HISTORY

UNIVERSITY

OPPONENTS

In the classroom, we are Stalwart students and high academic achievers. Our University is a world-class institution with Tier 1 designation and is Stalwart in its mission as one of the world's finest land-grant institutions.

On the field of play, we are Stalwart in our pursuit of championship excellence.

No matter how you choose to define the word, being a Stalwart Ram means you know hard work, hustle, grit, and grind. You know what it takes to go the extra mile, to give the extra effort, to persevere in the face of adversity. Whether it's in the class room or the board room, on the field of play or the fields of grain, the plains or the mountains, if you're a Colorado State Ram, you are Stalwart.

Fight on you Stalwart Ram team!

Fight toward your goals.

For if they are yours, they are ours.

And Stalwart Rams see it through, together, to the end.

Over the past seven years, our student-athletes have been Stalwart competitors, securing the second-most Mountain West titles overall (21).

Our women's teams? Talk about Stalwart. They've won the most titles at 15.

Academically, you bet we're Stalwart. In the NCAA's most recent Graduation Success Rate report, our 87 rate for the four-class average was the highest in the Mountain West and 17 points higher than the general student body. And, our Academic Progress Rate report continues to be in the upper echelon of our conference peers.

Stalwart isn't just a word. It's our way of life as Stalwart Rams.

But, you don't just stop being Stalwart after you graduate.

81% - Percentage of CSU graduates who indicated their future plans were related to their field of study

84% - Percentage of CSU graduates who secured employment or continuing education within six month of graduation

1,600 Employers - Members of CSU's last three graduating classes were hired by 1,600 unique employers and attended more than 230 graduate schools

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, contact the Communications office or submit the form at CSURams.com/WBBCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Working space at Moby Arena is limited.

Credentials will be issued on a priority basis, with national publications, daily newspapers, originating radio and television networks, and student newspapers from CSU and the visiting school receiving top priority. Requests from weekly newspaper, internet publications, and radio stations that cover CSU and the visiting team will be honored on a space-available basis. Requests for credentials will be reviewed on a game-by-game basis.

The Colorado State Athletics Communications office has the authority on whether individuals from any organization will be issued credentials. Complimentary tickets are not provided.

Spouses, dates, equipment carriers and non-working members of the media are restricted from the media area, courtside and interview areas. Any abuse of a credential to a CSU athletic event will result in the corrective measures up to and including immediate removal of the media member from the event and/or the agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of the season.

Credentials are issued to the individual.

INTERVIEW POLICIES: All requests for Colorado State women's basketball coaches, student-athletes, and support staff should be arranged ahead of time through the Colorado State Strategic Communications and Brand Enhancement office with at least 24 hours notice. Members of the media who violate this policy are subject to loss of credential privileges for themselves as well as their organization.

MEDIA WILL-CALL: Credentials may be picked up at the Media Entrance inside Moby Arena or arranged to be received during business hours at the Strategic Communications and Brand Enhancement office. Please be mindful that parking passes cannot be picked up at willcall and must be received prior to game day.

COURTSIDE AREA: Excluding select portions of the game, media courtline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. When on the courtside, media must remain in the designated boxes on the sidelines. This includes pre-game activities.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

COURT & LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Photographers are allowed access on to the court only following the game.

Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities courtside and in the stands.

PRINTED MATERIALS: Printed materials during the game will not be distributed. Media members, including radio, are encouraged to utilize the live stat systems to track stats during the game. Complete stats will be printed at the end of the game and posted on CSURams.com.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS: For home games, Head Coach Ryun Williams will hold a postgame press conference with the media in the Moby Arena media room. Members of the working media may request interviews with student-athletes beginning in the fourth quarter. A request does not guarantee a student-athlete will be made available. Assistant coaches are not available for post-game interviews.

PRACTICES: Practices are open to media on a case-to-case basis. Video is permitted for individual drills only, although media may be alerted of other portions that are not available for video. Media should remain on the outside edges of the court. Interviews will be held immediately following practice. Requests for student-athletes or assistant coaches should be made prior to practice concluding.

HISTORY

MOBY ARENA

Colorado State University boasts a rich and proud basketball tradition that dates back more than 100 years. Part of that proud history includes one of the most distinctive and effective home court playing facilities in the nation. The team's home arena, Moby Arena, is a cozy and intimate playing facility nestled in the heart of the university's central campus. It's also an arena that through the years has spawned Moby Madness, the raucous support of fans witnessing Rams basketball.

The arena features the pride and tradition of the Rams program that dates back a half a decade and a newness associated with a handful of renovation projects completed, most recently in 2022.

When the initial renovation was completed in 1999, the entire facility had undergone a major face lift, including all-new seating, meeting rooms, and a new locker room and player lounge area - which were again updated for the 2009-10 season.

In 2001, another renovation took place in Moby Arena when an entirely new playing surface was installed. More than 23,000 square feet of hardwood was installed on the floor of the arena. The 2010-11 season marked the first for CSU's $1 million state-of-the-art videoboard system. Upgrades, which were completed in two phases in 2012 and 2013, included remodeled concourses with updated ticket windows, restrooms and concessions stands throughout the arena, and a newly designed Hall of Fame space.

The most recent upgrades features a floor design refresh in 2022 with upgraded fonts and marks and a new state-of-the-art locker room for both the men's and women's basketball programs. The new space includes premier lockers, advanced training and treatment equipment and team lounges and film rooms.

The Thurman "Fum" McGraw Athletic Center opened in 1999 and houses the athletic department's staff, coaches, ticket office and the academic support area. The McGraw Center includes two additions to the Moby Arena complex.

On the south side of the arena is an addition that includes locker rooms for male and female athletes, training room and equipment room areas, a weight room and an injury rehabilitation center. The facility ranks among the most efficient in the nation. It provides Colorado State's student-athletes with state-of-the-art training facilities. Critical to the facility is the training and rehabilitation center for the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of athletic-related injuries.

One of the focal points of Moby Arena is the Colorado State Sports Hall of Fame area, located on the south concourse. The exhibit features artifacts throughout CSU athletics history, including plaques and awards for members of the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Boosters, fans, alumni and supporters of the program have the opportunity to visit the reception area and see displays tracing the history and tradition of Colorado State athletics.

Behind the hall of fame display is the newly renovated and expanded Bob Davis Hall. The 5,000 square foot room serves as a large meeting space for banquet events and press conferences.

Moby Arena offers a game-day experience like no other. Fans of all ages in Fort Collins and the front range can enjoy top-notch college volleyball and basketball in one of the most fan friendly and intimate settings in the country.

As one of the most unique playing facilities in the nation, Moby Arena has been home to Rams basketball since midway through the 1966 season. It is a 8,745-seat, whale-shaped venue that is used throughout the year.

The arena served as the setting for the 1976 movie, One On One, starring Robby Benson, Annette O'Toole, G.D. Spradlin, Gaill Strickland, and Melanie Griffith. The story was written by Benson and Jerry Segal and directed by Lamont Johnson. It was filmed on Colorado State's campus in 1975, and released a year later. Benson starred as prep basketball standout from Ault, Colo., named Henry Steele, who gets to play big-time basketball at Western University, but finds along the way he must make difficult decisions when confronted with corruption and cheating. The film's working title was Catch A Falling Star.

Moby Arena also has hosted national recording artists such as Big Head Todd and the Monsters, the Steve Miller Band and The Fray have played to sold-out crowds. Until the 1990s, Moby Arena was known as Moby Gym.

The Colorado State women's basketball has seen great success under the guidance and direction of Head Coach Ryun Williams, who enters his 11th season with the Rams and his 24th overall as a collegiate head coach in 2022-23.

Under Williams' guidance, the Colorado State women's basketball team has enjoyed one of its most successful stretches in program history. With a 192-116 (.623) mark while with the Green and Gold, Williams' is one of the top among all head coaches at Colorado State. In addition to his program-best 192 wins, Williams is one of only three coaches in program history to win 100 games or more at Colorado State, while his 109 conference wins are by far the most in program history.

While at CSU, Williams has coached a handful of Mountain West of the Year honorees, including all three of Colorado State's Mountain West Players of the Year, a Freshman POY, Newcomer OY, a trio of Newcomers OY and pair of Sixth POY, as well as seven All-Defensive team members, three All-Freshman team members and 18 All-Mountain West honorees.

Williams has reached the postseason seven times with Colorado State, including a run of five seasons from 2014-2018. The 2013-14 season saw the Rams return to the WNIT for the first time since 2004 in Williams second season after winning the Mountain

West regular season – which started a four-year run of regular season and/or tournament championships.

Williams has earned a pair of Mountain West Coach of the Year awards, coming after the 2013-14 and 2015-16 seasons. He was also named the District Coach of the Year in 2013-14 after posting a 25-8 overall record in just his second season after a WNIT appearance with the Rams.

The Rams won a program-record 28 straight games in 2015-16, shattering the previous school record of 19 consecutive victories. CSU entered 2016-17 with 15 straight wins at Moby Arena, then the third-longest winning stretch at home in school history, as well as with a program-best 12 straight wins in true road contests. The Rams were undefeated at home for the entirety of the 2015-16 season, a feat that had only been accomplished previously by the Rams during the 1998-99 season.

Williams has compiled an impressive 504-307 career record, with stops at South Dakota (2008-12), Wayne State College (1998-2008) and Sheridan College (1995-98). Williams' basketball teams have recorded 12 campaigns with 20 or more victories, 10 postseason berths and five conference championships.

Before coming to Colorado State, Williams was most recently head coach at his alma mater, South Dakota. In four seasons, Williams led the Coyotes to a highly successful stretch during their transition to Division I competition and helped them become one of the nation's premier defensive teams.

A staple of the Coyotes under Williams was team defense, and in 2011-12, the Coyotes were one of the nation's premier defensive teams. USD ranked compiled a 182-106 record (.632) and became the winningest women's basketball coach in school history.

Before taking over at Wayne State, Williams started his women's basketball head coaching career at Sheridan College (Wyo.) from 1995-98. During his tenure, Williams received a Region IX Coach of the Year nod and was named the Wyoming Conference Coach of the Year twice. After his first season in 1995-96, he nearly tripled his win totals in the next season posting a 19-12 mark. In his final season, he finished with a 28-5 record – a 21 win difference from his first season to his last.

Williams also served as the volleyball head coach and men's basketball assistant coach in 1993 at Sheridan. In his time as the head coach of the volleyball program he put together a 117-66 record. In 1995, Sheridan volleyball went 42-8, won the Region IX title and finished fifth at the junior college national tournament. Williams garnered Wyoming Conference and Region IX Coach of the Year honors in 1994 and 1995.

Sheridan is also where Williams began his collegiate playing career. He played basketball for two seasons at Sheridan, where he was an All-Region IX player as a sophomore, before transferring to South Dakota. Notably, Williams was an All-NCC selection and once led the nation in free throw percentage (91.2 percent). As a high school senior at Campbell County High School, he was named Mr. Basketball for the state of Wyoming in 1988.

A native of Gillette, Wyo., Williams earned his associate's degree from Sheridan in 1990, his bachelor's degree from South Dakota in 1992 and his master's degree from South Dakota in 1997. Williams and his wife, Lyndy, have two daughters, Natalie and Emily.

second nationally in blocks per game (7.3), eighth in field-goal defense (33.2) and 12th in scoring defense (52.3), as well as tops in the Summit League in all three categories. That season, the Coyotes qualified for the WNIT for the first time as a Division I program, marking their second straight postseason following a WBI appearance in 2010-11. South Dakota finished with a No. 97 rank in the RPI in 2011-12, the second-best RPI of any Summit League team that season as well as the highest RPI in school history.

Prior to arriving at USD in 2008, Williams spent 10 seasons at Wayne State (Neb.), building that program into a perennial contender in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference. Wayne State, which had won just 13 games combined over the previous two seasons, recorded 20 wins or more in three of Williams' final four seasons and made appearances in the NCAA Division II North Central Region tournament in two of his last three seasons. While at Wayne State, Williams Rico Burkett begins his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Colorado State women's basketball program in 2022-23. He was formally introduced as a member of the staff on May 17, 2018.

Burkett was head coach of the Wayne State men's basketball team for nine seasons, finishing his tenure with the Wildcats with the third-most wins in program history (111). Burkett's nine-year stint also ranks as the second-longest tenure in program history, behind only W. Ray Hickman, who served as WSC head coach from 1927-38.

Burkett spent 13 seasons total with the Wayne State men's basketball program, previously serving as an assistant coach under current Creighton head coach Greg McDermott for four seasons before being promoted to head coach upon McDermott's departure.

During his tenure at Wayne State, Burkett recruited and developed 19 All-NSIC (Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference) players, including nine First-Team All-NSIC selections, five Second-Team All-NSIC picks, three Third-Team All-NSIC honorees and two All-NSIC Honorable Mentions. He also coached 1998 All-American Tyler Johnson, as well as All-America Honorable Mention Brad Joens in 2000-01.

Burkett has 16 seasons of collegiate coaching experience in all, including a stop as an assistant coach for two seasons at Stetson (1995-97) and his first coaching job as a graduate assistant for the women's program at his alma mater, North Dakota (1993-94).

As a player, Burkett led North Dakota to back-to-back Elite Eight appearances from 1989-91 with no fewer than 28 wins each season and a combined four North Central Conference regular-season and region titles. In 1991, Burkett served as UND's captain, and was named the North Central Conference Defensive Player of the Year. He remains UND's all-time single-season record holder in assists (232) and second in steals (75). Burkett graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education/Secondary Education (1993).

The Colorado State position marked a return to the collegiate coaching ranks for Burkett after a nine-year hiatus from the game. In between college coaching stints, he has served his community in various positions in Grand Island, Neb. First, he was involved at Boys Town (2010-13; shelter school/youth care worker), and then the Department of Health and Human Services as a child and family services specialist (2013). He got back into basketball at Northwest High School where he was an alternative education specialist and assisted the boys basketball program from 2013-15 prior to becoming the girls' basketball coach for the three preceding seasons.

Notably, the careers of Williams and Burkett overlapped for eight years at Wayne State, as Williams held the head coaching job for the women's program during Burkett's tenure as men's head coach.

Burkett married Mandy on August 11, 2001 and the couple have two children, Taryn and Marcus.

2ND YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | ILLINOIS, '15

Kyley Bachand was named an assistant coach for Colorado State women's basketball as part of Ryun Williams' coaching staff in September of 2021.

Bachand comes to Colorado State after stops SMU, Eastern Illinois and Sioux Falls (SD).

Her stop in Dallas was short before coming to Fort Collins and during her four seasons at Eastern Illinois she spent the last as the associate head coach.

While at EIU, the Panthers improved each season and orchestrated the best two-year turnaround in the NCAA from 2017-18 to 2019-20 – all three of her seasons in Charleston, Ill. The win progression went from three (2017-18) to 11 (2018-19) to 19 (2019-20), making the nation's best two-year swing at +16 wins.

Before EIU, Bachand landed her first coaching gig at the University of Sioux Falls for the 2016-17 season and proceeded to help guide the Cougars to a 22-8 record and an appearance in the conference tournament final. After the season, she was honored as one of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Associations'

Thirty Under 30, an honor created to recognize 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches age 30 and under at all levels of the game.

The former Kyley Simmons split her four-year playing career between Missouri and Illinois. She graduated an Illini in 2015 with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications and then added a Master of Science in Recreation, Sport and Tourism a year later. On the court, she earned the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award in 2015, academic accolades in both the Big 10 and Southeastern Conference and averaged 12.3 points during her career. In her freshman year with the Tigers, she led the team in assists and was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team, becoming the first MU player to receive such award.

The Brookings, S.D. native went to Lewis High School in Council Bluffs, Iowa where she set records in career assists, single-season points and assists in addition to single-game points and assists. She married Seth Bachand in 2021.

BECKY HAMMON

Guard, 1995-1999
 Colorado State University Athletics
 Hall of Fame 2004

Long before recruiting services and star rankings came in to vogue, a basketball legend was quietly being shaped on a Rapid City, S.D., driveway. That's where Becky Hammon honed her game while playing rugged pickup games with her brother and his friends. That's where she learned the lightning quick release, the no-look pass and the indomitable will to win that made her one of the greatest players Colorado has ever seen.

"I remember when (former Colorado State University coach) Greg Williams signed Becky," said Tom Jurich, CSU's athletic director at the time. "He told me this girl from South Dakota was going to transform the women's basketball program. And he was right."

Starting with the 1995-96 season, Hammon and her teammates put CSU's program on the map. Her four-year run with the Rams was the greatest the state has ever seen. She not only established the Western Athletic Conference career scoring record — male or female — with 2,740 points, the 5-foot-6 guard led the Rams to unprecedented success.

The 1998-99 Rams finished 33-3, won the WAC title and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. She won the Francis Pomeroy Naismith Award as the best senior player under 5-foot-8, and she won All-American honors for the third time.

Hammon, though, was just getting warmed up. Despite going undrafted following her senior year, she became a prolific scorer and one of the most popular players in the WNBA for her fearless approach to the game and ever-present smile.

Hammon overcame two ACL injuries to play 16 seasons in the WNBA with the New York Liberty and San Antonio Silver Stars. Despite being one of the shortest players in the league, Hammon thrived with her deadly 3-point shooting and uncanny ability to drive to the basket despite the presence of much taller defenders.

In 2011, as part of the WNBA's 15th anniversary season, Hammon was named one of the 15 greatest players in league history. She was a six-time all-star and was the top vote-getter on the Silver Stars all-decade team.

When she retired following the 2014 season, Hammon was remembered as one of the greatest players the women's game had seen. She ranks seventh in WNBA history in points (5,841), fourth in assists (1,708), second in 3-pointers made (829) and sixth in games played (450).

Again, however, Hammon was just getting started. Before she retired, San Antonio Spurs coach Gregg Popovich announced that he was hiring Hammon as an assistant coach. This unprecedented move made Hammon the first woman in the history of North America's four major sports to work as a full-time assistant coach.

In Colorado, though, she'll long be remembered for her exploits at CSU. In 2005, her Rams jersey was retired — one of just four in school history.

"Becky was an icon and a legend," Jurich said. "She was the show, and people came from all over to see her. She got people to fall in love with that program, and it takes a very special person to do that."

Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart.

FORT COLLINS

The Choice City

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Located on the northern Front Range of the majestic Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 19th-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 170,000-plus residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and includes the historic Old Town district with its restaurants, shops, and entertainment, all within walking distance of campus. The city also boasts a lively arts and cultural scene and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with more than 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 30-plus miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. The Lincoln Center and the University Center for the Arts, anchored in Fort Collins, are northern Colorado's cultural arts centers.

THINGS TO DO

A day in Fort Collins can be filled with things to do and see. Where else can you spend the morning admiring a zoo-full of fanciful metal sculptures, the afternoon touring a brewery, and the evening listening to live music in an open-air amphitheater?

With a thriving arts scene, burgeoning craft culture, an amazing mix of outdoor recreation opportunities and more, Fort Collins has something for everyone.

Craft Beer

The city of Fort Collins and the craft beer industry have a very unique relationship. Fort Collins produces 70 percent of the craft beer produced in the state of Colorado. Currently, the city is home to the most microbreweries in the state, over 20 craft breweries as a matter of fact, and each one has its own distinctive style. This includes New Belgium Brewing which is one of the world's largest operations as well as a leader in eco-friendly and sustainable business practices.

Outdoor Activities

Fort Collins rates very favorably on lists of towns that offer exceptional outdoor adventures. Whether you're in Fort Collins for just a few days or weeks at a time, it's nearly impossible to explore all of the trails, lakes, and streams in the surrounding foothills and mountains. Biking, fishing, hiking, golfing, riding horses, canoeing and camping, you name it, Fort Collins has you covered when it comes to outdoor recreation.

Fort Collins has big-city offerings with the amenities of a Colorado mountain town. All of the aforementioned activities including exploring open space are all encouraged on your visit to Fort Collins, which plays host to National Forests, the Cache la Poudre River and Horsetooth Reservoir. Outdoor attractions in and around the city will keep you busy for days!

DENVER, COLORADO

The Mile High City

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of more than 3 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Denver is also home to over 61,000 Colorado State University alumni.

Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 17 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation.

Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall, a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheater (right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, right), and the world's 19th-busiest airport, Denver International.

RICK MIRANDA

INTERIM UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

40TH YEAR AT COLORADO STATE

Dr. Rick Miranda received his B.A. in Mathematics from the College of the Holy Cross, and his Ph. D. in Mathematics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Following postdoctoral appointments at the University of Chicago and the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, he joined the faculty at CSU in 1982. His administrative career started in 1997 when he became Chair of the Department of Mathematics; it continued with his appointment as Dean of the College of Natural Sciences in 2002.

In January of 2009 he was named Provost and Executive Vice President of the university; this was an interim role for the first year but, after a national search, became non-interim in February of 2010. He has also served as the Chief Academic Officer of the CSU System since 2012.

Dr. Miranda returned to his faculty position as full professor of Mathematics in August 2020, in addition to his role as System CAO.

He was named interim president of CSU in June 2022.

JOE PARKER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

8TH YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | MICHIGAN '87

Since his appointment to this position on March 17, 2015, Joe Parker has shaped Colorado State Athletics into one of the nation's premier collegiate athletic programs.

Parker, a proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, previously served as the Deputy Athletics Director at Texas Tech since April 2011, and has also served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan, the University of Oklahoma, Washington State University and the University of Texas.

Since beginning his tenure in Fort Collins, Parker has overseen tremendous success by the Rams' athletics programs in competition, and continued growth of Colorado State Athletics.

Under Parker's leadership, the Rams have won 21 Mountain West championships, second-most among any program in the league over that span including 15 across women's programs – the most in the league over the past seven seasons.

Academic excellence has also been at the forefront of the department's mission under Parker. In the previous five Academic Progress Rate reports, Colorado State has averaged a 985 or better, up from averages in the 970s and 960s in the years prior to Parker's arrival. Those APR reports have also included 40 perfect 1,000 single-year marks, and in the most recent Graduation Success Rate report, Colorado State posted the highest four-class average graduation rate in the Mountain West and posted a graduation success rate 17 percentage points higher than the general student body.

The 87 GSR was the highest mark in program history since reporting began in 1998.

During Parker's tenure in Fort Collins, he has skillfully and thoughtfully guided the athletics department and the university through the construction of Colorado State's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium, which opened on-time and on-budget for the 2017 football season and hosted a school-record 32,062 fans per game in its first season of operation. The state-of-the-art facility houses all aspects of the Rams' football program and includes general classroom space, the Collaborative for Student Achievement and the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center. Not reserved for just football games, the facility has also hosted more than 500 non-football events since its opening.

Parker also led the department through the successful process of selling out all premium seating inventory in the stadium. Comprised of private suites, loge boxes, indoor club and outdoor club seating, the entire premium seating inventory sold out in October 2016, nearly a year before the stadium's opening. Season ticket sales reached a record of 15,500 for the 2017 season and memberships had sold out by May 2017 to the stadium's two unique VIP areas—the New Belgium Porch and Orthopedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club.

In April 2018, Parker and CSU President Dr. Tony Frank announced a $37.7 million naming rights partnership with Public Service Credit Union, which was in the process of re-branding to Canvas Credit Union, ushering in the name Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. All of the announced partnerships by prominent Colorado companies illustrate the tremendous connection between the university and the community, and demonstrate great enthusiasm for partnering with Colorado State and investing in its future.

In Parker's tenure he also has signed an extension of Colorado State's multi-year agreement with Under Armour to be its official apparel provider through 2021, as well as an enhanced, long-term multimedia rights partnership with Learfield, both of which position Colorado State for continued growth in its profile and stature nationally.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker was involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity issues at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and launch of a $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70 percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jen, have two children, Emma and Will, both of whom are graduates of Colorado State.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JOE PARKER

He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma

Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him."
