STORYLINES

- WEEK 1 RECAP: Northern Colorado opened its 132nd season with a 17-3 win over Chadron State at Nottingham Field, its first season-opening victory since 2017 and first under head coach Ed Lamb at home. The Bears (1-0) jumped out with 14 first-quarter points as quarterback Peter Costelli hit Brayden Munroe for a 60-yard touchdown and added a 19-yard scoring run to cap a 91-yard drive. From there, the defense controlled the game, holding the Eagles (0-1) to just three points, the fewest by a UNC opponent in a season opener since 2010, while forcing a fourth-quarter interception and turning away three red-zone trips. Costelli accounted for both touchdowns with 134 total yards, Mathias Price rushed for 73 of UNC's 160 ground yards, and Munroe led all receivers with 69 yards as the Bears finished with 291 total yards, converted 6-of-12 on third down, and committed no turnovers to extend their all-time series lead over Chadron State to 6-3.
- THE LAMB ERA: Head coach Ed Lamb enters year three with a clear vision for growth. A veteran of the Big Sky Conference and a two-time Eddie Robinson Award finalist for FCS national coach of the year at Southern Utah, Lamb continues to lay a foundation built on discipline, player development, and local recruiting. While the Bears went 1-11 (1-7 Big Sky) in 2024, they played their most competitive football late in the year and return several key contributors across both sides of the ball. That progress showed in Saturday's season opener, as Northern Colorado notched its first opening-day win since 2017 and first under Lamb at Nottingham Field, powered by quarterback Peter Costelli, who accounted for two touchdowns in the 17-3 victory over Chadron State.
- CHANGE AT THE HELM: After opening the season as QB1, Peter Costelli suffered a season-ending injury in the third quarter of Saturday's win over Chadron State. Redshirt junior Eric Gibson Jr. will now take over as Northern Colorado's starting quarterback. Gibson brings valuable experience to the role, having played at LSU (2021-2022) before starring at Monterey Peninsula College (2023-2024). In his UNC debut, he showed poise off the bench by completing 3-of-4 passes for 39 yards, including a 30-yard strike. With his arm strength, athleticism, and collegiate experience, Gibson is set to guide a Bears offense that features returning receivers Carver Cheeks and Brayden Munroe.
- CHAPA CHASING MORE: Cam Chapa enters 2025 as one of the top young defensive backs in the Big Sky after a breakout freshman campaign. The sophomore earned Freshman All-America honors, was named a Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week, and landed on the 2024 Big Sky Fall All-Academic Team. Chapa led the team in tackles and interceptions last season and is poised to be a cornerstone of the Bears' secondary. He was also the lone Bear named to the 2025 Big Sky Preseason All-Conference list. Chapa opened the new year with a steady performance in Saturday's season debut, recording four solo tackles as part of a balanced defensive effort. He was joined by several Bears who made big impacts, including Darrell Bryant Jr. and Zach Nowatzke, who each tallied a team-high nine tackles, with Bryant adding a tackle for loss. Mekhi Toms chipped in seven stops, while Hudson Voggesser and Makur Abram each notched sacks to set the tone up front.

- LOCAL ROOTS RUN DEEP: Northern Colorado continues to lean into its Colorado recruiting pipeline. The 2025 roster features 58 in-state players, by far the most among the state's Division I programs. Colorado State has 22, Colorado has 13, and Air Force has 11. Head coach Ed Lamb and his staff have made it a point to recruit from within state lines, giving local talent an opportunity to develop and shine at the Division I level. The approach is paying dividends, with multiple starters hailing from Colorado, including Cam Chapa, Brayden Munroe, Carver Cheeks, and Ezra Ekuban.

NOTING THE NORTHERN COLORADO-COLORADO STATE SERIES

- Northern Colorado and Colorado State are meeting for the 21st time, with the Rams holding a commanding 19-1 advantage in the series.
- The lone UNC victory came in the inaugural matchup back in 1899, a 5-0 win in Fort Collins.
- Colorado State has won the last 19 meetings, including a 38-17 victory on Sept. 7, 2024, at Canvas Stadium.
- The series was played annually in the 1920s and 1930s, with UNC facing double-digit losses in eight straight contests from 1927-36.
- Northern Colorado has faced CSU 10 times in Fort Collins (1-9) and 10 times in Greeley (0-10).
- The programs renewed the series in the modern era in 2011, with the Rams winning 33-14 at Canvas Stadium. They also met in 2016 (49-21 CSU in Fort Collins) before last year's matchup in 2024.
- UNC will be seeking its first win in the rivalry in 125 years when the teams square off again.

HEAD COACH ED LAMB

1-22 / third year

46-69 / 11th year

Ed Lamb enters his third season as head football coach at the University of Northern Colorado after being named the 17th head coach in program history on Dec. 7, 2022.

Lamb brought with him a decorated coaching résumé that includes head coaching success in the Big Sky Conference, a critical role in BYU's national resurgence, and a career-long reputation for developing programs rooted in toughness, discipline, and character.

He spent seven seasons at BYU (2016–22) as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator under Kalani Sitake. During that time, the Cougars appeared in six bowl games and posted back-to-back AP Top 25 finishes in 2020 and 2021. Lamb helped shape the program's overall structure and culture while coaching across all three phases of the game.

Before returning to BYU, Lamb made his name as the head coach at Southern Utah University, where he led the Thunderbirds from 2008 to 2015 and orchestrated one of the most remarkable turn-arounds in FCS football. He inherited a team that had lost 18 straight games and immediately elevated the program from 0-11 in 2007 to 4-7 in his first season. By 2010, SUU posted a 6-5 record and went undefeated in Great West Conference play (4-0) to claim the league title.

As SUU transitioned into the Big Sky Conference, Lamb's teams remained competitive. In just their second year in the league, the Thunderbirds went 8-5 in 2013, earning the program's first-ever berth in the FCS Playoffs. Two years later, Lamb led the Thunderbirds to a Big Sky title with an 8-4 overall mark and 7-1 conference record. Over four Big Sky seasons, his teams went 19-13 in league play, including notable FBS wins over UNLV (2011) and South Alabama (2013). He was a two-time Eddie Robinson Award finalist, recognizing the top coach in the FCS.

Now in year three at UNC, Lamb continues to instill his vision of a fundamentally sound, locally built program. The Bears have endured a full rebuild under his leadership, showing signs of progress with foundational pieces starting to emerge. In 2024, standout freshman Cam Chapa earned Freshman All-America honors and was named Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week, while a rotating cast of young offensive players gained critical experience amidst injuries, including the season-long loss of projected QB1 Peter Costelli.

Despite the 1-11 record in 2024, the Bears improved their discipline, effort, and structure — with many games decided by narrow margins. Lamb's commitment to recruiting and retaining Colorado talent has been especially evident, with UNC boasting one of the highest percentages of in-state players in the Big Sky.

Lamb's coaching career includes successful stops across all levels of college football. After launching his career as a graduate assistant at BYU in 2001, he served as defensive coordinator at the University of Idaho under Tom Cable and spent three seasons on Jim Harbaugh's staff at the University of San Diego, helping the Toreros to three straight Pioneer League championships and a combined 31-4 record.

As a player, Lamb starred at safety for LaVell Edwards' BYU teams from 1994–96, including the 1996 squad that finished 14-1, won the Cotton Bowl, and ended the season ranked No. 5 nationally. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from BYU and a master's in education counseling from the University of Redlands.
