BULLDOG BONES

- Fresno State is in the hunt for its sixth win of the season on Saturday. With a win on Saturday, Fresno State would become bowl eligible for the sixth-straight season.
- The Bulldogs return home, and to California, for the first time in two weeks. Fresno State will play its last two regular season games at home. The Bulldogs had nine of their 12 regular season games scheduled in their home state of California.
- Fresno State's 4:30 p.m. PT kickoff is its earliest home kickoff of the season.
- Fresno State has scored at least 23 points in eight of its 10 games played this season.
- Fresno State has scored at least 31 points in each of its four home games this season.
- Fresno State looks for its fourth home win of the season this Saturday, tying the number of wins at home in 2024 and 2025.
- The Bulldogs' 35 points on the road at Texas State last weekend were the most in a road game this season.
- 35 points scored in a loss were the most for Fresno State since a Dec. 12, 2020 neutral site loss to New Mexico. The Bulldogs fell 49-39 to the Lobos in the season finale.
- Each of Fresno State's five victories has come by at least 14 points, with an average winning margin of 22.4 points.
- On the opposite end of that, all four of the Bulldogs' losses in conference play have been by one possession.
- Rayshon "Speedy" Luke returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against Texas State. It was Fresno State's first kickoff return for a touchdown since 2023, and just the second one of 100 or more yards in program history.
- Luke notched the program's 12th kickoff return for a touchdown all-time. It was the longest kickoff return for a touchdown by a Bulldog since a 102-yard return by Walt Byrd against Northern Arizona on October 13, 1934.
- Luke was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his explosive return last weekend.
- The Bulldogs have had seven different starting offensive line combinations through 10 games this season.
- DB Gerayas Grimes forced and recovered a fumble on the same play against Texas State, being solely responsible for the Bulldogs only turnover gained in the game. He became the first Bulldog to force and recover a fumble on the same play since Elijah Gates at UConn in 2022.

DEEP DIVE

- Fresno State and Colorado State will meet for the 19th time. The Rams lead the series 11-7.
- The series began on Sept. 19, 1992, when Fresno State earned a 52-21 victory in Fresno.
- Fresno State is 5-5 against Colorado State at home, 2-5 in Fort Collins and 0-1 at a neutral site.
- The teams have met each year since 2024
- Colorado State won the most recent meeting, defeating Fresno State 49-21 in Fort Collins on Oct. 10, 2025.
- The Bulldogs have won the last two meetings played in Fresno, defeating the Rams 38-17 in 2020 and 28-22 in 2024.
- With a win, Fresno State would defeat Colorado State in three consecutive home meetings for the first time in series history.
- Fresno State's 52-21 victory in 1992 represents its largest win and highest-scoring performance in the series. The 52 points scored by the Bulldgs in that game were the most for any team in a single game in series history.
- The Bulldogs' narrowest win over the Rams was a 32-30 victory in Fresno on Oct. 4, 2002.
- The programs' only postseason meeting came in the 2008 New Mexico Bowl, with Colorado State winning 40-35 in Albuquerque.
- Five meetings have been decided by three points or fewer. Colorado State won 34-32 in 1993, 44-42 in 1994 and 34-31 in 2015, while Fresno State won 25-22 in 2001 and 32-30 in 2002.
- The 1994 matchup remains the highest-scoring game in the series. The teams combined for 86 points in Colorado State's 44-42 victory.
- Saturday's matchup will be the first between Fresno State and Colorado State as members of the Pac-12. The teams enter their third conference together, being previous conference opponents in the WAC and Mountain West.
- Colorado State has the edge in both prior conference over Fresno State, owning a 4-1 record over the Bulldogs in the WAC and a 4-3 record as Mountain West foes.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - The Fresno State football team suffered its first conference loss of the season, falling 49-21 at Colorado State on Friday night. The loss snapped the Bulldogs' five game winning streak.

The Bulldogs move to 5-2 overall and 2-1 in Mountain West play.

How it happened

Fresno State fell flat on its opening drive after winning the coin toss and electing to receive the opening kickoff. Colorado State took just three plays to get loose for a 73-yard touchdown run to take an early lead. After the Bulldogs picked up a big third down completion from E.J. Warner to Harold Duvall for a 23 yard pickup, Warner saw his next pass attempt intercepted and returned 27 yards.

The Rams capitalized on the turnover, scoring again to take a 14-0 lead with 5:13 left in the first quarter. Colorado State took a 21-0 lead to start the second quarter.

Fresno State was able to piece together its first scoring drive of the game, kickstarted by a 24-yard kickoff return by Rayshon Luke. Four consecutive pass completions by Warner sealed the deal as he found Josiah Freeman for a 23-yard touchdown pass with 11:42 left in the opening half.

Colorado State kept its foot on the gas, putting together an 11-play scoring drive to take a 28-7 lead. On Fresno State's next drive, Warner attempted to run for the first down but the ball was punched out and picked up by Colorado State's Paul Tangelo who returned it 36 yards for a touchdown. Colorado State led 35-7 with 5:58 left in the first half.

The Bulldogs pieced an 11-play scoring drive together as Warner found Freeman for a 26-yard touchdown. The Bulldogs trailed 35-14 at halftime.

The Bulldog defense forced its first three-and-out of the game on the opening drive of the second half with a third down stop by Finn Claypool. The offense still couldn't find its groove, but defense locked in for another three-and-out to bring Warner and the offense back out. After a kick catch interference by Colorado State, the Bulldogs took over at their own 27 yard line.

On third-and-6, an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by Colorado State gave the Bulldogs a first down at midfield. Luke got away for a 28 yard gain to the 1-yard line but a holding penalty brought the ball back. Two plays later, Warner hit Luke in the end zone from 23 yards out. The Bulldogs attempted a two-point conversion, but saw the play called back for a facemask penalty. Dylan Lynch converted on the PAT attempt to make it a 35-21 game in favor of Colorado State with 5:51 remaining in the third quarter.

Fresno State's defense came up with its third-straight three-and-out of the second half, with momentum beginning to swing for the Bulldogs. Fresno State made it down to the CSU 19-yard line, but surrendered a turnover on downs after a failed fourth-and-6 attempt.

Merhauti Xepera came up with a big third down stop, closing out the Bulldog's fourth consecutive three-and-out to end the third quarter. Fresno State's offense took over and got to the CSU33 yard line after a 33-yard completion from Warner to Jahlil McClain, but were not able to find the endzone as a fourth down pass attempt sailed far. Colorado State's offense came back out at its own 39-yard line. The Rams took just five plays to increase the lead to 42-21 with 9:15 remaining in the game.

Starting at their own 25 yard line, the Bulldogs moved 11 yards before a big 24-yard pickup from a Warner pass to Richie Anderson III. The Bulldogs faced a fourth-and-13 situation, and advanced for a first down after a Colorado State pass interference call. On another fourth down situation just plays later, Warner hit McClain to convert and set the Bulldogs up at the CSU16. Warner gained six yards, but saw those yards erased on the next play as another Bulldog false start put them back. Warner attempted to find Freeman in the end zone but the Ram defense was all over it. On his next attempt to the end zone, Warner was picked off for a touchback.

After a Colorado State false start, the Bulldog defense was off the field quickly, forcing a punt with 2:33 left in the game. Three plays into the next drive, Warner was intercepted again. Colorado State added another to the tally two plays later to make it 49-21 at the final whistle.

TEAM NOTES

Looking for win #6
With a win on Saturday night, Fresno State would become bowl eligible for its sixth consecutive season. It would be the first time since the 2000-01-02-03-04-05 seasons that Fresno State appeared in a bowl game in six-straight seasons.

Fresno State has an 18-16 all-time bowl game record. In 2025, Matt Entz became the fifth first-year head coach to lead the Bulldogs to a bowl game, joining Alvin Pierson (1945), Tim DeRuyter (2012), Jeff Tedford (2017) and Tim Skipper (2024). Entz joined Tedford as the only ones to have led the team to a victory in their first bowl game.

Fresno State has won six of its last seven bowl games, falling to NIU in the 2024 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

2025 Bowl Flashback
Fresno State defeated Miami (OH) in the 2025 Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl, 18-3. It was a historic day as the three points allowed to Miami (OH) were the fewest to an opponent in a bowl game since a shutout 3-0 win over Hawai'i in the 1941 Pineapple Bowl.

Home sweet home
Fresno State owns a 3-1 home record while averaging 39.0 points per game at Valley Children's Stadium. The Bulldogs have scored at least 31 points in every home contest, including 49 against Sacramento State and 38 apiece against Rice and Oregon State. Fresno State has welcomed 154,786 fans through four home games, averaging 38,697 per contest.

Fresno State returns home for the first time in two weeks, as the Bulldogs traveled outside of the Pacific Time Zone for the first time this season. The 'Dogs played in two different time zones in two weeks. Fresno State closes out its regular season with back-to-back home games.

Close, but not enough
All four of Fresno State's conference losses have been decided by seven points or fewer, with those contests carrying a combined margin of just 19 points. The Bulldogs' last three defeats have come by a combined 12 points, including a two-point decision at Texas State. Meanwhile, each of Fresno State's five victories has come by at least 14 points, with an average winning margin of 22.4 points.

When we win, we win big
Each of Fresno State's five victories has come by at least 14 points, with an average winning margin of 22.4 points. The Bulldogs have averaged 35.4 points while allowing just 13.0 in their wins, outscoring those opponents by a combined 177-65.

- Three victories have featured a defense that held the opposition to 10 points or fewer.

Comeback fell short
Fresno State erased a 14-point deficit and took its first lead in the fourth quarter, but Texas State scored with one minute remaining to edge the Bulldogs 37-35 last Saturday on the road. Fresno State trailed 21-7 after the opening quarter and 28-14 midway through the second, but scored touchdowns on four extended drives to move in front 35-31 with 10:33 remaining in the game.

The 35 points scored were the most for the Bulldogs in a road game this season. Despite putting up nearly 10 points more than the average on the year, the Bulldogs dropped the game in San Marcos.

- 35 points scored in a loss were the most for Fresno State since a Dec. 12, 2020 neutral site loss to New Mexico. The Bulldogs fell 49-39 to the Lobos in the season finale.

They don't call him SPEEDY for nothin
After Texas State scored on its first drive of the game, it didn't take long for Fresno State to respond as Rayshon "Speedy" Luke returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown. It was Fresno State's first kickoff return for a touchdown since 2023, and just the second one of 100 or more yards in program history.

Luke notched the program's 12th kickoff return for a touchdown all-time. It was the longest kickoff return for a touchdown by a Bulldog since a 102-yard return by Walt Byrd against Northern Arizona on October 13, 1934.

Luke is one of 27 FBS players with a kickoff return for a touchdown this season, and one of four from the Pac-12. Speedy was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his explosive return last Saturday.

TEAM NOTES

Gaining experience
Fresno State has seen 12 different players earn their first-ever collegiate start, at any level.

For Fresno State, those players include: OL Jonah Leaupepetele, RB Rayshon Luke, TE Jake Appleget, TE Dallas Gaius-Anyeagbu, OL Marquise Thorpe-Taylor, OL Ben Baker, OL Ethan Dasmann, DB Kiontre Harris, DB Gerayas Grimes, DB Jaden Carrillo, LB Niko Baumgartner, and DL Maverick Noonan.

Playing clean
Fresno State continues to set the national standard for limiting penalty yardage, leading the FBS at just 30.1 penalty yards per game. The Bulldogs rank second nationally in total penalty yards (301) and third in both fewest penalties (39) and penalties per game (3.9), leading the conference in all four categories. Fresno State was flagged just once for 15 yards at Texas State, while opponents have accumulated 23 more penalties and 188 more penalty yards this season.

More possessions, please
The Bulldogs lead the conference and rank 11th nationally in turnover margin at plus-0.80 per game, collecting 15 takeaways against seven giveaways. Fresno State leads the conference in takeaways and ranks 10th nationally in fewest turnovers lost. Eight fumble recoveries place the Bulldogs tied for 12th in the FBS, while their three interceptions thrown are tied for the eighth-fewest nationally.

Red zone strength
Fresno State leads the conference and ranks 15th nationally in red-zone defense, allowing opponents to score on just 74.2 percent of their possessions inside the 20-yard line. Only 14 of opponents' 31 red-zone trips have resulted in touchdowns, a 45.2 percent touchdown rate. The Bulldogs have held two of their last three opponents below a 70 percent red-zone scoring rate, limiting Oregon State to four scores in seven trips and Texas State to four in six.

Third quarter firepower
The Bulldogs have outscored opponents 72-18 in the third quarter, producing four times as many points as they have allowed in the period. Fresno State is surrendering an average of just 1.8 third-quarter points per game through 10 contests. That advantage has helped the Bulldogs nearly double opponents' scoring after halftime, holding a 146-74 edge across the third and fourth quarters.

Starting it strong
Fresno State ranks 11th nationally and second in the conference in kickoff returns, averaging 26.8 yards per attempt. The Bulldogs delivered their biggest return performance of the season at Texas State, totaling 153 yards on three returns, highlighted by Rayshon Luke's 100-yard touchdown. Fresno State has accumulated 402 kickoff return yards on 15 attempts, averaging 12.5 more yards per return than its opponents.

The Bulldogs lead the conference and rank ninth nationally in kickoff return defense, allowing just 14.29 yards per return. Opponents have totaled only 243 yards on 17 returns, with none longer than 22 yards. Fresno State has complemented that coverage with 29 touchbacks on 57 kickoffs and has yet to send a kickoff out of bounds.

Sack lunch
Fresno State leads the conference with 2.30 sacks per game, totaling 23 sacks for 141 yards lost. The Bulldogs have recorded at least one sack in eight of 10 games, including each of their last four. Three performances have featured at least five sacks: six at San Jose State and five apiece against Washington State and Oregon State.

Clean pocket, clear opportunities
Fresno State did not allow a sack in 34 pass attempts at Texas State, marking its fourth game without a sack allowed this season. The Bulldogs also kept the pocket clean against Sacramento State, Rice and Oregon State. Fresno State has allowed just two sacks across its last three games and ranks 47th nationally at 1.70 sacks allowed per contest.

Better on third down
The Bulldogs turned in their best third-down performance of the season at Texas State, converting eight of 13 opportunities for a 61.5 percent success rate. The eight conversions also established a season high, surpassing their previous best of six against Rice and Washington State. Fresno State has converted 18 of 39 third downs over its last three games, a 46.2 percent rate.

Ground control for 6
Fresno State has scored 19 rushing touchdowns through 10 games, including nine over its last four contests. The Bulldogs have rushed for at least three touchdowns four times this season, accomplishing the feat against Sacramento State, San Diego State, Oregon State and Texas State. Fresno State's 19 rushing scores account for nearly 60 percent of its 32 offensive touchdowns.

TEAM NOTES

Creating takeaways
Fresno State's defense was among the best in the country in 2025, finishing No. 10 in the FBS in total defense. Part of that success can be credited to the takeaways produced.

The Bulldog defense recorded 26 takeaways last season, tied for the 7th most in FBS. It was the most takeaways by the Bulldogs since 2012 (35). In 2025, Fresno State's defense recorded multiple takeaways (2+) in 8 of 13 games.

New starters
Fresno State has seen nine offensive players notch their first career starts in a Bulldog uniform, and an additional four on defense.

Offensively, RB Rayshon Luke (maybe surprisingly) had his first start as a Bulldog at No. 14 USC. On the line, the Bulldogs started C Oscar Weigel and guards Jonah Leaupepetele and Marquise Thorpe-Taylor. Fresno State also started three tight ends against the Trojans, all first-time starters in Jake Appleget, Gavin Correia and Dallas Gaius-Anyaegbu. With Leaupepetele out with injury, 8th year player Gino Quinones got his first start as a Bulldog against Sacramento State. Ben Baker earned his first start at center against Rice. Ethan Dasmann did so against Boise State.

Defensively, the Bulldogs have had three first time starters in the secondary with Gerayes Grimes, Taylor Powell and Kiontre Harris through the first two weeks. The third new starter was on the defensive line in Dylan Hampsten. LB Niko Baumgartner also had his first career start against Rice.

Year two with Entz
The Bulldogs enter their second year under head coach Matt Entz in 2026. Entz was hired in December 2024, and coached the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record in his first season. The Bulldogs won the Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl to cap the season. Entz became the second head coach to win a bowl game in their first season, joining Jeff Tedford (2017).

With nine wins, Entz is the third head coach in Bulldog history to end his inaugural season with nine or more wins, joining Tim DeRuyter (nine in 2012) and Jeff Tedford (10 in 2017).

Entz has a career Division I record of 69-15 in six years as a head coach, spending five as a national championship winning coach at North Dakota State (2019-23).

Entz became the first Division I head football coach to go 16-0 in his first full season at the helm, defeating James Madison 28-20 to win the 2019 Division I FCS national Championship. The 2019 Bison became the first modern-era college football team in any division to finish a season 16-0, joining the 1894 Yale Bulldogs as the only 16-0 teams in college football history.

Got the gang back together
Behind Entz was a successful staff, on both sides of the ball. The Bulldog coaching staff returned in 2026 with only one full-time departure, but that spot was filled internally. Fresno State managed to retain even its analysts in support roles on the staff.

No harm this year
In an era of College Football where the transfer portal is a never-ending cycle of entries, Fresno State retained a majority of its production from 2025 as the Bulldogs graduated a handful of seniors but only lost three players to the transfer portal that played 150+ offensive or defensive snaps in 2025. Fresno State is one of 12 FBS programs with three or fewer portal losses of players with that impact.

Defense clicked early
In year one under Nick Benedetto, the Bulldog defense was one of the top units in the FBS. Fresno State ranked 10th in the country allowing an average of 285.7 yards per game in 2025. Fresno State was 16th nationally in scoring defense, allowing 18.8 points per game. The success of the Bulldogs' defense in 2025 was its best since at least the 1992 season. Fresno State has not allowed fewer than 300 yards of offense to its opponent in the last three decades. Benedetto was one of four FBS defensive coordinators to be in the Top 20 in those two statistical categories in each of the last two seasons. His efforts earned him the Graphite Award for the second season in a row, being named the Mountain West Defensive Play Caller of the Year.

The entire defensive staff stayed together entering 2026, with higher expectations for the year ahead.

The 2026 Team Captains
Under second year head coach Matt Entz, Fresno State had a team vote for the captains this season. Six Bulldogs were voted by their peers to serve as captains, three from each side of the ball. Of the six, five are seniors and one is a junior. The defensive captains are Jahzon Jacks, Simeon Harris and K'vion Thunderbird. The offensive captains are Josiah Freeman, Rolan Fullwood and Rayshon Luke.

TEAM NOTES

Turning the page

Fresno State enters its first season in the Pac-12. This alignment of values and aspirations positions Fresno State to elevate its impact on the national stage. "Fresno State has always been a university of opportunity and grit, and joining the Pac-12 Conference reflects our dynamic vision for the future of our Valley," said University President Saúl Jiménez-Sandoval. "This historic move both enhances our competitiveness on the field and further amplifies our academic prestige, advancing our mission of empowering students to succeed and lead."

For Fresno State, the Pac-12 is the department's eighth conference all-time. The Bulldogs made the move from the Mountain West where they had a 66-43 all-time conference record and four championships. The four championships since 2012 are second-most to Boise State (6).

Mankins inducted into Fresno State Ring of Honor

Former Bulldog offensive lineman Logan Mankins was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Oct. 10 game against Boise State. Mankins, one of Fresno State's five first round NFL Draft picks, became the first offensive lineman into the Ring of Honor and the 14th member overall.

At Fresno State, Mankins was a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection and stamped himself as one of the best linemen in Fresno State history during his stellar career. During his senior season, he was one of the premier lineman in the nation and selected to play in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl. Mankins became the first Bulldog offensive lineman to ever win the team MVP award.

Mankins played left tackle for the Bulldogs, starting in 40 consecutive games. His only time missed was in the 2003 season with an injury suffered during camp. Mankins' consistency guided him throughout his career. He did not allow a sack in 387 consecutive pass plays to end his career, and allowed just three total QB sacks in his 40 game collegiate career.

Mankins was a first-round draft choice (32nd overall) by the New England Patriots out of Fresno State in the 2005 NFL Draft. He spent his first nine professional seasons with New England, going to a pair of Super Bowls, then was traded to Tampa Bay in 2014 where he played two more seasons. Mankins durability was one of his strongest traits, playing in 161 of a possible 176 games during his career. He was a seven time Pro-Bowl selection, and was a first team All-Pro in 2010, and second team All-Pro five times (2007, 2009, 2011-13).

Fresno State Athletics and The Wonderful Company Announce First Multi-Brand Partnership

In August 2026, Fresno State Athletics announced a major five-year agreement with The Wonderful Company™ – one of the largest agriculture companies in California's Central Valley, which produces a diverse range of products, including fruits, nuts, flowers, water, wines and juices – that will unite two of the region's most recognizable brands through the first portfolio-wide jersey patch partnership in collegiate athletics. The new agreement represents the largest corporate partnership in the history of Bulldog Athletics and aligns with The Wonderful Company's healthy consumer food products and its commitment to supporting California's Central Valley communities.

Beginning with the 2026-27 academic year, each of the 18 Fresno State Athletics programs will feature a jersey patch representing one of three Wonderful Company brands – Wonderful® Pistachios, Wonderful® Halos mandarins and POM Wonderful® – creating a first-of-its-kind platform that strategically aligns multiple brands from a single corporate portfolio across different Bulldog teams. In addition to the jersey patch, Wonderful Pistachios will have its logo on the playing surface at Valley Children's Stadium for all Bulldog football team home games.

Fresno State announces contract extension for Director of Athletics Garrett Klassy

After leading Fresno State Athletics through one of the most transformative periods in the history of Bulldog Athletics, Director of Athletics Garrett Klassy has signed a contract extension through June 30, 2031.

Klassy, who was named Fresno State's Director of Athletics in June 2024, has guided Bulldog Athletics through a pivotal period while positioning the department for continued growth and long-term success.

At the center of that transformation was Fresno State's historic move to the Pac-12 Conference, which became effective July 1, 2026. Klassy played a central role in the university's conference strategy, transition planning and competitive positioning, elevating Fresno State's national profile and creating new opportunities for its student-athletes, coaches, supporters and the broader university community.

The extension provides continued leadership for Fresno State Athletics as the Bulldogs begin competition in the Pac-12. Klassy will oversee the department's transition while continuing to prioritize the student-athlete experience, competitive success and sustainable growth across all sports.

OFFENSE NOTES

Offensive Line Shuffle

The Bulldogs have had seven different starting offensive line combinations through 10 games this season. Four of the five Bulldogs with a start have started at different spots on the offensive line.

RT Rolan Fullwood is the lone Bulldog to start all 10 games, and at the same position this season. LT Brayden Walton has only started at left tackle, but missed one game with injury.

The interior line has seen the most shifting with Jonah Leaupepetele starting three games at left guard and two at right guard. Oscar Weigel has started three at center and five at left guard. Marquise Thorpe-Taylor has started four games at right guard and one at left tackle. Ethan Dasmann started three games at right guard. Gino Quinones started two games at left guard and one at right guard before an injury.

Of all the starters combined, Leaupepetele, Weigel, Baker, Thorpe-Taylor, Quinones and Dasmann have all earned their first career starts as Bulldogs this season.

Freeman the go-to

Josiah Freeman leads Fresno State with 52 receptions and 716 receiving yards, averaging 13.8 yards per catch. He ranks third in the conference and 42nd nationally in both receiving yards and receiving yards per game (71.6). Freeman also ranks fourth in the conference and 47th nationally with 5.2 receptions per game, accounting for nearly one-third of the Bulldogs' passing yardage.

Freeman has caught at least three passes in nine consecutive games, including seven performances with six or more receptions. He has recorded at least 49 receiving yards in every game during that stretch, averaging 79.6 yards per contest. His 52 receptions are double the total of Fresno State's next-leading receiver, while his 716 receiving yards lead the team by 290.

Freeman has scored five touchdowns this season, combining four receiving scores with a rushing touchdown. He caught touchdown passes in consecutive victories over San Jose State and Rice before reaching the end zone on the ground at Washington State. Freeman added his first multiple-touchdown receiving performance of the season against Oregon State, catching two touchdown passes in the Bulldogs' 38-22 victory.

Elevating the game

Freeman has collected 20 receptions for 271 yards over his last three games, averaging 90.3 receiving yards per outing. That stretch includes six catches for 88 yards and two touchdowns against Oregon State, season highs of eight receptions and 114 yards at Utah State, and six catches for 69 yards at Texas State. His Utah State performance marked his second 100-yard receiving game of the season, joining a 100-yard effort against Sacramento State.

Mandal with a milestone and more

Jayden Mandal surpassed 2,000 passing yards for the season at Texas State, completing 20 passes for 250 yards and a touchdown. Through 10 starts, he has completed 176-of-285 attempts for 2,107 yards and 12 touchdowns against three interceptions. Mandal ranks third in the conference and 46th nationally in passing yards, averaging 210.7 yards per game.

Mandal has passed for at least 200 yards in three consecutive games and five of his last six outings. Over his last three contests, he has thrown for 714 yards and four touchdowns, averaging 238.0 passing yards per game. Mandal owns seven 200-yard passing performances this season, highlighted by a season-high 316 yards against Sacramento State.

Mandal carries a 4-to-1 touchdown-to-interception ratio, throwing 12 touchdown passes against just three interceptions in 285 attempts. He has finished seven of 10 games without an interception, including six consecutive contests from Sept. 12 through Oct. 17. During that six-game stretch, Mandal threw eight touchdown passes across 180 attempts without a pick.

The tight ends have entered the chat

Through the first seven games of the season, the Bulldog tight ends combined for 185 total yards. That includes numbers from Jake Appleget, Gavin Correia, Brock Lium and limited play from Dallas Gaius-Anygeabu.

In the last three games, that group has combined for 229 yards. The room is paced by Appleget who has proven to be a dependable target for Mandal. The senior has 14 catches for 212 yards on the year including a career-best four for 75 yards at Utah State. Gavin Correia had a career-high 47 yards on three receptions last week at Texas State. Correia and Lium have tallied touchdown receptions for that room this season.

DEFENSE NOTES

Grimes does the dirty work

Gerayas Grimes delivered his busiest performance of the season at Texas State, recording a career-high 14 tackles, including eight solo stops, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. His tackle total was the highest by a Bulldog this season, surpassing K'vion Thunderbird's 13 against Boise State. It marked Grimes' second double-digit tackle performance of the year, joining his 10-stop effort at San Jose State.

Grimes leads Fresno State with 36 solo tackles, ranking seventh in the conference at 3.6 per game. He has recorded 19 solo stops over his last three contests, including five against Oregon State, six at Utah State and eight at Texas State. His 57 total tackles rank second on the team, while his season production also includes two pass breakups, one tackle for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

On the rise

Grimes has totaled 26 tackles over his last three games, averaging 8.7 stops per contest. He has recorded at least three tackles in eight consecutive outings, with six performances of five or more during that stretch. His 14-tackle effort at Texas State doubled his previous game's total and moved him past the 50-tackle mark for the season.

Grimes forced and recovered a fumble on the same play against Texas State, being solely responsible for the Bulldogs only turnover gained in the game. He became the first Bulldog to force and recover a fumble on the same play since Elijah Gates at UConn in 2022.

Hampsten brings the heat

Dylan Hampsten leads Fresno State with six sacks and 10 tackles for loss, ranking second in the conference in both sacks per game (0.60) and tackles for loss per game (1.00). He ranks tied for 45th nationally in sacks per game and tied for 40th in tackles for loss per game. Hampsten has accounted for 26.1 percent of the Bulldogs' sacks and 20 percent of their tackles for loss.

Hampsten has recorded a tackle for loss in eight of 10 games, totaling 43 yards lost. He has produced two multiple-sack performances, recording two sacks for 16 yards lost at Washington State and two for 11 yards lost against Oregon State. His six sacks are more than double the total of Fresno State's next-leading pass rusher, helping the Bulldogs lead the conference with 2.30 sacks per game.

This is nothing new for Hampsten, however. Hampsten has appeared in 35 career games at the collegiate level between stops at Fresno State, Sacramento State and San Jose State. He has had at least 1.0 TFL in 21 career games, including eight during his time as a Bulldog.

Thunderbird leading the way

K'vion Thunderbird leads Fresno State with 78 tackles, averaging 7.8 per game to rank eighth in the conference and tied for 70th nationally. His total includes 33 solo stops and a team-leading 45 assists, giving him 21 more tackles than any other Bulldog. Thunderbird has added 5.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry.

Thunderbird recorded nine tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and an eight-yard sack at Texas State. He accounted for the Bulldogs' lone sack and three-fourths of their tackle-for-loss total in the contest. His performance raised his season totals to 5.5 tackles for loss, third on the team, and two sacks.

Thunderbird has recorded at least nine tackles six times this season, including his nine-stop performance at Texas State. He owns two double-digit tackle games, highlighted by a season-high 13 against Boise State and 11 in the victory at San Jose State. Across his six games with nine or more tackles, Thunderbird has accumulated 60 stops.

Hines sight is 20-20

Mordecai Hines has become a steady contributor down the stretch, recording 16 of his 19 tackles over the last five games. Against Oregon State, he finished with three tackles, two tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. Hines also shares the team lead with four quarterback hurries and has contributed three pass breakups, showcasing his ability to disrupt both the pocket and passing lanes.

Croix making an impact

Croix Stewart has recorded nine tackles over his last two games, including a season-high five stops and a critical pass breakup in the end zone at Texas State. He contributed four tackles at Utah State the previous week after entering that contest with one tackle on the season. Stewart is a graduate transfer from UCLA this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Among the best
Manaki Watanabe has made 15-of-19 field-goal attempts and 29-of-30 extra-point attempts, leading Fresno State with 74 points. He leads the conference and ranks 14th nationally with 1.7 made field goals per game.

Watanabe has made a field goal in all but one appearance this season and has converted multiple attempts three times. He made four field goals at San José State and Washington State, becoming one of the few kickers in program history to record multiple four-field-goal games in the same season.

An Ashland transfer, Watanabe has made 35 field goals in 21 career games. His average of 1.64 field goals made per game is third-best among all active NCAA players.

Watanabe has had four made field goals of over 50-yards. He has the most 50-yard field goals by a Bulldog in a season, and is just one 50-yarder shy of tying the program's record for career 50-yard field goals, set by Kevin Goessling (2009-10).

At San Jose State, Watanabe became the first kicker in Fresno State history to make two field goals of 50 or more yards in a single game.

Kickoff Kicker Kobzeff
Ryan Kobzeff has handled 56 of Fresno State's 57 kickoffs, averaging 62.2 yards per kick with 28 touchbacks and no kicks out of bounds. The Bulldogs have limited opponents to 14.3 yards per kickoff return, the best mark in the conference and 8th nationally.

The man, the myth, the legend
John Baxter, known for producing extremely productive special teams units and also for working with tight ends for nearly half of his coaching career, is in his fifth season of this current stint on the Fresno State coaching staff.

Baxter, with over 40 years of coaching on his resume, has experience coaching special teams, tight ends, wide receivers, running backs, linebackers and the defensive line.

In his Fresno State coaching career, Baxter has been the special teams coach for nine of the program's 12 kickoffs returned for touchdowns with the most recent coming this season with a 100-yard return by Rayshon Luke. It was Fresno State's second kickoff return for a touchdown since 2008, and the first over 100 yards since 1934.

In the program's history, Baxter has coached the 'Dogs in 19 of 43 punt returns for touchdowns, seven of 14 blocked punts returned for touchdowns, four of six blocked field goals returned for touchdowns and one of two PAT returns for two points.

Fresno State has had either a punt or kickoff returned for a touchdown in each of the last five seasons since Baxter's return on staff, ending droughts in both categories. Prior to Baxter's return, Fresno State had not had a kickoff return for a touchdown since 2008 and had not had a punt return for a touchdown since 2013.

Matt Entz was named the head coach of Fresno State football on Wednesday, December 4, 2024.

Entz led the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record in his first season at the helm. With nine wins, he secured the second-most wins by a first-year head coach in Fresno State program history. He led the 'Dogs to a win over Miami (OH) in the Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl, becoming only the second first-year head coach at Fresno State to lead the team to a bowl win in their first season.

Entz came to the Valley from USC, where he served as the assistant head coach for defense and linebackers coach. Prior to his time at USC, he was a two-time FCS National Championship winning head coach at North Dakota State.

Entz posted a 60-11 overall record in his 5 years (2019-23) as the head coach at North Dakota State for an impressive .857 winning percentage. He led his team to two NCAA Division I FCS National Championships, including in his first season as the head coach.

Throughout his time at NDSU, his Bison were 32-7 (.821) in league play and won two Missouri Valley Football Conference championships.

Entz was named the FCS National Coach of the Year in 2019 and 2021 by the American Football Coaches Association. He is a two-time finalist for the Stats Perform Eddie Robinson Award, presented to the FCS National Coach of the Year as selected by a national media panel, and he is a two-time recipient of the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year award. Additionally, he was also named the 2019, 2020 and 2021 AFCA FCS Region 4 Coach of the Year.

Entz became the first Division I head football coach to go 16-0 in his first full season at the helm, defeating James Madison 28-20 to win the 2019 Division I FCS National Championship. The 2019 Bison became the first modern-era college football team in any division to finish a season 16-0, joining the 1894 Yale Bulldogs as the only 16-0 teams in college football history.

North Dakota State completed the 2019 season with an FCS-record 37-game winning streak (beginning in the 2017 season). The streak extended to 39 games in the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and it is the third longest winning streak in Division I football history.

The 2020 Bison posted a 7-3 overall record and a 5-2 MVFC record, falling in the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs.

Entz led the 2021 squad to NDSU's ninth FCS national championship in program history by defeating Montana State 38-10 and recording a 14-1 overall season record.

In 2022, the Bison once again reached the FCS Division I national championship game, but fell to South Dakota State. They recorded a 12-3 overall record and a 7-1 MVFC record.

In 2023, Entz led the Bison to an 11-4 overall record (5-3 in MVFC play) where they reached the Division I FCS semifinal.

As head coach of NDSU, Entz tutored eight NFL draft picks, including the 2021 No. 3 overall pick, QB Trey Lance. He also had 20 players earn All-American honors between 2019-22.

Prior to being named head coach, Entz was NDSU's defensive coordinator for five seasons (2014-18). He was named the 2018 FCS Coordinator of the Year and was a finalist for the award three times. He led a Bison defense that allowed less than 14 points per game over his five seasons as the defensive coordinator and consistently ranked in the top 5 of FCS in scoring defense and total defense. NDSU had eight FCS All-American honorees on defense during his five seasons as defensive coordinator, including linebackers MJ Stumpf, Nick DeLuca and Jabril Cox.

Prior to arriving at NDSU, Entz served as the associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Western Illinois in 2013. Under his tutelage, LB Kevin Kintzel still holds the program's all-time defensive scoring record with 18 INTs and three defensive TDs. The Leathernecks led the MVFC in passing defense (149.0) and opponent first downs (16.2).

Entz spent the previous three years (2010-12) at Northern Iowa. He was named defensive line coach in 2010 and assumed defensive coordinator duties in 2012. UNI placed first in the MVFC in 2010 and 2011. In 2011, DL Ben Boothby earned AP and AFCA FCS All-American First Team honors and was also a two-time All-MVFC First Team honoree (2010 and 2011).

Entz was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2009 at Winona State, where he was promoted to associate head coach in 2003 and was with the defensive line for three years before becoming linebackers coach in 2005. He was named the AFCA Division II Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008.

Prior to that, Entz was the assistant head football coach and linebackers coach at Wayne (Neb.) State from 1999 to 2001 and the defensive coordinator at Illinois College in 1998. He holds certification from the National Strength and Conditioning Association and served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach during his time at Wayne State.

Entz earned a bachelor's degree in biology from Wartburg College in 1995 and a master's degree in education and exercise science from Wayne (Neb.) State College in 1998.

He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Kellen and Konner.

LOS ANGELES – Fresno State fell 39-0 to No. 14 USC on Friday night at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

The Bulldogs' defense forced a pair of turnovers in the loss, but Fresno State was held to 116 yards of offense as the Trojans scored 23 points in the second quarter to take control of the game.

How It Happened

USC opened the scoring with an 82-yard drive, capped by Jayden Maiava's eight-yard touchdown pass to Tanook Hines with 9:27 remaining in the first quarter.

Fresno State responded by moving into USC territory on its opening possession before the drive ended with an interception. The Bulldogs quickly regained possession when Dylan Hampsten forced a fumble that was recovered by Tytus Khajavi at the Fresno State 43-yard line.

The Trojans extended their lead early in the second quarter on a 68-yard touchdown pass from Maiava to Trent Mosley. USC added a safety midway through the period before Maiava connected with Mosley again, this time for a nine-yard score. A Fresno State fumble later gave the Trojans possession at the Bulldogs' 38-yard line, setting up Waymond Jordan's two-yard touchdown run with 14 seconds remaining in the half.

Fresno State's defense kept USC out of the end zone during the third quarter. Deijon Laffitte forced a fumble at the Bulldogs' seven-yard line, which RJ Regan recovered. USC recorded its second safety on the next play, however, to extend its advantage to 32-0.

The Trojans closed the scoring on Deshonne Redeaux's five-yard touchdown run with 5:46 left in the fourth quarter.

Fresno State put together its longest drive of the night on its final possession, covering 60 yards in 11 plays. Jayden Mandal connected with Harold Duvall for consecutive 17-yard gains as the Bulldogs advanced inside the USC 10-yard line, but the drive ended on downs at the 15.

FRESNO, Calif. – Fresno State scored 32 unanswered points in the second quarter and rolled to a 49-3 win over Sacramento State in its home opener on Saturday night at Valley Children's Stadium, securing the Bulldogs' first win in their Pac-12 era.

The Bulldogs (1-1) totaled 542 yards of offense, including 349 through the air, while keeping the Hornets out of the end zone. Quarterback Jayden Mandal completed 23-of-26 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns while adding a rushing score.

Bryson Donelson led the ground game with 102 yards and three touchdowns on 13 carries. Ezekiel Avit and Josiah Freeman each eclipsed 100 receiving yards, with Avit recording 103 yards and a touchdown on two catches and Freeman totaling 100 yards on six receptions.

The Fresno State defense held Sacramento State to 262 total yards and three points. The Hornets converted just 3-of-13 third-down attempts and 1-of-4 fourth-down tries. Martin Owusu and Maverick Noonan led the Bulldogs with six tackles apiece, while Owusu added a 14-yard sack. Simeon Harris recorded the game's only takeaway with his second-quarter interception.

HOW IT HAPPENED

After a scoreless opening quarter, Fresno State broke through seven seconds into the second when Mandal found Rayshon Luke for an 18-yard touchdown. Luke finished with a team-high six receptions for 49 yards.

The Bulldogs struck again on their next offensive play. Mandal connected with Avit for a 73-yard touchdown, and then found Gavin Correia on the ensuing two-point conversion to extend the lead to 15-0.

Fresno State put together a 58-yard scoring drive on its next possession, capped by Mandal's one-yard quarterback keeper with 6:19 remaining in the half.

Harris gave the Bulldogs another opportunity when he intercepted Jackson Sharman on Sacramento State's ensuing possession. Fresno State turned the takeaway into points with an eight-play, 63-yard drive, finished by Donelson's 11-yard touchdown run.

After the defense forced a turnover on downs with 28 seconds remaining, the Bulldogs quickly moved into scoring range. Manaki Watanabe closed the half with a 51-yard field goal as time expired, sending Fresno State into the locker room with a 32-0 advantage.

The Bulldogs continued to pull away in the third quarter. After another fourth-down stop by the defense, Fresno State drove 55 yards and Donelson scored from five yards out to make it 39-0.

Sacramento State broke up the shutout with a 35-yard field goal midway through the third, but Fresno State answered less than three minutes later. Donelson broke free for a 56-yard touchdown, his third score of the night, to push the lead to 46-3.

Watanabe completed the scoring with a 28-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. He finished 2-for-2 on field-goal attempts and converted all five of his extra-point tries.

SAN JOSE – Fresno State forced four turnovers and scored 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to defeat San Jose State 26-10 on Saturday night at CEFCU Stadium.

The Bulldogs (2-1) intercepted four passes and recorded five sacks while holding the Spartans to 10 points. Manaki Watanabe connected on four field goals, including kicks from 52 and 51 yards, and Bryson Donelson sealed the victory with a late 36-yard touchdown run.

HOW IT HAPPENED

San Jose State opened the scoring with a 45-yard field goal midway through the first quarter. Fresno State answered early in the second when Watanabe drilled a 52-yard field goal to tie the game at three.

The sophomore gave the Bulldogs their first lead with 50 seconds remaining in the half, connecting from 51 yards to put Fresno State ahead 6-3.

San Jose State moved into scoring position before halftime, but Ethan Tierney intercepted Luke Weaver in the end zone with 16 seconds remaining to preserve the Bulldogs' lead.

Fresno State's special teams created an immediate opportunity in the third quarter. Jordan Malau'ulu returned a punt 68 yards to the San Jose State 14-yard line. Two plays later, Jayden Mandal connected with Josiah Freeman for an 18-yard touchdown, extending the lead to 13-3.

Tierney came up with his second interception later in the quarter, picking off Weaver at the Fresno State 14-yard line and returning it 38 yards into San Jose State territory.

The Spartans cut the Bulldogs' advantage to 13-10 on a one-yard touchdown pass with 12:36 remaining in the fourth quarter. Fresno State responded with an 11-play, 60-yard drive that took nearly six minutes off the clock. Watanabe capped the possession with a 44-yard field goal to make it a six-point game.

Kiontre Harris intercepted Weaver on San Jose State's next possession, giving Fresno State its third takeaway of the night. The Bulldogs' defense struck again with 3:28 remaining when Simeon Harris recorded an interception at the Spartans' 26-yard line. Watanabe turned the takeaway into three more points with a 40-yard field goal, pushing the lead to 19-10.

After Fresno State forced a turnover on downs, Donelson broke free for a 36-yard touchdown with 1:09 remaining to put the game away.

FRESNO, Calif. – Fresno State scored 24 second-half points and totaled 459 yards of offense to defeat Rice 38-24 on Saturday night at Valley Children's Stadium.

The Bulldogs (3-1) overcame a three-point halftime deficit behind a balanced offensive performance. Fresno State rushed for 249 yards and passed for 210 while finishing the night without a turnover for the third-straight game.

Rayshon Luke led the ground game with a career-high 167 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries, averaging 15.2 yards per attempt. Jayden Mandal completed 22-of-34 passes for 210 yards and three touchdowns while adding 57 rushing yards. Mandal connected with three different receivers on his touchdown passes.

Defensively, K'vion Thunderbird led the defense with nine tackles. Tommy Nix added seven, while Simeon Harris and Niko Baumgartner recorded six apiece. Tytus Khajavi finished with two sacks, two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Harris recorded his third interception in as many games, picking off Brown in the first quarter and returning it eight yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Fresno State came out flat on the first possession, but the Bulldog defense came up with its first turnover of the night on the first Rice possession with an interception by Simeon Harris. Rice, however, opened the scoring on Ben Grice's 88-yard touchdown run with 5:45 remaining in the first quarter. The Bulldogs answered with an eight-play, 69-yard drive that carried into the second. Jayden Mandal capped the possession with a six-yard touchdown pass to Josiah Freeman, tying the game at seven.

The Owls regained the lead on a 40-yard touchdown pass from Jacurri Brown to Max Mosey. Fresno State responded late in the half, covering 64 yards in just 46 seconds. Mandal completed the drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Jahlil McClain with 1:04 remaining.

Rice kicked a 22-yard field goal as time expired to take a 17-14 lead into halftime.

Klcking off to start the second half, the Bulldogs spiced things up with an onside kick to take possession. The Bulldogs strung together a 12-play drive that took more than five minutes off the clock. Manaki Watanabe finished the possession with a 29-yard field goal to tie the game at 17. That would be the turning point in the game, shifting momentum in favor of the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs' defense created the game's first major turning point on Rice's ensuing possession. Tytus Khajavi sacked Brown for a 15-yard loss and forced a fumble that Dylan Hampsten recovered at the Rice 19-yard line.

Fresno State turned the takeaway into seven points. Mandal connected with Ezekiel Avit for a seven-yard touchdown, giving the Bulldogs their first lead of the night at 24-17.

The Bulldogs extended their advantage early in the fourth quarter with a nine-play, 65-yard drive. Julius Gillick scored on a five-yard run to put Fresno State ahead 31-17 with 13 minutes remaining.

Rice pulled within seven on Brown's 50-yard touchdown run, but Fresno State answered immediately. After gains of six and 17 yards moved the Bulldogs near midfield, Luke broke free for a 52-yard touchdown to restore the two-score lead at 38-24.

The defense ended Rice's final two possessions with turnovers. Loyall Mouzon broke up a fourth-down pass with 4:58 remaining, allowing the Bulldogs to run out the clock with a nine-play drive.

PULLMAN, Wash. – Fresno State held Washington State out of the end zone and scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to earn a 26-6 victory on Saturday night at Gesa Field. Fresno State won its fourth-straight game, and earned a win in its first-ever Pac-12 matchup.

The Bulldogs (4-1, 1-0 Pac-12) allowed just 182 yards of offense, including 30 on the ground, while recording five sacks and forcing two turnovers. Fresno State controlled the ball for nearly 36 minutes and held the Cougars to nine first downs.

Manaki Watanabe connected on four field goals, while Josiah Freeman and Julius Gillick each rushed for a touchdown. Quarterback Jayden Mandal completed 24-of-33 passes for 245 yards without an interception.

HOW IT HAPPENED

After stalling on its first drive, Fresno State opened the scoring with an 11-play, 72-yard drive in the first quarter. Watanabe capped the possession with a 27-yard field goal to give the Bulldogs a 3-0 lead.

Washington State tied the game with a 32-yard field goal midway through the second quarter after recovering a Fresno State fumble near midfield.

The Bulldogs answered with a nine-play, 71-yard drive. Mandal completed passes to Freeman, Dallas Gaius-Anyaegbu and Ezekiel Avit during the possession before Watanabe converted from 22 yards to put Fresno State back in front, 6-3.

Washington State made a 50-yard field goal as time expired to send the teams into halftime tied at six.

Fresno State took control following the break. After the defense forced a three-and-out on Washington State's opening possession, the Bulldogs drove 56 yards in six plays. Freeman finished the drive with a three-yard touchdown run, giving Fresno State a 13-6 lead with 9:41 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs created another opportunity on Washington State's next offensive play. Deijon Laffitte recovered a fumble at the Cougars' 24-yard line, although Fresno State's ensuing field-goal attempt was blocked.

The defense kept Washington State scoreless throughout the second half, allowing Fresno State to pull away in the fourth quarter. A 38-yard completion from Mandal to Avit moved the Bulldogs into the red zone and set up Watanabe's 31-yard field goal, extending the lead to 16-6 with 11 minutes remaining.

Fresno State's special teams unit pinned Washington State at its own four-yard line later in the quarter. The defense forced a turnover on downs four plays later, and Gillick scored from eight yards out on the Bulldogs' next snap to make it 23-6.

Justin Johnson intercepted Caden Pinnick on Washington State's first play following the touchdown and returned it 15 yards to the Cougars' 20-yard line. Watanabe converted a 33-yard field goal three plays later to complete the scoring.

FRESNO, Calif. – Fresno State's fourth-quarter comeback came up short in a 38-31 loss to No. 23 Boise State on Saturday night at Valley Children's Stadium. The Bulldogs surrendered the Milk Can trophy to the Broncos for the first time since 2021.

The Bulldogs (4-2, 1-1 Pac-12) finished with 346 yards of offense and did not commit a turnover, but Boise State controlled possession for nearly 39 minutes and totaled 512 yards.

Jayden Mandal accounted for three touchdowns, completing 19-of-33 passes for 218 yards and two scores while adding an eight-yard touchdown run. Khristian Martin completed a 59-yard touchdown pass on his only completion of the night.

How it happened

Fresno State opened the game with a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Mandal completed four passes for 57 yards before scoring on an eight-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Boise State answered 48 seconds later when Dylan Riley broke free for a 72-yard touchdown run on the second play of the drive. Zeke Martinez converted the two-point attempt to put the Broncos ahead 8-7.

The Broncos extended their lead to 15-7 on Maddux Madsen's 22-yard touchdown pass to Terrious Favors. Fresno State responded quickly, using just two plays to cover 74 yards. Martin connected with Ezekiel Avit for a 59-yard touchdown with 45 seconds remaining in the first quarter, cutting the deficit to 15-13.

Boise State put together an 18-play, 75-yard drive that lasted more than eight minutes and ended with Sire Gaines' two-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter.

The Bulldogs pulled back within two late in the half. Mandal completed five passes on a nine-play, 59-yard drive, finding Avit for a 10-yard touchdown with 56 seconds remaining.

Boise State added a 49-yard field goal just before halftime to take a 25-20 lead into the break.

The Broncos opened the second half with a drive that took nearly eight minutes off the clock and resulted in a 38-yard field goal. Boise State then extended its lead to 35-20 on the opening play of the fourth quarter when Madsen connected with Riley for a 44-yard touchdown.

Fresno State answered with an 11-play, 73-yard scoring drive. The Bulldogs converted three third downs on the possession, including Mandal's 15-yard touchdown pass to Gavin Correia on third-and-15. Mandal then connected with Jahlil McClain on the two-point conversion to pull Fresno State within 35-28 with 9:14 remaining.

Boise State responded with a 14-play drive that took 7:40 off the clock. Canaan Moore's 39-yard field goal extended the Broncos' lead to 38-28 with 1:34 left.

The Bulldogs moved 46 yards in 58 seconds on their final possession. Manaki Watanabe converted a 47-yard field goal with 36 seconds remaining, but Boise State recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock.

SAN DIEGO – Fresno State erased a 13-point deficit and took its first lead in the third quarter, but San Diego State connected on a 53-yard field goal with 57 seconds remaining to hand the Bulldogs a 26-23 loss on Saturday at Snapdragon Stadium.

Fresno State (4-3, 1-2 Pac-12) rushed for three touchdowns and finished all three of its red-zone trips with scores. Bryson Donelson led the Bulldogs with 62 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries, while Julius Gillick scored twice.

How it Happened

San Diego State (3-4, 2-1 Pac-12) opened the game with 13 unanswered points. The Aztecs capitalized on a Fresno State fumble to kick a 32-yard field goal before Jayden Denegal connected with Jaylon Hawkins for a 52-yard touchdown late in the first quarter. A 30-yard field goal extended the Aztecs' advantage to 13-0 early in the second.

Fresno State began its comeback with Manaki Watanabe's 51-yard field goal at the 7:48 mark of the second quarter.

The Bulldogs' defense created a short field moments later. Fresno State forced a fumble at the San Diego State 38-yard line, and Dylan Hampsten recovered it. Donelson finished the ensuing possession with a 4-yard touchdown run, pulling the Bulldogs within three, 13-10.

San Diego State added a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the half to take a 16-10 lead into the locker room.

After the Aztecs missed a field goal on their opening possession of the third quarter, Fresno State drove 75 yards in 10 plays to take its first lead. Gillick capped the march with a 7-yard touchdown run, putting the Bulldogs in front 17-16 with 5:16 remaining in the quarter.

The Aztecs regained the lead early in the fourth, traveling 92 yards in six plays. Bert Emanuel Jr. found Jordan Napier for a 7-yard touchdown that gave San Diego State a 23-17 advantage.

Fresno State answered with another 75-yard drive. The Bulldogs used 11 plays and nearly seven minutes before Gillick powered into the end zone from 2 yards out. Jayden Mandal got the Bulldogs into the red-zone with a 29-yard connection to Ezekiel Avit, who made the catch in triple coverage. The extra-point attempt was unsuccessful, leaving the game tied at 23 with 5:02 remaining.

San Diego State responded with a 10-play drive that set up Cooper DiLeva's go-ahead 53-yard field goal with 57 seconds left. Fresno State took over at its own 25-yard line but was unable to move the chains on its final possession.

FRESNO, Calif. – Fresno State put on a Halloween night show at Valley Children's Stadium, using a full team-effort to power past Oregon State 38-22 on Saturday night. The Bulldogs scored 17 points in the third quarter to build a 22-point lead and secure their fifth win of the season.

Fresno State (5-3, 2-2 Pac-12) totaled 392 yards of offense, including 190 on the ground and 202 through the air. Jayden Mandal completed 11-of-17 passes for 202 yards and two touchdowns while adding two rushing scores. Bryson Donelson led the ground attack with 108 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries, while Josiah Freeman hauled in six receptions for 88 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, the Bulldogs recorded five sacks and forced two turnovers. Tytus Khajavi led Fresno State with eight tackles, while Dylan Hampsten added seven tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble.

How it Happened

Oregon State (5-3, 3-1 Pac-12) threatened early after intercepting Mandal on Fresno State's opening possession. The Beavers advanced to the Bulldogs' 4-yard line, but Fresno State's defense held strong and forced a turnover on downs to keep Oregon State off the board.

The Beavers eventually opened the scoring with a 54-yard field goal from Caleb Ojeda at the 6:41 mark of the first quarter.

Fresno State answered with an eight-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to take its first lead. Mandal capped the possession with a 15-yard touchdown run, putting the Bulldogs ahead 7-3 with 1:47 remaining in the opening quarter.

Oregon State pulled within one early in the second quarter on a 28-yard field goal from Ojeda, cutting Fresno State's advantage to 7-6.

The Bulldogs responded just 45 seconds later. After a 12-yard run from Rayshon Luke, Donelson broke free for a 63-yard touchdown run, extending Fresno State's lead to 14-6 with 11:10 remaining in the half.

Oregon State put together a 14-play, 64-yard drive on its next possession but was held to another field goal. Ojeda connected from 29 yards out to make it a 14-9 game midway through the second quarter.

Fresno State answered with a seven-play, 53-yard scoring drive. Mandal connected with Freeman for a 26-yard touchdown pass, giving the Bulldogs a 21-9 advantage with 1:54 remaining before halftime.

The Beavers threatened to cut into the deficit before the break, advancing to the Fresno State 17-yard line, but the Bulldogs recovered a fumble with 12 seconds remaining to preserve their 12-point lead heading into the locker room.

Fresno State carried its momentum into the second half. After forcing an Oregon State punt on the opening possession, the Bulldogs moved 52 yards in six plays to set up a 30-yard field goal from Manaki Watanabe, extending their lead to 24-9 with 10 minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs' defense created another opportunity moments later. Oregon State fumbled on its first play of the ensuing possession, and Fresno State recovered at the Beavers' 19-yard line. The Bulldogs capitalized on the short field with a five-play drive, capped by Mandal's 3-yard touchdown run to push the lead to 31-9 with 7:37 left in the quarter.

Oregon State responded with a seven-play, 75-yard drive, finishing with a 5-yard touchdown run from Cornell Hatcher Jr. to cut Fresno State's lead to 31-16.

The Bulldogs answered with another touchdown of their own. Fresno State marched 76 yards in six plays before Mandal found Freeman for a 31-yard touchdown pass, giving the Bulldogs their largest lead of the night at 38-16 with 1:35 remaining in the third quarter.

Fresno State's defense continued to make stops in the fourth quarter, forcing turnovers on downs on consecutive Oregon State possessions to maintain its comfortable advantage.

The Beavers added a late touchdown on a 9-yard pass from Braden Atkinson to Eric Olsen with 1:45 remaining, but Fresno State recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock to seal the 38-22 victory.

LOGAN, Utah – Fresno State mounted a fourth-quarter comeback behind a late touchdown from Jayden Mandal to Ezekiel Avit, but the Bulldogs fell to Utah State 17-10 on Saturday night at Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Fresno State held Utah State to 269 yards of offense and outgained the Aggies 278-269, but was limited to 16 rushing yards and did not reach the end zone until the final two minutes.

How it Happened

After a scoreless opening quarter, Utah State broke through on the third play of the second period. Sesi Vailahi finished an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give the Aggies a 7-0 lead early in the second.

Utah State doubled its advantage on its next possession. McCae Hillstead capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run, putting the Aggies ahead 14-0 with 9:47 remaining in the first half.

Fresno State's defense kept the Bulldogs within two scores before halftime, stopping Utah State on fourth down at the Fresno State 37-yard line with 1:04 left in the second quarter.

The Bulldogs opened the second half with their longest possession of the night, traveling 66 yards in 14 plays and taking 7:42 off the clock. Manaki Watanabe completed the drive with a 32-yard field goal, cutting the deficit to 14-3 with 7:14 left in the third quarter.

Fresno State continued to threaten in the fourth. Beginning at its own 49-yard line, the Bulldogs moved to the Utah State 18 before the Aggies stopped them on fourth down with 9:15 remaining.

Utah State followed with a 10-play, 57-yard drive that ended with Kian Afrookhteh's 43-yard field goal. The kick extended the Aggies' lead to 17-3 with 4:21 left.

The Bulldogs responded with a 75-yard touchdown march. Mandal completed seven passes during the 11-play drive, including a 12-yard scoring strike to Avit with 1:30 remaining. Watanabe's extra point pulled Fresno State within seven at 17-10.

Fresno State attempted an onside kick following the touchdown, but Utah State recovered and ran out the remaining time.

SAN MARCOS, Texas - Fresno State erased a 14-point deficit and took its first lead in the fourth quarter, but Texas State scored with one minute remaining to edge the Bulldogs 37-35 on Saturday at UFCU Stadium.

Fresno State trailed 21-7 after the opening quarter and 28-14 midway through the second, but scored touchdowns on four extended drives to move in front 35-31 with 10:33 remaining in the game.

How it Happened

Texas State opened the scoring with a 12-yard touchdown pass from Brad Jackson to Zechariah Sample, but Fresno State answered immediately. Rayshon Luke returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, tying the game at seven just 15 seconds later.

The Bobcats responded with two more first-quarter touchdowns. Davian Jackson scored on a 4-yard run before Brad Jackson connected with Sample for a 30-yard touchdown on the final play of the period, giving Texas State a 21-7 advantage.

Fresno State opened the second quarter with a 10-play, 75-yard drive. Mandal completed the possession with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Brock Lium, pulling the Bulldogs within seven.

Texas State answered with a 59-yard touchdown pass from Brad Jackson to Chris Dawn Jr., but the Bulldogs again responded with a lengthy march. Fresno State traveled 75 yards in 13 plays and took 6:43 off the clock before Donelson scored on a 1-yard run, cutting the deficit to 28-21 at halftime.

After Texas State extended its lead to 31-21 on a 35-yard field goal, Fresno State reached into its special teams playbook for its third touchdown. Facing fourth down at the Texas State 19-yard line, holder Nick Verdugo pitched it up to kicker Ryan Kobzeff who took the snap and raced into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown. The score capped an 82-yard drive and brought the Bulldogs within 31-28 with 16 seconds left in the third quarter.

Fresno State's defense forced a three-and-out on the Bobcats' next possession, giving the Bulldogs an opportunity to take their first lead. Mandal directed a seven-play, 71-yard drive, which Donelson finished with a 2-yard touchdown run to put Fresno State ahead 35-31 with 10:33 remaining.

Texas State threatened to retake the lead on its ensuing possession, reaching the Fresno State 1-yard line. Gerayas Grimes forced a Torrance Burgess Jr. fumble as he approached the goal line, and would later recover the ball in the back of the end zone for a touchback with 5:55 remaining.

The Bulldogs were unable to capitalize on the turnover, however, as Texas State intercepted Mandal at the Bobcats' 48-yard line with 3:39 left. The Bobcats followed with a nine-play, 53-yard drive, taking a 37-35 lead on Davian Jackson's 2-yard touchdown run with one minute remaining. The Bulldogs blocked the ensuing extra-point attempt to keep Fresno State within two. The Bulldogs took possession at their own 25-yard line with a chance to set up a winning field goal, but a fumble on the second play of the drive allowed Texas State to secure the victory.
