as a graduate assistant before returning to Jacksonville State in May 2004.

Letson is a 1999 graduate of the University of Mississippi, from which he holds a bachelor of business administration degree. He was a three-year letterman for the Rebels, earning All-SEC academic honors in 1999, and helped lead Ole Miss to three consecutive bowl victories. The Rebels claimed the Ford Motor City Bowl against Marshall and two wins in the Independence Bowl, including a last-second win over Oklahoma.

DAVE JOHNSON

Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line | 2nd Year at CSU | 36th Year Coaching

Dave Johnson enters his second season as Colorado State's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2019. Johnson, a veteran of 34 seasons coaching in college football, joins the Rams from Ohio where he coached the offensive line and served as run-game coordinator for a Bobcats team that ranked 16th in FBS in rushing (244.5 yards per game) and set school records for scoring (39.1) and yards-per-carry (5.7).

In his career Johnson has coached in 17 bowl games, won nine DI conference championship titles (Big East, SEC, MAC) and mentored 12 NFL players, five

All-Americans and 32 all-conference selections.

Johnson spent the past four seasons as Ohio's offensive line coach, and before the 2017 season added co-offensive coordinator duties to direct the run game. The Bobcats finished 9-4 with a bowl victory in 2017, and in addition to school records for scoring and rushing average, rushed for a school-record 44 touchdowns, ranked ninth in FBS in scoring, and ranked 12th in red-zone offense (91.9%) and 16th in sacks allowed (1.23).

Johnson and Bobo coached together at Georgia from 2001-07, when Bobo was quarterbacks coach and Johnson was tight ends coach.

Prior to his four years at Ohio, Johnson was run-game coordinator and offensive line coach at UMass for one season (2013). He served as tight ends coach at Cincinnati from 2011-12 and offensive line coach at West Virginia from 2008-10, following his eight-year stint as Georgia's tight ends coach (2001-07). With Bobo and Johnson on the offensive staff the Bulldogs won 72 games and claimed three SEC East Division Championships, two SEC Championships, five bowl wins and five Top-10 national finishes. Four of his Georgia tight ends—Randy McMichael, Ben Watson, Martez Milner and Leonard Pope—went on to careers in the NFL, as did his Cincinnati tight end Travis Kelce, drafted in the third round by the Kansas City Chiefs.

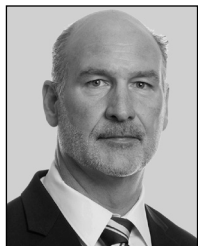

A graduate of West Virginia and four-year letterwinner at center for the Mountaineers, Johnson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1984-85. He then coached offensive line and tight ends, and directed strength and conditioning, at Shippensburg in 1986 before a nine-year stint in the same capacities at Indiana (Pa.) University (1987-1996) and a four-year stint at tight ends coach at Marshall (1997-2000).

Johnson started at center for the Mountaineers on their 1981 Peach Bowl and 1982 Gator Bowl teams. He earned his bachelor's degree from WVU in 1985 and his master's degree in 1986. Dave and his wife Lynn have four children, Andrew, Lauren, Zachary and Mark.

JOHN JANCEK

Defensive Coordinator | 2nd Year at CSU | 28th Year Coaching

John Jancek enters his second season as the defensive coordinator at Colorado State in 2019. Jancek brings 28 years of coaching experience to the staff, including eight seasons as an FBS defensive coordinator.

Jancek most recently served as a defensive consultant at Kentucky in 2017, following one season as the safeties coach at South Florida (2016).

Jancek spent the 2013-15 seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee, where he groomed the Volunteers defense into one that ranked in the top 20 nationally in scoring defense and second in third-down conversion in 2015. Tennessee won two bowl games during his tenure, and five of his defenders earned All-SEC recognition, as well three Freshman All-SEC performers. One of those was Derek Barnett, who set Tennessee records for sacks (10) and tackles for loss (20.5) by a freshman and was named a Freshman All-American in 2014.

Before joining the staff at Tennessee, Jancek spent three seasons at Cincinnati (2010-12), the first two as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2012. The Bearcats ranked among the FBS's top 20 in scoring defense in 2011 and 2012, led the nation in tackles for loss (8.62 per game) and was second in sacks (3.46 per game) in 2011.

Bobo and Jancek were on the same staff at Georgia from 2005-09, where Jancek coached linebackers and served as co-defensive coordinator in 2009. Bobo and Jancek helped lead Georgia to significant success together from 2005-09. The Bulldogs won an SEC title (2005), appeared in two BCS bowl games and finished ranked in the top 10 nationally three times.

In total, Jancek has served as defensive coordinator at seven schools in his career, including four different FBS programs. He most recently held the title at Tennessee from 2013-15. Prior to that, he was the defensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2010-13), Georgia (2009), Central Michigan (2004-05), Grand Valley State (2000-2003), Hillsdale College (1996-99) and Wayne State (1992-95).

Jancek worked with current Notre Dame head coach Brian Kelly at Grand Valley State from 1999-2003, where he led a defensive that propelled the team to the 2002 NCAA Division II national championship.

A native of Muskegon, Mich., Jancek graduated from Grand Valley State in 1991 and earned his master's degree from Wayne State in 1994. John and his wife Kelly have four children— Zac, Brock, Jack and Brady.

CHASE GIBSON

Co-Sp. Teams Coord./Linebackers | 2nd Year at CSU | 10th Year Coaching

Chase Gibson enters his second season at Colorado State in 2019 in the roles of linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator.

Gibson came to CSU from Eastern Kentucky, where he had served as linebackers coach since January of 2016. In his first season at Eastern Kentucky, Gibson helped guide a defense that allowed fewer passing yards than any EKU team since 2009 and fewer passing touchdowns (12) than any Colonel defense since 2005 (9). Under his guidance, linebacker Jeffrey Canady totaled 17 tackles in a game on two occasions, tied for the 18th most by an FCS player in 2016. Canady also finished seventh in the nation with 11.2 tackles per game and was a third-team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection by Phil Steele.

Prior to his time at EKU, Gibson served as a quality control/assistant secondary coach at Tennessee with CSU defensive coordinator John Jancek, where the duo led the Volunteers to a 9-4 record in 2015 and second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference East Division. He also worked with Jancek at Cincinnati in 2012, where he was a graduate assistant working with linebackers.

Gibson also spent two seasons (2010-11) in the Ohio Valley Conference at Tennessee-Martin, where he coached linebackers and oversaw strength and conditioning with the Skyhawks.

The Pikeville, Ky., native was a tight end at Marshall University before a career-ending knee injury. He earned a bachelor's in secondary education from Marshall in 2007. Chase and his wife Kylee have two sons – Caiden and Connor.

BRYAN APPLEWHITE

Recruiting Coordinator/Running Backs | 5th Year at CSU | 21st Year Coaching

Bryan Applewhite is in his fifth year at Colorado State in 2019, and his 20th season in coaching, having joined the program as running backs coach on Jan. 3, 2015. He was promoted to add the title of recruiting coordinator to his responsibilities in February 2018. Applewhite previously spent five seasons at the University of Louisiana Monroe, and his arrival in Fort Collins marked a return to his home state of Colorado.

In his three seasons at CSU the Rams have posted two of the top five scoring marks in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (also 4th, 462.5 in 2016). The 2017 Rams also set school records for first downs per game (25.5) and third-down conversions (50.3%). Senior Dalyn Dawkins earned second-team All-Mountain West honors in 2017 with 1,399 yards (fifth on CSU's single-season list) and finished his career third on CSU's all-time rushing list (3,185). Under Applewhite's guidance Izzy Matthews has accumulated nearly 2,000 rushing yards (1,937) in his first three seasons and is tied for fifth all-time at CSU with 26 rushing touchdowns.

In 2016 Applewhite guided a successful trio of Rams running backs to an average of 217.8 yards per game to rank in the top quartile in the country (31st). Dawkins (a junior), Matthews (a sophomore) and true freshman Marvin Kinsey, Jr., each rushed for more than 500 yards and logged at least 90 carries, with each crossing the 100-yard mark in the same game on one occasion (vs. New Mexico, 11/19). In that contest, CSU totaled 412 rushing yards, the most in 15 seasons and the 8th-best mark in school history. Overall, CSU's 2,831 net rushing yards and 5.3 yards-per-carry average ranked fifth and second, respectively, in school history.

Applewhite's running backs also helped the Rams allow just 1.0 sack per game, eighth-fewest in FBS, and just one total in the final six games of the season.

The Rams in 2015 boasted the nation's 33rd-ranked rushing attack, and for the first time since 1997 at CSU featured two 700-yard running backs (Dawkins and Jason Oden, Jr.) and for the first time since 1977 featured three 500-yard running backs (Dawkins, Oden and freshman Matthews). Each member of that trio rushed for at least 140 yards in a game, making the Rams one of just two FBS teams to do so in 2015.

2018	Colorado State	Running Backs/Recruiting Coord.

In his five seasons at ULM (2010-14) Applewhite served as the Warhawks' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator, and groomed two all-conference running backs. In 2012 ULM's running backs combined for a total of 19 touchdowns (17 rushing, two receiving) as ULM finished the season with eight wins and made its first appearance in a bowl game (Independence Bowl) since moving up to FBS in 1994.

In 2013 Applewhite's ULM running backs elevated further as six different running backs recorded 1,239 rushing yards and eight touchdowns. Centarius Donald missed the majority of the non-conference season, but came alive in conference play en route to All-Sun Belt honors.

Prior to joining ULM's staff, Applewhite spent one season at Montana State (2009) and six at Wyoming (2003-08) as running backs coach. In his one season at Montana State, Applewhite coached a two-headed running back tandem that tallied over 1,110 rushing yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

Under his tutelage, Applewhite groomed two of Wyoming's three all-time leading rushers in Devin Moore (2,963) and Wynel Seldon (2,672). Moore signed a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts and Seldon signed a contract with the Washington Redskins. Moore's 2,963 career rushing yards are the most all-time by a Cowboys player. Seldon holds the school record for most rushing attempts in a career with 636.

Prior to joining the Wyoming staff, he coached at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, from 1999-2002. A standout fullback at Northern Colorado from 1994-98, Applewhite played on teams that won two NCAA Division II National Championships (1996 and 1997), competed in the Division II Playoffs for four straight seasons (1995-98) and won North Central Conference crowns during his junior and senior seasons. During his entire tenure at UNC and Wyoming, Applewhite coached alongside former CSU defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Marty English.

Applewhite, a 1993 graduate of Brighton High School, joined the UNC coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1999 and was elevated to full-time status in 2000. The Bears finished sixth in Division II in rushing offense (127.8 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (362.1) in 2002, and the 1999 and 2002 Bears competed in the Division II Playoffs.

Applewhite has served as a member of the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Minority Issues Committee since 2006 and was recently reappointed to the Committee. In 2007, he was named to the AFCA Assistant Coaches' Committee and participated in the 2004 AFCA Coaches' Academy.

Applewhite received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Northern Colorado in 1998 and his master's degree in sports administration for Northern Colorado in 2001.

He and his wife Rachele have two daughters, Morgan and Skylar.

JOE COX

Wide Receivers | 5th Year at CSU | 5th Year Coaching

Joe Cox is in his fifth season at Colorado State in 2019 and his first working with the wide receivers after spending three seasons as the tight ends coach. The former Georgia quarterback, who started every game in 2009 for current Rams head coach Mike Bobo, joined the CSU staff as a graduate assistant in 2015 after coaching for two years at the high school level in his home state of North Carolina.

Cox has helped propel a Rams offense that has turned in some of the most productive seasons in school history. CSU has posted two of the top five scoring seasons in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense with Cox on the staff, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (also 4th, 462.5 in 2016). The 2017 Rams also set school records for first downs per game (25.5) and third-down conversions (50.3%).

The tight end group played a significant role in the performance of the Rams' record-setting offense in 2017. Senior Dalton Fackrell tied for second on the team with six touchdown receptions among his 26 catches, which ranked fifth on the team, for 313 yards. Freshman Cameron Butler burst onto the scene and added 12 receptions for 171 yards and three touchdowns. His receptions and yards were the most by a CSU freshman tight end since Kory Sperry (15-225) in 2004 and his three touchdowns were most since Matt Bartz (4) in 2002.

In 2016 the Rams' tight end corps was instrumental in helping the Rams to rank fourth in FBS in red-zone scoring (94.6%), as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). The unit also contributed to the Rams' stellar pass protection, which resulted in a No. 8 national ranking for fewest sacks allowed (1.0), including just one total in the final six games of the season. Their impact on the run game resulted in the second-highest yards-per-carry average (5.3) in school history and the second-best rushing total (2,832 net yards).

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14 when the school won back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

As Georgia's starting quarterback in 2009, Cox completed 185 of 331 pass attempts for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, at the time the second-best single-season total in UGA history. An offensive captain, Cox led the Bulldogs to a record of 8-5, and was named Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his five-touchdown, 375-yard performance at Arkansas.

For his career, Cox completed 56 percent of his passes for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns with 16 interceptions. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia in December 2009.

Cox was the 2004 state of North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year and AP Prep Player of the Year, and a Parade Magazine All-American at Independence (N.C.) High School. He was the No. 7 quarterback in the nation by Rivals.com and ESPN's Tom Lemming.

KEITH GILMORE

Defensive Line | 2nd Year at CSU | 33rd Year Coaching

Keith Gilmore enters his second season as the defensive line coach at Colorado State in 2019.

A 32-year coaching veteran, Gilmore most recently served as the defensive line coach at Notre Dame from 2015-16.

With the Fighting Irish, Gilmore coached an explosive defensive line that was highlighted by All-American and 2016 NFL Draft selection Sheldon Day. In his first year under Gilmore's tutelage, Day recorded 15.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks as Notre Dame finished 10-3 and played in the Fiesta Bowl. Isaac Rochell also starred on the defensive line at Notre Dame under Gilmore, and was a seventh round NFL draft pick in 2017.

Before coming to Notre Dame, Gilmore spent 2009-14 as defensive line coach at Power 5 programs Illinois (2009-12) and North Carolina (2013-14). He tutored four NFL draft picks at Illinois — Corey Liuget (2011 first round), Whitney Mercilus (2012 first round), Akeem Spence (2013 fourth round) and Mike Buchanan (2013 seventh round) — a program that had not had a defensive lineman drafted in the 14 seasons prior to Gilmore's arrival. Gilmore also coached Kareem Martin at North Carolina (2014 third round).

Gilmore joined Illinois after a two-year stint as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Cincinnati (2007-08), where he helped lead the Bearcats to a 2008 Big East Championship and trip to the 2009 Orange Bowl. In 2008, Cincinnati ranked ninth in the nation in sacks and 19th in rush defense (113.8 yards per game). Gilmore coached Connor Barwin at Cincinnati, who was drafted by the Houston Texans in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

A native of Detroit Mich., Gilmore has also had coaching stops at Central Michigan, Howard, Norfolk State, Eastern Michigan, Wayne State, Grand Valley State, Northern Michigan and Michigan State.

Gilmore was a three-year letter-winner and two-time all-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honoree as a linebacker at Wayne State University, where he graduated in 1981 with a degree in recreation management. Keith and his wife Bridget have five children, daughters Keyontay and Grace, and sons Keith, Kierre and Grant.

GEORGE HELOW

Safeties | 4th Year at CSU | 8th Year Coaching

George Helow is in his fourth year on the football coaching staff at Colorado State in 2019, and his second as the safeties coach.

Helow joined the Rams' staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2016 and served as a defensive quality control coach in 2017.

Helow has held stints at some of the nation's top collegiate programs during his coaching career, including Alabama, Florida State and Georgia. Prior to coming to Colorado State, Helow spent two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia as defensive quality control, including the first season on staff with Coach Bobo. In 2013, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to a national title.

In 2012 Helow earned his first collegiate coaching job under Nick Saban at Alabama. After helping with the school's junior day, Helow was invited to stay on as an intern in the weight room that spring and summer and serve as a defensive intern in the fall. The Crimson Tide defeated Notre Dame in the BCS National Championship game and during the season allowed just 10.9 points per game.

Helow played collegiately at Ole Miss (2006-10) where he earned a degree in marketing. After redshirting in 2006, he saw his first career action against Louisiana Tech in 2007 and went on to play all 38 games for the Rebels from 2008 to 2010, which included back-to-back Cotton Bowls in 2008 and 2009. Helow, who played mostly on special teams, earned a scholarship before his senior season in 2010. Immediately after graduating, he returned to his high school alma mater, Bishop Kennedy in Jacksonville, Fla., where he coached his younger brother, Peter.

ANTHONY PERKINS

Cornerbacks | 1st Year at CSU | 7th Year Coaching

Anthony Perkins as is in his first season as cornerbacks coach at Colorado State in 2019. He brought more seven years of coaching experience upon his hire in February 2019, including spending the last two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In Perkins' two years with the Buccaneers he served as assistant to the head coach, and was responsible for organizing and overseeing day-to-day operations of the players and staff, while also working with defensive backs and assisting defensive backs coaches Jon Hoke and Brett Maxie with player skill and development. He also assisted defensive coordinator Mark Duffner in weekly preparations on defense with game and practice planning.

Prior to his work in the the NFL, Perkins spent two seasons at Ohio University (2015-16) as cornerbacks coach after two seasons as the defensive secondary coach at Indiana State (2013-14). He also gained experience as one of Tampa Bay's Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Interns during the 2016 mini-camp and with the Tennessee Titans in 2015.

Perkins is no stranger to Colorado, having been a four-year starter at the University of Colorado (2007-11). He finished his career with 236 tackles and earned his bachelor's degree in Integrative Physiology (December 2010), with a second major in History in December 2011. Perkins was one of three players as a senior to receive the team's Dean Jacob Van Ek Award for academic excellence. He later served on the Buffaloes' coaching staff as a defensive quality control assistant in 2012. He also spent time on the Denver Broncos' roster during their 2012 training camp and appeared in all four preseason games.

Anthony and his wife Janessa have a daughter, Imani, and a son, Trae.

A graduate of Community Christian High School in Northglenn, Colo., Perkins played prep football at Northglenn High School where he was a PrepStar honorable mention All-American. He also earned All-Colorado from the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News.

NICK JONES

Co-Sp. Teams Coord./TE | 1st Year at CSU | 10th Year Coaching

Nick Jones joined the Rams' coaching staff in February 2019 as co-special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Jones, who spent the 2018 season as tight ends coach at Air Force, brought nine years of collegiate coaching experience to his new position at CSU, including a significant portion of his career leading special teams units that ranked among the best in the country. During his six-year stint at Coastal Carolina, he directed the Chanticleers' significant success on special teams, including a No. 1 FCS ranking in punt coverage in 2015, with just one punt returned for no gain.

A four-year letterman at Georgia (2003-06), Jones, began his coaching career in 2010 at his alma mater, serving two years as an offensive graduate assistant while Mike Bobo was the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator. Jones will oversee the Rams' punt and kickoff units.

Jones was hired at Coastal Carolina in 2012 to coach tight ends and tackles, and oversee the PAT/FG units as well as the punt coverage unit. In 2012, he helped left tackle Chad Hamilton earn second-team all-conference honors while bookend Drew Herring had a breakout season holding down the right tackle spot. In addition, despite limited playing time due to multiple injuries, tight end David Duran was tabbed second-team All-Big South. In 2013 both Hamilton and Herring were named first-team All-Big South while tight end Thomas Pauciello hauled in three touchdown receptions. Hamilton capped his career at Coastal Chicago Bears.

Also in 2014, Coastal Carolina tight ends Pauciello and Craig Weick combined to haul in 22 passes for 288 yards and three scores despite missing considerable playing time because of injury, and senior Cody Craig was voted Academic All-Big South. In 2015, Jones oversaw the most successful special team unit in the nation, with the punt coverage unit ranked No. 1 in the NCAA FCS as opponents only attempted to return one punt for zero yards.

Jones helped Coastal have one of its best seasons rushing the ball in school history during the 2016 campaign as the Chants topped 200 yards in 11 of their 12 games, including three games with at least 300. He guided Voghens Larrieux to All-America honors, playing both left and right tackle, while running back DeAngelo Henderson earned his second All-America honor, was a national offensive Player of the Year finalist for a second time and was drafted by the Denver Broncos.

During his playing career at Georgia, Jones was a second team All-SEC selection at center as a senior and was elected as the permanent co-captain of the 2006 squad, in addition to earning offensive MVP and the Coaches Leadership Award. He also was the 2006 recipient of the Leon Farmer Strength and Conditioning Award and was chosen for the Academic Roundtable for excellence in the classroom and on the field.

A native of Bowdon, Ga., Jones started 32 consecutive games for the Bulldogs and was part of a senior class that compiled a 40-12 four-year record, 3-1 bowl record, played in two SEC championship games and won the 2005 SEC title. Following his senior season he was selected to play in the prestigious Hula Bowl All-Star Game and signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks in 2007. He spent parts of two seasons with the Seahawks, New York Giants and Detroit Lions organizations.

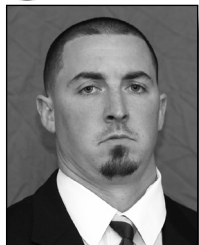

A 2006 graduate in risk management and insurance, Jones was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player as a senior and was recipient of the Leon Farmer Strength and Conditioning Award.

In 2010, his first year assisting the UGA coaching staff with Coach Bobo, Jones was responsible for preparing the defensive scout team, simulating the upcoming opponent's defense and helping Georgia win the Southeastern Conference East Division.

He is married to the former Katie Hammonds. The couple have a son, Deuce.

JOEY GUARASCIO

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach | 2nd Year at CSU | 9th Year Coaching

Joey Guarascio is in his first season as head strength & conditioning coach at CSU in 2019 and second season overall. He was promoted from associate to head strength & conditioning coach in February of 2019.

Guarascio was previously the associate head strength & condition coach at Ole Miss. He helped lead the football team to a pair of New Year's Six bowls during his tenure, including the 2014 Peach Bowl and the 2016 Sugar Bowl. He was also in charge of the Rebels' pro day and NFL combine preparation programs.

Prior to his stint at Ole Miss, Guarascio was the director of strength & conditioning at Northwestern State. He oversaw all 17 varsity sports and specifically handled football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball.

Guarascio began his career as a graduate assistant at NSU and then was an intern at both Florida Atlantic and LSU.

He is a Level 1 Sports Performance Coach for USA Weightlifting and is a certified the National Strength Coaches Association as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) with the distinction of Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC).

He graduated from Sioux Falls with an exercise science degree and from Northwestern State University with a master's degree in Human Health Performance with an emphasis in sports management.

TOM EHLERS

Director of Football Operations | 35th Year at CSU | 39th Year Coaching

One of Colorado State's most passionate individuals, Tom Ehlers is in his 35th overall season in the Rams athletic department in 2019, and his 39th year in college athletics. After a long career as a Rams student-athlete and assistant football coach, Ehlers took on a new role prior to the 2005 season, assuming supervision over the football program's logistics.

Originally a competitor on the gridiron as a four-year starter on the Rams' offensive and defensive lines, he began a new career after his playing career, channeling his gregarious enthusiasm into the coaching profession. And now, including his chapter as director of operations, his tenure as a member of the football staff is the longest by an assistant in school history.

During his coaching career, he tutored 12 all-conference performers, including Bryan Save (2003), Peter Hogan (2001, '02), Clark Haggans (1999), Joey Porter (1998), Adrian Ross (1997), Brady Smith (1994, '95), Sean Moran (1994, '95), Steve Norton (1993), and Steve Hodge (1993).

Six of the players he formerly coached ranked in the top 10 in quarterback sacks, including Haggans (first), Smith (second), Porter (fourth), Hodge (tie, seventh), Ross (tie, seventh), and Moran (ninth).

In 2003, defensive tackles Bryan Save, Lavell Mann and Chris Kiffin all ranked among the conference leaders in quarterback sacks. In 2002, Peter Hogan was a first-team all-conference selection.

Porter, a former NFL star, was a first-team all-conference performer in 1998 and played in two postseason all-star games before finishing his career with the Arizona Cardinals in 2012. In 2013 Porter began a coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at CSU, and in 2014 was hired by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Porter earned All-Pro honors and won a Super Bowl in 2005 as a member of the Steelers, and also played for the Miami Dolphins.

Ross was a two-time first-team all-conference selection in 1996 and '97 and played in the Hula Bowl following his senior season. He later played six years in the NFL as a member of the Cincinnati Bengals. Smith and Moran each earned first-team honors in 1994 and '95. Smith was the conference's defensive player of the year in 1995. Both played extensively in the NFL. Haggans initially played for the Pittsburgh Steelers, and was a member of the team's Super Bowl championship team before signing with Arizona, which went to the Super Bowl in his first season there, and then San Francisco, with whom he went to another Super Bowl in 2012.

Ehlers also was responsible for recruiting Gartrell Johnson, who finished his CSU career with the second-most prolific rushing season in program annals. Ehlers formerly served as a defensive line coach at Oregon State (1985-86) as a graduate assistant for the Beavers. In 1987, he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line at the University of Arizona.

As a player at CSU (1980-84), Ehlers was a four-year starter and letterwinner. He played offensive line and defensive line and was a WAC Scholar-Athlete Award Winner in 1984. On three occasions, he earned Academic All-WAC honors.

Born July 10, 1962 in Riverside, Calif., Tom has three children – Annie, Christine and Timothy – each of whom is a student at Colorado State. Ehlers graduated from CSU in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration, before earning an MBA from Oregon State ('86).

ANTHONEY HILL

Director of Player Development & Community/Alumni Relations

10th Year at CSU | 24th Year Coaching

Anthony Hill returned to his alma mater in the newly-created role of director of player development and community/alumni relations in March 2015. The creation of Hill's position added an important component to the overall student-athlete experience for the CSU football program, and built upon the top-notch coaching staff assembled by Bobo at CSU.

Hill previously served as an assistant football coach at CSU from 2008-11, and was a student assistant for the Rams in 1998. He returned to Fort Collins after spending the 2014 season as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at McPherson (Kan.) College and one season as assistant offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Colorado Ice professional indoor football team.

Hill, a 1999 graduate of CSU with a degree in exercise and sports science, returned to his alma mater for the second time in 2008 as running backs coach on Steve Fairchild's first staff. He served in that role for three years before moving to tight ends coach in 2011.

Prior to joining the Rams' coaching staff in 2008, he spent the previous 12 seasons coaching football at either the high school or college level. He came to Fort Collins after serving in 2007 as head coach at San Diego High School, where his top assistant, former Rams teammate Paul Turner, succeeded him at the helm.

Hill concluded his CSU playing career in 1994 as one of the most exciting players in program history. He played professionally in 1995 as a reserve quarterback for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League before returning home and serving as an assistant coach from 1996-97 at University City (Calif.) High School, where he starred in the late 1980s. At UCHS, he tutored the young field generals who followed in his footsteps and in each of his two years, one of his pupils earned all-league honors. In addition to football, Hill for two seasons was an assistant on both the boys' basketball team and the girls' track & field squad.

He made his first return to Fort Collins in 1998 to work with CSU's wide receivers as a student assistant coach and peer mentor while finishing his degree. From 1996 to 2000 — before and after his 1998 return to CSU — Hill served on the faculty of UCHS as a teacher's aide and instructional aide. He worked one semester with special-education students, and two semesters with at-risk students. In the latter role, he spearheaded a mentoring and tutoring program for students in danger of dropping out, and saw the program enjoy great results.

Hill then spent two seasons (2003-04) as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, Calif., before coming back to La Jolla (Calif.) High School to serve as the Vikings' offensive coordinator for two more seasons (2005-06), prior to accepting the head coaching position at San Diego High School.

As a senior in 1994 at CSU, where his position coach was Fairchild and the wide receivers coach was Urban Meyer, Hill led the Rams to a storybook 10-2 season. The quarterback guided CSU to a berth opposite Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today/CNN coaches' poll and a No. 16 slot in the season-ending Associated Press rankings.

That season, the Rams were in the nation's Top 10 in five straight polls entering the Holiday Bowl. Hill guided an opportunistic offense to a 21-16 win at No. 4/6 Arizona (Oct. 8), throwing two touchdown passes against the Wildcats' vaunted "Desert Swarm" defense, as well as wins over two other ranked opponents, No. 18/10 BYU and No. 23/23 Wyoming — each on the road. All told in 1994, he completed 154 of 290 passes (53.1 percent) for 2,552 yards and 16 touchdowns, while rushing for 163 yards on 93 attempts, with five scores, and earned second-team all-conference honors.

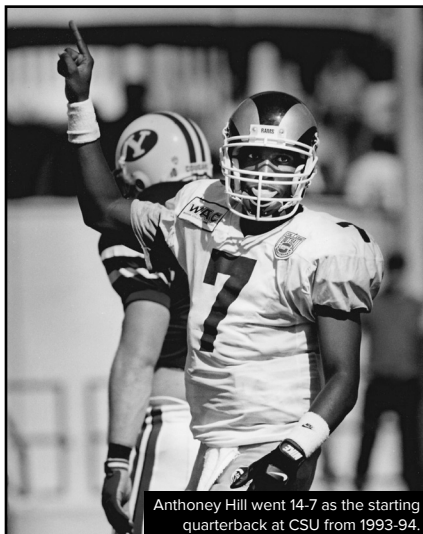

A three-year starter (1992-94), Hill left CSU as the school's career total offense leader (7,428 yards), surpassing Kelly Stouffer (6,666). His mark now ranks third after Bradlee Van Pelt (8,579) broke it in 2003 and Garrett Grayson (9,478) topped Van Pelt's mark in 2014. Hill also ranks tied for fifth with 39 career touchdown passes, and sixth in career passing yards (6,309). He was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

A 1990 graduate of San Diego's University City High School, Hill garnered second-team all-city and second-team all-conference recognition, passing for 1,903 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior in 1989. In addition to football, he lettered in basketball and track & field.

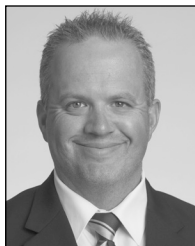

Born Dec. 24, 1971, in San Diego, Anthony and his wife Kesha make their home in Fort Collins. He also has three children, Bakir, Kiara and Deja. Hill earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from CSU.

BEN LARSON

Special Teams Analyst | 3rd Year at CSU

Ben Larson enters his third season with the Colorado State football program as the special teams analyst. Larson owns 12 years of experience, largely with special teams units at the Division I level.

Most recently, Larson was on the football staff at the University of Tennessee at Martin as a defensive line coach and the special teams coordinator, a position he began in February 2017.

Larson previously worked with the special teams unit at Texas under head coaches Mack Brown and Charlie Strong from 2013-17. Larson also helped with running backs (2014), the secondary (2014-15) and linebackers (2016) while with the Longhorns.

While with the Longhorns, Larson had a punter (Michael Dickson, 2016) become a finalist for the Ray Guy Award and a kicker (Anthony Fera, 2013) named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award.

The Susquehanna University graduate (2005) also worked with special teams at Tennessee (2010-12) and also worked on the strength and conditioning staff with the Volunteers (2012-13).

Larson began his coaching career at Northwestern State in 2006-07, working as a volunteer running backs coach. He then went to Louisiana Tech as a graduate assistant, working with both the offense and special teams units from 2007-10.

Larson played on both the offensive and defensive lines at Susquehanna from 2001-05.

Larson and his wife Lindsay have one daughter, Collins. He earned his bachelor's degree from Susquehanna University in May of 2005.

BEN ROBERTSON

Defensive Quality Control | 4th Year at CSU

Ben Robertson is entering his fourth season as a member of the Colorado State football staff in 2019, and his second as in the role of defensive quality control.

Robertson joined the CSU staff in July of 2016 as an intern, and worked in special services and on the defensive side of the ball through 2017. He was hired as a defensive quality control coach in 2018.

A 2010 CSU graduate, Robertson worked in real estate from 2010-16. He married his wife Jenna in July of 2017 and they have two dogs.

FATON BAUTA

Offensive Quality Control | 1st Year at CSU

The former Colorado State player returns to Fort Collins in 2019 as a quality control coach for the offensive staff.

He spent last season at Monmouth University in the same role. He helped the Hawks' offense average 36.5 points and 458.7 yards per game in going 8-3.

Bauta played quarterback for three seasons at Georgia, most of the time under the guidance of Mike Bobo, then the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator. He came to Colorado State in 2016 as a graduate transfer. He played in nine games for the Rams, completing 12 of 29 passes with 1 TD, but played a big role in teaching the offense to Nick Stevens and Collin Hill. Stevens developed into the first-team All-Mountain West quarterback in 2017, while Hill started the final four games of 2018.

BRADLEY BROWN

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Brown joins the Colorado State football staff as a defensive graduate assistant for the 2019 season.

Brown spent the two seasons prior as a defensive analyst under Georgia coach Kirby Smart (2017-1), breaking down film of practice and opponents to help game plan for the week. He organized practice scripts, drew out scout-team cards and helped run the offensive scout team.

He also assisted the defensive backs coach, helped with recruiting as the Bulldogs won an SEC title and made a National Championship appearance in his time there.

ZAC JANCEK

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Zac Jancek joins the staff after spending the past four years on the Tennessee football roster as a quarterback after being a 4A All-State player at Knoxville Catholic High School.

He will work to assist the staff of his father, John, the Colorado State defensive coordinator.

Born on Dec. 27, 1996, he is one of four sons of John and Kelly Jancek. This is Zac's first stint in the coaching ranks.

JORDAN JEFFERSON

Defensive Graduate Assistant | 1st Year at CSU

Jordan Jefferson joins the staff as defensive graduate assistant in his first step into college coaching.

He played quarterback collegiately at LHS, starting 32 of the 39 games he played, finishing with 4,733 passing yards and 34 TDs, adding 1,018 on the ground with 12 TDs. He played in two games as a true freshman, winning offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Chick-Fil-A Bowl, and in 2009, became the youngest starting quarterback at LSU since Y.A. Title in 1945. He played one season in the Arena Football League with the Pittsburgh Power.

FRED ZERBLIS

Offensive Graduate Assistant | 2nd Year at CSU

Fred Zerblis is entering his second season as an offensive graduate assistant at Colorado State in 2018.

Zerblis was thrice named All-Mountain West, including first-team honors as a senior in 2016. He also helped lead the Rams to bowl appearances in all four seasons he played.

Overall, Zerblis appeared in 42 games, primarily at guard with some appearances at center, as well.

Zerblis graduated from CSU with a bachelor's degree in communication studies in December of 2016.

A native of Grayson, Ga., Zerblis was a standout lineman at Grayson High School. He received all-state and all-county awards as a junior and senior. While Zerblis was at center, Grayson HS ranked No. 4 in the final USA Today Super 25 in 2011.

Zerblis' cousin, Chris Gardocki, was an All-Pro punter who spent 16 years in the NFL with the Bears, Browns, Colts and Steelers, where he won a Super Bowl ring.

CARL MILLER

Associate Head Strength & Conditioning Coach | 1st Year at CSU

Carl Miller joined the CSU staff in February 2019 as associate head football strength and conditioning coach. He came to the Rams' program from Mercer University, where he had spent the previous six years, including his final year as director of strength and conditioning.

Over the course of his six years at Mercer, Miller's responsibilities included overseeing strength and conditioning for the football, baseball, softball, men's lacrosse & women's lacrosse and men's and women's tennis programs. He was promoted to the head of the department in August 2018 after five years as an assistant director, and had been put in charge of the football program in January 2017.

In Miller's time at Mercer he also was in charge of the three-time conference champion baseball program that included 2016 Golden Spikes Award winner Kyle Lewis, who was drafted 11th overall that year by the Seattle Mariners.

Prior to assuming the full-time assistant role in 2014, Miller was an intern for Mercer's strength & conditioning department for one year.

Miller previously was an intern strength & conditioning coach at Wayne State University (2012), Eastern Michigan University (2011-12) and Chelsea High School.

Certified by both USA Weightlifting and the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Miller received his bachelor of science degree in exercise science from Eastern Michigan. He and his wife Yukari were married May 10, 2016.

SHELTON GAFFNEY

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach | 1st Year at CSU

Shelton Gaffney joined the CSU staff in February 2019 as assistant football strength and conditioning coach. He joined the Rams after spending the previous two years at High Point, where he worked with women's lacrosse, baseball, men's soccer, men's and women's track and field, men's lacrosse and men's basketball as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Gaffney's previous intercollegiate experience includes two years with the Temple football program (2013-14) and three years with the Tennessee football program (2008-10).

In Gaffney's experience at High Point, his work included helping the women's lacrosse team to back-to-back Big South championships as well as back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances and a top-20 finish. In addition the baseball program competed in the Big South tournament championship game and men's soccer won back-to-back Big South regular season championships and made an NCAA tournament appearance.

Between his posts at Tennessee and Temple, Gaffney spent two years as a strength and conditioning coach at Johnny Long's Training Academy in Knoxville, Tenn., where he oversaw the development of football athletes and trained high school athletes and current professional athletes in various sports.

Gaffney started in the strength and conditioning profession in the spring of 2007 while at his alma mater, Western Carolina. He served as an apprentice in the weight room before serving an internship at Tennessee in the summer of 2007.

Gaffney was a four-year letterman linebacker at Western Carolina. He was a key contributor to the Cata-mounts' defense and special teams, and served as a team captain his senior year. Gaffney earned a bachelor's degree in sport management with an emphasis in exercise science in 2007.

ELIJAH BLACKMAN

Strength & Conditioning Assistant Coach | 1st Year at CSU

Elijah Blackman joined the CSU staff in March 2019 as assistant football strength and conditioning coach. Prior to coming to the Rams' program, he was a graduate assistant at Arkansas for a year from 2018-19.

During his time at Arkansas, Blackman was responsible for overseeing men's and women's tennis, baseball, and women's basketball. Prior to his time spent with the razorbacks he also interned with South Carolina for a year where he was responsible in overseeing baseball, men's and women's basketball, as well as track & field in 2017.

Blackman is a Tampa, Fla. native where he attended Saint Leo University from 2013-17 and played all four years of college basketball. He was awarded NABC Honors Court his junior and senior season for excelling on the court as well as in the classroom. Blackmon received his bachelor's degree in sports business in the spring of 2017.

ZACH HIGGINBOTHAM

Strength & Conditioning Assistant Coach | 1st Year at CSU

Zach Higginbotham joined the CSU staff in May 2019 as assistant football strength and conditioning coach. He comes to the Rams' program from the University of Louisiana Monroe, where he was assistant director of strength and conditioning.

Prior to his career at ULM, Higginbotham was an assistant football strength and conditioning coach at Nevada for the 2018 season. He directed all return-to-play for injured athletes in rehabilitation and also oversaw all developmental work for underclassman.

Before coaching at Nevada, Higginbotham was a strength and conditioning intern and helped implement sports science with the Ohio State football program from 2016-17. He worked primarily with safeties and cornerbacks under Greg Schiano and was a part of winning the Big-10 conference championship that season.

Higginbotham received his bachelor's degree in exercise science along with a minor in psychology from Marshall University in 2017. As a linebacker on Marshall's football team he won a division title and won multiple bowl games from 2013-16. While playing at Marshall, Higginbotham interned for Marshall's strength and conditioning program during his last two years of eligibility.

DAVID STENKLYFT

Director of Player Personnel | 2nd Year at CSU

David Stenklyft enters his second season as Colorado State's director of player personnel in 2018. He spent the previous two years as the director of recruiting and football operations at North Texas. While with the Mean Green football program, Stenklyft managed the recruiting department and implemented new prospect evaluation processes. North Texas won the Conference USA West Division in 2017 and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

As a Ram, Stenklyft will be returning to the Mountain West. He spent more than four years working at Fresno State, serving as the outside linebackers coach and defensive graduate assistant (2012-15) and director of on-campus recruiting and player personnel (2015-2016). The Bulldogs won MW titles in 2012 and 2013 and were West Division champions in 2014 with Stenklyft on staff.

Prior to his time at Fresno State, Stenklyft was an assistant outside linebackers coach and defensive quality control at Texas A&M (2010-12). The Aggies were Big XII South champions in 2010.

Stenklyft began his career at Alabama, where he worked in recruiting and operations with the Crimson Tide in 2010. Alabama had the unanimous No. 1-ranked recruiting class in the nation that year.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport and fitness administration and management from Texas A&M in 2010, and his master's degree from Fresno State in 2014.

JESSICA JEFFERSON

Director of Recruiting | 1st Year at CSU

Jessica Jefferson is in her first year as director of recruiting for Colorado State Football in 2019. Hired in April 2019, she has experience working with both collegiate and professional football organizations, most recently serving as director of recruiting operations for the Arkansas Razorbacks' football program.

In her role with the Rams, Jefferson is responsible for handling all visits by prospective student-athletes—official and unofficial—and organizing the coaching staff's communication with recruits.

Jefferson spent the 2018 season at Arkansas where she was responsible for all logistics associated with official and unofficial visits by prospective student-athletes and their guests, and directing and organizing all game-day recruiting efforts.

Prior to her one-year stint at Arkansas, Jefferson served one year at Baylor as executive assistant to head football coach Matt Rhule. Her previous football experience included two seasonal assistant roles in the NFL—with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during the 2016 offseason and with the New York Jets during the 2015 season.

A 2015 graduate of Clemson University, Jefferson served as a student assistant in digital media recruiting and as an administrative recruiting assistant during her undergraduate years. She also interned with the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in the communications department. Jefferson received her bachelor's degree in history and communication studies from Clemson.

MARCIE JOHNSTON

Director of Football Administration | 22nd Year at CSU

Marcie Johnston is a familiar face around the Colorado State department of athletics, as she has served in various roles on campus for 22 years. She began her tenure with CSU athletics in 1997 as an administrative assistant in the athletic director's office. In December 1999 she joined CSU football and has worked with four CSU head coaches (Sonny Lubick, Steve Fairchild, Jim McElwain and Mike Bobo). She was promoted to director of football administration in 2018 when she rejoined Coach Bobo's staff after serving as the director of operations for CSU women's basketball from 2016-18.

Prior to her position with CSU women's basketball, Johnston served as a sport coordinator from July 2012 through March 2015, providing support for the Rams' women's basketball, women's soccer, track and field, cross country and women's tennis programs. In that role, she coordinated various services for each coaching staff, while arranging events and travel for the six staffs and for prospective student-athletes.

Johnston manages the program's budget, oversees the recruiting and personnel departments, assists with day-to-day football operations, including team travel, game management, bowl game coordination and summer camps. In addition, she assists in booster group and community engagement events, including the Ladies Huddle hosted by Bobo and his entire staff. She also oversees all administrative operations for Bobo.

A native of Boulder, Colo., Johnston graduated from Boulder High School and received her bachelor's degree from Colorado State University. Johnston and her husband Kevin have two children, Kaylee (15) and Brendan (13).

JOHNNY SQUARE

Team Advisor | Third Decade at CSU

Johnny Square has been mentoring CSU student-athletes for three decades.

A student-athlete attending Colorado State receives an education from one of the nation's premier institutions of higher learning, but the education a student-athlete receives at CSU extends far beyond the classroom and the football field. Rams' head football coach Mike Bobo and his staff painstakingly work individually and collectively with student-athletes to provide cultural, social and economic guidance as part of their overall educational experience.

Square, a former football player at CSU who lettered four years from 1972-75 and played alongside former athletics director Mark Driscoll, provides valuable leadership and guidance to various student-athletes in the Rams' program.

Square has the unique perspective of having competed at the collegiate level, and faced many of the same personal challenges present in the lives of student-athletes in today's world. He provides that guidance individually and to various groups in the Rams' program as part of the educational experience available at CSU.

He also adds another unique perspective: Not only did he compete as a collegian and later play in the NFL, Johnny and his wife, Vicki, are the parents of two former CSU student-athletes. Justine was a women's basketball player for the Rams, while Alex was a running back on CSU's football team from 2005-09.

In 1989, Square founded Iasis Christ Fellowship, launching the church in 1994 with a heart for serving the Fort Collins community. Also a leader in the city, Square has helped organize a Pastor's Prayer Fellowship, which has been meeting monthly for nearly 20 years. He also serves as a chaplain with the Fort Collins Police Department.

Johnny and Vicki have lived in the Fort Collins community for more than a quarter century.

JIMMY STEWART

Mental Health Services | 6th Year at CSU

Jimmy Stewart was hired in 2014 to make his 15-plus years of experience in the mental health and wellness field available to CSU's student-athletes and staff. He is a National Certified Counselor (NCC), Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist (LMFT) in Louisiana, North Carolina and Colorado.

Prior to working at CSU, Stewart spent the previous decade in private practice and as an athletic consultant for a number of universities, including Tulane, where he provided support for student-athletes impacted by Hurricane Katrina. He also worked in counseling centers at UNC Asheville and Loyola University, and has worked on military bases as a consultant to military personnel through the Department of Defense.

Stewart was a football student-athlete at Tulsa (1974-76). He was named second-team All-America by the Associated Press and was the 1976 Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. His Tulsa teammates included former Tulsa head coach Bill Blankenship, Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Lovie Smith, Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Largent and current Tulane athletics director Rick Dickson. Stewart completed his bachelor's degree in marketing at the University of New Orleans, and in 1999 completed his Master of Education Counseling from New Orleans.

Stewart was drafted in the eighth round by New Orleans in 1977 and played two seasons there before playing for Detroit and New England. He worked in New Orleans for 20 years in the oil industry as a marketing professional for a publicly held company. Jimmy and his wife Melissa reside in Fort Collins with their son Sam. His daughter, Kati Hill, her husband Brian and son Jackson reside in New Orleans.

Medical Support Staff

The medical support staff at Colorado State University is second to none. The experienced staff that works with CSU student-athletes is charged with evaluating, diagnosing, treating and rehabilitating athletes in each of the Rams' 16 varsity programs. Along with the CSU athletics training staff, CSU's medical team enjoys state-of-the-art facilities and equipment that give Rams athletes the ability to be successful.

Career Highs:

Tackles: 5 - vs. Wyoming, 10/26/18

Sacks: 1.0 - at Florida, 9/15/18

FF: 1 - vs. Colorado, 8/31/18

PBU: 3 - vs. Illinois State, 9/22/18

2018 (Freshman): Started all 12 games and made 33 tackles (21 solo), including 2.0 TFL and 1.0 sack, to go with one interception, a team-high two forced fumbles and a team-high 6 pass breakups ... first CSU true freshman to start every game in his first year on campus since WR Rashard Higgins in 2013 ... along with DT Devin Phillips, who started first 10 games, comprised first CSU true freshman duo to start at least nine games since 2010 (QB Pete Thomas, 12; CB Shaq Bell, 9).

- Made 2 tackles (1 solo) in season opener against Hawai'i (Aug. 25), his first collegiate game.
- Forced a fumble with 52 seconds remaining in the first half vs. Colorado (Aug. 31), recovered by DE Arjay Jean.
- Following the fumble, the Rams were able to move the ball 31 yards in 6 plays to set up a 51-yard field goal by K Wyatt Bryan to end the first half.

2018 Highlights

- The Colorado State Rams finished the season 3-9 (2-6 MW), snapping a string of five consecutive trips to bowl games, three under coach Mike Bobo.
- The Rams had three players earn All-Mountain West honors, as P Ryan Stonehouse and WR Preston Williams were both named to the first team, LB Josh Watson a second-team selection.
- CSU's season captains, voted on by their peers, were FB Adam Prentice, QB Collin Hill, S Jordan Fogal and LB Josh Watson.
- The season started on a somber note as head coach Mike Bobo was diagnosed with peripheral neuropathy, leaving the team in fall camp on Aug. 11 for a 10-day stay in the hospital for treatment. He returned to the team the week of the season opener with Hawaii. He did resume play-calling duties until the midpoint of the season.
- In dropping the season opener to Hawai'i, graduate transfer QB K.J. Carta-Samuels threw for a single-game school record 537 yards in a comeback which fell short, 43-34. Carta-Samuels completed 34 of 50 passes, connecting on five touchdown passes.
- By the end of the season, Colorado State set school record with 502 pass attempts and 303 completions, surpassing the marks set in 2013 of 480 and 298. In 2013, QB Garrett Grayson accounted for all but one pass attempt and one completion; in 2018, both Carta-Samuels (298) and Hill (202) threw more than 200 passes, with Carta-Samuels starting eight of the 12 games, Hill the final four.
- Stonehouse was second in the nation with his punting average of 48.3, leading the Mountain West. It broke the CSU single-season record, with his career average of 47.3 standing as the school's career record.
- Sporting News* named Stonehouse a second-team All-American, his first such honor in his career.
- Williams posted one of the finest single years in school history, finishing with 96 catches for 1,345 yards and 14 TDs. The touchdown catches ranked tied for third nationally, he ranked fourth in catches per game (8.0) and in receiving yards.
-He was named second-team All-American by Sporting News, third team by Phil Steele.
- In his four seasons as coach, Bobo's passing offense has ranked in the top six in school history in passing touchdowns. The 2018 team ranks fourth with 26; his 2017 and 2016 teams are tied for second at 29; the 2015 team tied for sixth with 24.
- The 108 passing touchdowns from 2015-18 are the most in any four-year stretch in school history.
- All four of Bobo's offenses have ranked in the top 10 in school history in total offense. The 2018 squad took the final spot in the top 10 at 410.5 yards per game. The 2017 offense ranks first at 492.5, the 462.5 in 2016 ranks fourth and the 425.8 in 2015 sits seventh.

-Over his four years, Bobo's offenses average 448.5 yards per game, the best four-year stretch under the same coach in school history. The previous best was 417.0 under Sonny Lubick from 1994-97.

- For the second consecutive season, LB Josh Watson led the team in tackles, posting 131, leading the team with 8.5 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries. His tackles were the most in a season by a Ram since Max Morgan had 134 in 2013.
-Watson finished with 367 tackles in his career to rank sixth in school history.
- True freshman CB Rashad Ajayi became the first CSU player since Rashard Higgins in 2013 to start every game. He led the team with six pass breakups, posting 33 tackles, including a sack. He turned his first career interception into a pick-six with his game-changing 55-yard return in a win over San Jose State.
- True freshman DT Devin Phillips was on the same trajectory as Ajayi until an injury sidelined him the final two weeks of the season. He started the first 10 games, posting 26 tackles, three for loss, including 1.5 sacks.
- Four other true freshmen -- TE Trey McBride (5), LB Cam'ron Carter (1), S Quinn Brinnon, DB Tywan Francis (1) -- started games, making for 30 starts for their class in 2018.
- In a statistical oddity, the majority of Colorado State's touchdown drives offensively covered 70-79 yards (12 of 31 total), but so were those of the opponents (15 of 48).
-The Rams scored on just four-game opening drives, generating three TDs and one FG; they scored on two opening drives in the second half, one TD and one FG.

- The Rams recorded their first win against an SEC team in Fort Collins with a 34-27 victory over Arkansas... It was the Rams' second win all-time against an SEC team, paired with the program's 17-14 win at LSU on Sept. 26, 1992.
- Arkansas maintained an early lead and was on top 13-9 halftime. The Razorbacks scored touchdowns on their first two possessions of the second half to extend the lead to 27-9 with 7:28 remaining in the third quarter. The Rams rallied to score 25 unanswered points, including 17 in the fourth quarter, to win 34-27.
- Following the win, CSU is 1-3-0 (.250) all time against Arkansas.
- This marks the Rams' third win against a current SEC team in the university's history.
- Tonight's attendance of 31,894 makes this game the sixth out of the eight played at Canvas Stadium to have exceeded 31,000 fans... Today's attendance was the fifth-highest at Canvas Stadium.
- K Wyatt Bryan scored 14 points for the Rams (four field goals and two extra points)... Bryan now has 300 career points, making him CSU's all-time scoring leader, passing RB Steve Bartalo (294; 1983-86)... He went 4-for-4 on field goals, including a 55-yard field goal to put the Rams on the board, a 44-yard field goal to close out the first half, and a 22-yard field goal to tie the score at 27-27 with 5:19 left in the fourth quarter... He has made five consecutive field goals of 50 yards or more dating back to his sophomore season. He is five-of-six for his career... Bryan made a career-long 55-yard field goal early in the 1st quarter to put the Rams up 3-0. The kick tied for the fifth-longest in school history and was the longest field goal made by a CSU kicker since Peter Rantzaus's 55-yard make on Oct. 17, 1992 at Air Force.
- QB K.J. Carta-Samuels completed 32-of-47 passes for 389 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception, and completed a pass for a 2-point conversion... He started the game 10-20 for 98 passing yards, with one interception, in the first half... He was 22-27 for 291 yards and two touchdowns in the second half... Starting late in the third quarter, Carta-Samuels completed 14 consecutive passes and finished the game completing 17 of his final 19 attempts... has now thrown for 1,102 yards and nine touchdowns in the first three games.

- The Florida Gators communications staff announced the temperature of 96 degrees at kickoff tied the record for hottest game played in The Swamp (9/11/10 vs. USF)... It was the third-hottest game the Rams have ever played... 9/16/2000 at Arizona State – 103 degrees... 9/7/2013 at Tulsa – 98 degrees... 9/15/2018 at Florida – 96 degrees
- CSU held Florida to just 27 total yards in the first quarter (13 total plays, 2.1 yds/play). This came after the Rams held Arkansas to just 16 yards in the fourth quarter on Sept. 8, meaning over two consecutive quarters of play versus SEC teams, CSU surrendered just 37 total yards.
- The Rams scored on consecutive possessions... CSU ended the first half with a 53-yard field goal from Wyatt Bryan, then began the second half with a 7-play, 75-yard drive over 3:33 that resulted in a 48-yard TD pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels to Trey McBride.
- This is the first time the Rams have played two teams from the Southeastern Conference in the same season, let alone in back-to-back weeks. CSU beat Arkansas last week in Fort Collins, 34-27.
- CSU outgained Florida 240-119 through the air, but the Gators had a significant edge on the ground (222-70).
- CSU had finished with a time of possession of 38:33 (compared to Florida's 21:27), earned more first downs (22-14) and ran 83 plays to Florida's 44. Florida owned an advantage in yards-per-play at 7.8 to 3.7.
- Colorado State's three turnovers led directly to 13 points (2 FGs, 1 TD) and two punting miscues produced 14 more Florida points (blocked punt recovered for TD; punt returned for a TD), accounting for 27 of Florida's 48 points
- Today's attendance of 80,021 was seventh-highest for a game in CSU's program history.
- QB K.J. Carta-Samuels completed 21-of-33 passes for 217 yards and a touchdown... Tossed a 48-yard TD to freshman tight end Trey McBride in the team's opening drive of the second half... Completed 8 of his first 10 passes, including 3 connections with WR Preston Williams.
- RB Marvin Kinsey Jr. led the Rams with 79 rushing yards on 15 carries (5.3 avg)... The rushing total was his most since rushing for 127 against New Mexico on Nov. 19, 2016 as a true freshman.

- Colorado State is now 9-2 against FCS opponents since 2006
- This was CSU's first loss in the annual Ag Day game since 2010.
- The Rams' defense held the Redbirds to just 4-of-14 on third-down conversion attempts, but Illinois State was able to extend drives by going 2-3 on fourth down.
- WR Olabisi Johnson... Had 7 receptions for 107 yards and one touchdown... Tied his career high for receptions with seven (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl vs. Idaho on Dec. 22, 2016)... He has eclipsed the 100-yard barrier in two of the Rams' five games this season and now has four 100-yard receiving games in his career.
- WR Nikko Hall... Recorded his first career touchdown on a 17-yard pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels with 4 minutes remaining in the third quarter.... Finished the game with 3 receptions for 33 yards.
- S Jamal Hicks... Led the Rams in tackles with 10 (7 solo, 3 assists)... Also recorded a tackle for loss, a forced fumble, and a pass breakup... Had solo tackles on two third-down stops.
- QB K.J. Carta-Samuels... Completed 15-of-27 passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns.... Tossed a 9-yard TD to senior wide receiver Olabisi Johnson with 2:21 remaining in the first quarter... Completed a 17-yard TD pass to freshman wide receiver Nikko Hall with 4:00 remaining in the third quarter... Has thrown multiple TD passes in a game three times this season and now has 11 for the season.
- QB Collin Hill... Completed 15-of-27 passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns... Tossed a 9-yard TD to senior wide receiver Olabisi Johnson with 2:21 remaining in the first quarter... Completed a 17-yard TD pass to freshman wide receiver Nikko Hall with 4:00 remaining in the third quarter... Has thrown multiple TD passes in a game three times this season and now has 11 for the season.
- RB Izzy Matthews led the Rams with a season-high 75 rushing yards on 14 carries (5.1 avg, 13 yd long)... It was his highest rushing total since a 116-yard effort at New Mexico on Oct. 20, 2017.
- RB Marvin Kinsey Jr. had 51 yards rushing on nine attempts and added 63 receiving yards on four catches... Recorded his first touchdown of the season with a 14-yard reception from QB Collin Hill with 1:36 to go in the game.

0:28	SJSU	T. Cottrell 1-yard pass from J. Love (B. Crawford kick)
0:23	SJSU	B. Roberts 2-yard safety

Fourth Quarter

- Colorado State drove the ball 77 yards on just six plays on its opening possession, culminating in a 5-yard TD pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels to Preston Williams to give the Rams a 7-0 lead... Marked the first time this season CSU has jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its opponent.
- CSU held SJSU scoreless on its opening drive. CSU's opponents have been scoreless on their opening drives in each of the last four contests.
- The Rams took a 14-0 lead with 3:04 remaining in the first quarter. That was the first time this season that the Rams had held a double-digit point lead on their opponent.
- CSU forced SJSU to punt on each of its first five receptions of the game. It's the first time CSU has forced its opponent to punt on its first five possessions since Oct 7, 2017 at Utah State (Rams won 27-14).
- CSU rushed for a season-high 219 yards in the game... This included 169 yards in the first half, which eclipsed CSU's previous season-high total for a game (134 vs. Illinois State). CSU outrushed SJSU 169 to -6 in the first half... The last time CSU rushed for 200+ yards was also against SJSU, last season. The Rams ran for 301 yards against the Spartans on 11/18/17.
- SJSU scored 30 unanswered points, all in the third quarter, to take a 30-28 lead going into the final frame.
- In their first drive of the 4th quarter, the Rams put together an 11-play, 83-yard scoring drive to reclaim the lead at 35-30. RB Izzy Matthews capped the drive with a 1-yard TD rush on the Rams' third attempt from the 1-yard line.
- CSU had a season-high 6 sacks... It's the most sacks the Rams have tallied since registering 7 sacks at Utah State last year (10/7/17).
- Junior DE Jan-Philip Bombek sacked SJSU's Josh Love on consecutive plays in the Spartans' first possession of the 4th quarter. CSU had just reclaimed the lead (35-30), then Bombek had sacks on first and second down. On 3rd-and-15, Rashad Ajayi intercepted Love and returned it 55 yards for a TD to give the Rams a 42-30 lead.
- The Rams outgained the Spartans 391-285 for the game... This included a 275-80 edge for the Rams in the first half... SJSU outgained CSU 185-25 in the third quarter... After scoring 30 unanswered points to take the lead in the third quarter, SJSU gained only 20 total yards in the fourth quarter (average of 1 yard per play).

- Colorado State is now 50-44-1 all-time in its Homecoming games.
- CSU has won nine consecutive contests against New Mexico -- its longest active streak against any active program... The Rams also are 4-0 in Homecoming games against the Lobos.
- Today's attendance of 36,514 marks the first sellout of the season and third sellout in two seasons (10 games) of play in Canvas Stadium. The crowd was also the fifth-largest attendance in school history
- Today's win was CSU's first by way of a game-winning field goal as time expired since Jared Roberts nailed a 46-yarder against Utah State on Homecoming 2014 (Oct. 18) for a 16-13 win. The most recent instance prior to that was Roberts' 41-yard game-winner as time expired in the 2013 Gildan New Mexico Bowl (Dec. 21), a 48-45 win.
- The last time CSU won a game on a walk-off field goal attempted when trailing came Sept. 25, 2010. Ben DeLine drilled a 35-yard field goal to erase a 34-33 Idaho lead on Ag Day at Hughes Stadium, and secure a 36-34 win for the Rams.
- This was the Rams' first win when scoring 20 or fewer points since that same contest against Utah State.
- The Rams took a 7-0 lead just 1:10 into the game on a five-yard TD pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels to Preston Williams... The score came after Caleb Smith forced New Mexico's Tyrone Owens to fumble and the ball was recovered by Tre Thomas at the New Mexico 12-yard line... The TD drive was 2 plays for 12 yards -- the shortest TD drive of the year for the Rams... CSU has scored TDs on its first possession of the game in two consecutive contests, and both TDs came via 5-yard pass from Carta-Samuels to Williams.
- CSU's second touchdown came on a 16-play, 96-yard drive (7:31 in length), culminating in a 1-yard TD run by Carta-Samuels with 4:24 to go in the second quarter... The 16 plays were the most since a 17-play scoring drive at Boise State (Oct. 15, 2016)... 7:31 is the longest scoring drive since the Rams had a drive 8:22 in length vs. Fresno State on Nov. 5, 2016... It was the Rams' third scoring drive of the season of 96+ yards and the sixth over the past four years under head coach Mike Bobo.
- The Rams recorded 3 sacks and 8 tackles for loss.
- CSU has tallied 9 sacks and 17 tackles for loss over the last two games, including a season-high 6 sacks last week at San Jose State.
- New Mexico entered the game ranked 17th in the FBS and second in the MW averaging 42.2 points per game. The 18 points is the second-fewest that the Lobos have scored this season (14 at Wisconsin on Sept. 8).
- The Rams' defense opened the game holding New Mexico to a fumble, two punts and a turnover on downs, as CSU built a 14-0 lead.
- The defense also did not allow a third-down conversion in the second half (0-4), and held New Mexico to 16 yards in the fourth quarter.
- CSU is now 8-2 all-time under head coach Mike Bobo when holding an opponent under 20 points.

- CSU had held its previous six opponents scoreless on their opening drives until tonight when Boise State scored on its first possession of the game.
- The Rams totaled three sacks for the game... CSU has had at least three sacks in each of its last three outings: Six sacks at SJSU (Oct. 6), three sacks vs. New Mexico (Oct. 13)
- CSU scored its first points of the game with 0:02 remaining in the first half... K.J. Carta-Samuels connected with Preston Williams on a 47-yard touchdown pass... It was the longest TD of Williams' career and CSU's third-longest offensive score of the season (58-yard TD pass from Carta-Samuels to Olabisi Johnson vs. Hawaii; 48-yard TD pass from Carta-Samuels to Trey McBride at Florida)
- CSU's second touchdown drive went 6 plays for 87 yards (2:13), culminating in an 8-yard TD pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels to Warren Jackson at the 6:13 mark of the third quarter.
- Junior Jan-Phillip Bombek made his first start for CSU on the defensive line, and true freshman Brandon Darrow made his collegiate debut playing in a reserve role at DE.
- CSU outgained Boise State, 489-472.. This included 373 passing yards, split across two QBs (K.J. Carta-Samuels -- 238, Collin Hill -- 135)
- The Rams committed three turnovers resulting in 14 Broncos points. CSU did not force a turnover, and for season now has a -5 turnover ratio.
- Boise State added an additional 14 points in the special teams game with a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown and a 44-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on a CSU onside kick attempt.
- QB Collin Hill Finished 12-of-14 for 135 yards and a touchdown (190.3 rating), all in the fourth quarter... Connected with Warren Jackson on a 10-yard TD pass... His most passing yards this season... Completed each of his first nine passes
- WR Preston Williams Had 9 catches for 154 yards and a touchdown... Fourth 100-yard game this season... Tied for the second-most yards he's had this season (also had 154 vs. Arkansas on Sept. 8)... Hauled in a 47-yard TD pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels with 0:02 left in the first half; the longest receiving touchdown of his career... Second-longest play of his CSU career (non-scoring 69-yard reception vs. Hawaii, 8/25/18)

- CSU scored its first points of the game with 1:23 left in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by RB Marvin Kinsey. Kinsey's 15-yard rushing touchdown was the longest rushing touchdown for the Rams this season. The drive consisted of 11 plays for 78 yards and lasted 4:11.
- Kinsey scored his second rushing touchdown of the night on a 10-yard rush with 10:31 left in the fourth quarter. The scoring drive was set up by a 47-yard pass from QB Collin Hill to WR Preston Williams.
- CSU held Wyoming to just 3-of-12 on third-down conversion attempts.
- Wyoming won the turnover battle 3-0 and scored 14 points off of its turnovers.
- Tonight's Border War Clash was the 109th in the history of the series. CSU leads the all-time series 57-47-5.
- QB Collin Hill made his first start of the season and finished 34-of-54 for a season-high 333 yards along with a rushing touchdown... His highest passing yardage total since he threw for 370 yards against Wyoming on Oct. 1, 2016... Career-high 34 completions... 47-yard pass to Preston Williams was the longest completion for Hill this season... First rushing touchdown of the season and second of his career
- LB Josh Watson led the team with a career-high 17 tackles... Has led or tied for the team lead in tackles in every game this season... Now has 100 tackles on the season, his second consecutive campaign with at least 100 tackles (Career high is 109 in 2017)... His 336 career tackles are now tied for 9th all-time in CSU history with Kevin McLain (1974-75)... Sixth game this season with at least 10 tackles... Had 1.5 tackles for loss
- WR Preston Williams had 10 catches for 126 yards... Fifth 100-yard receiving game this season and second in a row... Is the seventh different Ram to have at least five 100-yard receiving outings in a single season... Now has 71 receptions on the season, which ranks seventh on CSU's single-season receptions list... Has had at least nine receptions in the past three games, and six times this season
- WR Olabisi Johnson had 5 receptions for 56 yards to raise his season receptions total to a career-high 43. His previous career high was 41 (for 613) yards in 2017.

- Today was Senior Day for Colorado State at Canvas Stadium... 18 seniors were recognized pregame: CB V.J. Banks, OL Tyler Bjorklund, K Wyatt Bryan, QB K.J. Carta-Samuels, WR Chandler Drachlin, S Jordan Fogal, WR Olabisi Johnson, OL Ben Knox, S Kavapele Maka, RB Izzy Matthews, OL Colby Meeks, QB J.C. Robles, OL T.J. Roundtree, FB Nate Ryken, DE Caleb Smith, P Brandon Summer, LB Tre Thomas and LB Josh Watson.
- CSU outgained No. 14/13 Utah State 506-310 and led in time of possession 42:05-17:55... Utah State entered the game averaging 517.5 yards per game -- 10th in the FBS... CSU outgained Utah State 276-124 in the first half and outpossessed the Aggies 21:11-8:49... The Rams limited the Aggies to eight offensive possessions in the game, exactly two in each quarter, and ran 82 plays to USU's 52... The Aggies' 310 total yards is the third-fewest the Rams have allowed this year... At SJSU (285) and vs. New Mexico (299).
- Colorado State's 199 rushing yards were their second-most of 2018, trailing only the 219 rushing yards gained at San Jose State (10/6/18).
- Utah State led 3-0 after one quarter. It's the first time this season that the Aggies had not scored a TD in the first quarter.
- The Aggies, who entered the game ranked first in the nation in scoring offense (51.1) scored their 29 points off of two defensive touchdowns, one offensive TD and three field goals.
- Seniors Wyatt Bryan, Tre Thomas and Josh Watson all played in their 50th career games today. They are all tied for fifth in games played in CSU history and are three of the 12 players to reach 50 games played in a CSU uniform... Assuming they each play at Air Force on Thursday, the trio will end their CSU careers tied for fourth in career games played (Trent Matthews, 2012-15).
- No. 14/13 Utah State is the highest-ranked visiting team to play in Fort Collins since No. 5/6 Boise State on Oct. 15, 2011 (Boise State won 63-13).
- WR Olabisi Johnson had 7 catches for 107 yards... Moved into 11th in CSU history in career receiving yards with 1,931, passing 13th place Joe Hansley (1,842; 2012-15), 12th place Rashaun Greer (1,848; 2007-09) and 11th place J.D. Brookhart (1,873; 1985-87)... Fifth 100-yard game of his career, third this season.
- RB Izzy Matthews had 20 rushes for 100 yards and a touchdown... Oct. 14	at	Colorado Mines	L	6-12
Oct. 21		Denver	W	60-10
Oct. 28	at	Colorado Mines	L	0-50

1894 Colorado Agricultural College CACs (0-1)

Oct. 27	at	Colorado	L	0-67
---------	----	----------	--------	------

W.J. Forbes

First head coach in program history

Record: 0-2-1 (.167)

One season: 1899

Alma mater: Vermont

Forbes was the first paid coach in school history, earning $25 to lead the CACs in his only season at the helm.

1899 CAC Aggies (0-2-1)

Oct. 15	at	Colorado	L	0-63
1899		Colorado Mines	L	5-49
1899		Northern Colorado	T	5-5
Nov. 30	at	Wyoming	T

*NOTE — Nov. 30 game forfeited to CAC

George E. Toomey

Second head coach in program history

Record: 1-3 (.250)

One-plus seasons: 1900-01

Alma mater: Baker, Denver ('98)

Toomey was well-liked but the Dibble scandal of 1901 ended his coaching career when he inadvertently played an ineligible man in the CU game, resigning after that contest.

1900 CAC Aggies (1-3)

Oct. 6	at	Northern Colorado*
Oct. 13	at	Colorado College	L	0-53
Oct. 15	at	Colorado	L	0-29
1900	at	Colorado Mines	L	0-27
Nov. 24		Wyoming	W	16-0

*NOTE — Oct. 6 game forfeited to Northern Colorado.

Clarence J. Griffith

Third head coach in program history

Record: 2-5-2 (.333)

One-plus seasons: 1901-02

Alma mater: Iowa ('99)

Toomey's assistant, "Griff", took over in October 1901. He resigned just before the 1903 season to concentrate on his graduate studies and care for his new baby girl.

1901 CAC Aggies (1-2)

Oct. 12		Colorado*
Oct. 19		Denver	W	56-5
Oct. 26	at	Colorado College	L	0-16
Nov. 5		Colorado Mines	L	0-11

*NOTE — Toomey was replaced by Griffith after the 1901 season opener; CSU, then known as Colorado Agricultural College, attempted to play an ineligible player and CU coach Fred Folsom pulled his team from the field in protest. CU, however, didn't protest the game properly and the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of Colorado awarded the game to CSU as a forfeit. Amid the controversy, Toomey resigned.

1902 CAC Aggies (1-3-2)

Oct. 11	at	Utah State	W	24-5

Nov. 15	at	Colorado Mines	T	6-6
Nov. 22		Denver	L	5-11

Matt Rothwell

Fourth head coach in program history

Record: 5-1-0 (.833)

One season: 1903

Alma mater: Colorado ('99)

A Denver doctor, Rothwell agreed to travel to Fort Collins to coach the Aggies, but that distance became a problem and he only coached the 1903 season.

1903 CAC Aggies (5-1)

Oct. 10		Colorado	L	0-5
Oct. 24		Colorado Mines	W	10-2
Nov. 3	at	Colorado College	W	8-5

John H. McIntosh

Fifth head coach in program history

Record: 3-8-1 (.292)

Two seasons: 1904-05

Alma mater: Georgia ('00)

Hired as both head football coach and the first director of athletics in 1904, McIntosh is credited with playing the first black athlete in school history, in 1905.

1904 CAC Aggies (0-4-1)

Oct. 22		Denver	L	0-18

SONNY LUBICK

Head Coach, 1993-2007

Four-time Conference Coach of the Year | Six Conference Titles | Nine Bowl Games

Colorado State's football program attained previously unknown heights during head coach Sonny Lubick's 15 seasons. During that time, Lubick created a standard for excellence never before evident during the previous 94-year history of the football program. Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just two bowl appearances prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- Colorado State won or shared six conference titles from 1994-2007, more than any other Mountain West member over that period;
- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- The Rams ranked among the Top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;

• Lubick ranked among the Top 20 NCAA Division I FBS active coaches in career wins at the end of 2007;

• Colorado State placed among the leaders in MWC victories since the conference came into being in 1999;

• The Rams seven times won eight or more games in a season. Four times – the first four times in school history – CSU won 10 or more games.

Lubick ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprint can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstiles. Not only were the Rams perennial postseason competitors under Lubick, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history came during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single-game crowds in CSU history through 2007 came during his time at the helm. Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division I-A coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members.

Interest and support of CSU's program had never been greater. The 2006 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor. The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season. Prior to the 2006 season, a new artificial playing surface was installed to complete the renovation. The playing surface at CSU's new Canvas stadium, which opened in 2017, also bears the name Sonny Lubick Field, thanks to an anonymous donation made in March 2016.

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch touched the entire athletic department. For instance, during his tenure, CSU was able to:

- Renovate and expand Hughes Stadium ($15.2 million).
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990s and a gift of $75,000 from former defensive end and 10-year NFL veteran Brady Smith for program enhancements.
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions.
- Renovate Mobly Arena ($4.5 million) in 1998 as part of the McGraw Athletic Center project.

Those projects alone totaled more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success that CSU's football program enjoyed after Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cared deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program was responsible for his actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick placed a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remained more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remaining on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick had those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact was felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the Sports Illustrated Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record.

Personal: Born March 12, 1937.

Family: Sonny and wife Carol Jo have three children: sons Matt (1/26/72) and Marc (11/13/77) and daughter Michelle (1/4/73). Matt is the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Washington and Marc is an offensive quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills. Michelle and husband Gerard Boyle live in Fort Collins, along with sons Matthew, William and Owen, and daughter Emma.

Education: Graduated from Christian Brothers High in Butte, Mont., in 1955. Earned bachelor's degree from Western Montana, 1960; earned master's degree from Montana State, 1978.

Lubick's Ledger

Career Resume

- 1993-2007: Head Coach, Colorado State
- 1988-92: Def. Coordinator, Miami (Fla.)
- 1985-88: Assistant Coach, Stanford
- 1982-84: Offensive Coordinator, Colorado State
- 1978-81: Head Coach, Montana State
- 1970-77: Assistant Coach, Montana State

All-Star Coaching

- 2001: Hula Bowl All-Star Game
- 1995: East-West Shrine Game

- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work.
- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Association-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He was an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors;
- Lubick and his family were honored by a local charitable organization in the winter of 2006 for their commitment and dedication to the northern Colorado community.
- In January of 2007, Lubick was named the Collins Award winner, given annually to a local figure that exemplifies leadership and service to the Fort Collins Community by the local chamber of commerce.

Lubick remained staunch in his belief a family approach was one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure. Four of his 2007 coaching staff members – Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hamerschmidt, and his son Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993. Marc joined the staff in 2005 after time with the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi. Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere took place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick always was embraced by his three young grandchildren – Matthew, William and Emma – children of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle. Lubick's smile while embracing his three youngest Rams fans reflected the same happiness CSU supporters had come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.

IN THE POLLS SINCE 1994

After a win at BYU, Sept. 17, 1994, CSU entered the USA Today coaches poll ranked No. 25, the first appearance in the weekly poll since a brief stay in the UPI coaches rankings in 1977. The following week, in 1994, the Rams earned their first Associated Press ranking in program history. Overall, the program has been ranked 51 total weeks, most recently in 2014.

COLORADO A&M20

Colorado State — at the time known as the Colorado A&M Aggies — made its first trip to a postseason bowl game at the conclusion of the 1948 football season, capping one of the most successful years in school history.

Coached by Bob Davis, Colorado A&M played on New Year's Day against Occidental College, after an 8-2 regular season highlighted by a 29-25 win over in-state rival Colorado in Boulder. The only two regular-season losses came at the hands of Drake and Utah, setting the stage for the team's trip to postseason play.

It was a star-studded Colorado A&M lineup that took the field that day in Fresno. Four players — Fum McGraw, Tuffy Mullison, Dale Dodrill, and Jack Christiansen — were team mainstays and now occupy spots in Colorado State's Sports Hall of Fame. A fifth star, running back Eddie Hanna, tragically would pass away after the opening game of the following season.

McGraw, the school's first consensus All-American, later played with the Detroit Lions, as did Christiansen, while Dodrill played for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Colorado A&M led 13-0 at halftime behind the play of Hanna. He scored on a 71-yard run after the Aggies had scored when quarterback Bob Hainlen hit Keith Thompson with a 5-yard scoring pass. But Occidental scored 21 second-half points to rally for the victory.

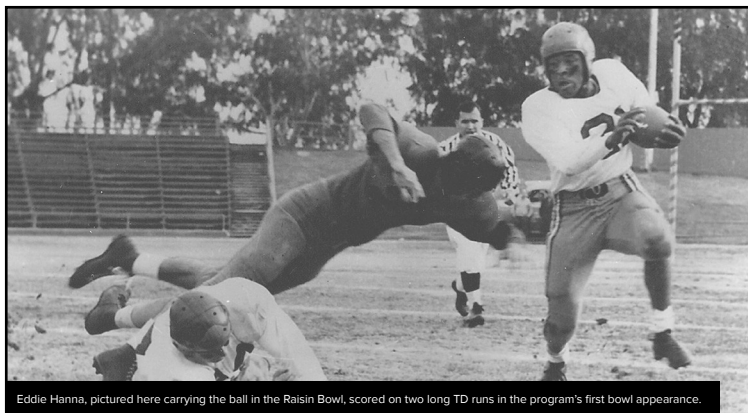

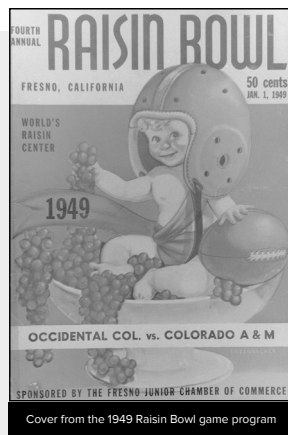

Hanna gave the Aggies their final touchdown of the game on a 79-yard run.

Colorado State's football squad opened the 1990 season with dreams higher than many observers felt possible. Those dreams included a postseason bowl berth. Having not been invited to a postseason game in 42 years, Colorado State earned a trip to the Freedom Bowl in 1990. Colorado State's 8-4 regular-season record drew bowl attention and thrust the team into the national limelight in Freedom Bowl VII.

The Rams were matched against PAC-10 member Oregon in what would turn out to be one of the season's most exciting bowl games.

Colorado State scored first, opening the game with a 75-yard, 15-play drive on Mike Gimenez's 1-yard plunge. Oregon later led 17-14, setting the stage for a dramatic fourth quarter.

Trailing 25-19, the Rams took the lead on Gimenez's 49-yard pass to Greg Primus, then added insurance on Todd Yert's 52-yard scoring run to lead 32-25 with minutes remaining. But Oregon made one last grasp at victory behind quarterback Bill Musgrave, who led his team on a 79-yard scoring drive. The Rams' Selwyn Jones then thwarted the Ducks' two-point conversion pass attempt, an amazing play, to seal the win.

Yert was named the game's Offensive MVP, while teammate Robert Chirico earned defensive honors.

Colorado State's miraculous dream season in 1994 concluded on the turf of San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

Holiday Bowl 17 featured the young and enthusiastic upstart Rams, representing the Western Athletic Conference for the first time ever in the postseason event, against the Big Ten's Michigan Wolverines, long a bastion of college football tradition.

Colorado State served notice on the night in San Diego that the Rams' program would be a force in coming years. Following a Michigan touchdown on the Wolverines' initial drive of the game, Colorado State answered.

Quarterback Anthoney Hill drove the Rams 66 yards in nine plays for the tying touchdown, hitting receiver Paul Turner on a 32-yard scoring play. Hill, a native of San Diego, later would be honored as Colorado State's Offensive MVP in the game.

The Rams put their final touchdown on the scoreboard late in the game when Hill found receiver Jeremy Burkett down the right sideline for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

By the end of the game, which was played before the eighth-largest crowd in Holiday Bowl history, statistics reflected the closeness of the contest. Michigan had gained 341 total yards, only 1 more than the Rams had managed.

The Rams, having earned the right to represent the WAC in the final game of the season by virtue of a victory over San Diego State, joined Brigham Young and Wyoming as the only three schools to have appeared in the Holiday Bowl in consecutive years since the bowl's inception. Colorado State entered the game with an 8-3 record after finishing 10-2 in the previous year, the school's first-ever trip to the Holiday Bowl. Colorado State returned to Jack Murphy Stadium, the site of its league-title clinching win over SDSU, for a date with Kansas State.

Kansas State entered the game ranked among the top 10 teams nationally after finishing in a tie for second in the Big Eight Conference. The teams were tied, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter before an interception and a partially blocked punt led to K-State's 19 second-quarter points.

The Rams were led offensively by freshman running back Damon Washington. Playing before a hometown crowd, Washington stung Kansas State's defense for 101 yards on just 10 carries, scoring one touchdown.

Defensively, Colorado State cornerback Ray Jackson intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown on a play that was nullified by an official's inadvertent whistle.

1997 HOLIDAY BOWL
 Monday, Dec. 29, 1997
 Qualcomm Stadium
 San Diego, Calif.
 Attendance: 50,761

Colorado State served notice on the game's first drive that it was a team bent on making history. The Rams secured a spot in the laurels of school annals with a ninth win in a row, a 35-24 win over Missouri in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Holiday Bowl.

Colorado State made its intentions known from the outset, taking the first drive on a crisp evening in San Diego 85 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Wide receiver Darran Hall — a San Diego native — capped the drive, scoring on a 14-yard reverse. Hall played a major role in the game, taking a punt early in the third quarter and returning it 85 yards for a touchdown, the longest such return in the bowl's history.

He and teammate Moses Moreno — another San Diego-area native — were the game's co-MVPs. Moreno, despite a sore foot injured during the game, completed 18-of-24 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Kevin McDougal gained 110 yards on 18 carries.

Colorado State's defense was equally as impressive. The Rams limited Missouri to just 68 passing yards. Linebacker Willie Taylor and safety Myron Terry led the way with eight tackles apiece, while Eric Vaughn had seven stops.

One of the game's many highlights came with 10:44 to play and the Rams nursing a 28-24 lead. Reserve quarterback Ryan Eslinger, lined up as the holder in a field goal formation, faked that play and instead ran up the middle for a 23-yard touchdown to seal the victory.

The Liberty Bowl pitted the Rams, first-ever champions of the Mountain West Conference, against Conference USA champion Southern Mississippi.

The game featured a myriad of unusual plays. USM's first touchdown came on a fumble return. Following a field goal by the Rams' C.W. Hurst, USM scored on a blocked punt. Later in the first half, Rams wide receiver Frank Rice ran 2 yards on a reverse, a touchdown set up by CSU's blocked punt.

Colorado State's final touchdown of the game came on a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Matt Newton to H-Back Cory Woolstenhulme.

Attendance: 58,302

Colorado State entered the game having won a second straight Mountain West Conference title. Coach Sonny Lubick's Rams featured eight players — the most in school history — who were named first-team all-league. Included in that group were quarterback Matt Newton and linebacker Rick Crowell, named the league's offensive and defensive players of the year, respectively. For the fourth time in seven seasons, Lubick was named the league's coach of the year.

Running back Cecil Sapp's 2-yard scoring run in the second quarter tied the game, and wide receiver Frank Rice's 16-yard reverse late in the first half put the Rams ahead to stay, 16-10.

Sapp set a bowl and school bowl game record with 36 rushes, and his 160 yards.

Colorado State was later voted 14th by the Associated Press, the highest end-of-season AP ranking in school history.

New Orleans, La.

Attendance: 27,004

Colorado State's football squad in 2001 made school history, playing in a third consecutive bowl game. CSU won the first-ever New Orleans Bowl played at the Louisiana Superdome, home to Super Bowl XXXVI just seven weeks later. And, the win marked the first time in school history that Colorado State had won back-to-back bowl games. CSU head coach Sonny Lubick guided the Rams to five wins in the team's final six games, including the team's sixth bowl game since 1994.

The Rams took control of the game early, scoring 17 points in the first quarter and 24 by halftime. Senior receiver Brad Svoboda scored the first touchdown of his career, a 2-yard reverse, on the game's first drive, set up by a 56-yard catch-and-run play by Pete Rebstock on a pass from Bradlee Van Pelt.

Colorado State sealed the win in the third quarter when the game's MVP, Justin Gallimore, blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown to put the Rams up, 31-14. The Rams' defense, which allowed only 329 yards, was led by linebacker Eric Pauly's 10 tackles, while safety Aaron Sprague also had 10 stops. Offensively, running back Henri Childs led the way with 97 rushing yards. Backup Chad Dixon, a senior playing in his first game as a Ram, scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run.

Attendance: 55,207

Colorado State concluded a successful 2002 season with the program's third trip in four seasons to the Liberty Bowl as the Mountain West Conference champion.

The bowl date with Conference USA champion TCU marked the Rams' seventh postseason trip overall in Sonny Lubick's 10 seasons as head coach, including a school-record fourth bowl game in row.

Colorado State entered the game with a 10-3 record, the fourth time in Sonny Lubick's career at Colorado State the Rams had won 10 or more games in a season.

Jeff Babcock's 46-yard field goal in the third quarter put the Rams on the scoreboard and proved to be the only scoring for the Rams in the game.

Running back Cecil Sapp was the offensive star gaining 106 yards on the day, while linebacker Eric Pauly, defensive back David Vickers, linebacker Adam Wade and linebacker Drew Wood all finished in double figures in tackles.

Attendance: 25,621

Colorado State made its fifth consecutive bowl appearance, facing Boston College in the second annual Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Colorado State continued its bowl-game streak by winning five of the team's final seven games, including a 24-23 win over UNLV on the Rams' final drive of the game to ensure another postseason trip.

Colorado State battled back from a first-quarter deficit to close within a touchdown when WR David Anderson caught a 40-yard toss from QB Bradlee Van Pelt to draw the Rams within 21-14. Anderson was impressive in the game with 10 receptions for 134 yards and a touchdown, both CSU bowl game records for catches and receiving yards.

Van Pelt threw for 163 yards and passed for one touchdown and rushed for another. Running back Jimmy Green rushed for a team-best 74 yards and scored a touchdown. LB Jeff Flora led the Rams defense, which limited BC to 361 yards, with nine tackles, while LB Drew Wood and DB Lukas Davis each had six stops. The Rams also were credited with three quarterback sacks in the game.

The game was played in SBC Park, home of the San Francisco Giants baseball team.

Attendance: 36,842

Despite throwing for 381 yards on a 26-for-33 evening, senior Justin Holland and the Rams could not overcome the Navy offense in the inaugural Poinsettia Bowl. The Rams ended their season with a 6-6 record, the 11th time in Sonny Lubick's 13-year career the Rams had ended the year with a non-losing record.

Navy slotback Reggie Campbell led the team, tying the NCAA bowl record with five touchdowns, and had 290 all-purpose yards. The Midshipmen notched 611 total yards in the game, with 467 coming on the rush. The Rams netted 571 yards on offense themselves, with 431 net passing yards for the game.

Colorado State sophomore Kory Sperry caught a career-high eight passes for a career-high 117 yards, including four for 54 yards in the opening drive. Senior David Anderson had a game-high 126 yards receiving, second most in a Colorado State bowl game.

Kyle Bell rushed for 122 yards in the game. It was the sixth time that season Bell had surpassed 100 yards.

FRESNO STATE35

Gartrell Johnson rushed for a career-high 285 yards and scored two touchdowns as Colorado State rallied for a 40-35 victory over Fresno State. Johnson sealed CSU's first bowl victory since 2001 on a 77-yard touchdown with 1:46 remaining, igniting a celebration by fans who made the 7-hour drive from Fort Collins, Colo. Johnson added 90 yards receiving for 375 combined rushing and receiving yards, the most by any NCAA player ever in a bowl game.

The Rams (7-6) took their first lead at 33-28 when Billy Farris threw a 69-yard TD to Rashaun Greer with seven minutes left. Fresno State cornerback Sharrod Davis took a big chance but whiffed on his attempt to bat the ball. Greer made the catch at the 30 and went untouched into the end zone.

Fresno State got within 40-35 with 55 seconds to go, but CSU's Kyle Bell secured the ensuing onside kick. Fans came out of the stands as the final seconds ticked off, capping a strong first season for Colorado State coach Steve Fairchild. Johnson was named most valuable offensive player after he put on a show. He broke a 57-yard run in the first quarter and went another 57 yards on a shovel pass from Farris in the second, leaving defenders reaching for the dreadlocks tumbling out of his helmet. CSU's Tommie Hill was named Defensive Player of the Game.

Playing in its first bowl game since the 2008 season, Colorado State wanted to prove that it belonged. Sophomore sensation running back Kapri Bibbs did his part leading the Rams with 169 yards rushing and 3 touchdowns and the Rams (8-6) capped their 2013 season in dramatic fashion with a come-from-behind 48-45 victory over the Washington State Cougars. After a crucial stop, CSU got the ball back down 45-30 with 4:17 left in the game and two timeouts left. Quarterback Garrett Grayson looked as poised as ever as he calmly led the Rams 72 yards down the field in just 1:25. On the final play of the drive, Grayson connected with freshman wide receiver Jordon Vaden for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the score to 45-37 with 2:52 left in the game, and most importantly, Grayson preserved both of CSU's timeouts.

Trusting its defense to make a play, CSU kicked the ball off to Washington State. After using both of its timeouts, the Rams faced a key third down needing to get off the field. The Cougars converted with a nine-yard pass to seemingly put the nail in the coffin on the game with just over two minutes left. The Rams once again proved resilient as Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year Shaquil Barrett stripped Washington State running back Jeremiah Laufasa and also pounced on the ball with 1:51 left in the game. CSU proceeded to march down the field and Bibbs scored his 31st touchdown of the season to put the Rams in position to tie the game up with 33 seconds left. On the ensuing two-point conversion, the Rams converted a "Statue-of-Liberty" handoff to Donnell Alexander to tie the game at 45-45. On the very next kickoff, CSU once again came up with a big play as linebacker SteveO Michel forced a fumble which Jasen Oden recovered. Kicker Jared Roberts sealed the victory with a 41-yard field goal as time expired. The Rams scored 18 points over the final 3 minutes.

The Colorado State football team fell to Utah in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium, 45-10, on Dec. 20, 2014. The Rams finished one of the most successful seasons in school history with a record of 10-3, making them one of just five teams in program history to win at least 10 games. CSU interim head coach Dave Baldwin applauded his team for the effort they have put forth this season. The Rams' nine-game winning streak from games 3-10--the program's longest since 1997--ran their record to 10-1 on Nov. 22 and a No. 21 national ranking before a last-second loss in the regular-season finale at Air Force and the loss in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Quarterback Garrett Grayson finished the season with a school-record 4,006 passing yards--the fourth-most in Mountain West history--and claimed all-time CSU passing records in every major statistical category. Grayson ended the game completing 20 of 34 attempts for 227 yards with one interception. His longest completion went 59 yards in the first quarter to All-America wide receiver Rashard Higgins, who hauled in 7 receptions for 110 yards to record his 10th 100-yard receiving game of the season. The Rams; rushing game was held to 12 net rushing yards on 19 carries, with junior Dee Hart mustering 21 yards on seven carries. Indicative of the uncharacteristic offensive struggles, the unit that set a school record this season for success on third down was limited to 1-of-10 on third-down conversion opportunities.

Attendance: 20,425

Colorado State amassed 532 total yards and Rashard Higgins became the school's all-time receiving yardage leader, but the Rams could not make enough plays to stop the Nevada Wolf Pack, falling 28-23 in the inaugural NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. It was the Rams' third consecutive bowl appearance, their longest postseason streak since playing in five consecutive bowls from 1999-2003, and Mike Bobo became the first CSU head coach to win seven regular season games in his inaugural campaign.

The Rams scored on four consecutive possessions over the second and third quarters — two touchdowns and two field goals — and entered the fourth quarter trailing 22-20. After forcing a Nevada punt with 7:05 left in the game, CSU drove 42 yards in eight plays to kick the go-ahead field goal, a 38-yard effort from Wyatt Bryan, with 3:40 remaining to put CSU up 23-22. The Wolf Pack, however, put together their longest drive since the second quarter, covering 72 yards in eight plays for what turned out to be the game-winning touchdown. James Butler, who earned offensive MVP honors, added the last four of his game-high 192 rushing yards on his 24th carry to provide the final score of 28-23.

CSU made one last threat, moving the ball from its own 12 to the Nevada 12-yard line in just 58 seconds, but the Rams could not get to the line of scrimmage for one last shot into the end zone before time ran out.

Sophomore wide receiver Olabisi Johnson set Colorado State's all-time record for receiving yards in a game with 265, but it wasn't enough for the Rams who allowed 606 yards of total offense and a 41-0 Vandal scoring run. Junior quarterback Nick Stevens came up just four yards short of CSU's record for passing yards in a game, with 445 yards and a career-best tying five touchdowns.

The Rams jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a 52-yard touchdown pass from Stevens to Johnson on the first play of the second quarter, but struggled from that point as the Vandals scored 41 unanswered points. CSU had an offensive outburst in the fourth quarter, scoring 36 points in just over 5 minutes of possession time, but ultimately couldn't overcome its early struggles, which included three turnovers.

Sophomore linebacker Josh Watson led the way for the Rams defensively, recording 10 total tackles, followed closely by senior linebacker Kevin Davis who logged nine stops and a tackle for loss. True freshmen Jamal Hicks and Toby McBride each recorded a sack in a starting role, to go along with five and two tackles, respectively.

The postseason game marked the Rams' fourth consecutive bowl appearance, and their 7-6 final record gave the Rams a winning record for the fourth year in a row.

The Colorado State Rams' impressive 2013 New Mexico Bowl comeback was not to be replicated, as they fell 31-28 to the Marshall Thundering Herd in the 2017 edition of the bowl.

The Rams found themselves trailing 31-14 late in the third quarter, but strung together a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown drives that brought them back within a field goal. After an impressive stand by the defense, the Rams got the ball back with 3:18 remaining and picked up a pair of first downs to approach midfield. On fourth-and-five with 1:38 on the clock, senior quarterback Nick Stevens had his pass attempt batted back to him and was tackled for a loss, ending CSU's valiant comeback attempt.

Stevens finished the game—his final as a Ram—with 320 passing yards, two passing touchdowns and a pair of rushing touchdowns. He attempted a career-high 52 passes, as the Rams managed just 70 yards rushing on 31 attempts.

Junior wide receiver Olabisi Johnson led CSU with 119 yards on six catches, while senior Detrich Clark was on the receiving end of both touchdown passes. Consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist Michael Gallup finished with six receptions for 68 yards to set a CSU single-season receptions record with 100.

STADIUM HISTORY

In the stadium's grand-opening game on Aug. 26, 2017, the Rams defeated Oregon State, 58-27, before a sellout crowd of 37,583.

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium at Colorado State University opened in the summer of 2017 and brought Rams football games back to campus for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot facility combines all of the Rams' football training facilities and offices on the west side. The $18.5 million east side of the building includes the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center, general classroom space and the Collaborative for Student Achievement.

CSU and Canvas Credit Union announced a 15-year, $377 million naming rights agreement in April 2018, and the stadium was officially renamed to Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brought the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

Two spectacular VIP areas— The New Belgium Porch in the north end zone and the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club behind the Rams' bench at midfield—are unique in all of college football. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage. The Smith Alumni Center and academic space has been integrated into the design to bring students and faculty into the building year-round, and the stadium clubs, VIP areas and other unique meeting spaces provide opportunities for hundreds of non-game day events year-round.

In the stadium's grand-opening game on Aug. 26, 2017, the Rams defeated Oregon State, 58-27, before a sellout crowd of 37,583, the third-largest crowd in school history. For the season the Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

STADIUM EVENTS

The on-campus stadium provides the newest and most unique events spaces in Northern Colorado. The Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club, Hall of Champions, Stadium Club, Indoor Club and New Belgium Porch provide a highly desirable variety of unique and innovative indoor and outdoor event spaces that can accommodate groups from 12 to 1,200 guests.

STADIUM FACTS

CAPACITY: 41,000, with seating for 36,500

PREMIUM SEATING: 23 private suites, 884 club seats and 224 loge box seats; sold out in October 2016

STUDENT SEATING: 10,000 seats on the east side lower bowl

VIDEOBOARD & RIBBON BOARDS: Main board measures 50.5' x 84' (4,242 square feet), largest in the MW and along the Front Range; nearly the size of a basketball court. 1,270 feet of ribbon board around the stadium will display in-game stats, sponsor elements, out-of-town scores and other visual elements to enhance the fan experience.

MARKLEY FAMILY HALL OF CHAMPIONS: Located on the west side at the main entry, the 6,300-square-foot space features displays of Colorado State's rich athletics history, and leads into the OCR Field Club.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS: CSU's football operations are incorporated into the building, with the following included:

- o Weight Room: 9,100-square-foot weight room, with accessibility and views in from the player and recruit lounges and the football administration offices
- o Sports Medicine: Sports medicine offices, taping area, nutrition area and hydrotherapy space complete with four plunge pools

o Meeting Rooms: 150 seat theater-style team meeting room with position meeting rooms in the same hallway

o Offices: Office space for football staff

o Player/Recruit Lounge: 3,700 square feet of custom space provides student-athletes space to gather

FIELD: Sonny Lubick Field is a Synthetic PowerBlade Pro System playing surface manufactured by Shaw Sports Turf

TOTAL GROSS SQUARE FOOTAGE: 727,000

o 644,132—Stadium

o 23,144—Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center

o 59,831—Academic space

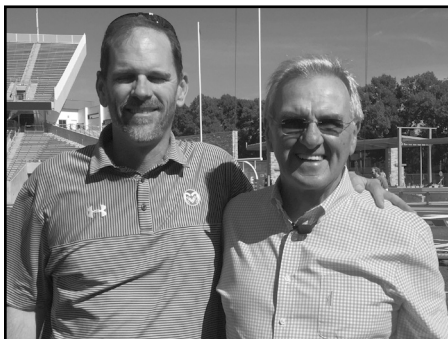

TOTAL AREA: 17.56 acres on the CSU campus

BUILDING HEIGHT: 123 feet at highest point

MATERIALS: Colorado sandstone, metal panel and glass make up the primary material palette, tying into the existing architecture on campus; majority of materials come from locations within 500 miles of the stadium site

The New Belgium porch is located just beyond the north end zone and provides one of the most unique spectator experiences in college football.

Through a $20 million anonymous donation, the field at Canvas Stadium is still named after legendary CSU head coach Sonny Lubick, pictured here with current head coach Mike Bobo.

Bucking the national trend, CSU saw one of the largest per-game attendance increases in college football in 2017, ranking eighth in the FBS after increasing by 4,462 fans per game on average.

CSU held a ceremonial groundbreaking at the stadium site on Sept. 12, 2015. The Rams hosted Minnesota for a football game at Hughes Stadium later that day.

CSU hosted a topping-out beam-raising ceremony on Aug. 2, 2016

The "Rocky Mountain Rumble" statue features two Rams locking horns, and is located on the north end of the facility.

The videoboard at the new stadium is one of many amenities that enhance fan experience at Canvas Stadium.

The main board measures in at 50.5' x 84' (4,242 square feet), making it the largest in the MW and along the Front Range at nearly the size of a basketball court.

Hughes Stadium (1968-2016)

Hughes Stadium was located at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about three miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. The facility sat just below the iconic Aggie "A", freshly painted every year by freshmen football players and other campus volunteers.

Opened in 1968, the venerable stadium underwent several upgrades over the decades, including a major renovation between 2003 and 2006.

In 2003, the Bohemian Foundation contributed $15.2 million to the Colorado State athletic department. The majority of that gift was focused on improving Hughes Stadium. Over a three-year period, the facility received a spectacular new west tower, containing club seating, luxury suites and a new press box. CSU also enclosed the north end zone, increasing capacity to 32,500.

The final phase of the renovations focused on that surface itself. The field underwent a $1.33 million makeover prior to the 2006 season, when Colorado State installed FieldTurf, the revolutionary, rubberized surface used by several NFL and major college football venues across the country.

Hughes closed after 262 games, with the final one being a 49-31 victory over New Mexico on Nov. 20, 2016, securing bowl-eligibility for the Rams.

CSU's final record at Hughes: 146-114-2 (.562).

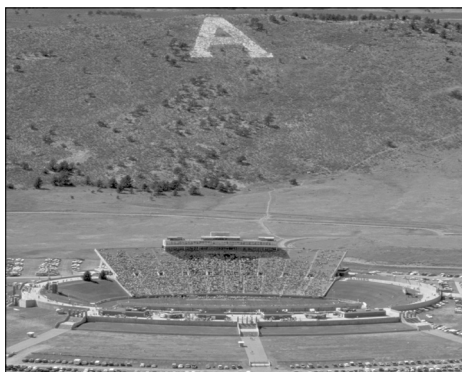

Hughes Stadium was knocked down in the spring of 2018.

Legendary basketball coach (then CSU's AD) J.J. Williams and former football All-American and future AD Thurman "Fum" McGraw examine a model of the under-construction Hughes Stadium in 1967.

"They laid the foundation for that stadium. There have been a lot of coaches at this university and sometimes those players feel like they can't come back because they don't know people on the staff. Let them know they are always welcome. They are always a Ram and part of this family. No, I didn't coach them. No, I didn't recruit them, but I want them to be a part of what is going on now at Colorado State. I say it all the time 'It's not my football team, it's their football team.'" - CSU Head Coach Mike Bobo's post-game comments from Nov. 20, 2016, on all of those represented CSU at Hughes Stadium.

The last game at Hughes Stadium was a memorable one for all CSU fans in attendance. On the frigid evening of Nov. 20, 2016, the Rams rolled New Mexico, 49-31. Over 100 former players and coaches were there to share the glory of the bowl-eligibility-clinching victory. Fans rushed the field after the win to celebrate the 262nd - and final - game in Hughes History.

Durkee Field (1899-1911)

While little is known about the program's home grounds in 1893 and 1894, when the school's new college athletic organization resurrected football in 1899, the team's first official field was constructed in the spring of 1899. In May 1899, the area between Agricultural Hall and the Chemical Building (where Glenn Morris Field House sits today) was cleared of trees and drained of water. The ground was then graded to make a flat playing surface. With the railroad tracks on the west and South College Avenue on the east, this low-lying ground was actually a natural streambed, which is marked today by a tunnel under the railroad tracks. This stream becomes active when torrents of rain wash through the campus, such as the devastating flood of 1997. The newly reformed football team of 1899 played the first games here on a playing surface made up of primarily dirt and rocks.

Durkee Field

In 1901, a graduate from the Class of 1900 named Charles Durkee donated money for a tall wooden fence, erected on three sides of the field with the railroad tracks acting as a barrier for the fourth side. The barriers helped keep non-paying fans out better than the military cadets (the previous system for chasing off freeloaders). In return for his fence, the college named the athletic grounds Durkee Field. Bleachers were later added for spectators to watch games and military drills. The facility was described by former players and head coach Harry Hughes as horrible to walk on, let alone play football. That stream would reappear during wet weather and ran through the playing field during some games.

Hughes' first football season of 1911 marked Durkee's last season of hosting football. When the rules of football changed to standardize the 100-yard field, Hughes used that opportunity to build a better field for his athletes. The military continued to drill on Durkee for several years, and tennis courts were later added for women's athletics. But in 1925, ground was broken for a new gym and fieldhouse that opened in 1927 and still stands there today.

Colorado Field

Colorado Field (1912-67)

In 1910, the site of a college experiment station that grew potatoes was identified as the location where the future athletic field should be built. After two years of lobbying and with the support of college president Charles Lory, construction began on May 23, 1912. Students and faculty, including Lory, removed rocks and planted seed to build the first college football field in Colorado with grass.

Play began in the fall of 1912, after 1,000-seat grandstands were added by the beginning of football season. A cinder track around the field was added in 1914, since Harry Hughes was also the track coach.

In September 1912, the school built a clubhouse just east of the railroad tracks on what is now University Avenue, providing locker rooms and showers for both the Aggies and visiting players. Coupled with the outstanding grass surface and clubhouse, the state-of-the-art football stadium was the envy of the region and helped the Aggies to win eight conference championships over the next 25 years. The ninth and final conference championship team to play on Colorado Field was in 1955.

Over the 55 years Colorado Field served the Aggies, larger grandstands were built and bleachers were added on the east side and end zones. Today, Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's outdoor track and field squads and named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer, stands on the site where Colorado Field once graced the CSU campus.

In 1961 the university conducted a study to determine whether to turn Colorado Field into a major-college football stadium, or replace it with a new venue on the foothills campus. Because of traffic concerns and the facility's location in the center of Fort Collins, officials opted to construct a new stadium west of town, at the foothills. The last varsity game played on Colorado Field was in 1967, shortly before its demolition.

MASCOT HISTORY (courtesy of John Hirn)

During the 62 years of the "Aggie Era" the college had different mascots that identified the school, however it was not until the 1959 that Colorado State University "officially" adopted the Ram as their mascot. In the earliest days of football there was never any mention of an official or unofficial mascot until 1912 when a dog showed up on campus.

The Colorado Aggie-Bulldogs?

Sometime around 1912 a student named Floyd Cross purchased an English Bulldog that eventually roamed around the Colorado Agricultural College campus. Students would feed the dog peanuts and he was taken to football games, adopted by Battery A and attended other athletic events. By all accounts he was very well liked by all of the Aggie students. In April or May of 1918 Peanuts was found dead. The Aggies were never referred to as the Bulldogs during Peanuts' status as mascot.

Billy Hughes and a Bear

The 1919 Aggie football team had Billy Hughes listed as the school's official mascot. The son of coach Harry Hughes was about six years old when he served as the team's "mascot". Little Billy did not last long as the school mascot and was probably given the status because he attended the games and the students wanted a replacement after the loss of Peanuts.

The 1919 team also shows a bear cub as the school mascot in their championship team photo. Little is known about this bear, where it came from or even its name.

FACTS ABOUT CAM THE RAM

CAM is the official Colorado State University mascot.

CAM stands for Colorado A&M, the University's previous name.

CAM is a domesticated breed of sheep known as a Rambouillet.

CAM is cared for and trained by the Ram Handlers, a volunteer group of students.

CAM is supported by the Alumni Association and by donations to the CAM Forever Fund.

This photo, taken during an Oct. 18, 1919 game between the Colorado Agricultural College Aggies and Utah, features a black bear cub laying calmly on the sidelines. The cub, which is inside the fence and very securely tethered to a certainly sturdy wood pole, was the Aggies' unofficial mascot during the 1919 season.

The Aggies would go on to beat Utah easily on that day - an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown by John Ratekin and touchdowns by Claude Wood and two by Harry Scott put the game away. CAC finished 1919 with a 7-1 record and won its third conference championship in five years. Two years later the Colorado Field grandstand would be expanded to seat 5,000 fans and by 1925 no cars could park on the sideline during games.

The bear disappeared as quickly as it arrived and for the next 26 years the Aggies did not have a mascot associated with the school; officially or unofficially.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL MEDIA COVERAGE GUIDELINES

- We appreciate your coverage of Colorado State Athletics, and look forward to working with you to accommodate you and your organization within the framework of the following media policy. The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Mike Bobo and the Athletics Communications office. Please take a few minutes to read through and familiarize yourself with these guidelines. Failure to comply with these policies could result in revocation of credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Associate A.D. for Communications Kyle Neaves at (228) 424-6921 or via email at kyle.neaves@colostate.edu with any questions.

Interview access to players and coaches throughout the calendar year is as follows:

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the football program, including Mike Bobo, the coaching and football staffs, and student-athletes, must be coordinated through the Athletics Communications office.
- True freshmen and other student-athletes in their first year in the program are not eligible to be included on the regular interview list.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Requests approved by Coach Bobo will be facilitated by the Athletics Communications staff.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from directly contacting any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including by text message, e-mail, phone (cell, office or home) or social media, without first approaching the Athletics Communications office.
- For all practices, no live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during practice may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered.
- Designated student-athletes from the interview list will be made available on specified days during the spring and preseason practice periods, and on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the regular season.
- Assistant coaches will be made available to media one time each during spring practice on a schedule provided Athletics Communications.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo will be available following most practices. Exceptions include night practices and certain practice days during spring and preseason.
- All interviews take place in the interview room of the stadium, located at field level, one level down from the media entrance on the west side of the stadium. Media are not permitted to enter the football offices, or the training room, locker room, weight room or meeting rooms unless arrangements have been made through the Communications office.
- Media may not photograph or report on individuals or groups participating in workouts outside of organized team sessions within campus practice or competition locations.

PRESEASON CAMP

- Coordinators will be made available on Media Day. No other assistant coach access is available during preseason camp.

REGULAR-SEASON GAME WEEKS

- On Mondays, Head Coach Mike Bobo will conduct a weekly press conference in the stadium interview room. Bobo will begin speaking at 12 p.m. and the press conference will end at approximately 12:30-35. The press conference is livestreamed at CSURams.com/live, and the archive will be available on YouTube and on CSURams.com. Audio from the press conference also is made available to media.
- Following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, student-athletes on the interview list will be made available, with either offensive or defensive players being available Tuesday and those from the other side of the ball on Wednesday. Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the Communications office at least 48 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program, provided the requested individual is not a true-freshman player. Approved requests will be granted, but those interviews need to take place on Tuesday following practice.
- On Wednesday, Bobo will be available following practice.
- Following Wednesday availability, there is no further media availability with members of the program until the end of the game on Saturday, with the exception of contractual obligations with broadcast partners.

GAMEDAY

- Every member of the program must report to the locker room following the game before conducting interviews. Other than network TV and radio obligations, CSU does not allow on-field interviews in the minutes following the game's conclusion.
- Postgame press conferences take place in the home and visiting team interview rooms, located just off the elevator from the press box at field level. From the field, enter the southwest tunnel and proceed right and down the hall to reach the interview rooms on your left.
- Head Coach Mike Bobo and requested players will be available to the media in the interview room after a reasonable cooling-off period. Coach Bobo will conduct his postgame press followed by requested players from the interview list being made available in the interview room. Assistant coaches and true freshmen players are not available.

- The visiting team press conference and media availability will take place in the visiting team interview room adjacent to the home team interview room, down the hall from the visitors' locker room.

RECRUITING PERIOD

- Access to Head Coach Mike Bobo will be less regular during this time, from the end of the regular season through the second signing day, the first Wednesday in February, due to recruiting responsibilities. Assistant coaches are not available during this period.

ALL OTHER TIMES

- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available either in-person or by phone, by appointment through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Kyle Neaves (kyle.neaves@colostate.edu).
- Assistant coaches do not have regular availability throughout the year. Requests for their participation in interviews must be made through Assoc. A.D. for Communications Kyle Neaves, and will be granted only by approval of the head coach.
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach, staff member, or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, or contact information for family members and friends where such interviews will enhance a feature story.

INJURIES

- At all times throughout the calendar year, including spring practice, Head Coach Mike Bobo will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Bobo, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete, or his teammates.
- If Coach Bobo is unavailable, please contact Kyle Neaves.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

- Most Colorado State football practices are open to media for the first few periods unless otherwise noted.
- Videography, provided it is not live-streamed, is allowed during the media viewing period, but no sound may be recorded.
- No live reporting of practice details is permissible, nor live streaming of any method. Upon conclusion of practice, questions based on observations made during the media viewing period may be asked of Coach Bobo, and reported on as answered by the coach.
- During the spring, most regular practices (excluding scrimmages) are open to the media during the media viewing period as specific by Athletics Communications.
- All media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, media are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- Cameras are restricted from shooting/filming any 11-on-11 period, as well as selected other periods (Athletics Communications staff will notify). Photography must be tight, "iso" shots that do not reveal alignments or strategy.
- No sound may be captured during the shooting of practice video.
- Photographers are allowed to shoot individual drills and group activity as directed by the Athletics Communications staff. No photography is allowed of players receiving treatment from medical staff, or of injured players, whether participating in individual workouts or observing practice.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to bring tripods onto the practice field.
- Photographers and videographers should remain on the sidelines, or behind the end lines. They are not permitted in any drill or in close proximity to any team or position-group huddles at any time.
- Photographers should stand a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Also for safety reasons, photographers are asked to stand rather than sit or kneel, and should either hold personal bags and/or camera equipment, or set them behind a barrier, so they are not a potential injury source for players or the media.
- All posed photo shoots must take place at times arranged prior to the beginning of practice, working through the Athletics Communications office. Posed photo shoots are not permitted during any practice.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

- Head Coach Mike Bobo is available for phone interviews as time permits. Media should call to make an appointment through Kyle Neaves (kyle.neaves@colostate.edu).
- Phone calls (cell, office or home) to any coach or student-athlete are strictly prohibited, unless previously arranged through the Athletics Communications office.
- Media should contact the Athletics Communications office, rather than the individual coaches and/or student-athletes, when needing personal contact information, such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses.

CSURAMS.COM/SOCIAL MEDIA

- The official Web site of Colorado State athletics, CSURams.com, features the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs. Rams fans worldwide can also listen to the live play-by-play coverage offered by the Colorado State Sports Network through the website or the TuneIn app, and can watch livestreamed video of most home events. Fans can click on www.CSURams.com, then click on the schedule pages to access the radio broadcast for live radio coverage of football, volleyball and men's and women's basketball. For video, click the "Fans" tab at the top, and scan the menu under Multimedia, or directly access the URL CSURams.com/watch. News also will be disseminated via the Colorado State football program's official twitter account, @CSUFootball, as well as the general athletics account, @CSURams.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

- Credentials must be requested through Kyle Neaves in writing at least seven days in advance of an event. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the Communications office, or at the game. Season credential applications will be made available in mid-July, and the online single-game credential request link can be found at http://www.csurams.com/sb_output.aspx?form=20.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

- Photo credentials are issued only to accredited photographers. Passes must be displayed at all times. All photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field, or behind each end zone in a kneeling position.

GAME-DAY SERVICES

- A pregame meal is served 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the press box. Colorado State provides reliable WiFi in the press box, photographers' workroom and interview rooms, and access to live statistics through StatBroadcast. We have greatly reduced the amount of information distributed on paper at our home games in favor of full digital offerings of game notes, statistics, postgame audio and postgame notes. All credentialed media will receive an email the day before a game with all pertinent coverage and team information directly or via links embedded in the email.
- Colorado State's stadium offers complimentary wireless Internet access in the press box, interview room and photo workroom. Ethernet lines also are available in the photo workroom, located just inside the southwest tunnel at field level, near the visiting team locker room. Check the seat-assignment label on press row for wireless access information.

PARKING

- Media parking on game days is generally available in the Lake Street Garage (Lot 570), located near the intersection of Prospect Road and Center Avenue in the south area of campus. Denver TV stations have space allotted for one vehicle per station in front of the connection panels on the west side of the stadium. Please contact the Athletics Communications office to request a game day parking pass.
- Parking in all campus parking lots requires a permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the Communications office, and pay-to-park stalls are located on the north side of the stadium, on Pitkin Street, in front of the Ram Zone store and ticket office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management Web site: <http://pts.colostate.edu>, and many lots offer a payment kiosk to purchase a daily pass.
- The CSU Athletics Communications office will provide complimentary annual passes to the Moby/McGraw Center lot and Lot 240 near the stadium for select media organizations and members of the press who consistently cover the Rams. Those passes are not replaceable and should be treated like cash.

STADIUM DIRECTIONS/WILL CALL

- Colorado State's on-campus stadium is located between Pitkin and Lake Streets, just west of Shields Street in Fort Collins. The mailing address is 751 W. Pitkin Street. From I-25, media should take the Prospect Road exit, turn left, and proceed west toward the mountains. To access Lot 570 with a game day parking permit, please turn right onto Center Ave., from westbound Prospect Road. The entrance to the garage will be on your right. The stadium's media entrance, and Media Will-Call, is located on the west side of the stadium through the door marked "Media & Staff Entry," and press box access is via elevator just inside that entrance.
- Ticket will call is located at the main stadium ticket windows on Pitkin Street, at the Northwest corner of the stadium.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

- Please contact the CSU Athletics Communications office to request video highlights. Broadcast-quality video highlights and soundbites will be emailed to media frequently throughout the year by the Athletics Communications staff. If you would like to have an email address added to that distribution list, please contact Kyle Neaves or Mike Brohard.

WEEKLY RELEASES

- The weekly game release will be available by approximately 12 noon each Monday during the season on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also are e-mailed to media outlets upon request, and available via Twitter at @CSUFootball.

COLORADO STATE MEDIA E-MAIL LIST

- To receive e-mail updates on the Rams, e-mail Kyle Neaves at kyle.neaves@colostate.edu or Mike Brohard at mike.brohard@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to receive the news releases via e-mail.

The 1959 Colorado State football media guide cover declared that the season was the "Rams' year of opportunity." CSU would go on to finish 6-4 that season, winning three of its final four games. Former Colorado A&M standout Don "Luffy" Mullison was in his fourth year as the Rams' head coach, and was the second former Aggie to go on to coach his alma mater.
