COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

Pioneer, patriot, ground-breaker, legend -- All words which describe Colorado State great Lt. Col. John Mosley. Now his number and legacy will forever be remembered at Colorado State as his No. 14 will be retired across the whole department

No. 3 Greg Myers | No. 14 John Mosley | No. 21 Eddie Hanna

In the classroom, we are Stalwart students and high academic achievers. Our University is a world-class institution with Tier 1 designation and is Stalwart in its mission as one of the world's finest land-grant institutions.

On the field of play, we are Stalwart in our pursuit of championship excellence.

No matter how you choose to define the word, being a Stalwart Ram means you know hard work, hustle, grit, and grind. You know what it takes to go the extra mile, to give the extra effort, to persevere in the face of adversity. Whether it's in the classroom or the boardroom, on the field of play or the fields of grain, the plains or the mountains, if you're a Colorado State Ram, you are Stalwart.

Fight on you Stalwart Ram team!

Fight toward your goals.

For if they are yours, they are ours.

And Stalwart Rams see it through, together, to the end.

Stalwart isn't just a word. It's our way of life as Stalwart Rams.

COLORADO STATE FIGHT SONG

Fight on you stalwart Ram Team,

On to the goal!

Tear the (Opponent's) line asunder,

As down the field we thunder!

Knights of the green and gold,

Fight with all your might!

Fight on you Stalwart Ram team,

Fight! Fight! Fight!

But, you don't just stop being Stalwart after you graduate.

81% - Percentage of CSU graduates who indicated their future plans were related to their field of study

84% - Percentage of CSU graduates who secured employment or continuing education within six months of graduation

CREDITS

The 2024 Colorado State Football Media Guide is a publication of the Colorado State Athletics Communications office. All text and photo content is property of Colorado State Athletics and Colorado State University or used with permission and may not be reproduced without permission.

Special acknowledgement: John Hirn and his book, Aggies to Rams, as well as all former Colorado State Football communications directors and their staffs.

Editor:	Jeff Schmidt
Asst. Editor:	Mike Brohard
Design/Layout:	Kyle Neaves, Reo Radford
Contributors:	John Hirn, Dante Russo-Delee
Photography:	Brandon Randall, Matthew Silalahi, Cris Tiller, Abby Mathieson, Don Reichert, Nick Monaghan, Paul Kanaly, Marty Kling, Tommy Joe Waido, Tomas Redondo, Tim O'Hara, University Photography Services

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved.

Credentials will be screened and issued on a priority basis, with those covering Colorado State and the visiting team on a regular basis receiving top priority. Requests for credentials will be reviewed on a case-by-case, year-by-year basis.

The Colorado State Athletics Communications office has the final authority on whether any individuals from any organization will be issued media credentials.

Spouses, dates, equipment carriers and non-working members of the media are restricted from the press box, sidelines and interview areas. Any abuse of a credential to a Colorado State athletic event will result in the immediate removal of the media member from the event and may result in the agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of the season.

Credentials are issued to the individual.

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator is also held for coaches of the visiting team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: Post-game press conferences are held in the field level media room which can be accessed via the elevator or stairwell.

After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Jay Norvell and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Each Monday during the season, with the exception of the bye week, head coach Jay Norvell holds his weekly press conference beginning at Noon. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the Communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

FIELD & LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Photographers are allowed access to the playing field at only two points throughout the course of the event: when the Rams enter the field immediately prior to kickoff and immediately following the game.

Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for the stretch and individual portions of Tuesday and Wednesday practices, generally the first 30-45 minutes. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. When attending practice, please contact Jeff Schmidt or Matt Brumley prior to entering the facility.

BROADCAST TEAM

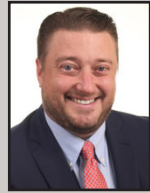

Brian Roth
Play-by-Play

Ricky Brewer
Analyst

Marty Cesario
Sideline

Kevin McGlue
Sideline/Analyst

Colorado State, on a weekly basis, reaches thousands of television homes throughout the region and nation. Eight area television stations and several radio outlets along the Front Range come to campus to interview and feature CSU's student-athletes and coaches. LEARFIELD is the national leader in collegiate sports marketing and serves as the exclusive rights holder for Colorado State Athletics.

RAM FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

Brian Roth, The Voice of the Rams, and former Ram Ricky Brewer, alongside reporters Marty Cesario and Kevin McGlue bring Ram fans all the action every game day, home and away.

Roth, who also serves as the Director of Broadcasting, has served as the lead play-by-play broadcaster for Colorado State Football over two stints, 2010-12 and since 2016, and his relationship with the broadcast team extends back to 2000-01 when he began as the announcer for women's basketball. Roth's association on the football broadcasts began in 2001 as the sideline reporter before moving into the booth as a color commentator in 2007. In total, Roth has been on the air for close to 300 games and has called the action for nearly half of those.

A native of Aurora, Roth is a 1993 graduate of Smoky Hill High School and 1998 graduate of another state university. Roth is also a regular contributor to Colorado State's RamWire storytelling arm with weekly podcasts devoted to the coverage of CSU Athletics. He is married to the former Corinne Hofstetter, a two-time Mountain West champion in the 200-yard fly as a CSU swimmer in 2003-04. They have three children, twins Trenton and Juliette, and Taylor.

Former Ram, Ricky Brewer enters his third season with the broadcast crew as the analyst. An all-conference linebacker for the Rams from 2006-10, Brewer was one of five permanent team captains in 2010 and currently works in the Denver area as an assistant principal. The Denver native got his first action calling Rams games alongside Roth and the retired Mark Driscoll during the 2021 Border War and also during the 2022 Green vs. Gold Spring game.

Cesario, an alum of Colorado State University, has been a member of the broadcast team since 2011 as the sideline reporter and host of the Rams' pre-game tailgate show. A veteran sports broadcaster with experience calling Colorado High School Athletic Association events since 2001, as well as ESPN bowl games since 2010, Cesario is a regular face and voice across the state in the broadcasting world.

McGlue returns to the sideline and will add his insights for home and road games through the first half of the season. With nearly two decades of experience calling Colorado State games, McGlue's perspective adds just another layer to the team's extensive coverage. McGlue's roots in northern Colorado are also a valuable piece to the game day coverage.

2023 REVIEW

HISTORY

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium opened in 2017 and brought Colorado State Football back to campus for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The 727,000-square-foot facility seats 36,500 with standing room up to 41,000 and includes football offices, meeting rooms, locker rooms, and training facilities on the west side. The east side of the building includes the Iris and Michael Smith Alumni Center, general classroom space and the Collaborative for Student Achievement.

CSU and Canvas Credit Union announced a 15-year, $37.7 million naming rights agreement in April 2018, and the stadium was officially renamed to Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brought the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57.7 million for the stadium.

Two spectacular VIP areas — the New Belgium Porch in the north end zone and the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies (OCR) Field Club behind the Rams' bench at midfield — are unique in all of college football. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game day and non-game day usage.

SONNY LUBICK FIELD

The playing surface at Canvas Stadium is named in honor of former head coach Sonny Lubick who spent 15 seasons (1993-2007) on the sidelines. Over his career, Lubick amassed 108 victories and a career winning percentage of .593 - both the second-best marks in program history.

Of Colorado State's 15 conference championships, Lubick's team captured six over a span of nine seasons (1994-2002), marking the most successful era in program history.

For his efforts, Lubick was named the conference coach of the year four times during his CSU career (1994, 1997, 1999, 2000), and three times during his career, the Rams finished in the final top 25 rankings (1994, 15th; 1997, 16th; 2000, 14th).

The former head coach remains a prominent member of the Fort Collins and northern Colorado community as the Vice President of Community Outreach for Canvas Credit Union. He also owns and operates Sonny Lubick Steakhouse in Old Town Fort Collins.

TIMELINE OF CONSTRUCTION

Dec. 15, 2014: Board of Governors approves President Dr. Tony Franks' recommendation to build a multipurpose on-campus stadium

March 19, 2015: CSU System secures more than $239 million in financing from investors through a bond sale to fund construction. All bonds sold in just 90 minutes

May 18, 2015: Site prep began and construction fence was erected

Sept. 12, 2015: Ceremonial ground breaking at construction site

Oct. 2015: Major excavation began in preparation to drill the first of 666 caissons that formed the deep foundation of the stadium

Aug. 2, 2016: Topping-out beam-raising ceremony

Oct. 2016: Premium seating sold out

April 13, 2017: First sections of playing surface installed

June 9, 2017: Substantial completion; CSU took occupancy

June 16, 2017: "Rocky Mountain Rumble" statue installed on the north side of the facility

July 3, 2017: First special event, a wedding, hosted at the multipurpose stadium

Aug. 26, 2017: First football game, Colorado State vs. Oregon State

STADIUM FACTS

PREMIUM SEATING: 23 private suites, 884 club seats and 224 loge box seats; sold out in October 2016

VIDEOBOARD: Main board measures 50.5' x 84' (4,242 square feet), largest along the Front Range and one of biggest in the league; nearly the size of a basketball court

MARKLEY FAMILY HALL OF CHAMPIONS: Located on the west side at the main entry, the 6,300-square-foot space features displays of Colorado State's rich athletics history, and leads into the OCR Field Club.

LEED CERTIFIED: LEED Silver certified in 2020

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS: CSU's football operations are incorporated into the building, with the following included:

- Weight Room: 9,100-square-foot weight room with accessibility and views in from the player and recruit lounges and the football administration offices
- Sports Medicine: Sports medicine offices, taping area, nutrition area and hydrotherapy space complete with four plunge pools
- Meeting Rooms: 150 seat theater-style team meeting room with position meeting rooms in the same hallway
- Player/Recruit Lounge: 3,700 square feet of custom space provides student-athletes space to gather

TOTAL AREA: 17.56 acres on the CSU campus

BUILDING HEIGHT: 123 feet at highest point

MATERIALS: Colorado sandstone, metal panel and glass make up the primary material palette, tying into the existing architecture on campus; majority of materials come from locations within 500 miles of the stadium site.

THE AGGIE "A"

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking the old Hughes Stadium site is the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

The "A" evolved after World War I when a trend began among colleges to display the school insignia on a hill near campus. At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect such an emblem. A group of military volunteers formed the "A" Club and donated vehicles for transporting supplies, and female students provided food for the workers.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A." One small detail was missing: The school didn't own the land on which the insignia sat. The College and Ag Board members met with landowner R.G. Maxwell and negotiated a long-term lease for the sum of $1. The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom. For many years the freshman class carried out the annual tradition of whitewashing the "A."

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.

THE CANNON

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents which just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU Athletics.

At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

CAM THE RAM

The official mascot of Colorado State is CAM the Ram, whose name symbolizes CSU's history - an acronym for Colorado Agricultural & Mechanical College, the institution's former name. All told, 25 live rams have served proudly. The mascot has its own corps of students, known as the 'Ram Handlers,' as well as a traveling trailer. The current rambouillet began his duties on Sept. 19, 2015.

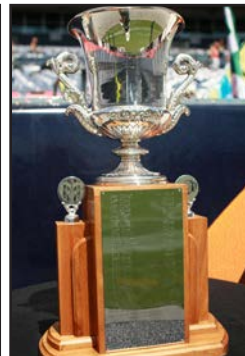

TRAVELING TROPHIES

THE BRONZE BOOT

CSU's most important traveling trophy is the Bronze Boot. Created in 1968 from an actual leather boot worn by Captain Dan Romero in the Vietnam War, The Boot is fiercely guarded by both Colorado State and Wyoming.

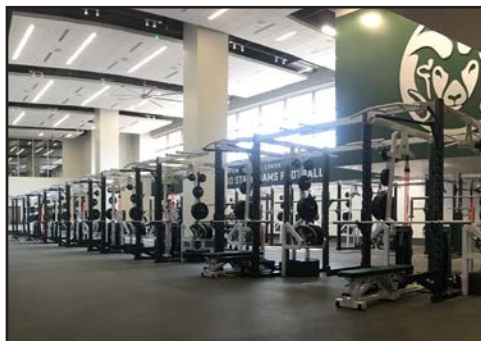

Prior to the 2021 season, school officials - seeing the need for major refurbishment - had The Boot refinished. The effort was led by Colorado State which had The Boot's bronze coating strengthened by The Bronzery in Escondido, Calif., and the base refinished by Alpine Cabinets, owned by CSU alums, in nearby Timnath.

While the fan-side features of Canvas Stadium get the most attention from fans, media, and spectators of all ages, the interior section of the stadium provides Colorado State football players state-of-the-art facilities that rival any found in on-campus stadiums across the country.

Inside Canvas Stadium, Ram student-athletes have access to their locker room, training room facilities, strength and conditioning facilities, the fuel and nutrition center as well as the equipment room and team meeting spaces. Team meals are also served throughout the year inside the facility.

Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility which allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

- A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field
- Large gymnasium for basketball and volleyball
- Utilized for training by all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track
- Retractable netting for batting cages and golf workouts

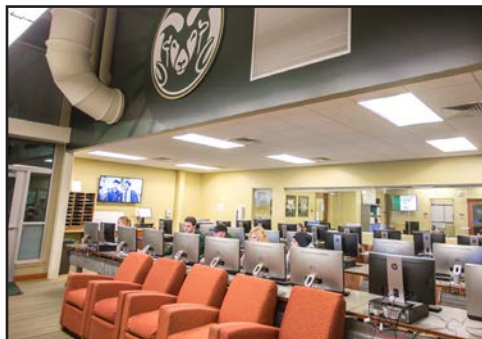

Student-Athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them.

That's why, in 2009, the Anderson Academic Center was completed, offering Ram student-athletes a first-class academic facility.

Features:

- A computer lab with more than 30 workstations
- Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas
- Seven full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) report (2022-23), nine programs achieved a perfect 1,000 single-year APR, and overall, the 988 average APR for the department marked the seventh consecutive report over 985.

KEY

In an attempt to modernize our roster to provide more clarity about the makeup of the Rams, we have added four columns to the traditional layout of a roster. The key for those additions is below.

RM: Remaining Years (Including Current Season) | C19: * Indicates a COVID-19 Year | 1st: First Semester in College | CSU: First Season at CSU

Jay Norvell enters his third season at the helm of the Colorado State program after he was named the 24th head coach in program history by former Director of Athletics Joe Parker on Monday, Dec. 6, 2021.

Norvell, who led the Nevada Wolf Pack to four bowl games in five seasons (2017-21) as head coach prior to coming to Fort Collins, has an offensive-coaching acumen which is unquestioned after he built a conference title contender at Nevada. Former Wolf Pack quarterback Carson Strong was a two-time MW Offensive Player of the Year as Nevada led the MW in passing offense in 2021 at 365.8 yards per game. The Wolf Pack posted four-consecutive winning seasons under Norvell including a pair of bowl wins in 2018 (Arizona) and 2020 (Famous Idaho Potato).

Norvell's first season in Fort Collins may not have seen growth in the win-loss column from the team he inherited, but the cultural progress under Norvell's direction was undeniable.

The Rams posted a 3-9 record in his first season, a campaign which opened against CFP semifinalist Michigan and was filled with seven teams which advanced to the postseason. Starting three different quarterbacks during the season (all of whom were redshirt or true freshmen), the Rams showed signs of improvement on offense as the season progressed, averaging 247.3 yards of total offense the first half, improving to 324.1 the second half.

The same trend showed on defense, with the Rams going from 400.8 yards allowed to 309.1. Seven players were named All-Mountain West, including first-team selections for wideout Tory Horton and safety Jack Howell. Quarterback Clay Millen and defensive tackle Grady Kelly were named freshmen All-America by Pro Football Network.

Using his time at Nevada as the blueprint, Norvell set out to build the Colorado State program through recruiting ahead of the 2023 season. That plan resulted in the highest-rated recruiting classes in program history based on 247Sports' Composite rankings and the second highest in the Mountain West by the same metric.

The 2023 season saw improvement in nearly every category, including the win column with a 5-7 mark. Scoring also doubled from the season prior, from 13.17 points per game to 26.08 as redshirt freshman Braydon Fowler-Nicolosi started under center in week two and finished the season leading the league in total offense with 3,433 yards.

The season produced a program first, a victory over Boise State after a last-second Hail Mary was caught by tight end Dallin Holker in the end zone. CSU scored 21 points in the final 4:02 of the game to secure the first-ever victory.

The Rams looked to return to bowl eligibility, but came up short, suffering losses after leading or tied with less than a minute left in three games, including the season finale at Hawaii.

The Rams earned 12 All-Mountain West awards, highlighted by Mohamed Kamara's selection as the Defensive Player of the Year. Kamara would go on to be drafted in the fifth round in the 2024 NFL Draft to the Miami Dolphins.

During the offseason, Norvell again built a recruiting class which was a 19-player freshman class ranked first in the Mountain West by 247Sports and ranked fifth overall among the Group of Five, while also using the transfer portal to add players in key positions.

Bold - Opponent on 2024 Schedule

Off the field and the recruiting trail, Norvell's impact in the Fort Collins and Colorado State community has been equally as significant. From the day Norvell stepped foot on campus, he has interacted with anyone interested in Colorado State University and Colorado State Athletics. From speaking engagements to organizing a run for charity, Norvell has re-ignited a spark in the community around his program.

Perhaps his biggest and most notable introduction has been that of the Grit Run - a 5K fun-run around campus with all proceeds going to benefit research around cystic fibrosis, a disease which impacts his wife, Kim, on a daily basis. In its first year, the Norvells raised more than $20,000 to directly benefit the CF Foundation. The total has nearly tripled through year three with more than $60,000 going to research causes.

Prior to the 2024 season, Norvell established a Minority Fellowship position within his coaching staff in honor of his late father Merritt Norvell. The position titled Merritt James Norvell Diversity Fellowship will be for a young minority coach to gain experience and will be completely funded by Jay and his wife. Norvell is the first Black head coach in program history.

At Nevada, the Wolf Pack enjoyed an immense turnaround under Norvell's leadership, and it paid off in the postseason honors as well. Including Strong's consecutive Offensive Player of the Year awards, 16 Nevada student-athletes earned All-MW honors in 2021 led by first-team wide receiver Romeo Doubs, who finished the regular season ranked No. 12 nationally in receiving yards. Norvell was named the 2020-21 College Coach of the Year by the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches.

Strong concluded his 2021 campaign ranked top-10 nationally in completions per game (3rd; 30.4), passing yards (4th; 4,175), passing yards per game (5th; 347.9), passing touchdowns (6th; 36), completion percentage (8th; 69.9) and total offense (8th; 330.6).

Norvell's resume and experiences reaches to all corners of college and professional football. He has spent time in the Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12, and NFL with the Indianapolis Colts and Oakland Raiders - a period that included an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002 under head coach Bill Callahan. During his time as an assistant, Norvell coached in every BCS bowl game during the BCS Era including the 2009 BCS National Championship with Oklahoma. Overall, he has been to 22 bowl games as both a player and a coach.

An All-Big 10 defensive back during his playing career at Iowa under legendary Hawkeyes coach Hayden Fry, Norvell got his first opportunity in coaching under Fry on the offensive side of the football. That move proved fruitful for the young graduate assistant in 1986.

Over stops at Oklahoma, Texas, and Arizona State, Norvell mixed his Air Raid-style offensive scheme with principles of under-center schemes employed in the NFL to put together a highly effective offensive machine. While coaching wide receivers at Oklahoma (2008-14), a period which also including serving as co-offensive coordinator (2011-14), Norvell mentored Oklahoma greats in Kenny Stills, Sterling Shephard and Ryan Broyles, who left Oklahoma as the NCAA's all-time leader in receptions.

His run at Oklahoma coincided with the careers of three of the top four players on OU's all-time receptions list: Broyles, Stills, and Jaquín Iglesias. He also oversaw five of the program's top six single-season reception marks and helped his receiving corps earn 10 all-conference and three academic all-conference first team honors.

Prior to his appointment at Oklahoma, Norvell served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at both UCLA (2007) and Nebraska (2004-06). The Cornhuskers were one of only two teams in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing offense in 2006. That same year Nebraska totaled nine wins and finished the regular season as Big 12 North Division Champions.

Aside from the college game, Norvell coached for six seasons in the NFL, four of which were with the Colts and two with the Raiders. While with Oakland he coached tight ends for two seasons and worked alongside an offense that included Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice and Tim Brown. His trip to the Super Bowl in 2002 was steered by an offense that led the NFL in total yards and passing yards per game. Norvell joined the Colts coaching staff in 1998 as the wide receivers coach and mentored Marvin Harrison to 385 receptions, 5,376 receiving yards and 48 touchdowns during his tenure. His time with the Colts was also the first four seasons of two-time Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning's career.

A 1986 graduate of Iowa, Norvell was an All-Big Ten defensive back and recorded a league-high seven interceptions in 1985 as he helped the Hawkeyes put together a 10-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the Rose Bowl. He was a member of the Chicago Bears in 1987 before he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell, who hails from Madison, Wis., has a wife, Kim, and son, Jaden. He is the author of a book, "Complete Wide Receiver," which was published in 2012.

MATT MUMME

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | QUARTERBACKS

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | KENTUCKY, '99

Matt Mumme, an Air Raid offense enthusiast, was hired as Colorado State's associate head coach and quarterbacks coach in December 2021, following head coach Jay Norvell from Nevada. He spent five years in both roles with the Wolf Pack.

Guiding the youngest quarterbacks room in the country in 2022 – none of them were older than redshirt freshmen and three different players started games – Mumme's teaching prowess was evident as Clay Millen was named a Freshman All-American by College Football News after setting the school record for completion percentage at 72.2. The mark also set the FBS record for a freshman and was the second best in Mountain West history.

In the final two seasons at Nevada, the Wolf Pack offense hit new heights, led by quarterback Carson Strong, who repeated as Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year. Nevada led the conference in scoring offense (36.7 points per game), touchdowns (54), pass attempts (549), pass completions (383) and passing offense (365.8 yards per game) as Strong led the league in total offense (330.5 per), passing yards per game (347.9) and tied for the lead in passing touchdowns (36).

After ranking 12th nationally in 2020 in passing offense, Nevada finished fourth in 2021 and the scoring offense ranked 15th nationally.

Under Mumme's direction in 2017, Ty Gangi broke out to become a top threat in the conference. Gangi garnered an All-MW honorable mention after leading the league in touchdown passes (23) during the conference season. In total, Gangi threw 25 touchdown passes on the year, which ranked in the top 30 nationally, and totaled over 2,700 yards through the air.

Mumme also developed a couple of key receiving targets in the Air Raid scheme in All-MW second team performer Wyatt Demps and freshman All-America McLane Mannix. Demps posted one of the finest seasons by a Pack receiver in recent memory, leading the conference with 11 receiving touchdowns and finishing second in receptions with 67. Demps nearly notched a 1,000-yard receiving season as well, totaling 908 yards which ranked in the top 45 in the nation. Mannix on the other hand snagged 57 catches for 778 yards, notched six touchdowns and averaged 13.6 yards per catch. His 57 receptions were tied for second among freshmen wide receivers, he was fifth in receiving yards and fourth in receiving touchdowns.

Mumme arrived in Fort Collins with 19 years of coaching experience under his belt, including 10 as an offensive coordinator at New Mexico State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, McMurry University, Davidson College and LaGrange College. In his coaching career, he has guided a top-10 passing offense in the nation 11 times, including three times as the top passing offense in the nation and once as the top team in total offense.

Mumme's offense led the USA South conference in passing for the fourth straight year in 2016, averaging more than 360 yards per game. The Panthers led NCAA Division III in passing yards per game in 2013 and were sixth in 2014. In 2016 they finished fifth in the nation in passing.

Mumme's offenses at Davidson broke numerous school records. Quarterback Jonathan Carkhuff broke the school passing record and was sixth in the nation, while receiver Lanny Funsten became an All-American under Mumme, setting a single-season school record with 100 receptions.

His 2003 offense at SELU led the nation in both passing offense and total offense. The 2004 Lions offense also led the nation in passing under Mumme's direction. Mumme holds a degree in human environmental studies with a minor in business from the University of Kentucky and also earned a master's in business administration from Southeastern Louisiana University. His wife, Fayedra, is a licensed professional counselor.

FREDDIE BANKS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | SECONDARY

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | NORTH DAKOTA STATE, '10

Freddie Banks serves as Colorado State's defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach, a post he assumed in January 2022 as a part of Jay Norvell's initial coaching staff.

Banks arrived in Fort Collins fresh off leading the No. 6 scoring defense in the FCS to the national championship game while in the same role at Montana State. It was the Bobcats' first appearance in the FCS national championship game since 1984.

Colorado State's defense showed improvement in Banks' first season, trimming nearly 80 yards of total offense allowed from the first half to the second half and scoring by more than 11 points. The unit posted a shutout for the first time since 2016 when the Rams blanked New Mexico on the final weekend, and generated at least one turnover a game after the opener, including a streak of six consecutive games with an interception. In a win over Nevada, the defense produced the Rams' only two touchdowns of the game on an interception return by Ayden Hector and a fumble return by Mukendi Wa-Kalonji. Sophomore safety Jack Howell was named first-team All-Mountain West after leading the team with 108 tackles and tying for the team lead with three interceptions. Defensive end Mohamed Kamara earned second-team All-MW honors, with CJ Onyechi, Dequan Jackson and Chigozie Anusiem named honorable mention. Defensive tackle Grady Kelly was named a College Football News Freshman All-American.

Under his tutelage at Montana State, the Bobcats' defense allowed just 10 or fewer points in seven of 15 games in 2021. The unit allowed just 15.0 points per game and 310.1 yards of total offense, the 14th-best mark in the FCS. The Bobcats collected 42 sacks (12th) and generated 24 turnovers (17th), including 18 interceptions (4th) on the season.

The Bobcats were also stingy in the red zone, posting the No. 18 ranked red zone defense in the country.

Montana State linebacker Troy Andersen was named a first team All-American as well as the FCS Defensive Player of the Year by Phil Steele, and defensive lineman Daniel Hardy earned first team All-American honors by the same outlet. Andersen was also named the Big Sky Conference's Defensive Player of the Year while six other Bobcats picked up All-Big Sky honors.

Joining the Colorado State staff is a reunion for Banks and Norvell as the defensive coordinator spent one year at Nevada as the Wolf Pack's cornerbacks coach.

Banks played at Mercyhurst in 2007 before transferring to North Dakota State, where he finished out his career in 2010. His coaching career started a year later at Minnesota State-Moorhead. In just two seasons, he became the defensive coordinator there before moving to Nicholls to coach cornerbacks from 2013-14. He then spent one season as a high school coach in Louisiana before returning to the college ranks at Midwestern State, where he coached the secondary from 2016-18, then spent the 2019 seasons as the cornerbacks coach at Stephen F. Austin.

BILL BEST

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | LOUISIANA-MONROE, '01

Bill Best was named Colorado State's offensive line coach in December 2021, following Jay Norvell from Nevada, where Best served in the same role for two seasons.

In his first season, Best had to guide the Rams through a series of injuries, leading to four different centers starting during the season, including a walk-on true freshman. The unit had a different starting five in each of the first five weeks, using six different combinations throughout the season. The only positions which did not experience change were the two guard slots. In the end, Jacob Gardner still earned honorable mention All-Mountain West recognition for the third consecutive season.

In two seasons at Nevada, his offensive line earned nine All-Mountain West honors, ranging from second team to honorable mention. In 2021, five of his linemen were recognized for protecting two-time Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, quarterback Carson Strong, enabling the Wolf Pack to finish fourth nationally in passing offense.

After beginning his coaching career at the high school level, Best has spent the bulk of his college career in Texas, beginning at the junior college level in 2004 with stops at West Texas A&M, Central Arkansas, Stephen F. Austin and Rice.

He coached tight ends at Rice in 2018 and 2019 after a strong four-year run at SFA with the Lumberjacks. While at Nacogdoches, SFA averaged 435 yards per game in 2016 and 2017, including a rushing offense that put up more than 200 yards a game in 2017. The Lumberjacks' offensive line also paved the way for a 1,600-yard rusher during Best's first season in 2014.

Prior to SFA, Best spent the previous two seasons as the offensive line coach for Central Arkansas. Best spent six seasons at West Texas A&M, beginning his career with the Buffs in 2006 as a graduate assistant before being elevated to associate head coach and offensive line coach in 2007. In 2011 he served as offensive coordinator for the Buffaloes.

Best spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Ranger College (2004-05) after beginning his coaching career at the high school level in Louisiana.

He played at Millsaps College and Louisiana Monroe.

JAMES FINLEY

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | OREGON, '07

James Finley coaches the tight ends as a part of Jay Norvell's initial coaching staff, coming to Colorado State in January 2022.

Originally hired to coach running backs, Finley shifted to tight ends following the hire of Timmy Chang to Hawaii.

In his first season as a collegiate coach, he led a young and inexperienced group of tight ends who would start to add some punch by the end of the campaign. His room finished the season with 22 catches, with true freshman Jordan Williams earning a start late in the season and producing his first collegiate score on a 21-yard pass.

Finley's impact was felt on the recruiting trail almost immediately. Known throughout southern California particularly, Finley was instrumental in helping the Rams ink the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history in 2023 which included nine players from the area.

Finley came to Fort Collins after spending four seasons as the wide receivers coach at Mater Dei, a southern California high school football powerhouse, where he helped win two national championships. Former Ram George Miki-Han is an alumnus of the program as is former CSU punter Ryan Stonehouse.

Finley was an All-Pac 10 Honorable Mention Selection over two years playing at Oregon (2005-06).

Prior to his career at Oregon, Finley was ranked among the nation's top 10 junior college wide receivers following the 2004 season by SuperPrep as well as 32nd in the country among JC prospects encompassing all positions. College Football News tabbed him nationally as the sixth-best junior college receiver and 15th-best overall recruit. He ranked seventh in California in receptions per game as a sophomore (6.4 avg.) and 11th in yards per game (100.8 avg.), hauling in seven touchdowns to go along with his 64 catches and 1,008 receiving yards.

During his prep career, he completed his senior year with 83 receptions for more than 1,400 yards and 14 touchdowns to become one of three wide receivers to be named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's Best-in-the-West contingent as well as the Tacoma News Tribune's Western One-Hundred. His 131 receptions for 2,477 yards and 28 TDs during his final two prep campaigns did not include his six catches for 122 yards and two scores in the post-season California-Florida high school all-star game.

JEREMY MOSES

ASSISTANT COACH | RUNNING BACKS

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | STEPHEN F. AUSTIN, '11

For Moses, it is a return to the collegiate ranks after spending the past few seasons as a high school football coach in Texas, both at Clear Lake and Baytown Sterling.

In his first season at CSU, he helped Avery Morrow transform from a backup at Nevada to a certified threat in the Mountain West for the Rams. Morrow rushed for 834 yards, producing a trio of 100-yard games (the first of his career) and four touchdowns.

The seven years prior, he was an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Stephen F. Austin, coaching the wide receivers and running backs before serving as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach his final two seasons.

In his first year in charge of SFA's wideouts, Moses led a talented group of receivers highlighted by sophomore Tamrick Pace, who claimed All-Southland Second Team honors after leading the team in receptions (53) and receiving yards (645) for the second-straight season. Pace reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark in 2017 after just 15 games played. Moses also coached the duo of junior FBS transfers Terian Goree and Frank Iheanacho, who made their presence felt in the Southland Conference by combining for 75 catches for 656 yards.

Prior to the 2017 season, Moses spent three years working with the SFA running backs, overseeing a group that rushed for over 1,000 yards and eight touchdowns in 2016. Sophomore Loren Easley led the way with 497 yards and seven touchdowns for the 'Jacks with senior Joshawa West adding 452 yards on the ground. Newcomer Kijana Amous also came on strong at the end of the season, finishing with 228 yards and a touchdown.

The Lumberjack rushing unit continued to thrive in 2015, led by the emergence of freshman Easley, who led the team with 759 rushing yards and two of the top-10 longest runs in program history. Junior West added to the rushing attack with his 617 yards, giving SFA a balanced onslaught on the ground. In 2014, Moses spent the season leading Walter Payton Award finalist Gus Johnson, guiding the senior to the best rushing season in both SFA and Southland history. It formed a unique storyline with a Walter Payton Award winner mentoring a Walter Payton Award finalist.

Named to numerous All-America teams during his collegiate career from 2007-10, Moses re-wrote both school and Southland record books on his way to being named FCS National Player of the Year. A two-time Southland Player of the Year selection, Moses graduated from SFA as the NCAA's all-time leader in completions (1,184) at the FCS level.

Following his playing career for the Purple and White, Moses spent one season at North Alabama as an offensive assistant on Terry Bowden's coaching staff before returning to his alma mater.

CHUKA NDULUE

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

1ST YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | OKLAHOMA, '14

Ndulue came to Fort Collins following two incredibly successful seasons in the same role at New Mexico State which included a double-digit win figure (10) for just the second time in program history.

During the Aggies' historic 2023 season, Ndulue led defensive tackle Sterling Webb to first team All-Conference USA recognition – the lone defensive first teamer for the Aggies – and Izaiah Reed to honorable mention honors. The Aggie defense led C-USA in points allowed per game during the regular season (19.7), and Webb was one of the league's most disruptive interior defenders.

Prior to his time in Las Cruces, Ndulue led the defensive line for three seasons at FCS Southern Illinois. During his tenure, the Salukis totaled 21 wins and advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs in both 2020 and 2021. Ndulue mentored three defensive linemen - Jordan Berner, Anthony Knighton, and Malik Haynes – to All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors. Knighton concluded his career as the Salukis' all-time leader in career sacks (25.5), tackles for loss (52.0) and games started (57).

In 2017, following his playing career in the NFL, Ndulue began coaching as a volunteer assistant coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma, before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at Nebraska in 2018.

Signed by the Denver Broncos out of college, Ndulue spent three seasons in the NFL with Denver (2015) and the Los Angeles Chargers (2015-16) following a decorated collegiate career at Oklahoma where he was a three-year starter for the Sooners. He racked up 140 tackles, 17.0 tackles for loss and 12 sacks over the course of his Oklahoma career (2010-14) and earned All-Big 12 second team honors twice. His 15 tackles against Texas in the 2013 Red River Rivalry set an Oklahoma program record for tackles in a game by a defensive lineman. He was a part of 51 victories, including three bowl wins, and two Big 12 regular season titles as a player.

MARCUS PATTON

ASSISTANT COACH | CORNERBACKS

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | KANSAS STATE, '05

Marcus Patton joined the Colorado State coaching staff as a part of Jay Norvell's initial hiring roster prior to the 2022 season and coaches the cornerbacks.

In his first season with the Rams, his group helped the Rams rank third in the conference in pass defense efficiency at 111.11. Chigozie Anusiem led the corners, tying for the team lead with nine passes defended on his way to All-Mountain West honorable mention honors.

Patton came to Colorado State after six seasons at Tarleton State where he served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Patton led Tarleton's first NCAA Division I campaign in the unprecedented spring football season of 2021. The Texans went 5-3 in their first season at the FCS level and earned their first win over a Division I program against FBS Independent New Mexico State on February 21. The first Tarleton defense to take on Division I held opponents to 19.3 points per game and made three interceptions in the secondary. In four of those games, the Texan defense managed to hold their opponents to under 200 yards of total offense.

Prior to making their Division I debut, Patton and the Tarleton defense put together the most impressive season in school history in 2018 as the Texans set a school record with 12 victories. With Patton calling the defense, the Texans allowed just 16.4 points per game and only 300 yards per contest en route to the first outright LSC title in program history and advancing to the NCAA regional finals with a 12-1 record and a No. 5 national ranking. The 214 points allowed are the fewest for the Texans in the NCAA era.

The Texan defense recorded 17 interceptions and had 33 sacks in 13 games. The defense also posted two shutouts – including a 58-0 rout over No. 24 Azusa Pacific in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

He coached the LSC Defensive Back of the Year in Devin Hafford and had 13 all-conference defensive players.

Patton coached three All-American's in Hafford (CB), Tyrell Thompson (DT) and Jai Edwards (FS). Patton coached a pair of defenders who went on to the NFL in linebacker EJ Speed, who was drafted in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts, the highest draft pick in program history, and Tyrell Thompson, who signed a free agent deal with the Los Angeles Rams and was later drafted into the NFL.

He coached Tarleton's Cody Burtcher to one of the most decorated seasons by a single player in school history as the senior was named first-team All-LSC, All-Region, AFCA All-America, and the Lone Star Conference Linebacker of the Year under Patton's leadership. In addition to Burtcher, Patton's defense also boasted EJ Speed, who earned second-team honors and led the nation in forced fumbles, as well as honorable mention All-LSC players Dominique Martin, Chase Varnado, Basil Jackson, and Treston Ridge.

Patton went to Tarleton after spending the 2014-15 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Colorado Mesa. In 2015, his Maverick defense was one of the best in the nation and finished in the top-10 in the country in multiple defensive categories including: fourth-down conversion defense, defensive touchdowns scored, and turnover margin with 28 defensive takeaways including 19 interceptions. Mesa also finished No. 11 in the nation in red-zone defense and No. 12 in the nation in scoring defense after allowing just 17.8 points per game.

Patton, who has also spent time as a collegiate assistant coach at Fairmont State, Seton Hill, UCLA, Indiana State, and South Florida, played football for Kansas State University from 2000-04.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Patton earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Kansas State and then went on to coach four seasons at the high school level in Florida before returning to the college ranks as a defensive assistant.

TOMMY PERRY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | TEXAS A&M, '03

Veteran coach Tommy Perry was named the special teams coach by Jay Norvell in January of 2022 as part of his initial staff.

Perry, who began coaching in 2004, becomes the first Colorado State coach devoted solely to special teams. He has spent the past five seasons of his career solely as a special teams coach, and has held the title 12 other seasons at various stops, the first being at Texas A&M – Commerce in 2005.

At each stop, his units have shown improvement from the onset. In 2013, his first at North Texas, the Mean Green led the nation with eight blocked kicks, of them, a nation-leading five punts, three of which were returned for touchdowns. His coverage and kicking units have regularly ranked in the top 20 nationally.

The first season in Fort Collins saw the Rams finish Mountain West action leading the league in punt return average (15.5) and ranking third in net punting (39.6). Employing first-time starters at punter and place kicker, Michael Boyle made 9-of-11 attempts, including the game winner at Nevada. Tory Horton was the leading punt returner in conference play, averaging 15.5 yards per return, including a 72-yard scoring burst vs. Wyoming.

Prior to coming to Colorado State, Perry won a Conference USA championship with UTSA in 2021 while leading the Roadrunner special teams units.

Under Perry's tutelage, punter Lucas Dean earned second-team All-America accolades from the Sporting News and was a fourth-team selection by Phil Steele after shattering UTSA's single-season punting average record with a 46.0 mark, which led Conference USA and ranked sixth nationally.

The 2020 C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year and a first-team all-league pick, Dean punted 57 times with 27 that pinned opponents inside their own 20-yard line, 21 that sailed 50-plus yards, 10 that resulted in fair catches and only four that went for a touchback.

Placekicker Hunter Duplessis, an honorable mention All-American by Phil Steele, emerged as one of the most reliable kickers in the country that same season, making 17 of 20 field goals (85%) and converting 40 of 41 extra-point attempts en route to scoring a program-record 91 points. The Lou Groza Award semifinalist and first-team all-conference performer carried a streak of 23 consecutive field goals made from 2019 into October before it was snapped, and the Campbell Trophy semifinalist and C-USA All-Academic Team honoree also kicked off 46 times with 15 touchbacks in 2020.

The role at Colorado State reunites Perry with Norvell after the two worked together during Norvell's first three seasons at Nevada.

In Perry's second year, Nevada improved its punt return game from 10.0 yards per return to 12.59 yards per return, which ranked second in the Mountain West and 24th nationally. A big reason for the increase in punt return success was rookie Romeo Doubs, who returned a punt against Portland State 80 yards for a touchdown on his first collegiate touch. Perry also worked with punter Quinton Conaway, who averaged 43.6 yards per punt, which ranked in the top five in the league and in the top 30 nationally. Conaway also booted a 74-yard punt in 2018, which was tied for the 12th longest punt of the season across the nation.

His playing career started in 2000 at Tyler Community College, and after two seasons he transferred to Texas A&M where he played linebacker, defensive end and fullback. His grandfather, John David Crow, won the Heisman Trophy for Texas A&M in 1957.

Adam Pilapil was hired as the linebackers coach in December of 2022 as part of Jay Norvell's inaugural coaching staff.

Inheriting a blend of young and experienced talent, he saw all four of his backers finish among the top 13 in tackles for the team. Dequan Jackson earned second-team All-Mountain West honors after recording 100 tackles, including 6.0 for loss, while Cam'Ron Carter ranked third on the team with 76 stops.

Pilapil is familiar with the Mountain West and the Border War rivalry with Wyoming having played linebacker four seasons for the Cowboys.

As a senior, he was part of a group ranked 19th nationally in total defense and 25th in rush defense. He was named Academic All-Mountain West all four seasons, finishing with 69 career tackles.

He started his coaching path as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in the 2019 season, then moved to Kansas State as a graduate assistant under his position coach, Steve Stanard, who was a former defensive coordinator at Colorado State.

Pilapil spent the 2021 season as an assistant defensive line coach at Montana State, working with defensive coordinator Freddie Banks. The Bobcats reached the FCS National Championship game in 2021.

2021 Nevada (Tight Ends)

2022-Pres. Colorado State (Recruiting Coordinator/WRs)

CHAD SAVAGE

RECRUITING COORDINATOR | WIDE RECEIVERS

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | SAN DIEGO, '18

Chad Savage joined the Colorado State staff as the tight ends coach, following Jay Norvell from Nevada where he coached tight ends.

Following staff departures to Hawaii, Savage became the wide receivers coach prior to the start of 2022 spring practices.

Savage also serves as the Rams' on-staff recruiting coordinator.

For his efforts as a part of signing the 2022 and 2023 recruiting classes, Savage has been the highest-ranked recruiter in the Mountain West by 247Sports in consecutive seasons. Savage primarily recruits southern California and Arizona for the Green and Gold and was instrumental in signing six Rams in and around Los Angeles in the class of 2022. He was also named to 247Sports.com's "30 under 30" list for the 2022 season. In the 2023 class, the number of Rams from Savage's recruiting area jumped to 10.

On the field, in his first season leading the receivers, Savage mentored Tory Horton to a 1,000-yard season, the eighth-consecutive such season for a Rams pass catcher. Horton was named first team All-Mountain West after leading the league in yards (1,131) and yards per game (94.3) while notching five 100-yard games. He was named to the Biletnikoff Watch List on his way to tallying the eighth-most receiving yards in a season in school history. Horton's 71 receptions ranked 10th in school history.

True freshman Justus Ross-Simmons also became a starter and a dependable target with 26 receptions for 424 yards, averaging 16.3 yards per catch.

The Reno, Nev., native began his coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at San Diego from 2016-17, then became a graduate assistant at Nevada from 2018-19. He returned to USD for one season as the receivers coach before returning to Reno to become the tight ends coach in 2021.

While coaching for the Wolf Pack, Savage helped Cole Turner continue his All-Mountain West career as the second-team selection finished with 63 receptions for 677 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2021. Turner was a fifth round selection by the Washington Commanders in the 2022 NFL Draft.

JORDON SIMMONS

ASST. HEAD COACH | HEAD STRENGTH COACH

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | LENOIR-RHYNE, '10

Jordon Simmons joined Jay Norvell's initial hiring staff as the Assistant Head Coach and head strength and conditioning coach after serving in the same role for five years at Nevada, bringing with him a strong military and football background to the team.

Simmons, a native of Redondo Beach, Calif., joined the Wolf Pack from North Carolina, where he operated a kickboxing gym and served as head trainer after a year with the United States 3rd Group Special Forces in Fort Bragg, N.C. In his time with the Special Forces, Simmons worked with wounded warriors and executed team training for groups readying for deployment.

Simmons and Norvell first connected in 2010 when they both worked at Oklahoma. Simmons was serving as a member of the Sooners' strength staff, working with football, wrestling, baseball, soccer and tennis. He also took the lead and revamped the nutrition program at OU. Prior to Oklahoma, Simmons was a strength and conditioning assistant with the NFL's Carolina Panthers from 2007-10. Simmons has also worked for the University of Alabama. His father, Jerry, spent 23 years in the NFL as the head strength and conditioning coach for the New England Patriots, Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Ravens and Carolina Panthers.

Simmons received his bachelor's degree in sports management with minors in exercise science and business from Lenoir-Rhyne University in 2010 and his master's in exercise physiology from Oklahoma in 2013. During undergrad at Lenoir-Rhyne, Simmons was a four-year starter on the Bears football team as a long snapper and member of the defensive unit and received first team all-conference honors in 2008 and 2009.

FORT COLLINS — Colorado State's inability to generate much positive on offense was the story of the game as the Rams fell to visiting Washington State to open the 2023 season.

WSU quarterback Cam Ward was pressured very little most of the evening as he threw for 451 yards while also showing his elusiveness on the ground by leading the Cougars with 40 rushing yards.

The Rams, largely expected to have one of the top defenses in the Mountain West this season, allowed 11 third down conversions on 17 tries as the Cougars pilled up 556 yards of total offense.

In the third quarter, CSU starting quarterback Clay Millen was knocked out of the contest giving way to redshirt freshman Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi. Fowler-Nicolosi proved to be an offensive spark as he led the Rams to three fourth-quarter touchdowns including a 75-yard completion to sophomore Justus Ross-Simmons.

BOULDER — Colorado State built an 11-point lead with 11 minutes to go in the fourth quarter but was unable to hold on in the 92nd playing of the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

Quarterback Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi threw for a Norvell-era high 367 yards as three receivers eclipsed 100 yards in the game for the first time in program history. It was the first real sign of the Air Raid offense in 14 games under head coach Jay Norvell, a welcome sign for Ram fans.

Fowler-Nicolosi completed 34 passes, the second-best mark in program history, and wide receiver Tory Horton caught a school-record 16 passes, surpassing Jeff Champine's 1983 mark of 14. The Rams dominated the game for the majority, but the Buffaloes responded with a seven-play, 98-yard drive in the final two minutes to climb within two and converted the two-point conversion to force the overtime period.

Colorado State was flagged a school record 17 times for 187 yards in the defeat.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — A week ago, Colorado State surrendered an eight-point lead on the final drive of the fourth quarter before ultimately falling in double overtime to Colorado. Seven days removed, the fates shined more favorably on the Rams as they held Middle Tennessee out of the end zone to clinch their first win of the season.

In many ways, it was a signature victory for head coach Jay Norvell. The Blue Raiders have gone to bowl games in each of the past two seasons and eight of 13 seasons overall, a model of consistency Colorado State fans have been clamoring for.

After a stagnant second quarter which saw them generate just 23 total yards of offense, the Rams came out and scored 21 unanswered - led primarily by Dallin Holker and Tory Horton - to build a 31-17 lead. Holker posted his second consecutive 100-yard receiving game, and Mohamed Kamara - fresh off a first-half targeting suspension - got his second career scoop-and-score touchdown and forced a fumble on the games final snap to salt away the game for the Rams.

FORT COLLINS — Colorado State jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead, withstood a sub-par second quarter of play, and rallied for a 20-3 second-half scoring line to outpace FCS foe Utah Tech on Ag Day.

Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi continued his stellar play, throwing for a school freshman record 462 yards including 227 to All-American candidate Tory Horton, the 7th-highest total in school history.

Linebacker Chase Wilson tallied 15 tackles, his second double-digit tackle game of his career, and defensive end Mohamed Kamara continued his run up the career charts by posting another 1.5 sacks. Kamara is now tied with Cory James for 4th-most in a career in school history with an outside chance to surpass the mark of 33.0 by the end of the season.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	17	0	0	7	-	24
Utah State	3	14	14	13	-	44

LOGAN, Utah — Colorado State raced out to a 17-0 lead in the game's first five minutes, headlined by a Tory Horton 79-yard punt return touchdown, but the host Aggies outscored the Rams 44-7 the rest of the way to get their fifth-straight win in the series.

After posting three consecutive 300+ yard passing performances to open his career as the starter, quarterback Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi was unable to find much rhythm on the evening. His three interceptions were part of Colorado State's five-turnover performance.

Mohamed Kamara continued his run up the record books with his first three-sack game, moving him into third place on his own and within striking distance of the career record. Kamara along with Horton both left the game early due to injuries.

After appearing lifeless for the first three quarters, Colorado State exploded for 31 second-half points including 21 in the games final four minutes to get their first victory over Boise State in program history.

On the Ram’s final drive, they covered 88 yards in 33 seconds to setup a final desperation heavy into the endzone. Tory Horton, Louis Brown IV, and Dallin Holker, aligned to the quarterback’s right, raced down to the southwest endzone of a nearly empty Canvas Stadium, and just like they planned it, the ball was tipped and fell right to the trailing Holker.

A 15-yard celebration penalty forced the Rams to kick the extra point from the 35, but no problem for Jordan Noyes who ripped it through the uprights for the 31-30 victory.

LAS VEGAS — A week after feeling the exhilaration of victory in walk-off fashion, the Rams felt the sting of defeat in the same way as UNLV's Jose Pizano hit a 28-yard field goal as time expired to give UNLV the victory.

It was Pizano's sixth field goal of the day as the Rebels scored points on each of their six second-half drives.

The league's top rushing attack was held largely in check as the Rams put together one of their better defensive performances against the rush, but quarterback Jayden Maiava threw for 353 yards on 27-of-36 passing to continue to give Pizano room to operate.

For the Rams, the first and third quarters were largely stagnant offensively. Running backs Avery Morrow and Vann Schield got tough yards to keep drives alive.

FORT COLLINS — Colorado State let a 13-13 halftime margin slowly evaporate in a 30-13 loss to Air Force.

The Rams were explosive and methodical in the first half, but with a driving snowstorm - the first during a game in Fort Collins since 2012 - the Air Raid was grounded by the offense's inability to do much of anything through the air.

LARAMIE, Wyo. — A pair of interceptions on consecutive drives to open the second half turned into 14 Wyoming points which ultimately proved to be the difference in the 115th Border War.

Colorado State was 0-for-10 on third downs on the night, and the offense was held to under 300 yards for the first time this season.

In the second half, Wyoming's average starting position for each drive was their own 48 yard line as the Rams were unable to get much of anything going on the offensive side of the ball. Defensively, the pass rush was largely stymied but rallied in the second half to hold off Wyoming's drives that did not begin with interceptions.

For the third straight year, The Bronze Boot stays in Laramie.

FORT COLLINS — Colorado State's defense was suffocating for the majority of the evening as the held the visiting San Diego State Aztecs to just 273 yards of offense, a season-low for the Rams, to keep bowl hopes alive.

The star of the night was true freshman running back Justin Marshall who rushed for 119 yards on 18 carries in his first collegiate game - the first Ram freshman to do so since Ron Harris in 1974. Marshall's running was electric and gave the Rams a spark they needed on a night when the passing game was largely out of sync.

FORT COLLINS — Colorado State built a 20-3 lead early in the second quarter, and despite a push from Nevada, the Rams held on to keep their bowl hopes alive for another week on Senior Day.

Jay Norvell, the former Nevada boss, moved to 2-0 against his former team in much difference fashion than the 2022 War of Attrition battle that took place in Reno. The Rams were explosive on offense and continued to see a spark come alive in their running game behind true freshman Justin Marshall who finished just two yards shy of a second consecutive 100-yard performance.

Defensively, the Rams held the Wolf Pack to just 13 offensive points - seven coming off a pick-six to close the half for Nevada - with a pair of interceptions from Henry Blackburn and Nuer Gatkuoth. Safety Jack Howell and linebacker Chase Wilson reached 100 tackles on the season.

HONOLULU — With a 51-yard field goal on the final play of the game, Hawaii ended the Rams' hopes of the postseason with a 27-24 victory. The team needed a win on the final day of the regular season to reach a bowl game for the first time since 2017, but instead finish 5-7.

Down 24-10 early in the fourth quarter, the Rams tried to brush aside a night of below-par play with a flourish. It started with a 17-yard scoring pass from Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi to Louis Brown IV, and when they missed the 2-point attempt, they needed to do it again.

Which they did, on a fourth-down play where Hawaii flooded the pocket, Fowler-Nicolosi found Tory Horton for a 70-yard touchdown, then found Horton again for the 2-point conversion to tie the game with 54 seconds remaining. Horton finished with nine catches for 186 yards as Fowler-Nicolosi threw for 317 and the two scores.

Individual 100-plus-yard receiving game streaks of three consecutive games or more denoted numerically next to the game.

Rashard Higgins did not play the Hawaii game in 2014; however, we have chosen to maintain his streak at eight for the official record book as, in our opinion, a streak like this cannot be snapped if the player doesn't play.

PLAYERS IN BOTH CHARTS

There are only three players in school history to have tallied at least one 100-yard receiving game and 100-yard rushing game.

Lawrence McCutcheon and Raymond Carter also accomplished the feat in the same game.

PLAYER	OPPONENT	YEAR	YARDS
Alvin Lewis, RB	Utah State	1978	119 (rec.)
Lawrence McCutcheon, RB	Utah State*	1970	117 (rec.)
	Wyoming	1970	147 (rec.)
Raymond Carter, RB	Idaho*	2010	120 (rec.)

IN THE POLLS SINCE 1994

After a win at BYU, Sept. 17, 1994, CSU entered the USA Today coaches poll ranked No. 25, the first appearance in the weekly poll since a brief stay in the UPI coaches rankings in 1977. The following week, in 1994, the Rams earned their first Associated Press ranking in program history. Overall, the program has been ranked 51 total weeks, most recently in 2014.

HISTORY

UNIVERSITY

JOHN MACKEY AWARD

Nation's Top Tight End

Trey McBride, 2021

Following the 2020 season, which was shortened to just four games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Trey McBride evaluated his NFL prospects and ultimately decided to return to Colorado State for the 2021 with one goal in mind: to be the best tight end in the country.

Mission accomplished.

During his 2021 campaign, McBride posted one of the greatest seasons by an offensive player in school history and one of the all-time best by a tight end in FBS history. He led all FBS tight ends in receptions (90), yards (1,121), and yards per game (93.4) and became the school's career and single-season leader in both categories among tight ends.

The yardage total was the fifth-most in a single season by an FBS tight end and the most in Mountain West history. Following the season, McBride was named to a bevy of All-American teams including all five of the NCAA-recognized selectors to become the first unanimous All-American in program history and first offensive player in Mountain West history to reach that status.

McBride put a bow on the postseason recognition campaign when he was named the John Mackey Award winner as the nation's top tight end. He received the news from his parents, Kate and Jen McBride, the night before the Home Depot ESPN College Football Awards show when the nation was informed.

The NFL confirmed the selection when McBride was selected No. 55 overall by the Arizona Cardinals in the second round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

He was the first tight end selected.

JIM THORPE AWARD

Nation's Top Defensive Back

Greg Myers, 1995

The personification of "student-athlete" and the winner of the 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, Greg Myers claimed as many decorations off the field as he did for his stellar on-field performance.

The first player in WAC history to earn All-WAC honors four times, Myers holds the league record with seven all-conference selections, four as a defensive back and three as a return specialist. A two-time First Team All-American, Myers led the NCAA with 555 punt return yards and three punt return touchdowns. He also set the WAC record with 1,332 career punt return yards, and he posted Colorado State records with three punt return scores and a 15.9-yard average. As a defensive back, he totaled 295 tackles and 15 interceptions. Myers helped guide the Rams to back-to-back WAC titles and Holiday Bowl berths.

A 1995 NFF National Scholar-Athlete, he was also named the Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year that fall. Myers was named a two-time Academic All-American and a four-time Academic All-WAC honoree. The 1996 Nye Trophy recipient as CSU's most outstanding male athlete in academics, he was named to the NCAA Today's Top VIII. He earned a bachelor's degree in biological sciences in 1996 and a M.D. from the University of Colorado in 2006.

A fifth-round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft, Myers played five seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals and Dallas Cowboys. A 2001 Colorado State University Sports Hall of Fame inductee and a 2012 Colorado Sports Hall of Fame member, Myers was the second Ram to enter the College Football Hall of Fame, following 1981 inductee Thurman McGraw.

COLORADO STATE HONORED JERSEYS

Four great Colorado State Rams are honored atop Canvas Stadium for their contributions to Colorado State football and Colorado State Athletics. The numbers 21 (Eddie Hanna), 48 (Fum McGraw) and 14 (John Mosley), have been removed from circulation and those numbers are considered retired. Greg Myers' No. 3 jersey is honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

#3

Greg Myers (1992-95)

- College Football Hall of Fame (2012)
- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (2012)
- NFF National Scholar Athlete (1995)
- East-West Shrine game (1995)
- Stan Bates Award (1995)
- Honda National Scholar Athlete of the Year (1995)

Greg Myers remains one of the all-time greatest football players in school history was the first Ram to have received a major national award. Myers' 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back, was the highest individual NCAA award received by any CSU football player. He is a five-time first team All-WAC player and two time first-team All-American and the third consensus All-American in school history. Myers not only helped lead CSU to consecutive WAC championships in 1994 and 1995, he also received academic All-American honors in 1994 and 1995 as well. He returned four punts for touchdowns during his career and is tied with Gary Glick and Bill Kishman with 14 career interceptions all-time.

Myers' success on the field is still one of the finest in school history, but coupled with his amazing success in the classroom places him in a category second-to-none in school history. He is the only Ram football player named to first-team All-America on the field and as an Academic All-American in two consecutive seasons. Drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 5th round of the 1996 draft, he spent four seasons in Cincinnati and one in Dallas before retiring from the NFL. Myers went back to school and is now an anesthesiologist in the Denver area. In 2012 he was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and a month later was selected to the 2012 class of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Myers and Fum McGraw are the only two former Colorado State football players in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Eddie Hanna (1947-49)

Eddie "Twinkle Toes" Hanna helped lead then-Colorado A&M to its first-ever bowl game, the 1949 Raisin Bowl, before his untimely passing after a game at Colorado College the following season. No player in program history has donned the #21 jersey since.

A trailblazer for race inclusion on Colorado A&M's campus, Hanna was one of three Black Uplayers on the 1948 team and was widely popular in the locker room. Hanna served in the Pacific during World War II and came to Fort Collins after a stint in junior college in his hometown of Dodge City, Kansas. As an example of his popularity, Hanna also hosted a radio show in town and was a frequent contributor to the Rocky Mountain Collegian, CSU's student newspaper.

A three-sport star for Colorado A&M, Hanna also played basketball and ran track. Following his untimely death, the Eddie Hanna Memorial Scholarship was created in his honor.

#48

Fum McGraw (1946-49)

- College Football Hall of Fame (1981)
- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (1971)
- 3rd in the 1948 NCAA Wrestling tournament
- 1950 NFL Rookie of the Year-Lineman
- All-Century Team (1992)
- Nye Award (1950)

One of the greatest names in school history, there are few things that Thurman "Fum" McGraw did not do during the 40 years he competed in athletics or worked for Colorado State University. McGraw was the third brother to attend Colorado A&M College and a native of Paonia, Colo. Fum excelled in all three sports he participated in during his four years as an Aggie athlete and earned All-American awards in football (1948, 1949), track (discus 1949) and wrestling (1948). He is the only athlete in school history to be named an All-American in three different sports. Also a member of the 1949 Raisin Bowl team, Fum went on to a career in the NFL that spanned five seasons and won two world championships with the Detroit Lions.

After his NFL career, he returned to his alma mater to be an assistant coach in football and wrestling. After a short stint in the NFL as an assistant coach, McGraw was named the school's assistant athletic director in 1965 under Jim Williams. He played an integral part in the construction of Moby Arena and Hughes Stadium before leaving in 1968. In 1976, he returned to CSU as the school's director of athletics where he remained until his retirement in 1986. In 1997, CSU named the new McGraw Athletic Center in his honor. Fum McGraw died in 2000 at the age of 73.

#14

John Mosley (1939-43)

- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (2009)
- Football MVP Award (1942)

Lt. Col. Mosley came to Colorado State as a National Merit Scholar from Denver's Manual High School in the fall of 1939. He tried out and made the football team as a freshman, becoming the first African American football player at Colorado State since 1906. Lt. Col. Mosley also decided to wrestle for coach Hans Wagner, becoming the second African American wrestler in school and state history. Lt. Col. Mosley earned all-conference honors in wrestling. He was a three-year letterman in football, becoming the first African American letterwinner in CSU football history.

Following graduation, Lt. Col. Mosley set his sights on flying and trained to be a pilot so he could fly for the Army Air Corps. He enrolled in the Tuskegee Flight training center and became one of the first African American bomber pilots in US history. Lt. Col. Mosley served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars, retiring as a Lt. Col. in the United States Air Force. Post-retirement, he became a spokesperson for black athletes and the Tuskegee Airmen, the first few African American pilots during WWII.

CSU developed the Lt. Col. John Mosley Mentoring Program as a resource for Black Student-Athletes and to serve and welcome all student-athletes in 2011. Lt. Col. Mosley died at the age of 93 on May 22, 2015.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL STADIUM TIMELINE

Name	Years Active
Durkee Field	1899-1911
Colorado Field	1912-1967
Hughes Stadium	1968-2016
Canvas Stadium	2017-Pres.

Hughes Stadium (1968-2016)

Hughes Stadium was located at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about three miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. The facility sat just below the iconic Aggie "A", freshly painted every year by freshmen football players and other campus volunteers.

Opened in 1968, the venerable stadium underwent several upgrades over the decades, including a major renovation between 2003 and 2006.

In 2003, the Bohemian Foundation contributed $15.2 million to the Colorado State athletic department. The majority of that gift was focused on improving Hughes Stadium. Over a three-year period, the facility received a spectacular new west tower, containing club seating, luxury suites and a new press box. CSU also enclosed the north end zone, increasing capacity to 32,500.

The final phase of the renovations focused on that surface itself. The field underwent a $1.33 million makeover prior to the 2006 season, when Colorado State installed FieldTurf, the revolutionary, rubberized surface used by several NFL and major college football venues across the country.

Hughes closed after 262 games, with the final one being a 49-31 victory over New Mexico on Nov. 20, 2016, securing bowl-eligibility for the Rams.

CSU's final record at Hughes: 146-114-2 (.561).

Hughes Stadium was knocked down in the spring of 2018.

Colorado Field (1912-67)

In 1910, the site of a college experiment station that grew potatoes was identified as the location where the future athletic field should be built. After two years of lobbying and with the support of college president Charles Lory, construction began on May 23, 1912. Students and faculty, including Lory, removed rocks and planted seed to build the first college football field in Colorado with grass.

Play began in the fall of 1912, after 1,000-seat grandstands were added by the beginning of football season. A cinder track around the field was added in 1914, since Harry Hughes was also the track coach.

In September 1912, the school built a clubhouse just east of the railroad tracks on what is now University Avenue, providing locker rooms and showers for both the Aggies and visiting players. Coupled with the outstanding grass surface and clubhouse, the state-of-the-art football stadium was the envy of the region and helped the Aggies to win eight conference championships over the next 25 years.

The ninth and final conference championship team to play on Colorado Field was in 1955.

Over the 55 years Colorado Field served the Aggies, larger grandstands were built and bleachers were added on the east side and end zones. Today, Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's outdoor track and field squads and named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer, stands on the site where Colorado Field once graced the CSU campus.

In 1961 the university conducted a study to determine whether to turn Colorado Field into a major-college football stadium, or replace it with a new venue on the foothills campus. Because of traffic concerns and the facility's location in the center of Fort Collins, officials opted to construct a new stadium west of town, at the foothills. The last varsity game played on Colorado Field was in 1967, shortly before its demolition.

Durkee Field (1899-1911)

While little is known about the program's home grounds in 1893 and 1894, when the school's new college athletic organization resurrected football in 1899, the team's first official field was constructed in the spring of 1899. In May 1899, the area between Agricultural Hall and the Chemical Building (where Glenn Morris Field House sits today) was cleared of trees and drained of water. The ground was then graded to make a flat playing surface. With the railroad tracks on the west and South College

Avenue on the east, this low-lying ground was actually a natural streambed, which is marked today by a tunnel under the railroad tracks. This stream becomes active when torrents of rain wash through the campus, such as the devastating flood of 1997. The newly reformed football team of 1899 played the first games here on a playing surface made up of primarily dirt and rocks.

In 1901, a graduate from the Class of 1900 named Charles Durkee donated money for a tall wooden fence, erected on three sides of the field with the railroad tracks acting as a barrier for the fourth side. The barriers helped keep non-paying fans out better than the military cadets (the previous system for chasing off freeloaders). In return for his fence, the college named the athletic grounds Durkee Field. Bleachers were later added for spectators to watch games and military drills. The facility was described by former players and head coach Harry Hughes as horrible to walk on, let alone play football. That stream would reappear during wet weather and ran through the playing field during some games.

Hughes' first football season of 1911 marked Durkee's last season of hosting football. When the rules of football changed to standardize the 100-yard field, Hughes used that opportunity to build a better field for his athletes. The military continued to drill on Durkee for several years, and tennis courts were later added for women's athletics. But in 1925, ground was broken for a new gym and fieldhouse that opened in 1927 and still stands there today.

Mascot History (Courtesy: John Hirn)

During the 62 years of the "Aggie Era" the college had different mascots that identified the school, however it was not until the 1959 that Colorado State University "officially" adopted the Ram as their mascot. In the earliest days of football there was never any mention of an official or unofficial mascot until 1912 when a dog showed up on campus.

The Colorado Aggie-Bulldogs?

Sometime around 1912 a student named Floyd Cross purchased an English Bulldog that eventually roamed around the Colorado Agricultural College campus. Students would feed the dog peanuts and he was taken to football games, adopted by Battery A and attended other athletic events. By all accounts he was very well liked by all of the Aggie students. In April or May of 1918 Peanuts was found dead. The Aggies were never referred to as the Bulldogs during Peanuts' status as mascot.

Billy Hughes and a Bear (below)

The 1919 Aggie football team had Billy Hughes listed as the school's official mascot. The son of coach Harry Hughes was about 6-years old when he served as the team's "mascot". Little Billy did not last long as the school mascot and was probably given the status because he attended the games and the students wanted a replacement after the loss of Peanuts.

The 1919 team also shows a bear cub as the school mascot in their championship team photo. Little is known about this bear, where it came from or even its name.

CAM THE RAM FACTS

CAM is the official Colorado State University mascot.

CAM stands for Colorado A&M, the University's previous name.

CAM is supported by the Alumni Association and by donations to the CAM Forever Fund.

This photo, taken during an Oct. 18, 1919 game between the Colorado Agricultural College Aggies and Utah, features a black bear cub laying calmly on the sidelines. The cub, which is inside the fence and very securely tethered to a certainly sturdy wood pole, was the Aggies' unofficial mascot during the 1919 season.

The bear disappeared as quickly as it arrived and for the next 26 years the Aggies did not have a mascot associated with the school; officially or unofficially.

SONNY LUBICK

Head Coach, 1993-2007
Four-time Conference Coach of the Year
Six Conference Titles
Nine Bowl Games

Colorado State's football program attained previously unknown heights during head coach Sonny Lubick's 15 seasons. During that time, Lubick created a standard for excellence never before evident during the previous 94-year history of the football program. Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just two bowl appearances prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

» CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;

- Colorado State won or shared six conference titles from 1994-2007, more than any other Mountain West member over that period;
- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- The Rams ranked among the Top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranked among the Top 20 NCAA Division I FBS active coaches in career wins at the end of 2007;
- Colorado State placed among the leaders in MWC victories since the conference came into being in 1999;
- The Rams seven times won eight or more games in a season. » Four times – the first four times in school history – CSU won 10 or more games.

Lubick ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprints can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstiles. Not only were the Rams perennial postseason competitors under Lubick, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history came during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single-game crowds in CSU history through 2007 came during his time at the helm. Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division I-A coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members.

Interest and support of CSU's program had never been greater. The 2006 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor. The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season. Prior to the 2006 season, a new artificial playing surface was installed to complete the renovation. The playing surface at CSU's new Canvas stadium, which opened in 2017, also bears the name Sonny Lubick Field, thanks to an anonymous donation made in March 2016.

All-Star Coaching

- 2001: Hula Bowl All-Star Game
- 1995: East-West Shrine Game

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch touched the entire athletic department. For instance, during his tenure, CSU was able to:

- Renovate and expand Hughes Stadium ($15.2 million).
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990s and a gift of $75,000 from former defensive end and 10-year NFL veteran Brady Smith for program enhancements.
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions.
- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5 million) in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone totaled more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success that CSU's football program enjoyed after Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cared deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program was responsible for his actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick placed a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remained more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remaining on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick had those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact was felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the Sports Illustrated Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record.
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work.
- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Association-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He was an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors;
- Lubick and his family were honored by a local charitable organization in the winter of 2006 for their commitment and dedication to the northern Colorado community.
- In January of 2007, Lubick was named the Collins Award winner, given annually to a local figure that exemplifies leadership and service to the Fort Collins Community by the local chamber of commerce.

Lubick remained staunch in his belief a family approach was one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure. Four of his 2007 coaching staff members – Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993. Marc joined the staff in 2005 after time with the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi. Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere took place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick always was embraced by his three young grandchildren – Matthew, William and Emma – children of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle. Lubick's smile while embracing his three youngest Rams fans reflected the same happiness CSU supporters had come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.

1949 RAISIN BOWL

Saturday, Jan. 1, 1949 | 10,000
Ratcliffe Stadium | Fresno, Calif.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Occidental	0	0	7	14	--	21
Colorado A&M	0	13	0	7	--	20

Colorado State — at the time known as the Colorado A&M Aggies — made its first trip to a postseason bowl game at the conclusion of the 1948 football season, capping one of the most successful years in school history.

Coached by Bob Davis, Colorado A&M played on New Year's Day against Occidental College, after an 8-2 regular season highlighted by a 29-25 win over in-state rival Colorado in Boulder. The only two regular-season losses came at the hands of Drake and Utah, setting the stage for the team's trip to postseason play.

It was a star-studded Colorado A&M lineup that took the field that day in Fresno. Four players — Fum McGraw, Tuffy Mullison, Dale Dodrill, and Jack Christiansen — were team mainstays and now occupy spots in Colorado State's Sports Hall of Fame. A fifth star, running back Eddie Hanna, tragically would pass away after the opening game of the following season.

McGraw, the school's first consensus All-American, later played with the Detroit Lions, as did Christiansen, while Dodrill played for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Colorado A&M led 13-0 at halftime behind the play of Hanna. He scored on a 71-yard run after the Aggies had scored when quarterback Bob Hainlen hit Keith Thompson with a 5-yard scoring pass. But Occidental scored 21 second-half points to rally for the victory.

Hanna gave the Aggies their final touchdown of the game on a 79-yard run.

Bowl MVP - Todd Yert, RB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	7	5	13	--	32
Oregon	7	10	0	14	--	31

Colorado State's football squad opened the 1990 season with dreams higher than many observers felt possible. Those dreams included a postseason bowl berth. Having not been invited to a postseason game in 42 years, Colorado State earned a trip to the Freedom Bowl in 1990.

The Rams were matched against PAC-10 member Oregon in what would turn out to be one of the season's most exciting bowl games.

Colorado State scored first, opening the game with a 75-yard, 15-play drive on Mike Gimenez's 1-yard plunge. Trailing 25-19, the Rams took the lead on Gimenez's 49-yard pass to Greg Primus, then added insurance on Todd Yert's 52-yard scoring run to lead 32-25 with minutes remaining. But Oregon made one last grasp at victory behind quarterback Bill Musgrave, who led his team on a 79-yard scoring drive. The Rams' Selwyn Jones then thwarted the Ducks' two-point conversion pass attempt, an amazing play, to seal the win.

Yert was named the game's Offensive MVP, while teammate Robert Chirico earned defensive honors.

1994 HOLIDAY BOWL

Friday, Dec. 30, 1994 | 59,453
Jack Murphy Stadium | San Diego, Calif.
Bowl MVP - Anthony Hill, QB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Michigan	10	7	7	0	--	24
Colorado State	7	0	0	7	--	14

Colorado State's miraculous dream season in 1994 concluded on the turf of San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

Colorado State served notice on the night in San Diego that the Rams' program would be a force in coming years. Following a Michigan touchdown on the Wolverines' initial drive of the game, Colorado State answered.

Quarterback Anthony Hill drove the Rams 66 yards in nine plays for the tying touchdown, hitting receiver Paul Turner on a 32-yard scoring play. Hill, a native of San Diego, later would be honored as Colorado State's Offensive MVP in the game.

The Rams put their final touchdown on the scoreboard late in the game when Hill found receiver Jeremy Burkett down the right sideline for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

By the end of the game, which was played before the eighth-largest crowd in Holiday Bowl history, statistics reflected the closeness of the contest. Michigan had gained 341 total yards, only 1 more than the Rams had managed.

Bowl MVP - Damon Washington, WR

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	0	14	0	--	21
Kansas State	7	19	21	7	--	54

The Rams, having earned the right to represent the WAC in the final game of the season by virtue of a victory over San Diego State, joined BYU and Wyoming as the only three schools to have appeared in the Holiday Bowl in consecutive years since the bowl's inception. Colorado State returned to Jack Murphy Stadium, the site of its league-title clinching win over SDSU, for a date with Kansas State.

Kansas State entered the game ranked among the top 10 teams nationally after finishing in a tie for second in the Big Eight Conference. The teams were tied, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter before an interception and a partially blocked punt led to K-State's 19 second-quarter points.

The Rams were led offensively by freshman running back Damon Washington. Playing before a hometown crowd, Washington stung Kansas State's defense for 101 yards on just 10 carries, scoring one touchdown. Defensively, Colorado State cornerback Ray Jackson intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown on a play that was nullified by an official's inadvertent whistle.

Bowl MVPs - Moses Moreno, QB; Darran Hall, WR

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	7	14	7	--	35
Missouri	3	14	7	0	--	24

Colorado State took the first drive 85 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Wide receiver Darran Hall — a San Diego native — capped the drive, scoring on a 14-yard reverse. Hall returned a third quarter punt 85 yards for a touchdown, the longest such return in the bowl's history.

He and teammate Moses Moreno — another San Diego-area native — were the game's co-MVPs. Moreno, despite a sore foot injured during the game, completed 18-of-24 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns.

The Rams limited Missouri to just 68 passing yards. Linebacker Willie Taylor and safety Myron Terry led the way with eight tackles apiece, while Eric Vaughn had seven stops.

One of the game's many highlights came with 10:44 to play and the Rams nursing a 28-24 lead. Reserve quarterback Ryan Eslinger, lined up as the holder in a field goal formation, faked that play and instead ran up the middle for a 23-yard touchdown to seal the victory.

Bowl MVP - Cecil Sapp, RB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	3	13	3	3	--	22
Louisville	7	3	0	7	--	17

Colorado State entered the game having won a second straight Mountain West Conference title. Coach Sonny Lubick's Rams featured eight players — the most in school history — who were named first-team all-league.

Included in that group were quarterback Matt Newton and linebacker Rick Crowell, named the league's offensive and defensive players of the year, respectively. For the fourth time in seven seasons, Lubick was named the league's coach of the year.

Running back Cecil Sapp's 2-yard scoring run in the second quarter tied the game, and wide receiver Frank Rice's 16-yard reverse late in the first half put the Rams ahead to stay, 16-10. Sapp set a bowl and school bowl game record with 36 rushes, and his 160 yards. Colorado State was later voted 14th by the Associated Press, the highest final AP ranking in school history.

Colorado State's made school history in 2001, playing in a third consecutive bowl game. CSU won the first-ever New Orleans Bowl played at the Louisiana Superdome, home to Super Bowl XXXVI just seven weeks later. And, the win marked the first time in school history that Colorado State had won back-to-back bowl games.

Senior receiver Brad Svoboda scored the first touchdown of his career, a 2-yard reverse, on the game's first drive, set up by a 56-yard catch-and-run play by Pete Rebstock on a pass from Bradlee Van Pelt.

Colorado State sealed the win in the third quarter when the game's MVP, Justin Gallimore, blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown to put the Rams up, 31-14.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	10	10	0	20	--	40
Fresno State	14	7	7	7	--	35

Gartrell Johnson sealed CSU's first bowl victory since 2001 on a 77-yard touchdown with 1:46 remaining. Johnson tallied 375 combined rushing and receiving yards, the most by any NCAA player ever in a bowl game.

The Rams took their first lead at 33-28 when Billy Farris threw a 69-yard TD to Rashaun Greer with seven minutes left. Fresno State cornerback Sharrod Davis took a big chance but whiffed on his attempt to bat the ball.

Fans came out of the stands as the final seconds ticked off, capping a strong first season for coach Steve Fairchild. Johnson was named most valuable offensive player and Tommie Hill was named Defensive Player of the Game.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

Saturday, Dec. 21, 2013 | 27,104
University Stadium | Albuquerque, N.M.

Defensive Player of the Game - Shaquill Barrett, LB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Washington State	21	14	3	7	--	45
Colorado State	10	13	7	18	--	48

Down 45-30 with 4:17 left in the game and two timeouts left, QB Garrett Grayson led the Rams 72 yards down the field in just 1:25 and found freshman WR Jordon Vaden for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the score to 45-37 with 2:52 left in the game.

After using both timeouts, WSU converted with a nine-yard pass to seemingly put the nail in the coffin on the game with just over two minutes left. Shaquill Barrett stripped WSU RB Jeremiah Laufasa and pounced on the ball with 1:51 left in the game. CSU marched down the field and Bibbs scored his 31st touchdown of the season. The Rams then converted a 'Statue-of-Liberty' handoff to Donnell Alexander to tie the game at 45-45. On the next kickoff, Steve O Michel forced a fumble which Jasen Oden recovered. Jared Roberts sealed the victory with a 41-yard field goal as time expired. The Rams scored 18 points over the final 3 minutes.

2014 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Sam Boyd Stadium | Las Vegas, Nev.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Utah	21	3	7	14	--	45
Colorado State	10	0	0	0	--	10

The Rams finished one of the most successful seasons in school history with a record of 10-3, making them one of just five teams in program history to win at least 10 games.

Garrett Grayson finished the season with a school-record 4,006 passing yards - 4th-most in Mountain West history - and claimed CSU career passing records in every major category. His longest completion went 59 yards in the first quarter to All-American Rashard Higgins, who hauled in 7 receptions for 110 yards to record his 10th 100-yard receiving game of the year.

Indicative of the uncharacteristic offensive struggles, the unit that set a school record this season for success on third down was limited to 1-of-10 on third-down conversion opportunities.

Arizona Stadium | Tucson, Ariz.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Nevada	3	16	3	6	--	28
Colorado State	0	13	7	3	--	23

Rashard Higgins became the school's all-time receiving yardage leader as Colorado State fell 28-23 in the inaugural NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Mike Bobo became the 1st CSU head coach to win seven regular season games in his first year.

After forcing a Nevada punt with 7:05 left, CSU drove 42 yards in eight plays to kick the go-ahead field goal, a 38-yard effort from Wyatt Bryan, with 3:40 remaining to put CSU up 23-22. Nevada, however, put together their longest drive since the 2nd quarter, covering 72 yards in eight plays for the game-winning touchdown.

CSU made one last threat, moving the ball from its own 12 to the Nevada 12-yard line in just 58 seconds, but the Rams could not get to the line of scrimmage for one last shot into the end zone before time ran out.

Albertsons Stadium | Boise, Idaho

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Idaho	0	20	21	20	--	61
Colorado State	0	7	7	36	--	50

Sophomore receiver Olabisi Johnson set CSU's all-time record for receiving yards in a game with 265, but the Rams allowed 606 yards of total offense and a 41-0 Vandal scoring run. Junior quarterback Nick Stevens threw for 445 yards and a career-best tying five touchdowns.

The Rams jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a 52-yard touchdown pass from Stevens to Johnson on the first play of the second quarter, but struggled from that point as the Vandals scored 41 unanswered points. CSU scored 36 points in just over 5 minutes in the fourth, but ultimately couldn't overcome its early struggles, which included three turnovers.

Dreamstyle Stadium | Albuquerque, N.M.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Marshall	0	21	10	0	--	31
Colorado State	0	14	0	14	--	28

The 2013 New Mexico Bowl comeback was not to be replicated, as they fell 31-28 to the Marshall Thundering Herd in the 2017 edition of the bowl.

CSU trailed 31-14 late in the third quarter, but strung together a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown drives that brought them back within a field goal. After a defensive stand, the Rams got the ball back with 3:18 remaining, but on 4th-and-5 with 1:38 left, senior Nick Stevens had his pass attempt batted back to him and was tackled for a loss.

Stevens attempted a career-high 52 passes, as the Rams managed just 70 yards rushing on 31 attempts. Consensus All-American and Biletnikoff finalist Michael Gallup finished with six receptions for 68 yards to set a CSU single-season receptions record with 100.

George Toomey

Second head coach in program history
1900-01 (One-plus Season)

1-3 (.250)

Alma mater: Baker, Denver ('98)

Toomey was well-liked but the Dibble scandal of 1901 ended his coaching career when he inadvertently played an ineligible man in the CU game, resigning after that contest.

Clarence J. Griffith

Third head coach in program history

1901-02 (One-plus Season)

2-5-2 (.333)

Alma mater: Baker, Denver ('98)

Toomey's assistant, "Griff", took over in October 1901. He resigned just before the 1903 season to concentrate on his graduate studies and care for his new baby girl.

Chester Caddas

15th head coach in program history

1981 (One Season)

0-6 (.000)

Alma mater: Murray State ('57)

Caddas, the Rams' defensive coordinator and a former head coach at Pacific in Stockton, Calif., replaced Arslanian as the interim head coach for the final six games of the 1981 season.

(Robert) Leon Fuller

16th head coach in program history

1982-88 (Seven Seasons)

25-55 (.313)

Alma mater: Alabama ('61)

A defensive-minded Bear Bryant pupil, Fuller nearly led CSU to a WAC championship in 1986, when the Rams beat CU. Many of his players established school records that still stand.

THE PLACE

As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

With more than 150 programs of study and 74 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 18:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart.

PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY

The Colorado State community is known for its welcoming atmosphere and supportive environment. The Principles of Community help us express what our community stands for and guide our expectations as we build the next generation of Rams.

Inclusion

We create and nurture inclusive environments and welcome, value and affirm all members of our community, including their various identities, skills, ideas, talents and contributions.

Integrity

We are accountable for our actions and will act ethically and honestly in all our interactions.

Respect

We honor the inherent dignity of all people within an environment where we are committed to freedom of expression, critical discourse, and the advancement of knowledge.

Service

We are responsible, individually and collectively, to give of our time, talents, and resources to promote the well-being of each other and the development of our local, regional, and global communities.

Social Justice

We have the right to be treated and the responsibility to treat others with fairness and equity, the duty to challenge prejudice, and to uphold the laws, policies and procedures that promote justice in all respects.

FORT COLLINS

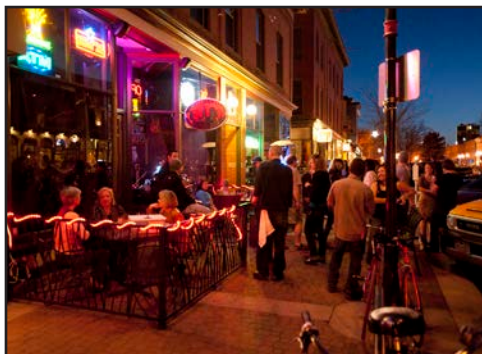

The Choice City

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Located on the northern Front Range of the majestic Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 19th-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 170,000-plus residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and includes the historic Old Town district with its restaurants, shops, and entertainment, all within walking distance of campus. The city also boasts a lively arts and cultural scene and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with more than 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 30-plus miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. The Lincoln Center and the University Center for the Arts, anchored in Fort Collins, are northern Colorado's cultural arts centers.

THINGS TO DO

A day in Fort Collins can be filled with things to do and see. Where else can you spend the morning admiring a zoo-full of fanciful metal sculptures, the afternoon touring a brewery, and the evening listening to live music in an open-air amphitheater?

With a thriving arts scene, burgeoning craft culture, an amazing mix of outdoor recreation opportunities and more, Fort Collins has something for everyone.

Craft Beer

The city of Fort Collins and the craft beer industry have a very unique relationship. Fort Collins produces 70 percent of the craft beer produced in the state of Colorado. Currently, the city is home to the most microbreweries in the state, over 20 craft breweries as a matter of fact, and each one has its own distinctive style. This includes New Belgium Brewing which is one of the world's largest operations as well as a leader in eco-friendly and sustainable business practices.

Outdoor Activities

Fort Collins rates very favorably on lists of towns that offer exceptional outdoor adventures. Whether you're in Fort Collins for just a few days or weeks at a time, it's nearly impossible to explore all of the trails, lakes, and streams in the surrounding foothills and mountains. Biking, fishing, hiking, golfing, riding horses, canoeing and camping, you name it, Fort Collins has you covered when it comes to outdoor recreation.

Fort Collins has big-city offerings with the amenities of a Colorado mountain town. All of the aforementioned activities including exploring open space are all encouraged on your visit to Fort Collins, which plays host to National Forests, the Cache la Poudre River and Horsetooth Reservoir. Outdoor attractions in and around the city will keep you busy for days!

HISTORY

UNIVERSITY

DENVER, COLORADO

The Mile High City

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of more than 3 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Denver is also home to over 61,000 Colorado State University alumni.

Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 17 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation.

Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall, a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheater (right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, right), and the world's 19th-busiest airport, Denver International.

Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

AMY PARSONS

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

2ND YEAR AT COLORADO STATE AS PRESIDENT

Amy Parsons is the 16th President of Colorado State University.

Prior to being named the President of Colorado State University, Amy Parsons served in various senior executive leadership roles at CSU and the CSU System and combines her higher education experience with a private sector background.

Prior to her most recent role as CEO of Mozzafiato, LLC, Parsons was executive vice chancellor of the CSU System from 2015-2020; vice president for university operations at CSU from 2009-2015; deputy general counsel and associate legal counsel at CSU Fort Collins from 2004-2009.

As vice president of operations at CSU, she helped navigate through the fiscal challenges of the Great Recession, supported the first comprehensive salary equity survey to uncover and remedy gender-based inequities, and oversaw an historic physical transformation that included construction and renovation of state-of-the-art classroom buildings, parking structures, research facilities, and an on-campus stadium.

She worked as a litigation attorney for Denver-firm Brownstein, Hyatt, & Farber (now Brownstein, Hyatt, Farber, Schreck) from 1999-2004.

Parsons holds a bachelor's degree in political science from CSU and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Colorado.

JOHN WEBER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

1ST YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | COLORADO STATE '91

John Weber, a 1991 graduate of Colorado State University, was named the department's Interim Director of Athletics on February 19, 2024 before dropping the interim tag on May 30, 2024.

Weber's ties to CSU are significant. A former student-athlete at Colorado State himself, Weber's post-graduate accomplishments and work on behalf of the university have included serving as the chairperson for the College of Business' Global Leadership Council (GLC), acting as an advisor to the department's RAM Life program for student-athlete development, and serving as the Executive Director of the Green and Gold Guard collective.

An accomplished businessman, Weber's engineering background led him through a successful career in the private sector culminating in his role as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Long Range Systems. Weber retired from the role in 2020 and has served the university dutifully since.

Colorado State University President Amy Parsons on John Weber:

"John is passionate about our university, our state and, most importantly, our people. He will do an outstanding job leading our department and providing continuity as we look to next steps for department leadership."

ATHLETICS ADVISORY COUNCIL

Sandy Barbour

Tom Hilbert

Ray Jackson

AJ Keaton

Todd Marksberry

Rocci Trumper

Beth Walker

Lise Youngblade

The Athletics Advisory Council will assist Director of Athletics, John Weber and the Colorado State administration navigate the next generation of college athletics by providing input and guidance from a wide range of backgrounds.

About the Council Members

Sandy Barbour, Retired Director of Athletics at Penn State, Cal and Tulane

Sandy Barbour spent 40 years serving in college athletics before retiring in 2022 as the Director of Athletics for Penn State. The former student-athlete was the AD at Tulane, Cal and Penn State over her career. In 2020, Barbour was among the honorees on Sports Illustrated's "The Unrelenting" list of powerful, influential and outstanding women in sports. She was a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor. She served on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee, including being chair for two years. Barbour was also selected as one of the inaugural members of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee's Collegiate Sports Sustainability Think Tank.

Tom Hilbert, Retired Colorado State Volleyball Coach

Tom Hilbert built one of the best volleyball programs in the nation at Colorado State during his 26-year tenure. Hilbert won 637 matches, guided CSU to 23 NCAA Tournament appearances -- including six Sweet 16s -- and won 20 Mountain West titles. Hilbert also oversaw the development of 10 All-Americans while in Fort Collins. Now retired, he is a consultant for Collegiate Sports Solutions.

Ray Jackson, Vice President of Player Development, Denver Broncos

A Colorado State Hall of Fame inductee in 2011 after his illustrious career in Fort Collins, Jackson is currently the Vice President of Player Development for the Denver Broncos. Jackson played six seasons in the NFL before starting a career in the front office. His post-playing career began with a 10-year stint at the Pittsburgh Steelers as their director of player development. Jackson has been with the Broncos since March 2015. His role with the franchise is to spearhead and organize support programs to maximize players' potential and ability to achieve their goals on and off the field.

Dr. AJ Keaton, Assistant Professor, UMass

AJ Keaton, formerly known as AJ Newton, played basketball at Colorado State from 2013-15. Now she is an Assistant Professor at UMass in Amherst, Massachusetts. Keaton studies how race and gender equity shapes organization structures, norms and experiences mainly related to sports corporations. Keaton, who has been published often, earned her master's degree from Texas and a Ph. D in Philosophy from Connecticut.

Todd Marksberry, Former President and CEO of Canvas Credit Union

Todd Marksberry spent nine years as the CEO of Canvas Credit Union serving more than 300,000 members, 740 Canvas family members and Colorado communities. As the CEO, he led the credit union through a rebrand which made it one of the most recognizable brands in Colorado and credit unions nationally.

Dr. Rocci Trumper, Orthopedic & Spine Center of the Rockies

Dr. Rocci Trumper has worked at the Orthopedic Spine Center of the Rockies for almost 30 years as a specialist in knee sports medicine. He has focused exclusively on the evaluation and treatment of knee issues since 2002. He has performed more than 5,000 anterior cruciate ligament reconstructions in his career and has remained active in research and clinical outcomes through the Progressive Research in Sports Medicine (PRISM) Foundation. Dr. Trumper serves as a team physician for Colorado State Athletics, the Colorado Eagles hockey team and local high school teams.

Beth Walker, Dean of the College of Business, Colorado State University

Beth Walker has been at Colorado State since 2015 and is the Dean for the College of Business. Before joining CSU, Beth served as the Associate Dean, MBA Programs at the W. P. Carey School of Business, Arizona State University, where she was also the AT&T Professor of Services Marketing and Management. Beth is an award-winning researcher and teacher whose research has been widely published in leading marketing journals. She is a recipient of the prestigious Harold Maynard Award, recognizing the most significant contribution to marketing theory and practice by the Journal of Marketing. She also received the Richard Beckhard Prize for her contribution to the MIT Sloan Management Review. She is currently a member of the Board of Directors, Better Business Bureau (Northern Colorado), and served on the American Marketing Association, Board of Directors, as well as the President of American Marketing Association, Academic Division. She has consulted on strategy issues for State Farm Insurance, IBM Global Services, Yellow Roadway Corporation, Lucent Technologies, Honeywell, and AT&T.

Dr. Lise Youngblade, Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences, Colorado State

Lise Youngblade has been at Colorado State since 2006 when she took over as the head of the Department of Human Development and Family Studies. In August of 2019 she was named the Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences. She is an applied developmental scientist whose areas of specialization include child and adolescent socio-emotional development; access to healthcare for vulnerable youth; program evaluation; and analysis of developmental processes in educational and community contexts. Lise has served as both Associate Dean for Research, and Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives, where she was responsible for leading specific initiatives that benefit the college.
