Sports: Men's Basketball, Women's Basketball and Volleyball

Record Attendance: 1,157 vs. High Point - February 28, 2015

Home to CSU's men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs, the Buc Dome offers one of the most intimate settings for NCAA Division I sports in the nation. The Bucs have hosted multiple postseason competitions in recent years including a home win for the men's basketball team over Florida Atlantic in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT).

CSU has finished .500-or-better inside the Buc Dome in 43 of the building's 53 seasons including an 18-year stretch spanning from 1981-82 through the 2002-03 season. The Bucs enter the 2020-21 season with four-straight winning campaigns in the Buc Dome including back-to-back 10-win efforts and .612 winning percentage all-time in the building.

Notes of Interest

• Phlandrous Fleming Jr. is the Bucs' first-ever Preseason Player of the Year earning the nod after sitting in the league's top-10 in nearly every statistical category last season and leading the way in rebounding. Fleming was named the 2019-20 Defensive POTY for his efforts on the defensive side of the ball.

• Defending champion Winthrop was voted the preseason favorite breaking the streak from Radford, who had been tabbed favorites in back-to-back seasons.

• Four programs in the Big South - Gardner-Webb, UNC Asheville, USC Upstate and Winthrop - had two players earn All-Conference nods while Fleming took Player of the Year honors and John-Michael Wright (Runner-Up for FOTY) represented Charleston Southern and High Point.

• The third-place prediction for CSU is the highest since the 2013-14 season when the Bucs were tabbed as South Division favorites. USC Upstate, who had a strong finish to last season, was tabbed fifth in the poll for their highest prediction entering their third season as a conference member.

Barclay Radebaugh has presided over one of the most successful stretches in Charleston Southern history during his 15 years as head coach. Radebaugh is the winningest coach in school history and one of only eight coaches to win multiple Big South Coach of the Year awards. He directed CSU to NIT berths in 2013 and 2015 as well as a trip to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) in 2019 with a win over Florida Atlantic inside the Buc Dome.

For the second-straight season, the Bucs made a late-season charge to capture a top-six Big South Tournament seed as they took care of No. 10 USC Upstate in the Opening Round then proceeded to upset No. 3 Winthrop to reach the semifinals. The Bucs finished with an 18-16 overall record and 9-7 Big South mark and made their CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) debut taking down Florida Atlantic from Conference-USA before battling with Big South foe Hampton. The Bucs' push as well as individual performances helped lead to two student-athletes earning All-Big South honors - highlighted by Christian Keeling making All-Big South first team and Dontrell Shuler earning All-Freshman honors.

Radebaugh delivered one of his best coaching jobs in 2017-18 as the Bucs won eight of their final 11 games and twice pushed UNC Asheville, the league's regular season champion, to the brink. Powered by Christian Keeling and a young nucleus featuring freshmen Phlandrous Fleming Jr. and Ty Jones, among others, CSU rallied from a 2-7 start to conference play to finish 9-9. CSU's 7-2 record during the second half of league action tied Asheville for the Big South's best mark. Included in that run was a win at eventual Big South Tournament champion Radford and the Bucs' first win at Winthrop since 2002. CSU also defeated Illinois State in overtime in November, knocking off a Redbirds squad that would go on to advance to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title game. Keeling collected Second Team All-Big South honors, while Fleming was named to the All-Freshman Team and was runner-up for Freshman of the Year.

In 2016-17, a young team with eight newcomers gelled late in the year under Radebaugh's guidance. CSU went 8-8 over its final 16 games to rebound from an 0-4 start to Big South play and build momentum for the coming season. Keeling led the way with one of the best freshman seasons in Big South history. Keeling set a CSU freshman scoring record with 539 points, becoming the sixth freshman in league history to tally 500 points. He was named to the Big South All-Freshman Team and was an honorable mention all-conference pick.

Radebaugh has established CSU as a perennial Big South contender thanks in part to its ability to protect the Buc Dome. CSU went 13-2 at home in 2014-15, improving its mark in the building over a six-year stretch (2009-10 to 2014-15) to 67-18 overall, and 39-13 in Big South play.

Radebaugh led CSU to the National Invitation Tournament in 2015. The Bucs made the most of the experience just as they did in 2013, leading Old Dominion by six points at halftime before falling to the top-seeded Monarchs.

The postseason bid was CSU's second in three years after the program had just one in its first 47 years.

Saah Nimley capped off a brilliant playing career under Radebaugh's guidance by capturing Big South Player of the Year accolades. He was also named an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American, making him the first player in program history to receive the honor. Only 63 players in the entire country were recognized by the AP. Nimley finished the year ranked 5th nationally in scoring and three-pointers per game, had 17 20-point games, seven 30-point games, and was the only player in the country to record four consecutive 30-point efforts.

Will Saunders garnered 2nd Team All-Conference accolades under Radebaugh's tutelage, while Arlon Harper was named Honorable Mention All-Conference.

In 2012-13 the sophomore backcourt of Saah Nimley (All-Big South 1st Team) and Arlon Harper (All-Big South 2nd Team) led CSU to an NIT berth for just the second postseason appearance in program history. Radebaugh and a still young squad made the most of the experience, giving top-seeded Southern Miss all it could handle in a 78-71 loss before a raucous partisan crowd in Hattiesburg.

Radebaugh earned Big South Conference Coach of the Year honors for his efforts in 2011-12, as the Bucs went 19-12 and advanced to the conference tournament semifinals behind a starting lineup which featured three freshmen and a junior college transfer. CSU's 19 wins were the program's most since 1994-1995, as the Bucs secured their first winning season since 1996-1997. Senior Kelvin Martin led the way for Radebaugh's young group, as the forward played his way onto the all-conference first team while earning a nod as the league's defensive player of the year for a second consecutive season. The freshmen duo of Saah Nimley and Arlon Harper helped power a CSU offense which featured outstanding balance and had four players in double figures for the majority of the season (Martin, Nimley, Harper, and Mathiang Muo). As a team, CSU finished the season 22nd nationally in scoring (76.9 ppg), 20th in three-point field goals per game (8.4), 30th in three-point field goal percentage (38.0%), 40th in steals per game (8.1) and 27th in turnover margin (+2.7).

The Bucs opened the season in style when they led Big 12 power Kansas State by 14 at halftime, before taking the Wildcats all the way to the wire in a 72-67 loss. RICK DUCKETT

Associate Head Coach

Fourth Season

Rick Duckett, a coaching veteran with over 30 years of experience, will enter his fourth season as the Associate Head Coach at Charleston Southern in 2020-21 after coming to Charleston via an associate head role at Miami (Ohio).

Duckett's expertise and oversight of the defense helped the Bucs pull off one of the bigger wins in program history Dec. 3, 2019, a 68-60 triumph over Missouri of the SEC. In that win, the Bucs held the Tigers to just .357 from the floor and .154 mark from three-point range. CSU finished among the top-5 of the league once again and committed the fewest fouls per contest in 2019-20.

Charleston Southern's defense ranked third in the Big South Conference in points allowed per game at 69.7 PPG during the 2018-19 season while leading the league in turnover margin at +3.44. CSU's size and length provided the second-best shot-blocking squad in the Big South deterring 3.24 shots per contest and picking-off 7.74 steals - tops in the league.

Duckett's defensive expertise helped a young CSU team win eight of its final 11 games in 2017-18. The Bucs' stellar late season play was helped considerably by their ability to force turnovers. CSU led the Big South Conference in turnover margin and ranked 17th nationally in forced turnovers, causing 15.6 per game.

Known as a strong defensive coach, Duckett's career has included head coaching stints at Fayetteville State, Winston-Salem State and Grambling State, as well as a seven-year stop as an assistant under Dave Odom at South Carolina. He is a 1979 graduate of North Carolina, where he got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant on Dean Smith's staff in the 1979-80 season.

In his five seasons at Miami, Duckett helped the RedHawks rank top-35 nationally in steals three times. He was also responsible for coaching Miami's post players. Duckett arrived at Miami on John Cooper's staff, who he helped to tremendous success at Tennessee State in 2011-12. Tennessee State captured its first winning season in 16 years and first 20-win season in 32 years, going 20-13 while advancing to the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament final and earning a spot in the CIT.

As a head coach, Duckett compiled an impressive 156-98 overall record across nine seasons at Fayetteville State (1993-98), Winston-Salem State (1998-01) and Grambling State (2008-09). He posted a 73-19 mark at Winston-Salem State, earning NCAA Division II South Athletic Coach of the Year honors in 1999 and the CIAA Tournament Coaches Award in 1999 and 2000. Duckett piloted WSSU to CIAA championships in both of those campaigns.

Duckett left WSSU to join Odom's staff at South Carolina in 2001 and remained with the Gamecocks through 2008. South Carolina advanced to the National Invitation Tournament three times in that span, highlighted by back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006.

Duckett has also served as an assistant at Jacksonville (1983-84) and Central Florida (1984-85). After completing his time as a student and graduate assistant in Chapel Hill, Duckett spent two seasons as head coach of the freshman squad at Harvard (1980-82).

Duckett holds bachelor's and master's degrees from UNC. He is married to the former Letita Miller and the couple has two children, Philip and Keigan.

THOMAS BUTTERS*Assistant Head Coach*Seventh Season

Thomas Butters enters his seventh season at Charleston Southern and second in his current role of Assistant Head Coach, where he was promoted in August 2019. Butters has quickly shot up the coaching ladder serving as the Bucs' Director of Basketball Operations and video coordinator for CSU's 2015 NIT team all before being named an assistant and now Assistant Head.

In his sixth season on staff, the Bucs knocked off another SEC program in Missouri (68-60 on Dec. 3, 2019) giving the Bucs wins over four Power 5 programs. Despite injuries and a smaller rotation towards the end of the season, Butters helped the Bucs reach the Big South quarterfinals once again while Phlandrous Fleming Jr. was named the Big South Defensive Player of the Year.

A 2011 graduate of Clemson, Butters was a graduate assistant and student manager with the Tigers' basketball programs under both Oliver Purnell and Brad Brownell.

Butters was named CSU's Director of Basketball Operations in August of 2015. He helped CSU to the winningest regular season in program history in 2014-15, as the program captured its second Big South regular season title in a three-year span.

SAAH NIMLEY*Assistant Coach*Second Season

Saah Nimley joined the Charleston Southern men's basketball coaching staff in the summer of 2019 after capping off a successful playing career overseas and enters his second season on staff.

During Nimley's first season on the sideline the Bucs pulled off their first Power 5 win since he was donning the Buccaneer blue and gold - a 68-60 win over Missouri on Dec. 3, 2019. Phlandrous Fleming Jr. was also named the Big South Defensive Player of the Year after a stellar season while Deontaye Buskey and Travis Anderson had breakout campaigns. CSU finished the 2019-20 season with a run to the Big South Conference Tournament quarterfinals nearly pulling off an upset of top-seeded Radford in their building.

Nimley, a 2015 CSU graduate, is the Bucs' all-time assists leader and third-leading scorer. The Lawrenceville, Ga., native remains the only player in Big South Conference history with over 1,800 points and 500 assists. He made his pro debut with Nevezis Kedainiai, a Lithuanian team, in the Baltic League in 2015-16.

Nimley capped his CSU career with a magnificent senior campaign in 2014-15, earning Big South Player of the Year honors after ranking fourth nationally in both scoring and made three-pointers per game. His performance also garnered him Honorable Mention All-America status from the Associated Press.

COLTON EVERETT

Director of Operations

Fifth Season

Colton Everett enters his fifth season on the Charleston Southern staff in 2020-21 and third as the Director of Basketball Operations. He was elevated in the summer of 2017 after serving as the Bucs' video coordinator during the 2016-17 season.

Everett came to CSU after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant at Hawaii Pacific University. He assisted in all aspects of HPU's program, including recruiting, scheduling and film breakdown and presentation.

Everett played two years of college basketball at Sinclair Community College in Dayton, Ohio. He helped his team to a 42-19 record and was named captain as a sophomore.

While at Sinclair, Everett completed an internship with the men's basketball team at nearby Wright State University. He was responsible for videotaping, organizing emails and assisting with drills during practice. Everett has furthered his coaching acumen by serving on the basketball camp staffs at the University of Florida and St. Bonaventure University. Following two years at Sinclair, he earned his Bachelor of Science in Sports and Leisure from Ohio State University in 2013. A native of Ottawa, Ohio, and a graduate of Ottawa-Glandorf High School, Everett helped OGHS to a Division III state championship in 2008. Everett is married to the former Cady Lauf of Ottawa, Ohio.

NATE LOUIS

Video Coordinator

First Season

Nate Louis enters his first season as the Bucs' video coordinator in 2020-21. Louis played his junior and senior seasons in the Charleston Southern blue and gold and etched his name in the program's record book as one of the most efficient three-point shooters. Louis capped his career ranked among the top-5 in career three-point field goal percentage.

Louis played in 55 games in his two seasons at CSU starting 27 including the final 16 contests. Louis made 76 three-point field goals as a Buc highlighted by a 6-of-9 performance versus Presbyterian as a junior.

In his role, Louis handles the Bucs' video scouting efforts and lends a hand in operating all facets of the program.
